PROXY STATEMENT

INTRODUCTION

The enclosed proxy is solicited on behalf of the present Board of Directors (sometimes referred to as the "Board") of Robert Half International Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), the principal executive offices of which are located at 2884 Sand Hill Road, Menlo Park, California 94025. The approximate date on which this proxy statement and the enclosed proxy are being mailed to the Company's stockholders is March 28, 2003. The proxy is solicited for use at the annual meeting of stockholders (the "Meeting") to be held at 9:00 a.m. on Thursday, May 8, 2003, at The Westin Hotel San Francisco Airport, 1 Old Bayshore Highway, Millbrae, California, 94030. Only stockholders of record on March 14, 2003 will be entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the Meeting and any adjournment of the Meeting. Each share is entitled to one vote. At the close of business on March 14, 2003 the Company had outstanding and entitled to vote 170,526,365 shares of its common stock, $.001 par value ("Common Stock").

A stockholder giving a proxy in the form accompanying this proxy statement has the power to revoke the proxy prior to its exercise. A proxy can be revoked by an instrument of revocation delivered prior to the Meeting to the Secretary of the Company, by a duly executed proxy bearing a date later than the date of the proxy being revoked, or at the Meeting if the stockholder is present and elects to vote in person. Solicitation of proxies may be made by directors, officers or employees of the Company by telephone or personal interview as well as by mail. Costs of solicitation will be borne by the Company.

An automated system administered by the Company's transfer agent will tabulate votes cast at the Meeting. Abstentions and broker non-votes are each included in the determination of the number of shares present and voting, and each is tabulated separately. Abstentions are counted in tabulations of the votes cast on proposals presented to stockholders or with respect to election of directors, whereas broker non-votes are not counted for purposes of determining whether a proposal has been approved or a nominee has been elected.

The Company effected a two-for-one stock split in the form of a stock dividend in June 2000. All share and price per share amounts in this Proxy Statement have been restated, as appropriate, to reflect the stock split.

NOMINATION AND ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

Nominees of the Present Board of Directors

The By-Laws of the Company provide for a Board of Directors consisting of not less than six nor more than eleven directors. The size of the Board of Directors is presently set at seven and there are no vacancies.

The Board of Directors is divided into three classes serving staggered three year terms. Currently, there are two directors in Class II, whose terms expire in 2005, two directors in Class III, whose terms expire in 2004, and three directors in Class I, whose terms expire at the Meeting. Each Director holds office until the annual meeting in the year in which his term expires and until his successor is elected and qualified.

The current members of Class I, whose terms expire at the Meeting, are Andrew S. Berwick, Jr., Frederick P. Furth and M. Keith Waddell, all of whom are nominees.

Proxies cannot be voted for more than three persons. Directors are elected by a plurality of the votes of the shares present in person or represented by proxy at the Meeting. Proxies solicited by the Board will be voted "FOR" the election of Messrs. Berwick, Furth and Waddell unless stockholders specify in their proxies to the contrary. Although the Board does not expect any nominee to become unavailable to serve as a director for any reason, should that occur before the Meeting, proxies will be voted for the balance of those named and such substitute nominee as may be selected by the Board.

The following table lists the name of each current member of the Board of Directors, his age at January 31, 2003, the Class of which he is a member and the period during which he has served as a director.

All restricted stock awards vest automatically upon the occurrence of a Change in Control. The executive officers have the right to receive any dividends paid on restricted shares.
- (b) Determined by multiplying the number of shares granted by the fair market value of the Company's Common Stock on the date of grant, without giving effect to the diminution of value attributable to vesting restrictions.
- (c) Mr. Messmer's amount in this column includes $12,627 with respect to life insurance. In order for the assumed values to be realized, the total market value of all outstanding shares of the Company's Common Stock would have to increase by more than $1.3 billion from its value on the grant date.

- (a) All grants entitle the holder to satisfy tax withholding obligations resulting from exercise by reduction in the number of shares otherwise deliverable. In addition to the specified vesting schedule, (i) these options may vest upon termination of employment under certain circumstances pursuant to their respective severance agreements described below, (ii) all grants vest automatically upon death, disability or the occurrence of a change in control and (iii) all grants are subject to accelerated vesting at the discretion of the Stock Plan Committee.
- (b) Calculated in accordance with the Binomial Model for estimating the value of stock options, which estimates the present value of an option based upon assumptions as to future variables such as interest rate and stock price volatility. The Binomial calculations assumed an expected volatility of 54.65%, an interest rate of 2.87%, no dividends, a 3% annual reduction until the option is fully vested to reflect risk of forfeiture and a tenor of 5.82 years. The actual value, if any, realized on the exercise of an option will depend on the excess of the fair market value of the stock over the exercise price on the date the option is exercised, and may be substantially different from the value estimated by the Binomial Model.
- (c) This option becomes exercisable in four equal installments on October 30, 2003, October 30, 2004, October 30, 2005 and October 30, 2006.

Harold M. Messmer, Jr., Chairman of the Board, President and Chief Executive Officer, has an employment agreement with the Company terminating December 31, 2006. Under the terms of the employment agreement, Mr. Messmer will receive a base annual salary of not less than $525,000 and will receive certain other benefits, including life insurance and tax planning. In the event the employment of Mr. Messmer is terminated involuntarily other than for cause, or voluntarily within one year following a change in control of the Company, he is entitled to receive severance compensation. The amount of such severance compensation shall be, at Mr. Messmer's election, either (i) an annual payment, through the stated expiration date of his agreement, equal to the sum of his base salary, at the rate in effect on the date of termination, and an amount equal to his bonus for the calendar year prior to termination, or (ii) the present value of such payments. If Mr. Messmer's employment is terminated by reason of death or disability, he or his estate will receive only 75% of his base salary through the termination date of the agreement and will not receive any amount in lieu of bonus. If Mr. Messmer's employment terminates other than for cause, he and his wife will continue thereafter to participate in the Company's healthcare plan for its employees, at Company expense. The employment agreement provides for automatic renewal for an additional year on each December 31.

Severance agreements have been entered into with Messrs. Messmer, Waddell, Gentzkow, Glass and Karel. Each severance agreement provides that the employee will be paid 24 months base salary (36 months if the employee has served as a director) if his employment is terminated without cause, as defined in the agreement. The terminated employee will also receive a pro rata share of any bonus he would otherwise have received pursuant to any bonus plan if his employment had not been terminated, such amount to be paid when bonuses are generally paid pursuant to the plan. However, if the termination occurs within one year following a change in control of the Company (as defined in the agreements), then in lieu of the foregoing bonus payment the employee will receive monthly payments equal to 1/12 of the prior year's bonus for 24 months (36 months if the employee has served as a director). Notwithstanding the foregoing, no individual shall receive salary and bonus payments under both this agreement and any other agreement. Instead, only the greater of such benefits provided by either agreement shall be paid. On the termination date, any unvested stock or options would become fully vested, as would any amounts accrued for the employee's benefit under the Deferred Compensation Plan or Senior Executive Retirement Plans (defined contribution plans that pay benefits only upon retirement, death or other termination of employment). With respect to Mr. Gentzkow, only stock or options granted subsequent to his election as an officer would become vested unless the termination is a result of his death or disability or is within twelve months following a change in control. In addition, if the employee has served as a director, the foregoing benefits will be provided in the event of any voluntary termination within one year following a change in control.

The Company has entered into Agreements with each of Messrs. Messmer, Waddell, Gentzkow, Glass and Karel. Each Agreement provides that the employee will be retained as a part-time employee for a four year period following retirement. The individual will provide advice and counsel as requested during the part-time employment period and will be prohibited from competing with the Company during that period. In return, the individual will receive annual compensation during the part-time employment equal to 8% of the total cash base salary and bonus paid during the last complete calendar year prior to retirement, and stock option and restricted stock awards made prior to retirement will remain outstanding. For purposes of the Agreements, retirement is defined to be any termination by the employee of his employment subsequent to the later of age 55 or 20 years of service.

The Company had in effect a key executive retirement plan, which was terminated in 1987. Participants in the plan prior to its termination will continue to receive benefits thereunder. The only current employee participating in the plan is Mr. Messmer, who participates pursuant to a separate retirement agreement. Under Mr. Messmer's retirement agreement, as amended, if Mr. Messmer's employment is terminated (whether voluntarily or involuntarily) for any reason, he is to receive monthly benefits commencing the month following the date of his employment termination. Monthly benefit payments are a specified percentage, depending upon his age at retirement, (the "Retirement Percentage") of the sum of $2,500 plus 1/12 of Mr. Messmer's highest combination of Salary and Bonus (as such terms are defined in his retirement agreement) with respect to any of the five calendar years prior to the date his employment with the Company terminates. For purposes of the retirement agreement, Salary is defined as the greater of (a) actual cash base salary paid during the year or (b) the amount calculated for the year by increasing $413,019 annually each calendar year after 1995 on a compound basis by the annual percentage increase in the Consumer Price Index for the preceding calendar year (but not by more than 10% or less than 4%) through the date of retirement. Bonus is defined as cash bonus or amounts paid in lieu of cash bonus. The Retirement Percentage (which was established at its current levels on the recommendation of an outside compensation consulting firm) is 30% if Mr. Messmer retires at age 50, and increases by 0.25% for each month Mr. Messmer delays his retirement beyond age 50, to a maximum of 66% if Mr. Messmer retires at or after age 62. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Retirement Percentage is 66% if a Change in Control (as defined in his retirement agreement) occurs prior to Mr. Messmer's retirement. For the first 15 years after his termination of employment, Mr. Messmer or his beneficiary will also receive a supplemental monthly benefit that varies depending upon his retirement age, which benefit will be $6,241 per month if he retires at age 50, and increases by 8%, compounded, for each year he delays his retirement beyond age 50 through, but not beyond, age 62. The retirement agreement also provides that if Mr. Messmer dies before his employment is otherwise terminated or after his employment terminates but before receiving 180 monthly retirement payments, such payments are to be made to his designated beneficiary beginning the month following his death until an aggregate of 180 monthly retirement payments have been made. If his designated beneficiary is his wife, after the payment for the 180th month has been made, she will continue to receive monthly payments until her death of half the amount he would have received. All benefits other than the supplemental benefit are subject to annual cost of living increases. Pursuant to the retirement agreement, the Company will, promptly following a request by Mr. Messmer, fund an irrevocable grantor trust as necessary to provide for its obligations under the retirement agreement. Upon Mr. Messmer's termination of employment, the Company will deliver to him (or his beneficiary) an annuity or, at his request, a lump sum cash payment, and annually thereafter the Company will pay him any additional post-retirement CPI increases.

The Company has adopted an Excise Tax Restoration Agreement under which the current executive officers and directors who become subject to such a tax in connection with a change of control receive a cash payment equal to the sum of the excise tax due, in addition to an amount necessary to restore the individual to the same after-tax position as if no excise tax had been imposed.

COMPENSATION OF DIRECTORS

Each outside director received an annual fee of $30,000 for services as a director during 2002, $1,000 for each board meeting attended, and an annual fee of $3,000 for service on each of the Executive Committee, the Audit Committee or the Compensation Committee. All directors receive reimbursement for travel and other expenses directly related to activities as directors.

Each outside director also receives an annual option grant under the Outside Directors' Option Plan. The plan provides for the automatic granting of options to outside directors (currently all directors other than Messrs. Messmer and Waddell) on the day of each Annual Meeting of Stockholders. On such day, each outside director will receive an option for the purchase of 24,000 shares. However, if such individual has not previously been granted an option by the Company, the grant will be for the purchase of 30,000 shares, rather than 24,000 shares. The exercise price for all options is 100% of the fair market value on the date of grant. All options are for a term of ten years and will vest at the rate of 25% per year for each of the first four years. However, all options vest automatically and immediately upon the occurrence of a Change in Control (as defined in the plan) and each option granted after January 1, 1999 ("New Option") will vest automatically on death or disability. No option may be exercised until at least six months after its grant date. When an individual ceases to be a director, the unvested portions of options shall terminate immediately and the vested portions of options may be exercised for a limited period following termination, except that New Options shall remain outstanding and unaffected by the termination if it occurs after the later to occur of age 55 and seven years of service as a director or by reason of death or disability, and options granted in 1999 will remain outstanding and unaffected by termination in all circumstances. Each of the outside directors (all directors other than Messrs. Messmer and Waddell) was, pursuant to the terms of the plan, granted an option on May 9, 2002 (the date of the 2002 Annual Meeting of Stockholders) at an exercise price of $25.09 per share, the fair market value on the date of grant. Each of such grants was for an option to purchase 24,000 shares.

BOARD COMPENSATION COMMITTEE REPORT ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in any of the Company's previous or future filings under the Securities Act of 1933 or the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that might incorporate by reference this Proxy Statement or future filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, in whole or in part, the following report shall not be deemed to be incorporated by reference into any such filings.

The Compensation Committee, after consultation with and upon the recommendation of an outside compensation consulting firm, developed the philosophy statement set forth below, which it has followed in every year since 1989, when it was first adopted:

"Compensation policies and practices, and other related programs, will be developed and designed in line with the following statement of compensation philosophy:

The overriding objective of the Company's compensation and benefit program is to attract, retain and reward talented employees through programs that also align with and support the Company's goals and strategies.

A competitive compensation package will be provided for all positions:

Positions that participate in short-term incentive plans because of their significant impact on short-term performance will have salaries that are set at the 50th percentile. Additional short-term incentive pay will allow total annual pay at the 75th percentile if target performance is achieved.

Key executives with significant impact on the long-term performance of the Company will also participate in long-term incentive plans (stock and/or cash plans) that will result in total target pay at the 90th percentile if short- and long-term performance targets are achieved.

Survey data reflective of relevant labor markets will be used to determine actual pay levels that are consistent with desired competitive levels. In addition to external pay data, internal relationships among positions and differences in impact and importance of positions will influence pay. All compensation programs will incorporate "pay for performance" concepts by allowing pay of individual employees to vary according to individual, unit and company performance:

Performance planning and appraisal systems, together with incentive programs where appropriate, will direct and reward effort and performance of employees."

The Committee believes that setting compensation at levels designed to attract and retain key individuals is critical to the success of a personnel services business in which there are few tangible assets and in which people represent the true "assets" of the Company. The Committee is also mindful of the fact that the Company's industry is fractured with a myriad of private firms owned by entrepreneurial individuals representing the Company's most effective competition in many markets. Successful competitors generate large financial rewards to the owners as the Company knows from its acquisitions of such firms over the years. It is imperative that the Company's compensation program provide significant cash and equity incentives to its key managers so as to compete with both public and private companies for this talent and the Committee believes the Company's compensation program achieves this result. Annual base salaries, bonuses, restricted stock and stock option awards are all designed to achieve the above-specified goals. Generally, annual bonus awards are based upon earnings per share, and each executive's bonus is increased or decreased, according to a formula, in relation to how the actual earnings per share compares with the target earnings per share for the year set by the Committee. The Committee believes that the emphasis placed upon equity grants (restricted stock and stock options) aligns the interest of the officers with those of the stockholders, and makes a significant portion of executive compensation contingent upon long-term positive share price performance. In addition, restricted stock awards are subject to a performance condition that makes all or a portion of the award subject to forfeiture depending upon earnings per share. (For example, approximately 47% of each executive officer's 2001 restricted stock award was forfeited in 2002 because earnings per share failed to reach specified targets.)

In establishing compensation levels for the Chief Executive Officer, the Compensation Committee followed the guidelines and policies described above. In addition, the Committee also considered several subjective factors related to the Company's business. These included, among other things, the Company's strong cash position and its continued generation of strong cash flow, the Company's performance relative to both its public and private competitors, the Chief Executive Officer's ability to develop and maintain significant business relationships for the Company and the complexity of managing an international service business.

The Committee also notes the following items:

1. In March 2002, Fortune magazine ranked the Company number one among temporary staffing firms for the fourth straight year in its list of "America's Most Admired Companies."
2. In April 2002, the Company was identified in a BusinessWeek article as one of only 17 companies (out of more than 7,000 that were reviewed) satisfying certain criteria that indicate a strong balance sheet.
3. In September 2002, Mr. Messmer was one of six executives featured in a BusinessWeek article (titled "The Good CEO") about executives "who built enduring U.S. companies without bending the rules."
4. The launching of the Company's new Protiviti subsidiary, which entered the Company into an entirely new line of business, required extraordinary effort.
5. Despite the severe adverse conditions confronted by the Company's traditional business lines as a result of the current economic climate, the Company generated strong cash flow from operations.

In determining executive compensation, the Compensation Committee considers, among other factors, the possible tax consequences to the Company and to the executives. However, tax consequences, including but not limited to tax deductibility by the Company, are subject to many factors (such as changes in the tax laws and regulations or interpretations thereof and the timing and nature of various decisions by executives regarding options and other rights) that are beyond the control of either the Compensation Committee or the Company. In addition, the Compensation Committee believes that it is important for it to retain maximum flexibility in designing compensation programs that meet its stated objectives. For all of the foregoing reasons, the Compensation Committee, while considering tax deductibility as one of its factors in determining compensation, will not limit compensation to those levels or types of compensation that will be deductible. The Compensation Committee will, of course, consider alternative forms of compensation, consistent with its compensation goals, that preserve deductibility.

INDEPENDENT PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS

The Board has selected PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP, independent public accountants, to audit the books, records and accounts of the Company during 2003. PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP has acted as auditors of the Company since July 2002. Representatives of that firm will be present at the Meeting and will have the opportunity to make a statement if they desire to do so. They will also be available to respond to questions.

PricewaterhouseCoopers' charges for 2002 were as follows:

Audit Fees	$	366,000
Financial Information Systems Design and Implementation Fees	$	0
All Other Fees:
Audit of the Company's 401(k) plan	$	10,200
Other Services	$	0
Total	$	10,200

The Audit Committee has considered whether the provision of services other than audit services and the review of quarterly financial statements is compatible with maintaining PricewaterhouseCoopers' independence and believes the provision of such services does not interfere with its independence.

Change of Auditors

Prior to April 24, 2002, Arthur Andersen LLP served as the Company's independent accountants. On April 24, 2002, the Company reached a tentative agreement with Andersen to hire partners and other employees within Andersen's U.S. internal audit and risk consulting practices. Andersen and the Company's Board of Directors and Audit Committee determined that execution of the agreement would cause Andersen to no longer be independent. The Company's auditing relationship with Andersen was therefore severed by mutual agreement effective April 24, 2002.

During the two fiscal years ended December 31, 2001 and December 31, 2000, and the subsequent interim periods through the termination of the relationship with Andersen, there was no disagreement between Andersen and the Company, as defined in Item 304 of Regulation S-K, on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure, which disagreement, if not resolved to Andersen's satisfaction, would have caused Andersen to make reference to the subject matter of such disagreement in connection with its reports, and there occurred no reportable events as defined in Item 304(a)(1)(v) of Regulation S-K.

The audit reports of Andersen on the Company's consolidated financial statements for the fiscal years ended December 31, 2001 and December 31, 2000 did not contain an adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion, nor were they qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principles.

The Company provided Andersen with a copy of the foregoing statements. By letter to the Securities and Exchange Commission dated April 26, 2002, Andersen expressed its agreement with such statements.

On July 16, 2002, the Company engaged PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP as its independent accountant. From January 1, 2000, through such date, neither the Company nor anyone acting on its behalf consulted PricewaterhouseCoopers regarding either (a) the application of accounting principles to any specified transaction, either completed or proposed, (b) the type of audit opinion that might be rendered on the Company's financial statements or (c) any disagreement or reportable event described in Section 304(a) of Regulation S-K.

STOCKHOLDER PROPOSALS

In order to be included in the Company's proxy statement and form of proxy for the 2004 Annual Meeting of Stockholders, a stockholder proposal must, in addition to satisfying the other requirements of the Securities and Exchange Commission's rules and regulations, be received at the principal executive offices of the Company not later than November 29, 2003. Any stockholder proposal not intended for inclusion in the Company's proxy statement and form of proxy must, in addition to satisfying the other requirements of the Company's By-laws, be received at the principal executive offices of the Company between February 8, 2004 and March 9, 2004, inclusive, in order to be presented at the 2004 Annual Meeting.

OTHER MATTERS

The proxy authorizes the holders to vote, in their discretion, upon any other business that comes before the Meeting and any adjournment of the Meeting. The Board knows of no other matters which will be presented to the Meeting.

The Audit Committee shall prepare the report required by the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission to be included in the Company's annual proxy statement.

Committee Membership

The members of the Audit Committee shall be appointed by the Board. The Audit Committee shall consist of no fewer than three members. The members of the Audit Committee shall meet any applicable independence, experience or expertise requirements established by statute, the rules and regulations of the New York Stock Exchange, or the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission. Audit Committee members shall not simultaneously serve on the audit committees of more than two other public companies.

Meetings

The Audit Committee shall meet as often as it determines, but not less frequently than quarterly. The Audit Committee shall meet periodically with management, the internal auditors and the independent auditor in separate executive sessions. The Audit Committee may request any officer or employee of the Company or the Company's outside counsel or independent auditor to attend a meeting of the Committee or to meet with any members of, or consultants to, the Committee.

Committee Authority and Responsibilities

The Audit Committee shall have the sole authority to appoint or replace the independent auditor (subject, if applicable, to shareholder ratification). The Audit Committee shall be directly responsible for the compensation and oversight of the work of the independent auditor (including resolution of disagreements between management and the independent auditor regarding financial reporting) for the purpose of preparing or issuing an audit report or related work. The independent auditor shall report directly to the Audit Committee.

The Audit Committee shall preapprove all auditing services and permitted non-audit services (including the fees and terms thereof) to be performed for the Company by its independent auditor, subject to the de minimus exceptions for non-audit services described in Section 10A(i)(1)(B) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 which are approved by the Audit Committee prior to the completion of the audit. The Audit Committee may form and delegate authority to subcommittees consisting of one or more members when appropriate, including the authority to grant preapprovals of audit and permitted non-audit services, provided that decisions of such subcommittee to grant preapprovals shall be presented to the full Audit Committee at its next scheduled meeting.

The Audit Committee shall have the authority, to the extent it deems necessary or appropriate, to retain independent legal, accounting or other advisors. The Company shall provide for appropriate funding, as determined by the Audit Committee, for payment of compensation to the independent auditor for the purpose of rendering or issuing an audit report and to any advisors employed by the Audit Committee.

The Audit Committee shall make regular reports to the Board. The Audit Committee shall review and reassess the adequacy of this Charter annually and recommend any proposed changes to the Board for approval. The Audit Committee shall annually review the Audit Committee's own performance.

The Audit Committee, to the extent it deems necessary or appropriate, shall:

Financial Statement and Disclosure Matters

4. Review and discuss any reports from the independent auditors on:
 - (a) All critical accounting policies and practices to be used.
 - (b) All alternative treatments of financial information within generally accepted accounting principles that have been discussed with management, ramifications of the use of such alternative disclosures and treatments, and the treatment preferred by the independent auditor.
 - (c) Other material written communications between the independent auditor and management, such as any management letter or schedule of unadjusted differences.

Edgar Filing: HALF ROBERT INTERNATIONAL INC /DE/ - Form DEF 14A

5. Discuss with management the Company's earnings press releases, including the use of "pro forma" or "adjusted" non-GAAP information, as well as financial information and earnings guidance provided to analysts and rating agencies. Such discussion may be done generally (consisting of discussing the types of information to be disclosed and the types of presentations to be made). The Audit Committee need not discuss in advance each earnings release or instance in which the Company may provide guidance.
6. Review the effect of regulatory and accounting initiatives as well as off-balance sheet structures on the Company's financial statements.
7. Discuss guidelines and policies to govern the process by which risk assessment and management is undertaken.
8. 9. Review disclosures made to the Audit Committee by the Company's CEO and CFO during their certification process for the Form 10-K and Form 10-Q about any significant deficiencies in the design or operation of internal controls or material weaknesses therein and any fraud involving management or other employees who have significant role in the Company's internal controls.

Oversight of the Company's Relationship with the Independent Auditor

10. Obtain and review a report from the independent auditor at least annually regarding (a) the independent auditor's internal quality-control procedures, (b) any material issues raised by the most recent internal quality-control review, or peer review, of the firm, or by any inquiry or investigation by governmental or professional authorities within the preceding five years respecting one or more independent audits carried out by the firm, (c) any steps taken to deal with any such issues, and (d) all relationships between the independent auditor and the Company. Evaluate the qualifications, performance and independence of the independent auditor. If non-audit services are provided by the independent auditor, consider whether the provision of non-audit services is compatible with maintaining the independent auditor's independence.
11. Ensure compliance with any statute, rule or regulation that requires either the rotation of audit partners or the rotation of the independent auditor.
12. Establish policies for the Company's hiring of employees or former employees of the independent auditor.
13. Meet with the independent auditor prior to the audit to discuss the planning and staffing of the audit.

Oversight of the Company's Internal Audit Function

15. Review the significant reports to management prepared by the internal auditing department and management's responses.

Compliance Oversight Responsibilities

16. Obtain from the independent auditor assurance that Section 10A(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 has not been implicated.
17. Establish procedures for the receipt, retention and treatment of complaints received by the Company regarding accounting, internal accounting controls or auditing matters, and the confidential, anonymous submission by employees of concerns regarding questionable accounting or auditing matters.
18. Discuss with management and the independent auditor any correspondence with regulators or governmental agencies and any published reports which raise material issues regarding the Company's financial statements or accounting policies.
19. Discuss with the Company's General Counsel legal matters that may have a material impact on the financial statements or the Company's compliance policies.

Limitation of Audit Committee's Role

While the Audit Committee has the responsibilities and powers set forth in this Charter, it is not the duty of the Audit Committee to plan or conduct audits or to determine that the Company's financial statements and disclosures are complete and accurate and are in accordance with generally accepted principles and applicable rules and regulations. These are the responsibilities of management and the independent auditor.
