NOTE TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS: Interim financial statements reflect all adjustments which are, in the opinion of management, necessary to a fair statement of the results for the periods. The December 31, 2001 balance sheet has been derived from the audited financial statements. These interim financial statements conform with the requirements for interim financial statements and consequently do not include all the disclosures normally required by generally accepted accounting principles.

Item 2.Management's Discussion and Analysis or Plan of Operation.

Plan of Operation.

The Company has not engaged in any material operations in the period ending September 30, 2002, or for the past twelve calendar years. The Company intends to continue to seek out the acquisition of assets, property or business that may be beneficial to the Company and its stockholders.

During the next 12 months, the Company's only foreseeable cash requirements will relate to maintaining the Company in good standing or the payment of expenses associated with reviewing or investigating any potential business venture. If additional moneys are needed, they may be advanced by management or principal stockholders as loans to the Company. Because the Company has not identified any such venture as of the date of this Report, it is impossible to predict the amount of any such loan. However, any such loan will not exceed $25,000 and will be on terms no less favorable to the Company than would be available from a commercial lender in an arm's length transaction. As of the date of this Report, the Company has not begun seeking any acquisition.

Results of Operations.

During the quarterly period ended September 30, 2002, the Company had no business operations. During this period, the Company received total revenues of $0 and had a loss of $0.

Liquidity.

At September 30, 2002, the Company had total current assets of $0 and total liabilities of $30,444.
