Explanation of Responses:

- (1) On June 29, 2001, GenesisIntermedia, Inc. (the "Company") announced that it had received a conditional loan commitment for a $100 million credit facility from Riverdale LLC, a company owned by Carl C. Icahn. It also announced that concurrently the parties agreed to principal terms relating to investment banking services to be provided by Riverdale or its affiliates. The Company further announced that consummation of the financing transactions is subject to the negotiation and execution of definitive credit and security documents and that consummation of any financings under the facility would be subject to a number of conditions, including credit review of potential acquisition targets, lender due diligence of the acquisitions and other conditions to be set forth in any definitive credit agreement.

The Company also announced that, in conjunction with the conditional commitment and investment banking services, the Company agreed to issue warrants to purchase 4 million shares of common stock of the Company to Riverdale and agreed to grant to Riverdale registration rights with respect to the common stock issuable upon exercise of the warrants. The Company also announced that concurrently with this issuance, Reporting Person, the Company's chairman, agreed to grant to Riverdale options to acquire 1.5 million shares of common stock held by him. The Company also announced that concurrent with the Company's agreement to grant 4 million warrants to Riverdale, Reporting Person agreed to grant to the Company options to acquire 1 million shares of common stock held by Reporting Person. The stock options identified in Table II above reflect the stock options granted by the Reporting Person to Riverdale LLC and the Company. The options granted to the Company are exercisable to the extent Riverdale exercises the same priced warrants issued to it by the Company. The options become exercisable within five (5) days after execution and delivery of a credit agreement between Riverdale and the Company.
