[] report on Form 10-K, Form 20-F, Form 11-K, Form N-SAR or Form N-CSR, or portion thereof, will be filed on or before the fifteenth calendar day following the prescribed due date; or the subject quarterly report or transition report on Form 10-Q, or portion thereof, will be filed on or before the fifth calendar day following the prescribed due date; and

(c) The accountant's statement or other exhibit required by Rule 12b-25(c) has been attached, if applicable.

PART III
NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Forms 10-K, 11-K, 20-F, 10-Q, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

As reported in its Current Reports on Form 8-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") on February 27, 2003 and March 20, 2003, HEALTHSOUTH Corporation (the "Company") disclosed that the SEC and the Department of Justice ("DOJ") were investigating the financial reporting and related activity of the Company. As reported in its Current Report on Form 8-K filed with the SEC on March 26, 2003, the Company announced that in light of the SEC and DOJ investigations into its financial reporting and related activity calling into question the accuracy of the Company's previously filed financial statements, such financial statements should no longer be relied upon. In addition, the Company announced that it has engaged forensic auditors to assist the Company in investigating the allegations in connection with the Company's financial statements and related disclosures.

Because this review is ongoing, the Company is unable to complete the preparation of its financial statements for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2002 or receive an independent auditors' report thereon and, therefore, will not be able to file its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2002 on a timely basis. The Company intends to file such report as soon as practicable.

reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof?

Yes No

If so: attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

The Company has engaged forensic auditors to assist the Company in investigating allegations contained in a civil complaint filed by the SEC asserting fraud in connection with the Company's financial statements and related disclosures. Pending the completion of the Company's audited financial statements to be included in its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2002, the registrant is unable to determine whether there will be any such change in its results of operations.
