NOTE A BASIS OF PRESENTATION

The accompanying unaudited consolidated financial statements of Hilb, Rogal and Hamilton Company d/b/a Hilb Rogal & Hobbs Company have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States for interim financial information and with the instructions to Form 10-Q and Article 10 of Regulation S-X. Accordingly, they do not include all of the information and footnotes required by generally accepted accounting principles for complete financial statements. In the opinion of management, all adjustments (consisting of normal recurring accruals) considered necessary for a fair presentation have been included. Operating results for the nine-month period ended September 30, 2003, are not necessarily indicative of the results that may be expected for the year ending December 31, 2003. For further information, refer to the consolidated financial statements and footnotes thereto included in the company's Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2002.

Certain amounts for the prior period have been reclassified to conform to current year presentation.

NOTE B COMPANY NAME CHANGE

In September 2003, the company announced that it was changing its name to Hilb Rogal & Hobbs Company and immediately began doing business under the new name. The company's board of directors approved an amendment to the company's articles of incorporation to change the name subject to approval by the company's shareholders at the May 2004 annual meeting. The company's New York Stock Exchange ticker symbol will continue as HRH.

NOTE C ACCOUNTING FOR STOCK-BASED COMPENSATION

The company has three stock-based compensation plans. The company continues to account for its stock options using the intrinsic value method prescribed in Accounting Principles Board Opinion No. 25, Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees, and related interpretations. No stock-based compensation cost is reflected in net income, as all options granted under those plans had an exercise price equal to the market value of the underlying common stock on the date of grant.

Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 123, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation (Statement 123), as amended by Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 148, establishes accounting and disclosure requirements using a fair value based method of accounting for stock options.

NOTE D INCOME TAXES

Deferred taxes result from temporary differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities for financial statement purposes and the amounts used for income tax purposes. The company's effective rate varies from the statutory rate primarily due to state income taxes.

NOTE E ACQUISITIONS

On July 1, 2002, the company acquired all of the issued and outstanding membership interest units of Hobbs Group, LLC (Hobbs) other than those owned by Hobbs IRA Corp. (HIRAC), and all of the issued and outstanding capital stock of HIRAC, pursuant to a purchase agreement dated May 10, 2002, by and among the company, Hobbs, the members of Hobbs (other than HIRAC) and the shareholders of HIRAC. The financial statements of the company reflect the combined operations of the company and Hobbs from the closing date of the acquisition.

Hobbs is an insurance broker serving top-tier clients and provides property and casualty insurance brokerage, risk management and executive and employee benefits services. This acquisition allows the company to expand its capabilities in the top-tier market. In addition, Hobbs will provide the company with additional market presence and expertise in the employee benefits services area and an increased presence in executive benefits. Hobbs will also bring increased depth to the geographic reach of the company's existing national platform.

The amount the company paid in connection with the acquisition consisted of approximately $116.5 million in cash, which included acquisition costs of $2.3 million and the company's assumption and retirement of certain debt of Hobbs, and the issuance to the members of Hobbs (other than HIRAC) and the shareholders of HIRAC of an aggregate of 719,729 shares of the company's common stock valued at $31.6 million. In addition, the company paid contingent consideration in August 2003 consisting of $38.4 million in cash and the issuance of 1,751,747 shares of the company's common stock valued at $56.7 million. The values of the shares issued were determined based on the average market price of the company's stock over the period including two days before and after the date at which the number of shares to be issued became fixed.

The company has further agreed to assume and satisfy certain existing contingent earn-out and deferred compensation obligations of Hobbs from Hobbs' prior acquisitions estimated to approximate a net present value of $30 million as of the date of acquisition. The assumed contingent payments and existing earn-outs will be recorded when their respective contingencies are resolved and consideration is paid.

The pro forma net income results for the nine months ended September 30, 2002 include a cumulative effect of accounting change of $3.9 million ($0.12 per share) related to the company's change in revenue recognition policy (see Note L) and an extraordinary loss of $0.4 million ($0.01 per share) related to Hobbs' debt extinguishment.

During the first nine months of 2003, the Company also acquired certain assets and liabilities of eight insurance agencies and other accounts for approximately $36.9 million ($12.5 million in cash, $10.9 million in guaranteed future payments and 369,558 shares of common stock). The purchase price may be increased based on agency profitability as provided in the contracts. These acquisitions are not material to the consolidated financial statements individually or in aggregate.

NOTE H INTEGRATION COSTS

The company began the integration of Hobbs with the rest of the company subsequent to June 30, 2003 with the completion of the Hobbs earn-out. For the three months and nine months ended September 30, 2003, the company recognized integration costs, net of tax, of $1.9 million, or $0.06 per share. These amounts represent costs such as severance, other employee-related costs and branding-related expenses.

NOTE I RETIREMENT BENEFIT

In March 2003, Andrew L. Rogal, the company's chairman and chief executive officer, announced his decision to retire for personal reasons following the company's annual meeting of shareholders on May 6, 2003. The company recorded a one-time retirement benefit charge, net of tax, of $3.2 million, or $0.09 per share, for the three months ended March 31, 2003, representing a contractual retirement benefit for Mr. Rogal. The charge consists primarily of compensation and the accelerated vesting of stock options and non-vested stock. The company's board of directors elected Martin L. (Mell) Vaughan, III to succeed Mr. Rogal as chairman and chief executive officer.

NOTE J LONG-TERM DEBT

In July 2003, the company amended the bank credit facility to increase the available revolving credit portion of the facility to $130.0 million and extend the revolving credit maturity to December 31, 2006. In addition, the company modified certain covenants and repaid $12.9 million of the term loans outstanding under the bank credit facility.

NOTE K ACCOUNTING PRONOUNCEMENT

In January 2003, the Financial Accounting Standards Board issued Interpretation No. 46, Consolidation of Variable Interest Entities (FIN 46). FIN 46's consolidation provisions applied immediately to variable interests in variable interest entities (VIEs) created after January 31, 2003. For variable interests created in VIEs before February 1, 2003, FIN 46's consolidation provisions apply as of the end of the first interim or annual period ending after December 15, 2003, or as of December 31, 2003 for the company. The company did not create any variable interests in VIEs subsequent to January 31, 2003. The company is continuing to evaluate the effect of FIN 46 but does not expect that it will have a material effect.

NOTE L CHANGES IN METHOD OF ACCOUNTING

Effective January 1, 2002, the company changed its method of accounting for commissions on premiums billed and collected directly by insurance carriers on its middle-market property and casualty business. Prior to 2002, this revenue was recognized when received. Beginning January 1, 2002, this revenue is recorded on the later of the billing date or the effective date, consistent with the revenue recognition policy for agency billed business. This is the predominant practice followed in the industry. Management believes that this new methodology is preferable and that it better matches the income with the related expenses. For the three months ended September 30, 2002, the effect of this change to net income was less than $5,000. For the nine months ended September 30, 2002, the effect of this change was to increase net income by $5.5 million ($0.17 per share), which included the cumulative effect adjustment of $3.9 million ($0.12 per share), net of income taxes of $2.6 million.

Item 2.

MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

In September 2003, the company announced that it was changing its name to Hilb Rogal & Hobbs Company and immediately began doing business under the new name. The company's board of directors approved an amendment to the company's articles of incorporation to change the name subject to approval by the company's shareholders at the May 2004 annual meeting. The company's New York Stock Exchange ticker symbol will continue as HRH.

On July 1, 2002, the company acquired all of the issued and outstanding membership interest units of Hobbs Group, LLC (Hobbs) other than those owned by Hobbs IRA Corp. (HIRAC), and all of the issued and outstanding capital stock of HIRAC, pursuant to a purchase agreement dated May 10, 2002, by and among the company, Hobbs, the members of Hobbs (other than HIRAC) and the shareholders of HIRAC. The assets and liabilities of Hobbs have been revalued to their respective fair market values. The financial statements of the company reflect the combined operations of the company and Hobbs from the closing date of the acquisition.

Results of Operations:

Three Months Ended September 30, 2003

Net income for the three months ended September 30, 2003 was $18.4 million, or $0.50 per share, compared with $17.2 million, or $0.53 per share, for the comparable period last year. Net income for the 2003 quarter included integration costs, net of tax, of $1.9 million, or $0.06 per share. Integration costs represent costs such as severance, other employee-related costs and branding-related expenses related to the Hobbs integration. In addition, non-operating gains, net of tax, were $391 thousand and $56 thousand for the three months ended September 30, 2003 and 2002, respectively. Non-operating gains and losses relate to the sale of insurance accounts and other assets. Dilutive weighted average shares outstanding for the quarter increased 10.1% from a year ago, reflecting acquisition-related share issuances primarily for Hobbs and a public offering in November 2002.

Commissions and fees were $137.1 million, an increase of 8.1%, from commissions and fees of $126.8 million during the comparable period of the prior year. Approximately $6.6 million of commissions were derived from acquisitions of new insurance agencies in 2003 and 2002. This increase was offset by decreases of approximately $0.6 million from the sale of certain offices and accounts in 2003 and 2002. Excluding the effect of acquisitions and dispositions, commissions and fees from operations owned during both periods increased 3.4%. This organic growth was impacted by industry trends, including lower than expected premium increases, particularly in complex property insurance, program redesigns induced by client economic pressures, and legislative uncertainties in executive benefits, and by an unexpected productivity lull at Hobbs that occurred after the earn-out. In addition, revenues for any given quarter will vary based on the timing of net new business, policy renewals and billings.

Expenses for the quarter increased $8.9 million or 8.9%, which included Hobbs integration costs of $3.2 million as described above. Compensation and benefits, other operating expenses and depreciation expense increased $4.1 million, $2.1 million and $0.3 million, respectively. Compensation and benefits increased primarily due to acquisitions of insurance agencies and increased revenue production partially offset by reductions for performance-based compensation. Other operating expenses increased mainly due to acquisitions and increased revenue production. Depreciation expense increased principally due to acquisitions of new insurance agencies. Amortization of intangibles increased approximately $0.4 million due primarily to intangible assets acquired in 2003. Interest expense decreased $1.2 million due to reduced borrowings primarily generated by the company's repayment of outstanding term loans in July 2003 and the conversion of the company's convertible debt to stock in November 2002.

The company's overall tax rate for the three months ended September 30, 2003 was 40.8% and was comparable to 40.7% for the same period of the prior year.

Nine Months Ended September 30, 2003

Net income for the nine months ended September 30, 2003 increased to $55.5 million, or $1.53 per share, from $48.9 million, or $1.53 per share, for the prior year period. Net income for the nine months ended September 30, 2003 included a one-time retirement benefit charge, net of tax, of $3.2 million, or $0.09 per share, and Hobbs integration costs, net of tax, of $1.9 million, or $0.06 per share. For the 2002 nine-month period, net income reflected a one-time addition, net of tax, of $3.9 million, or $0.12 per share, for a cumulative effect of an accounting change relating to revenue recognition. In addition, non-operating gains, net of tax, were $313 thousand and non-operating losses, net of tax, were $68 thousand for the nine months ended September 30, 2003 and 2002, respectively. The per share amount for the nine months is based on an 11.1% higher dilutive share count than the prior year due to similar factors as noted above for the three-month period.

Commissions and fees for the nine months ended September 30, 2003 increased 29.8% to $415.5 million from $320.2 million during the prior year period. Approximately $76.4 million of commissions were derived from acquisitions of new insurance agencies in 2003 and 2002. This increase was offset by decreases of approximately $2.0 million from the sale of certain offices and accounts in 2003 and 2002. Excluding the effect of acquisitions and dispositions, commissions and fees from operations owned during both periods increased 6.5%. This organic growth principally reflects similar trends as noted for the three-month period, in addition to higher contingent and override commissions, which are heavily weighted in the first quarter.

Expenses for the nine months ended September 30, 2003 increased $78.8 million or 31.7% from the prior year period. For the 2003 nine-month period, expenses include a one-time retirement benefit charge of $5.2 million and Hobbs integration costs of $3.2 million. Compensation and benefits, other operating expenses and depreciation expense increased $49.7 million, $15.0 million and $1.5 million, respectively. Compensation and benefits increased primarily due to acquisitions of insurance agencies and increased revenue production slightly offset by reductions for performance-based compensation. Other operating expenses increased mainly due to acquisitions, higher insurance costs and increased revenue production. Depreciation expense increased principally due to acquisitions of new insurance agencies. Amortization of intangibles increased approximately $3.7 million due primarily to intangible assets acquired in 2003 and 2002 acquisitions, mainly Hobbs. Interest expense increased $0.6 million due to increased borrowings related to the Hobbs acquisition partially offset by the factors noted above for the quarter.

The company's overall tax rate for the nine months ended September 30, 2003 was 40.8% and was comparable to 40.7% for the same period of the prior year.

Other

For the three months ended September 30, 2003, net income as a percentage of revenues did not vary significantly from the three months ended June 30, 2003. Commission income was consistent for the two periods. In addition, net income for the three months ended September 30, 2003 included integration costs, net of tax, of $1.9 million.

The timing of contingent commissions, policy renewals and acquisitions may cause revenues, expenses and net income to vary significantly from quarter to quarter. As a result of the factors described above, operating results for the nine months ended September 30, 2003 should not be considered indicative of the results that may be expected for the entire year ending December 31, 2003.

Liquidity and Capital Resources:

Net cash provided by operations totaled $99.5 million and $74.9 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2003 and 2002, respectively, and is primarily dependent upon the timing of the collection of insurance premiums from clients and payment of those premiums to the appropriate insurance underwriters.

The company has historically generated sufficient funds internally to finance capital expenditures for property and equipment. Cash expenditures for the acquisition of property and equipment were $8.5 million and $4.4 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2003 and 2002, respectively. The timing and extent of the purchase and sale of investments is dependent upon cash needs and yields on alternate investments and cash equivalents. The purchase of insurance agencies utilized cash of $45.9 million and $105.6 million in the nine months ended September 30, 2003 and 2002, respectively. Cash expenditures for such insurance agency acquisitions have been primarily funded through operations and long-term borrowings. In addition, a portion of the purchase price in such acquisitions may be paid through the company's common stock and/or deferred cash and common stock payments. The company did not have any material capital expenditure commitments as of September 30, 2003.

Financing activities utilized cash of $43.7 million and provided cash of $93.5 million in the nine months ended September 30, 2003 and 2002, respectively, as the company repurchased common stock in 2003 and made dividend and debt payments. The company has annually increased its dividend rate and anticipates the continuance of its dividend policy. The company repurchased 278,400 shares of its common stock for $8.3 million during the nine months ended September 30, 2003. In addition, the company repurchased 293,300 shares of its common stock for $8.7 million in the month of October 2003. The company did not repurchase any shares during the nine months ended September 30, 2002. The company is currently authorized to purchase up to $50.0 million of its common stock in 2003 and $20.0 million annually in subsequent years subject to market conditions and other factors. As of September 30, 2003, the company has a bank credit facility with $154.7 million outstanding under a term loan facility and $130.0 million available for future borrowings under a revolving credit facility. The term loan facility is due in various amounts through 2007, including $149.6 million due in 2007.

In July 2003, the company amended the bank credit facility to increase the available revolving credit portion of the facility to $130.0 million and extend the revolving credit maturity to December 31, 2006. In addition, the company modified certain covenants of the bank credit facility and repaid $12.9 million of the term loans outstanding under the bank credit facility.

The company had a current ratio (current assets to current liabilities) of 1.00 to 1.00 as of September 30, 2003. Shareholders' equity of $425.2 million at September 30, 2003, is improved from $310.6 million at December 31, 2002. The debt to equity ratio at September 30, 2003 of 0.38 to 1.00 is decreased from the ratio at December 31, 2002 of 0.57 to 1.00 due to net income, the issuance of common stock and decreased debt partially offset by repurchases of the company's common stock.

The company believes that cash generated from operations, together with proceeds from borrowings, will provide sufficient funds to meet the company's short and long-term funding needs.

Business Acquisition

On July 1, 2002, the company acquired Hobbs pursuant to a purchase agreement dated May 10, 2002. Hobbs is one of the nation's premier insurance brokers serving top-tier clients and provides property and casualty insurance brokerage, risk management and executive and employee benefits services. The amount the company paid in connection with the acquisition consisted of $116.5 million in cash and the issuance of 719,729 shares of the company's common stock. In addition, the company paid contingent consideration in August 2003 consisting of $38.4 million in cash and the issuance of 1,751,747 shares of the company's common stock.

Market Risk

The company has certain investments and utilizes derivative financial instruments (on a limited basis) which are subject to market risk; however, the company believes that exposure to market risk associated with these instruments is not material.

Accounting Pronouncement

In January 2003, the Financial Accounting Standards Board issued Interpretation No. 46, Consolidation of Variable Interest Entities (FIN 46). FIN 46's consolidation provisions applied immediately to variable interests in variable interest entities (VIEs) created after January 31, 2003. For variable interests created in VIEs before February 1, 2003, FIN 46's consolidation provisions apply as of the end of the first interim or annual period ending after December 15, 2003, or as of December 31, 2003 for the company. The company did not create any variable interests in VIEs subsequent to January 31, 2003. The company is continuing to evaluate the effect of FIN 46 but does not expect that it will have a material effect.

Change in Accounting Principle

Effective January 1, 2002, the company changed its method of accounting for commissions on premiums billed and collected directly by insurance carriers on its middle-market property and casualty business. Prior to 2002, this revenue was recognized when received. Beginning January 1, 2002, this revenue is recorded on the later of the billing date or the effective date, consistent with the revenue recognition policy for agency billed business. This is the predominant practice followed in the industry. Management believes that this new methodology is preferable and that it better matches the income with the related expenses. For the three months ended September 30, 2002, the effect of this change to net income was less than $5,000. For the nine months ended September 30, 2002, the effect of this change was to increase net income by $5.5 million ($0.17 per share), which included the cumulative effect adjustment of $3.9 million ($0.12 per share), net of income taxes of $2.6 million.

Forward-Looking Statements

The company cautions readers that the foregoing discussion and analysis includes forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and are subject to the safe harbor created by that Act. These forward-looking statements are believed by the company to be reasonable based upon management's current knowledge and assumptions about future events, but are subject to the uncertainties generally inherent in any such forward-looking statement, including factors discussed above as well as other factors that may generally affect the company's business, financial condition or operating results. Reference is made to the discussion of Forward-Looking Statements contained in Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations in the company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2002 regarding important risk factors and uncertainties that could cause actual results, performance or achievements to differ materially from future results, performance or achievements expressed or implied in any forward-looking statement made by or on behalf of the company.

Item 3.

QUANTITATIVE AND QUALITATIVE DISCLOSURES ABOUT MARKET RISK

The company believes that its exposure to market risk associated with transactions using certain investments and derivative financial instruments is not material.

Item 4. CONTROLS AND PROCEDURES

As of the end of the period covered by this report on Form 10-Q, the company's management, including the chief executive officer and the chief financial officer, performed an evaluation of the effectiveness of the design and operation of the company's disclosure controls and procedures (as defined in Rules 13a-15(e) and 15d-15(e) promulgated under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended). Based on that evaluation, the company's management, including the chief executive officer and chief financial officer, concluded that the company's disclosure controls and procedures were effective as of that evaluation date. Management is also responsible for establishing and maintaining adequate internal control over the company's financial reporting. There have been no changes in the company's internal control over financial reporting during the three months ended September 30, 2003, that have materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect, the company's internal control over financial reporting.
