PROXY STATEMENT FOR ANNUAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS

The accompanying proxy is solicited by the Board of Directors (the "Board") of American Residential Investment Trust, Inc., a Maryland corporation ("American Residential" or the "Company"), for use at its annual meeting of stockholders to be held on June 19, 2003, or any adjournment or postponement thereof, for the purposes set forth in the accompanying Notice of Annual Meeting of Stockholders. The date of this Proxy Statement is May 9, 2003, the approximate date on which this Proxy Statement and the accompanying form of proxy were first sent or given to stockholders.

SOLICITATION AND VOTING

Voting Securities. Only stockholders of record as of the close of business on April 25, 2003 will be entitled to vote at the meeting and any adjournment or postponement thereof. As of that date, there were 7,863,437 shares of common stock, $0.01 par value, of American Residential issued and outstanding, all of which are entitled to vote with respect to all matters to be acted upon at the annual meeting. Each stockholder of record as of that date is entitled to one vote for each share of common stock held by him or her. American Residential's bylaws provide that a majority of all of the shares of stock entitled to vote, whether present in person or represented by proxy, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at the meeting. Abstentions and "broker non-votes" will each be counted as present for purposes of determining a quorum.

Broker Non-Votes. A broker non-vote occurs when a broker submits a proxy card with respect to shares held in a fiduciary capacity (typically referred to as being held in "street name") but declines to vote on a particular matter because the broker has not received voting instructions from the beneficial owner. Under the rules that govern brokers who are voting with respect to shares held in street name, brokers have the discretion to vote such shares on routine matters, but not on non-routine matters. Routine matters include the election of directors, increases in authorized common stock for general corporate purposes and ratification of auditors. Non-routine matters include amendments to stock plans where the aggregate share reserve increase exceeds five percent of the issuer's outstanding stock.

Solicitation of Proxies. We will pay all of the expenses incurred in connection with soliciting proxies. We will solicit stockholders by mail through our regular employees, and will request banks, brokers and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries to solicit customers for whom they hold stock of American Residential and will reimburse them for their reasonable, out-of-pocket costs. We may use the services of our officers, directors and others to solicit proxies, personally or by telephone, without additional compensation.

Voting of Proxies. All valid proxies received prior to the meeting will be exercised. All shares represented by a proxy will be voted, and where a proxy specifies a stockholder's choice with respect to any matter to be acted upon, the shares will be voted in accordance with that specification. If no choice is indicated on the proxy, the shares will be voted in favor of the election of the nominees for director and the proposals contained in this Proxy Statement. A stockholder giving a proxy has the power to revoke his or her proxy at any time prior to the time it is exercised by delivery to the Secretary of American Residential of either a written instrument revoking the proxy or a duly executed proxy with a later date, or by attending the meeting and voting in person.

PROPOSAL NO. 1

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

We have a classified Board currently consisting of three Class I directors (H. James Brown, Ray W. McKewon and John C. Rocchio), two Class II directors (Keith Johnson and Richard T. Pratt) and three Class III directors (John M. Robbins, Jay M. Fuller and Mark J. Riedy), who will serve until the Annual Meetings of Stockholders to be held in 2004, 2005 and 2003, respectively, and until their respective successors are duly elected and qualified. Currently, there are no vacancies on the Board.

Directors in a class are elected for a term of three years to succeed the directors in such class whose terms expire at such annual meeting. Information regarding each director is set forth below.

The terms of the Class III directors will expire on the date of the upcoming annual meeting. Accordingly, two persons are to be elected to serve as Class III directors at the meeting. Mr. Fuller has decided not to run for re-election. After the election, there will be a vacancy on the Board. Management's nominees for election by the stockholders to fill these two positions are the current Class III directors, John M. Robbins and Mark J. Riedy. If elected, the nominees will serve as directors until our Annual Meeting of Stockholders in 2006, and until their successors are duly elected and qualified. If a nominee declines to serve or becomes unavailable for any reason, or if a vacancy occurs before the election (although we know of no reason to anticipate that this will occur), the proxies may be voted for such substitute nominee as we may designate.

If a quorum is present and voting, the two nominees for Class III director receiving the highest number of votes will be elected. Abstentions and "broker non-votes" will have no effect on the vote.

The Board of Directors unanimously recommends a vote "FOR" the nominees named above.

The following table sets forth certain information, as of March 31, 2003, with respect to age and background of American Residential's directors, including the Class III nominees to be elected at this meeting.

Directors who are also employees of American Residential do not receive any additional compensation for their services as members of the Board of Directors.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

The members of the Compensation Committee in fiscal year 2002 were Keith Johnson, Mark J. Riedy and John Rocchio. None of these members have ever been officers or employees of American Residential or any of its subsidiaries.

Certain Relationships and Related Transactions

American Residential and the Manager were parties to a Management Agreement pursuant to which American Residential paid base management fees and incentive compensation to the Manager (the "Management Agreement"). In December 2001, the Company completed a transaction with the Manager and the TCW Entities (the "Buy-Out Transaction") whereby the Company paid the Manager $10 million in exchange for terminating the Management Agreement, removing the Company as a party to the Securities Purchase Agreement and certain other concessions pursuant to a Termination and Release Agreement (the "Termination Agreement") and an amendment to the Securities Purchase Agreement (the "Amended Securities Agreement"). The Termination Agreement provided the Manager with the right to designate a nominee to the Board of American Residential and also to the Compensation Committee. The Manager designated John C. Rocchio and the Board elected him to the Board and added him to the Compensation Committee. In addition, American Residential agreed to nominate Mr. Rocchio for re-election at subsequent annual meetings of stockholders, provided that the Manager and the TCW Entities collectively beneficially own at least 800,000 shares of common stock of American Residential. Mr. Rocchio is an officer and director of TCW Asset Management Company and is affiliated with the other TCW Entities. The TCW Entities own approximately 30% of the membership interest in Holdings, which is the beneficial owner of 1,600,000 shares of American Residential's common stock. The TCW Entities also own warrants to purchase 666,667 shares, or 34.7% of the common stock of the Manager, the managing member of Holdings (and, until December 20, 2001, American Residential's external REIT manager). The TCW Entities, American Residential, Holdings and the Manager were parties to a Securities Purchase Agreement dated as of February 11, 1997, and as amended, pursuant to which the TCW Entities purchased and currently hold $25,000,000 aggregate principal amount of the 12% Senior Secured Notes due February 11, 2002 (the "Notes") issued by the Manager and guaranteed by Holdings. Pursuant to the Buy-Out Transaction, the Amended Securities Agreement resulted in American Residential being removed from the Securities Purchase Agreement as a party. Holdings' guaranty of the Notes is secured by a pledge of the 1,600,000 shares of American Residential's common stock owned by Holdings. The Manager is in default with respect to the Notes. The TCW Entities have not issued waivers of the Manager's defaults and are currently entitled to foreclose upon their security interest. As of April 15, 2003, the TCW Entities, the Manager and Holdings are in discussions with regard to the resolution of the Manager's defaults, which could result in the TCW Entities' acquisition of the American Residential common stock held by Holdings.

In connection with the Buy-Out Transaction, American Residential entered into a Senior Subordinated Secured Revolving Loan Agreement (the "Loan Agreement") with the TCW Entities. The Loan Agreement allows American Residential to borrow up to $5,000,000 on a revolving basis for one year following the date of the Loan Agreement. Interest is payable at the end of each calendar quarter based on outstanding borrowings. The Loan Agreement also provides that American Residential at its option, can extend the Loan Agreement for two additional, one-year periods.

Section 16(a) Beneficial Ownership Reporting Compliance

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 requires American Residential's executive officers, directors and persons who beneficially own more than 10% of American Residential's common stock to file initial reports of ownership and reports of changes in ownership with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"). Such persons are required by SEC regulations to furnish American Residential with copies of all Section 16(a) forms filed by such person.

Based solely on American Residential's review of such forms furnished to American Residential and written representations from certain reporting persons, American Residential believes that all filing requirements applicable to American Residential's executive officers, directors and more than 10% stockholders were complied with.

REPORT OF THE COMPENSATION COMMITTEE OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

The Compensation Committee is comprised of three non-management directors of the Board. No member of the Committee has been an executive officer or employee of American Residential since American Residential commenced operations on February 11, 1997.

The Compensation Committee is responsible for reviewing the annual base and incentive compensation for executive officers and setting and administering the policies governing equity compensation of executive officers. Aggregate compensation is intended to be set at a level competitive with the amounts paid to the management of similarly sized companies in similar industries. The Compensation Committee also evaluates the performance of management. A primary goal of the Compensation Committee is to align the compensation of executive officers with the Company's performance and to motivate executive officers to achieve the Company's business objectives. During the fiscal year ended December 31, 2002, the Compensation Committee held two meetings.

Compensation of American Residential's executive officers consists primarily of base salary, bonuses based upon each executive officer's performance and longer term equity incentives. The Compensation Committee determines the levels of stock option grants to be made to executive officers under the 1997 Stock Option Plan.

The Compensation Committee establishes the "Corporate Performance Goal," which is the Company's achievement of a certain level of profitability and loan production. Each executive officer's target award is an amount equal to a percentage of the base salary paid to such executive officer as the Compensation Committee determines. In addition to bonuses paid in connection with the Company's performance, the Compensation Committee, at its discretion, may provide a bonus based on individual achievement of individual performance goals, established at the beginning of the year. In fiscal year ending December 31, 2002, the Company did meet the majority of performance goals and accordingly, bonuses were awarded in the first quarter of 2003.

Base Salaries

The Chief Executive Officer's and President's annual base salaries were originally set pursuant to the terms of at-will employment agreements negotiated with investors at the time of American Residential's initial organization in February 1997. Each of the executive officers' base salaries were originally negotiated at the time the executive officer was hired. The Employment Agreements and the CFO Agreement were extended for one year by the Board on January 30, 2002. New Employment Agreements were entered into during the first quarter of 2003. See "EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION AND OTHER MATTERS Employment Contracts and Termination of Employment and Change-in-Control Arrangements."

Bonuses

Bonuses in 2003 will be at the discretion of the Board of American Residential.

Equity Compensation

It is the policy of the Compensation Committee that a significant portion of the annual compensation of each executive officer be contingent upon the performance of American Residential. The Compensation Committee also believes that employee equity ownership provides a major incentive to employees in building stockholder value and serves to align the interests of employees with stockholders.

The Compensation Committee compares the stock ownership and options held by each executive officer with equity positions held by executive officers of similarly sized companies in similar industries.

Chief Executive Officer Compensation

The compensation of the Chief Executive Officer is based upon the same criteria outlined above for the executive officers of American Residential.

REPORT OF THE AUDIT COMMITTEE

The Audit Committee oversees the Company's financial reporting process on behalf of the Board. Management has the primary responsibility for the financial statements and the reporting process, including internal control systems. PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP, the Company's independent accountants for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2002, was responsible for expressing an opinion as to the conformity of the Company's audited financial statements with generally accepted accounting principles.

The Committee acts pursuant to the Audit Committee Charter adopted by the Board on June 14, 2000, as amended November 26, 2002, a copy of which is filed with this Proxy Statement as Appendix A. The Committee consists of three directors each of whom, in the judgment of the Board, qualifies as an "independent" Director under the current listing standards of The American Stock Exchange. During the fiscal year ended December 31, 2002, the Committee held eight meetings.

The Committee has discussed and reviewed with the auditors all matters required to be discussed by the Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61 (Communication with Audit Committees). The Committee has met with PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP, with and without management present, to discuss the overall scope of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP's audit, the results of its examinations, its evaluations of our internal controls and the overall quality of our financial reporting.

The Committee has received from the auditors a formal written statement describing all relationships between the auditors and the Company that might bear on the auditors' independence consistent with Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 (Independence Discussions with Audit Committees), discussed with the auditors any relationships that may impact their objectivity and independence, and satisfied itself as to the auditors' independence.

Based on the review and discussions referred to above, the Audit Committee recommended to the Company's Board that the Company's audited financial statements be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2002.

AUDIT COMMITTEE

PRINCIPAL ACCOUNTING FIRM FEES

We have selected PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP as independent auditors to audit our consolidated financial statements for the fiscal year ending 2003. PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP has acted in such capacity since its appointment in fiscal year 2002. A representative of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP is expected to be present at the annual meeting, with the opportunity to make a statement if the representative desires to do so, and is expected to be available to respond to appropriate questions.

The following table sets forth the aggregate fees billed to American Residential for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2002 by PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP.

Audit Fees	$ 68,440(1)
Financial Information Systems Design and Implementation Fees	$ 0
All Other Fees	$ 0

Total Fees	$ 68,440

- (1) Includes fees for professional services rendered for the audit of American Residential's annual financial statements for fiscal year 2002 and for reviews of the financial statements included in American Residential's quarterly reports on Form 10-Q for the first three quarters of fiscal year 2002.

The Audit Committee has considered the role of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP in providing audit related, business consulting and tax services and other non-audit services to us and has concluded that such services are compatible with PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP's independence as our auditors.

COMPARISON OF STOCKHOLDER RETURN

Set forth below is a line graph comparing changes in the cumulative total return on American Residential's common stock, a broad market index (the "S&P-500 Index") and a self determined mortgage banking industry index ("Peer Group Index") and a previously used self determined peer group index ("REIT Index") for the period commencing on December 31, 1997, and ending on December 31, 2002. As a result of the change in business strategy from a REIT to a mortgage banking company, the Company believes that the new Peer Group Index is a more appropriate comparative group for current and future comparisons.

Any proposals received before March 21, 2004 or after April 20, 2004 will be considered untimely and will not be presented at the meeting. If presented at the meeting, the persons named in the proxy for such meeting may exercise their discretionary power with respect to such proposals.

CHARTER OF THE AUDIT COMMITTEE OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

I. STATEMENT OF POLICY

This Charter specifies the scope of the responsibilities of the Audit Committee (the "Committee") of the Board of Directors (the "Board") of American Residential Investment Trust, Inc. (the "Company") and the manner in which those responsibilities shall be performed, including its structure, processes and membership requirements.

Edgar Filing: AMERICAN RESIDENTIAL INVESTMENT TRUST INC - Form DEF 14A

The primary purpose of the Committee is to assist the Board in fulfilling its oversight responsibilities by reviewing and reporting to the Board on the integrity of the financial reports and other financial information provided by the Company to any governmental body or to the public, and on the Company's compliance with legal and regulatory requirements as more specifically set forth below.

The Company shall provide appropriate funding, as determined by the Committee, to permit the Committee to perform its duties under this Charter and to compensate its advisors. The Committee, at its discretion, has the authority to initiate special investigations, and, if appropriate, hire special legal, accounting or other outside advisors or experts to assist the Committee to fulfill its duties under this Charter. The Committee may also perform such other activities consistent with this Charter, the Company's Bylaws and governing law, as the Committee or the Board deems necessary or appropriate.

II. ORGANIZATION AND MEMBERSHIP REQUIREMENTS

The Committee shall be comprised of three or more directors selected by the Board, each of whom shall satisfy the independence and experience requirements of the New York Stock Exchange. In addition, the Committee shall not include any member who:

accepts any consulting, advisory, or other compensatory fee from the Company, other than in his or her capacity as a member of the Committee, the Board, or any other committee of the Board, or is an affiliated person of the Company or any subsidiary of the Company.

Each member of the Committee must be able to read and understand fundamental financial statements, including a balance sheet, income statement, and cash flow statement. In addition, at least one member shall have past employment experience in finance or accounting, professional certification in accounting, or other comparable experience or background resulting in the individual being financially sophisticated, including being or having been a chief executive, chief financial, or other senior officer with financial oversight responsibilities. When, as and if required by final rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission, the Company shall disclose whether at least one member of the Committee is a financial expert as determined in accordance with such rules and regulations, and if not, the reasons therefor. Notwithstanding the foregoing sentence, if the exchange upon which the Company's stock is traded requires a member of the Committee to be a financial expert, at least one member shall be a financial expert as determined in accordance with the listing requirements of such exchange. No Committee member shall simultaneously serve on the audit committee of more than three public companies.

The members of the Committee shall be appointed by the Board on the recommendation of the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee and shall serve until their successors are duly elected and qualified or their earlier resignation or removal. Any member of the Committee may be replaced by the Board on the recommendation of the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee. Unless a chairman is elected by the full Board, the members of the Committee may designate a chairman by majority vote of the full Committee membership.

III. MEETINGS

The Committee shall meet as often as it determines, but not less frequently than quarterly. The Committee may form and delegate authority to subcommittees when appropriate, or to one or more members of the Committee. The Committee shall meet with management and the independent auditor in separate executive sessions as appropriate, but at least quarterly. The Committee shall meet with the independent auditor and management on a quarterly basis to review the Company's financial statements and financial reports. The Committee shall maintain written minutes of its meetings, which minutes will be filed with the minutes of the meetings of the Board. The Committee will also record its summaries of recommendations to the Board in written form, which will be incorporated as part of the minutes of the Board meeting at which those recommendations are presented.

IV. COMMITTEE AUTHORITY AND RESPONSIBILITIES

A.

Oversight of the Company's Independent Auditor

The Committee shall be directly and solely responsible for the engagement and oversight of any independent auditor employed by the Company for the purpose of preparing or issuing an audit report or related work. Each independent auditor shall report directly to the Committee. The Committee shall:

1. Obtain periodically from the independent auditor a formal written statement of the matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61, as amended, and, in particular, describing all relationships between the auditor and the Company, and discuss with the auditor any disclosed relationships or services that may impact auditor objectivity and independence.
2. Obtain and review annually a report from the independent auditor describing (i) the auditor's internal quality-control procedures, (ii) any material issues raised by the most recent internal quality-control review or peer reviews or by any inquiry or investigation by governmental or professional authorities within the preceding five years respecting one or more independent audits carried out by the firm, and any steps taken to deal with such issues, and (iii) all relationships between the independent auditor and the Company.
3. Evaluate annually the qualifications, performance and independence of the independent auditor, including whether the independent auditor's quality-control procedures are adequate, the review and evaluation of the lead partner of the independent auditor, taking into account the opinions of management and the Company's internal auditors, and report to the Board on its conclusions, together with any recommendations for additional action.
4. Adopt a policy assuring the rotation, as required by law, of the lead audit partner having primary responsibility for the audit and the audit partner responsible for reviewing the audit every five years, and consider whether, in order to assure continuing auditor independence, there should be regular rotation of the audit firm, and report to the Board on its conclusions.
5. Approve in advance the engagement of the independent auditor for all audit services and non-audit services, based on independence, qualifications and, if applicable, performance, and approve the fees and other terms of any such engagement, provided that the Audit

Committee may form and delegate to subcommittees of one or more members the authority to grant pre-approvals for audit and permitted non-audit services, provided further that the decisions of such subcommittees to grant any such pre-approvals shall be presented to the Audit Committee at its next scheduled meeting.

6. Meet with the independent auditor prior to the audit to discuss the planning and staffing of the audit. Discuss with the independent auditor the responsibilities, budget and staffing of the internal audit function.
7. Approve as necessary the termination of the engagement of the independent auditor and select a replacement independent auditor.

Regularly review with the independent auditor any significant difficulties encountered during the course of the audit, any restrictions on the scope of work or access to required information and any significant disagreement among management and the independent auditor in connection with the preparation of the financial statements. Review with the independent auditor any accounting adjustments that were noted or proposed by the auditor but that were "passed" (as immaterial or otherwise), any communications between the audit team and the auditor's national office respecting auditing or accounting issues presented by the engagement and any "management" or "internal control" letter or schedule of unadjusted differences issued, or proposed to be issued, by the auditor to the Company.

10. Review with the independent auditor on a quarterly basis the critical accounting policies and practices used by the Company, all alternative treatments of financial information within generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP") that the independent auditor have discussed with management, the ramifications of the use of such alternative disclosures and treatments and the treatment preferred by the independent auditor.

B.

Review of Financial Reporting, Policies and Processes

To fulfill its responsibilities and duties, the Committee shall, to the extent that it deems necessary or appropriate, and in addition to the items described above:

1. 8. Review quarterly with management its evaluation of the Company's procedures and controls ("Disclosure Controls") designed to assure that information required to be disclosed in its periodic public reports is recorded, processed, summarized and reported in such reports within the time periods specified by the Securities and Exchange Commission for the filing of such reports, and consider whether any changes are appropriate in light of management's evaluation of the effectiveness of such Disclosure Controls.

A-4

fraud, whether or not material, that involves management or other employees who have a significant role in the Company's Internal Controls.

2. Review and approve all related-party transactions after reviewing each such transaction for potential conflicts of interests and other improprieties.
3. When, as and if required by final rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission, establish procedures for the receipt, retention and treatment of complaints received by the Company regarding accounting, internal accounting controls or auditing matters, and the confidential, anonymous submission by employees of the Company of concerns regarding questionable accounting or auditing matters. Adopt, as necessary, appropriate remedial measures or actions with respect to such complaints or concerns.
4. When, as and if required by final rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission, adopt a Code of Ethics for senior financial officers and the Chief Executive Officer and provide for and review prompt disclosure to the public of any change in, or waiver of, such Code of Ethics. Review conduct alleged to be in violation of such Code of Ethics and adopt as necessary or appropriate, remedial, disciplinary, or other measures with respect to such conduct. Take such actions, including review of conduct alleged to be in violation of the Company's Code of Business Conduct and Ethics, and adoption of remedial, disciplinary, or other measures with regard to such actions, as may be necessary or appropriate under the Code of Business Conduct and Ethics.

5. Discuss with management and the independent auditor any correspondence with regulators or governmental agencies that raise material issues regarding the Company's financial statements or accounting policies.
6. Review management's monitoring of compliance with the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act, including a review of a report by management as to the actions the Company has taken with respect to compliance therewith.
7. Discuss guidelines and policies to govern the process by which risk assessment and management is undertaken and handled. Discuss with management the Company's major financial risk exposures and the steps management has taken to monitor and control such exposures.
8. Prepare the Committee's report required by the rules of the Securities Exchange Commission to be included in the Company's annual proxy statement.
9. Develop, in coordination with the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee, and implement an annual performance evaluation of the Committee.
10. Regularly report to the Board on the Committee's activities, recommendations and conclusions.
