TO THE STOCKHOLDERS OF KMAT HOLDING CORPORATION AND SEARS, ROEBUCK AND CO.

MERGER PROPOSALS YOUR VOTE IS VERY IMPORTANT

Kmart Holding Corporation and Sears, Roebuck and Co. have entered into a merger agreement that will combine Sears and Kmart to form a major new retail company named Sears Holdings Corporation (which we refer to in this joint proxy statement-prospectus as Holdings). Holdings is expected to be the third largest retailer in the United States, initially with approximately $55 billion in annual revenues and with approximately 3,800 full-line and specialty retail stores in the United States and Canada.

In the proposed mergers, Sears common stockholders will have the right to elect to receive either $50.00 in cash or 0.5 of a share of Holdings common stock for each share of Sears common stock that they own. The elections are subject to proration so that, in the aggregate, 45% of Sears common stock will be exchanged for cash and 55% of Sears common stock will be exchanged for Holdings common stock. In addition, Kmart stockholders will receive one share of Holdings common stock for each share of Kmart common stock that they own. Upon completion of the mergers, we estimate that Holdings will issue approximately 156 million shares of Holdings common stock and that, assuming the exercise of certain options shortly after the mergers, Sears' former stockholders will own approximately 37%, and former Kmart stockholders will own approximately 63%, of the common stock of Holdings. The common stock of Holdings has been approved for quotation on the Nasdaq National Market under the symbol "SHLD".

We will each hold a special meeting of stockholders at which, among other business to be considered by Kmart stockholders, we will ask our respective common stockholders to adopt the merger agreement. Information about these meetings, the mergers and other business to be considered by Kmart stockholders is contained in this joint proxy statement-prospectus. In particular, see "Risk Factors" beginning on page 17. We urge you to read this joint proxy statement-prospectus, and the documents incorporated by reference into this joint proxy statement-prospectus, carefully and in their entirety.

Whether or not you plan to attend your special meeting, please vote as soon as possible to make sure that your shares are represented at that meeting. If you do not vote, it will have the same effect as voting against the adoption of the merger agreement.

Each of our boards of directors unanimously recommends that stockholders vote FOR the adoption of the merger agreement. We strongly support this combination of our companies and join our boards in their recommendations.

Aylwin B. Lewis
President and Chief Executive Officer

KMART HOLDING CORPORATION
Notice of Special Meeting of Stockholders to be Held March 24, 2005

To the Stockholders of Kmart Holding Corporation:

A special meeting of the stockholders of Kmart Holding Corporation will be held at the Merchandise Review Center, General Session Room, Sears, Roebuck and Co., 3333 Beverly Road, Hoffman Estates, Illinois, on Thursday, March 24, 2005 at 8:30 a.m., local time, for the following purposes:

1. To consider and vote on a proposal to combine Kmart Holding Corporation and Sears, Roebuck and Co. through the adoption of the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of November 16, 2004, by and among Kmart Holding Corporation, Sears, Roebuck and Co., Sears Holdings Corporation, Kmart Acquisition Corp. and Sears Acquisition Corp., pursuant to which, among other things, separate subsidiaries of Sears Holdings Corporation will be merged with and into Sears, Roebuck and Co. and Kmart Holding Corporation.
2. To consider and vote on proposals to exclude from the restated certificate of incorporation of Holdings certain bankruptcy-related provisions that currently exist in the certificate of incorporation of Kmart relating to (1) the prohibition on the issuance of nonvoting equity securities and (2) the rights of certain named stockholders to designate directors.
3. To approve the grants of (1) 50,781 restricted shares of Kmart common stock, (2) options to acquire 150,000 shares of Kmart common stock, and (3) a number of restricted shares of Kmart common stock equal to $1 million (based on a per share price determined immediately prior to the consummation of the mergers), in each case, to Aylwin B. Lewis, Chief Executive Officer, President and a director of Kmart.
4. To transact such other business as may properly come before the special meeting or any adjournment or postponement of the Kmart special meeting.

The adoption of the merger agreement requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the outstanding shares of Kmart common stock, and the approval of each proposal to exclude certain bankruptcy-related charter provisions and the approval of the grants of restricted shares and options to Mr. Lewis require the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares of Kmart common stock represented at the special meeting and entitled to vote. Pursuant to a support agreement with certain companies directly or indirectly controlled by Edward S. Lampert, the Chairman of Kmart, these companies have agreed, subject to limited exceptions, to vote their shares of Kmart common stock in favor of the adoption of the merger agreement and the proposals to exclude certain bankruptcy-related charter provisions. As of January 26, 2005, the record date, these companies beneficially owned approximately 42.0 million shares of Kmart common stock which represent the power to vote approximately 47% of the outstanding shares of Kmart common stock (without giving effect to the exercise of certain unexercised options to acquire shares of Kmart common stock and without including the shares of Kmart common stock that were issued upon conversion of certain convertible notes after the record date). The support agreement does not require those companies, directly or indirectly, controlled by Mr. Lampert to vote in favor of the equity grants to Mr. Lewis, although it is expected that they will do so. Accordingly, the adoption of the merger agreement, the approval to exclude certain bankruptcy-related charter provisions and the approval of the equity grants to Mr. Lewis are practically assured.

Edgar Filing: Sears Holdings CORP - Form 424B3

The board of directors of Kmart Holding Corporation unanimously recommends that you vote FOR adoption of the Agreement and Plan of Merger, FOR approval of each proposal to exclude certain bankruptcy-related provisions that currently exist in the certificate of incorporation of Kmart from the restated certificate of incorporation of Holdings, and FOR approval of the grants of restricted shares and options to Mr. Lewis. Completion of the mergers is conditioned on approval of each proposal to exclude certain bankruptcy-related provisions from the certificate of incorporation of Holdings. As a result, a vote against either of such proposals effectively will be a vote against adoption of the merger agreement.

Only stockholders of record at the close of business on January 26, 2005 are entitled to notice of and to vote at the special meeting and any adjournments or postponements thereof. To vote your shares, please complete and return the enclosed proxy card to us or grant your proxy by telephone or through the Internet. You may also cast your vote in person at the special meeting. Please vote promptly whether or not you expect to attend the special meeting.

By order of the board of directors,

James E. Defebaugh
Senior Vice President, Chief Legal Officer

2. To transact such other business as may properly come before the special meeting or any adjournment or postponement of the special meeting.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT VOTING PROCEDURES FOR THE SPECIAL MEETINGS AND MAKING CASH AND SHARE ELECTIONS

The questions and answers below highlight only selected procedural information from this joint proxy statement-prospectus. They do not contain all of the information that may be important to you. You should read carefully the entire joint proxy statement-prospectus and the additional documents incorporated by reference into this joint proxy statement-prospectus to fully understand the voting procedures for the special meetings and the procedures for making cash and share elections.

Q: WHAT IS THE PROPOSED TRANSACTION FOR WHICH I AM BEING ASKED TO VOTE?

A: You, as a stockholder of Kmart Holding Corporation and/or a stockholder of Sears, Roebuck and Co., are being asked to vote to adopt an Agreement and Plan of Merger entered into by and among Kmart Holding Corporation, Sears, Roebuck and Co., Sears Holdings Corporation, Kmart Acquisition Corp. and Sears Acquisition Corp. Subject to the terms and conditions of this merger agreement, Kmart and Sears would enter into simultaneous mergers with newly formed subsidiaries of Sears Holdings Corporation (which we refer to in this joint proxy statement-prospectus as Holdings), and after the mergers would become wholly-owned subsidiaries of Holdings.

In the proposed mergers, Sears common stockholders will have the right to elect either $50.00 in cash or 0.5 of a share of Holdings common stock. The elections are subject to proration so that, in the aggregate, 45% of the shares of Sears common stock will be exchanged for cash and 55% of the shares of Sears common stock will be exchanged for shares of Holdings common stock. Kmart stockholders will receive one share of Holdings common stock for each share of Kmart common stock that they own.

Stockholders of Kmart are also being asked to vote to approve the exclusion of certain bankruptcy-related provisions that currently exist in the certificate of incorporation of Kmart from the restated certificate of incorporation of Holdings, and to approve specific grants of restricted shares and options to Aylwin B. Lewis, the current Chief Executive Officer, President and a director of Kmart.

Q: HOW AND WHEN DO SEARS STOCKHOLDERS MAKE A CASH ELECTION OR A SHARE ELECTION?

A: A form of election is being mailed to Sears stockholders of record under separate cover. Sears stockholders should carefully review and follow the instructions accompanying the form of election. To make a cash election or a share election, Sears stockholders of record must properly complete, sign and send the form of election and any stock certificates representing their Sears shares to EquiServe Trust Company, N.A., the exchange agent, at the following address:

EquiServe Trust Company, N.A.
Kmart/Sears Transaction
c/o Corporate Actions
PO Box 43092
Providence, RI 02940-3092

Questions regarding the cash or share elections should be directed to:

D.F. King & Co., Inc.
48 Wall Street
New York, NY 10005
Telephone: (800) 549-6650
(or (212) 269-5550 for calls from outside the United States)

The exchange agent must receive the form of election and any stock certificates representing Sears shares, a book-entry transfer of shares or a guarantee of delivery as described in the instructions accompanying the form of election by the election deadline. The election deadline will be 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on March 24, 2005, the date of the Sears special meeting, unless the completion of the Sears merger will occur more than four business days following the date of the Sears special meeting, in which case the election deadline will be extended until two business days before the completion of the Sears merger. Kmart and Sears will publicly announce the election deadline at least five business days prior to the anticipated completion date of the Sears merger.

If you own Sears shares in "street name" through a bank, broker or other financial institution and you wish to make an election, you will receive or should seek instructions from the financial institution holding your shares concerning how to make your election. If you are a participant in the Sears associate stock ownership plan (which we refer to in this joint proxy statement-prospectus as the Sears ASPP), you should receive instructions from the Sears ASPP administrator concerning how to make your election.

If you are a participant in the Sears 401(k) savings plan, the Sears Puerto Rico savings plan or the Lands' End retirement plan (which we collectively refer to in this joint proxy statement-prospectus as the Sears Plans), you will receive instructions from the relevant plan trustee on how to elect to have cash consideration or share consideration allocated to your plan account in exchange for Sears shares in your plan account. See "The Special Meetings Voting and Elections by Participants in the Sears ASPP and Sears Plans" beginning on page 34 for detailed instructions.

"Street name," Sears ASPP and Sears Plan holders may be subject to an election deadline earlier than the general deadline of the date of the Sears special meeting. Therefore, you should carefully read any materials you receive from your broker or the relevant plan trustee or administrator.

CAN SEARS STOCKHOLDERS ELECT TO RECEIVE CASH CONSIDERATION FOR A PORTION OF THEIR SEARS SHARES AND SHARE CONSIDERATION FOR THEIR REMAINING SEARS SHARES?

A:

Yes. The form of election allows an election to be made for cash consideration or share consideration for all or any portion of their Sears shares.

Q:

CAN SEARS STOCKHOLDERS CHANGE THEIR ELECTION AFTER THE FORM OF ELECTION HAS BEEN SUBMITTED?

A:

Yes. You may revoke your election prior to the election deadline by submitting a written notice of revocation to the exchange agent or by submitting new election materials. Revocations must specify the name in which your shares are registered on the stock transfer books of Sears and other information that the exchange agent may request. If you wish to submit a new election, you must do so in accordance with the election procedures described in this joint proxy statement-prospectus and the form of election. If you instructed a broker or plan trustee or administrator to submit an election for your shares, you must follow such person's directions for changing those instructions. Whether you revoke your election by submitting a written notice of revocation or by submitting new election materials, the notice or materials must be received by the exchange agent by the election deadline in order for the revocation to be valid.

Q:

MAY I TRANSFER SEARS SHARES AFTER AN ELECTION IS MADE?

A:

No. Sears stockholders who have made elections will be unable to sell or otherwise transfer their shares after making the election, unless the election is properly revoked before the election deadline or unless the merger agreement is terminated.

Q:

WHAT IF A SEARS STOCKHOLDER DOES NOT MAKE AN ELECTION OR ITS FORM OF ELECTION IS NOT RECEIVED?

A:

If the exchange agent does not receive a properly completed form of election from you before the election deadline, together with any stock certificates representing the shares you wish to exchange for cash or shares, properly endorsed for transfer, a book-entry transfer of shares or a guarantee of delivery as described in the form of election, then you will have no control over the type of merger consideration you receive. As a result, your Sears shares may be exchanged for cash consideration, share consideration, or a combination of cash consideration and share consideration consistent with the proration procedures contained in the merger agreement and described under "The Mergers Sears Stockholders Making Cash and Share Elections" beginning on page 86. Because the value of the share consideration and cash consideration may differ and other stockholders would likely elect the consideration having the higher value, in such a circumstance, you would likely receive the consideration having the lower value at the time. You bear the risk of delivery and should send any form of election by courier or by hand to the appropriate addresses shown in the form of election.

If you do not make a valid election with respect to Sears shares you own of record and have not exercised your dissenter's rights, after the completion of the Sears merger, you will receive written instructions from the exchange agent on how to exchange your Sears stock certificates for the shares of Holdings common stock and/or cash that you are entitled to receive in the Sears merger as a non-electing Sears stockholder. If you do not make a valid election and the Sears shares you hold of record are in book-entry form, they will be automatically converted into the merger consideration payable to non-electing stockholders, and you do not need to take any action.

Q:

MAY SEARS STOCKHOLDERS SUBMIT A FORM OF ELECTION IF THEY VOTE AGAINST THE SEARS MERGER?

A:

Yes. Sears stockholders may submit a form of election even if they vote against adopting the merger agreement. However, any Sears stockholder that submits a properly executed election form will thereby withdraw any previously filed written demand for appraisal and will not be entitled to appraisal rights. See "The Mergers Rights of Dissenting Stockholders" beginning on page 94.

Q:

DO K MART STOCKHOLDERS HAVE AN ELECTION?

A:

No. If you are a Kmart stockholder, you will receive one share of Holdings common stock for each share of Kmart common stock, and have no right to receive any other consideration.

Q:

WHAT DO I NEED TO DO NOW TO VOTE?

A:

After carefully reading and considering the information contained in this joint proxy statement-prospectus, please vote by telephone, the Internet or by mail as soon as possible so that your shares may be represented and voted at your meeting. If you hold your shares in your own name, you may vote by telephone or through the Internet by following the instructions on or accompanying your proxy card. If you hold shares registered in the name of a broker, bank or other nominee, that broker, bank or other nominee has enclosed or will provide a voting instruction card for use in directing your broker, bank or other nominee how to vote those shares.

Q:

IF MY K MART OR SEARS SHARES ARE HELD IN "STREET NAME" BY A BROKER, BANK OR OTHER NOMINEE, WILL MY BROKER OR BANK VOTE MY SHARES FOR ME?

A:

If you hold your shares in "street name" and do not provide voting instructions to your broker, your shares will not be voted on any proposal on which your broker does not have discretionary authority to vote. Generally, your broker, bank or other nominee does not have discretionary authority to vote on the merger proposal. Accordingly, your broker, bank or other nominee will vote your shares held by it in "street name" only if you provide instructions to it on how to vote. You should follow the directions your broker, bank or other nominee provides. Shares that are not voted because you do not properly instruct your broker, bank or other nominee will have the effect of votes against the adoption of the merger agreement.

Q: IF MY SEARS OR KMART SHARES ARE HELD IN MY OWN NAME, WHAT HAPPENS IF I DON'T VOTE?

A: If you fail to respond with a vote on the merger proposal, it will have the same effect as a vote against adoption of the merger agreement. If you respond but do not indicate how you want to vote, your proxy will be counted as a vote in favor of adopting the merger agreement. If you respond and indicate that you are abstaining from voting, your proxy will have the same effect as a vote against adoption of the merger agreement.

Q: IF I BENEFICIALLY OWN SEARS SHARES HELD PURSUANT TO THE SEARS ASPP OR ANY SEARS PLAN, WILL I BE ABLE TO VOTE ON ADOPTION OF THE MERGER AGREEMENT?

A: Yes. If you are a participant in the Sears ASPP or any Sears Plan, please submit the voting form you receive from the plan administrator or trustee to indicate to the relevant plan administrator or trustee how you want the Sears shares allocated to your plan account to be voted. See "The Special Meetings Voting and Elections by Participants in the Sears ASPP and Sears Plans" beginning on page 34 for detailed instructions.

Q: CAN I CHANGE MY VOTE AFTER I HAVE DELIVERED MY PROXY?

A: Yes. A registered stockholder may revoke a properly executed proxy at any time by (1) notifying Kmart or Sears, as appropriate, in writing to the addresses set forth under "Additional Information", (2) submitting a new properly completed and signed proxy to Kmart or Sears, as appropriate, either by mail or as described under "Additional Information", (3) delivering another proxy to Kmart or Sears, as appropriate, that is dated later than the proxy originally submitted or (4) voting in person at the Kmart or Sears special meeting, as appropriate.

If your shares are held in an account at a broker, bank or other nominee, in the Sears ASPP or in a Sears Plan, you should contact your broker, bank or other nominee or the plan trustee or administrator to change your vote. Beneficial holders cannot revoke their proxies in person at the special meeting because the actual stockholders of record, i.e., the banks or brokers or their nominees, will not be present.

Q: SHOULD SEARS STOCKHOLDERS SEND THEIR STOCK CERTIFICATES WITH THEIR PROXY CARD OR THEIR FORM OF ELECTION?

A: Please DO NOT send your Sears stock certificates with your proxy card. You should send your Sears stock certificates to the exchange agent with your form of election.

Q: SHOULD KMART STOCKHOLDERS SEND IN THEIR STOCK CERTIFICATES NOW?

A: No. Please DO NOT send your Kmart stock certificates with your proxy card. If you are a Kmart stockholder of record, you will receive written instructions from the exchange agent after the Kmart merger is completed on how to exchange any Kmart stock certificates you may have for Holdings common stock. If the Kmart shares you hold of record are in book-entry form, they will be automatically converted into Holdings shares, and you do not need to take any action.

Q:

WHO CAN HELP ANSWER MY QUESTIONS?

A:

THE MERGERS

Structure of the Mergers (see page 36)

The organization of Kmart, Sears and Holdings before and after the mergers is illustrated below.

Before the Mergers

After the Mergers

(1)

As of February 1, 2005, the ESL Companies' beneficial ownership percentage of approximately 53% of the outstanding shares of Kmart common stock consists of approximately 48.3 million shares of Kmart common stock and options to acquire approximately 6.5 million shares of Kmart common stock.

- (2) As of February 1, 2005, the ESL Companies' beneficial ownership percentage of approximately 14% of the outstanding shares of Sears common stock consists of approximately 31.1 million shares of Sears common stock.
- (3) This includes beneficial ownership of approximately 6.5 million shares of common stock of Holdings underlying certain options of Kmart currently held by the ESL Companies and to be exchanged for options exercisable for Holdings common stock.
- (4) The percentage is based on an assumption that approximately 156 million shares of Holdings common stock are issued in the mergers. The actual percentage will depend on the actual number of shares of Holdings common stock issued in the mergers and also on the elections of Sears stockholders.

Edgar Filing: Sears Holdings CORP - Form 424B3

Sears Common Stockholders to Choose between Receiving Shares of Holdings Common Stock or Cash, Subject to Proration (see page 86)

In the Sears merger, Sears common stockholders will have the right to choose between receiving $50.00 in cash or 0.5 of a share of Holdings common stock per share of Sears common stock, subject to proration. These proration procedures are designed to ensure that 55% of Sears shares outstanding at the completion of the Sears merger are converted into Holdings shares and 45% of Sears shares outstanding at the completion of the Sears merger are converted into cash.

Kmart Common Stockholders to Receive Shares of Holdings Common Stock (see page 36)

In the Kmart merger, Kmart stockholders will exchange their shares of Kmart common stock for Holdings common stock on a one-for-one basis.

Stock Exchange Listing and Stock Prices (see page 94)

Holdings common stock is currently not traded or quoted on a stock exchange or quotation system. However, Holdings common stock has been approved for quotation on the Nasdaq National Market under the symbol "SHLD."

Kmart common stock trades on the Nasdaq National Market under the symbol "KMRT," and Sears common stock trades on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol "S." Sears common stock is also listed on the Chicago Stock Exchange and the Pacific Stock Exchange. The table below shows the pro forma equivalent per share value of Kmart and Sears common stock at the close of the regular trading session on November 16, 2004, the last trading day before our public announcement of the mergers, and February 18, 2005, the most recent trading day for which that information was available.

February 18, 2005	100.21	50.89	100.21	50.11

- (1) The pro forma equivalent per share value of Kmart common stock is calculated by multiplying the Kmart closing price by the Kmart merger exchange ratio of 1.0.
- (2) The pro forma equivalent per share value of Sears common stock is calculated by multiplying the Kmart closing price by the Sears merger exchange ratio of 0.5.

Because the 0.5 and 1.0 exchange ratios in the Sears and Kmart mergers, respectively, are fixed and will not be adjusted as a result of changes in market prices, the implied value of the merger consideration will fluctuate with the market price of Kmart common stock. You should obtain current market quotations for the shares of both companies from a newspaper, the Internet or your broker.

Receipt of Shares of Holdings Common Stock in Mergers Generally Nontaxable to Stockholders (see page 81)

We expect that the exchange of shares by a Sears stockholder solely for Holdings common stock will be nontaxable to such stockholder for U.S. federal income tax purposes, except in respect of any cash that such stockholder receives instead of fractional Holdings shares. We expect that a stockholder who exchanges shares of Sears common stock for a combination of Holdings common stock and cash will not recognize gain except up to the amount of cash received. We expect that the exchange of shares of Sears common stock by a Sears stockholder solely for cash will be taxable to such stockholder for U.S. federal income tax purposes. We expect that the exchange of shares by Kmart stockholders will be nontaxable to them for U.S. federal income tax purposes. You should consult with your own tax advisor for a full understanding of the tax consequences to you of the mergers.

Our Boards of Directors Unanimously Recommend that Kmart and Sears Stockholders Vote to Adopt the Merger Agreement (see pages 44 and 48)

Kmart Stockholders. The Kmart board of directors unanimously recommends that the Kmart stockholders vote FOR the adoption of the merger agreement.

Sears Stockholders. The Sears board of directors unanimously recommends that the Sears stockholders vote FOR the adoption of the merger agreement.

Fairness Opinions. Our boards received fairness opinions from our respective financial advisors. See "The Mergers Opinion of Kmart's Financial Advisor" beginning on page 52 and "The Mergers Opinion of Sears' Financial Advisor" beginning on page 63.

Interests of Our Directors and Executive Officers in the Mergers (see page 71)

You should be aware that some of the directors and executive officers of Kmart and Sears have interests in the mergers that are different from, or are in addition to, the interests of stockholders of Kmart or Sears. These interests include, but are not limited to, the relationship of certain directors and executive officers of Kmart with the ESL Companies, the treatment of restricted shares, options and other rights held by directors and executive officers of Kmart and Sears in the mergers, the continued employment of certain executive officers in Holdings, the continued positions of certain directors of Kmart and Sears as directors of Holdings, and the indemnification of former Kmart and Sears directors by Holdings.

The ESL Companies and Support Agreement (see page 108)

ESL Partners, L.P., ESL Investors, L.L.C., ESL Institutional Partners, L.P., ESL Investment Management, L.L.C., CRK Partners, LLC and CRK Partners II, L.P. (which we refer to collectively in this joint proxy statement-prospectus as the ESL Companies) entered into a Support Agreement and Irrevocable Proxy with Kmart and Sears. The ESL Companies (except for ESL Investment Management, L.L.C.) are controlled, directly or indirectly, by ESL Investments, Inc., which in turn is controlled by Edward S. Lampert, the Chairman of Kmart. Mr. Lampert directly controls ESL Investment Management, L.L.C. The support agreement is attached as Annex B to this joint proxy statement-prospectus.

Pursuant to the support agreement, among other things, the ESL Companies have agreed, subject to limited exceptions, to vote their shares of common stock of Kmart and common stock of Sears in favor of adopting the merger agreement and to irrevocably elect to receive Holdings common stock in the Sears merger, subject to proration like all Sears stockholders. The ESL Companies have acknowledged that, as a part of their obligation to vote in favor of the adoption of the merger agreement, they are obligated by the support agreement to vote in favor of the proposals to exclude certain bankruptcy-related provisions that currently exist in the certificate of incorporation of Kmart from the restated certificate of incorporation of Holdings. Because of the ESL Companies' percentage ownership of Kmart common stock, the adoption of the merger agreement and the approval of the exclusion of certain bankruptcy-related charter provisions by the Kmart stockholders are practically assured.

The support agreement does not require the ESL Companies to vote in favor of approving the grants of restricted shares and options to Mr. Lewis, although it is expected that they will do so. Accordingly, the approval of these equity grants to Mr. Lewis is practically assured.

The ESL Companies, and thus Mr. Lampert, will have substantial influence over many if not all actions to be taken by Holdings stockholders after the mergers. For additional information on Mr. Lampert's influence over Holdings, see "Risk Factors Affiliates of the Chairman of Holdings, whose interests may be different than your interests, will have substantial influence over Holdings" on page 19.

Appraisal Rights (see page 94)

Under Delaware law, Kmart stockholders are not entitled to appraisal rights in connection with the Kmart merger.

Under New York law, Sears stockholders who timely submit a written demand for appraisal of their shares and who perfect their appraisal rights by complying with the other applicable statutory procedures will be entitled to be paid the fair value of their shares of Sears common stock in connection with the Sears merger in accordance with New York law. Any Sears stockholder who wants to exercise appraisal rights should not submit a form of election, which will be considered a withdrawal of any previously filed written demand for appraisal.

Directors and Management Following the Mergers (see page 78)

Following the mergers, the board of directors of Holdings will consist of seven current Kmart directors and three current Sears directors. The initial term of the directors will end with Holdings' annual stockholders meeting in 2006. Thereafter, the directors will serve for one-year terms.

Following the mergers, Edward S. Lampert (current Chairman of Kmart) will be the Chairman and a director of Holdings. Alan J. Lacy (current Chairman, Chief Executive Officer and President of Sears) will be the Vice Chairman and Chief Executive Officer and a director of Holdings, and Aylwin B. Lewis (current Chief Executive Officer, President and a director of Kmart) will be the President and a director of Holdings and the Chief Executive Officer of Kmart and Sears Retail.

Regulatory Approvals and Conditions to Completion of the Mergers (see pages 85 and 99)

All regulatory approvals required to be obtained prior to the completion of the mergers have been obtained. However, the mergers are still subject to the receipt of stockholder approvals and the satisfaction or waiver of other conditions. Subject to the satisfaction or waiver of these conditions, we expect to complete the mergers in March 2005.

Termination of the Merger Agreement; Fees Payable (see pages 103 and 104)

We may jointly agree to terminate the merger agreement at any time. Either of us may also terminate the merger agreement in various circumstances, including failure to receive necessary stockholder approvals and if the other party breaches certain of its obligations in the merger agreement.

In several circumstances involving a change in a board's recommendation in favor of the merger agreement or a third party acquisition proposal, Kmart may become obligated to pay up to $380 million in termination fees, and Sears may be obligated to pay up to $400 million in termination fees. In addition, if Sears stockholders do not approve the merger agreement, Sears must reimburse Kmart for all costs and expenses incurred by Kmart in connection with the merger agreement up to $10 million.

SPECIAL MEETINGS

Kmart Special Meeting (see page 29)

The Kmart special meeting will be held at the Merchandise Review Center, General Session Room, Sears, Roebuck and Co., 3333 Beverly Road, Hoffman Estates, Illinois, on Thursday, March 24, 2005, starting at 8:30 a.m., local time.

You may vote at the Kmart special meeting if you owned shares of Kmart common stock at the close of business on January 26, 2005, the Kmart record date. On that date there were 88,642,225 shares of Kmart common stock outstanding and entitled to vote at the Kmart special meeting.

You may cast one vote for each share of Kmart common stock you owned as of the Kmart record date. The affirmative vote of a majority of the outstanding shares of Kmart common stock is required for the adoption of the merger agreement. Lewis.

As of the record date, Kmart directors and executive officers and their affiliates (other than the ESL Companies and Edward S. Lampert, the Chairman of Kmart) owned and were entitled to vote approximately 1.4% of the outstanding shares of Kmart common stock, and the ESL Companies' beneficial ownership represented the power to vote approximately 47% of the outstanding shares of Kmart common stock.

Sears Special Meeting (see page 29)

The Sears special meeting will be held at the Merchandise Review Center, General Session Room, Sears, Roebuck and Co., 3333 Beverly Road, Hoffman Estates, Illinois, on Thursday, March 24, 2005, starting at 11:00 a.m., local time.

You may vote at the Sears special meeting if you owned shares of Sears common stock at the close of business on January 26, 2005, the Sears record date. On that date there were 216,931,636 shares of Sears common stock outstanding and entitled to vote at the Sears special meeting. You may cast one vote for each share of Sears common stock you owned as of the Sears record date. The affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of the outstanding shares of Sears common stock is required for the adoption of the merger agreement by the Sears stockholders.

As of the record date, Sears directors and executive officers and their affiliates owned and were entitled to vote less than 1% of the outstanding shares of Sears common stock, and the ESL Companies' beneficial ownership represented the power to vote approximately 14% of the outstanding shares of Sears common stock.

The following tables present (1) selected historical financial data of Kmart, (2) selected historical financial data of Sears, and (3) selected unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated financial data reflecting the mergers. The historical financial data show the financial results actually achieved by Kmart and Sears for the periods indicated. The following table shows information about the pro forma financial condition and results of operations, including per share data, of Holdings after giving effect to the mergers. The table sets forth selected unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated statement of operations data as if the mergers had become effective on January 30, 2003, and selected unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated balance sheet data as if the mergers had occurred on October 27, 2004. The information presented below should be read together with the historical consolidated financial statements of Kmart and Sears, including the related notes, filed by each of them with the Securities and Exchange Commission and together with the consolidated historical financial data for Kmart and Sears and the other unaudited pro forma financial information, including the related notes, appearing elsewhere in this joint proxy-statement prospectus. See "Where You Can Find More Information" beginning on page 148 and "Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Consolidated Financial Data" beginning on page 109. The unaudited pro forma financial data are not necessarily indicative of results that actually would have occurred had the mergers been completed on the dates indicated or that may be obtained in the future. RISK FACTORS

In addition to the other information contained in or incorporated by reference into this joint proxy statement-prospectus, including the matters addressed under the caption "Information Regarding Forward-Looking Statements" on page 22, you should carefully consider the following risk factors in deciding whether to vote for adoption of the merger agreement.

Sears stockholders may not receive the form of merger consideration that they elect for all of their shares and may receive in part a form of consideration that has a lower value.

The merger agreement contains provisions that are designed to ensure that, in the aggregate, 45% of Sears shares will be converted into cash and 55% of Sears shares will be converted into Holdings common stock. The value of the share consideration at the time of the mergers may be higher than the value of the cash consideration at such time, or vice versa. If elections are made by Sears stockholders to receive more cash or more shares of Holdings than these percentages, either those electing to receive cash or those electing to receive shares of Holdings, respectively, will have the consideration of the type they selected reduced by a pro rata amount, and will receive a portion of their consideration in the form that they did not elect to receive. Accordingly, it is likely that a substantial number of Sears stockholders will not receive a portion of the merger consideration in the form that they elect and that the consideration they do receive will have a lower value than what they elected to receive.

In connection with a support agreement, the ESL Companies have agreed to elect to receive shares of Holdings common stock in the Sears merger even if the value of the share consideration at the time of the mergers is less than the cash consideration. Nonetheless, the ESL Companies will be subject to proration, like all Sears stockholders, if holders of more than 55% of the Sears shares elect shares of Holdings. The ESL Companies as of the record date owned approximately 31.1 million shares of Sears common stock or approximately 14% of the outstanding Sears common stock.

Because the exchange ratios are fixed, the market value of Holdings common stock issued to you may be less than the value of your shares of Kmart common stock or Sears common stock.

Kmart stockholders and Sears stockholders who receive shares in the mergers will receive a fixed number of shares of common stock of Holdings rather than a number of shares with a particular fixed market value. The market values of Kmart and Sears common stock at the time of the mergers may vary significantly from their prices on the date the merger agreement was executed, the date of this joint proxy statement-prospectus or the date on which Kmart and Sears stockholders vote on the mergers. Because the exchange ratio will not be adjusted to reflect any changes in the market value of Kmart or Sears common stock, the market value of the Holdings common stock issued in the mergers and the Kmart and Sears common stock surrendered in the mergers may be higher or lower than the values of such shares on such earlier dates, and may be higher or lower than the $50.00 to be paid to Sears stockholders in the cash portion of the Sears merger. Stock price changes may result from a variety of factors that are beyond the control of Kmart and Sears, including changes in their businesses, operations and prospects, regulatory considerations and general and industry specific market and economic conditions. Neither Kmart nor Sears is permitted to terminate the merger agreement solely because of changes in the market price of either party's common stock.

If you deliver your Sears shares to the exchange agent to make an election, you will not be able to sell those shares unless you revoke your election prior to the election deadline or the merger agreement is terminated.

The deadline for making a cash or share election for Sears shares is 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on March 24, 2005, the day of the special meeting of Sears stockholders, unless the completion of the Sears merger will occur more than four business days following the date of this special meeting, in which case the election deadline will be extended until two business days before the completion of the Sears merger. After you submit a form of election, under the terms of the election, you will not be able to sell any Sears shares covered by your form of election, regardless of whether those shares are held in certificated or book entry form, unless you revoke your election before the deadline by providing written notice to the exchange agent. If you do not revoke your election, you will not be able to sell your Sears shares covered by a form of election prior to completion of the Sears merger. In the time between your submission of a form of election and the completion of the Sears merger, the trading price of Sears common stock may change, and you might otherwise want to sell your Sears shares covered by a form of election to gain access to cash, make other investments, or reduce the potential for an adverse change in the value of your investment.

We may fail to realize the anticipated synergies, cost savings and other benefits expected from the mergers, which could adversely affect the value of Holdings stock.

The success of the mergers will depend, in part, on our ability to realize the anticipated growth opportunities and cost savings from combining the businesses of Kmart and Sears. Our managements have conservatively estimated that the combined companies expect to realize approximately $200 million in incremental annual operating profit synergies by the end of 2007 from increased revenues by capitalizing on cross-selling opportunities between Kmart's and Sears' proprietary brands and by converting a substantial number of Kmart stores to the Sears nameplate over time. There can be no assurance, however, that these cross-selling opportunities or conversions will be successful.

Moreover, expanding the offering and distribution of proprietary brands may impact the value of those brands and lead to cannibalization of sales from either Sears or Kmart. There is also the risk that national brands will not sell to the combined companies. In addition, Holdings may be unable to realize the value it expects from the combined real estate portfolio, including being able to differentiate product offerings at its various locations. If these benefits are not achieved, Holdings' results of operations could be materially adversely affected.

Our managements have also conservatively estimated that the combined entities expect to achieve annual cost savings of over $300 million by the end of 2007 principally through improved merchandising and non-merchandising purchasing scale as well as improved supply chain, administrative and other operational efficiencies. However, to realize the anticipated benefits from the mergers, we must successfully combine the businesses of Kmart and Sears in a manner that permits those costs savings and revenue synergies to be realized. In addition, we must achieve these savings without adversely affecting revenues. If we are not able to successfully achieve these objectives, the anticipated benefits of the mergers may not be realized fully or at all or may take longer to realize than expected.

The failure to integrate successfully Kmart's and Sears' businesses and operations in the expected timeframe may adversely affect Holdings' future results.

Kmart and Sears have operated and, until the completion of the mergers, will continue to operate, independently. Kmart and Sears will face significant challenges in consolidating functions, integrating their organizations, procedures and operations in a timely and efficient manner and retaining key Kmart and Sears personnel. The integration of Kmart and Sears will be costly, complex and time consuming, and the managements of Kmart and Sears will have to devote substantial resources and efforts to it.

The integration process and other disruptions from the mergers could result in the disruption of each company's ongoing businesses or inconsistencies in standards, controls, procedures and policies that adversely affect our ability to maintain relationships with customers, suppliers, employees and others with whom we have business dealings or to achieve the anticipated benefits of the mergers.

Directors of Kmart and Sears may have potential conflicts of interest in recommending that you vote in favor of the adoption of the merger agreement.

A number of directors of Kmart and a number of directors of Sears who recommend that you vote in favor of the adoption of the merger agreement have employment or severance agreements, equity compensation and other benefit arrangements or other interests that provide them with interests in the mergers that differ from yours. In addition, a number of directors of Kmart and Sears will continue as directors of Holdings while other directors will not, and in either case Holdings will indemnify and provide insurance for their services as directors of Kmart and Sears prior to the mergers. In particular, Kmart's Chairman and one other director of Kmart have material relationships with the ESL Companies, which are significant stockholders of Kmart and Sears.

The receipt of compensation or other benefits in the mergers, the continuation of indemnification and insurance arrangements for current directors of Kmart and Sears following completion of the mergers, and relationships with significant stockholders of Kmart and Sears may have influenced these directors in making their recommendation that you vote in favor of the adoption of the merger agreement. You should be aware of these interests when you consider your board's recommendation that you vote in favor of the mergers.

Affiliates of the Chairman of Holdings, whose interests may be different than your interests, will have substantial influence over Holdings.

Assuming that Holdings issues approximately 156 million shares pursuant to the mergers and that the ESL Companies exercise their options for approximately 6.5 million shares shortly after the completion of the mergers, and depending upon the elections of Sears stockholders to receive cash or stock consideration, the ESL Companies would be expected to beneficially own between approximately 40% and 44% of the outstanding shares of Holdings common stock immediately after the mergers (including the beneficial ownership of shares of Holdings common stock underlying the options of Kmart currently held by the ESL Companies). The ESL Companies (other than ESL Investment Management, L.L.C.) are controlled, directly or indirectly, by Edward S. Lampert, the current Chairman of Kmart, and the designated Chairman of Holdings. Mr. Lampert directly controls ESL Investment Management, L.L.C. Accordingly, the ESL Companies, and thus Mr. Lampert, would have substantial influence over many if not all actions to be taken by Holdings stockholders after the mergers, including the election of the directors to the Holdings board and transactions involving a change of control.

This substantial influence may have the effect of discouraging offers to acquire Holdings because the consummation of any such acquisition would likely require the consent of the ESL Companies. The interests of the ESL Companies, which have investments in other companies, may from time to time diverge from the interests of other Holdings stockholders, particularly with regard to new investment opportunities.

Following the mergers, Holdings will have significantly less cash on hand than Kmart and Sears prior to the mergers, which could adversely affect its ability to grow and perform.

Following an assumed completion of the mergers in March 2005, after payment of the merger consideration, payment in respect of options to purchase Sears common stock and all other pro forma adjustments relating to the mergers, Holdings is expected to have approximately $700 million in cash and cash equivalents. In addition, Holdings is expected to have approximately $5.1 billion in indebtedness, including $640 million related to obligations under capital leases ($55 million short-term, $585 million long-term) and $600 million of other short-term borrowings. The expected cash on hand in March 2005 assumes a build-up of cash from the seasonal low-point at the end of the third quarter

2004 and first quarter sales consistent with Holdings' business plan. No assurances can be given as to the actual amount of cash and cash equivalents that Holdings will have on hand following the mergers.

Certain rating agencies have assigned Holdings below-investment grade debt ratings, which could adversely affect its ability to access financing on terms acceptable to it and, consequently, its ability to grow and perform.

As a result of Holdings' having significantly less cash on hand than Kmart and Sears have, on a combined basis, prior to the mergers, Holdings will be required to obtain additional financing to meet its liquidity needs. Although Holdings anticipates entering into a five-year $4 billion revolving credit facility prior to the completion of the mergers, Holdings may not be able to satisfy the conditions to borrowing under the credit facility in certain circumstances, and it may not be able to obtain financing from other sources on terms that are acceptable to it. Holdings' ability to obtain financing from other sources will be dependent largely on its operating performance, its credit ratings from the major credit ratings agencies and market conditions. Standard & Poor's has assigned Holdings a "BB-plus" corporate credit rating, and Moody's Investor Service has assigned Holdings a "Ba1" rating for its senior implied debt and senior unsecured issuer ratings. Both of these ratings are one notch below these rating agencies' investment grade ratings and are known as speculative grade or "junk" ratings. Consequently, Holdings' debt ratings will be below the current investment grade ratings for Sears. If Holdings' debt ratings continue to be below investment grade or if Holdings' operating performance were to be worse than expected, its financing costs could be higher than expected and its access to financing could be limited. In particular, it would not expect to have access to the commercial paper market. In such events, Holdings' financial flexibility could be limited, adversely affecting its ability to grow and perform.

Holdings does not expect to pay dividends for the foreseeable future, and you must rely on increases in the trading prices of Holdings stock for returns on your investment.

Although Sears stockholders have historically received quarterly dividends from Sears, Holdings does not expect to pay dividends in the foreseeable future. Former Sears stockholders who become stockholders of Holdings will no longer be able to rely on receiving dividend payments, and instead they (and former Kmart stockholders) must rely on increases in the trading price of Holdings common stock for any return on their investment.

The loss of key personnel may adversely affect Holdings.

Following the mergers, Holdings will be dependent upon the contributions of its senior management team, including Edward S. Lampert (Chairman of Holdings), Alan J. Lacy (Vice Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Holdings), Aylwin B. Lewis (President of Holdings and Chief Executive Officer of Kmart and Sears Retail), William C. Crowley (Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of Holdings), and other key employees for its future success. While Messrs. Lacy and Lewis have employment agreements with Holdings, Sears or Kmart, if any of these executives, or other key employees, were to cease to be employed by Holdings, including as a result of the integration of Sears and Kmart following the mergers, Holdings could be adversely affected.

Former Sears stockholders who become stockholders of Holdings will be governed by the restated certificate of incorporation and restated by-laws of Holdings.

Sears stockholders who receive Holdings common stock in the mergers will become Holdings stockholders and their rights as stockholders will be governed by the restated certificate of incorporation and restated by-laws of Holdings and Delaware corporate law. As a result, there will be material differences between the current rights of Sears stockholders and the rights they can expect to have as Holdings stockholders.

For example, among other differences, Sears provides for a staggered board of directors but Holdings does not, and thus an acquisition or change in control of Holdings by a third party that the board, in its judgment, might not have favored may be easier to effect. Sears provides for the cumulative voting of directors but Holdings does not, and thus a group of controlling stockholders, like the ESL Companies, may be able to elect all of the directors of Holdings.

Moreover, New York corporate law differs in certain respects from Delaware corporate law. For example, among other differences, a stockholder becomes an "interested stockholder" of a Delaware corporation at a lower ownership threshold than a stockholder of a New York corporation but can effect a business combination at an earlier date than an "interested stockholder" of a New York corporation. A merger involving a New York corporation also requires the affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of the outstanding shares instead of just a majority of the outstanding shares of a Delaware corporation. Furthermore, the process for stockholders to perfect appraisal rights differs under New York and Delaware corporate law. For additional information, see "Comparison of Stockholder Rights" beginning on page 125.

We are parties to pending lawsuits in connection with the mergers.

We are parties to several lawsuits filed by third parties seeking monetary damages or injunctive relief, or both, in connection with the mergers. Predicting the outcome of these lawsuits is difficult. An adverse judgment for monetary damages could have a material adverse effect on the operations of Holdings after the mergers. A preliminary injunction could delay or jeopardize the completion of the mergers; and an adverse judgment granting injunctive relief could permanently enjoin the consummation of the mergers.

RECENT DEVELOPMENTS

Restatements of Kmart's Fiscal 2003 Annual Report and Fiscal 2004 Quarterly Reports

On February 11, 2005, after consultation with the Securities and Exchange Commission, Kmart filed an amendment to its Form 10-K for the year ended January 28, 2004 and amendments to its Form 10-Q filings for fiscal 2004 in order to restate its financial statements as of April 30, 2003 and as of and for the 13-weeks ended July 30, 2003, the 13 and 26 weeks ended October 29, 2003, the 39 weeks ended January 28, 2004, the 13-weeks ended April 28, 2004, the 13 and 26 weeks ended July 28, 2004, and the 13 and 39 weeks ended October 27, 2004 that are contained therein.

The amendments restate the accounting for a $60 million convertible note that was issued upon Kmart's emergence from bankruptcy and is no longer outstanding. The changes made by the restatements are non-cash charges and do not impact cash flows from operations.

The impact of the restatement reduces previously reported diluted earnings per share for the 39-week period ended January 28, 2004 by $0.01 per share to $2.51 per share. There will be no impact on Kmart's diluted earnings per share for fiscal year 2004.

On February 11, 2005, Kmart also issued a press release announcing and explaining the amendments, which was filed as an exhibit to Kmart's Current Report on Form 8-K with the Securities and Exchange Commission on February 14, 2005, and is incorporated by reference into this joint proxy statement-prospectus.

Restatements of Sears' Fiscal 2003 Annual Report and Fiscal 2004 Quarterly Reports

On February 15, 2005, after consultation with the Securities and Exchange Commission, Sears filed an amended Form 10-K and amended Form 10-Q's to correct an error in the consolidated statements of cash flows contained therein. This restatement is related to the classification of cash flows generated in connection with Sears' domestic credit card business, which was divested in November 2003. The change does not affect the results of operations, net income, financial condition, or net changes in cash and cash equivalents for any of the periods presented.

The domestic credit card business and related receivable portfolios consisted primarily of the proprietary Sears Card and Sears Gold MasterCard. Historically, Sears presented the aggregate cash flows generated from both the Sears Card and Sears Gold MasterCard as cash flows from operating activities in the consolidated statements of cash flows. As a result of the discussions with the Securities and Exchange Commission, Sears has changed the classification of cash flows from the Sears Gold MasterCard portfolio from operating activities to investing activities within the consolidated statements of cash flows, as the loans generated were predominantly related to activities external to Sears' merchandise and services.

Accordingly, Sears has amended its Form 10-K and Form 10-Q's by restating its consolidated statements of cash flows for the fiscal years ended January 3, 2004, December 28, 2002 and December 29, 2001 and for the 13, 26 and 39 weeks ended March 29, 2003, June 28, 2003 and September 27, 2003, respectively.

Sears Fourth Quarter and Fiscal Year 2004 Results

On February 17, 2005, Sears filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission a Current Report on Form 8-K announcing its revised financial results for the fourth quarter and fiscal year ended January 1, 2005. Sears had previously announced its results by press releases issued January 27, 2005 and February 15, 2005.

As revised, Sears reported net income of $360 million, or $1.68 per share on an average base of 214.3 million common equivalent shares, for the fourth quarter ended January 1, 2005, compared with net income of $2.7 billion, or $10.84 per share on an average base of 253.6 million common equivalent shares, in the fourth quarter of 2003. For the reasons described below and in the February 17, 2005 Form 8-K, the results reflect an additional expense of $18 million after-tax not included in its previously announced fourth quarter 2004 financial results. Of the $18 million after-tax expense, $5 million, or $0.02 per share, is attributable to 2004. The prior year results included the results of Sears' domestic Credit and Financial Products and National Tire & Battery businesses divested in the fourth quarter of 2003. Sears' fourth quarter 2003 earnings also included a pre-tax gain of $4.1 billion, or $10.38 per share, related to the sale of the domestic Credit and Financial Products business, a pretax charge of $791 million, or $1.98 per share, on the early retirement of debt that occurred as a result of the sale of the domestic Credit and Financial Products business and a pre-tax gain of $81 million, or $0.20 per share, related to the sale of National Tire & Battery.

Sears also reported revised full-year 2004 net income before the cumulative effect of a change in accounting principle of $332 million, or $1.53 per share on an average base of 216.7 million common equivalent shares, compared with net income of $3.4 billion, or $11.86 per share on an average base of 286.3 million common equivalent shares, for 2003. The adjustment to Sears' fourth quarter 2004 financial results described below has a corresponding impact on Sears' 2004 full-year results.

Sears' 2004 full-year results include a one-time, non-cash, after-tax charge of $839 million, or $3.87 per share, for the cumulative effect of a change in accounting principle related to its domestic pension and post-retirement medical benefit plans. Net loss after the cumulative effect of this accounting change was $489 million, or $2.26 per share, for the full year 2004.

The adjustments described in the February 15, 2005 press release and February 17, 2005 Form 8-K result from a review by Sears of its accounting practices relating to leasing transactions, as a result of the recent attention placed on accounting for leasing transactions. Based on an internal review and consultation with its independent auditors, Sears identified an error in its accounting practices associated with construction allowances. Historically, these allowances were classified on the balance sheet as a reduction of property and equipment and were amortized as a reduction of depreciation expense over the estimated useful life of the related property and equipment. To correct this cumulative error, Sears recorded an additional expense of $18 million after-tax in the fourth quarter of 2004 to lengthen the amortization period over which construction allowances are recognized and will now record construction allowances as deferred credits, which will be amortized as a reduction of rent expense over the lease term.

Prior years' financial results for Sears will not be restated due to the immateriality of this adjustment to the results of operations, cash flows and financial position for the current year or any individual prior period. This change will also affect income statement classification by increasing depreciation expense and reducing cost of sales, buying and occupancy. This change will have no impact on Sears' historical or future cash flows or timing of payments under related leases.

The Form 8-K described above was filed, and the full press releases described above were filed as exhibits to, Sears' Current Reports on Form 8-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on February 17, 2005, January 27, 2005 and February 15, 2004, respectively. All of the above-mentioned Form 8-Ks are incorporated by reference into this joint proxy statement-prospectus.

Holdings Credit Agreement

Prior to the completion of the mergers, Holdings, Kmart Corporation (which is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Kmart) and Sears Roebuck Acceptance Corp. (which is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Sears and which we refer to as SRAC) expect to enter into a Five-Year Credit Agreement with certain financial institutions. The effectiveness of the credit agreement will be contingent upon the occurrence of certain conditions, including the completion of the mergers and the execution of a guarantee and collateral agreement by Holdings and other affiliates of Kmart Corporation and SRAC, which will be guarantors of the borrowings. Kmart Corporation and SRAC will be the borrowers under the credit agreement. This credit agreement will replace an existing credit agreement of Sears.

This credit agreement is expected to provide for a $4 billion revolving credit facility, with a $1.5 billion letter-of-credit sublimit. The revolving credit facility is to be secured by all of the inventory and credit card accounts receivable of Kmart Corporation and SRAC and their affiliates that are party to the guarantee and collateral agreement. At any time after the second anniversary of effectiveness of the credit agreement, however, Holdings can cause the revolving credit facility to become unsecured by achieving a specified leverage ratio for three consecutive fiscal quarters or achieving certain credit ratings. If the collateral were to be released as described in the preceding sentence, Holdings would have to maintain a consolidated leverage ratio and inventory coverage ratio of specified levels. The credit agreement does not, however, otherwise contain financial covenants.

The proceeds of advances under the credit agreement are to be available for general corporate purposes of Holdings and its subsidiaries, including liquidity support for commercial paper, acquisitions, capital expenditures, cash dividends and stock and bond repurchases. Pricing under the revolving credit facility is subject to a leverage ratio-based grid.

Kmart, the nation's third largest discount retailer, is a mass merchandising company that serves America through its 1,480 Kmart and Kmart Supercenter retail outlets in 49 states, Puerto Rico, the U.S. Virgin Islands and Guam and through its e-commerce shopping site, www.kmart.com. Kmart Holding Corporation was incorporated in Delaware in April 2003, but the businesses conducted by its predecessors began in 1899. Kmart Corporation (the predecessor company to Kmart Holding Corporation) was incorporated under the laws of the State of Michigan on March 9, 1916, as the successor to the business developed by its founder, S.S. Kresge, who opened his first store in 1899. Kresge was the first retailer to launch a newspaper advertising program to entice shoppers to its stores. After operating Kresge department stores for over 45 years, Kmart's store program commenced with the opening of the first Kmart store in March 1962. In 1977, Kresge Corporation officially changed its name to Kmart Corporation. In 1991, Kmart opened the first Kmart Supercenter in Medina, Ohio, offering a full-service grocery along with general merchandise twenty-four hours a day, seven days a week.

On January 22, 2002, Kmart Corporation and 37 of its U.S. subsidiaries filed voluntary petitions for reorganization under Chapter 11 of the federal bankruptcy laws in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of Illinois. Kmart Corporation and its 37 subsidiaries decided to seek bankruptcy reorganization based upon a rapid decline in their liquidity resulting from below-plan sales and earnings performance in the fourth quarter of fiscal 2001, the evaporation of the surety bond market, an erosion of supplier confidence, intense competition, unsuccessful sales and marketing initiatives, the continuing recession and capital market volatility. Kmart Corporation utilized Chapter 11 proceedings to strengthen its balance sheet and reduce debt, focus its store portfolio on the most productive locations and terminate leases for closed stores, develop a more efficient organization and lower overall operating costs.

On May 6, 2003, Kmart Corporation emerged from reorganization proceedings under Chapter 11 pursuant to the terms of an Amended Joint Plan of Reorganization and related amended Disclosure Statement. This plan of reorganization received formal endorsement of the statutory creditors' committee and, as modified, was confirmed by the U.S. Bankruptcy Court on April 23, 2003. Kmart Corporation is presently a wholly-owned subsidiary of Kmart Management Corporation, which is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Kmart Holding Corporation.

Sears Holdings Corporation

3100 West Big Beaver Road
Troy, Michigan 48084
(248) 463-1000

Sears Holdings Corporation is a newly incorporated Delaware corporation that is currently a wholly-owned subsidiary of Kmart. Upon consummation of the proposed mergers, Holdings will become the holding company of Kmart and Sears, which will essentially continue to operate separately under their respective brand names, although Holdings intends to convert certain Kmart stores to Sears stores and cross-sell Kmart and Sears products in each other's stores. Holdings does not expect to pay dividends in the foreseeable future. After the mergers, Holdings' headquarters will be in Hoffman Estates, Illinois.

Kmart and Sears stockholders who receive Holdings common stock in the mergers will become Holdings stockholders and their rights as stockholders will be governed by the restated certificate of incorporation and restated by-laws of Holdings and Delaware laws. The restated certificate of incorporation and restated by-laws of Holdings upon the completion of the mergers will be in substantially the form set forth in Annex F and Annex G to this joint proxy statement-prospectus, respectively. For information on certain differences between the restated certificate of incorporation and restated by-laws of Holdings and Delaware laws and the certificates of incorporation and by-laws of Kmart and Sears and New York laws, see "The Mergers Comparison of Stockholder Rights" beginning on page 125.

Holdings has not, to date, conducted any material activities other than those incident to its formation and the matters contemplated by the merger agreement, including the formation of each of Kmart Acquisition Corp. and Sears Acquisition Corp. as wholly-owned subsidiaries, and the preparation of this joint proxy statement-prospectus and the registration statement of which it forms a part.

Purpose of the Special Meetings

Kmart. At the Kmart special meeting, Kmart's stockholders will be asked to consider and vote upon proposals to adopt the merger agreement, to approve the exclusion of certain bankruptcy-related provisions that currently exist in the certificate of incorporation of Kmart from the restated certificate of incorporation of Holdings, and to approve the grant of restricted shares and options to Aylwin B. Lewis, and to transact such other business as may properly come before the special meeting or any adjournment or postponement thereof.

Sears. At the Sears special meeting, Sears' stockholders will be asked to consider and vote upon a proposal to adopt the merger agreement and to transact such other business as may properly come before the special meeting or any adjournment or postponement thereof.

Record Date for the Special Meetings

The boards of directors of each of Kmart and Sears have fixed the close of business on January 26, 2005 as the record date for determination of stockholders entitled to notice of and to vote at our respective special meetings of stockholders.

On the record date, there were 88,642,225 shares of Kmart common stock outstanding and entitled to vote at the Kmart special meeting, held by approximately 2,295 holders of record. Shares that are held in Kmart's treasury are not entitled to vote at the Kmart special meeting.

On the record date, there were 216,931,636 shares of Sears common stock outstanding and entitled to vote at the Sears special meeting, held by approximately 141,332 holders of record. Shares that are held in Sears' treasury are not entitled to vote at the Sears special meeting.

Votes Required

Kmart. A majority of the outstanding shares of Kmart common stock must be represented, either in person or by proxy, to constitute a quorum at the Kmart special meeting. The affirmative vote of holders of a majority of the shares of Kmart common stock outstanding on the record date is required to adopt the merger agreement. The affirmative vote of a majority of the shares of Kmart common stock represented at the special meeting and entitled to vote is required to approve each proposal to exclude certain bankruptcy-related provisions that currently exist in the certificate of incorporation of Kmart from the restated certificate of incorporation of Holdings and to approve the grants of restricted shares and options to Mr. Lewis. At the Kmart special meeting, each holder of Kmart common stock is entitled to one vote for each share of Kmart common stock held as of the Kmart record date on all matters properly submitted to the Kmart stockholders.

Completion of the mergers is conditioned on approval of each proposal to exclude certain bankruptcy-related provisions from the certificate of incorporation of Holdings. As a result, a vote against either of such proposals effectively will be a vote against adoption of the merger agreement. However, Kmart and Sears may at any time determine by mutual agreement to waive this condition. If this condition is waived, Kmart will resolicit the vote of Kmart stockholders on the adoption of the merger agreement and the proposals to exclude certain bankruptcy-related charter provisions.

As of the record date, Kmart directors and executive officers and their affiliates (other than the ESL Companies and Edward S. Lampert, the Chairman of Kmart), owned and were entitled to vote approximately 1,200,275 shares of Kmart common stock, representing approximately 1.4% of the outstanding shares of Kmart common stock. We expect that the officers and directors of Kmart will vote their shares of Kmart common stock in favor of adopting the merger agreement, in favor of each proposal to exclude certain bankruptcy-related provisions that currently exist in the certificate of incorporation of Kmart from the restated certificate of incorporation of Holdings and in favor of granting the restricted shares and options to Mr. Lewis, although none of them (other than Mr. Lampert with respect to adoption of the merger agreement and approval of the exclusion of certain bankruptcy-related charter provisions) has entered into any agreement obligating them to do so.

Pursuant to a support agreement, the ESL Companies have agreed to vote their shares of Kmart common stock in favor of the adoption of the merger agreement. As of the record date, the ESL Companies beneficially owned approximately 53% of the outstanding shares of Kmart common stock, which then consisted of approximately 42.0 million shares of Kmart common stock, options to acquire approximately 6.5 million shares of Kmart common stock and notes convertible into approximately 6.3 million shares of Kmart common stock (although since the Kmart record date, all of these convertible notes have been converted into such number of shares of Kmart common stock). This beneficial ownership represents the power to vote approximately 47% of the outstanding shares of Kmart common stock (without giving effect to the exercise of such options and conversion of such convertible notes). The ESL Companies have acknowledged that, as a part of their obligation to vote in favor of the adoption of the merger agreement, they are obligated by the support agreement to vote in favor of the proposals to exclude certain bankruptcy-related provisions that currently exist in the certificate of incorporation of Kmart from the restated certificate of incorporation of Holdings. Accordingly, the adoption of the merger agreement and the approval of the proposals to exclude certain bankruptcy-related provisions that currently exist in the certificate of incorporation of Kmart from the restated certificate of incorporation of Holdings by the Kmart stockholders are practically assured. Further information concerning the support agreement can be found under "The Mergers The Support Agreement" on page 108.

The support agreement does not require the ESL Companies to vote in favor of approving the grants of restricted shares and options to Mr. Lewis, although it is expected that they will do so. Accordingly, the approval of these equity grants to Mr. Lewis is practically assured.

Sears. The holders of record of one-third of the total number of outstanding shares of Sears common stock entitled to vote must be represented, either in person or by proxy, to constitute a quorum at the Sears special meeting. The affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of the shares of Sears common stock outstanding on the record date is required to adopt the merger agreement. At the Sears special meeting, each holder of Sears common stock is entitled to one vote for each share of Sears common stock held as of the Sears record date on all matters properly submitted to the Sears stockholders.

As of the record date, Sears directors and executive officers and their affiliates owned and were entitled to vote approximately 545,081 shares of Sears common stock, representing less than 1% of the outstanding shares of Sears common stock. We expect that the officers and directors of Sears will vote their shares of Sears common stock in favor of adopting the merger agreement, although none of them has entered into any agreement obligating them to do so.

Pursuant to a support agreement, the ESL Companies have agreed to vote their shares of Sears common stock in favor of adopting the merger agreement. As of the record date, the ESL Companies beneficially owned approximately 14% of the outstanding shares of Sears common stock, consisting of approximately 31.1 million shares of Sears common stock. This beneficial ownership represents the power to vote approximately 14% of the outstanding shares of Sears common stock. Further information concerning the support agreement can be found under "The Mergers The Support Agreement" on page 108.

Adjournment or Postponement

The Kmart special meeting or the Sears special meeting may be adjourned or postponed, by their respective chairmen and other authorized persons, in order to permit further solicitation of proxies. However, no proxy that is voted against a proposal described in this joint proxy statement-prospectus will be voted in favor of an adjournment.

Proxies

All shares of Kmart common stock and Sears common stock represented by properly executed proxies or voting instructions (including those given through electronic voting through the Internet or by telephone) received before or at the applicable special meeting prior to the closing of the polls will, unless revoked, be voted in accordance with the instructions indicated on those proxies or voting instructions. If no instructions are indicated on a properly executed proxy card, the shares will be voted FOR adoption of the merger agreement. If you are a Kmart stockholder and you respond without voting instructions on the proposals to exclude certain bankruptcy-related provisions that currently exist in the certificate of incorporation of Kmart from the restated certificate of incorporation of Holdings, your proxy will be voted FOR the approval of the exclusion of the bankruptcy-related charter provisions. If you are a Kmart stockholder and you respond without voting instructions on the grant of restricted shares and options to Aylwin B. Lewis, your proxy will be voted FOR the approval of the grant. If you return a properly executed proxy card or voting instruction card and have indicated that you have abstained from voting, your Kmart common stock or Sears common stock represented by the proxy will be considered present at the applicable special meeting for purposes of determining a quorum, but will have the same effect as a vote against adopting the merger agreement. If you are a Kmart stockholder and you abstain from voting on the proposals to exclude certain bankruptcy-related provisions that currently exist in the certificate of incorporation of Kmart from the restated certificate of incorporation of Holdings or the proposal to grant restricted shares and options to Mr. Lewis, your proxy will be counted as present for the purposes of establishing a quorum, and the abstention will have the same effect as a vote against the relevant proposal. We urge you to mark each applicable box on the proxy card or voting instruction card to indicate how to vote your shares.

If your shares are held in an account at a broker or bank, or through the Sears ASPP, you must instruct the broker, bank or plan administrator on how to vote your shares. If an executed proxy card returned by a broker, bank or plan administrator holding shares indicates that the broker, bank or plan administrator does not have discretionary authority to vote on a particular matter, the shares will be considered present at the meeting for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum, but will have the same effect as a vote against adopting the merger agreement. This is called a broker non-vote. Your broker, bank or plan administrator will vote your shares over which it does not have discretionary authority only if you provide instructions on how to vote by following the instructions provided to you by your broker, bank or plan administrator. If you hold shares through any Sears Plan, your shares in the plan may be voted even if you do not instruct the trustee how to vote, as explained in your voting instructions.

Because the adoption of the merger agreement requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the outstanding shares of Kmart common stock and two-thirds of the outstanding shares of Sears common stock, abstentions, failures to vote and broker non-votes will have the same effect as votes against adopting the merger agreement. Because the approval of each proposal to exclude certain bankruptcy-related provisions that currently exist in the certificate of incorporation of Kmart from the restated certificate of incorporation of Holdings and the approval of the grants of restricted shares and options to Mr. Lewis require the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares of Kmart common stock represented at the special meeting and entitled to vote, abstentions will have the same effect as a vote against the relevant proposal and failures to vote and broker non-votes will have no effect on the outcome of the proposals to exclude certain bankruptcy-related provisions that currently exist in the certificate of incorporation of Kmart from the restated certificate of incorporation of Holdings or the proposal to approve the grant of restricted shares and options to Mr. Lewis.

Neither Kmart nor Sears expects that any matter other than the proposal to adopt the merger agreement and, for Kmart stockholders only, the proposals to exclude certain bankruptcy-related provisions that currently exist in the certificate of incorporation of Kmart from the restated certificate of incorporation of Holdings and the proposal to approve the grant of restricted shares and options to Mr. Lewis will be brought before its special meeting. If, however, other matters are properly presented, the persons named as proxies will vote in accordance with their judgment with respect to those matters, unless you withhold authority to do so on the proxy card or voting instruction card.

The persons named as proxies may vote for one or more adjournments of the Kmart or Sears special meeting, as the case may be, to permit further solicitations in favor of the proposals to be considered at those meetings. However, no proxy that is voted against a proposal described in this joint proxy statement-prospectus will be voted in favor of an adjournment.

You may revoke your proxy at any time before it is voted by:

filing a written notice of revocation with the Secretary, Kmart Holding Corporation, 3100 West Big Beaver Road, Troy, Michigan 48084, if you are a Kmart stockholder; filing a written notice of revocation with the Secretary, Sears, Roebuck and Co., 3333 Beverly Road, Hoffman Estates, Chicago, Illinois 60179, if you are a Sears stockholder; delivering a subsequently dated proxy; or appearing in person and voting at your special meeting if you are a holder of record.

Attendance at a special meeting will not in and of itself constitute revocation of a proxy. If a special meeting is postponed or adjourned, it will not affect the ability of stockholders of record as of the record date to exercise their voting rights or to revoke any previously-granted proxy using the methods described above.

Voting Electronically or by Telephone

Because Delaware and New York, the states in which Kmart and Sears, respectively, are incorporated, both permit electronic submission of proxies through the Internet or by telephone, instead of submitting proxies by mail on the enclosed proxy card or voting instruction card, stockholders of record and many stockholders who hold their shares through a broker or bank will have the option to submit their proxies or voting instructions electronically through the Internet or by telephone. Please note that there are separate arrangements for using the Internet and telephone depending on whether your shares are registered in your company's stock records in your name or in the name of a broker, bank or other holder of record. If you hold your shares through a broker, bank or other holder of record, you should check your proxy card or voting instruction card forwarded by your broker, bank or other holder of record to see which options are available.

Stockholders of record of Kmart common stock at the close of business on January 26, 2005, the Kmart record date, may submit their proxies:

through the Internet by visiting a website established for that purpose at <http://www.eproxyvote.com/kmrt> and following the instructions; or by telephone by calling the toll-free number (877)-PRX-VOTE (1-877-779-8683) in the United States, Puerto Rico or Canada on a touch-tone phone and following the recorded instructions; stockholders calling from another country may call (201) 536-8073.

Stockholders of record of Sears common stock at the close of business on January 26, 2005, the Sears record date, may submit their proxies:

through the Internet by visiting a website established for that purpose at <http://www.proxyvote.com> and following the instructions; or by telephone by calling the toll-free number (800) 690-6903 in the United States, Puerto Rico or Canada on a touch-tone phone and following the recorded instructions.

In order to vote via the telephone or the Internet, please have in front of you either your proxy card, or if you have consented to receive your materials electronically, your e-mail notification advising that materials are available on-line. A phone number and an Internet website address are contained on each of the documents. Upon entering either the phone number or the Internet website address, you will be instructed on how to proceed.

Solicitation of Proxies

Kmart and Sears will share equally the expenses incurred in connection with the printing and mailing of this joint proxy statement-prospectus. To assist in the solicitation of proxies, Kmart has retained Innisfree M&A Incorporated for a fee not to exceed $20,000 plus reimbursement of expenses. Sears has retained D.F. King & Co., Inc., for a fee not to exceed $20,000 plus reimbursement of expenses, to assist in the solicitation of proxies. Kmart, Sears and their respective proxy solicitors will also request banks, brokers and other intermediaries holding shares of Kmart or Sears common stock beneficially owned by others to send this joint proxy statement-prospectus to, and obtain proxies from, the beneficial owners and will, if requested, reimburse the record holders for their reasonable out-of-pocket expenses in so doing. Solicitation of proxies by mail may be supplemented by telephone and other electronic means, advertisements and personal solicitation by the directors, officers or employees of Kmart and Sears. No additional compensation will be paid to our directors, officers or employees for solicitation.

Voting and Elections by Participants in the Sears ASPP and Sears Plans

Participants in the Sears Associate Stock Purchase Plan, which we refer to as the "Sears ASPP," and in the Sears 401(k) savings plan, the Sears Puerto Rico savings plan, or the Lands' End Inc. retirement plan, which we collectively refer to as the "Sears Plans," will be able to direct how they want both the vested and non-vested Sears shares allocated to their accounts as of the record date to be voted and whether they want to elect cash consideration or share consideration to be allocated to their accounts in exchange for each Sears share in their accounts as of the closing date. All voting instructions submitted by Sears ASPP and Sears Plan participants are confidential and will not be disclosed to Sears' management. After the voting instructions with respect to the Sears Plans are tabulated, the results will be given to an independent investment manager (who has been specially retained in connection with the mergers, as discussed further below, and is a fiduciary to the Sears Plans) who will, in turn, to the extent not inconsistent with ERISA, direct the trustee as to how to vote on the adoption of the merger agreement and what form of merger consideration to elect. Your instructions on how to vote on the adoption of the merger agreement and to elect the merger consideration will be subject, in the case of all Sears Plans, to the plan trustee's or independent investment manager's (or other applicable fiduciary's) fiduciary duties under ERISA. If you are a participant in the Sears ASPP or in any of the Sears Plans, please follow the instructions that you receive for voting and elections with respect to the shares allocated to your account.

As of the Sears record date, the Sears 401(k) savings plan held approximately 6.8% of the then outstanding Sears shares, the Sears Puerto Rico savings plan then held no Sears shares, and the Lands' End Inc. retirement plan held less than 0.1% of the then outstanding Sears shares.

Participants in the Sears ASPP or in any Sears Plan will be able to direct their shares to be voted at the special meeting in one of three ways: vote for adoption of the merger agreement, vote against adoption of the merger agreement or abstain from voting on adoption of the merger agreement. Please note that the independent investment manager will take the following steps with respect to shares in a Sears Plan account, subject to its fiduciary duties under ERISA:

If you fail to properly provide any instructions as to how you want the shares allocated to your plan account to be voted, your plan shares will be voted ratably for and against the adoption of the merger agreement, in the same proportion as for those plan shares for which specific directions have been received.

If you return a properly signed voting instruction form but do not specifically indicate how you want your shares to be voted on the adoption of the merger agreement, your plan shares will be voted FOR the adoption of the merger agreement.

If you indicate you wish to abstain, your shares will not be voted, which will have the same effect as a vote AGAINST the adoption of the merger agreement.

You will be separately provided with an opportunity to elect whether, if the Sears merger is completed, you wish to request either $50.00 in cash or 0.5 of a share of Holdings common stock as consideration for each Sears share allocated to your account, subject to the proration procedures described in this joint proxy statement-prospectus and applicable to all Sears stockholders. You will be provided with separate instructions on how to make such an election.

This will be the only opportunity you will have to choose the form of consideration to be requested in exchange for your plan shares. Accordingly, please note that, if participants in a Sears Plan do not properly provide instructions as to the type of consideration they request for their plan shares, cash and stock will be elected for their plan shares ratably in the same proportion as for those plan shares for which properly completed elections were received. If proper instructions as to the type of consideration participants in the Sears ASPP want are not provided by those participants, their shares will be exchanged for the same cash consideration and/or share consideration received by other holders of Sears shares who fail to provide an election.

The Investment Committee of the Sears Plans has appointed U.S. Trust Company, N.A., and U.S. Trust has accepted the appointment, to act as an independent investment manager under the Sears Plans in connection with the vote of shares of Sears common stock held under the Sears Plans with respect to the adoption of the merger agreement and the election of cash or share consideration.

Pursuant to its appointment as investment manager, U.S. Trust is required to conduct a due diligence review of the proposed mergers. In addition, upon the receipt of the results of participant directions as to how the shares of Sears common stock allocated to participant Sears Plan accounts are to be voted and whether to receive cash consideration or share consideration with respect to Sears shares allocated to participant accounts, the investment manager shall, to the extent not inconsistent with ERISA, direct each of the trustees of the Sears Plans to vote those shares for which participant instructions as to the vote are timely received in accordance with such participant direction, and to elect cash or share consideration with respect to shares for which participant instructions as to the election of merger consideration are timely received in accordance with those instructions.

For its services as investment manager for the Sears Plans, U.S. Trust is entitled to a total fee of $215,000, payable in two installments, plus reimbursement for legal and other expenses it incurs in connection with the performance of its duties. U.S. Trust's right to its fees and expenses is not contingent on whether the proposed mergers are consummated or the manner in which U.S. Trust directs the trustees as to the vote or election of merger consideration.

KMART PROPOSAL 1 AND SEARS PROPOSAL 1: THE MERGERS

This section of the joint proxy statement-prospectus describes material aspects of the proposed mergers, including the merger agreement. This summary may not contain all of the information that is important to you. You should carefully read this entire joint proxy statement-prospectus, including the full text of the merger agreement, which is attached as Annex A, and the other documents we refer you to for a more complete understanding of the mergers. In addition, we incorporate important business and financial information about each of us into this joint proxy statement-prospectus by reference. You may obtain the information incorporated by reference into this joint proxy statement-prospectus without charge by following the instructions in the section entitled "Where You Can Find More Information" which begins on page 148.

Effect of the Kmart Merger; What You Will Receive in the Kmart Merger

Upon completion of the Kmart merger, Kmart Acquisition Corp., a wholly-owned subsidiary of Holdings newly organized to effect the Kmart merger, will merge with and into Kmart. Kmart will be the surviving corporation in the Kmart merger and will thereby become a wholly-owned subsidiary of Holdings.

In the Kmart merger, each outstanding share of Kmart common stock (other than shares owned by Kmart or Kmart Acquisition Corp.) will be converted into one share of Holdings common stock. The exchange ratio is fixed and will not be adjusted to reflect stock price changes prior to the date of the Kmart merger. Each share of Kmart common stock owned by Kmart or Kmart Acquisition Corp. will be cancelled without consideration. Each share of Kmart common stock owned by Sears or any direct or indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of Sears or Kmart will be converted into the right to receive shares of Holdings common stock at the same exchange ratio.

All outstanding Kmart stock options will be converted into options to purchase an equivalent number of shares of Holdings common stock, subject to the same terms and conditions. All restricted shares of Kmart common stock will be exchanged for restricted shares of Holdings common stock at the same exchange ratio applicable to Kmart common stock pursuant to the Kmart merger, subject to the same terms and conditions.

The rights pertaining to Holdings common stock will be the same in all material respects as the rights pertaining to Kmart common stock, because the restated certificate of incorporation and restated by-laws of Holdings in effect immediately after the completion of the mergers will be substantially similar to the current certificate of incorporation and by-laws of Kmart. The rights pertaining to Holdings common stock and Holdings' restated certificate of incorporation and restated by-laws are described under "Description of Holdings Capital Stock Common Stock" on page 124 and "Comparison of Stockholder Rights" beginning on page 125.

Effect of the Sears Merger; What You Will Receive in the Sears Merger

Upon completion of the Sears merger, Sears Acquisition Corp., a wholly-owned subsidiary of Holdings newly organized to effect the Sears merger, will merge with and into Sears. Sears will be the surviving corporation in the Sears merger and will thereby become a wholly-owned subsidiary of Holdings.

In the Sears merger, each outstanding share of Sears common stock (other than restricted shares, dissenting shares and shares owned by Sears, Sears Acquisition Corp., Kmart or any wholly-owned subsidiary of Kmart or Sears) will be converted into the right to receive, at the holder's election, $50.00 in cash per share or 0.5 of a share of Holdings common stock per share, subject to proration. Sears stockholder elections will be subject to proration to ensure that 55% of Sears shares will be exchanged for Holdings shares and 45% of these shares will be exchanged for cash. The exchange ratio and the per share amount of cash to be paid are fixed and will not be adjusted to reflect stock price changes prior to the date of the Sears merger. Each share of Sears common stock owned by Sears and Sears Acquisition Corp. will be cancelled without consideration. Each share of Sears common stock owned by Kmart or any direct or indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of Sears or Kmart will be converted into the right to receive 0.5 of a share of Holdings common stock. The conversion of these shares is not subject to proration, and these shares will not be taken into consideration when determining the proration calculations.

All outstanding Sears stock options will be exchanged for the right to receive cash in an amount equal to the number of shares of Sears common stock subject to such option times the excess, if any, of the sum of (1) the product of 45% multiplied by $50.00 per share and (2) the product of 55% multiplied by the value of 0.5 of a share of Holdings common stock (based on the closing price of a share of Kmart common stock on the last trading day immediately preceding the effective time of the mergers) over the exercise price of such options.

Upon adoption of the merger agreement by Sears stockholders, a pro rata portion of shares of Sears common stock owned by Sears employees that are currently subject to restrictions and were granted at least six months prior to such adoption will become free of restrictions. As a result, as of the time of the completion of the mergers, these shares will be no different than any other shares of Sears common stock and the holder can make an election with respect to these shares. The restricted shares of Sears stock that do not vest and do not become free of restrictions will be converted into 0.5 of a share of Holdings common stock in the mergers and will continue to be subject to the same restrictions. The exchange of these restricted shares is not subject to proration, and these restricted shares will not be taken into consideration when determining the proration calculations. See "Treatment of Stock Options and Restricted Shares" on page 92.

The rights pertaining to Holdings common stock will be different from the rights pertaining to Sears common stock, because the restated certificate of incorporation and restated by-laws of Holdings in effect immediately after the mergers are completed will be different from those of Sears and because Holdings is a Delaware and not a New York corporation. A further description of the rights pertaining to Holdings common stock and Holdings' restated certificate of incorporation and restated by-laws which will be in effect immediately after the mergers are completed is further described under "Description of Holdings Capital Stock Common Stock" on page 124 and "Comparison of Stockholder Rights" beginning on page 125.

Background of the Mergers

Over the last few years, Sears and Kmart has each independently explored, developed, pursued and implemented a wide range of strategies, as more fully described below, designed to enhance stockholder value.

In January 2002, the predecessor of Kmart filed voluntary petitions for reorganization under Chapter 11 of the federal bankruptcy laws. After Kmart's filing, the ESL Companies accumulated a significant ownership of various pre-petition obligations, joined the Financial Institutions Committee, and made a substantial additional investment in Kmart prior to its emergence from bankruptcy. In connection with the ESL Companies' investment in Kmart and exchange of pre-petition claims, the ESL Companies acquired beneficial ownership of a majority of Kmart's outstanding common stock. The ESL Companies also gained representation on the Kmart board, including Edward S. Lampert's designation as Chairman. The ESL Companies (other than ESL Investment Management, L.L.C.) are controlled, directly or indirectly, by ESL Investments, Inc., which is in turn controlled by Mr. Lampert. Mr. Lampert directly controls ESL Investment Management, L.L.C.

Upon Kmart's emergence from bankruptcy in May 2003, the board of directors of Kmart focused on establishing Kmart's financial strength. The new senior management team sought to generate profitable sales, control costs, streamline overhead and increase asset productivity and customer service.

Kmart also focused on improving the customer store experience by providing quality products at attractive pricing and enhancing its service culture. In that connection, Kmart focused on improving its product offerings by offering better quality products.

Kmart has continued to seek ways to improve its product offering in order to differentiate Kmart from its mass market retail competitors. The mergers represent an extension and acceleration of that strategy.

The board of directors and management of Sears has continually monitored and reviewed Sears' position in light of the changing competitive environment for domestic multi-line retailers, with the objective of determining what alternatives may be available to further enhance value for Sears stockholders. In recent years, the board of directors and management of Sears have continued to explore options designed to improve Sears' competitive position and to increase stockholder value, especially in light of the increasing competitive power of discount, "big-box" and specialty retailers.

In particular, Sears has undertaken a number of steps to refocus on and to improve the performance of its core business, its full-line stores. These steps include:

an initiative to add off-mall stores in locations closer to where consumers live, generally in urban and dense suburban areas, including through the Sears Grand concept, the first of which opened in 2003 and three more of which have opened to date, and the acquisition of six stores from Wal-Mart Stores, Inc. and 50 stores from Kmart as described below;

operational initiatives aimed at improving efficiency and effectiveness, such as changes to store operations, supply chain and support activities; significant merchandise edits of non-core assortments;

the June 2002 acquisition of Lands' End, Inc., subsequent roll-out of Lands' End branded merchandise to all full-line Sears stores and the introduction of new proprietary apparel brands such as Covington, Apostrophe, A/Line and Structure; substantial improvements of merchandise assortments and the customer shopping experience in key businesses, such as home appliances, electronics, kids apparel and home fashions; and the November 2003 sales of Sears' credit and financial products business and National Tire and Battery business.

The ESL Companies first became stockholders of Sears in October 2000 and have been significant stockholders of Sears since 2002 (prior to the time that the ESL Companies invested in Kmart). During the time that the ESL Companies have been significant stockholders of Sears, the ESL Companies have monitored their investment in Sears, including periodic discussions with the management of Sears, primarily through Alan J. Lacy, Chairman, Chief Executive Officer and President of Sears, regarding Sears' performance and strategic direction.

At the end of February 2004, Sears, through Mr. Lacy, approached Mr. Lampert of Kmart to explore the possibility of Kmart and Sears engaging in a mutually beneficial transaction. The types of transactions that were eventually discussed as a result of this meeting varied in terms of size and structure, but included, among others, real estate transactions, working towards entering into licensing agreements with respect to proprietary products, such as Sears' Craftsman tools and Kenmore home appliances, and a potential business combination. In connection with these discussions, on March 16, 2004, Sears entered into a confidentiality agreement with Kmart, pursuant to which Sears agreed to use any confidential information provided to it by Kmart only in connection with its consideration of a possible transaction and to keep all such information confidential. Kmart subsequently provided Sears with various confidential information concerning its business, financial condition and results of operations under the terms of this confidentiality agreement. The confidentiality agreement was subsequently amended on June 29, 2004 in connection with the 50 store real estate transaction described below.

These discussions continued intermittently throughout the spring of 2004 and related to various aspects of the variety of transactions described above. In particular, with regard to potential real estate transactions, the discussions related to, among other things, the number and location of stores to be purchased, the price to be paid for the stores, the timetables for completing the purchases, the condition and financial performance of the stores to be purchased and similar matters. The discussions regarding working toward entering into licensing agreements related solely to the brands that Kmart wished to license and did not include any discussion of proposed terms. The discussions relating to the potential business combination were exploratory in nature, did not give rise to any understandings as to price and structure and proposals with respect to financial terms were not made by either side. Mr. Lacy regularly apprised the Sears board of directors on the status of these discussions.

Ultimately, the parties' discussions resulted in a transaction announced on June 30, 2004 in which Sears agreed to purchase from Kmart up to 54 stores for a maximum total purchase price of $621 million. The transaction was designed to further Sears' strategy of increasing the number of off-mall full-line stores and to strengthen Kmart's balance sheet and increase its liquidity. At the time, both Sears and Kmart recognized that there could be additional benefits realized by both parties from a continued strategy of repositioning certain Kmart stores to the Sears brand. The parties determined to remain in contact. Messrs. Lampert and Lacy agreed to meet again after the transaction was completed. This transaction was closed on September 29, 2004, at which time Sears purchased 50 stores. Despite the closing of the transaction, Sears did not immediately take possession of each store, which will continue to be operated by Kmart until Sears takes possession of each store, the last of which is expected to be on or before April 2005. At the closing, Sears paid Kmart $172 million, of the total purchase price of $575.9 million, in net cash consideration with the remainder to be paid when Sears takes possession of the stores. Sears and Kmart intend to complete these transactions whether or not the mergers take place. If, however, the mergers take place before these transactions, these transactions will not have any effect on the consolidated financial position of Holdings, as each of Kmart and Sears will be subsidiaries of Holdings.

On October 11, 2004, a regular meeting of the Kmart board of directors was held. At this meeting, the board elected Mr. Lewis as Kmart's Chief Executive Officer and President and also discussed Mr. Lewis' incentive compensation arrangements, including the grant of 50,781 restricted shares of Kmart common stock (which restricted shares had a value of $4.5 million on October 18, 2004, the date of the grant). This grant was made in connection with Mr. Lewis' election as Kmart's Chief Executive Officer and President, not in connection with the proposed combination with Sears.

On October 21, 2004, Sears announced its results of operations for the quarter ended October 2, 2004. After Sears' announcement, a meeting between Kmart and Sears, to be attended by Messrs. Lampert and Lacy, was scheduled to discuss progress at Kmart and Sears since the two men last spoke, as well as potential opportunities for the two companies together. Mr. Lacy apprised his board of directors of the prospective meeting.

On October 31, 2004, Messrs. Lampert and Lacy met and discussed the competitive dynamics affecting the domestic multi-line retail industry, results of their respective businesses and other topics of mutual interest to Kmart and Sears. Mr. Lampert on behalf of Kmart then explored with Mr. Lacy the possibility of a business combination whereby Kmart and Sears would be combined in a transaction in which Sears common stock would be exchanged for Kmart common stock having a value of $45 0.50 of a Kmart share at the time. At the time, this valuation implied a premium of approximately 29% over the last trading day's closing price of Sears common stock. Although Mr. Lampert initially proposed that the consideration in the transaction be all stock, Mr. Lacy indicated that Sears would prefer that a substantial portion be, at the election of Sears stockholders, in an equivalent amount per share in cash to provide a measure of value assurance for Sears stockholders.

Messrs. Lampert and Lacy also discussed in detail the business rationale for combining the two companies, including the acceleration of Sears' off-mall growth strategy, potential for significant cost-savings and other synergies that could result from a business combination, and expansion of both companies' brand portfolio. They also discussed a number of other issues that would have to be agreed in the context of a business combination, including the structure of the transaction, the consideration to be paid to Sears stockholders (including the maximum percentages of consideration that could be paid in cash and in stock) and the potential composition of the resulting board of directors and management. Messrs. Lampert and Lacy each agreed that, subject to reaching agreement on financial terms and completion of successful due diligence investigations of each other, such a business combination could be a means by which to achieve value for both Kmart and Sears stockholders and decided to speak further after having consulted with their respective boards of directors.

Following this meeting, on November 1, 2004, Mr. Lacy called a special meeting of the Sears board of directors and briefed the board on the substance of the discussions between Kmart and Sears, including his meeting with Mr. Lampert. The Sears board of directors indicated to Mr. Lacy its support for exploring a potential business combination with Kmart. Based on the Sears board's support, Mr. Lacy and the Sears management assembled a team of advisors in connection with consideration of the potential business combination. The Sears board was also supportive of Mr. Lacy having further discussions with Mr. Lampert, with the goals of developing a common understanding of the strategic rationale for the potential transaction and how the new company would be operated and attaining a greater understanding of Kmart's business and strategy. Subsequently, Sears retained Morgan Stanley & Co., Incorporated as its financial advisor as of October 29, 2004 and Wachtell, Lipton, Rosen & Katz as its legal counsel.

During the week of November 1, 2004, members of senior management of Sears and Kmart, including Messrs. Lampert and Lacy, as well as William C. Crowley, Senior Vice President, Finance and a director of Kmart, and Glenn R. Richter, Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of Sears, and others, and representatives of Morgan Stanley had further discussions concerning the strategic rationale for, and the process necessary to implement, the potential business combination. During this period, representatives from Kmart contacted the law firm of Simpson Thacher & Bartlett LLP, which was subsequently engaged, to assist Kmart with respect to legal matters related to a possible business combination transaction.

On November 5, 2004, Vornado Realty Trust announced that it had acquired an approximately 4.3% economic interest in Sears. This announcement caused the price of Sears common stock to rise approximately 21% over the last trading day's closing price, to $45.88 per share at the close of trading on November 5. Following this announcement, the managements of Kmart and Sears had a number of discussions concerning the impact of this announcement on the potential business combination. These discussions were primarily concerned with the trading prices and volatility of Sears and Kmart common stock, the effect of Vornado's announcement on Sears common stock and that of other retailers, and the resulting effect on the consideration to be paid in the mergers. In addition, as a result of Vornado's announcement and other concerns including maintaining confidentiality of the discussions, Sears and Kmart decided to accelerate the timeframe for implementing the proposed business combination to minimize the period during which speculation or additional price volatility could impair the parties' ability to reach an agreement on financial terms.

On November 8, 2004, a special meeting of the Sears board of directors was held. At this special meeting, Messrs. Lacy and Richter and other members of Sears management updated the board of directors on the status of the negotiations with Kmart and reviewed and discussed strategic considerations related to, and the potential merits of, the business combination being considered, including those described above. In addition, Morgan Stanley discussed with the Sears board of directors various valuation issues regarding Sears and Kmart and a potential transaction.

The Sears board of directors and management determined that the potential business combination had strategic value and believed that stockholder value could be enhanced as a result of such a business combination. As a result, the Sears board of directors indicated its support of management and its advisors continuing to pursue a transaction. The Sears board of directors encouraged management and its advisors to seek to increase the consideration to be paid to Sears stockholders in a potential business combination, while maintaining a significant cash component in the business combination that could be elected by Sears stockholders so that Sears stockholders would have a level of certainty of value in the event the trading price of Kmart common stock were to decrease. The Sears board of directors also directed management and its advisors to continue the analysis of the value that could be created through alternative transactions, such as a leveraged buyout, a leveraged recapitalization or other restructuring alternatives including acquisitions or divestitures, and to use this data in seeking to have Kmart increase the financial consideration offered to Sears stockholders.

On November 9, 2004, Mr. Crowley and representatives of Morgan Stanley briefly discussed the process of implementing the proposed business combination, as well as the financial terms of the proposed business combination, including the consideration and the maximum percentages of consideration that could be paid in cash and in stock.

Also on November 9, 2004, a special meeting of the board of directors of Kmart was held to inform the board concerning the discussions between Kmart and Sears and to determine whether to continue the process. Simpson Thacher & Bartlett LLP reviewed the fiduciary duties of directors in connection with a potential business combination transaction. Mr. Lampert, as Chairman of Kmart, reviewed the background discussions with Sears, the terms that had been discussed and timing considerations related to a potential transaction. He also addressed the strategic rationale for a transaction in light of Kmart's strategy, business and prospects. At the conclusion of this meeting, the Kmart board decided that it was in the best interests of the Kmart stockholders to continue the process and engage a financial advisor.

On November 10, 2004, certain members of the respective management teams of Sears and Kmart met, including Messrs. Lampert, Lacy, Crowley and Richter as well as representatives of Morgan Stanley. At these meetings, Mr. Lacy told Mr. Lampert of the need to increase both the consideration and the maximum percentage of consideration that could be paid in cash. Messrs. Lampert and Lacy ultimately deferred further discussion relating to the consideration to be paid Sears stockholders pending further diligence. The other members of Kmart and Sears management and representatives of Morgan Stanley discussed the possible structure of the business combination and the steps that would have to be undertaken to fully explore the business combination, including mutual due diligence investigations. Sears and Kmart also discussed the tax and other benefits of structuring the business combination as a "top-hat" transaction, whereby both Kmart and Sears would become subsidiaries of a newly-formed holding company as contemplated by the mergers described in this joint proxy statement-prospectus. The parties also continued to discuss the business rationale for the mergers, including the potential for significant revenue growth, cost-savings and other synergies from the mergers, as well as the terms of the mergers.

Also on November 10, 2004, Kmart and Sears executed a confidentiality agreement, substantially in the form of that executed by Kmart and Sears in March 2004, pursuant to which Kmart agreed to use any confidential information provided to it by Sears only in connection with its consideration of a possible transaction and to keep all such information confidential.

On November 11 and 12, 2004, the parties continued to have discussions concerning the proposed mergers and began exchanging due diligence information regarding each company's businesses, strategies, structure and management team, and the parties' financial and legal advisors commenced discussions regarding the drafting of the legal documentation of the mergers. Also on November 11, Kmart agreed to retain Lehman Brothers Inc. as its financial advisor in connection with the mergers.

In the morning of November 13, 2004, Messrs. Lampert and Lacy again met. At this meeting, they agreed to discuss with their respective boards that, subject to reaching agreement on the financial terms of the mergers and successful completion of the mutual due diligence investigations:

the name of the newly-formed holding company would be Sears Holdings Corporation;

the headquarters of Holdings would be located in Hoffman Estates, Illinois;

Mr. Lacy would be the Vice Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Holdings;

Mr. Lewis would be the President of Holdings and Chief Executive Officer of Kmart and Sears Retail;

there would be an "Office of the Chairman" of Holdings, consisting of Messrs. Lampert, Lacy and Lewis; and the board of directors of Holdings would be composed of representatives from both boards (including Messrs. Lampert, Lacy and Lewis) with a significant majority being from the Kmart board.

On November 13 and 14, 2004, representatives of Kmart and Sears, led by Messrs. Crowley and Richter, and including, among others, the following Sears personnel: Steven M. Cook, Vice President and Deputy General Counsel, Michael Coyne, Vice President and Treasurer, James di Stefano, Vice President, Tax, Michael Graham, Vice President and Controller, Matthew T. Myren, Associate General Counsel and William Phelan, Assistant Controller, and the following Kmart personnel: Julian C. Day, director, James E. Defebaugh, then Senior Vice President, Deputy General Counsel, and Chief Compliance Officer, James F. Gooch, Vice President, Controller, Harold W. Lueken, then Senior Vice President, General Counsel and Secretary, Allen R. Ravas, Vice President, Treasurer, Financial Planning & Analysis, and David Whipple, Senior Vice President, Associate Resources, met to undertake mutual confidential due diligence and management discussions and for the negotiation of legal documentation. Kmart and Sears were assisted in these discussions and negotiations by their respective financial and legal advisors, and, in the case of Sears, Deloitte & Touche LLP. Due diligence continued over the next several days, and the parties and their legal counsel continued to negotiate the terms of a definitive merger agreement, a draft of which had been exchanged on November 11, 2004. During the course of November 14, 2004, the parties and their advisors had numerous discussions concerning possible structures for the transaction and pricing terms, including the exchange ratio and the per share cash consideration, the maximum percentages of consideration that could be paid in cash and stock, and whether a collar would be used. In the course of these discussions, the parties noted the significant increase in the prices of both the Kmart and Sears stock subsequent to October 31, 2004, including the significant increase in their respective stock prices following the Vornado announcement. In particular, the parties discussed their beliefs as to the reasons for these increases, the likely trading prices of Sears and Kmart common stock in the future absent further third party developments and how these increases affected each party's views as to the appropriateness of the pricing terms that had previously been discussed. Kmart also noted to Sears that the premium that the offer represented to the Sears share price after the Vornado announcement was not the most relevant comparison to premiums to the unaffected stock price of other companies and that absent the Vornado announcement and speculation regarding Sears, the Sears stock price would likely have been in the same range as it was prior to the announcement. The parties were not able to reach a tentative agreement.

On November 15, 2004, following additional discussions, Messrs. Lacy and Lampert agreed to recommend to their respective boards the financial terms of the mergers, in which each share of Sears common stock would be converted into the right to receive, at the election of the holder, either (1) 0.50 of a share of Holdings common stock or (2) $50 in cash. The stockholder elections would be subject to proration to ensure that 55% of the shares of Sears common stock would be converted into stock and 45% into cash. Mr. Lampert made clear to Mr. Lacy that this was the best and final offer that he was prepared to recommend to the Kmart board. Messrs. Lacy and Lampert also agreed to recommend to their respective boards the ultimate composition of the board of directors of the newly formed holding company consisting of seven members of the current Kmart board of directors (including Messrs. Lampert and Lewis) and three members of the current Sears board of directors (including Mr. Lacy). As part of their negotiations, they also agreed to recommend the termination fee payable by each of the parties as well as the requirement that each party would submit the merger agreement to a vote of its stockholders.

A special meeting of the board of directors of Sears was held later during the day of November 15, 2004, at which Messrs. Lacy and Richter and Sears' advisors updated the board of directors on the status of the negotiations with Kmart, including the tentative financial terms, the status of the legal documentation and the results of the due diligence investigation of Kmart. Final approval for the mergers was not sought, but the Sears board of directors indicated its support for Sears management and its advisors proceeding to resolve all issues necessary to finalize a transaction on the terms that had been discussed, and determined to reconvene on November 16, 2004, to formally consider the mergers.

Negotiation of the terms of the legal documentation for the mergers and the due diligence process, as well as discussions concerning the support agreement with the ESL Companies and the terms of the post-closing employment arrangements with Mr. Lacy, continued during the remainder of the day. Drafts of the support agreement and the employment agreement for Mr. Lacy had been exchanged by the parties' legal counsel during the afternoon of November 15.

At 8:00 a.m. on November 16, 2004, the Kmart board of directors held a regular meeting to consider the proposed mergers, which was also attended by members of Kmart's senior management and Kmart's financial and legal advisors. At this meeting, Kmart's senior management reviewed with the board of directors strategic considerations related to the mergers and the progress and status of the negotiations and apprised the board of directors of the results of the due diligence conducted. They also summarized the proposed employment agreement with Mr. Lacy. In addition, Kmart's legal advisors discussed with the board of directors the legal standards applicable to its decisions with respect to the proposed mergers, presented the results of its legal due diligence, reviewed the legal terms of the proposed definitive merger agreement and the proposed support agreement, and responded to questions from directors. Lehman Brothers presented its financial analysis relating to the proposed mergers, responded to questions and indicated that it was prepared to deliver its opinion that, as of that date and based on and subject to the considerations, assumptions and limitations set forth in its opinion, the consideration to be paid to Sears stockholders pursuant to the mergers was fair, from a financial point of view, to Kmart and, accordingly, its stockholders. During these discussions, the Kmart board discussed the proposed mergers and related agreements, and the risks and benefits of proceeding with the proposed transaction. The Kmart board asked questions of Kmart's senior management, legal counsel and financial advisor. The Kmart board then met in executive session (without Mr. Lewis). The Kmart board discussed various governance and management issues. The Kmart board also discussed the benefits of granting an additional $1 million of restricted shares of Kmart to Mr. Lewis in recognition of the broader managerial responsibilities that Mr. Lewis would assume as a result of the mergers. The Kmart board of directors then met in executive session (without Messrs. Lampert, Crowley and Lewis) to discuss the proposed mergers. Following the executive session of the board, the full Kmart board of directors reconvened and agreed to adjourn until later that evening.

In the afternoon of November 16, 2004, the Sears board of directors held a special meeting to consider the proposed mergers, which was also attended by Mr. Richter and other members of Sears' senior management and Sears' legal counsel and financial advisors. At this meeting, Messrs. Lacy and Richter and other Sears senior management reviewed with the Sears board of directors strategic considerations relating to the mergers and the progress and status of negotiations regarding the terms of the mergers and apprised the board of the results of its due diligence review of Kmart. Morgan Stanley reviewed its financial analyses relating to the proposed mergers, responded to questions posed by directors, and delivered its opinion that, as of that date and based on and subject to the considerations in its opinion, the consideration to be paid pursuant to the merger agreement was fair, from a financial point of view, to holders of Sears common stock (other than the ESL Companies). In addition, Sears' legal counsel discussed with the board of directors the legal standards applicable to its decisions with respect to the proposed mergers, reviewed the legal terms of the proposed definitive merger agreement, the proposed support agreement and the proposed employment agreement with Mr. Lacy, and responded to questions from directors. During these discussions, the Sears board discussed the proposed mergers and related agreements and asked questions of Sears' senior management and Sears' legal counsel and financial advisor. Following further review and discussion among the members of the Sears board of directors, the board of directors voted unanimously to approve the merger agreement and related agreements and resolved to recommend that its stockholders vote to adopt the merger agreement.

At 8:00 p.m. on November 16, 2004, the Kmart board of directors reconvened to review the terms of the merger agreement and to consider whether to approve the proposed mergers. Representatives of Simpson Thacher & Bartlett LLP updated the Kmart board on any final changes in the definitive documentation since its previous review by the Kmart board. Lehman Brothers delivered its oral opinion, which was subsequently confirmed by delivery of a written opinion dated November 16, 2004, that as of that date and based on and subject to the considerations, assumptions and limitations set forth in its opinion, the consideration to be paid to Sears stockholders pursuant to the mergers was fair, from a financial point of view, to Kmart and, accordingly, its stockholders. Following deliberations, the Kmart board of directors, by unanimous vote of all directors, approved the merger agreement and the support agreement, declared advisable the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement and resolved to recommend that Kmart stockholders vote to adopt the merger agreement.

Following approval of each board of directors, proper officers of each of Kmart and Sears executed and delivered the merger agreement. Concurrently, the ESL Companies, Sears and Kmart executed the support agreement, and Mr. Lacy, Sears and Kmart executed Mr. Lacy's employment agreement.

Prior to the opening of trading on the Nasdaq National Market and the New York Stock Exchange on November 17, 2004, Kmart and Sears issued a joint press release announcing the execution of the merger agreement.

Kmart's Reasons for the Kmart Merger; Recommendation of the Kmart Merger by the Kmart Board of Directors

At its meeting on November 16, 2004, the Kmart board of directors consulted with Kmart management and its financial and legal advisors and unanimously determined to approve the merger agreement and recommended that Kmart stockholders vote for adoption of the merger agreement. In reaching its conclusion to approve the Kmart merger and the related transactions and to recommend that the Kmart stockholders adopt the merger agreement, the Kmart board considered the following factors as generally supporting its decision to enter into the merger agreement.

Strategic Considerations. Kmart's board believes that the business combination with Sears will provide a number of significant strategic opportunities and benefits, including the following factors, all of which it viewed as generally supporting its decision to approve the business combination with Sears:

Enhanced Position in Retail Market. The transaction is expected to create the third largest retailer in the United States with $55 billion in annual revenues and would provide a broader retail presence with 3,800 full-line and specialty retail stores in the United States and Canada.

Winning Real Estate Strategy. The combination will significantly expand the points of distribution for Sears' and Kmart's products in key markets, especially in Kmart's urban and high-density suburban locations where Kmart believes the combined companies have competitive advantages relative to other retailers, which advantages include, but are not limited to, Kmart's and Sears' name recognition in these locations and the mix and price point of the merchandise carried in their stores which should be attractive to the potential customer base given the demographics of these locations. The combined companies should be able to rapidly grow in stand-alone stores outside of malls (or off-mall) in locations closer and more convenient to customers, which Kmart believes should result in greater sales. The combined companies should also have the opportunity to sell non-strategic real estate assets and redeploy the proceeds into the business.

Combines Wealth of Leading Proprietary Brands to Further Differentiate Stores from Competition. The business combination with Sears provides the combined companies with additional unique and differentiated products that should enable the combined companies to better differentiate themselves from other mass market retailers. Sears has a strong list of private label brands, which include Craftsman, Kenmore, Lands' End, DieHard, Covington and Apostrophe, which complement Kmart's private label brands, which include Martha Stewart Everyday, Joe Boxer, Jaclyn Smith, Sesame Street, Route 66 and Thalia Sodi.

Strengthened Financial Position. The combined companies should have increased earnings and cash flows with a net cash position as a result of combined retail sales that provide scale and a strong foundation for growth. The combined companies should also be able to negotiate and obtain better terms from vendors.

Generates Significant Synergies. The Kmart board also considered management's view that the combined companies should produce incremental operating income for the full year 2007 of $500 million, consisting of $200 million in operating profit synergies, a substantial portion of which would be derived from increased revenues from converting certain Kmart stores to Sears stores and the remainder from cross-selling Sears and Kmart products in each other's stores, $200 million in purchasing cost reductions as a result of increased purchasing scale in both merchandise and non-merchandise procurement, and $100 million from other cost reductions, particularly with respect to the consolidation of corporate services and headquarters functions. While these synergies reflect management's conservative estimates, the Kmart board recognized there could be no assurance that they would be achieved. While these benefits are expected to be realized by the end of the third year of combined operations, the mergers are expected to be accretive to Kmart in year one, excluding one-time costs. Further, the Kmart board considered management's estimates that the combined companies have preliminarily identified opportunities to achieve an additional $250 million to $750 million of combined operating profit synergies from increased revenues and cost savings. The identified incremental operating profit synergy from increased revenues opportunities (including opportunities from converting Kmart stores to the Sears format and incremental sales in cross-selling brands) range from $100 to $250 million, while the identified incremental cost savings opportunities (including opportunities from lowered merchandise and non-merchandise purchasing costs, improved transportation logistics, network integration, and consolidation of shared services and support) range from $150 to $500 million.

Edgar Filing: Sears Holdings CORP - Form 424B3

While the conservative estimates have a greater likelihood of achievement, the potential to realize greater synergies represents an additional factor considered by the board.

Creation of Strong Management Team. The Kmart board considered that the combined companies will be able to select the most capable managers from both companies. Kmart's board and management also expects that the combined companies' management will be willing to create a positive and winning culture, to maintain a disciplined investment strategy and to strive for operational excellence.

The Kmart board also considered the corporate governance arrangements established for the transaction, including the board composition and the designation of key senior management, which are designed to promote the continuity of management from each company and smooth integration of the businesses.

The Kmart board also considered the benefits of granting certain equity compensation to Aylwin B. Lewis, in particular the effect of these grants in retaining and incentivizing Mr. Lewis as an executive officer of the combined companies.

Support from Controlling Stockholders. The ESL Companies, as Kmart's controlling stockholders, indicated their approval of the mergers and agreed to enter into the support agreement, which includes their agreement to elect irrevocably to receive Holdings common stock for all of their Sears common stock. In that connection, the Kmart board recognized that the affirmative vote of Kmart stockholders was practically assured.

Other Factors Considered by the Kmart Board. In addition to considering the strategic factors outlined above, the Kmart board considered the following additional factors, all of which it viewed as generally supporting its decision to approve the business combination with Sears:

historical information concerning Kmart's and Sears' respective businesses, financial performance and condition, operations, management, competitive positions and stock performance, which comparisons generally informed the board's determination as to the relative values of Kmart, Sears and the combined companies;

the results of the due diligence review of Sears' businesses and operations; management's assessment that the proposed business combination was likely to meet certain criteria they deemed necessary for a successful merger—strategic fit, acceptable execution risk, and financial benefits to Kmart and Kmart's stockholders;

the current and prospective competitive environment in which retailers such as Kmart operate;

the financial analyses and presentations of Kmart's financial advisor and its opinion that the consideration to be paid to the stockholders of Sears in the mergers was fair, from a financial point of view, to Kmart and, accordingly, its stockholders (the written opinion of Lehman Brothers is attached as Annex C to this joint proxy statement-prospectus and discussed in detail under "Opinion of Kmart's Financial Advisor" beginning on page 53);

the terms and conditions of the merger agreement, including:

the fact that the merger agreement is not subject to termination solely as a result of any change in the trading prices of either company's stock between signing of the merger agreement and closing; the limited number and nature of the conditions to Sears' obligation to consummate the mergers and the limited risk of non-satisfaction of such conditions;

the restrictions on the ability of the parties to entertain third party acquisition proposals, and the payment of termination fees under certain circumstances; and the conclusion of Kmart's board of directors that the $380 million termination fee, and the circumstances when such fee may be payable, were reasonable in light of the benefits of the mergers and commercial practice;

the nontaxable treatment of the exchange of Kmart common stock for Holdings common stock;

the determination that an exchange ratio that is fixed and not subject to adjustment is appropriate to reflect the strategic purpose of the mergers and consistent with market practice for mergers of this type and that a fixed exchange ratio avoids fluctuations caused by near-term market volatility; and the likelihood that the mergers will be completed on a timely basis, including the likelihood that the mergers will receive all necessary regulatory antitrust approvals without unacceptable conditions.

Kmart's board of directors also considered the potential risks of the mergers and potential conflicts of interest, including the following:

the challenges of combining the operations of two major retail businesses and effecting certain cultural changes; the possible disruptions from anticipated workforce reductions to be implemented as part of the merger integration plan;

the possibility that expanding product offerings may adversely impact Sears' private label brands and that national brands may not sell to the combined companies;

the risk that anticipated operating profit synergies and cost savings will not be achieved (or the risk that certain cost savings will adversely affect operating profits);

the potential dilution to Kmart's stockholders; interests of Kmart directors, including the interests of Edward S. Lampert and William C. Crowley in the ESL Companies (which are the beneficial owners of a substantial stake in Sears) in connection with the Kmart merger (see "Interests of Directors and Executive Officers in the Mergers" beginning on page 71); and the risk of diverting management's attention from other strategic priorities to implement merger integration efforts.

In view of the wide variety of factors considered in connection with its evaluation of the mergers and the complexity of these matters, the Kmart board did not find it useful, and did not attempt, to quantify, rank or otherwise assign relative weights to these factors. In considering the factors described above, individual members of the Kmart board may have given different weight to different factors. The Kmart board conducted an overall analysis of the factors described above, including thorough discussions with, and questioning of, Kmart's management and Kmart's legal and financial advisors, and considered the factors overall to be favorable to, and to support, its determination. The Kmart board also considered the experience and expertise of Lehman Brothers, its financial advisor, in reviewing quantitative analyses of the financial terms of the mergers. See "Opinion of Kmart's Financial Advisor" beginning on page 53.

The Kmart board of directors unanimously approved the merger agreement. The Kmart board unanimously recommends that Kmart stockholders vote "FOR" adoption of the merger agreement.

Sears' Reasons for the Sears Merger; Recommendation of the Sears Merger by the Sears Board of Directors

At its meeting on November 16, 2004, as well as the other meetings at which it considered the mergers, the Sears board of directors consulted with Sears management as well as its financial and legal advisors and, at its November 16, 2004 meeting, unanimously determined to approve the merger agreement and recommended that Sears stockholders vote for adoption of the merger agreement. In reaching its conclusion to approve the Sears merger and the related transactions and to recommend that the stockholders of Sears adopt the merger agreement, the Sears board considered the following factors as generally supporting its decision to enter into the merger agreement and related agreements:

The Sears board of directors considered the following positive factors relating to the mergers:

the mergers will create the third largest retailer in the United States, with over $55 billion in annual revenues and 3,800 full-line and specialty retail stores in the United States and Canada, as compared with Sears' current position as the fourth largest retailer in the United States;

the expectation that the mergers will accelerate Sears' strategy for stand-alone stores located outside of malls, with Kmart's real estate adding important urban and high-density suburban locations, resulting in a more rapid and lower-cost growth in store base than Sears would be able to accomplish on its own; anticipated synergies from the transaction by the third year after the mergers estimated at $500 million per year, comprising $200 million in operating profit synergies from increased revenue through cross-selling proprietary brands and converting a substantial number of off-mall Kmart locations to the Sears nameplate and $300 million from cost savings through improved merchandising and non-merchandising procurement, improved logistics and supply chain management and consolidation of shared headquarter functions and corporate services, all of which should positively impact the combined companies' earnings and create value for stockholders, as well as other preliminarily identified opportunities for additional synergies and cost savings;

the opportunity for Sears stockholders to elect cash or stock consideration, which will enable many to receive immediate cash value while those stockholders who wish to continue to participate in the combined companies will have the chance to do so, and will provide Sears stockholders with a measure of value assurance in the event of a decline in the price of Kmart common stock;

the fact that the ESL Companies have agreed in the support agreement to elect irrevocably to receive stock consideration for their shares of Sears common stock (subject to proration, if necessary) evidencing the ESL Companies' belief in the benefits of the transaction and enhancing the opportunity of other Sears stockholders to receive cash;

the fact that Sears stockholders will receive consideration for shares of Sears common stock at a premium to the trading price of Sears common stock prior to the announcement of the transaction and at a 36.5% premium to the trading price on the trading day prior to Vornado's announcement;

the expectation that the mergers will create a combined company with strong and stable earnings and cash flow as a result of combined retail sales that provide a scale greater than Sears alone and a stronger foundation for growth;

the combination of leading proprietary brands owned by Sears and Kmart which should enable the retail operations of the combined companies to further distinguish themselves from competitors and significantly expand the points of distribution for Sears' products in key markets;

consideration of the alternatives available to Sears if it were not to engage in the business combination with Kmart that was being considered and the value that such alternatives could be expected to deliver to Sears shareholders, including growth through acquisitions, a leveraged buyout or a leveraged recapitalization, all of which involve meaningful risks and uncertainties and none of which had been discussed with third parties, including Kmart and the ESL Companies, or provided the same potential for growth provided by the business combination with Kmart as more fully described below;

the proposed composition of the Holdings board of directors and management which is expected to facilitate the integration, and assist the continuation of the best practices and traditions of the two companies following completion of the mergers by providing the combined companies with the expertise and the leadership of both companies. In this regard, Sears' board considered that Alan J. Lacy, Chairman, Chief Executive Officer and President of Sears, would be Vice Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Holdings, Edward S. Lampert, Chairman of Kmart, would be the Chairman of the Holdings board of directors, and Aylwin B. Lewis, director, President and Chief Executive Officer of Kmart would be President of Holdings and Chief Executive Officer of Kmart and Sears Retail;

the limited closing conditions in the merger agreement and the low risk of nonsatisfaction of those conditions;

the expectation that the exchange of Sears common stock for Holdings common stock would be nontaxable to Sears stockholders who receive Holdings common stock;

the analysis, presentation and oral opinion of Morgan Stanley delivered on November 16, 2004, and subsequently confirmed in writing as of that day, to the effect that, as of the date of such opinion, and based upon and subject to the various considerations, assumptions and limitations set forth in the opinion, the merger consideration to be provided to Sears stockholders pursuant to the merger agreement is fair from a financial point of view to the holders of Sears common stock (other than the ESL Companies) (the written opinion of Morgan Stanley is attached as Annex D to this joint proxy statement-prospectus and discussed in detail under " Opinion of Sears' Financial Advisor" beginning on page 63), taking into account the contingent nature of Morgan Stanley's compensation and fees previously paid to Morgan Stanley;

the potential benefits to Sears' employees from the expanded opportunities available as part of a larger organization, including increased advancement opportunities in a larger and more diverse enterprise;

the fact that the holding company following the merger, Holdings, will retain the Sears name, which the Sears board considered important in light of Sears' history and strong customer relationships; and the fact that the headquarters of Holdings will be in Hoffman Estates, Illinois, which the Sears board considered important in light of Sears' importance to the Chicago area and the effect on employees.

The Sears board of directors considered the following negative factors relating to the mergers:

the problems inherent in merging the operations of two large companies, including the possibility that management may be distracted from regular business concerns by (1) unforeseen difficulties in integrating operations and systems, (2) possible employee uncertainty in the face of potential workforce reductions and difficulties in assimilating employees, and (3) potential adverse short-term effects on operating results of the combined companies;

the likelihood of realizing and the risks of not realizing the expected operating profit synergies and cost savings; certain risks related to expanding product offerings, including the impact on Sears private label brands of being available at a discount retailer and the risk that national brands will not sell to the combined companies; and the fact that the value of the transaction will fluctuate with the value of Kmart stock and would decrease if the trading value of Kmart common stock decreases, though this is partially offset by the significant cash component of the compensation offered to Sears stockholders in the Sears merger.

The Sears board of directors also considered the following factors relating to the mergers:

the review and analysis of each of Kmart's and Sears' business, financial condition, earnings, risks and prospects, including the results of the due diligence investigation of Kmart;

the historical market prices and trading information with respect to the shares of Sears common stock and Kmart common stock;

the comparisons of historical financial measures for Sears and Kmart, including earnings and comparisons of historical operational measures for Sears and Kmart;

current industry, economic and market conditions, including the size of Sears' primary competitors, and the prospect of further restructuring and consolidation in the domestic retail industry;

the fact that the ESL Companies then beneficially owned approximately 15% of the outstanding shares of Sears common stock and that, following the mergers, the ESL Companies, the interests of which may from time to time diverge from those of other Holdings stockholders, were then expected to own between approximately 39% and 43% of the outstanding shares of Holdings common stock, depending on proration, and thus have substantial influence over actions to be taken by Holdings stockholders after completion of the business combination, including the election of directors to the Holdings board and transactions involving a change of control;

the interests that certain Sears executive officers and directors may have with respect to the merger in addition to their interests as Sears stockholders. See "Interests of Sears Directors and Executive Officers" on page 74;

the fact that stockholder approval of the transaction would be required from both Kmart and Sears; and the terms and conditions of the merger agreement, including the possible payment of a termination fee and expenses to Kmart under certain circumstances and the restrictions on the ability of Sears to entertain third party acquisition proposals, which the board of directors considered reasonable in light of the context of the entire transaction and commercial practice.

The Sears board of directors believed that, overall, the potential benefits of the mergers to Sears and Sears stockholders outweighed the risks which are mentioned above.

The Sears board of directors also considered the feasibility and desirability of pursuing alternative strategies, such as pursuing growth and increased stockholder value through acquisitions of assets or companies, such as the acquisition of additional real estate in off-mall, stand alone locations, a leveraged buyout and a leveraged recapitalization. The Sears board of directors reviewed a number of potential alternative transactions and other strategic business opportunities. The board concluded that the alternatives presented significantly greater execution risks and uncertainties, and would involve lengthy execution periods. None of the alternatives considered offered comparable synergies, was as financially attractive or offered the potential opportunities for growth or as comprehensive and complementary a fit for Sears as a business combination with Kmart.

This discussion of the information and factors considered by the Sears board of directors in making its decision is not intended to be exhaustive but includes all material factors considered by the Sears board of directors. In view of the wide variety of factors considered in connection with its evaluation of the merger and the complexity of these matters, the Sears board of directors did not find it useful to, and did not attempt to, quantify, rank or otherwise assign relative weights to these factors. In addition, individual members of the Sears board of directors may have given different weight to different factors.

The Sears board of directors unanimously approved the merger agreement. The Sears board unanimously recommends that holders of Sears common stock vote "FOR" adoption of the merger agreement.

Certain officers of Sears, including Mr. Lacy, will receive substantial financial and other benefits in connection with the Sears merger. For a discussion of the interests of directors and officers that are different from or in addition to the interests of other stockholders, see "Interests of Sears Directors and Executive Officers" beginning on page 74.

Opinion of Kmart's Financial Advisor

In November 2004, Kmart engaged Lehman Brothers to act as its financial advisor with respect to pursuing a strategic combination with Sears. On November 16, 2004, Lehman Brothers rendered its oral opinion (subsequently confirmed in writing) to the Kmart board of directors that as of such date and, based upon and subject to the matters stated in its opinion, from a financial point of view, the consideration to be paid to the stockholders of Sears pursuant to the mergers was fair to Kmart and, accordingly, to its stockholders.

The full text of Lehman Brothers' written opinion, dated November 16, 2004, is attached as Annex C to this joint proxy statement-prospectus. Kmart stockholders are encouraged to read Lehman Brothers' opinion carefully in its entirety for a description of the assumptions made, procedures followed, factors considered and limitations upon the review undertaken by Lehman Brothers in rendering its opinion. The following is a summary of Lehman Brothers' opinion and the methodology that Lehman Brothers used to render its opinion. This summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the opinion.

Lehman Brothers' advisory services and opinion were provided for the information and assistance of the Kmart board of directors in connection with its consideration of the mergers. Lehman Brothers' opinion is not intended to be and does not constitute a recommendation to any stockholder of Kmart as to how such stockholder should vote in connection with the mergers. Lehman Brothers was not requested to opine as to, and Lehman Brothers' opinion does not address, Kmart's underlying business decision to proceed with or effect the mergers.

In arriving at its opinion, Lehman Brothers reviewed and analyzed:

the merger agreement and the specific terms of the mergers;

publicly available information concerning Kmart and Sears that Lehman Brothers believed to be relevant to its analysis, including certain periodic reports filed by Kmart and Sears, including their most recent Annual Reports on Form 10-K and Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q;

financial and operating information with respect to the business, operations and prospects of Kmart furnished to Lehman Brothers by Kmart, including financial projections prepared by Kmart's management;

financial and operating information with respect to the business, operations and prospects of Sears furnished to Lehman Brothers by Sears, including financial projections prepared by Sears' management;

trading histories of Kmart common stock and of Sears common stock from May 6, 2003 through November 15, 2004 and a comparison of each of their trading histories with those of other companies that Lehman Brothers deemed relevant;

a comparison of the historical financial results and present financial condition of both Kmart and Sears with those of other companies that Lehman Brothers deemed relevant;

a comparison of the financial terms of the mergers with the financial terms of certain other transactions that Lehman Brothers deemed relevant; publicly available research estimates with respect to both Kmart and Sears; and the pro forma impact of the mergers on the future financial performance of Kmart, Sears and Holdings, including the cost savings, operating synergies and other strategic benefits expected by management of Kmart to result from the combination of the businesses of Kmart and Sears.

Edgar Filing: Sears Holdings CORP - Form 424B3

In addition, Lehman Brothers had discussions with the managements of Kmart and Sears concerning their respective businesses, operations, assets, financial conditions and prospects and undertook such other studies, analyses and investigations as Lehman Brothers deemed appropriate.

In arriving at its opinion, Lehman Brothers assumed and relied upon the accuracy and completeness of the financial and other information used by Lehman Brothers without assuming any responsibility for independent verification of such information. With respect to the financial projections of Kmart and Sears, upon the advice of Kmart and Sears, Lehman Brothers assumed that such projections were reasonably prepared on a basis reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of the managements of Kmart and Sears as to their respective future financial performances and that they would perform substantially in accordance with such projections. In arriving at its opinion, Lehman Brothers did not conduct or obtain any evaluations or appraisals of the assets or liabilities of Kmart and Sears, nor did it conduct a physical inspection of the properties and facilities of Kmart and Sears. Lehman Brothers' opinion was necessarily based upon market, economic and other conditions as they existed on, and could be evaluated as of, November 16, 2004.

In connection with rendering its opinion, Lehman Brothers performed certain financial, comparative and other analyses as described below. In arriving at its opinion, Lehman Brothers did not ascribe a specific range of value to Kmart or Sears, but rather made its determination as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, to Kmart and, accordingly, to its stockholders, of the consideration to be paid to the stockholders of Sears pursuant to the mergers on the basis of financial and comparative analyses. The preparation of a fairness opinion involves various determinations as to the most appropriate and relevant methods of financial and comparative analysis and the application of those methods to the particular circumstances, and therefore, such an opinion is not readily susceptible to summary description. In arriving at its opinion, Lehman Brothers did not attribute any particular weight to any analysis or factor considered by it, but rather made qualitative judgments as to the significance and relevance of each analysis and factor. Accordingly, Lehman Brothers believes that its analysis must be considered as a whole and that considering any portion of such analyses and factors, without considering all analyses and factors as a whole, could create a misleading or incomplete view of the process underlying its opinion. In its analyses, Lehman Brothers made numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, general business and economic conditions and other matters, many of which are beyond the control of Kmart and Sears. Any estimates contained in Lehman Brothers' analyses were not necessarily indicative of actual values or predictive of future results or values, which may be significantly more or less favorable than those suggested by its analyses. In addition, analyses relating to the value of businesses do not purport to be appraisals or to reflect the prices at which businesses actually may be sold.

The following is a summary of the material financial analyses used by Lehman Brothers in connection with providing its opinion to the Kmart board of directors. The financial analyses summarized below include information presented in tabular format. In order to fully understand the financial analyses used by Lehman Brothers, the tables must be read together with the text of each summary. Considering any portion of such analyses and of the factors considered, without considering all analyses and factors, could create a misleading or incomplete view of the process underlying Lehman Brothers' opinion.

Historical Share Price Analysis

Lehman Brothers considered historical data with regard to the trading prices of Kmart and Sears common stock for the period from May 6, 2003 to November 15, 2004. Lehman Brothers also considered the relative stock price performances during the period from November 12, 2003 to November 15, 2004 of (1) Kmart, (2) Sears, (3) the Standard & Poors 500 Index, (4) a composite of department store equities comprised of the common stocks of Dillard's Inc., Federated Department Stores, Inc., J.C. Penney Company, Inc. and The May Department Stores Company, (5) a composite of home improvement retailer equities comprised of the common stocks of The Home Depot, Inc. and Lowe's Companies, Inc., and (6) a composite of discount store equities comprised of the common stocks of Target Corporation, Wal-Mart Stores, Inc. and Costco Wholesale Corporation. During the year prior to November 16, 2004, the intra-day low and high common stock price of Kmart ranged from a low of $22.41 to a high of $107.75 per share, and the intra-day low and high common stock price of Sears ranged from a low of $31.21 to a high of $56.06 per share. Lehman Brothers noted the significant outperformance of Kmart common stock in the period reviewed relative to Sears common stock and each of the composites considered. Lehman Brothers also noted the underperformance of Sears common stock in the period reviewed relative to Kmart common stock and each of the composites considered. The foregoing historical share price analysis was presented to Kmart's board of directors to provide it with background information and perspective with respect to the relative historical share prices of Kmart and Sears common stock.

Lehman Brothers also calculated the premiums implied by the implied blended merger consideration per share of Sears common stock over the closing price of Sears common stock on November 15, 2004 and over the average closing price of Sears common stock in the 30 days prior to the announcement of the mergers. Implied blended merger consideration per share refers to the nominal value per share that a Sears stockholder would receive in the Sears merger, as of a specific date, based upon the same mix of consideration that is being offered to Sears stockholders as a whole. This analysis, using $50.75 per share of Sears common stock as the implied blended merger consideration per share to be paid to Sears stockholders, indicated that the implied blended merger consideration per share exceeded the closing price of $46.30 for Sears common stock on November 15, 2004 and the average closing price of $38.22 for Sears common stock in the 30 days prior to the announcement of the mergers by 9.6% and 32.8%, respectively. The $50.75 implied blended merger consideration per share was calculated by Lehman Brothers on the basis that 45% of Sears common stock would be exchanged for cash consideration of $50 per share and 55% of Sears common stock would be exchanged for 0.5 of a share of Holdings common stock (valued for this purpose at the closing share price of Kmart common stock on November 15, 2004 of $102.73) $[($50 \times 45\%) + ($102.73 \times 0.5 \times 55\%)]$. The implied blended merger consideration after November 15, 2004 will fluctuate based on the then stock price of Kmart common stock.

Comparable Company Analysis

In order to assess how the public market values shares of similar publicly traded companies, Lehman Brothers reviewed and compared specific financial and operating data relating to Kmart and Sears with selected companies that Lehman Brothers, based on its experience with companies in the retail industry, deemed comparable to Kmart and Sears, including:

Department Stores

Dillard's Inc.

Federated Department Stores, Inc.

J.C. Penney Company, Inc.

The May Department Stores Company

Home Improvement Retailers

The Home Depot, Inc.

Lowe's Companies, Inc.

Discount Stores

Wal-Mart Stores, Inc.

Costco Wholesale Corporation

As part of its comparable company analysis, Lehman Brothers calculated and analyzed Kmart's, Sears' and each comparable company's ratio of current stock price to its historical and projected earnings per share (commonly referred to as a price earnings ratio, or P/E). Lehman Brothers also calculated and analyzed various financial multiples, including Kmart's, Sears' and each comparable company's enterprise value to certain historical financial criteria (such as revenue, earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization (or, EBITDA) and earnings before interest and taxes (or, EBIT). The enterprise value of each company was obtained by adding its short- and long-term debt to the sum of the market value of its common equity, the value of any preferred stock (at liquidation value) and the book value of any minority interest, and subtracting its cash and cash equivalents. All of these calculations were performed, and based on publicly available financial data (including First Call estimates for earnings per share) and closing prices, as of November 15, 2004, the last trading date prior to the delivery of Lehman Brothers' opinion.

The analysis of current stock price to earnings indicated that, for the selected comparable companies, the ratio of current stock price to last twelve months earnings per share ranged from 21.3x to 27.2x, and the ratios of current stock price to projected 2004 and 2005 earnings per share ranged from 17.2x to 24.7x, and 13.3x to 21.4x, respectively.

The analysis of various financial multiples indicated that, for the selected comparable companies, the median multiple of enterprise value as a multiple of the last twelve months revenues ranged from 0.71x to 1.40x, and the median multiples of enterprise value as a multiple of the last twelve months EBITDA and last twelve months EBIT ranged from 7.2x to 12.5x, and 10.1x to 16.9x, respectively.

The following table presents the results of the ratio and financial multiple analysis as compared to the corresponding ratios and multiples of Kmart and Sears:

Metric	Comparable Department Stores Median	Comparable Home Improvement Retailers Median	Comparable Discount Stores Median	Kmart	Sears
Stock Price as a Multiple of:
Last twelve months earnings per share ("EPS")	21.3x	22.0x	27.2x	96.9x	20.9x
Projected 2004 EPS	17.2x	21.1x	24.7x	17.8x	30.7x
Projected 2005 EPS	13.3x	17.8x	21.4x	16.1x	20.6x
Enterprise Value as a Multiple of:
Actual last twelve months revenues	0.71x	1.40x	1.00x	0.39x	0.36x
Last twelve months EBITDA	7.2x	11.0x	12.5x	10.1x	6.7x
Last twelve months EBIT	10.1x	13.2x	16.9x	10.8x	12.8x

Lehman Brothers broadly considered the comparability of U.S. based retailers to Kmart and Sears. Although Lehman Brothers included home improvement retailers and discount stores in its analysis for illustrative purposes, Lehman Brothers determined that department stores, rather than home improvement retailers and discount stores, had business and operating profiles that were most similar to those of Kmart and Sears. Further, despite having considered various financial metrics in performing its comparable company analysis, Lehman Brothers concluded that EBITDA was the most relevant and useful metric in analyzing equity values of department stores, and noted that this metric was one of the bases upon which the stock of Kmart and Sears trades, as well as being a conventional metric upon which the results of operations of companies in the retail industry are often judged. Therefore, based upon and subject to the foregoing, Lehman Brothers calculated the implied equity values per share of Kmart and Sears common stock using the last twelve months EBITDA multiples of comparable department stores. Lehman Brothers noted that the median comparable department stores enterprise value to last twelve months EBITDA multiple was 7.2, and so using that as a general guide, as well as taking into account selected comparable department store enterprise values to last twelve months EBITDA multiples, Lehman Brothers selected a range of multiples of enterprise values to last twelve months EBITDA that it believed reflected the appropriate range of enterprise value multiples applicable to Kmart and Sears. Based on the selected range of multiples of enterprise value to last twelve months EBITDA of 6.5x to 7.5x, Lehman Brothers calculated a per share equity valuation range of $73.98 to $81.96 for Kmart common stock and of $42.82 to $52.01 for Sears common stock. Lehman Brothers did not factor into these per share equity values a control premium. Lehman Brothers calculated the foregoing per share equity values by first calculating respective ranges of enterprise values by multiplying the respective last twelve months EBITDA for Kmart and Sears by the selected multiples of 6.5x to 7.5x, and then subtracting from the enterprise values the net debt (which is total debt minus cash) of Kmart and Sears, respectively, and then dividing those amounts by the number of fully diluted shares of Kmart and Sears, respectively. Lehman Brothers noted that the implied blended merger consideration per share of Sears common stock was $50.75 as of November 15, 2004, which was within the range implied by the foregoing analysis, and the price of Kmart common stock as of November 15, 2004 was $102.73 per share, which was above the range implied by the foregoing analysis.

Based upon and subject to the foregoing analysis, Lehman Brothers also calculated the implied per share value of Sears common stock based on these multiples incorporating a 25% control premium. Lehman Brothers selected the 25% control premium having taken into consideration the premiums paid analysis described below under "Premiums Paid Analysis" and Lehman Brothers' experience in merger and acquisition transactions. These calculations indicated a range of implied per share values of $53.53 to $65.01. Lehman Brothers noted that the implied blended merger consideration per share of Sears common stock was $50.75 as of November 15, 2004, which was below the range implied by the foregoing analysis.

Lehman Brothers selected the comparable companies above because their businesses and operating profiles are reasonably similar to that of Kmart and Sears. However, because of the inherent differences among the businesses, operations and prospects of Kmart and Sears and the businesses, operations and prospects of the selected comparable companies, no comparable company is exactly the same as Kmart or Sears. Therefore, Lehman Brothers believed that it was inappropriate to, and therefore did not, rely solely on the quantitative results of the comparable company analysis. Accordingly, Lehman Brothers also made qualitative judgments concerning differences between the financial and operating characteristics and prospects of Kmart and Sears and the companies included in the comparable company analysis that would affect the public trading values of each in order to provide a context in which to consider the results of the quantitative analysis. These qualitative judgments related primarily to the differing sizes, growth prospects, profitability levels and degree of operational risk between Kmart and Sears and the companies included in the comparable company analysis.

Comparable Transactions Analysis

Using publicly available information, Lehman Brothers reviewed and compared the purchase prices and financial multiples paid in nine acquisitions of companies that Lehman Brothers, based on its experience with merger and acquisition transactions, deemed relevant to arriving at its opinion. Lehman Brothers chose the transactions used in the comparable transaction analysis based on the similarity of the target companies in the transactions to Sears in the size, mix, margins and other characteristics of their businesses. Lehman Brothers reviewed the following transactions:

July 29, 2004 Acquisition of Mervyn's (division of Target Corporation) by an investor group;

June 9, 2004 Acquisition of Marshall Field and Co. (division of Target Corporation) by The May Department Stores Company;

July 13, 2003 Acquisition of OfficeMax, Inc. by Boise Cascade Corporation;

May 15, 2002 Acquisition of 45% of the stock of Castorama Dubois by Kingfisher PLC;

June 14, 1999 Acquisition of ASDA Group PLC by Wal-Mart Stores (UK) Ltd;

July 3, 1998 Acquisition of Saks Holdings Inc. by Profitt's;

May 18, 1998 Acquisition of Mercantile Stores Company, Inc. by Dilliard's;

October 29, 1997 Acquisition of Carson Pirie Scott & Co. by Profitt's; and

July 14, 1994 Acquisition of R.H. Macy & Co., Inc. by Federated Department Stores, Inc.

Lehman Brothers considered the transaction values as multiples of last twelve months net sales, last twelve months EBITDA and last twelve months EBIT. The analysis indicated the following multiples:

	Comparable Transactions Median	Proposed Transaction Transaction Value as a Multiple of:
Last twelve months net sales	0.89x	0.40x
Last twelve months EBITDA	10.6x	7.4x
Last twelve months EBIT	15.8x	14.1x

Lehman Brothers noted that transaction multiples for the Sears merger were below the median comparable transaction multiples. Nevertheless, because the reasons for and the circumstances surrounding each of the transactions analyzed were so diverse and because of the inherent differences in the businesses, operations, financial conditions and prospects of Sears, and the businesses, operations and financial conditions of the companies included in the comparable transaction analysis, Lehman Brothers believed that a purely quantitative comparable transaction analysis would not be particularly meaningful in the context of the Sears merger. Lehman Brothers believed that the appropriate use of a comparable transaction analysis in this instance involves qualitative judgments concerning the differences between the characteristics of these transactions and the Sears merger. These differences would affect the acquisition values of the acquired companies and Sears. Using the median comparable transaction multiples as a general guide, Lehman Brothers, based on its expertise and experience with the retail industry, excluded certain multiples it believed were less comparable to the Sears merger and selected a range of transaction values to last twelve months EBITDA multiples that it believed reflected the appropriate range of transaction multiples applicable to Sears on a full change-in-control basis. Based on the selected range of 8.0x to 10.0x last twelve months EBITDA, Lehman Brothers' analysis indicated a range of equity values per share of Sears common stock of $56.60 to $74.97. Lehman Brothers arrived at the preceding per share equity values by first calculating a range of Sears' implied transaction values by multiplying the last twelve months EBITDA of Sears by the selected multiple range of 8.0x to 10.0x, and then subtracting from the transaction values the net debt (which is total debt minus cash) of Sears, and dividing those amounts by the number of fully diluted shares of Sears. Lehman Brothers noted that the implied blended merger consideration per share of Sears common stock was $50.75 as of, November 15, 2004, which was below the range implied by the foregoing analysis.

Kmart Discounted Cash Flow Analysis

As part of its analysis and in order to estimate the present value of Kmart common stock, Lehman Brothers prepared a five-year discounted cash flow analysis for Kmart, calculated as of December 31, 2004, of after-tax unlevered free cash flows for fiscal years 2005 through 2009.

A discounted cash flow analysis is a traditional valuation methodology used to derive a valuation of an asset by calculating the "present value" of estimated future cash flows of the asset. "Present value" refers to the current value of future cash flows or amounts and is obtained by discounting those future cash flows or amounts by a discount rate that takes into account macro-economic assumptions and estimates of risk, the opportunity cost of capital, expected returns and other appropriate factors. Lehman Brothers performed a discounted cash flow analysis for Kmart by adding (1) the present value of Kmart's projected after-tax unlevered free cash flows for fiscal years 2005 through 2009 to (2) the present value of the "terminal value" of Kmart as of 2009. "Terminal value" refers to the value of all future cash flows from an asset at a particular point in time.

Unlevered free cash flows were based on 2004 and 2005 financial forecasts and estimates provided by Kmart senior executives and the information for 2006 through 2009 was based on extrapolations. Lehman Brothers requested that certain members of Kmart's management prepare an alternative downside case in order to sensitize these after-tax unlevered free cash flows. The financial forecasts that underlay the alternative downside scenario were not presented to the Kmart board prior to its meeting on November 16, 2004 as these forecasts were prepared only for purposes of this analysis. Lehman Brothers estimated, after taking into account selected comparable department store enterprise values to last twelve months EBITDA multiples, a range of terminal values in 2009 calculated based on selected last twelve months EBITDA multiples of 6.5x to 7.5x. Lehman Brothers discounted the unlevered free cash flow streams and the estimated terminal value to a present value at a range of discount rates from 7.0% to 9.0%. The discount rates utilized in this analysis were chosen by Lehman Brothers based on its expertise and experience with the retail industry and also on an analysis of the weighted average cost of capital of Kmart and other comparable companies. Lehman Brothers calculated per share equity values by first determining a range of enterprise values of Kmart by adding the present values of the after-tax unlevered free cash flows and terminal values for each EBITDA terminal multiple and discount rate scenario, and then subtracting from the enterprise values the net debt (which is total debt minus cash) of Kmart, and dividing the those amounts by the number of fully diluted shares of Kmart.

Based on the projections and assumptions set forth above (including the midpoint of the terminal value range), the discounted cash flow analysis of Kmart yielded an implied valuation range of Kmart common stock of $95.26 to $101.50 per share for the base case and $82.07 to $87.00 per share for the alternative downside scenario. Lehman Brothers noted that the price of Kmart common stock as of November 15, 2004 was $102.73 per share, which was above the per share equity valuation range implied by the foregoing analysis.

Sears Discounted Cash Flow Analysis

As part of its analysis and in order to estimate the present value of Sears common stock, Lehman Brothers also prepared a five-year discounted cash flow analysis for Sears, calculated as of December 31, 2004, of after-tax unlevered free cash flows for fiscal years 2005 through 2009. Lehman Brothers performed a discounted cash flow analysis for Sears by adding (1) the present value of Sears' projected after-tax unlevered free cash flows for fiscal years 2005 through 2009 to (2) the present value of the terminal value of Sears as of 2009.

Unlevered free cash flows were based on 2004 and 2005 financial forecasts and estimates provided by Sears senior executives and the information for 2006 through 2009 was based on extrapolations. Lehman Brothers also adjusted these after-tax unlevered free cash flows by assuming $87.5 million of pre-tax synergies, which was based upon the midpoint of specified estimates by the managements of Kmart and Sears of cost reductions related only to corporate headquarters functions. Lehman Brothers also requested that certain members of Sears' management prepare an alternative downside scenario (which was not reviewed by the Sears board as these forecasts were prepared only for purposes of this analysis) in order to sensitize these after-tax unlevered free cash flows. Lehman Brothers estimated, after taking into account selected comparable department store enterprise values to last twelve months EBITDA multiples, a range of terminal values in 2009 calculated based on selected last twelve months EBITDA multiples of 6.5x to 7.5x. Lehman Brothers discounted the unlevered free cash flow streams and the estimated terminal value to a present value at a range of discount rates from 7.0% to 9.0%. The discount rates utilized in this analysis were chosen by Lehman Brothers based on its expertise and experience with the retail industry and also on an analysis of the weighted average cost of capital of Sears and other comparable companies. Lehman Brothers calculated per share equity values by first determining a range of enterprise values of Sears by multiplying the various last twelve months EBITDA for Sears and discount rates by adding the present values of the after-tax unlevered free cash flows and terminal values for each EBITDA terminal multiple and discount rate scenario, and then subtracting from the enterprise values the net debt (which is total debt minus cash) of Sears, and dividing those amounts by the number of fully diluted shares of Sears.

Based on the projections and assumptions set forth above (including the midpoint of the terminal value range), the discounted cash flow analysis of Sears yielded an implied valuation range of Sears common stock of $42.91 to $48.17 per share for the base case without synergies, $45.75 to $51.81 in the base case with synergies and $30.03 to $34.04 in the downside scenario without synergies. Lehman Brothers noted that the implied blended merger consideration per share of Sears common stock was $50.75 as of November 15, 2004, which was within the range of per share equity valuation implied by the base case with synergies analysis and above the range of per share equity valuation implied by the base case without synergies and the downside scenario without synergies analyses.

Pro Forma Analysis

In order to evaluate the estimated ongoing impact of the mergers, Lehman Brothers analyzed the pro forma earnings effect of the mergers from the perspective of Kmart stockholders. The pro forma earnings effect analysis was performed in order to assess the impact of the mergers on earnings per share from the perspective of Kmart stockholders. For purposes of this analysis, Lehman Brothers assumed the accuracy of the 2004 and 2005 financial forecasts for Kmart and Sears provided by the managements of Kmart and Sears, respectively. In performing this analysis, Lehman Brothers compared the estimated 2004 and 2005 diluted earnings per share of Holdings, assuming that a portion of the synergies expected to result from the mergers may or may not be realized in 2005, with the estimated 2004 and 2005 stand-alone diluted earnings per share of Kmart. Based on the assumptions described above and not including the earnings impact of any write-up of assets, Lehman Brothers calculated that the mergers would result in an increase of 5.3% and a decrease of 1.2% of Holdings estimated diluted earnings per share relative to Kmart's stand-alone estimated diluted earnings per share for 2004 and 2005, respectively, if no synergies are realized. Lehman Brothers also calculated that the mergers would result in an increase of 3.8% of Holdings estimated diluted earnings per share relative to Kmart's stand-alone estimated diluted earnings per share for 2005 assuming $87.5 million of pre-tax synergies are realized. The $87.5 million estimate of pre-tax synergies is based upon the midpoint of a range consisting of only the estimated corporate headquarters expense reductions provided by the managements of Kmart and Sears. Lehman Brothers noted that pre-tax synergies in excess of $20.7 million would be necessary in order for the mergers to result in an increase of Holdings estimated diluted earnings per share relative to Kmart's stand-alone 2005 estimated diluted earnings per share. In this analysis, Lehman Brothers excluded the earnings impact of non-recurring charges likely to be incurred in conjunction with the realization of the expected synergies. The financial forecasts that underlie this analysis are subject to substantial uncertainty and, therefore, actual results may be substantially different.

Premiums Paid Analysis

In order to assess the premium paid by Kmart to Sears stockholders in the Sears merger, Lehman Brothers reviewed the premiums paid by acquirors in transactions involving stock and cash consideration with an enterprise value in excess of $1 billion since January 1, 2003 and the premiums paid in transactions involving only stock consideration with an enterprise value in excess of $1 billion since January 1, 2003. The median premiums based on the price one day, one week and four weeks prior to transaction announcement in the stock and cash transactions were 21.3%, 20.1% and 22.4%, respectively. Lehman Brothers applied these median premiums to the volume-weighted per share price of Sears common stock for the same time periods. This analysis implied a range of share prices from $49.71 to $56.50. The median premiums based on the price one day, one week and four weeks prior to transaction announcement in the stock only transactions were 15.2%, 17.2% and 24.3%, respectively. When these premiums were applied to the volume-weighted per share price of Sears common stock for the same time periods, they implied a range of share prices from $50.51 to $53.65. Lehman Brothers noted that the implied blended merger consideration per share of Sears common stock was $50.75 as of November 15, 2004, which was within the per share equity valuation range implied by the foregoing analysis.

Lehman Brothers is an internationally recognized investment banking firm and, as part of its investment banking activities, is regularly engaged in the valuation of businesses and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions, negotiated underwritings, competitive bids, secondary distributions of listed and unlisted securities, private placements and valuations for corporate and other purposes. The Kmart board of directors selected Lehman Brothers because of its expertise, reputation and familiarity with Kmart, Sears and the retail industry generally and because its investment banking professionals have substantial experience in transactions comparable to the mergers.

As compensation for its services in connection with the mergers, Kmart paid Lehman Brothers a fee of $3,000,000 upon the delivery of Lehman Brothers' opinion. In addition, Kmart has agreed to reimburse Lehman Brothers for reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with the mergers and to indemnify Lehman Brothers for certain liabilities that may arise out of its engagement by Kmart and the rendering of Lehman Brothers' opinion. Lehman Brothers in the past has rendered investment banking services to Kmart, Sears and their affiliates and received customary fees for such services. The aggregate fees received by Lehman Brothers during the last two years from the services it rendered to Kmart, Sears and their affiliates were less than $100,000 (excluding the fee received in connection with the mergers).

In the ordinary course of its business, Lehman Brothers may actively trade in the debt or equity securities of Kmart and Sears for its own account and for the accounts of its customers and, accordingly, may at any time hold a long or short position in those securities.

Opinion of Sears' Financial Advisor

Sears retained Morgan Stanley to act as its financial advisor and to provide a financial fairness opinion to the board of directors of Sears in connection with the mergers. The board of directors selected Morgan Stanley to act as its financial advisor based on Morgan Stanley's qualifications, expertise, reputation and its knowledge of the business of Sears. At the meeting of the board of directors on November 16, 2004, Morgan Stanley rendered its oral opinion, which was subsequently confirmed in writing as of the same date, that based upon and subject to the assumptions, qualifications and limitations set forth in the opinion, the consideration to be received by the holders of shares of Sears common stock pursuant to the merger agreement, other than the ESL Companies, was fair from a financial point of view to such holders.

The full text of Morgan Stanley's opinion, dated November 16, 2004, which sets forth, among other things, the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and qualifications and limitations of the reviews undertaken in rendering its opinion is attached as Annex D to this joint proxy statement-prospectus. Stockholders should read this opinion carefully and in its entirety. Morgan Stanley's opinion is directed to the board of directors of Sears, addresses only the fairness from a financial point of view of the consideration to be received by holders of Sears common stock, other than the ESL Companies, pursuant to the merger agreement, and does not address any other aspect of the mergers. In arriving at its opinion, Morgan Stanley assumed and relied upon without independent verification the accuracy and completeness of the information supplied or otherwise made available to Morgan Stanley by Sears and Kmart for the purposes of its opinion. With respect to the financial projections and other financial and operating data, including information relating to certain strategic, financial and operational benefits anticipated from the mergers, Morgan Stanley assumed that they were reasonably prepared on bases reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of the future financial and operational performance of Sears and Kmart. In addition, Morgan Stanley assumed that the mergers would be consummated in accordance with the terms set forth in the merger agreement, including among other things, that the mergers will be treated as a nontaxable restructuring, pursuant to the Code. Morgan Stanley did not make any independent valuation or appraisal of the assets or liabilities of Sears or Kmart; however Morgan Stanley did review the analyses prepared by certain third party advisers engaged by Sears not in connection with this transaction with respect to certain real estate assets of Sears and relied without independent verification on such report. In arriving at its opinion, Morgan Stanley was not authorized to solicit, and did not solicit, interest from any party with respect to the acquisition of Sears, nor did Morgan Stanley negotiate with any parties, other than Kmart, which may have expressed interest in the possible acquisition of, or combination with, Sears.

The following is a summary of the material financial analyses performed by Morgan Stanley in connection with its opinion as of November 16, 2004. Although each financial analysis was provided to the Sears board, in connection with arriving at its opinion, Morgan Stanley considered all of its analyses as a whole and did not attribute any particular weight to any analysis described below. Some of these summaries include information in tabular format. In order to understand fully the financial analyses used by Morgan Stanley, the tables must be read together with the text of each summary. The tables alone do not constitute a complete description of the analyses.

In arriving at its opinion regarding the fairness of the consideration to be paid to holders of Sears common stock, Morgan Stanley calculated the "implied blended merger consideration." This calculation was made on the basis that, in the aggregate, 45% of the consideration for Sears shares in the mergers would consist of $50 (0.45 times $50) and 55% of the consideration for Sears shares in the mergers would consist of 0.5 of a share of Holdings common stock, which in turn, is equivalent to one share of Kmart common stock (0.55 times 0.5 times the price of a share of Kmart common stock). As a result, Morgan Stanley calculated that the implied blended merger consideration was $50.75 per share of Sears common stock as of November 15, 2004, which was the sum of $22.50 in cash (which equals 0.45 times $50) plus $28.25 (which equals 0.55 times 0.5 times $102.73, the closing price of Kmart common stock on November 15, 2004).

Historical Share Price Analysis

Morgan Stanley performed an historical share price analysis to obtain background information and perspective with respect to the relative historical share prices of Sears and Kmart common stock. Consequently, Morgan Stanley reviewed the historical price performance and trading volumes of Sears and Kmart common stock from November 15, 2003 through November 15, 2004. For the one-year period ending November 15, 2004, the closing price of Sears common stock ranged from $31.65 to $55.94 and Kmart common stock ranged from $22.41 to $106.30. Morgan Stanley noted that the closing price of Sears common stock on November 15, 2004 was $46.30 per share and the closing price of Kmart common stock was $102.73 per share. Morgan Stanley also noted that the implied blended merger consideration was $50.75 as of November 15, 2004, which was within the range of closing prices of Sears common stock for the one year period ending November 15, 2004.

The following table displays the implied percentage premium of the $50.75 implied blended merger consideration as of November 15, 2004 as compared to Sears common stock prices over various periods. The following analysis was performed to provide perspective on the historical trading price of Sears common stock versus the implied merger consideration.

Per Share Merger Consideration Value as Compared to Sears's Common Stock Price:

Consideration Value(1)	11/15/04	11/4/04(2)	15 Day Avg.	30 Day Avg.	90 Day Avg.	6 Mo. Avg.	1 Yr. Avg.	1 Yr. High	1 Yr. Low

Comparable Company Analysis.

Morgan Stanley performed a comparable company analysis, which attempts to provide an implied value for Kmart and Sears by comparing them to similar companies. For purposes of its analysis, Morgan Stanley reviewed certain public market trading multiples for the following seven public companies which, based on its experience with companies in the retail industry, Morgan Stanley considered similar to Sears and Kmart in size and business mix:

Dillard's Inc.

Federated Department Stores, Inc.

JC Penney Company, Inc.

Kohl's Corporation

The May Department Stores Company

Wal-Mart Stores, Inc.

Edgar Filing: Sears Holdings CORP - Form 424B3

Selected multiples, which are commonly used by participants and investors in the retail industry, for Sears, Kmart and each of the comparable companies were reviewed in this analysis. The selected multiples analyzed for these companies included the following:

the per share price divided by 2004 and 2005 estimated earnings per share; the per share price divided by 2004 estimated earnings per share divided by the long term earnings per share growth rate;

the aggregate market value (defined as public equity market value plus total book value of debt, total book value of preferred stock and minority interest less cash and other short term investments, and sometimes referred to as the "aggregate value") divided by last twelve months earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization, or EBITDA; and the aggregate value divided by last twelve months earnings before interest and taxes, or EBIT.

Morgan Stanley calculated these financial multiples and ratios based on publicly available financial data as of November 15, 2004. The earnings per share estimates and long term earnings per share growth rates were based on I/B/E/S consensus estimates.

A summary of the range of market trading multiples of the comparable companies and those multiples calculated for Sears and Kmart are set forth below:

Metric	Comparable Companies Range of Multiples		Sears	Kmart
Price / 2004 Earnings	14.1x	33.1x	30.7x	17.8x
Price / 2005 Earnings	12.4x	27.4x	20.6x	16.1x
Aggregate Value / Last Twelve Months EBITDA	5.1x	13.4x	7.1x	9.1x
Aggregate Value / Last Twelve Months EBIT	7.5x	16.7x	13.6x	9.3x
Price / 2004 Earnings / Long Term Earnings Growth Rate	1.3x	6.6x	4.4x	2.0x

Morgan Stanley noted that for purposes of its analysis, the ranges of multiples for the comparable company group were quite large, and, if such ranges were used, would lead to large implied valuation ranges for Sears and Kmart. As a result, Morgan Stanley, based on its experience with mergers and acquisitions and companies in the retail industry and taking into account the ranges expressed above, selected for its comparable company analysis on Sears, a representative multiple range of per share price divided by 2005 earnings of 12.0x to 17.0x and a range of aggregate value divided by last twelve months EBITDA of 5.0x to 7.0x.

Based upon and subject to the foregoing, Morgan Stanley calculated an implied valuation range for Sears common stock of $27.00 to $38.50 per share based on a share price divided by 2005 earnings multiple range and $28.00 to $45.00 based on an aggregate value divided by last twelve months EBITDA multiple range. Morgan Stanley calculated the per share implied valuation range based on the multiple range for price to Sears' estimated 2005 earnings by multiplying the low and high ends of the multiple range by Sears' estimated 2005 earnings and then dividing the resulting product by the number of Sears shares outstanding. Morgan Stanley calculated the per share implied valuation range based on the multiple range for aggregate value divided by Sears' last twelve months EBITDA by multiplying the low and high ends of the multiple range by last twelve months EBITDA, less net debt, and then dividing the result by the number of Sears shares outstanding. Morgan Stanley noted that the implied blended merger consideration was $50.75 per share as of November 15, 2004, which was greater than the range implied by the foregoing analysis.

Morgan Stanley, based on its experience with mergers and acquisitions and companies in the retail industry and taking into account the ranges expressed above, selected for its comparable company analysis on Kmart, a representative multiple range of share price divided by 2005 earnings of 12.0x to 17.0x and a range of aggregate value divided by last twelve months EBIT of 7.5x to 9.5x. Morgan

Stanley also calculated an implied valuation range for Kmart common stock of $77.00 to $109.00 per share based on a share price divided by 2005 earnings multiple range and $86.00 to $104.00 based on an aggregate value divided by last twelve months EBIT multiple range. Morgan Stanley calculated these per share implied valuation ranges in a manner similar to that described for Sears above, using however comparable financial information for Kmart. Morgan Stanley noted that the price per share of Kmart common stock was $102.73 as of November 15, 2004, which was within the range implied by the foregoing analysis.

Although the comparable companies in this analysis were compared to Sears and Kmart for purposes of this analysis, Morgan Stanley noted that no company utilized in this analysis is identical to Sears or Kmart because of differences between the business mix, regulatory environment, operations and other characteristics of Sears, Kmart and the comparable companies. In evaluating the comparable companies and in selecting the multiple ranges it used in its analysis, Morgan Stanley necessarily made judgments and assumptions with regard to industry performance, general business, economic, regulatory, market and financial conditions and other matters, many of which are beyond the control of Sears and Kmart, such as the impact of competition on the business of Sears and Kmart and on the industry generally, industry growth and the absence of any adverse material change in the financial condition and prospects of Sears and Kmart or the industry or in the markets generally. Mathematical analysis (such as determining the average or median) is not in itself a meaningful method of using comparable company data.

Real Estate Analysis

Given that the market and investors generally view Sears' full-line real estate assets as important to Sears, Morgan Stanley reviewed and analyzed Sears' full-line retail real estate assets to derive an implied valuation for Sears common stock based on the fair market value of Sears' underlying retail real estate assets. Sears provided Morgan Stanley with information on its real estate assets, which included certain valuations for limited real estate assets that had not been obtained in connection with this transaction, but that had previously been developed at various points in time for other corporate purposes and were limited in size and scope. These valuations were not detailed appraisals that provided a specific valuation for any property, but rather generally consisted only of a limited review of the size, condition and location of a property or properties and were intended only to provide a broad range of the indicative value of the particular property or properties. The Morgan Stanley analyses also did not include any costs associated with winding down the underlying retail operations.

Morgan Stanley classified Sears' real estate assets into owned, ground lease and leased categories. Within each category, Morgan Stanley further classified assets based upon the quality of the real estate as determined by Sears management. Morgan Stanley derived a range of values by applying valuation methodologies appropriate for each class of assets. The owned asset ranges reflected values associated with recent comparable transactions based upon value per square foot and value per store metrics, as well as recent sales activity of retail real estate based upon assumed market rents and the application of appropriate capitalization rates. Morgan Stanley valued ground leased assets similarly to the owned retail real estate and discounted the value to account for the ground lease payments. Morgan Stanley also determined leased asset value ranges by assuming the assets were released to a third-party at a market rent, and by discounting back the excess cash flow of escalating market rents less the contractual rents from these assets over the remaining lives of the leases, assuming all lease extension options were exercised. Based on these assumptions and projections, Morgan Stanley calculated an implied pre-tax range of value for Sears' retail real estate of $29.00 to $42.50 per share, which was calculated by dividing the sum of the value of Sears' retail real estate calculated based on the foregoing principles and dividing that sum by the number of Sears shares outstanding. Morgan Stanley noted that the implied blended merger consideration for Sears common stock was $50.75 as of November 15, 2004, which was greater than the range implied by the foregoing analysis.

Sum-of-Parts Analysis

Morgan Stanley also analyzed Sears as the sum of its constituent businesses, or as the "sum of its parts," and performed financial analysis on the following consolidated businesses of Sears:

Sears Domestic;

OSH;

The Great Indoors;

Services;

Lands' End;

Sears Canada Credit; and Sears Canada (Merchant Only).

This analysis was performed to determine an implied valuation range for Sears common stock.

Morgan Stanley reviewed and compared various actual and forecasted financial, operating and stock market information of the individual Sears businesses with that of various publicly traded companies in corresponding industries that shared certain characteristics with the applicable Sears business. Based upon this data, Morgan Stanley, in conjunction with Sears management, estimated appropriate comparable business valuation metric ranges for each constituent business including aggregate market value divided by 2004 estimated EBITDA, aggregate market value divided by 2004 estimated EBIT, estimated value upon discontinuing operations or premium to average receivables as appropriate for the individual business segments. Morgan Stanley then calculated the potential implied value of each business based on these comparable business valuation ranges, which it selected based on its experience with mergers and acquisitions and companies in the retail industry, and the corresponding businesses' operating metrics on a Sears per common share basis. The analysis for each Sears business was conducted in a manner similar to that described under "Comparable Company Analysis" above. This analysis of Sears yielded an implied pre-tax valuation range of Sears common stock of $37.50 to $53.00. Morgan Stanley calculated the implied pre-tax valuation range by adding the ranges of implied value for each business and dividing the resulting sum by the number of Sears shares outstanding. Morgan Stanley noted that the implied blended merger consideration for Sears common stock was $50.75 per share as of November 15, 2004, which was within than the range implied by the foregoing analysis.

None of the comparable companies used in the public market valuation analyses for the sum of the parts analysis is identical to the applicable Sears business. Accordingly, an examination of the results of the comparable companies used in this analysis necessarily involved complex considerations of the businesses and judgments concerning differences in financial and operating characteristics and other factors that could affect the public trading values or the acquisition values of these companies.

Sears Discounted Cash Flow Analysis

Morgan Stanley also analyzed Sears using a discounted cash flow analysis. This type of analysis is designed to provide insight into the value of a company as a function of its future cash flows and expenditures. This analysis of Sears was a five-year discounted after-tax unlevered free cash flow, calculated as of December 31, 2004, was based on financial forecasts and estimates provided by Sears management for fiscal years 2005 through 2007 and for fiscal years 2008 and 2009 was based on extrapolations. Additionally, Morgan Stanley performed sensitivities on the projections provided by Sears management. Morgan Stanley estimated a range of terminal values calculated in 2009 based on a last twelve months EBITDA multiple of 6.0x. "Terminal value" refers to the value of all future cash flows from an asset at a particular point in time.

Edgar Filing: Sears Holdings CORP - Form 424B3

Morgan Stanley discounted the unlevered free cash flow streams and the estimated terminal value to a present value at a range of discount rates from 7.5% to 9.5%. Morgan Stanley chose the discount rates utilized in this analysis based upon an analysis of the weighted average cost of capital of Sears and other comparable companies. Based on these projections and assumptions, the discounted cash flow analysis of Sears yielded an implied valuation range of Sears common stock of $25.50 to $47.00 per share, which was calculated by dividing the resulting value of Sears' future cash flow streams less net debt by the number of Sears shares outstanding. Morgan Stanley noted that the implied blended merger consideration for Sears common stock was $50.75 per share as of November 15, 2004, which was greater than the range implied by the foregoing analysis.

Kmart Discounted Cash Flow Analysis

Morgan Stanley also performed a similar five-year discounted cash flow analysis for Kmart, calculated as of December 31, 2004, of after-tax unlevered free cash flows for fiscal years 2005 through 2009. Unlevered free cash flows were based on 2004 and 2005 financial forecasts and estimates provided by Kmart senior executives and the information for 2006 through 2009 was based on extrapolations. Morgan Stanley also sensitized these after-tax unlevered free cash flows by asking certain members of Kmart's management about an alternative case. Morgan Stanley estimated a range of terminal values calculated in 2009 based on a last twelve months estimated EBITDA multiple of 5.5x to 6.5x. Morgan Stanley discounted the unlevered free cash flow streams and the estimated terminal value to a present value at a range of discount rates from 7.5% to 9.5%. Morgan Stanley chose the discount rates utilized in this analysis based upon an analysis of the weighted average cost of capital of Kmart and other comparable companies. Based on these projections and assumptions, Morgan Stanley calculated an implied valuation range of Kmart common stock of $101.50 to $110.50 per share for the base case and $67.00 to $72.00 per share for the alternative case, which, in each case, were calculated by dividing the resulting value of Kmart's future cash flow streams less net debt by the number of Kmart shares outstanding. Morgan Stanley noted that the price per share of Kmart common stock was $102.73 as of November 15, 2004, which was within the range implied by the foregoing analysis using the base case and greater than the range implied by using the alternative case.

Leveraged Buyout Analysis

Morgan Stanley also analyzed Sears from the perspective of a potential purchaser that was not a retailer, but rather was primarily a financial buyer that would effect a leveraged buyout of Sears. This five-year analysis, calculated as of December 31, 2004, assumed a leveraged buyout of Sears' consolidated businesses and subsequent divestitures of non-core assets, including divestitures of real estate. For purposes of an investor's desired internal rates of return Morgan Stanley assumes a range of purchase prices of $45.00 to $55.00 per share of Sears common stock and an exit multiple range of last twelve months' EBITDA in 2009 of 5.0x to 7.0x. Morgan Stanley also calculated sensitivities on an investor's desired potential internal rate of return assuming a range of purchase prices of $45.00 to $55.00 per share of Sears common stock, an EBITDA margin improvement of 0.0% to 0.25% in 2005 through 2009 and an exit multiple of 6.0x trailing EBITDA in 2009. Based on these projections and assumptions, Morgan Stanley calculated an implied valuation range of Sears common stock of $47.50 to $52.50 per share. Morgan Stanley noted that the implied blended merger consideration for Sears common stock was $50.75 per share as of November 15, 2004, which was within the range implied by the foregoing analysis.

Recapitalization Analysis

Morgan Stanley also reviewed potential valuations that theoretically could have been derived from a recapitalization of Sears. This five-year analysis for Sears, calculated as of December 31, 2004, assumed a recapitalization of Sears' consolidated businesses and subsequent divestitures of non-core assets, including divestitures of real estate. The analysis also assumed that Sears received an equity investment from a financial sponsor in exchange for Sears stock in a manner similar to Morgan Stanley's assumptions as described under " Leveraged Buyout Analysis" above. The analysis also assumed, on December 31, 2004, that Sears distributed excess cash (including sponsor proceeds) on its balance sheet to its non-sponsor stockholders with a ratio of pro forma total debt (including a rental adjustment factor) divided by earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation, amortization and rents of 4.0x. On December, 31, 2005, the analysis assumed the after-tax proceeds of divestitures would be distributed to the non-sponsor stockholders while maintaining a leverage ratio of 4.0x. Morgan Stanley calculated the terminal value based on a 6.0x aggregate value divided by last twelve months EBITDA multiple. Based on these projections and assumptions, Morgan Stanley calculated an implied valuation range of Sears common stock of $50.00 to $53.00 per share for non-sponsor stockholders, assuming a certain internal rate of return to the sponsor. Morgan Stanley noted that the implied blended per share merger consideration for Sears common stock was $50.75 per share as of November 15, 2004, which was within the range implied by the foregoing analysis.

Relative Contribution Analysis

Morgan Stanley compared the contribution, based on senior executive expectations of Sears and Kmart, respectively, of each of Sears and Kmart to the combined company to result from completion of the mergers. The implied contribution by Sears, based on a variety of operating and market statistics, ranged from 37.4% to 65.8%. Morgan Stanley noted that, based solely on the value of the stock portion of the merger consideration as of November 15, 2004, the pro forma ownership of the combined companies by Sears's common stockholders, including the ESL Companies with respect to their Sears shares, was 36.7%. Morgan Stanley did not account for the cash portion of the transaction in its pro forma ownership analysis.

Pro Forma Analysis

Morgan Stanley analyzed the pro forma impact of the mergers on Kmart's pro forma earnings per share and its impact on the pro forma credit profile of the combined companies. Morgan Stanley based this analysis on 2005 earnings projections provided by Sears and Kmart management. Based on this analysis, Morgan Stanley observed that the mergers would result in earnings per share dilution for Kmart stockholders of 10.6%, before taking into account any one-time charges or synergies. According to this analysis, the pretax synergies required for the combined entity to realize no earnings dilution in 2005 was $194 million. Including pretax synergies of $250 million in 2005, before taking into account any one-time charges, the mergers would result in earnings per share accretion for Kmart stockholders of 3.1%.

Morgan Stanley performed a variety of financial and comparable analyses for purposes of rendering its opinion. The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex process and is not susceptible to partial analysis or summary description. In arriving at its opinion, Morgan Stanley considered the results of all of its analyses as a whole and did not attribute any particular weight to any analysis or factor considered. Furthermore, Morgan Stanley believes that the summary provided and the analyses described above must be considered as a whole and that selecting any portion of the analyses, without considering all of them, would create an incomplete view of the process underlying Morgan Stanley's analysis and opinion. As a result, the ranges of valuations resulting from any particular analysis or combination of analyses described above should not be taken to be the view of Morgan Stanley with respect to the actual value of Sears or Kmart or their common stock.

In performing its analyses, Morgan Stanley made numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, general business, regulatory and economic conditions and other matters, many of which are beyond the control of Morgan Stanley, Sears or Kmart. Any estimates contained in the analysis of Morgan Stanley are not necessarily indicative of future results or actual values, which may be significantly more or less favorable than those suggested by such estimates. The analyses performed were prepared solely as part of the analyses of Morgan Stanley of the fairness from a financial point of view of the consideration to be received by holders of shares of Sears common stock pursuant to the merger agreement (other than the ESL Companies), and were prepared in connection with the delivery by Morgan Stanley of its opinion on November 16, 2004 to Sears' board of directors.

Edgar Filing: Sears Holdings CORP - Form 424B3

The opinion of Morgan Stanley was one of the many factors taken into consideration by the Sears board of directors in making its determination to approve the proposed transaction. The foregoing summary does not purport to be a complete description of the analyses performed by Morgan Stanley.

Morgan Stanley is an internationally recognized investment banking and advisory firm. Morgan Stanley, as part of its investment banking business, is continuously engaged in the valuation of businesses and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions, negotiated underwritings, competitive biddings, secondary distributions of listed and unlisted securities, private placements and valuations for corporate, estate and other purposes. In the ordinary course of its business, Morgan Stanley and its affiliates may from time to time trade in the securities or the indebtedness of Sears, Kmart and their affiliates for its own account, the accounts of investment funds and other clients under the management of Morgan Stanley and for the accounts of its customers and accordingly, may at any time hold a long or short position in such securities or indebtedness for any such account. In the past, Morgan Stanley and its affiliates have provided financial advisory and financing services for both Sears and Kmart and have received fees for rendering of these services. Specifically, during the past three years, Morgan Stanley has received from Sears approximately $13.9 million in connection with its investment banking activities, exclusive of any fees related to this transaction. An affiliate of Morgan Stanley also participates with others in an existing $2.0 billion revolving three-year credit facility of a subsidiary of Sears. In addition, Morgan Stanley may provide, or seek to provide, financial advice and financing services to the combined company.

Pursuant to an engagement letter dated as of October 29, 2004, Sears has agreed to pay Morgan Stanley a transaction fee of $25.0 million, $2.5 million of which became payable upon the announcement of the mergers and the remainder of which is contingent upon the consummation of the mergers. Sears has also agreed to reimburse Morgan Stanley for its fees and expenses incurred in performing its services. In addition, Sears has agreed to indemnify Morgan Stanley and its affiliates, their respective directors, officers, agents and employees and each person, if any, controlling Morgan Stanley or any of its affiliates against certain liabilities and expenses, including certain liabilities under the federal securities laws, related to or arising out of Morgan Stanley's engagement and any related transactions.

Interests of Directors and Executive Officers in the Mergers

Interests of Kmart Directors and Executive Officers. In considering the recommendation of the board of directors of Kmart to vote for the proposal to adopt the merger agreement, stockholders of Kmart should be aware that members of the Kmart board of directors and members of Kmart's executive management have relationships, agreements or arrangements that provide them with interests in the mergers that may be in addition to or differ from those of Kmart's stockholders. The Kmart board of directors was aware of these relationships, agreements and arrangements during its deliberations on the merits of the mergers and in making its decision to recommend to the Kmart stockholders that they vote to adopt the merger agreement.

Interests of Kmart's Controlling Stockholders. In connection with the merger agreement, the ESL Companies entered into a support agreement with Kmart and Sears, pursuant to which, the ESL Companies have agreed (1) subject to limited exceptions, to vote their shares of Kmart common stock and Sears common stock in favor of the adoption of the merger agreement, (2) to irrevocably elect to receive Holdings common stock in the Sears merger, and (3) not to transfer or otherwise dispose of any of their shares of Kmart common stock or Sears common stock, until the termination of the support agreement which occurs upon the earlier to occur of the termination of the merger agreement or the day after the effective date of the mergers. The ESL Companies (except for ESL Investment Management, L.L.C.) are controlled, directly or indirectly, by ESL Investments, Inc., which in turn is controlled by Edward S. Lampert, the Chairman of Kmart. Mr. Lampert directly controls ESL Investment Management, L.L.C.

As of the Kmart record date, the ESL Companies beneficially owned approximately 53% of the outstanding shares of Kmart common stock, which then consisted of approximately 42.0 million shares of Kmart common stock, options to acquire approximately 6.5 million shares of Kmart common stock and notes convertible into approximately 6.3 million shares of Kmart common stock (although since the Kmart record date, all of these convertible notes have been converted into such number of shares of Kmart common stock). This beneficial ownership represents the power to vote approximately 47% of the outstanding shares of Kmart common stock (without giving effect to the exercise of such options and conversion of such convertible notes). As of the Sears record date, the ESL Companies beneficially owned approximately 14% of the outstanding shares of Sears common stock, which consists of approximately 31.1 million shares of Sears common stock. This beneficial ownership represents the power to vote approximately 14% of the outstanding shares of Sears common stock. Further information about the interests of Kmart's controlling stockholders can be found at "Risk Factors Affiliates of the Chairman of Holdings, whose interests may be different than your interests, will have substantial influence over Holdings" on page 19, and further information about the support agreement can be found under " The Support Agreement" on page 108.

For more information about these convertible notes and options held or formerly held by the ESL Companies, see " Kmart Convertible Notes and Other Options" below.

CRK Partners II, L.P. (one of the ESL Companies) owns Class 5 claims reconciled in the amount of $720,559,606, on the account of which CRK Partners II has received from Kmart 4,274,456 shares of Kmart common stock pursuant to the Amended Plan of Reorganization. Kmart is maintaining a distribution reserve of 20 percent of the 21.3 million shares issued. If upon settlement of all claims, the ultimate amount allowed for Class 5 claims is consistent with the Amended Plan of Reorganization and the remaining shares in the distribution reserve are issued to claimants on a pro-rata basis, CRK Partners II would receive an additional approximately 1.1 million shares of Kmart (but does not yet have beneficial ownership of those shares within the meaning of Rule 13d-3(d) (i) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended). From time to time, additional shares of Kmart common stock have been and may continue to be distributed to CRK Partners II in respect of settling these Class 5 claims, although the actual number of shares to be issued to CRK Partners II will depend on the actual settlement amounts. For more information, see "Where You Can Find More Information" on page 148.

Other Relationships to ESL Investments. William C. Crowley, a director of Kmart and currently Senior Vice President, Finance, of Kmart, is also President and Chief Operating Officer of ESL Investments, Inc. He is expected to become Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of Holdings after completion of the mergers.

Thomas J. Tisch and Steven T. Mnuchin, who are directors of Kmart, are limited partners in one of the ESL Companies and another affiliate of ESL Investments, Inc.

Other Kmart Share Ownership. Thomas J. Tisch, a director of Kmart, beneficially owns approximately 1% of the outstanding Kmart common stock. His brothers, Andrew Tisch, Daniel Tisch and James Tisch, and certain trusts managed by his brothers beneficially own approximately 4% of the outstanding Kmart common stock. Thomas J. Tisch has no pecuniary interest in the Kmart shares beneficially owned by his brothers or these trusts.

Kmart Management Positions. The merger agreement provides that Edward S. Lampert, Kmart's current Chairman, will be the Chairman of Holdings after the mergers, and that Aylwin B. Lewis, Kmart's current Chief Executive Officer and President and a director, will become President and a director of Holdings and Chief Executive Officer of Kmart and Sears Retail. In addition, other members of Kmart management will serve in senior management positions at Holdings, including William C. Crowley, who is expected to become Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of Holdings after completion of the mergers. For further information, see " Board of Directors and Management After the Mergers" below.

Kmart Stock Options and Restricted Shares. Julian C. Day (current director and former Chief Executive Officer and President of Kmart) has options to acquire an aggregate of 1,168,321 shares of Kmart common stock. Subject to approval of Kmart stockholders, it is expected that Aylwin B. Lewis (current director and Chief Executive Officer and President of Kmart) will have 150,000 shares of Kmart common stock. Upon the completion of the Kmart merger, each option to purchase shares of Kmart common stock (whether vested or unvested) will be converted into the right to purchase an equivalent number of shares of Holdings common stock at an exercise price per share equal to the exercise price per share of the Kmart common stock subject to the option before the conversion and will continue to be governed by its applicable terms.

In addition, each restricted share of Kmart common stock will be converted into a restricted share based on a share of Holdings' common stock at the exchange ratio in the Kmart merger and will continue to be governed by its applicable terms. Subject to approval of Kmart stockholders, it is expected that Mr. Lewis will have 50,781 restricted shares of Kmart common stock having a value of $4.5 million as of the date of the grant. In addition, it is expected that Mr. Lewis will be granted an additional number of restricted shares of Kmart common stock equal to $1 million (based on a per share price determined immediately prior to the consummation of the mergers), subject to approval of the Kmart stockholders and the completion of the mergers and other conditions to be determined.

For additional information about options and restricted shares held by certain Kmart directors and executives, see Kmart's proxy statement for its 2004 annual meeting of stockholders and for additional information on the effect of the Kmart merger on stock options and restricted shares held by Kmart directors and executives, see " Treatment of Stock Options and Restricted Shares" on page 92.

Kmart Convertible Notes and Other Options. As of the Kmart record date, the ESL Companies beneficially owned $60 million in aggregate principal amount of 9% convertible subordinated notes, the principal amounts plus accrued and unpaid interest of which were convertible at any time prior to their maturity on May 6, 2006, at the option of the holders, into shares of Kmart common stock at a conversion price equal to $10 per share. In addition, the ESL Companies currently beneficially own options to purchase, prior to May 6, 2005, approximately 6.5 million shares of Kmart common stock at a price of $13 per share. Certain investment series affiliated with Third Avenue Trust also beneficially own similar options with the same terms and conditions to purchase approximately 140 thousand shares of Kmart common stock. These convertible notes and options were issued by Kmart in connection with its emergence from bankruptcy and pursuant to an Investment Agreement, dated January 24, 2003, as amended, with ESL Investment, Inc. and Third Avenue Trust, on behalf of certain of its investment series. For further information, please see "Where You Can Find More Information" on page 147.

On January 31, 2005, Kmart and Holdings entered into an agreement with certain of the ESL Companies. Pursuant to this agreement, these ESL Companies converted, in accordance with the terms of the notes, all of the outstanding 9% convertible subordinated notes of Kmart into an aggregate of 6,269,998 shares of Kmart common stock, plus cash in lieu of fractional shares, and, in consideration of such conversion, received an aggregate payment from Kmart of $3.3 million in cash. This cash payment is approximately equivalent to the discounted, after-tax cost of the future interest payments that would have otherwise been paid by Kmart to these ESL Companies in the absence of the conversion (calculated by multiplying the present value of such interest payments by one less an assumed effective tax rate for Kmart). The agreement also provides that the Kmart options issued pursuant to the investment agreement as described above will be exchanged for options to acquire the same number of shares of Holdings common stock at the same exercise price upon consummation of the mergers. The Holdings options will have the same terms and conditions as the Kmart options and will expire, in accordance with their terms, on May 6, 2005.

This agreement was approved by Kmart's audit committee as contemplated by the Marketplace Rules of the Nasdaq Stock Market for related party transactions, as well as by Kmart's board of directors.

Holdings Directors. Pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement, Edward S. Lampert (currently the Chairman of Kmart), Aylwin B. Lewis (currently a director and Chief Executive Officer and President of Kmart), William C. Crowley (currently a director and Senior Vice President, Finance of Kmart), Julian C. Day (currently a director of Kmart), Steven T. Mnuchin (currently a director of Kmart), Ann N. Reese (currently a director of Kmart), and Thomas J. Tisch (currently a director of Kmart) will be among the ten initial directors of the Holdings board of directors after the mergers. Kmart directors (other than employees) who serve on the Holdings board of directors are expected to be compensated for their services in that capacity in accordance with a customary director compensation policy. For further information, see " Board of Directors and Management after the Mergers" below.

Indemnification and Insurance. The merger agreement provides that, upon completion of the mergers, Holdings will, to the fullest extent permitted by law, indemnify and hold harmless, and provide advancement of expenses to, all past and present officers, directors and employees of Kmart and its subsidiaries to the same extent those persons were entitled to indemnification or advancement of expenses under Kmart's certificate of incorporation, by-laws and indemnification agreements.

The merger agreement also provides that Holdings will maintain for a period of six years after completion of the mergers the current directors' and officers' liability insurance policies maintained by Kmart, or policies with a substantially comparable insurer of at least the same coverage and amounts containing terms and conditions that are no less advantageous to the insured, with respect to claims arising from facts or events that occurred on or before the completion of the mergers, although Holdings will not be required to make annual premium payments in excess of 250% of the annual premiums currently paid by Kmart for directors' and officers' liability insurance.

Interests of Sears Directors and Executive Officers. In considering the recommendation of the board of directors of Sears to vote for the proposal to adopt the merger agreement, stockholders of Sears should be aware that members of the Sears board of directors and members of Sears' management team have relationships, agreements or arrangements that provide them with interests in the mergers that may be in addition to or differ from those of Sears' stockholders. The Sears board of directors was aware of these relationships, agreements and arrangements during its deliberations on the merits of the mergers and in making its decision to recommend to the Sears stockholders that they vote to adopt the merger agreement.

Sears Management Positions. The merger agreement provides that Alan J. Lacy, Sears' current Chairman, Chief Executive Officer and President, will be the Vice Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Holdings after the mergers. In addition, other members of Sears management will serve in senior management positions at Holdings. For further information, see " Board of Directors and Management after the Mergers" below.

Lacy Employment Agreement. Kmart and Sears entered into an employment agreement, dated as of November 16, 2004, with Alan J. Lacy, Sears' current Chairman, Chief Executive Officer and President, which has been assumed by Holdings. The employment agreement provides for a term of employment commencing upon completion of the mergers and ending on the fifth anniversary thereof. If the mergers are completed, the employment agreement will supersede the Executive Non-Disclosure and Non-Solicitation of Employees Agreement and the Executive Severance/Non-Compete Agreement which Mr. Lacy executed with Sears as of November 26, 2001, the terms of which are substantially similar to those described under "Sears Non-Compete/Change of Control Agreements" beginning on page 75. During the term, Mr. Lacy will serve as the Vice Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Holdings and a member of its board of directors.

During the term, Mr. Lacy will receive an annual base salary of no less than $1,500,000 (which represents an increase of $465,000 over his current base salary of $1,035,000) and a target bonus of 150% of his annual base salary (which represents an increase of 25 percentage points over his current target bonus of 125% of his annual base salary) and will be eligible for, and receive benefits under, employee benefit and perquisite arrangements no less favorable than those generally applicable or made available to senior executives of Holdings. Upon completion of the mergers, Mr. Lacy will be granted 75,000 restricted shares of Holdings common stock, which will vest in full on June 30, 2006, subject to Mr. Lacy's continued employment with Holdings through such date. In addition, upon completion of the mergers, Mr. Lacy will be granted a stock option to purchase 200,000 shares of Holdings common stock with a per share exercise price equal to the fair market value of Holdings common stock on the date of grant. The stock option will vest with respect to one-quarter of the shares subject to the stock option on each of the first four anniversaries of completion of the mergers, subject to Mr. Lacy's continued employment with Holdings through each applicable vesting date.

If Mr. Lacy's employment is terminated by Holdings without cause (as defined in the employment agreement) or Mr. Lacy resigns with good reason (as defined below), Mr. Lacy will be entitled, subject to execution of a release in favor of Holdings, to receive severance benefits, including:

a pro rata bonus based on the performance of Holdings for the year in which the termination occurs;

two times the sum of Mr. Lacy's then current annual base salary and target bonus;

two additional years of age and service credit under all welfare benefit plans, programs, agreements and arrangements of Holdings; accelerated vesting of equity-based awards and three years to exercise any vested options; and continued welfare benefits for two years.

For purposes of the employment agreement, "good reason" means (1) the assignment to Mr. Lacy of duties inconsistent with, or any diminution of, the position, authority, duties or responsibilities called for by the employment agreement, (2) the failure to pay Mr. Lacy his compensation under the employment agreement, (3) Holdings' relocation of Mr. Lacy's place of employment, (4) the failure of Sears or Kmart to require the assumption of the employment agreement by Holdings or the failure of Holdings to require the assumption of the employment agreement by a successor, or (5) the failure to elect or reelect Mr. Lacy to Holdings' board of directors. In addition, "good reason" means any termination by Mr. Lacy pursuant to a notice of termination given during the 30-day period immediately following June 30, 2006.

If Mr. Lacy's employment is terminated due to his death or disability (as defined in the employment agreement), Mr. Lacy (or his estate) will be entitled to receive a pro-rata bonus for the year of termination, accelerated vesting of equity-based awards and three years to exercise vested options and continued welfare benefits for two years.

Under the employment agreement, Mr. Lacy is restricted from revealing confidential information of Holdings and, for one year following Mr. Lacy's termination of employment during the term for any reason, Mr. Lacy may not solicit for employment any employees of Holdings and may not compete with Holdings. In the event that any payments to Mr. Lacy are subject to an excise tax under Section 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code, Mr. Lacy will be entitled to an additional gross-up payment so that he remains in the same after-tax position he would have been in had the excise tax not been imposed.

Other Employment Agreement. Holdings expects to enter into a mutually acceptable employment agreement with Luis A. Padilla, Sears' current President, Merchandising, prior to the completion of the mergers.

Sears Non-Compete/Change of Control Agreements. The executive officers of Sears have each entered into an executive severance/non-compete agreement with Sears, which, as described above, in the case of Mr. Lacy will be superseded by his new employment agreement. The agreements require the executive officers to maintain the confidentiality of information concerning Sears' business and prohibit the executive officers from working for a competitor of Sears or hiring any Sears employees for one year after their employment with Sears ends. If the executive officer's employment is terminated by Sears without "cause" or by the executive for "good reason" (in each case, as defined in the agreement) in connection with the merger, the executive officer will receive the following payments and benefits:

A lump sum equal to the annual target bonus prorated to the date of termination of employment;

A lump sum equal to one or two times the sum of the then current annual base salary and the annual target bonus, determined by the year of the change in control employment termination;

Continuation of most Sears benefits for one or two years following the change in control employment termination; and Immediate vesting of any unvested stock options and restricted shares and continued exercisability of any options until their expiration.

If any payments to an executive covered by an executive severance/non-compete agreement are subject to an excise tax under Section 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code, the executive will be entitled to an additional payment so that he or she remains in the same after-tax position he or she would have been in had the excise tax not been imposed. If the merger is completed as of March 15, 2005 and each of the executive officers' employment is terminated immediately thereafter, the value of the lump sum payments described above to which Janine Bousquette, Executive Vice President and Chief Customer and Marketing Officer of Sears, Greg A. Lee, Senior Vice President, Human Resources, of Sears and the remaining executive officers of Sears (other than Sears' Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer, which is further discussed below), as a group, would be entitled equals approximately $1,993,050, $1,713,360 and $15,394,500, respectively.

On February 17, 2005, Sears and Glenn R. Richter, Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of Sears, entered into a letter agreement to amend his executive severance/non-compete agreement in the following material respects. If the mergers are not consummated, the letter agreement will be of no force and effect. So long as Mr. Richter remains employed with Sears through the completion of the mergers, (i) upon the completion of the mergers, Mr. Richter will resign from all positions with Sears that he currently holds, (ii) upon completion of the mergers, he will receive a payment equal to $641,000 in lieu of receiving any severance payments or benefits to which he might otherwise be entitled under the severance/non-compete agreement, and any unvested restricted stock that does not otherwise become vested pursuant to the merger agreement will nevertheless also become vested, (iii) Mr. Richter will cease to be subject to the covenant not to compete to which he would otherwise be bound under his executive severance/non-compete agreement and (iv) Mr. Richter's no solicitation of employees covenant will be extended for two years instead of one year post-termination of his employment. In all other material respects, as modified by the letter agreement, his executive severance/non-compete agreement will remain in full force and effect.

Sears Stock Options and Restricted Shares. Upon the completion of the Sears merger, each option to purchase shares of Sears common stock will be converted into the right to receive an amount in cash, equal to the product of (A) the excess, if any, of (i) the sum of (a) the product of (1) 45% multiplied by (2) $50, (the cash consideration) plus (b) the product of (1) 55% multiplied by (2) 0.50 (the exchange ratio for the share consideration) multiplied by the closing price per share of Kmart common stock on the last trading day before completion of the mergers over (ii) the exercise price of the option per share multiplied by (B) the number of shares of Sears common stock subject to the option.

Upon adoption of the merger agreement by Sears stockholders, a pro rata portion of shares of Sears common stock owned by Sears employees that are currently subject to restrictions and were granted at least six months prior to such adoption will vest and become free of restrictions. As a result, as of the time of the completion of the mergers, these vested shares will be no different than any other shares of Sears common stock and the holder can make an election with respect to these shares. The restricted shares of Sears stock that do not vest and do not become free of restrictions will be converted into 0.5 of a share of Holdings common stock in the mergers and will continue to be subject to restrictions. See " Treatment of Stock Options and Restricted Shares" on page 92.

Assuming that no options are exercised after the date of this joint proxy-statement prospectus, no reload options are granted after February 10, 2005 and the Sears merger is completed on March 15, 2005, each of Mr. Lacy, Mr. Richter, Mr. Padilla, Ms. Bousquette, Mr. Lee and the remaining executive officers of Sears as a group would be entitled, as of the completion of the Sears merger, to a cash payment with respect to their stock options equal to approximately $22,339,661, $756,276, $998,000, $1,346,384, $836,792 and $5,261,150, respectively, and would vest pro rata with respect to 8,314, 12,584, 0, 31,715, 5,609 and 125,436 restricted shares of Sears common stock (excluding those described above under the long-term performance incentive plan).

Director Stock Options and Deferred Shares. All deferred shares of Sears common stock held by a non-employee director under Sears' non-employee director stock plan will vest in full upon completion of the Sears merger. Assuming that the Sears merger is completed on March 15, 2005, the current directors of Sears as a group would be entitled, as of the completion of the Sears merger, to a cash payment with respect to their stock options equal to approximately $1,093,516 and to the conversion of their 42,596 deferred shares of Sears common stock into 21,298 shares of Holdings common stock.

For additional information about options and restricted shares held by Sears directors and executive officers, see " Treatment of Stock Options and Restricted Shares" on page 92.

Sears Non-Employee Directors Retirement Plan. Under the Sears non-employee directors retirement plan, each non-employee director of Sears who was a director on November 8, 1995 will be eligible following completion of the Sears merger to receive, while living, a quarterly payment in advance of each quarter equal to one-quarter of the annual retainer fee of $30,000 in effect on November 8, 1995.

Holdings Directors. Pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement, Alan J. Lacy (currently Chairman, Chief Executive Officer and President of Sears), Donald J. Carty (currently a director of Sears), and Michael A. Miles (currently a director of Sears) will be among the ten initial directors of the Holdings board of directors after the mergers. Sears directors (other than employees) who serve on the Holdings board of directors are expected to be compensated for their services in that capacity in accordance with a customary director compensation policy. For further information, see " Board of Directors and Management after the Mergers" below.

Indemnification and Insurance. The merger agreement provides that, upon completion of the mergers, Holdings will, to the fullest extent permitted by law, indemnify and hold harmless, and provide advancement of expenses to, all past and present officers, directors and employees of Sears and its subsidiaries to the same extent those persons were entitled to indemnification or advancement of expenses under Sears' certificate of incorporation, by-laws and indemnification agreements.

The merger agreement also provides that Holdings will maintain for a period of six years after completion of the mergers the current directors' and officers' liability insurance policies maintained by Sears or policies with a substantially comparable insurer of at least the same coverage and amounts containing terms and conditions that are no less advantageous to the insured, with respect to claims arising from facts or events that occurred on or before the completion of the mergers, although Holdings will not be required to make annual premium payments in excess of 250% of the annual premiums currently paid by Sears for directors' and officers' liability insurance.

Board of Directors and Management after the Mergers

Board of Directors. The board of directors of Holdings after the mergers will have ten members, consisting of seven directors from the current Kmart board and three directors from the current Sears board. The merger agreement had contemplated that Glenn R. Richter (the current Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of Sears) would serve as Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of Holdings. Instead, Kmart and Sears expect that Mr. Crowley will serve in that capacity. Upon completion of the mergers, Mr. Richter will leave Sears to pursue other professional opportunities.

Compensation of Directors and Other Management. Holdings has not yet paid any compensation to its directors, executive officers or other managers. The form and amount of the compensation to be paid to each of Holdings' directors, executive officers (other than Mr. Lacy) and other managers will be determined by the Holdings board of directors as soon as practicable immediately prior to or following the completion of the mergers. Information with respect to Mr. Lacy's compensation as the Vice Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Holdings after the mergers is described above under " Interests of Sears Directors and Executive Officers Lacy Employment Agreement" beginning on page 74.

Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences

The following is a discussion of the material United States federal income tax consequences of the mergers to U.S. holders of Kmart common stock and Sears common stock who hold such stock as a capital asset. The discussion is the opinion of Simpson Thacher & Bartlett LLP, insofar as it sets forth United States federal income tax consequences of the Kmart merger to Kmart stockholders, and is the opinion of Wachtell, Lipton, Rosen & Katz, insofar as it sets forth United States federal income tax consequences of the Sears merger to Sears stockholders. The discussion is based on the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), Treasury regulations thereunder, and administrative rulings and court decisions in effect as of the date hereof, all of which are subject to change at any time, possibly with retroactive effect.

For purposes of this discussion, the term "U.S. holder" means:

a citizen or resident of the United States;

a corporation created or organized under the laws of the United States or any of its political subdivisions;

a trust that (1) is subject to the supervision of a court within the United States and the control of one or more United States persons or (2) has a valid election in effect under applicable United States Treasury regulations to be treated as a United States person; or an estate that is subject to United States federal income tax on its income regardless of its source.

If a partnership holds Kmart common stock or Sears common stock, the tax treatment of a partner will generally depend on the status of the partner and the activities of the partnership. If a U.S. holder is a partner in a partnership holding Kmart common stock or Sears common stock, the U.S. holder should consult its tax advisors.

This discussion is not a complete description of all the consequences of the mergers and, in particular, may not address United States federal income tax considerations applicable to stockholders subject to special treatment under United States federal income tax law (including, for example, non-United States persons, financial institutions, dealers in securities, insurance companies or tax-exempt entities, 401(k) plans, holders who acquired Kmart common stock or Sears common stock pursuant to the exercise of an employee stock option or right or otherwise as compensation, and holders who hold Kmart common stock or Sears common stock as part of a hedge, straddle or conversion transaction). This discussion does not address the tax consequences of any transaction other than the mergers. This discussion does not address the tax consequences to any person who actually or constructively owns 5% or more of Sears common stock or Kmart common stock or any person who actually or constructively owns both Sears common stock and Kmart common stock. Also, this discussion does not address United States federal income tax considerations applicable to holders of options or warrants to purchase Kmart, Sears or Holdings common stock, or holders of debt instruments convertible into Kmart, Sears or Holdings common stock. In addition, no information is provided herein with respect to the tax consequences of the mergers under applicable state, local or non-United States laws, or under any proposed Treasury regulations that have not taken effect as of the date of this joint proxy statement-prospectus.

HOLDERS OF KMART COMMON STOCK OR SEARS COMMON STOCK ARE URGED TO CONSULT WITH THEIR TAX ADVISORS REGARDING THE TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE MERGERS TO THEM, INCLUDING THE EFFECTS OF UNITED STATES FEDERAL, STATE AND LOCAL, FOREIGN AND OTHER TAX LAWS.

The obligations of Kmart and Sears to consummate the mergers are conditioned on the receipt of opinions of their respective tax counsel, Simpson, Thacher & Bartlett, LLP (as to Kmart) and Wachtell, Lipton, Rosen & Katz (as to Sears), dated the effective date of the mergers (each, a "Tax Opinion"), to the effect that the exchange of Sears common stock and Kmart common stock for Holdings common stock pursuant to the mergers, taken together, will be treated for United States income tax purposes as a transaction described in Section 351 of the Code. Each of the Tax Opinions will be subject to customary qualifications and assumptions, including that the mergers will be completed according to the terms of the merger agreement. In rendering the Tax Opinions, each counsel may require and rely upon representations and covenants including those contained in the certificate of officers of Kmart, Sears, Holdings and others. Although the merger agreement allows each of Kmart and Sears to waive this condition to closing, neither Kmart nor Sears currently anticipates doing so. In the unlikely event that either Kmart or Sears does waive this condition, we will inform you of this decision and ask you to vote on the mergers taking this into consideration if there are any material adverse changes in the U.S. federal income tax consequences to Kmart's or Sears' stockholders.

The Tax Opinions are not binding on the IRS or the courts, and the parties do not intend to request a ruling from the IRS with respect to the mergers. Accordingly, there can be no assurance that the IRS will not challenge such conclusion or that a court will not sustain such a challenge.

The following discussion assumes that the exchange of Sears common stock and Kmart common stock for Holdings common stock pursuant to the mergers, taken together, will constitute an exchange described in Section 351 of the Code. The following discussion is not binding on the IRS.

Federal Income Tax Consequences to Kmart Stockholders

Because a holder of Kmart common stock will receive solely Holdings common stock in exchange for its Kmart common stock in the Kmart merger, the holder of Kmart common stock will not recognize gain or loss upon the exchange. The aggregate tax basis of the Holdings common stock the holder of Kmart common stock receives will be equal to the aggregate tax basis of the Kmart common stock the holder surrenders, and the holding period of the Holdings common stock will include the holder's holding period of the Kmart common stock surrendered.

Federal Income Tax Consequences to Sears Stockholders

Exchange of Sears Common Stock Solely for Holdings Common Stock

A holder of Sears common stock who receives solely Holdings common stock in exchange for its Sears common stock in the Sears merger will not recognize gain or loss upon the exchange. The aggregate tax basis of the Holdings common stock the holder receives will be equal to the aggregate tax basis of the Sears common stock the holder surrenders, and the holding period of the Holdings common stock will include the holder's holding period of the Sears common stock surrendered.

Exchange of Sears Common Stock for a Combination of Holdings Common Stock and Cash

The tax treatment of U.S. holders of Sears common stock who exchange Sears common stock for a combination of Holdings common stock and cash depends on whether the receipt of cash by such holders is governed by Section 304 of the Code (which governs sales of stock by controlling shareholders to related corporations) by reason of the former holders of Sears common stock (including certain ESL Companies), in the aggregate, owning stock possessing at least 50% of the total combined voting power of all classes of Holdings stock entitled to vote or at least 50% of the total value of all classes of Holdings stock for purposes of Section 304 of the Code. Due to a lack of definitive judicial or administrative guidance regarding the 50% test, including the extent to which the approximately 40-44% of outstanding shares of Holdings common stock to be held by the ESL Companies following the mergers will count toward the satisfaction of the 50% test, counsel to Sears is of the opinion that it is uncertain whether the 50% test will be satisfied. If, immediately after the effective time of the mergers, the former holders of Sears common stock do not so own that amount of stock of Holdings, the material U.S. federal income tax consequences to U.S. holders of Sears common stock who receive both cash and Holdings common stock in the Sears merger are determined, and Holdings would expect to take the position that such consequences are determined, under Section 351 of the Code, in general, as follows:

gain will be recognized on the exchange of Sears common stock for a combination of cash and Holdings common stock pursuant to the Sears merger equal to the lesser of:

the excess of the sum of the fair market value of the Holdings common stock and the amount of cash received by the U.S. holder of Sears common stock in the Sears merger over the U.S. holder's tax basis in the holder's Sears common stock surrendered in the Sears merger, and the amount of cash received by the U.S. holder in the Sears merger;

no loss will be recognized by a U.S. holder of Sears common stock who receives a combination of cash and Holdings common stock in the Sears merger;

the aggregate adjusted basis of the Holdings common stock received in the Sears merger will be equal to the aggregate adjusted basis of the Sears common stock surrendered, reduced by the amount of cash the U.S. holder of Sears common stock receives and increased by the amount of gain that the U.S. holder of Sears common stock recognizes;

the holding period of the Holdings common stock received in the Sears merger will include the holding period of the Sears common stock exchanged for that Holdings common stock; and

In the case of a U.S. holder who acquired different blocks of Sears common stock at different times and at different prices, any gain or loss will be determined separately with respect to each block of Sears common stock, and the cash received will be allocated pro rata to each such block of stock, and such a holder should consult with its tax advisor regarding the manner in which the above rules would apply to such U.S. holder.

If the 50% test described above is satisfied, then, with respect to a U.S. holder of Sears common stock who receives Holdings common stock and cash in exchange for its Sears common stock in the Sears merger, in general:

the U.S. holder of Sears common stock will be treated as having exchanged (1) a portion of the U.S. holder's Sears common stock for Holdings common stock in a nontaxable transaction, and (2) a portion of the U.S. holder's Sears common stock for cash; gain or loss will generally be recognized on this exchange, in an amount equal to the difference between:

the amount of cash received in the Sears merger, and the U.S. holder's tax basis in the Sears common stock that is treated as exchanged for cash;

the aggregate tax basis in the Holdings common stock received in exchange for Sears common stock pursuant to the Sears merger will be equal to (1) the U.S. holder's aggregate adjusted tax basis in the holder's Sears common stock held immediately prior to the mergers, minus (2) the aggregate adjusted tax basis in the portion of the Sears common stock that is treated as exchanged for cash;

the holding period of the Holdings common stock received by a U.S. holder of Sears common stock in the Sears merger will include the holding period of the holder's Sears common stock treated as exchanged for the Holdings common stock; and if the U.S. holder acquired different blocks of Sears common stock at different times or at different prices, the U.S. holder should consult with its tax advisor regarding the manner in which the above rules would apply to such U.S. holder.

Exchange of Sears Common Stock Solely for Cash

A holder of Sears common stock who exchanges the Sears common stock solely for cash in the Sears merger will generally recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between the holder's adjusted tax basis in the Sears common stock surrendered and the amount of cash received in the Sears merger.

Cash Instead of Fractional Shares

Holdings intends to take the position that receipt of cash instead of a fractional share of Holdings common stock by a U.S. holder of Sears common stock may be treated as cash received in exchange for Sears common stock as described above under "Exchange of Sears Common Stock for a Combination of Holdings Common Stock and Cash." It is possible, however, that the receipt of cash instead of fractional shares may be treated as if the holder received the fractional shares in the Sears merger and then received the cash in a redemption of the fractional shares, in which case the holder should generally recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount of the cash received instead of the fractional shares and the holder's tax basis allocable to such fractional share.

Taxation of Capital Gain or Loss

Gain or loss recognized by a U.S. holder in connection with the Sears merger will generally constitute capital gain or loss, and any such capital gain or loss will constitute long-term capital gain or loss if the U.S. holder's holding period is greater than one year as of the date of the Sears merger. For non-corporate U.S. holders, this long-term capital gain generally will be taxed at a maximum U.S. federal income tax rate of 15%. The deductibility of capital losses is subject to limits.

Backup Withholding

Backup withholding may apply with respect to the cash consideration received by holders of Sears common stock, unless such holder:

is a corporation or comes within certain other exempt categories and, when required, demonstrates this fact; or provides a correct taxpayer identification number, certifies as to no loss of exemption from backup withholding and that such holder is a U.S. person (including a U.S. resident alien) and otherwise complies with applicable requirements of the backup withholding rules.

A holder of Sears common stock who does not provide Holdings (or the exchange agent) with its correct taxpayer identification number may be subject to penalties imposed by the IRS. Any amounts withheld under the backup withholding rules may be allowed as a refund or a credit against the holder's federal income tax liability, provided that the holder furnishes certain required information to the IRS.

Reporting Requirements

U.S. holders of Sears common stock or Kmart common stock receiving Holdings common stock as a result of the mergers will be required to attach to their income tax returns for the taxable year in which the closing of the transaction occurs, and maintain a permanent record of, a complete statement of all the facts relating to the exchange of stock in connection with the transaction. The facts to be disclosed by a U.S. holder include the U.S. holder's basis in the Sears common stock or the Kmart common stock, as the case may be, transferred to Holdings and the number of shares of Holdings common stock received in the transaction.

This discussion under "Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences" does not address tax consequences that may vary with, or are contingent on, individual circumstances. Moreover, it does not address any non-income tax or any foreign, state or local tax consequences of the mergers. Tax matters are very complicated, and the tax consequences of the mergers to you will depend upon the facts of your particular situation. Accordingly, we strongly urge you to consult with a tax advisor to determine the particular federal, state, local, or foreign income or other tax consequences to you of the mergers.

Accounting Treatment

The business combination will be accounted for as a "purchase" by Kmart of Sears, as that term is used under U.S. generally accepted accounting principles, for accounting and financial reporting purposes. Sears and Kmart have determined that the business combination will be accounted for as an acquisition by Kmart of Sears. In identifying Kmart as the acquiring entity, the companies took into account the relative outstanding share ownership, the composition of the governing body of the combined entity and the designation of certain senior management positions. As a result, the historical financial statements of Kmart will become the historical financial statements of Holdings. The assets (including identifiable intangible assets) and liabilities (including executory contracts and other commitments) of Sears as of the effective time of the mergers will be recorded at their respective fair values and added to those of Kmart. Any excess of purchase price over the net fair values of Sears assets and liabilities is recorded as goodwill (excess purchase price). Any excess of the fair value of Sears' net assets over the purchase price will be allocated as a pro rata reduction of the amounts that would otherwise have been assigned to certain of Sears' non-current assets acquired. Financial statements of Holdings issued after the mergers will reflect such fair values and will not be restated retroactively to reflect the historical financial position or results of operations of Sears. The results of operations of Sears will be included in the results of operations of Holdings beginning on the effective date of the mergers. See "Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Consolidated Financial Data" beginning on page 109 for more information.

Regulatory Approvals

U.S. Antitrust Clearance. Under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended, and the rules promulgated thereunder by the Federal Trade Commission, the mergers could not be consummated until notifications have been given and certain information has been furnished to the Federal Trade Commission and the Antitrust Division of the United States Department of Justice and specified waiting period requirements have been satisfied. Kmart and Sears filed notification and report forms under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Act with the Federal Trade Commission and the Antitrust Division on November 24, 2004. The Hart-Scott-Rodino Act waiting period was scheduled to expire on December 24, 2004, which was 30 days after the initial filing date of the notification and report forms. Kmart and Sears voluntarily agreed to withdraw their previously filed notification and report forms under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Act and refiled them on December 28, 2004, when the 30-day waiting period recommenced. The Federal Trade Commission and the Antitrust Division were entitled to extend the waiting period by issuing a Request for Additional Information which extends the waiting period until 30 days after the parties have complied with this request; however, they did not and the waiting period expired at 11:59 p.m. on January 27, 2005. Both before and after the expiration of the waiting period, the Federal Trade Commission and the Antitrust Division retain the authority to challenge the mergers on antitrust grounds. In addition, each state in which Kmart or Sears operates may also seek to review the mergers. It is possible that some of these authorities may seek to challenge the mergers.

Competition and Other Regulatory Approvals Abroad. The mergers required that we comply with notification and approval requirements in Canada and Germany. On December 20, 2004, the Canadian Bureau of Competition issued an Advance Ruling Certificate clearing the mergers. On December 15, 2004, the German Federal Cartel Office cleared the mergers. The mergers may also require notification and approval in Brazil, although recent decisions by the Brazilian antitrust authorities in cases involving parties with similarly small sales in Brazil have found approval unnecessary. In any event, the parties have submitted a notification in Brazil, and the mergers do not require the approval of Brazilian antitrust authorities prior to their consummation even without giving consideration to the recent decisions.

The local procedural rules differ from country to country as do the legal tests against which mergers are reviewed to determine if the local competition or other regulatory authority can issue a decision clearing the transaction. Local authorities may have the power to block or impose other penalties on mergers which breach the substantive test set out in the local jurisdiction.

In most cases involving competition issues, the applicable filings generally require the disclosure of financial and transaction information, which is then reviewed by the competition authority. In most reviews, the competition authority will contact other industry participants, such as customers, suppliers and competitors of the merging parties, to confirm that the information provided is correct and to canvass their opinions on the transaction.

In reaching its decision, each competition authority will usually consider if the mergers result in a market concentration, which is likely to breach the test for acceptable mergers in its jurisdiction. In the majority of countries this test usually relates either to the creation of a dominant position or market power sufficient to operate against the proper functioning of the market.

In addition to competition approvals, approval is required from Canadian banking authorities due to Sears' indirect ownership interest in Sears Canada Bank. Kmart and Sears filed an application with the Office of the Superintendent of Financial Institutions on December 9, 2004 seeking approval of the mergers. On January 24, 2005, the Minister of Finance (Canada) granted approval for Holdings to have a significant interest in and control of Sears Canada Bank.

While we believe that we will receive the requisite regulatory approvals for the mergers, there can be no assurances regarding the timing of the approvals, our ability to obtain the approvals on satisfactory terms or the absence of litigation challenging such approvals. There can likewise be no assurance that U.S. or foreign regulatory authorities will not attempt to challenge the mergers on antitrust grounds or for other reasons, or, if such a challenge is made, as to the result thereof. Our obligation to complete the mergers is conditioned upon the receipt of certain antitrust consents, approvals and actions of U.S. and Canadian governmental authorities. See "The Merger Agreement Conditions to Completion of the Mergers" beginning on page 99.

Sears Stockholders Making Cash and Share Elections

Sears stockholders will be receiving under separate cover a form of election for making cash and share elections. Any Sears stockholder who became a Sears stockholder after the record date, or who did not otherwise receive a form of election, should contact D.F. King & Co. or their broker to obtain a form of election. Sears stockholders who vote against adopting the merger agreement are still entitled to make elections with respect to their shares. However, any Sears shareholder who wishes to assert appraisal rights should not submit a form of election, as doing so will be considered a withdrawal of any previously submitted assertion of appraisal rights. Kmart stockholders are not required to make any election; each outstanding share of Kmart common stock will be converted into one share of Holdings common stock. The form of election allows holders of Sears common stock to make cash or share elections for some or all of their Sears shares. Sears shares as to which the holder has not made a valid election prior to the election deadline will be treated as though no election had been made.

The U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger to each Sears stockholder will vary depending on whether the Sears stockholder receives cash or shares of Holdings, or a combination of cash and shares, in exchange for his or her Sears shares. However, at the time that a Sears stockholder is required to make a cash or share election, the Sears stockholder will not know if, and to what extent, the proration procedures will change the mix of consideration that he or she will receive in the Sears merger. As a result, at the time that a Sears stockholder is required to make a cash or share election, the Sears stockholder will not know the tax consequences to him or her with certainty. For more information regarding the tax consequences of the merger to the Sears stockholders, please see "Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences" beginning on page 81.

Exchange Agent. EquiServe Trust Company, N.A. will serve as the exchange agent for purposes of effecting the election and proration procedures.

Election Deadline. The election deadline will be 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on (1) March 24, 2005, the date of the Sears special meeting, or (2) two business days prior to the date of the completion of the Sears merger if the completion of the Sears merger is more than four business days following the Sears special meeting. Kmart and Sears will publicly announce the anticipated election deadline at least five days prior to the anticipated completion date.

"Street name," Sears ASPP and Sears Plan holders may be subject to a deadline earlier than the general deadline of the date of the Sears special meeting. Therefore, you should carefully read any materials you receive from your broker or the relevant plan trustee or administrator.

Form of Election. The applicable form of election must be properly completed and signed and accompanied by:

certificates representing all of the Sears shares covered by the form of election, duly endorsed in blank or otherwise in a form acceptable for transfer on Sears' books (or appropriate evidence as to the loss, theft or destruction, appropriate evidence as to the ownership of that certificate by the claimant, and appropriate and customary indemnification, as described in the form of election); or a properly completed and signed notice of guaranteed delivery, as described in the instructions accompanying the form of election, from a firm which is a member of a registered national securities exchange or a commercial bank or trust company having an office or correspondent in the United States, provided that the actual stock certificates are in fact delivered to the exchange agent by the time set forth in the notice of guaranteed delivery; or if the Sears shares are held in book-entry form, the documents specified in the instructions accompanying the form of election.

In order to make a cash or share election, the properly completed and signed form of election, together with one of the items described above, must be actually received by the exchange agent at or prior to the election deadline in accordance with the instructions in the instructions accompanying the form of election.

If Sears shares are held in street name, in the Sears ASPP or in a Sears Plan and the holder wishes to make an election, the holder should contact his or her bank, broker, dealer or financial institution, or the plan administrator or trustee, and follow the instructions provided.

Inability to Sell Shares as to which an Election is Made. Stockholders who have made elections will be unable to sell their Sears shares after making the election, unless the election is properly revoked before the election deadline or the merger agreement is terminated.

Election Revocation and Changes. Generally, an election may be revoked or changed with respect to all or a portion of the Sears shares covered by the election by the holder who submitted the applicable form of election, but only by written notice received by the exchange agent prior to the election deadline. If an election is revoked, or the merger agreement is terminated, and any stock certificates have been transmitted to the exchange agent, the exchange agent will promptly return those certificates to the stockholder who submitted those certificates. Sears stockholders will not be entitled to revoke or change their elections following the election deadline. As a result, Sears stockholders who have made elections will be unable to revoke their elections or sell their Sears shares during the interval between the election deadline and the date of completion of the mergers.

Sears shares as to which the holder has not made a valid election prior to the election deadline, including as a result of revocation, will be deemed non-electing shares. If it is determined that any purported cash election or share election was not properly made, the purported election will be deemed to be of no force or effect and the holder making the purported election will be deemed not to have made an election for these purposes, unless a proper election is subsequently made on a timely basis.

Non-Electing Holders. Sears stockholders who make no election to receive cash consideration or share consideration in the Sears merger, whose elections are not received by the exchange agent by the election deadline, or whose forms of election are improperly completed or are not signed will be deemed not to have made an election. Sears stockholders not making an election in respect of their Sears shares may receive cash consideration, share consideration, or cash consideration for some of their Sears shares and share consideration for some of their Sears shares, depending on elections that have been made by other Sears stockholders. See " Proration Procedures" below.

Pursuant to a support agreement, the ESL Companies have irrevocably elected to receive Holdings common stock with respect to all of their shares of Sears common stock, subject to proration like other Sears stockholders. As of the Sears record date, the ESL Companies owned approximately 31.1 million shares of Sears common stock or approximately 14% of the outstanding shares of Sears common stock.

Proration Procedures

Sears stockholders should be aware that cash elections or share elections they make may be subject to the proration procedures provided in the merger agreement. Regardless of the cash or share elections made by Sears stockholders, these procedures are designed to ensure that:

55% of the Sears shares outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the Sears merger will be converted into the right to receive 0.5 of a share of Holdings common stock per share; and

45% of the Sears shares outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the Sears merger will be converted into the right to receive cash consideration of $50.00 per share, without interest.

Sears shares held by Sears stockholders who properly demand appraisal will be treated as non-electing shares for purposes of these proration procedures. In addition, any share of Sears common stock owned by Sears or Sears Acquisition Corp. (which will be cancelled in the Sears merger) or owned by Kmart or any direct or indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of Sears or Kmart or subject to restrictions (which will be exchanged for Holdings common stock in the Sears merger) will not be subject to these proration calculations. Set forth below is a description of the proration procedures, and the effects on Sears' stockholders, including those who fail to properly make a cash or share election, under certain alternative scenarios.

Scenario 1: More than 45% of Sears Shares Elect to Receive Cash Consideration:

Sears Shares Subject to Cash Elections. Each Sears stockholder who properly elected to receive cash consideration will receive cash consideration for only a pro rata portion of the Sears shares for which he or she properly made a cash election. The Sears stockholder will receive share consideration in the form of shares of Holdings for his or her remaining Sears shares.

The precise number of Sears shares for which a Sears stockholder will receive cash consideration will be determined by multiplying the number of Sears shares for which the stockholder properly made a cash election by a fraction with a numerator equal to 45% of the number of Sears shares outstanding immediately prior to the completion of the mergers and a denominator equal to the total number of Sears shares for which cash elections are properly made by all Sears stockholders.

EXAMPLE. Assume that 1,000,000 Sears shares are outstanding at the time of the mergers and Sears stockholders make cash elections with respect to 800,000 Sears shares and share elections with respect to 200,000 Sears shares. If you own 100 Sears shares and have made an effective cash election for all of those shares, you would receive cash consideration for 56.25 of your Sears shares $[100 \times ((45\% \times 1,000,000)/800,000)]$ and share consideration (including cash, if any, in lieu of fractional shares) for your remaining 43.75 Sears shares.

Sears Shares Subject to Share Elections. Each Sears stockholder who properly elected to receive share consideration will receive share consideration in the form of shares of Holdings for all of the Sears shares for which he or she made a share election (including cash, if any, in lieu of fractional shares).

Sears Shares Subject to No Election. Each Sears stockholder who failed to properly make an election will receive share consideration in the form of shares of Holdings for all of the Sears shares for which he or she made no election (including cash, if any, in lieu of fractional shares).

Scenario 2: More than 55% of Sears Shares Elect to Receive Share Consideration:

Sears Shares Subject to Cash Elections. Each Sears stockholder who properly elected to receive cash consideration will receive cash consideration for all of the Sears shares for which he or she made a cash election.

Sears Shares Subject to Share Elections. Each Sears stockholder who properly elected to receive share consideration will receive share consideration in the form of shares of Holdings for only a pro rata portion of the Sears shares for which he or she properly made a share election (including cash, if any, in lieu of fractional shares). The stockholder will receive cash consideration for his or her remaining Sears shares.

The precise number of Sears shares for which a Sears stockholder will receive share consideration will be determined by multiplying the number of Sears shares for which the stockholder properly made a share election by a fraction with a numerator equal to 55% of the number of Sears shares outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the mergers and a denominator equal to the total number of Sears shares for which share elections are properly made by all Sears stockholders.

EXAMPLE. Assume that 1,000,000 Sears shares are outstanding at the time of the Sears merger and Sears stockholders make share elections with respect to 800,000 Sears shares and cash elections with respect to 200,000 Sears shares. If you own 100 Sears shares and have made an effective share election for all of those shares, you would receive share consideration for 68.75 of your Sears shares $[100 \times ((55\% \times 1,000,000)/800,000)]$ and cash consideration for your remaining 31.25 Sears shares.

Sears Shares Subject to No Election. Each Sears stockholder who failed to properly make an election for his or her shares will receive cash consideration for all of the Sears shares for which he or she made no election.

Scenario 3: Less than 55% of Sears Shares Elect to Receive Cash Consideration and Less than 45% of Sears Shares Elect to Receive Share Consideration:

Sears Shares Subject to Cash Elections. Each Sears stockholder who properly elected to receive cash consideration will receive cash consideration for all of the Sears shares for which he or she made a cash election.

Sears Shares Subject to Share Elections. Each Sears stockholder who properly elected to receive share consideration will receive share consideration in the form of shares of Holdings for all of the Sears shares for which he or she made a share election (including cash, if any, in lieu of fractional shares).

Sears Shares Subject to No Election. Each Sears stockholder who failed to make an election will receive cash consideration for a portion of the Sears shares for which he or she made no election and share consideration in the form of shares of Holdings for a portion of the Sears shares for which he or she made no election.

The precise number of Sears shares for which a Sears stockholder will receive share consideration will be determined by multiplying the number of Sears shares for which the stockholder made no election by a fraction with a numerator equal to 55% of the number of Sears shares outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the mergers less the number of Sears shares for which Sears stockholders, collectively, properly made share elections and a denominator equal to the total number of Sears shares for which no elections were properly made by Sears stockholders.

The precise number of Sears shares for which a Sears stockholder will receive cash consideration will be determined by multiplying the number of Sears shares for which the stockholder made no election by a fraction with a numerator equal to 45% of the number of Sears shares outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the mergers less the number of Sears shares for which Sears stockholders, collectively, properly made cash elections and a denominator equal to the total number of Sears shares for which no elections were properly made by Sears stockholders.

EXAMPLE. Assume that 1,000,000 Sears shares are outstanding at the time of the Sears merger and Sears stockholders make cash elections with respect to 200,000 Sears shares and share elections with respect to 200,000 Sears shares. If you own 100 Sears shares and have not made an effective cash election or share election for any of those shares, you would receive cash consideration for 41.67 of your Sears shares $[100 \times ((450,000 - 200,000) / 600,000)]$ and share consideration (including cash, if any, in lieu of fractional shares) for 58.33 of your Sears shares $[100 \times ((550,000 - 200,000) / 600,000)]$.

Neither Holdings, Kmart nor Sears is making any recommendation as to whether Sears stockholders should elect to receive cash consideration or share consideration in the Sears merger. You must make your own decision with respect to such election.

No guarantee can be made that you will receive the amount of cash consideration or share consideration you elect. As a result of the proration procedures and other limitations described in this proxy statement-prospectus and in the merger agreement, you may receive share consideration or cash consideration in amounts that are different from the amounts you elect to receive. Because the value of the share consideration and cash consideration may differ, you may receive consideration having an aggregate value less than that you elected to receive.

Conversion of Shares; Exchange of Certificates; Dividends; Withholding

Conversion and Exchange of Shares. The conversion of Kmart shares and Sears shares into the right to receive the applicable merger consideration will occur automatically at the effective time of the mergers. The exchange agent will, as soon as reasonably practicable after the effective time of the mergers, exchange certificates representing Kmart and Sears shares for the applicable merger consideration to be received in the mergers pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement.

Edgar Filing: Sears Holdings CORP - Form 424B3

Letter of Transmittal. Promptly after the completion of the mergers, the exchange agent will send a letter of transmittal to those persons who were record holders of Kmart shares holding certificated shares at the effective time of the Kmart merger and record holders of Sears shares holding certificated shares at the effective time of the Sears merger who, in the case of Sears stockholders, have not previously submitted a form of election or have not properly surrendered Sears shares to the exchange agent. This mailing will contain instructions on how to surrender certificates representing Kmart shares and Sears shares (if, in the case of Sears shares, these shares have not already been surrendered) in exchange for the applicable merger consideration the holder is entitled to receive under the merger agreement. When you deliver your Kmart stock certificates or Sears stock certificates to the exchange agent along with a properly executed letter of transmittal and any other required documents, your stock certificates will be canceled. If you hold Sears or Kmart shares in book entry form, your book entry shares will automatically be exchanged for book entry shares of Holdings and you will not receive a letter of transmittal. Whether you hold Sears or Kmart shares in certificated or book entry form, unless you request otherwise, Holdings will not issue new certificates and your shares of Holdings common stock will be in book entry form.

EXCEPT FOR SEARS STOCKHOLDERS WHO SUBMIT THEIR SEARS STOCK CERTIFICATES WITH THE FORM OF ELECTION TO THE EXCHANGE AGENT, DO NOT SUBMIT YOUR KMART OR SEARS STOCK CERTIFICATES FOR EXCHANGE UNTIL YOU RECEIVE THE TRANSMITTAL INSTRUCTIONS AND LETTER OF TRANSMITTAL FROM THE EXCHANGE AGENT.

If a certificate for Kmart common stock or Sears common stock has been lost, stolen or destroyed, the exchange agent will issue the applicable merger consideration properly payable under the merger agreement upon compliance by the applicable stockholder with the replacement requirements established by the exchange agent.

Fractional Shares. You will not receive fractional shares of Holdings' common stock in connection with the Sears merger. Instead, each holder of Sears shares exchanged in the Sears merger who would otherwise have received a fraction of a share of Holdings common stock will receive cash in an amount determined by multiplying the fractional interest to which such holder would otherwise be entitled by the closing price for a share of Kmart common stock as reported on the Nasdaq National Market on the last trading day immediately preceding the effective time of the mergers. Because each share of Kmart common stock is being exchanged for a share of Holdings common stock on a one-for-one basis, no fractional shares will arise as a result of that exchange.

Dividends and Distributions. Until Kmart stock certificates or book-entry shares or Sears stock certificates or book-entry shares are surrendered for exchange, any dividends or other distributions declared after the effective time of the mergers with respect to shares of Holdings common stock into which Kmart shares or Sears shares may have been converted will accrue but will not be paid. Holdings will pay to former Kmart stockholders and Sears stockholders any unpaid dividends or other distributions, without interest, only after they have duly surrendered their stock certificates or book-entry shares. After the effective time of the mergers, there will be no transfers on the stock transfer books of Kmart or Sears of any Kmart shares or Sears shares, respectively. If Kmart stock certificates or book-entry shares or Sears stock certificates or book-entry shares are presented for transfer after the completion of the mergers, they will be cancelled and exchanged for the applicable merger consideration into which such certificates or book-entry shares have been converted pursuant to the merger agreement.

Withholding. The exchange agent will be entitled to deduct and withhold from the merger consideration payable to any Kmart stockholder or Sears stockholder the amounts it is required to deduct and withhold under the Code or any provision of any state, local or foreign tax law. If the exchange agent withholds any amounts, these amounts will be treated for all purposes of the mergers as having been paid to the stockholders from whom they were withheld.

Treatment of Stock Options and Restricted Shares

Upon the completion of the Kmart merger, each option held by directors and executives of Kmart to purchase shares of Kmart common stock (whether vested or unvested) will be converted into the right to purchase an equivalent number of shares of Holdings common stock at an exercise price per share equal to the exercise price per share of the Kmart common stock subject to the option before the conversion and will continue to be governed by its applicable terms. In addition, each restricted share of Kmart common stock held by directors and executives of Kmart will be converted into a restricted share of Holdings' common stock and will continue to be governed by its applicable terms. There are no Kmart stock options or restricted shares held by any person other than Kmart directors and Kmart executives, except for certain options issued by Kmart pursuant to an investment agreement that are held by the ESL Companies and Third Avenue Trust, which are discussed under "Interests of Directors and Executive Officers in the Mergers" Interests of Kmart Directors and Executive Officers Kmart Convertible Notes and Other Options" beginning on page 73.

Upon the completion of the Sears merger, each option to purchase shares of Sears common stock and each Sears stock appreciation right (whether vested or unvested) will be converted into the right to receive an amount in cash equal to the excess, if any, of (A) the Sears option cash-out amount (as discussed below) of a share of Sears common stock over (B) the exercise price of the option or stock appreciation right per share multiplied by the number of shares of Sears common stock subject to the option or stock appreciation right, less any required withholding taxes. The "Sears option cash-out amount" is equal to the sum of (1) 45% (the percentage of Sears shares convertible into cash in the Sears merger) of $50.00 (the cash payable per share of Sears common stock), plus (2) 55% (the percentage of Sears shares convertible to Holdings shares in the Sears merger) of 0.5 (the stock exchange ratio in the Sears merger) of the closing price for one share of Kmart common stock on the last trading day immediately preceding the completion of the mergers.

Upon adoption of the merger agreement by Sears stockholders, a pro rata portion of shares of Sears common stock owned by Sears employees that are currently subject to restrictions and were granted at least six months prior to such adoption will become free of restrictions. This pro rata portion will be determined by multiplying the number of shares of Sears restricted stock subject to each grant by a fraction, (1) the numerator of which is the number of days from the date of the grant to the date of completion of the mergers and (2) the denominator of which is the number of days from the date of the grant to the date on which such grant would vest absent the mergers. As a result, the pro rata portion of shares of Sears common stock that are currently subject to restrictions but which become free of restrictions as described above will, as of the time of completion of the mergers, be no different than any other shares of Sears common stock and the holder can make an election with respect to such shares. The restricted shares of Sears stock that are currently subject to restrictions that do not become free of restrictions will be converted into 0.5 of a share of Holdings common stock in the mergers and will continue to be subject to restrictions.

For example, assume an option to purchase 100 shares of Sears common stock at an exercise price of $40 per share, and assume that the closing trading price of Kmart common stock on the Nasdaq National Market on the last trading day before the effective time was $105. In that case, the holder of the option would be entitled to receive cash in an amount equal to $1,137.50 (($51.375 (which equals the sum of (1) 45% times $50, plus (2) 55% times $52.50 ($105 times 0.50)) minus $40 (the exercise price) times 100 shares), less any applicable withholding taxes.

Sears ASPP

The Sears ASPP will be terminated, and the then current purchase period under the Sears ASPP will end, immediately prior to the completion of the Sears merger. The amount of cash credited to each Sears ASPP participant's purchase account at such time will not be used to purchase Sears shares.

Instead, each Sears ASPP participant will receive, in lieu of the number of Sears shares that would otherwise be purchasable by the participant with the amount of cash then credited to the participant's purchase account, an amount in cash equal to the product of (1) the sum of (a) $22.50 (which is $50 times 45%) plus (b) 55% of the product of (i) the per share closing price of Kmart common stock on the trading day immediately preceding such time, times (ii) 0.5 times (2) the number of Sears shares that would otherwise have been purchasable by the participant based on the amount of cash credited to the participant's purchase account.

Dividend Policy and Share Repurchases

The merger agreement permits Sears to continue to pay regular quarterly dividends to its stockholders. Kmart has not paid any dividends since emerging from bankruptcy in May 2003. Holdings does not expect to pay any dividends in the foreseeable future.

Sears has a share repurchase program under which, as of January 1, 2005, Sears had remaining authorization to repurchase up to $480 million of shares by December 31, 2006.

Kmart also has a share repurchase program under which, as of October 27, 2004, Kmart had authorization to repurchase an aggregate $100 million of Kmart common stock. Since the inception of this share repurchase program in fiscal 2003, as of October 27, 2004, Kmart has repurchased 128,400 shares of Kmart common stock at a total cost of approximately $4 million.

Prior to the consummation of the mergers, subject to applicable law and limits agreed to in the merger agreement, Sears and Kmart may continue to repurchase their own respective shares in accordance with their previously announced policies. Various factors, including capital requirements, market conditions and legal considerations, will affect whether any repurchases will be made and, if made, the amount and timing of any such repurchases.

As of October 27, 2004, Kmart was assigned 507,974 shares of Kmart common stock with an approximate aggregate value of $39 million on behalf of holders of pre-petition bankruptcy claims. These assignments were the result of settlement agreements resolving some of these bankruptcy claims. Kmart may continue to engage in these acquisitions of its stock in the ordinary course of its settlement negotiations. For more information, see "Where Can You Find More Information" on page 148.

Restrictions on Sales of Shares by Affiliates of Kmart and Sears

The shares of Holdings common stock to be issued in connection with the mergers will be registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and will be freely transferable under the Securities Act, except for shares of Holdings common stock issued to any person who is deemed to be an "affiliate" of Kmart or Sears at the time of the applicable special meeting. Persons who may be deemed to be affiliates include individuals or entities that control, are controlled by, or are under the common control of either Kmart or Sears and may include our executive officers and directors, as well as our significant stockholders. Affiliates may not sell their shares of Holdings common stock acquired in connection with the mergers except pursuant to:

an effective registration statement under the Securities Act covering the resale of those shares;

an exemption under paragraph (d) of Rule 145 under the Securities Act; or any other applicable exemption under the Securities Act.

Both Kmart and Sears expect that each of their affiliates will agree with Holdings that the affiliate will not transfer any shares of stock received in the mergers except in compliance with the Securities Act. This joint proxy statement-prospectus does not cover resales of Holdings common stock by affiliates of Kmart, Sears or Holdings.

Stock Exchange Listing and Stock Prices

Holdings has caused the following shares of Holdings to be approved for quotation on the Nasdaq National Market upon the completion of the mergers:

Holdings common stock to be issued in the mergers (including Kmart restricted shares and Sears restricted shares);

Holdings common stock reserved for issuance upon exercise of Kmart stock options; and Holdings common stock reserved for issuance upon exercise of Sears equity-based awards (other than Sears stock options and stock appreciation rights, which are being canceled in exchange for cash).

The following table sets forth, for the periods indicated, the high and low sale prices per share of Kmart common stock and Sears common stock as reported on the Nasdaq National Market and on the New York Stock Exchange Composite Tape, respectively.

Rights of Dissenting Stockholders

Sears stockholders entitled to vote on the adoption of the merger agreement have dissenter's rights to dissent from the Sears merger and obtain the fair value of their Sears shares in cash in accordance with the procedures established by New York law.

Edgar Filing: Sears Holdings CORP - Form 424B3

Sections 623 and 910 of the New York Business Corporation Law provide that if the Sears merger is consummated, Sears stockholders entitled to vote on the adoption of the merger agreement who object to the Sears merger in writing prior to the Sears special meeting and who follow the procedures specified in Section 623 (summarized below) will have the right to receive cash payment of the fair value of their Sears shares. A copy of Section 623 and Section 910 of the New York Business Corporation Law is attached as Annex E. The express procedures of Section 623 must be followed precisely; if they are not, Sears stockholders will lose their right to dissent. As described more fully below, such "fair value" would potentially be determined in judicial proceedings, the result of which cannot be predicted. We cannot assure you that Sears stockholders exercising dissenters' rights will receive consideration equal to or greater than the value of the Holdings common stock to be owned by them and/or cash paid to them following completion of the Sears merger.

The statutory procedures outlined below are complex. What follows is a summary and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of Section 623 and Section 910 of the New York Business Corporation Law. Sears stockholders wishing to exercise their dissenters' rights should consult their own legal advisors to ensure that they fully and properly comply with the requirements of New York law.

Any Sears stockholder who is entitled to vote on the adoption of the merger agreement will have the right to receive cash payment of the fair value of his or her Sears shares and the other rights and benefits provided in Section 623 if such stockholder:

files with Sears a written objection to the Sears merger prior to the vote by the Sears stockholders on the adoption of the merger agreement. The written objection must include:

notice of the stockholder's election to dissent;

the stockholder's name and residence address;

the number of Sears shares as to which the stockholder dissents; and a demand for payment of the fair value of such Sears shares if the Sears merger is consummated; and does not vote in favor of the adoption of the merger agreement.

A vote against adoption of the merger agreement will not satisfy the requirement of filing a written objection. Failure to vote against adoption of the merger agreement will not waive a Sears stockholder's right to receive payment if the stockholder has filed a written objection in accordance with Section 623 and has not voted in favor of adoption of the merger agreement. If a stockholder abstains from voting on adoption of the merger agreement, this will not waive his or her dissenter's rights so long as the appropriate written objection to the Sears merger is properly and timely filed. Since a proxy left blank will be voted for adoption of the merger agreement, any Sears stockholder who wishes to exercise his or her dissenter's rights must either vote against adoption of the merger agreement or abstain. Written objection at this time may not be required from any stockholder to whom Sears did not give proper notice of the special meeting of Sears stockholders contemplated by this joint proxy statement-prospectus.

A Sears stockholder may not dissent as to less than all Sears shares, held of record by him or her, that he or she owns beneficially. A nominee or fiduciary may not dissent on behalf of any beneficial owner of shares as to less than all Sears shares of such owner held of record by the nominee or fiduciary.

Edgar Filing: Sears Holdings CORP - Form 424B3

All written objections to the Sears merger and notices of election to dissent should be addressed to:

3333 Beverly Road
Hoffman Estates, Illinois 60179
Attention: General Counsel

Any Sears stockholder who wishes to assert appraisal rights should not submit a form of election, as doing so will be considered a withdrawal of any previously filed written demand for appraisal.

If the merger agreement is adopted by Sears stockholders, within 10 days after such approval, Sears will give written notice of the approval by registered mail to each Sears stockholder who filed a timely written objection, except for any stockholder who voted in favor of adoption of the merger agreement. Any Sears stockholder from whom objection was not required and who elects to dissent must file with Sears, within 20 days after the giving of notice to him or her, a written notice of election to dissent, stating his or her name and residence address, the number of shares as to which he or she dissents and a demand for payment of the fair value for his or her Sears shares.

Either at the time of filing of the notice of election to dissent or within one month after the filing of the notice of election to dissent, a dissenting Sears stockholder must submit the certificates representing his or her dissenting Sears shares to Sears, or to its transfer agent, which shall note conspicuously on the certificates that a notice of election has been filed, and will then return the certificate to the stockholder. Any Sears stockholder who fails to submit his or her certificates for notation within the required time shall, at the option of Sears upon written notice to such Sears stockholder within 45 days from the date of filing such notice of election to dissent, lose his or her dissenter's rights unless a court, for good cause shown, otherwise directs.

Within 15 days after the expiration of the period within which Sears stockholders may file their notices of election to dissent, or within 15 days after the completion of the Sears merger, whichever is later (but in no case later than 90 days after Sears stockholders adopt the merger agreement), Sears will make a written offer by registered mail to each Sears stockholder who has filed a notice of election to pay for his or her dissenting shares at a specified price which Sears considers to be their fair value. If the Sears merger has occurred, Sears must accompany the offer by an advance payment to each stockholder who has submitted his or her stock certificates of an amount equal to 80% of the amount of the offer. Acceptance of such payment does not constitute a waiver of any dissenters' rights. The offer must be made at the same price per share to all the dissenting Sears stockholders. If, within 30 days after the making of an offer, Sears and any dissenting Sears stockholders agree on the price to be paid for dissenting shares, the balance of payment for the shares must be made within 60 days after the making of the offer or the completion of the Sears merger, whichever is later, and upon surrender of the certificates representing such Sears shares.

If Sears fails to make an offer to dissenting Sears stockholders within the 15-day period described above, or if it makes the offer and any dissenting Sears stockholder fails to agree with Sears within 30 days thereafter upon the price to be paid for his or her shares, Sears is required, within 20 days after the expiration of whichever is the applicable of the two periods, to institute a special proceeding in the Supreme Court of the State of New York in the judicial district required by New York corporate law to determine the rights of dissenting Sears stockholders and to fix the fair value of their shares. If Sears fails to institute a proceeding within the 20-day period, any dissenting stockholder may institute a proceeding for the same purpose not later than 30 days after the expiration of the 20-day period. If a dissenting stockholder does not institute a proceeding within the 30-day period, all dissenters' rights are lost unless the court, for good cause shown, otherwise directs.

During each proceeding, the court will determine whether each dissenting stockholder is entitled to receive payment for his or her shares and, if so, will fix the value of such shares as of the close of business on the day prior to the date Sears stockholders voted to adopt the merger agreement, taking into consideration the nature of the transactions giving rise to the stockholder's right to receive payment for his or her dissenting shares and its effect on Sears and its stockholders, the concepts and methods then customary in relevant securities and financial markets for determining the fair value of shares of a corporation engaging in a similar transaction under comparable circumstances and all other relevant factors. The court shall determine the fair value of the shares without a jury and without referral to an appraiser or referee. The court will also award interest on such amount to be paid from the completion of the Sears merger to the date of payment unless the court finds that a Sears stockholder's refusal to accept Sears' offer of payment was arbitrary, vexatious or otherwise not in good faith. Each party to such proceeding will bear its own costs and expenses unless the court finds the refusal of payment by the Sears stockholders arbitrary, vexatious or otherwise not in good faith, in which case Sears' costs will be assessed against any or all dissenting Sears stockholders who are party to such proceeding. The court, in its discretion, may also apportion or assess any part of the dissenting Sears stockholder's costs against Sears if it finds that the fair value of the shares as determined materially exceeds the amount which Sears offered to pay, or that no offer or advance payment was made by Sears, or that Sears failed to institute such special proceeding within the specified period, or that the actions of Sears in complying with its obligations under Section 623 were arbitrary, vexatious or otherwise not in good faith. Within 60 days following the final determination of the applicable proceeding, Sears shall pay to each dissenting Sears stockholder the amount found to be due him or her upon the stockholder's surrender of all certificates representing dissenting shares.

The enforcement by a Sears stockholder of his or her right to receive payment for shares in accordance with Section 623 excludes the enforcement by such stockholder of any other right to which he or she might otherwise be entitled by virtue of his or her ownership of shares (unless the stockholder withdraws his or her notice of election or the Sears merger is abandoned), except that the stockholder will retain the right to bring or maintain an appropriate action to obtain relief on the grounds that the Sears merger will be or is unlawful or fraudulent as to him or her. A Sears stockholder's notice of election may be withdrawn at any time prior to his or her acceptance in writing of an offer to purchase his or her dissenting shares by Sears, but no withdrawal may be made later than 60 days from the completion of the Sears merger (unless Sears failed to make a timely offer) without the consent of Sears.

Kmart stockholders are not entitled to an appraisal by a Delaware court of the fair value of such stockholders' shares of Kmart common stock under Section 262 of the Delaware General Corporation Law.

Delisting and Deregistration of Kmart and Sears Stock after the Mergers

When the mergers are completed, the Kmart common stock currently quoted on the Nasdaq National Market will cease to be quoted on the Nasdaq National Market and will be deregistered under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and the Sears common stock currently listed on the New York Stock Exchange will be delisted from the New York Stock Exchange and will be deregistered under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.

Legal Proceedings Relating to the Mergers

Following the announcement of the proposed mergers on November 17, 2004, several actions have been filed purporting to challenge the mergers, as follows:

Three cases, styled William Fischer v. Sears, Roebuck & Co., et al. (Case No. 04 CH 19137), City of Dania Beach Police & Firefighters' Retirement System v. Sears, Roebuck & Co., et al. (Case No. 04 CH 19548) and Central Laborers Pension Fund v. Sears, Roebuck & Co., et al. (Case No. 04 CH 19435), have been filed in the Circuit Court of Cook County, Illinois, Chancery Division. These cases assert claims on behalf of a purported class of Sears stockholders against Sears and certain of its officers and directors, together with Kmart, Edward S. Lampert, William C. Crowley and other affiliated entities, related to an alleged breach of fiduciary duty in connection with the mergers. The plaintiffs allege that the mergers favor interested defendants by awarding them disproportionate benefits, and that the defendants failed to take appropriate steps to maximize the value of a merger transaction for Sears stockholders. The complaints seek provisional and permanent injunctive relief; the Fischer complaint also seeks damages. The cases have been reassigned to a single judge and the plaintiffs have filed a consolidated and amended complaint. On February 1, 2005, the court granted the defendants' motion to stay or dismiss these Illinois actions in favor of the pending New York action discussed immediately below. Accordingly, these actions are stayed pending resolution of the New York actions discussed below. Plaintiffs have filed a notice of appeal of the stay order to the Appellate Court of Illinois First District.

Two cases, styled Gershon Chanowitz, et al. v. Hall Adams, Jr., et al. (Index No. 04/603903) and Nathan Krantman v. William Bax, et al. (Index 04/603889), have been filed in the Supreme Court of the State of New York, New York County. On February 15, 2005 the Court ordered that the two cases be consolidated as a single action. On February 16, 2005, the plaintiffs filed a superceding consolidated Amended Class Action Complaint. The consolidated complaint asserts claims on behalf of a purported class of Sears stockholders against Sears and certain of its officers and directors for breach of fiduciary duty in connection with the mergers on the grounds that the defendants allegedly failed to take appropriate steps to maximize the value of a merger transaction for Sears stockholders. Plaintiffs also have named Kmart, Edward S. Lampert, and ESL Investments, Inc. as defendants on the ground that they aided and abetted the alleged breaches of fiduciary duty. Additionally, the plaintiffs claim that the defendants have made insufficient and misleading disclosures in connection with the mergers. The complaint seeks provisional and permanent injunctive relief, as well as damages. Also on February 16, 2005, the plaintiffs filed an order to show cause seeking expedited discovery about the appraisal of Sears' real estate. A briefing schedule on the motion has not yet been set.

In addition, one action, styled Maurice Levie v. Sears Roebuck & Co., et al. (C.A. No. 94 C 7643), has been filed in the United States District Court for the Northern District of Illinois. This case asserts claims under the federal securities laws on behalf of a purported class of Sears stockholders against Sears and its Chairman, Chief Executive Officer and President, Alan J. Lacy, for failing to disclose merger discussions with Kmart during the period November 8-16, 2004, and seeks damages. The court has appointed a lead plaintiff and lead counsel, and an amended complaint is due to be filed on or before March 11, 2005.

The lawsuits are in their preliminary stages, and it is impossible to predict their outcome at this time. Each of Sears and Kmart intends to defend itself vigorously in respect of the claims asserted against it.

The Merger Agreement

This section of the joint proxy statement-prospectus describes the material terms of the merger agreement. The following summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete text of the merger agreement, which is incorporated by reference and attached as Annex A to this joint proxy statement-prospectus. We urge you to read the full text of the merger agreement.

On November 16, 2005, Kmart and Sears entered into the merger agreement. On January 27, 2005, Holdings, Kmart Acquisition Corp. and Sears Acquisition Corp. executed a joinder agreement to formally become parties to the merger agreement.

Completion of the Mergers

Pursuant to the merger agreement, Kmart Acquisition Corp. (a wholly-owned subsidiary of Holdings) will merge with and into Kmart, and Sears Acquisition Corp. (a wholly-owned subsidiary of Holdings) will merge with and into Sears, with each of Kmart and Sears surviving as wholly-owned subsidiaries of Holdings. In the mergers, each outstanding share of Kmart common stock (other than shares owned by Kmart or Kmart Acquisition Corp.) will be converted into the right to receive one share of Holdings common stock, and each outstanding share of Sears common stock (other than dissenting shares and shares owned by Sears, Sears Acquisition Corp., Kmart or any wholly-owned subsidiary of Kmart or Sears) will be converted into the right to receive, at the election of the holder, either $50.00 in cash or 0.5 of a share of Holdings common stock, in either case subject to proration if the holders of more than 45% of Sears common stock elect the cash consideration or more than 55% elect the stock consideration. See "Sears Stockholders Making Cash and Share Elections Proration Procedures" beginning on page 88 for more information on how the proration procedures will work. Each share of Kmart common stock owned by Kmart or Kmart Acquisition Corp. will be cancelled without consideration. Each share of Sears common stock owned by Sears and Sears Acquisition Corp. will be cancelled without consideration. Each share of Sears common stock owned by Kmart or any direct or indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of Sears or Kmart and any restricted shares of Sears common stock will be converted into the right to receive 0.5 of a share of Holdings common stock. The conversion of these shares is not subject to proration, and these shares will not be taken into consideration when determining the proration calculations.

For information on the treatment of Kmart stock options, Kmart restricted shares, Sears stock options and Sears restricted shares, see "Treatment of Stock Options and Restricted Shares" beginning on page 92.

The mergers will be completed when we file certificates of merger with the Secretary of State for the State of Delaware and Department of State for the State of New York. However, we may agree to a later time for completion of the mergers and specify that time in the certificates of merger. In any case, both mergers will become effective at the same time. We expect to file the certificates of merger as soon as practicable after the satisfaction or waiver of the closing conditions in the merger agreement, which are described below.

Conditions to Completion of the Mergers

Conditions to Our Obligations. We may not complete the mergers unless each of the following conditions is satisfied or waived:

the merger agreement has been adopted by the affirmative vote of:

the holders of two-thirds of the outstanding shares of Sears common stock; and the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Kmart common stock;

the shares of Holdings common stock to be issued in the Sears merger and reserved for issuance upon exercise of Kmart stock options and other Sears and Kmart equity awards have been authorized for listing on the Nasdaq National Market;

all regulatory approvals necessary for the completion of the mergers have been obtained under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act and specified Canadian competition and investment laws;

the registration statement covering the Holdings shares has been declared effective by the Securities and Exchange Commission and is not subject to any stop order or proceedings seeking a stop order;

no restraining order or injunction prohibiting completion of the mergers is in effect and completion of the mergers is not illegal under any applicable law; and the Kmart merger and the Sears merger are consummated at identical effective times.

Our obligations to complete the mergers is also subject to the satisfaction or waiver of each of the following additional conditions:

truth and correctness of the representations and warranties of the other party, generally subject to any exceptions that do not have, and would not reasonably be expected to have, a material adverse effect on the other party or on Holdings after the mergers;

the other party's performance in all material respects of all obligations that are required by the merger agreement to be performed on or prior to the closing date; and each of Kmart's and Sears' receipt of an opinion from its counsel to the effect that the exchange of Sears common stock and Kmart common stock for Holdings common stock pursuant to the mergers, taken together, will be treated for federal income tax purposes as a transaction described in Section 351 of the Code.

For purposes of the merger agreement, the term "material adverse effect" means, with respect to either of us, a material adverse effect on the financial condition, businesses or results of operations of our company and our subsidiaries taken as a whole. However, any change or event caused by or resulting from the following will not be deemed to have a material adverse effect:

changes in prevailing market conditions in the United States or elsewhere, except to the extent those changes have a materially disproportionate effect on either of us and our subsidiaries relative to other similarly situated participants in the industry in which we operate;

changes or events affecting the industries in which we operate generally, except to the extent those changes have a materially disproportionate effect on either of us and our subsidiaries relative to other similarly situated participants in the industry in which we operate; changes in generally accepted accounting principles or requirements applicable to either of us or our respective subsidiaries, as the case may be;

changes in laws, rules or regulations of general applicability or interpretations by any governmental entity;

the execution, delivery and performance of the merger agreement or the support agreement or the consummation of any transaction contemplated by the merger agreement or the support agreement or the announcement of those transactions; or any outbreak of major hostilities in which the United States is involved or any act of terrorism within the United States or directed against its facilities or citizens, wherever located.

We may be required to resolicit your vote in the event that a material condition to the mergers is waived by one of us.

Edgar Filing: Sears Holdings CORP - Form 424B3

Reasonable Best Efforts to Obtain Required Stockholder Vote. We have agreed to take all lawful action to call, give notice of, convene and hold a meeting of our stockholders as promptly as practicable for the purpose of obtaining the required stockholder vote to adopt the merger agreement. In addition, we have agreed that we will use our reasonable best efforts to obtain from our stockholders the required stockholder vote in favor of adoption of the merger agreement. Nothing in the merger agreement is intended to relieve us of our respective obligation to submit the merger agreement to our stockholders for a vote on its adoption.

No Solicitations of Alternative Transactions. The merger agreement contains detailed provisions prohibiting each of us from seeking an alternative transaction to the merger. Under these "no solicitation" provisions, we have agreed that neither of us may:

initiate, solicit, encourage or knowingly facilitate any inquiries or the making of an acquisition proposal (as described below); have any discussions with, or provide any confidential information or data to, any person relating to an acquisition proposal, or engage in any negotiations concerning an acquisition proposal, or knowingly facilitate any effort or attempt to make or implement an acquisition proposal, except as provided in the merger agreement; or approve or recommend, or propose to approve or recommend, or execute or enter into, any letter of intent, agreement in principle, merger agreement, asset purchase or share exchange agreement, option agreement or other similar agreement related to any acquisition proposal or propose or agree to do any of the foregoing, except as provided in the merger agreement.

For purposes of the merger agreement, the term "acquisition proposal" means, with respect to either of us, any proposal or offer with respect to, or a transaction to effect:

a merger, reorganization, share exchange, consolidation, business combination, recapitalization, liquidation, dissolution or similar transaction involving either of us or any of our significant subsidiaries, other than acquisitions permitted by the terms of the merger agreement; any purchase or sale of 20% or more of the consolidated assets of either of us and our subsidiaries, including stock of our subsidiaries, taken as a whole; or any purchase or sale of, or tender or exchange offer for, the voting securities of that party that, if completed, would result in any person beneficially owning securities representing 20% or more of our total voting power or of the total voting power of the surviving parent entity in the transaction, or any of our significant subsidiaries.

The merger agreement permits us and our boards of directors to comply with Rule 14d-9 and Rule 14e-2 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, with regard to an acquisition proposal that either of us may receive and to make other disclosures required by law or the fiduciary duties of our respective boards. If either of us receives an unsolicited bona fide written acquisition proposal prior to our respective stockholder meeting to vote on the merger agreement, the party receiving that proposal may engage in discussions with or provide nonpublic information to the person making that acquisition proposal if and only to the extent that:

that party's stockholders meeting has not occurred;

that party has complied in all material respects with the restrictions on acquisition proposals;

the board of directors of the party receiving the acquisition proposal, after consultation with outside legal counsel, determines in good faith that failure to take such action would be inconsistent with the board's fiduciary duties under applicable law;

the board of directors of the party receiving the acquisition proposal, after consultation with outside legal counsel and financial advisors, concludes in good faith that there is a reasonable likelihood that the acquisition proposal constitutes or is reasonably likely to result in a superior proposal (as described below); and prior to providing confidential information, the party receiving the acquisition proposal enters into a confidentiality agreement with the person making the inquiry or proposal having terms that are no less favorable to the party providing the information than those in specified confidentiality agreements between Kmart and Sears.

In addition, if either of us receives an unsolicited bona fide written acquisition proposal prior to our respective stockholder meeting to vote on the merger agreement, the party receiving that proposal may withdraw or change its recommendation in favor of adopting the merger agreement if and only to the extent that:

that party's stockholders meeting has not occurred;

that party has complied in all material respects with the restrictions on acquisition proposals;

the board of directors of the party receiving the acquisition proposal, after consultation with outside counsel, determines in good faith that the failure to take such action would be inconsistent with the board's fiduciary duties under applicable law;

the board of directors of the party receiving the unsolicited bona fide written acquisition proposal, after consultation with its outside legal counsel and financial advisors, concludes in good faith that the acquisition proposal constitutes a superior proposal (as described below);

the party receiving the acquisition proposal provides the other party at least four business days advance notice of its intention to change its recommendation, specifies the material terms and conditions of the superior proposal, provides the identity of the party making the proposal and furnishes the other party with material documents; and prior to withdrawing or making a change in recommendation, the party receiving the acquisition proposal negotiates with the other party to the merger agreement in good faith to make adjustment to the merger agreement such that the acquisition proposal would no longer constitute a superior proposal.

For purposes of the merger agreement, "superior proposal" means a bona fide written acquisition proposal made to either Kmart or Sears for a merger or other business combination to acquire a majority of the assets or voting power of that party which the board of directors of that party concludes in good faith, after consultation with its financial and legal advisors, taking into account all legal, financial, regulatory, timing and other aspects of the proposal and the person making the proposal:

is more favorable to the stockholders of that party from a financial point of view than the merger; and is fully financed or reasonably capable of being financed, reasonably likely to receive all required governmental approvals on a timely basis and otherwise reasonably capable of being completed on the terms proposed.

Kmart and Sears have agreed in the merger agreement that they will:

notify the other party to the merger agreement promptly, and in any event within 24 hours of that party's receipt of any acquisition proposal or any request for nonpublic information relating to that party by any third party considering making, or that has made, an acquisition proposal, of the identity of such third party, the material terms and conditions of any inquiries, proposals or offers, update on the status of the terms of any such proposals, offers, discussions or negotiations on a current basis, and furnish copies of any information provided to such third party;

immediately terminate any activities, discussions or negotiations existing as of the date of the merger agreement with any parties conducted before that date with respect to any acquisition proposal; not release any third party from, or waive any provisions of, any confidentiality or standstill agreement relating to a possible acquisition proposal; and use reasonable best efforts to inform its and its subsidiaries' respective directors, officers and key employees of the foregoing restrictions in the merger agreement.

Nothing contained in the above "no solicitation" provisions of the merger agreement will permit either of us to terminate the merger agreement or affect any of our other obligations under the merger agreement, including our obligations to call and hold meetings of our respective stockholders to vote on the merger agreement.

Termination. We may terminate the merger agreement at any time prior to the completion of the merger, whether before or after our respective stockholders have adopted the merger agreement, by mutual consent.

In addition, either of us may terminate the merger agreement by written notice to the other party:

if any governmental entity:

that must grant a regulatory approval under specified U.S. or Canadian laws has denied approval of the mergers and the denial has become final and non-appealable; or of competent jurisdiction issues an order, decree or ruling or takes any other action permanently restraining, enjoining or otherwise prohibiting one of the mergers, and the order, decree, ruling or other action has become final and non-appealable; except that this right to terminate will not be available to a party whose failure to comply with the merger agreement has been the cause of, or resulted in, that action;

if both mergers are not completed on or before June 1, 2005 (or August 1, 2005, if, on June 1, 2005, any regulatory approval under specified U.S. or Canadian laws is not yet obtained but all other requirements are met), except that this right to terminate will not be available to a party whose failure to comply with any provision of the merger agreement was the cause of, or resulted in, the failure of the mergers to be completed by that date;

if the other party's board of directors fails to make or effects a change in its recommendation that its stockholders vote in favor of the adoption of the merger agreement or takes any other action inconsistent with that recommendation, in each case that is adverse in any material respect to the terminating party, or the other party breaches its obligation to hold its stockholders meeting to vote on adoption of the merger agreement, or materially breaches the "non-solicitation" provisions described above;

the other party is in breach of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements set forth in the merger agreement and the breach would prevent satisfaction by the other party of the relevant closing condition and the breach if curable, is not cured within 30 days of written notice of the breach; or if the stockholders of either party do not adopt the merger agreement at their respective stockholders meeting.

Edgar Filing: Sears Holdings CORP - Form 424B3

Termination Fees. The merger agreement provides that Kmart may be required to pay a termination fee to Sears of up to $380 million or Sears may be required to pay a termination fee to Kmart of up to $400 million in the following circumstances:

If either Kmart or Sears terminates the merger agreement due to (1) the failure of the other party's board to recommend its merger, the withdrawal or change in the other party's board of directors' recommendation of its merger to the other party's stockholders, in each case that is adverse in any material respect to the terminating party, (2) the material breach by the other party of its obligation under the merger agreement to call a meeting of, and use its reasonable best efforts to obtain the adoption by, that party's stockholders of the merger agreement, including failure to prepare and mail the joint proxy statement-prospectus to stockholders or (3) the material breach of the "no solicitation" restrictions described above, then the other party must pay the full termination fee on the business day following the termination.

If (1) the merger agreement is terminated by either Kmart or Sears, because the required stockholder vote of the party required to pay the fee was not obtained at that party's stockholders meeting, and (2) a competing acquisition proposal for the other party was publicly announced before the other party's stockholders meeting, then the party whose stockholders failed to adopt the merger agreement must pay the other party $70 million of the termination fee on the business day following termination. If within 12 months after this termination of the merger agreement, the party whose stockholders failed to adopt the merger agreement enters into a definitive agreement for, or completes, an acquisition proposal, the remainder of the termination fee ($310 million for termination by Kmart and $330 million for termination by Sears) will become payable.

If (1) the merger agreement is terminated by either Kmart or Sears, because the merger has not been consummated by June 1, 2005 (or August 1, 2005 if on June 1, 2005 any specifically required regulatory approval is not yet obtained but all other conditions are met) or by either Kmart or Sears, because of a breach by the other party that causes a condition to the merger to not be satisfied, (2) a competing acquisition proposal for the other party was publicly announced before the merger agreement was terminated, and (3) after the public announcement of the competing offer, the other party intentionally or recklessly breached (and did not cure) any of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements and the breach resulted in the failure of the mergers to become effective, then the party that committed the breach must pay the other party $70 million of the termination fee on the business day following termination. If within 12 months after this termination of the merger agreement the breaching party enters into a definitive agreement for, or completes, an acquisition proposal, the remainder of the termination fee ($310 million for termination by Kmart and $330 million for termination by Sears) will become payable.

Certain Termination Expenses. If either of us fails to pay all amounts due on the specified dates, then it must also pay the other party's expenses from actions taken to collect the unpaid amounts, including interest on the unpaid amounts and the additional expenses, calculated at the prevailing market rate.

In addition, if the required vote of the Sears common stockholders is not obtained at the Sears stockholders meeting, Sears must reimburse Kmart for its costs and expenses incurred in connection with the merger agreement up to a maximum of $10 million.

Conduct of Business Pending the Merger. Under the merger agreement, each of us has agreed that, during the period before completion of the merger, except as expressly contemplated or permitted by the merger agreement, or to the extent that the other party consents in writing, we will carry on our respective businesses in the usual, regular and ordinary course consistent with past practice, and will use all reasonable efforts to preserve intact our present business organizations, maintain our rights and authorizations and preserve our relationships with customers, suppliers and others so that our goodwill and ongoing businesses are not impaired in any material respect. Each of us has agreed not to, and not to permit our subsidiaries to, enter into any new material line of business or change our or our subsidiaries' operating policies in any respect that is material to us, except as required by law or policies of a governmental entity. Each of us has also agreed that we will not, and will not permit any of our subsidiaries to, incur or commit to any capital expenditures or any obligations or liabilities in connection with capital expenditures, other than in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice within specified limits. Each of us has further agreed not to, and not to permit our subsidiaries to, enter into, terminate or change any material leases, contracts or agreements except in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice.

In addition to the above agreements regarding the conduct of business generally, each of us has agreed with respect to ourselves and our subsidiaries to various additional specific restrictions relating to the conduct of our businesses, including the following (in each case subject to exceptions specified in the merger agreement):

the declaration or payment of dividends and changes in capital stock, except that Sears may pay its regular quarterly cash dividend on dates consistent with past practice in an amount per share no greater than the most recent quarterly dividend paid by Sears prior to execution of the merger agreement, which was $0.23 per share;

the combination or splitting of capital stock;

the repurchase or redemption of capital stock;

the issuance or sale of capital stock, voting debt or other equity interests;

the amendment of the certificates of incorporation or by-laws of Sears or Kmart;

the acquisition of assets or other entities;

the disposition of assets;

the incurrence or the guarantee of long-term debt;

the taking of actions that would result, or would reasonably be expected to result, in the inability to obtain the required regulatory approvals;

the adoption of changes in accounting methods, changes in annual tax period or the making of tax election that, individually or in the aggregate, would reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on either of us or on Holdings;

the taking of actions that would reasonably be expected to prevent or impede the exchange of Sears common stock and Kmart common stock for Holdings common stock pursuant to the mergers, taken together, from qualifying as a transaction described in Section 351 of the Code;

changes in employee benefit plans and compensation of its directors, executive officers and employees;

the liquidation or recapitalization of significant subsidiaries;

the settling or compromise of any material litigation beyond specified limits; and the restriction of any party from conducting, after the closing, any line of business in any geographic area.

Governance. In the merger agreement, we agreed to adopt amendments to the restated certificate of incorporation and by-laws of Sears and the amended and restated certificate of incorporation and by-laws of Kmart so that the certificates of incorporation and by-laws of Sears and Kmart after the mergers will be in forms more typical for wholly-owned subsidiaries, except that the indemnification and exculpation provisions in the certificates of incorporation and by-laws of Sears and Kmart after the mergers will remain identical in all material respects to those provisions prior to the mergers. As a result of the mergers, stockholders of Kmart and stockholders of Sears who receive stock will become stockholders of Holdings. More information about the restated certificate of incorporation and restated by-laws of Holdings which will be in effect immediately after the mergers are completed can be found in the section "Comparison of Stockholder Rights" beginning on page 125.

On or prior to the effectiveness of the mergers, Holdings' board of directors will cause the full board membership to be set at ten, and will cause the persons indicated in the section entitled " Board of Directors and Management after the Mergers" beginning on page 78 of this joint proxy statement-prospectus to be appointed to the Holdings board of directors as of the mergers.

On or prior to the effectiveness of the mergers, we will cause the persons indicated in the section entitled " Board of Directors and Management after the Mergers" beginning on page 78 to be elected or appointed to the offices of Holdings, Kmart and Sears after the mergers specified in such section.

The headquarters of Holdings will be located in Hoffman Estates, Illinois.

Additional Agreements. We have agreed to cooperate with each other and to use reasonable best efforts to:

take all actions necessary under the merger agreement and applicable laws to consummate the mergers as soon as practicable;

as promptly as practicable, (1) make the appropriate Hart-Scott-Rodino filings and the appropriate filings under specified Canadian competition and investment laws and (2) to supply as promptly as practicable any information or materials required by these laws or applicable regulatory authorities; and except that no party is required to take any actions that would reasonably be expected to result in a material adverse effect on Holdings after the consummation of mergers or that is not conditional on the consummation of the mergers.

The merger agreement also contains covenants relating to cooperation in the preparation of this joint proxy statement-prospectus and additional agreements relating to, among other things, consultation regarding transition matters, access to information, notice of specified matters and public announcements.

Benefits Matters. We have agreed that our respective retirement and other employee benefit plans will remain in effect after completion of the mergers with respect to employees covered by those plans, until such time as Holdings shall determine, subject to the terms of such plans. We have also agreed to negotiate in good faith to formulate benefit plans for Holdings after the effective time of the mergers on a basis that does not discriminate between employees who were covered by the benefit plans of Kmart and employees who were covered by the benefit plans of Sears.

Holdings will adopt a resolution providing that the receipt by certain Sears and Kmart officers and directors of shares of Holdings common stock to be issued in connection with the mergers and subject to Section 16(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, are intended to be exempt from liability pursuant to Section 16(b).

Amendment, Extension and Waiver. We may amend the merger agreement by action taken or authorized by our respective boards of directors, at any time before or after adoption of the merger agreement by the stockholders of Kmart or Sears. After adoption of the merger agreement by the stockholders of Kmart or Sears, no amendment may be made which by law requires further approval by those stockholders, unless we obtain that further approval. All amendments to the merger agreement must be in writing signed by all of the parties thereto.

At any time before the completion of the mergers, we may, by written action taken or authorized by our respective boards of directors, to the extent legally allowed:

extend the time for the performance of any of the obligations or other acts provided for in the merger agreement;

waive any inaccuracies in the representations and warranties contained in the merger agreement or in any document delivered pursuant to the merger agreement; and waive compliance with any of the agreements or conditions contained in the merger agreement.

Fees and Expenses. Whether or not the mergers are completed, all costs and expenses incurred in connection with the merger agreement and the mergers will be paid by the party incurring the expense, except as otherwise provided in the merger agreement (see "Certain Termination Expenses" above) and except that:

if the mergers are completed, the surviving corporations will pay any property or transfer taxes imposed on either party in connection with the mergers; and all expenses and fees incurred in connection with the filing, printing and mailing of this joint proxy statement-prospectus and the registration statement of which it is a part will be shared equally by Kmart and Sears.

Representations and Warranties. The merger agreement contains customary and substantially reciprocal representations and warranties by each of us relating to, among other things:

corporate organization and similar corporate matters;

capital structure;

authorization of the merger agreement and absence of conflicts;

documents filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission, financial statements included in those documents, regulatory reports filed with governmental entities and absence of material undisclosed liabilities;

The Support Agreement

This section of the joint proxy statement-prospectus describes the material terms of the support agreement. The following summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete text of the support agreement, which is incorporated by reference and attached as Annex B to this joint proxy statement-prospectus. We urge you to read the full text of the support agreement.

On November 16, 2004, in connection with the merger agreement, ESL Partners, L.P., ESL Investors, L.L.C., ESL Institutional Partners, L.P., ESL Investment Management, L.L.C., CRK Partners, LLC and CRK Partners II, L.P. (which we refer to in this joint proxy statement-prospectus, collectively, as the ESL Companies) entered into a Support Agreement and Irrevocable Proxy with Kmart and Sears. The ESL Companies (other than ESL Investment Management, L.L.C.) are controlled, directly or indirectly, by ESL Investments, Inc., which in turn is controlled by Edward S. Lampert, Kmart's Chairman. Mr. Lampert directly controls ESL Investment Management, L.L.C.

In the support agreement, subject to certain limited exceptions, the ESL Companies agreed (1) to vote their shares of Kmart common stock in favor of adoption of the merger agreement at the Kmart stockholders meeting and against any other transaction, and (2) to vote their shares of Sears common stock in favor of the adoption of the merger agreement at the Sears stockholders meeting and against any other transaction. The ESL Companies have acknowledged that, as a part of their obligation to vote in favor of the adoption of the merger agreement, they are obligated by the support agreement to vote in favor of the proposals to exclude certain bankruptcy-related provisions that currently exist in the certificate of incorporation of Kmart from the restated certificate of incorporation of Holdings.

The requirement of the ESL Companies to vote their shares of Kmart common stock as described above is subject to limitations if the Kmart board of directors changes its recommendation with respect to the adoption of the merger agreement, in which case only a number of shares equal to one-third of outstanding shares of Kmart common stock would be required to be so voted, with the remaining shares being required to be voted pro rata with all other shares of Kmart common stock not beneficially owned by the ESL Companies. The ESL Companies have also agreed to irrevocably elect to receive Holdings common stock in the Sears merger, subject to proration like all Sears stockholders. The ESL Companies have also agreed not to transfer or otherwise dispose of any of their shares of Kmart common stock or Sears common stock until the termination of the support agreement. The support agreement terminates upon the earlier to occur of the termination of the merger agreement or the day after the effective date of the mergers.

As of the Kmart record date, the ESL Companies beneficially owned approximately 53% of the outstanding shares of Kmart common stock, which then consisted of approximately 42.0 million shares of Kmart common stock, options to acquire approximately 6.5 million shares of Kmart common stock and notes convertible into approximately 6.3 million shares of Kmart common stock (although since the Kmart record date, all of these convertible notes have been converted into such number of shares of Kmart common stock). This beneficial ownership represents the power to vote approximately 47% of the outstanding shares of Kmart common stock (without giving effect to the exercise of such options and conversion of such convertible notes).

As of the Sears record date, the ESL Companies also beneficially owned approximately 14% of the outstanding shares of Sears common stock, which consists of approximately 31.1 million shares of Sears common stock. This beneficial ownership represents the power to vote approximately 14% of the outstanding shares of Sears common stock.

The support agreement does not obligate the ESL Companies to vote or take any other action with respect to the approval of grants of restricted shares and options by Kmart to Aylwin B. Lewis to be proposed by Kmart at its special meeting. Information about these grants can be found under "Equity Grants to Aylwin B. Lewis" beginning on page 144.

UNAUDITED PRO FORMA CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL DATA

The following unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated statements of operations for the 39 weeks ended October 27, 2004 and the fiscal year ended January 28, 2004 assume the business combination between Kmart and Sears occurred on January 30, 2003. The unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated balance sheet as of October 27, 2004 assumes the business combination had been completed on that date.

In the business combination, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Holdings will merge with and into Sears, and Sears common stockholders will have the right to elect to receive either $50.00 in cash or 0.5 of a share of Holdings common stock for each share of Sears common stock that they own. The elections are subject to proration so that, in the aggregate, 45% of all outstanding Sears common stock will be exchanged for cash and 55% of all outstanding Sears common stock will be exchanged for shares of Holdings common stock. Restricted shares of Sears common stock at the effective time of the Sears merger will be converted into Holdings common stock on a 0.5 for 1 basis. In addition, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Holdings will merge with and into Kmart, and Kmart common stockholders will receive one share of Holdings common stock for each share of Kmart common stock that they own.

The mergers and related transactions will be treated as a purchase business combination for accounting purposes, and Sears' assets acquired and liabilities assumed will be recorded at their fair value. Prior to the mergers, the ESL Companies owned in the aggregate approximately 15% of Sears common stock. For the purpose of this unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated financial data, we have reflected 100% of the outstanding shares of Sears, including the ESL Companies' 15% ownership, at fair value, in computing total consideration. We have assumed that Kmart's common stock price is $104.33 per share (based on an average of closing prices for Kmart's common stock from November 15, 2004 through November 19, 2004, which are the five trading days centered on the day the transaction was announced) and that 206.8 million shares of Sears' common stock are outstanding at the date of completion of the mergers. Approximately 89.2 million shares of Holdings common stock will be issued in exchange for all outstanding common stock of Kmart, based on the one-for-one exchange ratio. We have assumed that an aggregate 56.9 million shares of Holdings common stock will be issued and $4,653 million in cash will be paid in consideration for all outstanding common stock of Sears, based upon the assumed stock price of $104.33 per share, the proration provisions set forth above and the exchange ratio of 0.5 of a share of Holdings common stock for one share of Sears common stock. In addition, $439 million in cash is assumed to be paid in exchange for all of the outstanding stock options of Sears, based on the assumed stock price of $104.33 per share.

The allocations of the purchase price to Sears' assets, including intangible assets, and liabilities are only preliminary allocations based on estimates of fair values and will change when actual fair values are determined. Among the provisions of Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 141, "Business Combinations," criteria have been established for determining whether intangible assets should be recognized separately from goodwill. Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 142, "Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets" ("SFAS 142") provides, among other guidelines, that goodwill and intangible assets with indefinite lives will not be amortized, but rather are tested for impairment on at least an annual basis. Managements of both Sears and Kmart believe that certain trade names owned by Sears, including Lands' End, Kenmore and Craftsman, have indefinite lives based upon an analysis utilizing the criteria in paragraph 11 of SFAS 142.

Managements of both Sears and Kmart expect that the benefits of the business combination will generate an estimated $500 million of annualized cost and revenue synergies to be fully realized by the end of the third year after closing. Sears and Kmart expect to realize approximately $200 million in incremental operating profit from revenue synergies by capitalizing on cross-selling opportunities between Kmart and Sears' proprietary brands and by converting a substantial number of off-mall Kmart stores to the Sears nameplate. Holdings expects to achieve annual cost savings of over $300 million principally through improved merchandising and non-merchandising purchasing scale as well as improved supply chain, administrative and other operational efficiencies. In addition, Holdings will complete a full store asset review as part of a plan to monetize non-strategic real estate assets as appropriate. However, such synergies will be partially offset by merger-related integration and restructuring expenses. Holdings has not made any integration decisions and, accordingly, the amounts of merger-related integration costs have not been determined. The accompanying unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated statements of operations do not include any revenue or cost saving synergies which may be achievable subsequent to the closing of the business combination or the impact of non-recurring items directly related to the business combination.

The unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated balance sheet as of October 27, 2004 assumes that the business combination took place on that date and combines the October 27, 2004 historical balance sheet for Kmart and the October 2, 2004 historical balance sheet for Sears. The unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated statements of operations for the fiscal year ended January 28, 2004 and the 39 weeks ended October 27, 2004 assume that the business combination took place on January 30, 2003. Kmart's fiscal year ends on the last Wednesday in January, and Sears' fiscal year ends on the Saturday closest to December 31. Therefore, the accompanying unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated statement of operations for the year ended January 28, 2004 combines the pro forma 52-week fiscal year ended January 28, 2004 for Kmart and the pro forma 53-week fiscal year ended January 3, 2004 for Sears. The unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated statement of operations for the 39 weeks ended October 27, 2004 combines the historical 39 weeks ended October 27, 2004 for Kmart and the historical 39 weeks ended October 2, 2004 for Sears. Reclassifications have been made to the historical financial statements of Kmart and Sears to conform to the presentation expected to be used by Holdings.

On May 6, 2003, Kmart Corporation ("Predecessor Company") emerged from Chapter 11 reorganization proceedings. Upon applying Fresh-Start accounting, a new reporting entity ("Successor Company") was deemed to be created. The reported historical financial statements for the Predecessor Company for periods ended prior to May 1, 2003 generally are not comparable to those of the Successor Company. As such, in order to combine the two periods for purposes of this pro forma presentation, Kmart's emergence from bankruptcy was deemed to have occurred in fiscal year 2002 in order for the statement of operations for the 13 weeks ended April 30, 2003 to be presented on a Successor Company basis. The statement of operations for the 13 weeks ended April 30, 2003 has been combined with the statement of operations for the 39 weeks ended January 28, 2004 to present a 2003 pro forma income statement for the full fiscal year on a Successor Company basis. See note (a) to the unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated statements of operations.

On November 3, 2003, Sears sold its domestic Credit and Financial Products business to Citicorp. The sale generated total proceeds of $32 billion, consisting of the assumption of $10 billion of securitized debt by Citicorp and cash proceeds received by Sears of $22 billion. Sears recorded a pretax gain of $4.1 billion as a result of the sale. On November 29, 2003, Sears sold its subsidiary, National Tire & Battery ("NTB"), to TBC Corporation for cash proceeds of $264 million. Sears recorded a pretax gain of $81 million as a result of the sale. The results of operations of these sold businesses were included in Sears historical statement of operations for the 53-weeks ended January 3, 2004. For the purpose of presenting the unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated statement of operations for the fiscal year ended January 28, 2004, pro forma adjustments have been made to the Sears historical statement of operations to reflect these businesses as sold prior to the commencement of such fiscal year. See note (b) to the unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated statements of operations.

The pro forma condensed consolidated financial data shown under this heading is unaudited, is presented for informational purposes only, is not necessarily indicative of the financial position or results of operations that would actually have occurred had the mergers or the related transactions been consummated as of the dates or at the beginning of the periods presented, nor is it necessarily indicative of future operating results or financial position. The unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated financial data shown under this heading and the accompanying notes should be read together with the historical financial statements and related notes contained in the annual reports and other information that Kmart and Sears have each filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission and incorporated by reference in this joint proxy statement/prospectus. See "Where You Can Find More Information" on page 148.

Certain reclassifications have been made to the historical presentation of Kmart and Sears to conform to the presentation used in the unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated balance sheet.

In connection with the business combination, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Holdings will merge with and into Sears, and Sears common stockholders will have the right to elect to receive either $50.00 in cash or 0.5 of a share of Holdings common stock for each share of Sears common stock that they own. The elections are subject to proration so that, in the aggregate, 45% of all outstanding Sears common stock will be exchanged for cash and 55% of all outstanding Sears common stock will be exchanged for shares of Holdings common stock. In addition, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Holdings will merge with and into Kmart, and Kmart common stockholders will receive one share of Holdings common stock for each share of Kmart common stock that they own. Restricted shares of Sears common stock at the effective time of the Sears merger will be converted into Holdings common stock on a 0.5 for 1 basis.

Under the purchase method of accounting, the total estimated consideration as shown in the table below is allocated to Sears' tangible and intangible assets and liabilities based on their estimated fair values as of the date of the business combination. The preliminary estimated consideration is as follows:

		Common Shares	Capital in Excess of Par Value	Total
(b10)	Issuance of Holdings shares to Sears stockholders (56.87 million shares at $104.33)	$ 1	$ 5,933	$ 5,934
	Cash consideration paid to Sears common stockholders			4,653
	Cash consideration paid to Sears stock option holders			439
	Estimated Kmart transaction costs			10
(b1)	Total cash consideration			5,102
	Total consideration			$ 11,036

For purposes of cash consideration to be paid to Sears stockholders, Holdings has assumed that it will liquidate the $138 million of available-for-sale securities that Sears owns and has recorded within other current assets in Sears' October 2, 2004 unaudited condensed consolidated balance sheet.

Edgar Filing: Sears Holdings CORP - Form 424B3

The estimated consideration is preliminarily allocated as follows:

(b9)	Sears' historical net book value	$ 5,418
(b5)	Elimination of Sears' historical goodwill	(956)
(b2)	Adjustment of inventory to fair value	620
(b4)	Estimate of adjustment to fair value property and equipment	5,080
(b6)	Estimate of adjustment to fair value identifiable intangible assets	5,198
(b7)	Estimate of adjustment to fair value the assumed long-term debt	(150)
(b8)	Estimate of adjustment to fair value pension and post-retirement obligations	(207)
(b3)	Estimate of deferred taxes on adjustments at combined rate of 38%	(3,977)
		<hr/>

Holdings has not completed an assessment of the fair values of assets and liabilities of Sears and the related business integration plans. Although certain assets are expected to be deemed as held for sale, the assessment will not be completed until the full review of the assets has been completed. Holdings expects that the ultimate purchase price allocation will include adjustments to the fair values of depreciable tangible assets, identifiable intangible assets (some of which will have indefinite lives) and liabilities, including the establishment of any potential liabilities associated with business integration plans, sales of underperforming real estate, and termination and change in control benefits. Accordingly, to the extent such assessments indicate that the fair value of the assets and liabilities differ from their net book values, such differences would be allocated to those assets and liabilities.

For purposes of the allocation above, Holdings has allocated $5.1 billion to property and equipment. This allocation has been preliminarily assigned to land, buildings and leasehold improvements based upon previous internal and external assessments of value. The preliminary allocation included in these pro forma financial statements is as follows:

Asset class	Increase in value	Estimated remaining useful life
Land	$ 1,700	N/A
Buildings	1,700	25 years
Leasehold Improvements	1,700	15 years

For purposes of the allocation above, Holdings has allocated $5.9 billion to identifiable intangible assets. The preliminary allocation included in these pro forma financial statements is as follows:

Asset class	Increase in value	Estimated remaining useful life
Tradenames	$ 5,600	Indefinite
Craftsman, Kenmore and Lands' End
Definite lived intangibles	300	3 years

The majority of this allocation relates to trade names, including Lands' End, Craftsman and Kenmore, which are believed to have indefinite lives. The Craftsman and Kenmore tradenames were internally developed by Sears, and as such do not have value assigned to them within the historical financial statements of Sears. In connection with the acquisition of Sears, Holdings will record these tradenames on the opening balance sheet at fair value. The Lands' End tradename was acquired by Sears in connection with the acquisition of Lands' End in June 2002. Given the significant brand awareness, uniqueness and other attributes of these three tradenames, Holdings anticipates that a significant portion of the purchase price will be allocated to these three tradenames. Holdings has engaged an outside third party to assist in this valuation. In addition, it is anticipated that some value will be allocated to definitive life intangibles, including customer relationships and other intangible assets. The Lands' End trade name, which is currently recorded within the historical financial statements of Sears at $700 million, was valued in connection with Sears' acquisition of Lands' End in June 2002. For purposes of presentation within the unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated balance sheet, no significant adjustment to this fair value has been made.

Adjustment reflects the elimination of inter-company balances between Kmart and Sears. On September 29, 2004, Sears acquired ownership or leasehold interest in 50 Kmart stores for approximately $575 million. Sears paid 30% of the purchase price at closing, and the remainder was recorded as a receivable by Kmart and a payable by Sears.

Adjustment reflects the cancellation of Kmart common stock owned by Kmart which will be cancelled without any conversion thereof, and no consideration paid as of the effective date of the mergers.

On May 6, 2003, Kmart Corporation ("Predecessor Company") emerged from Chapter 11 reorganization proceedings. Upon applying Fresh-Start accounting, Kmart as a new reporting entity ("Successor Company") was deemed to be created. The reported historical financial statements for the Predecessor Company for periods ended prior to May 1, 2003 generally are not comparable to those of the Successor Company. As such, in order to combine the two periods for purposes of this pro forma presentation, Kmart's emergence from bankruptcy was deemed to have occurred in fiscal year 2002 in order for the statement of operations for the 13 weeks ended April 30, 2003 to be presented on a Successor Company basis. The statement of operations for the 13 weeks ended April 30, 2003 has been combined with the statement of operations for the 39 weeks ended January 28, 2004 to present a 2003 pro forma income statement for the full fiscal year on a Successor Company basis. Reference is made to the table on page 122 for adjustments that have been made to the historical Predecessor and Successor Company statements of operations to present Kmart on a pro forma basis for the 52 weeks ended January 28, 2004.

On November 3, 2003, Sears sold its domestic Credit and Financial Products business to Citicorp. The sale generated total proceeds of $32 billion, consisting of the assumption of $10 billion of securitized debt by Citicorp and cash proceeds received by Sears of $22 billion. Sears recorded a pretax gain of $4.1 billion as a result of the sale. On November 29, 2003, Sears sold its subsidiary, National Tire and Battery Corporation ("NTB"), to TBC Corporation for cash proceeds of $264 million. Sears recorded a pretax gain of $81 million as a result of the sale. The results of operations of these sold businesses were included in Sears historical statement of operations for the 53 weeks ended January 3, 2004. For the purpose of presenting the unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated statement of operations for the fiscal year ended January 28, 2004, pro forma adjustments have been made to the Sears historical statement of operations to reflect these businesses as sold prior to commencement of such fiscal year. Reference is made to the table on page 120 for adjustments that have been made to the historical Sears statement of operations to account for these events and present Sears on a pro forma basis for the 53 weeks ended January 3, 2004.

Certain reclassifications have been made to the historical presentation of Kmart and Sears to conform to the presentation used in the unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated statements of operations.

Represents an increase in depreciation and amortization expense resulting from the adjustment to Sears' property and equipment and identifiable intangible assets based on the adjustment of such assets to fair value as discussed in Note (b) of the Notes to Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Consolidated Balance Sheet. The increase in depreciation and amortization expense has been estimated as follows:

($ in millions)	Increase in value	Estimated remaining useful life	Additional annual depreciation/amortization	Additional depreciation/amortization for 39-weeks
Buildings	$ 1,700	25 years	67	50
Leasehold improvements	1,800	15 years	119	90
Definite lived intangible assets	260	3 years	87	65
Additional expense			$ 273	$ 205

Edgar Filing: Sears Holdings CORP - Form 424B3

Holdings has assumed a remaining useful life of 25 years for its tangible assets in preparing the unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated statements of operations. Holdings expects the identifiable intangibles will primarily consist of tradenames, including Lands' End, Kenmore, Craftsman and Diehard, and that these identified intangibles will have an indefinite life. Holdings has also allocated purchase price to identifiable intangibles with definitive lives such as customer relationships and supply agreements. For intangible assets with definitive lives, Holdings has assumed a 3-year useful life.

The unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated financial statements reflect a preliminary allocation to tangible assets, liabilities, goodwill and other intangible assets. The final purchase price allocation may result in a different allocation for tangible and intangible assets than that presented in these unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated financial statements. An increase or decrease in the amount of purchase price allocated to amortizable assets would impact the amount of annual amortization income or expense. The following table shows the effect on pro forma net income from continuing operations applicable to common shares and earnings per share from continuing operations for every $100 million of purchase price allocated at a range of weighted-average useful lives:

Weighted Average Life
Five years	$ 12.4	$ 0.08	$ 9.3	$ 0.06
Ten years	6.2	0.04	4.7	0.03
Twenty-five years	2.5	0.02	1.9	0.01

- (e) Represents the decrease in interest expense as a result of the adjustment of Sears' long-term debt to its fair value as described in Note (b) of the Notes to the Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Consolidated Balance Sheet. The difference between the fair value and recorded value of each borrowing is amortized as a reduction to interest expense over the remaining term of the borrowing.
- (f) On September 29, 2004, Sears acquired ownership or leasehold interest in 50 Kmart stores for approximately $575 million. During the 39 weeks ended October 27, 2004, Kmart recognized a gain on the sale amounting to $599 million. This adjustment eliminates the gain on the sale recognized by Kmart.
- (g) Represents the compensation expense Sears would have recorded under its existing stock based compensation plans to conform with Kmart's accounting policy to expense stock based compensation under Statement of Financial Accounting Standard No. 123, "Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation" and the additional compensation expense Holdings would have recorded related to an employment agreement entered into in connection with the mergers.
- (h) Represents the elimination of compensation expense recognized in Note (g) above, with the exception of the additional compensation expense related to the employment agreement with Alan J. Lacy entered into in connection with the mergers, as the outstanding stock options of Sears fully vest and are paid out in connection with the business combination.
- (i) Represents the aggregate pro forma statutory income tax effect (38%) of Notes (c) through (h) above.

Edgar Filing: Sears Holdings CORP - Form 424B3

- (j) The pro forma earnings per share from continuing operations has been adjusted to reflect the issuance of Holdings common stock to Sears common stockholders based upon the assumed stock price of $104.33 per share, the proration provisions in the merger agreement, and the exchange ratio in the Sears merger of 0.5 of a share of Holdings common stock for one share of Sears common stock.
- (k) These Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Consolidated Statements of Operations exclude Sears' estimated transaction costs of $40 million to be incurred in connection with the business combination.
- (l) No pro forma adjustment is recorded to cost of sales, buying and occupancy because Sears inventory will continue to be valued under the LIFO method due to the Internal Revenue Service LIFO conformity rule. Furthermore, significant LIFO liquidations are not anticipated in the foreseeable future.

Notes to Sears' Fiscal 2003 Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Consolidated Statement of Operations

- (a) Certain reclassifications have been made to the historical presentations of Sears in order to conform to the unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated presentation.
- (b) To reflect the removal of the historical operating results of Sears' domestic Credit and Financial Products business, including clubs and services. On November 3, 2003, Sears completed the sale of its domestic Credit and Financial Products business, including its clubs and services business, to Citicorp. The sale generated total proceeds of $32 billion, consisting of the assumption of $10 billion of securitized debt by Citicorp and cash proceeds received by Sears of $22 billion. Sears recorded a pretax gain of $4.1 billion as a result of the sale.

Additionally, Sears and Citibank (USA) N.A. entered into a long-term marketing and servicing alliance ("Program Agreement") with an initial term of 10 years, with an option to renew. Under the Program Agreement, Citibank (USA) N.A. will provide credit and customer service benefits to the Sears' proprietary and Gold MasterCard holders. In addition, Citibank (USA) N.A. will support Sears' current zero-percent financing program.
- (c) On November 29, 2003, Sears sold NTB to TBC Corporation. The sale generated total cash proceeds of $264 million. Sears recorded a pretax gain of $81 million as a result of the sale.
- (d) To reflect the estimated ongoing revenue earned under the Program Agreement entered into with Citigroup. In connection with the Program Agreement, Sears earns revenues by generating credit sales and new accounts for Citicorp as well as by selling other Citicorp products.
- (e) To reflect the estimated operating expenses related to Sears' administration of the Program Agreement.
- (f) A loss on early retirement of debt of $791 million was recorded in fiscal year 2003 related to the retirement of debt following the sale of the Credit and Financial Products business described in Note (b) above.
- (g) To reflect an estimate of interest expense on debt related to the Credit and Financial Products business which was not sold to or assumed by Citicorp in connection with the sale of the business. The interest expense associated with this debt was reported within the Credit and Financial Products historical results eliminated as discussed in footnote (b) above. As this debt was not truly retired until completion of Sears' debt tender activities, discussed in footnote (f) above, additional interest expense was calculated to fairly present the fiscal 2003 statement of operations for Sears. Holdings assumed that the remaining outstanding debt was repaid based upon its maturity date, no additional debt was acquired during fiscal 2003 and assumed that the disposition of the Credit and Financial Products business occurred at the beginning of fiscal 2002.
- (h) To reflect the tax effect of the above items at Sears' annual effective income tax rate of 36.5%.

Notes to Kmart Fiscal 2003 Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Consolidated Statement of Operations

(In millions, except per share data)

Certain reclassifications have been made to the historical presentations of Kmart in order to conform to the unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated presentation.

(b)

Adjustments to reflect emergence from Chapter 11 prior to fiscal year 2003. $679 million of reorganization expenses were eliminated for the 13 weeks ended April 30, 2003 assuming they would have been incurred prior to emergence. An additional $90 million of net expenses in the 13 weeks ended April 30, 2003 were reclassified out of reorganization items. The $90 million includes $158 million of expenses incurred related to the 316 store closings, gains of $82 million as a result of sales of pharmacy lists and lease auction proceeds, and $14 million of miscellaneous expenses. Other adjustments relate to the impact of emergence prior to fiscal year 2003, including the reduction in depreciation expense due to the write-off of long-lived assets in conjunction with the application of Fresh-Start accounting. In order to reflect Kmart's emergence from Chapter 11 prior to fiscal 2003, it was assumed that the estimated enterprise value determined as of April 30, 2003 would have been representative of the estimated enterprise value as of the end of fiscal 2002. Therefore, no adjustments were made to the estimated enterprise value of $2.6 billion as of April 30, 2003.

DESCRIPTION OF HOLDINGS CAPITAL STOCK

The following summary is a description of the material terms of Holdings' capital stock as of the effective time of the mergers and is not complete. You should also refer to (1) Holdings' restated certificate of incorporation, which will be in effect as of the effective time of the mergers and a form of which is included as Annex F to this joint proxy statement-prospectus, (2) Holdings' restated by-laws, which will be in effect as of the effective time of the mergers and a form of which is included as Annex G to this joint proxy statement-prospectus, and (3) the applicable provisions of the Delaware General Corporation Law.

Common Stock

As of the effective time of the mergers, Holdings will be authorized to issue up to 500 million shares of common stock. Following the mergers, Holdings expects there to be approximately 156 million shares of common stock of Holdings outstanding.

Holders of Holdings common stock are entitled to receive dividends when, as and if declared by Holdings' board of directors out of funds legally available for payment, subject to the rights of holders of Holdings preferred stock. For more information about Holdings' dividends, see "The Mergers Dividend Policy and Share Repurchases" on page 93 and "Risk Factors Holdings does not expect to pay dividends for the foreseeable future, and you must rely on increases in the trading prices of Holdings stock for returns on your investment" on page 20.

Each holder of Holdings common stock is entitled to one vote per share. Subject to the rights, if any, of the holders of any series of preferred stock if and when issued and subject to applicable law, all voting rights are vested in the holders of shares of Holdings common stock. Holders of shares of Holdings common stock have noncumulative voting rights, which means that the holders of more than 50% of the shares voting for the election of directors can elect 100% of the directors and the holders of the remaining shares will not be able to elect any directors.

In the event of a voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution or winding up of Holdings, the holders of Holdings common stock will be entitled to share equally in any of the assets available for distribution after Holdings has paid in full all of its debts and after the holders of all series of Holdings' outstanding preferred stock have received their liquidation preferences in full.

The issued and outstanding shares of Holdings common stock are fully paid and nonassessable. Holders of shares of Holdings common stock are not entitled to preemptive rights. Shares of Holdings common stock are not convertible into shares of any other class of capital stock. EquiServe is the transfer agent for the Holdings common stock. Holdings may from time to time after the consummation of the mergers engage another transfer agent for its stock as business circumstances warrant.

Preferred Stock

As of the effective time of the mergers, the Holdings board of directors will be authorized, without further stockholder action and upon the affirmative vote of $66\frac{2}{3}\%$ of the directors then in office, to issue up to 20,000,000 shares of preferred stock, in one or more series, and to determine the voting powers and the designations, preferences and relative, participating, optional or other special rights, and qualifications, limitations or restrictions, of each series.

Subject to the determination of the Holdings board of directors in any certificate of designations for a series of preferred stock, Holdings preferred stock would generally have preference over Holdings common stock with respect to the payment of dividends and the distribution of assets in the event of a liquidation or dissolution of Holdings.

COMPARISON OF STOCKHOLDER RIGHTS

The rights of Kmart stockholders are currently governed by Delaware corporate law and the certificate of incorporation and by-laws of Kmart. The rights of Sears stockholders are currently governed by New York corporate law and the restated certificate of incorporation and by-laws of Sears. Upon completion of the mergers, the rights of Sears stockholders who become stockholders of Holdings in the Sears merger and the rights of Kmart stockholders will be governed by Delaware corporate law and the restated certificate of incorporation and restated by-laws of Holdings.

This section of the proxy statement-prospectus describes the material differences between the rights of Kmart stockholders and Sears stockholders. This section also includes a brief description of the material rights that Holdings stockholders are expected to have immediately following completion of the mergers, although in some cases the board of directors of Holdings retains the discretion to alter those rights without stockholder consent. In addition, this section contains a summary of the material differences between Delaware and New York corporate law.

This section does not include a complete description of all differences among the rights of these stockholders, nor does it include a complete description of the specific rights of these stockholders. Furthermore, the identification of some of the differences in the rights of these stockholders as material is not intended to indicate that other differences that may be equally important do not exist.

All Kmart stockholders and Sears stockholders are urged to read carefully the relevant provisions of the Delaware General Corporation Law and the New York Business Corporation Law, as well as the certificates of incorporation and by-laws of each of Kmart, Sears and Holdings. The restated certificate of incorporation and restated by-laws of Holdings which will be in effect upon completion of the mergers will be substantially in the form attached as Annex F and Annex G to this joint proxy statement-prospectus. Copies of the certificates of incorporation and by-laws of Kmart and Sears are available to Kmart stockholders and Sears stockholders upon request. See "Where You Can Find More Information" on page 148.

Voting Rights

Kmart. Each holder of common stock has the right to cast one vote for each share of common stock held of record on all matters submitted to a vote of stockholders, including the election of directors.

Holdings. Same as Kmart.

Sears. Each holder of common stock has the right to cast one vote for each share of common stock held of record on all matters submitted to a vote of stockholders, with the exception of the election of directors, for which cumulative voting is provided in the Sears restated certificate of incorporation.

Class Voting

Delaware. Delaware corporate law requires voting by separate classes only with respect to amendments to a certificate of incorporation that (1) would alter or change the powers, preferences or rights of those classes so as to adversely affect the holders of those classes or (2) would increase or decrease the aggregate number of authorized shares or the par value of the shares of any of those classes.

Kmart. Subject to the rights of any preferred stock that may be issued, no other specific class voting rights are provided.

Holdings. Same as Kmart.

New York. New York law provides that holders of the outstanding shares of a class are entitled to vote as a separate voting group if the rights of that class are affected in certain respects by certain plans of merger, plans of share exchange or amendments to a certificate of incorporation.

Sears. Subject to the rights of any preferred stock that may be issued, no other specific class voting rights are provided.

Number and Election of Directors

Delaware. Delaware corporate law permits the certificate of incorporation or the by-laws of a corporation to contain provisions governing the number and terms of directors. However, if the certificate of incorporation contains provisions fixing the number of directors, that number may not be changed without amending the certificate of incorporation. Delaware corporate law also permits the certificate of incorporation of a corporation or a by-law adopted by the stockholders to provide that directors be divided into one, two or three classes, with staggered terms of office usually of three years each. Delaware corporate law also permits the certificate of incorporation to confer upon holders of any class or series of stock the right to elect one or more directors to serve for the terms and have the voting powers as are stated in the certificate of incorporation. The terms of office and voting powers of directors so elected may be greater or less than those of any other director or class of directors.

Kmart. The board of directors of Kmart currently has 10 members. The Kmart certificate of incorporation and by-laws provide that the Kmart board of directors will consist of a number of directors to be fixed from time to time by the Kmart board of directors, but shall not be less than three nor more than fifteen. Kmart's certificate of incorporation and by-laws do not provide for a staggered board of directors. In addition, see "Bankruptcy-Related Charter Provisions" below for a discussion of certain provisions concerning the allocation of directors' seats on the Kmart board.

Holdings. Same as Kmart, except that there will be no provisions to allocate the directorships as discussed under "Bankruptcy-Related Charter Provisions" below.

New York. Subject to certain limitations, New York corporate law permits the number of directors of a corporation to be fixed by its by-laws, by action of the stockholders or by action of the board of directors under the specific provision of a by-law adopted by the stockholders. At each annual meeting of the stockholders, directors are to be elected to hold office until the next annual meeting, except for corporations with classified boards. New York corporate law permits the certificate of incorporation or the specific provisions of a by-law adopted by the stockholders to provide that directors be divided into either two, three or four classes. All classes must be as nearly equal in number as possible. The term of office of one class of directors shall expire each year, with the terms of office of no two classes expiring the same year.

Sears. The board of directors of Sears currently has nine members. The restated certificate of incorporation of Sears provides that the Sears board of directors will consist of a number of directors to be fixed from time to time by the Sears board of directors, but shall not be less than nine nor more than 30. The by-laws of Sears provide that the Sears board of directors will consist of a number of directors to be fixed from time to time by the Sears board of directors, but shall not be less than seven nor more than 20. The restated certificate of incorporation of Sears also provides for a staggered board of directors, consisting of three classes as nearly as equal in number as possible.

Qualification of Directors

Delaware. Under Delaware corporate law, a director need not be a stockholder unless the certificate of incorporation or by-laws so requires.

Kmart. Neither Kmart's certificate of incorporation nor by-laws contain a provision specifying that a director needs to be a stockholder.

Holdings. Same as Kmart.

New York. Under New York corporate law, a director need not be a stockholder unless the certificate of incorporation or by-laws so requires.

Sears. Neither the restated certificate of incorporation or by-laws of Sears contain a provision specifying that a director needs to be a stockholder. The Sears by-laws state that each director must be at least 25 years of age.

Vacancies on the Board of Directors and Removal of Directors

Delaware. Under Delaware corporate law, unless otherwise provided in the certificate of incorporation or the by-laws, vacancies on a board of directors and newly created directorships resulting from an increase in the authorized number of directors elected by all of the stockholders having the right to vote as a single class may be filled by a majority of the directors then in office, although less than a quorum, or by the sole remaining director; however, in the case of a classified board of directors, as provided by Delaware corporate law, such vacancies and newly created directorships may be filled by a majority of the directors elected by such class or by the sole remaining director so elected. In the case of a classified board of directors, directors elected to fill vacancies or newly created directorships will hold office until the next election of the class for which those directors have been chosen or until their successors have been duly elected and qualified. In addition, under Delaware corporate law, if, at the time of the filling of any such vacancy or newly created directorship, the directors in office constitute less than a majority of the whole board of directors (as constituted immediately before any such increase), the Delaware Court of Chancery may, upon application of any stockholder or stockholders holding at least 10% of the total number of outstanding shares entitled to vote for such directors, summarily order an election to fill any such vacancy or newly created directorship, or replace the directors chosen by the directors then in office.

Delaware corporate law also provides that a director or directors may be removed, with or without cause, by the holders of a majority in voting power of the shares then entitled to vote at an election of directors, except that:

members of a classified board of directors may be removed only for cause, unless the certificate of incorporation provides otherwise; and in the case of a corporation having cumulative voting, if less than the entire board of directors is to be removed, no director may be removed without cause if the votes cast against the director's removal would be sufficient to elect the director if then cumulatively voted at an election of the entire board of directors or of the class of directors of which the director is a part.

Kmart. Vacancies on the board of directors of Kmart, including vacancies and unfilled newly created directorships resulting from any increase in the authorized number of directors, may be filled by a majority vote of the directors then in office, even if those directors do not constitute a quorum. The directors elected to fulfill a vacancy will have a term of office expiring at the next annual meeting.

The by-laws of Kmart state that, subject to the rights of preferred stockholders, any director may be removed with or without cause from office at any time by stockholders in accordance with Delaware law.

Holdings. Same as Kmart.

New York. Under New York corporate law, newly created directorships resulting from an increase in the number of directors and vacancies occurring on the board of directors for any reason, except the removal of directors without cause, may be filled by vote of the board of directors. Unless the certificate of incorporation or by-laws provide otherwise, a vacancy in a directorship elected by holders of a particular class of shares shall be filled by a vote of the other directors elected by holders of the same class of shares. However, the certificate of incorporation or by-laws may provide that such newly created directorships or vacancies are to be filled by vote of the stockholders. Unless the certificate of incorporation or the specific provisions of a by-law adopted by the stockholders provide that the board of directors may fill vacancies occurring on the board of directors by reason of the removal of directors without cause, these vacancies may be filled only by vote of the stockholders. A director elected to fill a vacancy, unless elected by the stockholders, will hold office until the next meeting of stockholders at which the election of directors is in the regular order of business and until his or her successor has been elected and qualified.

New York corporate law also provides that any or all of the directors may be removed for cause by vote of the stockholders, and, if the certificate of incorporation or the specific provisions of a by-law adopted by the stockholders so provides, directors may be removed by action of the board of directors. If the certificate of incorporation or the by-laws so provide, any or all of the directors may be removed without cause by vote of the stockholders. The removal of directors, with or without cause, is subject to the following:

in the case of a corporation having cumulative voting, no director may be removed when the votes cast against such director's removal would be sufficient to elect the director if voted cumulatively; and if a director is elected by the holders of shares of any class or series, the director may be removed only by the applicable vote of the holders of the shares of that class or series voting as a class. An action to procure a judgment removing a director for cause may be brought by the attorney general or by the holders of 10% of the outstanding shares, whether or not entitled to vote.

Sears. The restated certificate of incorporation and by-laws of Sears provide that any vacancies on the board of directors of Sears may be filled by the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors then in office, even if those directors do not constitute a quorum. The directors elected to fill a vacancy will have a term of office expiring at the next annual meeting.

The restated certificate of incorporation of Sears provides that, subject to the rights of preferred stockholders, a director may be removed from office only for cause and only by the affirmative vote of holders of at least 75% of the shares entitled to vote.

Amendments to the Certificate of Incorporation

Delaware. Under Delaware corporate law, after a corporation has received payment for its capital stock, unless the certificate of incorporation requires a greater vote, a proposed amendment to the certificate of incorporation requires a declaration by the board of directors of the amendment's advisability and, except with respect to a certificate of designations or a short form merger to change the corporation's name, an affirmative vote of a majority of the voting power of the outstanding stock entitled to vote thereon and a majority of the voting power of the outstanding stock of each class entitled to vote thereon.

Kmart. The provisions of Delaware law regarding amendments to the certificate of incorporation govern amendments to the certificate of incorporation of Kmart.

Holdings. Same as Kmart.

New York. Under New York corporate law, subject to limited exceptions, amendments to a certificate of incorporation must be approved by vote of a majority of all outstanding shares entitled to vote on the proposed amendment, except that certificate of incorporation provisions requiring a greater or class vote may only be amended by such vote. In addition, an amendment that negatively affects in certain ways holders of shares of a class or series requires authorization by a majority of the votes of all outstanding shares of that class or series.

Sears. The restated certificate of incorporation of Sears requires the affirmative vote of holders of at least 75% of the shares entitled to vote to alter, amend, repeal or adopt any provision inconsistent with the provisions thereof regarding directors, or to fix, increase or decrease the number of directors of Sears by vote of Sears' stockholders. The provisions of New York corporate law regarding amendments to the certificate of incorporation govern the amendment of the other sections of the restated certificate of incorporation of Sears.

Amendments to By-laws

Delaware. Under Delaware corporate law, the power to adopt, alter and repeal by-laws is vested in the stockholders, except to the extent that a corporation's certificate of incorporation vests concurrent power in the board of directors.

Kmart. The by-laws of Kmart may be amended, altered or repealed and new by-laws may be adopted: (1) at any meeting of the board of directors by a majority vote of the members of the board then in office; (2) at any meeting of the stockholders by a majority of the votes cast by the holders of shares entitled to vote thereon, if such purpose is contained in the notice of meeting; or (3) by an action taken in writing by the holders of outstanding stock having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize such action at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote thereon were present and voted in accordance with Delaware corporate law.

Holdings. Same as Kmart.

New York. Under New York corporate law, except as otherwise provided in the certificate of incorporation, by-laws may be amended, repealed or adopted by a majority of the votes cast by the shares at the time entitled to vote in the election of any directors. When so provided in the certificate of incorporation or a by-law adopted by the stockholders, by-laws also may be amended, repealed or adopted by the board of directors by the vote specified therein, which vote may be greater than the vote otherwise prescribed by New York corporate law, but any by-law adopted by the board of directors may be amended or repealed by the stockholders entitled to vote thereon as provided by New York corporate law.

Sears. The restated certificate of incorporation of Sears provides that the Sears board of directors may adopt, amend or repeal the by-laws of Sears. The by-laws of Sears provide that they may be amended or repealed by the vote of a majority of the directors present at any meeting of the board of directors at which a quorum is present or by the vote of the holders of the shares of Sears at the time entitled to vote in the election of directors at any meeting of the stockholders at which a quorum is present.

Action by Written Consent of Stockholders

Delaware. Under Delaware corporate law, unless otherwise provided in the certificate of incorporation, any action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of stockholders may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice and without a vote, if a written consent or consents setting forth the action taken is signed by the holders of outstanding stock having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote upon such action were present and voted.

Kmart. The certificate of incorporation and by-laws of Kmart do not prohibit stockholder actions taken by written consent.

Holdings. Same as Kmart.

New York. New York corporate law provides that stockholder action may be taken without a meeting upon the written consent of the holders of all outstanding shares entitled to vote and also allows, if the certificate of incorporation so provides, stockholder action without a meeting upon the written consent of holders of outstanding shares having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize such action at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote thereon were present and voted.

Sears. The restated certificate of incorporation and by-laws of Sears do not permit stockholder action by written consent of holders of outstanding shares having not less than the minimum number of votes necessary to authorize such action at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote thereon were present and voted.

Notice of Stockholders' Meeting

Delaware. Delaware corporate law requires notice of stockholders meetings to be sent to all stockholders of record entitled to vote at the meeting not less than 10 nor more than 60 days before the date of the meeting, except with regard to a meeting where the stockholders are asked to vote upon a business combination or a sale of all or substantially all the corporation's assets, in which case notice shall be delivered not less than 20 nor more than 60 days before the date of the meeting.

Kmart. Kmart's by-laws provide that written notice of the time, place and purposes of a meeting of stockholders must be given not less than 10 nor more than 60 days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail, to each stockholder of record entitled to vote at the meeting.

Holdings. Same as Kmart.

New York. New York corporate law requires notice of stockholders meetings to be sent to all stockholders of record entitled to vote at the meeting not less than 10 nor more than 60 days before the date of the meeting, provided that such notice may be given by third class mail not fewer than 24 hours nor more than 60 days before the date of the meeting.

Sears. The by-laws of Sears provide that written notice of the time, place and purposes of a meeting of stockholders must be served by mail not less than ten nor more than 60 days before the date of the meeting upon each stockholder of record entitled to vote at such meeting.

Ability to Call Special Meetings of Stockholders

Delaware. Delaware corporate law provides that a special meeting of stockholders may be called by the board of directors or by any person or persons authorized by the certificate of incorporation or the by-laws.

Delaware corporate law also provides that if there is a failure to hold an annual meeting or to take action by written consent to elect directors in lieu of an annual meeting for a period of 30 days after the date designated for the annual meeting of stockholders, or, if no date has been designated, for a period of 13 months after the latest to occur of the organization of the corporation, its last annual meeting or the last action by written consent to elect directors in lieu of an annual meeting, a Delaware court may summarily order a meeting to be held upon the application of any stockholder or director.

Kmart. The by-laws of Kmart provide that special meetings of the stockholders, other than those regulated by Delaware law, may be called by the Chairman or Vice Chairman of the board, by the President or Chief Executive Officer, or by the board of directors, either by a director's resolution or by a written instrument signed by a majority of the directors.

Holdings. The restated by-laws of Holdings will provide that special meetings of the stockholders may only be called by the board of directors, either by a director's resolution or by a written instrument signed by a majority of the directors.

New York. New York corporate law provides that special meetings of stockholders may be called by the board of directors and by any persons authorized in the certificate of incorporation or the by-laws.

New York corporate law also provides that if, for a period of one month after the date fixed by or under the by-laws for the annual meeting of stockholders, or, if no date has been so fixed, for a period of 13 months after the last annual meeting, there is a failure to elect a sufficient number of directors to conduct the business of the corporation, the board of directors must call a special meeting for the election of directors. If the special meeting is not called by the board of directors within two weeks after the expiration of such period or if it is called but there is a failure to elect such directors for a period of two months after the expiration of such period, holders of 10% of the votes of the shares entitled to vote in an election of directors may, in writing, demand the call of a special meeting for the election of directors.

Sears. The by-laws of Sears provide that special meetings of the stockholders for any purpose or purposes will be called to be held at any time upon the request of the chairman of the board of directors, the president or a majority of the members of the board of directors or of the executive committee then in office.

Kmart. Under Kmart's by-laws, in order for a stockholder to nominate candidates for election to Kmart's board of directors at any annual or any special stockholders' meeting at which the board of directors has determined that directors will be elected, timely written notice must be given to the Secretary of Kmart before the annual meeting. Similarly, in order for a stockholder to propose business to be brought before any annual stockholders' meeting, timely written notice must be given to the Secretary of Kmart before the annual meeting.

Under Kmart's by-laws, to be timely, notice in writing of stockholder nominations or proposals to be made at annual stockholders meetings must be delivered to the Secretary of Kmart not later than 90 days in advance of the meeting. However, if the meeting is not held within eight days of the date set forth in the by-laws and if less than 100 days' notice or public disclosure of the date of the meeting is

For proposals to be made at special meetings to be timely, notice in writing must be delivered to the Secretary of Kmart not later than the tenth day following the date on which notice or public disclosure of the date of the meeting was first given to stockholders.

A stockholder's notice to Kmart for the proposal of business to be brought before annual or special meetings must set forth all of the following:

the name and address of the stockholder;

a brief description of the business to be brought before the meeting and the reasons for conducting such business at the meeting; and any material interest of the stockholder in such business.

the name and address of the stockholder;

the name, age and business address of each nominee proposed in the notice;

such other information concerning each nominee as must be disclosed in proxy solicitations; and written consent of each nominee to serve as a director if so elected.

Sears. Under the by-laws of Sears, in order for a stockholder to nominate candidates for election to Sears' board of directors at any annual or any special stockholders meeting at which the board of directors has determined that directors will be elected, timely written notice must be given to the Secretary of Sears.

Under the by-laws of Sears, to be timely, notice in writing of stockholder nominations or proposals to be made at annual stockholders meetings must be delivered to the Secretary of Sears not less than 45 days nor more than 75 days prior to the first anniversary of the date on which Sears first mailed its proxy materials for the preceding year's annual meeting; provided, however, that if the date of the annual meeting is advanced by more than 30 days or delayed by more than 60 days from the anniversary date of the preceding year's annual meeting, notice by the stockholder to be timely must be delivered not earlier than the 90th day prior to the annual meeting and not later than the later of the 60th day prior to the annual meeting or the tenth day following the date on which public announcement of the date of the annual meeting is first made.

For nominations to be made at special meetings to be timely, notice in writing must be delivered not earlier than the 90th day prior to the annual meeting and not later than the later of the 60th day prior to the annual meeting or the tenth day following the date on which public announcement of the date of the annual meeting is first made.

A stockholder's notice to Sears for the proposal of business to be brought before an annual meeting must set forth all of the following:

the reasons for conducting such business at the meeting;

Edgar Filing: Sears Holdings CORP - Form 424B3

any material interest of the stockholder in such business; and the beneficial owner, if any, on whose behalf the nomination or proposal is made.

A stockholder's notice to Sears for the nomination of candidates for election of directors must set forth all of the following:

all information relating to the person nominated required to be disclosed in solicitation of proxies for election of directors under Regulation 14A under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended; and the nominee's written consent to being named as a nominee and to serving as a director if elected.

Limitation of Personal Liability of Directors and Officers

Delaware. Delaware corporate law provides that a corporation may include in its certificate of incorporation a provision eliminating or limiting the personal liability of a director to the corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director. However, the provision may not eliminate or limit the liability of a director for:

breach of the duty of loyalty;

acts or omissions not in good faith or that involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law;

unlawful payments of dividends, certain stock repurchases or redemptions; or any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit.

Kmart. The certificate of incorporation of Kmart provides that a director will not be personally liable to the corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, except to the extent that the exemption from or limitation of liability is not permitted under Delaware law.

Holdings. Same as Kmart.

New York. New York corporate law permits corporations to eliminate or limit the personal liability of directors to the corporation or its stockholders for damages for any breach of duty in such capacity except liability of a director:

whose acts or omissions were in bad faith, involved intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law; who personally gained a financial profit or other advantage to which he or she was not legally entitled; or whose acts violated certain provisions of New York law.

Sears. The restated certificate of incorporation of Sears provides that a director will not be personally liable to the corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages or breach of fiduciary duty, unless a judgment or other final adjudication adverse to the director establishes that the director's acts or omissions were in bad faith, involved intentional misconduct or knowing violation of the law, that the director personally gained a financial profit or other advantage to which the director was not legally entitled, or involved unlawful payment of dividends, certain stock repurchases or redemptions or unlawful making of loans to directors. If New York corporate law is amended to further limit director liability, the Sears certificate of incorporation is to be interpreted to limit director liability to the furthest extent permitted by New York corporate law.

Indemnification of Directors and Officers

Delaware. Delaware corporate law provides that, subject to certain limitations in the case of derivative suits brought by a corporation's stockholders in its name, a corporation may indemnify any person who is made a party to any third-party action, suit or proceeding on account of being a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation (or was serving at the request of the corporation in such capacity for another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise) against expenses, including attorney's fees, judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him or her in connection with the action, suit or proceeding through, among other things, a majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors who were not parties to the suit or proceeding, if the person:

acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation or, in some circumstances, at least not opposed to its best interests; and in a criminal proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful.

Delaware corporate law also permits indemnification by a corporation under similar circumstances for expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by such persons in connection with the defense or settlement of a derivative action or suit, except that no indemnification may be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which the person is adjudged to be liable to the corporation unless the Delaware Court of Chancery or the court in which the action or suit was brought determines upon application that the person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for the expenses which the court deems to be proper.

To the extent a director, officer, employee or agent is successful in the defense of such an action, suit or proceeding, the corporation is required by Delaware corporate law to indemnify such person for reasonable expenses incurred thereby. Expenses (including attorneys' fees) incurred by such persons in defending any action, suit or proceeding may be paid in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of that person to repay the amount if it is ultimately determined that that person is not entitled to be so indemnified.

Kmart. Kmart's certificate of incorporation requires Kmart to indemnify and hold harmless any director or officer of Kmart to the fullest extent permitted by Delaware law, against all expenses, liabilities and losses, including attorney's fees, judgments, fines, the ERISA excise taxes or penalties and amounts to be paid in settlement, reasonably incurred by those persons in connection with any action, suit or proceeding in which they were, are, or have been threatened to be involved by virtue of their service as a director or officer of Kmart or their service at the request of Kmart as a director, officer, employee or agent of, or in any other capacity with respect to, another corporation or a partnership, joint venture, trust or other entity or enterprise, including service with respect to employee benefit plans. In general, Kmart will indemnify such a director or officer who initiates an action, suit or proceeding only if the action, suit or proceeding was authorized by the board of directors of Kmart.

In addition, under Kmart's certificate of incorporation, Kmart will pay, in advance of the disposition of any action, suit or proceeding, any reasonable expenses incurred by such a director or officer subject to such person agreeing to repay any such amounts if it is judicially determined that such person is not entitled to be indemnified for such expenses. The indemnification rights conferred by Kmart are not exclusive of any other right to which persons seeking indemnification may be entitled under any statute, Kmart's certificate of incorporation or by-laws, any agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or otherwise.

Holdings. Same as Kmart.

New York. Under New York corporate law, a corporation may indemnify its directors and officers made, or threatened to be made, a party to any action or proceeding, except for stockholder derivative suits, if the director or officer acted in good faith, for a purpose that he or she reasonably believed to be in or, in the case of service to another corporation or enterprise, not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and, in addition, in criminal proceedings had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful. In the case of stockholder derivative suits, the corporation may indemnify a director or officer if he or she acted in good faith for a purpose that he or she reasonably believed to be in or, in the case of service to another corporation or enterprise, not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, except that no indemnification may be made in respect of (1) a threatened action, or a pending action that is settled or otherwise disposed of, or (2) any claim, issue or matter as to which such individual has been adjudged to be liable to the corporation, unless and only to the extent that the court in which the action was brought, or, if no action was brought, any court of competent jurisdiction, determines, upon application, that, in view of all the circumstances of the case, the individual is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for the portion of the settlement amount and expenses as the court deems proper.

Any individual who has been successful on the merits or otherwise in the defense of a civil or criminal action or proceeding will be entitled to indemnification. Except as provided in the preceding sentence, unless ordered by a court pursuant to New York corporate law, any indemnification under New York corporate law as described in the immediately preceding paragraph may be made only if authorized in the specific case and after a finding that the director or officer met the requisite standard of conduct by the disinterested directors if a quorum is available, or, if the quorum so directs or is unavailable, (1) the board of directors upon the written opinion of independent legal counsel or (2) the stockholders.

Sears. The by-laws of Sears require Sears to indemnify to the fullest extent permitted by New York corporate law any person who is made, or threatened to be made, a party to any action, suit or proceeding whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, by reason of the fact that the person is or was director or officer of Sears or any director or officer serving at the request of Sears with another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise in any capacity who is made, or threatened to be made, a party to any action, suit or proceeding whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative against all judgments, fines, amounts paid in settlement and all expenses, including attorney's fees, actually incurred as a result of such action, suit or proceeding, or any appeal therein. If there has been a change of control of Sears within five years prior to any request for indemnification or reimbursement or advancement of expenses pursuant the indemnification provisions, then Sears shall seek legal advice only from independent counsel selected by the indemnitee and approved by Sears (approval not to be unreasonably withheld) who will determine whether and to what extent the indemnitee is entitled to indemnification. The indemnification rights conferred by Sears are not exclusive of any other right to which persons seeking indemnification may be entitled to under a resolution of the stockholders of Sears, a resolution of its directors, the certificate of incorporation of the company as amended and restated from time to time, any statute, any insurance policy, any agreement or otherwise.

Preemptive Rights of Stockholders

Delaware. Delaware corporate law provides that no stockholder has any preemptive rights to purchase additional securities of a corporation unless the corporation's certificate of incorporation expressly grants those rights.

Kmart. Kmart's certificate of incorporation states that stockholders do not have preemptive rights.

Holdings. Same as Kmart.

New York. Except as otherwise provided in New York corporate law or in the certificate of incorporation, the holders of equity shares in a New York corporation are granted certain preemptive rights.

Sears. The restated certificate of incorporation of Sears states that stockholders do not have preemptive rights.

Dividends

Delaware. Delaware corporate law provides that corporations may pay dividends out of surplus or, if there is no surplus, out of net profits for the fiscal year in which the dividend is declared and for the preceding fiscal year. Delaware corporate law also provides that dividends may not be paid out of net profits if, after the payment of the dividend, capital is less than the capital represented by the outstanding stock of all classes having a preference upon the distribution of assets.

Kmart. Kmart's certificate of incorporation and by-laws do not change these provisions.

Holdings. Same as Kmart.

New York. New York corporate law provides that dividends may be declared, distributed or paid out by the corporation on outstanding shares except as restricted by the certificate of incorporation, or unless the corporation is insolvent or the distribution would make the corporation insolvent. The corporation generally can only make the distributions out of surplus. The net assets of the corporation upon declaration or distribution must remain at least equal to the amount of the corporation's stated capital.

Sears. The restated certificate of incorporation and by-laws of Sears do not change these provisions.

Inspection of Stockholder Lists

Delaware. Delaware corporate law allows any stockholder to inspect the stock ledger and the other books and records of a corporation for a purpose reasonably related to that person's interest as a stockholder.

Kmart. Kmart's certificate of incorporation and by-laws do not change these provisions.

Holdings. Same as Kmart.

New York. Under New York corporate law, any person who has been a stockholder of record has the right, upon five days written demand, to examine the minutes of stockholder proceedings and record of stockholders in person and to make extracts, during usual business hours, for any purpose reasonably related to that person's interest as a stockholder.

A stockholder or other person may be denied inspection upon refusal to furnish the corporation, its transfer agent or registrar an affidavit that inspection is not desired for a purpose which is in the interest of a business or object other than the business of the corporation and that the stockholder or person has not offered for sale any list of stockholders of any corporation either from a corporation formed in New York or elsewhere, for five years, and has not aided or abetted any person in procuring any record of stockholders for such purpose.

Upon such refusal, the stockholder or person making the demand may apply to the supreme court in the judicial district where the office of the corporation is located for an order directing the corporation to show cause why an order directing the inspection should not be granted. The court shall then hear the parties, by affidavit or otherwise, and if the applicant appears qualified and entitled to inspection, the court shall grant an order compelling inspection and any further relief the court deems just and proper.

State Anti-Takeover Statutes

Delaware. Delaware corporate law contains a business combination statute that protects domestic corporations from hostile takeovers and from actions following such a takeover, by prohibiting some transactions once an acquiror has gained a significant holding in the corporation. Delaware corporate law generally prohibits "business combinations," including mergers, sales and leases of assets, issuances of securities and similar transactions by a corporation or a subsidiary with an interested stockholder who beneficially owns 15% or more of a corporation's voting stock, within three years after the person or entity becomes an interested stockholder, unless:

the board of directors of the target corporation has approved, before the acquisition date, either the business combination or the transaction that resulted in the person becoming an interested stockholder;

upon consummation of the transaction that resulted in the person becoming an interested stockholder, the person owns at least 85% of the corporation's voting stock (excluding shares owned by directors who are officers and shares owned by employee stock plans in which participants do not have the right to determine confidentially whether shares will be tendered in a tender or exchange offer); or after the person or entity becomes an interested stockholder, the business combination is approved by the board of directors and authorized by the vote of at least $66\frac{2}{3}\%$ of the outstanding voting stock not owned by the interested stockholder.

These restrictions on interested stockholders do not apply under some circumstances, including if the corporation's original certificate of incorporation contains a provision expressly electing not to be governed by the Delaware statute regulating business combinations, or if the corporation, by action of its stockholders, adopts an amendment to its certificate of incorporation or by-laws expressly electing not to be governed by these provisions of Delaware corporate law (and such amendment is duly approved by the stockholders entitled to vote thereon).

Kmart. Kmart has opted out of Section 203 of Delaware General Corporation Law, which contains these restrictions on interested stockholders, in its certificate of incorporation.

Holdings. Same as Kmart

New York. New York corporate law generally provides that a New York corporation may not engage in a business combination with an interested stockholder for a period of five years following the interested stockholder's becoming such. Such a business combination would be permitted where it is approved by the board of directors before the interested stockholder's becoming such, or within 30 days thereafter, if a good faith proposal regarding a business combination is made in writing.

Covered business combinations include certain mergers and consolidations, dispositions of assets or stock, plans for liquidation or dissolution, reclassifications of securities, recapitalizations and similar transactions. An interested stockholder is generally a stockholder owning at least 20% of a corporation's outstanding voting stock.

In addition, New York corporations may not engage at any time with any interested stockholder in a business combination other than:

a business combination approved by the board of directors before the stock acquisition, or where the acquisition of the stock had been approved by the board of directors before the stock acquisition;

a business combination approved by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding voting stock not beneficially owned by the interested stockholder at a meeting for that purpose no earlier than five years after the stock acquisition; or business combination in which the interested stockholder pays a formula price designed to ensure that all other stockholders receive at least the highest price per share that is paid by the interested stockholder and that meets certain other requirements.

Sears. Sears is governed by the New York corporate law described above.

Rights of Dissenting Stockholders

Delaware. Delaware corporate law provides stockholders of a corporation involved in a merger the right to demand and receive payment of the fair value of their stock in certain mergers. As a general matter, appraisal rights are not available with respect to shares:

listed on a national securities exchange;

designated as a national market system security on an interdealer quotation system operated by the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc.; or held of record by more than 2,000 stockholders; unless holders of shares are required to accept in the merger anything other than any combination of:

shares of stock of the surviving corporation in the merger or depository receipts in respect thereof; shares of stock (or depository receipts in respect thereof) of another corporation that, at the effective date of the merger, will be:

listed on a national securities exchange;

designated as a national market system security on an interdealer quotation system operated by the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc.; or held of record by more than 2,000 holders; and cash instead of fractional shares of stock or depository receipts received.

Transactions Involving Officers or Directors

Edgar Filing: Sears Holdings CORP - Form 424B3

Delaware. Delaware corporate law provides that a corporation may lend money to, or guarantee any obligation incurred by, its officers or directors if, in the judgment of the board of directors, the loan or guarantee may reasonably be expected to benefit the corporation. Any other contract or transaction between the corporation and one or more of its directors or officers is neither void nor voidable solely because the interested director or officer was present, participates or votes at the board or board committee meeting that authorizes the contract or transaction, if either:

the director's or officer's interest is made known to the disinterested directors or the stockholders of the corporation, who thereafter approve the transaction in good faith; or the contract or transaction is fair to the corporation as of the time it is approved or ratified by either the board of directors, a committee thereof, or the stockholders.

Kmart. Kmart's certificate of incorporation and by-laws do not change these provisions.

Holdings. Same as Kmart.

New York. Under New York corporate law, no contract or other transaction between the corporation and one or more of its directors, or between the corporation and another corporation in which one or more of the directors or officers have a substantial financial interest is void or voidable for this reason alone, or by presence of the director at any meeting approving such transaction, or by the director's vote being counted for approval of such transaction so long as the following conditions are met:

material facts as to the director's interest in the transaction must be disclosed in good faith or known by the board of directors and the transaction must be approved by sufficient board votes without counting the interested director's vote, or, if the number of votes are insufficient to approve the transaction, unanimous approval by disinterested directors is required; or the material facts of the director's interest must be disclosed in good faith or known to stockholders and the stockholders entitled to vote on the transaction approve the transaction.

Common or interested directors may be counted to determine a quorum at a meeting of the board of directors or of a committee which approves such a transaction. The certificate of incorporation may contain further restrictions on these transactions and may establish them void or voidable by the corporation.

If such an interested transaction or contract was not approved in the manner described above, the corporation may avoid the contract or transaction unless the parties thereto establish affirmatively that the contract or transaction was fair and reasonable to the corporation at the time it was approved by the board of directors, a committee, or the stockholders.

The corporation generally may not lend money to, or guarantee the obligation of, a director of the corporation unless the loan or guarantee is approved by the stockholders, where a majority of shares entitled to vote thereon constitute a quorum, but shares held of record or beneficially by directors benefited by the loan or guarantee may not be included to establish quorum and may not vote.

Sears. The restated certificate of incorporation and by-laws of Sears do not change these provisions.

Mergers, Acquisitions, Share Purchases and Certain Other Transactions

Delaware. Under Delaware corporate law, a merger, consolidation or sale of all or substantially all of a corporation's assets must be approved by the board of directors and by a majority of the outstanding stock of the corporation entitled to vote thereon. However, no vote of stockholders of a constituent corporation surviving a merger is required, unless the corporation provides otherwise in its certificate of incorporation, if:

the merger agreement does not amend the certificate of incorporation of the surviving corporation;

each share of stock of the surviving corporation outstanding before the merger is an identical outstanding or treasury share after the merger; and either no shares of common stock of the surviving corporation are to be issued or delivered pursuant to the merger or, if such common stock will be issued or delivered, it will not increase the number of shares of common stock outstanding immediately before the merger by more than 20%.

Additional supermajority voting requirements may be applicable in certain circumstances.

Holdings. Same as Kmart.

New York. Under New York corporate law, the consummation by a corporation of a merger, consolidation or disposition of substantially all of its assets requires the approval of two-thirds of all the shares of the corporation entitled to vote on the proposal, including, in certain situations, the affirmative vote by the holders of a majority of all outstanding shares of each class or series of shares.

Sears. The restated certificate of incorporation and by-laws of Sears do not change these provisions.

Bankruptcy-Related Charter Provisions

Kmart. Kmart's certificate of incorporation contained various provisions in connection with emerging from its reorganization under Chapter 11 of the federal Bankruptcy Code.

Kmart is not allowed to issue nonvoting equity securities on or prior to the second anniversary of Kmart's emergence from protection under Chapter 11, which would be May 6, 2005. This prohibition on the issuance of nonvoting equity securities was included in Kmart's certificate of incorporation in compliance with Section 1123(a)(6) of the Bankruptcy Code (11 U.S.C. § 1123(a)(6)). Furthermore, Kmart was not permitted to issue preferred stock prior to the date that was six months after the effective date of the First Amended Joint Plan of Reorganization of Kmart Corporation and its Affiliated Debtors and Debtors in Possession, dated as of February 25, 2003, as confirmed by the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of Illinois (referred to in this section as the Plan). The effective date of the Plan is May 6, 2003.

Members of Kmart's board of directors as of the effective date of the Plan are to be elected for a term initially ending with the annual meeting of stockholders to be held in 2005 and thereafter for a term of one year. Until the annual meeting of the stockholders to be held in 2005, any vacancy in the board (1) with respect to a director who is a member of senior management of Kmart pursuant to the Plan, shall be filled by a person designated by a majority of the directors then in office, even if less than a quorum, (2) with respect to a director originally selected to serve on the board by ESL Investments, Inc. and Third Avenue Trust (referred to in this section as the Plan Investors) pursuant to the Plan, shall be filled by a person designated by the remaining directors selected by the Plan Investors prior to the effective date of the Plan, even if less than a quorum, (3) with respect to a director originally selected to serve on the board by the Unsecured Creditors' Committee pursuant to the Plan, shall be filled by a person designated by the remaining directors selected by the Unsecured Creditors' Committee prior to the effective date of the Plan, even if less than a quorum, and (4) with respect to a director originally selected to serve on the board by the Financial Institutions' Committee pursuant the Plan, shall be filled by a person designated by the remaining directors selected by the Financial Institutions' Committee prior to the effective date of the Plan, even if less than a quorum; provided that any person selected pursuant to the provisions described in clauses (2) through (4) must be reasonably satisfactory to Kmart.

Holdings. None of these provisions will be in Holdings' restated certificate of incorporation, subject to stockholder approval as discussed under "Exclusion of Bankruptcy-Related Charter Provisions" beginning on page 142.

Sears. Sears has no analogous provisions in its certificate of incorporation.

Office of the Chairman

Delaware. Delaware corporate law does not require or prohibit the creation of an Office of the Chairman for a Delaware corporation.

Kmart. Neither Kmart's certificate of incorporation or by-laws provide for an Office of the Chairman.

Holdings. Holdings' by-laws provide for an Office of the Chairman, which will initially be composed of the Chairman of the board of directors, the Vice Chairman and Chief Executive Officer and the President and will thereafter be composed of the Chairman of the board of directors and such other directors or officers selected by the board of directors. The Office of the Chairman will provide advice and counsel to the Chairman of the board of directors on matters affecting Holdings and will have such other purposes and responsibilities as determined by the board of directors.

New York. New York corporate law does not require or prohibit the creation of an Office of the Chairman for a New York corporation.

Sears. Neither Sears' restated certificate of incorporation or by-laws provide for an Office of the Chairman.

KMART PROPOSAL 2: EXCLUSION OF BANKRUPTCY-RELATED CHARTER PROVISIONS

In connection with the mergers, Kmart and Sears agreed that the restated certificate of incorporation of Holdings upon completion of the mergers will be in substantially the form set forth in Annex F to this joint proxy statement-prospectus. Kmart's current certificate of incorporation contains various provisions in connection with its emergence from its reorganization under Chapter 11 of the federal Bankruptcy Code.

The following are proposals submitted to Kmart stockholders to vote upon the exclusion of certain bankruptcy-related provisions that currently exist in the certificate of incorporation of Kmart from the restated certificate of incorporation of Holdings. For more information about the rights of Holdings stockholders following completion of the mergers, see "Comparison of Stockholder Rights" beginning on page 125. You should also carefully read the full text of the form of the restated certificate of incorporation of Holdings, which is attached as Annex F to this joint proxy statement-prospectus.

Completion of the mergers is conditioned on approval of each of the following proposals relating to the exclusion of certain bankruptcy-related provisions that currently exist in the certificate of incorporation of Kmart from the restated certificate of incorporation of Holdings. As a result, a vote against either of these proposals effectively will be a vote against adoption of the merger agreement. However, Kmart and Sears may at any time determine by mutual agreement to waive this condition. If this condition is waived, Kmart will resolicit the vote of Kmart stockholders on the adoption of the merger agreement and the proposals to exclude certain bankruptcy-related charter provisions.

Proposal No. 2A: Approval to have no prohibition on the issuance of nonvoting equity securities.

Kmart's current certificate of incorporation contains a provision that prohibits Kmart from issuing nonvoting equity securities on or prior to the second anniversary of Kmart's emergence from protection under Chapter 11, which would be May 6, 2005. This prohibition on the issuance of nonvoting equity securities was included in Kmart's certificate of incorporation in compliance with Section 1123(a)(6) of Chapter 11 of the federal Bankruptcy Code.

The proposed restated certificate of incorporation of Holdings does not contain a similar provision.

Proposal No. 2B: Approval to exclude the rights of certain named stockholders to designate directors to the board of directors.

Kmart's current certificate of incorporation contains a provision providing that members of Kmart's board of directors as of the effective date of the First Amended Joint Plan of Reorganization of Kmart Corporation and its Affiliated Debtors and Debtors in Possession, dated as of February 25, 2003, as confirmed by the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of Illinois (referred to in this section as the Plan) are to be elected for a term initially ending with the annual meeting of stockholders to be held in 2005 and thereafter for a term of one year. Kmart's current certificate of incorporation also contains a provision providing that until the annual meeting of the Kmart stockholders to be held in 2005, any vacancy in the board (1) with respect to a director who is a member of senior management of Kmart pursuant to the Plan, shall be filled by a person designated by a majority of the directors then in office, even if less than a quorum, (2) with respect to a director originally selected to serve on the board by ESL Investments, Inc. and Third Avenue Trust (referred to in this section as the Plan Investors) pursuant to the Plan, shall be filled by a person designated by the remaining directors selected by the Plan Investors prior to the effective date of the Plan, even if less than a quorum, (3) with respect to a director originally selected to serve on the board by the Unsecured Creditors' Committee pursuant to the Plan, shall be filled by a person designated by the remaining directors selected by the Unsecured Creditors' Committee prior to the effective date of the Plan, even if less than a quorum, and (4) with respect to a director originally selected to serve on the Kmart board by the Financial Institutions' Committee pursuant to the Plan, shall be filled by a person designated by the remaining directors selected by the Financial Institutions' Committee prior to the effective date of the Plan, even if less than a quorum; provided that any person selected pursuant to the provisions described in clauses (2) through (4) must be reasonably satisfactory to Kmart.

The proposed restated certificate of incorporation of Holdings does not contain similar provisions.

Votes Required

The affirmative vote of a majority of the shares of Kmart common stock represented at the special meeting and entitled to vote is required to approve the proposals to exclude the above-described bankruptcy-related provisions that currently exist in the certificate of incorporation of Kmart from the restated certificate of incorporation of Holdings.

As of the Kmart record date, the ESL Companies beneficially owned approximately 53% of the outstanding shares of Kmart common stock, which then consisted of approximately 42.0 million shares of Kmart common stock, options to acquire approximately 6.5 million shares of Kmart common stock and notes convertible into approximately 6.3 million shares of Kmart common stock (although since the Kmart record date, all of these convertible notes have been converted into such number of shares of Kmart common stock). This beneficial ownership represents the power to vote approximately 47% of the outstanding shares of Kmart common stock (without giving effect to the exercise of such options and conversion of such convertible notes). The ESL Companies have acknowledged that, as a part of their obligation to vote in favor of the adoption of the merger agreement, they are obligated by the support agreement to vote in favor of the proposals to exclude these bankruptcy-related provisions that currently exist in the certificate of incorporation of Kmart from the restated certificate of incorporation of Holdings as described above. Accordingly, approval of the proposals to exclude these bankruptcy-related charter provisions is practically assured. For additional information about the identity of the ESL Companies and their relationship to Edward S. Lampert, the Chairman of Kmart, please see "The Mergers Interests of Directors and Executive Officers in the Mergers Interests of Kmart Directors and Executive Officers" beginning on page 71 and "The Mergers The Support Agreement" beginning on page 108.

The Kmart board of directors recommends that Kmart stockholders vote "FOR" the approval of each proposal to exclude the above-described bankruptcy-related provisions that currently exist in the certificate of incorporation of Kmart from the restated certificate of incorporation of Holdings.

KMART PROPOSAL 3: EQUITY GRANTS TO AYLWIN B. LEWIS

The Kmart board of directors has approved the grants of (1) 50,781 restricted shares of Kmart common stock (which restricted shares had a value of $4.5 million on October 18, 2004, the date of approval of the grant), (2) options to acquire 150,000 shares of Kmart common stock with a fair value of approximately $5.9 million as of October 18, 2004 and (3) a number of restricted shares of Kmart common stock equal to $1 million (based on a per share price as determined below) to Aylwin B. Lewis, Chief Executive Officer, President and a director of Kmart. The $1 million of restricted shares of Kmart common stock will be based on the closing price of Kmart's common stock on the Nasdaq National Market on the last trading day immediately prior to the closing date of the mergers.

Purpose of the Grants

The Kmart board of directors is seeking stockholder approval for the grants in accordance with Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. Section 162(m) of the Code, in general, will eliminate a federal income tax deduction for annual compensation in excess of $1,000,000 paid by a corporation to certain named executive officers, unless that compensation is paid on account of the attainment of one or more "performance-based" goals. One requirement for compensation to be performance-based is for the material terms under which the compensation is to be paid to be disclosed to and approved by the corporation's stockholders.

Summary of the Grants

These grants of restricted shares and options to Mr. Lewis are consistent with both Kmart's emphasis on performance-based compensation and its current compensation philosophy. Moreover, these equity grants reflect Kmart's belief in the need to (1) recruit, motivate and retain a Chief Executive Officer through compensation and benefits that are competitive with those of Kmart's peer institutions, and (2) enhance stockholder value by aligning the compensation of the Chief Executive Officer with corporate performance and, to the extent possible, by preserving the tax-deductibility of the Chief Executive Officer's compensation.

Grants in Connection with Mr. Lewis' Employment Agreement

Pursuant to Mr. Lewis' employment agreement with Kmart, dated as of October 18, 2004, and subject to approval by the Kmart stockholders, Kmart intends to grant to Mr. Lewis restricted shares of Kmart common stock having a value, on October 18, 2004, of $4,500,000, and options to acquire 150,000 shares of Kmart common stock with an exercise price equal to the fair market value of the underlying stock on October 18, 2004. The restricted shares and options will vest in four installments on the last day of fiscal years 2005 through 2008, subject to Mr. Lewis' continued employment and, in the case of the restricted shares, subject to Kmart's achievement of certain performance criteria. The performance criteria will be considered to have been met if, for any of fiscal years 2005 through 2008, either Kmart's earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization, as reported in its audited financial statements for such fiscal year, equals or exceeds $100 million, or Kmart realizes gross proceeds from sales of real estate equal to or greater than $50 million. These performance criteria will continue to apply to Kmart and not to Holdings after the mergers.

Under these awards, if Mr. Lewis' employment is terminated by Kmart without cause or by Mr. Lewis by reason of a constructive termination, the restricted shares will vest in full and any portion of the options that would have vested within 12 months of the date of termination (but not less than one additional installment) will vest and remain exercisable for two years from such date. The restricted shares will also vest in full upon a termination of Mr. Lewis' employment as a result of disability or death.

Upon consummation of the mergers, these restricted shares and options will be exchanged for restricted shares and options of Holdings and subject to the same vesting and restrictions. For more information on these exchanges, please see "The Mergers Treatment of Stock Options and Restricted Shares" beginning on page 92.

Grant in Connection with the Mergers

Subject to approval by the Kmart stockholders, Kmart intends to grant to Mr. Lewis, immediately prior to the effective time of the mergers, a number of restricted shares of Kmart common stock having a value of $1 million on the date of grant. As noted above, the $1 million of restricted shares of Kmart common stock will be based on the closing price of Kmart's common stock on the Nasdaq National Market on the last trading day immediately prior to the closing date of the mergers.

The restricted shares will vest in four installments on the last day of fiscal years 2005 through 2008, subject to Mr. Lewis' continued employment and subject to Kmart's achievement of certain performance criteria. The performance criteria will be considered to have been met if, for any of fiscal years 2005 through 2008, either Kmart's earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization, as reported in its audited financial statements for such fiscal year, equals or exceeds $100 million, or Kmart realizes gross proceeds from sales of real estate equal to or greater than $50 million. These performance criteria will continue to apply to Kmart and not to Holdings after the mergers. Under the award, if Mr. Lewis' employment is terminated by Kmart without cause, by Mr. Lewis by reason of a constructive termination, or as a result of Mr. Lewis' disability or death, the restricted shares will vest in full.

Upon consummation of the mergers, these restricted shares will be exchanged for restricted shares of Holdings and subject to the same vesting and restrictions. For more information on this exchange, please see "The Mergers Treatment of Stock Options and Restricted Shares" beginning on page 92.

Votes Required

The affirmative vote of a majority of the total number of shares of Kmart common stock represented at the Kmart special meeting and entitled to vote is needed to approve the grants of restricted shares and options to Mr. Lewis.

As of the Kmart record date, the ESL Companies beneficially owned approximately 53% of the outstanding shares of Kmart common stock, which then consisted of approximately 42.0 million shares of Kmart common stock, options to acquire approximately 6.5 million shares of Kmart common stock and notes convertible into approximately 6.3 million shares of Kmart common stock (although since the Kmart record date, all of these convertible notes have been converted into such number of shares of Kmart common stock). This beneficial ownership represents the power to vote approximately 47% of the outstanding shares of Kmart common stock (without giving effect to the exercise of such options and conversion of such convertible notes). The ESL Companies are not obligated by any agreement (including the support agreement) to vote in favor of approving these equity grants to Mr. Lewis, although it is expected that they will do so. Accordingly, the approval of these equity grants to Mr. Lewis is practically assured. For additional information about the identity of the ESL Companies and their relationship to Edward S. Lampert, the Chairman of Kmart, please see "The Mergers Interests of Directors and Executive Officers in the Mergers Interests of Kmart Directors and Executive Officers" beginning on page 71 and "The Mergers The Support Agreement" beginning on page 108.

The Kmart board of directors recommends that Kmart stockholders vote "FOR" the approval of the grants of restricted shares and options to Aylwin B. Lewis.

LEGAL MATTERS

Simpson Thacher & Bartlett LLP, New York, New York, counsel for Kmart, has provided an opinion for Holdings regarding the validity of the shares of Holdings offered by this joint proxy statement-prospectus.

EXPERTS

Kmart. The audited financial statements of Kmart incorporated in this joint proxy statement-prospectus by reference to Kmart's Annual Report on Form 10-K, as amended, for the 39 weeks ended January 28, 2004 have been incorporated in reliance on the report of BDO Seidman, LLP, an independent registered public accounting firm, given on the authority of that firm as experts in accounting and auditing.

The audited financial statements of Kmart Corporation (the predecessor to Kmart prior to its emergence from bankruptcy) incorporated in this joint proxy statement-prospectus by reference to Kmart's Annual Report on Form 10-K, as amended, for the 39 weeks ended January 28, 2004 have been incorporated in reliance on the report of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP, independent accountants, given on the authority of that firm as experts in accounting and auditing.

Sears. The financial statements and the related financial statement schedule incorporated in this joint proxy statement-prospectus by reference from Sears' Annual Report on Form 10-K, as amended, for the year ended January 3, 2004 have been audited by Deloitte & Touche LLP, an independent registered public accounting firm, as stated in their report (which report expresses an unqualified opinion and includes explanatory paragraphs referring to a change in method of accounting for goodwill in 2002 and changes in methods of accounting for credit card securitizations, derivative instruments and hedging activities in 2001, all as required by new accounting standards, and the restatement discussed in Note 18), which is incorporated herein by reference, and have been so incorporated in reliance upon the report of such firm given upon their authority as experts in accounting and auditing.

With respect to the unaudited interim financial information for the periods ended April 3, 2004 and March 29, 2003, July 3, 2004 and June 28, 2003 and October 2, 2004 and September 27, 2003 which is incorporated herein by reference, Deloitte & Touche LLP, an independent registered public accounting firm, have applied limited procedures in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) for a review of such information. However, as stated in their reports included in Sears' Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q, as amended, for the quarters ended April 3, 2004, July 3, 2004 and October 2, 2004 and incorporated by reference herein, they did not audit and they do not express an opinion on that interim financial information. Accordingly, the degree of reliance on their reports on such information should be restricted in light of the limited nature of the review procedures applied. Deloitte & Touche LLP is not subject to the liability provisions of Section 11 of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, for their reports on the unaudited interim financial information because those reports are not "reports" or a "part" of the registration statement prepared or certified by an accountant within the meaning of Sections 7 and 11 of the Act.

AGREEMENT AND PLAN OF MERGER dated as of November 16, 2004 (this "Agreement") is by and between Kmart Holding Corporation, a Delaware corporation ("Kmart"), and Sears, Roebuck and Co., a New York corporation ("Sears").¹

WHEREAS, the Boards of Directors of Kmart and Sears have approved, and deem it advisable and in the best interests of their respective stockholders to consummate, their respective Mergers (as defined in Section 1.6(b)) in which the issued and outstanding shares of capital stock of each of Kmart and Sears will be converted into the right to receive shares of capital stock of Holdco (as defined in Section 1.1);

WHEREAS, the Boards of Directors of Kmart and Sears have each determined that their respective Mergers and the other transactions contemplated hereby are consistent with, and in furtherance of, their respective business strategies and goals;

WHEREAS, Kmart and Sears desire to make certain representations, warranties and agreements in connection with the Mergers and also to prescribe various conditions to the Mergers;

WHEREAS, for Federal income tax purposes, (i) it is intended that the exchange of Sears Common Stock and Kmart Common Stock for Holdco Common Stock pursuant to the Mergers, taken together, shall qualify as a transaction described in Section 351 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"); (ii) it is intended that the Kmart Merger shall qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code; and (iii) the parties intend, by executing this Agreement, to adopt a plan of reorganization within the meaning of Treasury Regulation Section 1.368-2(g); and

WHEREAS, as a condition and inducement to each of Kmart's and Sears's willingness to enter into this Agreement, Kmart, Sears and certain affiliates of ESL Investments, Inc. (collectively, "ESL") are entering into a Support Agreement, dated as of the date hereof in the form of Exhibit A hereto (the "Support Agreement"), pursuant to which, among other things, ESL has agreed to vote all shares of Kmart Common Stock and Sears Common Stock beneficially owned by ESL in favor of adoption of this Agreement, to make a Stock Election (as defined herein) with respect to all shares of Sears Common Stock beneficially owned by ESL and not to sell or otherwise transfer any shares of Kmart Common Stock or Sears Common Stock prior to the termination of such Support Agreement in accordance with its terms;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing and the respective representations, warranties, covenants and agreements set forth herein, the parties agree as follows:

ARTICLE I THE MERGER

1.1.

Organization of Holdco. As promptly as practicable following the execution of this Agreement, Kmart shall organize a new corporation ("Holdco") under the laws of the State of Delaware for the sole purpose of effectuating the Mergers and the other transactions contemplated hereby. The Certificate of Incorporation and By-laws of Holdco shall initially be as agreed upon by Kmart and Sears. The authorized capital stock of Holdco shall initially consist of 100 shares of common stock, par value $0.01 per share (the "Holdco Common Stock"), of which only one share shall be issued to Kmart. Kmart shall take, and shall cause Holdco to take, all requisite action to cause the Certificate of Incorporation of Holdco to be in the form of Exhibit 1.1(a) hereto and the By-laws of Holdco to be in the form of Exhibit 1.1(b) hereto immediately following the Effective Time.

Directors and Officers of Holdco. Prior to the Effective Time, the directors and officers of Holdco shall consist of the directors and officers as set forth on Exhibit 1.2. Kmart shall take all requisite

1.4.

Actions of Directors and Officers. As promptly as practicable following the execution of this Agreement, Kmart shall take all requisite action to designate the directors and officers of Holdco (subject to Sears's consent) and each of the Merger Subs and to take such steps as may be necessary or appropriate to complete the organization of Holdco as contemplated by Sections 1.1 and 1.2 and the Merger Subs as contemplated by Section 1.3. Kmart (and, if applicable, Sears) shall cause the directors of Holdco to ratify and approve this Agreement and to cause the directors of the Merger Subs to ratify and approve this Agreement.

As promptly as practicable after the date hereof the parties shall cause this Agreement to be amended to add Holdco and the Merger Subs as parties, and each Merger Sub shall become a constituent corporation in its respective Merger.

The Mergers. At the Effective Time (as defined in Section 1.7(c)):

EFFECTS OF THE MERGERS

Conversion of Sears Securities. At the Effective Time, by virtue of the Sears Merger and without any action on the part of Holdco, Sears Merger Sub, Sears or the holders of any of the following securities: Conversion of Sears Common Stock. Each common share, par value $0.75 per share, of Sears ("Sears Common Stock") issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (other than any Excluded Shares (as defined in Section 2.1(b)) and any Dissenting Shares (as defined in Section 2.4(a)) shall, subject to Sections 2.3 and 2.6(d), be converted into the right to receive the following consideration (the "Sears Consideration"):

(i)

Each share of Sears Common Stock with respect to which an election to receive cash (a "Cash Election") has been effectively made and not revoked or lost pursuant to Section 2.2 (each, a "Cash Electing Sears Share") shall be converted into the right to receive $50.00 in cash without interest (the "Cash Consideration").

Each share of Sears Common Stock with respect to which an election to receive stock consideration (a "Stock Election") is properly made and not revoked or lost pursuant to Section 2.2 (each, a "Stock Electing Sears Share" and, together with each Cash Electing Sears Shares, an "Electing Sears Share") shall be converted into the right to receive 0.5 shares (the "Exchange Ratio"), subject to adjustment in accordance with Section 2.1(d), of validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable shares of Holdco Common Stock (together with any cash in lieu of fractional shares of Holdco Common Stock to be paid pursuant to Section 2.6(d), the "Stock Consideration").

Each share of Sears Common Stock other than shares of Sears Common Stock with respect to which a Cash Election or a Stock Election is properly made and not revoked or lost pursuant to Section 2.2 (each, a "Non-Electing Sears Share") shall be converted into the right to receive the Cash Consideration or the Stock Consideration or a combination of both, subject to Section 2.3.

Sears and Kmart-Owned Shares. Each share of Sears Common Stock owned by Sears or Sears Merger Sub ("Cancelled Shares"), in each case immediately prior to the Effective Time, shall be canceled without any conversion thereof, and no consideration shall be paid with respect thereto. Each share of Sears Common Stock owned by Kmart or any direct or indirect wholly-owned Subsidiary of Sears or Kmart (the "Converted Shares" and, together with the Cancelled Shares, the "Excluded Shares"), in each case immediately prior to the Effective Time, shall be converted into the right to receive the Stock Consideration. The Stock Consideration paid pursuant to this Section 2.1(b) shall not be subject to proration under Section 2.3.

Conversion of Sears Merger Sub Stock. Each share of common stock of Sears Merger Sub issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be converted into one fully paid and, subject to the NYBCL, non-assessable common share of Sears, as the surviving corporation in the Sears Merger.

Adjustments. If, after the date hereof and prior to the Effective Time, either (i) Kmart pays a dividend in, splits, combines into a smaller number of shares, or issues by reclassification any shares of Kmart Common Stock or (ii) Sears pays a dividend in, splits, combines into a smaller number of shares, or issues by reclassification any shares of Sears Common Stock, then the Merger Consideration and Exchange Ratio and any other similarly dependent items, as the case may be, shall be appropriately adjusted to provide to the holders of Sears Common Stock the same economic effect as contemplated by this Agreement prior to such action, and as so adjusted shall, from and after the date of such event, be the Merger

Edgar Filing: Sears Holdings CORP - Form 424B3

Consideration, Exchange Ratio or other dependent item, as applicable, subject to further adjustment in accordance with this sentence.

Sears Election Procedures.

- (a) Not less than three business days prior to the mailing of the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus, Kmart and Sears shall jointly designate a bank or trust company to act as exchange agent hereunder (the "Exchange Agent") for the purpose of exchanging certificates that immediately prior to the Effective Time represented shares of Sears Common Stock (the "Sears Certificates") and shares of Sears Common Stock represented by book-entry ("Sears Book-Entry Shares").
- (b) Each person who, on or prior to the Election Date (as defined below), is a record holder of shares of Sears Common Stock other than Dissenting Shares shall be entitled to specify the number of such holder's shares of Sears Common Stock (and, if such shares to which the election relates are represented by Sears Certificates, such particular shares) with respect to which such holder makes a Cash Election or Stock Election.
- (c) Holdco shall prepare and file as an exhibit to the Form S-4 a form of election (the "Form of Election") in form and substance reasonably acceptable to Sears. The Form of Election shall specify that delivery shall be effected, and risk of loss and title to any Sears Certificates shall pass only upon proper delivery of the Form of Election and any Sears Certificates. Sears shall mail the Form of Election with the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus (as defined in Section 5.1(a)) to all persons who are record holders of shares of Sears Common Stock as of the record date for the Sears Stockholders Meeting (as defined in Section 5.1(b)). The Form of Election shall be used by each record holder of shares of Sears Common Stock (or, in the case of nominee record holders, the beneficial owner through proper instructions and documentation) who wishes to make a Cash Election or a Stock Election or a combination of both for any and all shares of Sears Common Stock held by such holder. Sears shall use its reasonable best efforts to make the Form of Election available to all persons who become holders of shares of Sears Common Stock during the period between the record date for the Sears Stockholders Meeting and the Election Date.
- (d) Any holder's election shall have been properly made only if the Exchange Agent shall have received at its designated office, by 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on (1) the date of the Sears Stockholders Meeting or (2) if the Closing Date is more than four business days following the Sears Stockholders Meeting, two business days preceding the Closing Date (the "Election Date"), a Form of Election properly completed and signed and accompanied by (i) Certificates representing the shares of Sears Common Stock to which such Form of Election relates, duly endorsed in blank or otherwise in form acceptable for transfer on the books of Sears (or by an appropriate guarantee of delivery of such Sears Certificates as set forth in such Form of Election from a firm that is an "eligible guarantor institution" (as defined in Rule 17Ad-15 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"))); provided that such Sears Certificates are in fact delivered to the Exchange Agent by the time set forth in such guarantee of delivery) or (ii) in the case of Sears Book-Entry Shares, any additional documents required by the procedures set forth in the Form of Election. After a Cash Election or a Stock Election is validly made with respect to any shares of Sears Common Stock, no further registration of transfers of such shares shall be made on the stock transfer books of Sears, unless and until such Cash Election or Stock Election is properly revoked.
- (e) Kmart and Sears shall publicly announce the anticipated Election Date at least five business days prior to the anticipated Closing Date. If the Closing Date is delayed to a subsequent date, the Election Date shall be similarly delayed to a subsequent date, and Kmart and Sears

Any Cash Election or Stock Election may be revoked with respect to all or a portion of the shares of Sears Common Stock subject thereto by the holder who submitted the applicable Form of Election by written notice received by the Exchange Agent prior to 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on the Election Date. In addition, all Cash Elections and Stock Elections shall automatically be revoked if this Agreement is terminated in accordance with Article VII. If a Cash Election or Stock Election is revoked with respect to shares of Sears Common Stock represented by Sears Certificates, Sears Certificates representing such shares shall be promptly returned to the holder that submitted the same to the Exchange Agent.

(g)

The determination of the Exchange Agent (or the joint determination of Kmart and Sears, in the event that the Exchange Agent declines to make any such determination) shall be conclusive and binding as to whether or not Cash Elections and Stock Elections shall have been properly made or revoked pursuant to this Section 2.2 and as to when Cash Elections, Stock Elections and revocations were received by the Exchange Agent. The Exchange Agent (or Kmart and Sears jointly, in the event that the Exchange Agent declines to make the following computation) shall also make all computations as to the proration contemplated by Section 2.3, and absent manifest error this computation shall be conclusive and binding. The Exchange Agent may, with the written agreement of Kmart, after Kmart's reasonable consultation with Sears, make any rules as are consistent with this Section 2.2 for the implementation of the Cash Elections and Stock Elections provided for in this Agreement as shall be necessary or desirable to effect these Cash Elections and Stock Elections.

Sears Proration. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary (but subject to Sections 2.1(b) and 2.4):

The Cash Percentage (as defined below) of the shares of Sears Common Stock (other than the Excluded Shares) issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (such number, the "Cash Cap Number") shall be converted into the right to receive the Cash Consideration, and all other shares of Sears Common Stock (other than the Excluded Shares) issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be converted into the right to receive the Stock Consideration. The "Cash Percentage" shall be equal to 45%, subject to adjustment as provided in Section 2.1(d).

If the aggregate number of Cash Electing shares of Sears Common Stock (such number, the "Cash Election Number") exceeds the Cash Cap Number, then (i) all Stock Electing Sears Shares and Non-Electing Sears Shares shall be converted into the right to receive the Stock Consideration and (ii) the number of Cash Electing Sears Shares of each stockholder of Sears that shall be converted into the right to receive the Cash Consideration shall be equal to the product obtained by multiplying (A) the number of Cash Electing Sears Shares of such stockholder by (B) a fraction, the numerator of which is the Cash Cap Number and the denominator of which is the Cash Election Number, with the remaining number of such holder's Cash Electing Sears Shares being converted into the right to receive the Stock Consideration.

(y) the Stock Electing Sears Shares and Non-Electing Sears Shares shall be treated in the following manner:

- (i) if the Shortfall Number is less than or equal to the aggregate number of Non-Electing Sears Shares, then (x) all Stock Electing Sears Shares shall be converted into the right to receive the Stock Consideration and (y) the Non-Electing Sears Shares of each stockholder of Sears shall be converted into the right to receive the Cash Consideration in respect of that number of Non-Electing Sears Shares equal to the product obtained by multiplying (1) the number of Non-Electing Sears Shares of such stockholder by (2) a fraction, the numerator of which is the Shortfall Number and the denominator of which is the aggregate number of Non-Electing Sears Shares, with the remaining number of such holder's Non-Electing Sears Shares being converted into the right to receive the Stock Consideration; or
 - (ii) if the Shortfall Number exceeds the aggregate number of Non-Electing Sears Shares, then (x) all Non-Electing Sears Shares shall be converted into the right to receive the Cash Consideration and (y) the number of Stock Electing Sears Shares of each stockholder of Sears that shall be converted into the right to receive the Cash Consideration shall be equal to the product obtained by multiplying (1) the number of Stock Electing Sears Shares of such stockholder by (2) a fraction, the numerator of which is the amount by which the Shortfall Number exceeds the aggregate number of Non-Electing Sears Shares, and the denominator of which is the aggregate number of Stock Electing Sears Shares, with the remaining number of such holder's Stock Electing Sears Shares being converted into the right to receive the Stock Consideration.
- (d) For purposes of the calculations in this Section 2.3, shares of Sears Common Stock that constitute Dissenting Shares immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be deemed to be Non-Electing Shares.

If any such stockholder of Sears shall fail to perfect or effectively shall withdraw or lose such stockholder's right to be paid fair value under Sections 623 and 910 of the NYBCL, such stockholder's shares of Sears Common Stock shall thereupon be deemed to have been converted, at the Effective Time, into the right to receive the Merger Consideration payable or issuable in respect of Non-Electing Sears Shares as set forth in Section 2.3 of this Agreement, without any interest thereon.
- (b) Sears shall give Kmart (or, after the Closing, Holdco) (i) notice of any notice received by Sears of intent to demand the fair value of any shares of Sears Common Stock, withdrawals of such notices and any other notices served pursuant to Sections 623 and 910 of the NYBCL and received by Sears and (ii) the opportunity to direct, jointly with Sears, all negotiations and proceedings with respect to the exercise of such dissenters' rights under Sections 623 and 910 of the NYBCL. Such letter of transmittal shall be in such form and have such other provisions as Holdco may specify.

(x) Each former stockholder of Sears who properly made and did not revoke a Cash Election or Stock Election shall be entitled to receive in exchange for such stockholder's Electing Sears Shares the following as specified in clauses (A) and (B), and (y) upon surrender by a Non-Electing Sears Holder to the Exchange Agent of a Certificate or Book-Entry Shares, as applicable, together with a letter of transmittal, duly completed and validly executed in accordance with the instructions thereto, and such other documents as may be required pursuant to such instructions, each Non-Electing Sears Holder shall be entitled to receive in exchange therefor: (A) the number of whole shares of Holdco Common Stock, if any, into which such holder's shares of Sears Common Stock represented by such holder's properly surrendered Certificates or Book-Entry Shares, as applicable, were converted in accordance with this Article II (after taking into account all shares of Sears Common Stock to which an election or non-election of the same type were made), and such Certificates or Book-Entry Shares so surrendered shall be forthwith cancelled, and (B) a check in an amount of U.S. dollars (after giving effect to any required withholdings pursuant to Section 2.6(g)) equal to (I) the amount of cash (including the Cash Consideration and cash in lieu of fractional interests in shares of Holdco Common Stock to be paid pursuant to Section 2.6(d)), if any, into which such holder's shares of Sears Common Stock represented by such holder's properly surrendered Certificates or Book-Entry Shares, as applicable, were converted in accordance with this Article II, plus (II) any cash dividends or other distributions that such holder has the right to receive pursuant to Section 2.6(c).

In the event that any Certificate shall have been lost, stolen or destroyed, upon the holder's compliance with the replacement requirements established by the Exchange Agent, including, if necessary, the posting by the holder of a bond in customary amount as indemnity against any claim that may be made against it with respect to the Certificate, the Exchange Agent shall deliver in exchange for the lost, stolen or destroyed Certificate the applicable Merger Consideration payable in respect of the shares of Sears Common Stock or Kmart Common Stock, as the case may be, represented by the Certificate pursuant to this Article II.

No interest shall be paid or accrued for the benefit of holders of the Certificates or Book-Entry Shares on the Merger Consideration payable in respect of the Certificates or Book-Entry Shares. Until surrendered as contemplated hereby, each Certificate or Book-Entry Share shall, after the Effective Time, represent for all purposes only the right to receive upon such surrender the applicable Merger Consideration as contemplated by this Article II, the issuance or payment of which (including any cash in lieu of fractional shares) shall be deemed to be the satisfaction in full of all rights pertaining to shares of Sears Common Stock converted in the Sears Merger and shares of Kmart Common Stock converted in the Kmart Merger.

At the Effective Time, the stock transfer books of Sears and Kmart shall be closed, and thereafter there shall be no further registration of transfers of shares of Sears Common Stock or Kmart Common Stock, respectively, that were outstanding prior to the Effective Time. In lieu thereof, upon surrender of the applicable Certificates or Book-Entry Shares, Holdco shall pay each holder of Sears Common Stock an amount in cash equal to the product obtained by multiplying (a) the fractional share interest to which such holder (after taking into account all shares of Sears Common Stock held at the Effective Time and for which an election or non-election of the same type was made by such holder) would otherwise be entitled, by (b) the closing price on the NASDAQ National Market ("Nasdaq") for a share of Kmart Common Stock on the last trading day immediately preceding the Effective Time.

As soon as practicable after the Effective Time, Holdco shall deliver to the holders of Restricted Sears Shares and Other Sears Stock-Based Awards appropriate notices setting forth such holders' rights pursuant to the Sears Stock Plans, and the agreements evidencing the grants of such Restricted Sears Shares and Other Sears Stock-Based Awards, as the case may be, shall continue in effect on the same terms and conditions (subject to the adjustments required by this Section 2.7 after giving effect to the Sears Merger and the assumption by Holdco as set forth above).

Holdco shall take all corporate action necessary to reserve for issuance a sufficient number of shares of Holdco Common Stock for delivery with respect to Restricted Sears Shares and Other Sears Stock-Based Awards assumed by it in accordance with this Section 2.7. (f)

Compliance with Applicable Laws and Reporting Requirements.

Sears and its Subsidiaries hold all permits, licenses, variances, exemptions, orders and approvals of all Governmental Entities that are material to the operation of the businesses of Sears and its Subsidiaries, taken as a whole (the "Sears Permits"), and Sears and its Subsidiaries are and have been in compliance with the terms of the Sears Permits and all applicable laws and regulations, except where the failure so to hold or comply, individually or in the aggregate, would not reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on Sears. The businesses of Sears and its Subsidiaries are not being and have not been conducted in violation of any law, ordinance or regulation of any Governmental Entity (including the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002), except for violations that, individually or in the aggregate, do not have, and would not reasonably be expected to have, a material adverse effect on Sears. To the knowledge of Sears, no investigation by any Governmental Entity with respect to Sears or any of its Subsidiaries is pending or threatened, other than, in each case, those the outcome of which, individually or in the aggregate, would not reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on Sears.

(ii)

Sears and its Subsidiaries have designed and maintain a system of internal controls over financial reporting (as defined in Rules 13a-15(f) and 15d-15(f) of the Exchange Act) sufficient to provide reasonable assurances regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. Sears (A) has designed and maintains disclosure controls and procedures (as defined in Rules 13a-15(e) and 15d-15(e) of the Exchange Act) to ensure that material information required to be disclosed by Sears in the reports that it files or submits under the Exchange Act is recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified in the SEC's rules and forms and is accumulated and communicated to Sears's management as appropriate to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosure, and (B) has disclosed, based on its most recent evaluation of such disclosure controls and procedures prior to the date hereof, to Sears's auditors and the audit committee of Sears's Board of Directors (1) any significant deficiencies and material weaknesses in the design or operation of internal controls over financial reporting that are reasonably likely to adversely affect in any material respect Sears's ability to record, process, summarize and report financial information and (2) any fraud, whether or not material, that involves management or other employees who have a significant role in Sears's internal controls over financial reporting. Sears has made available to Kmart a summary of any such disclosure made by management to Sears's auditors and audit committee since January 1, 2002.

(g)

Legal Proceedings. There is no claim, suit, action, investigation or other demand or proceeding (whether judicial, arbitral, administrative or other) pending or, to the knowledge of Sears, threatened, against or affecting Sears or any Subsidiary of Sears that would reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a material adverse effect on Sears, nor is there any judgment, decree, injunction, rule or order of any Governmental Entity or arbitrator outstanding against Sears or any Subsidiary of Sears having or that would reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a material adverse effect on Sears or on Holdco after the Effective Time. No claim, suit, action, investigation, demand or proceeding alleging that Sears or any of its Subsidiaries is liable for asbestos-related matters, individually or in the aggregate, has, and none of them would reasonably be likely to have, a material adverse effect on Sears.

Taxes. Sears and each of its Subsidiaries have filed all material tax returns required to be filed by any of them and have paid (or Sears has paid on their behalf) all taxes shown as due on such returns, and the most recent financial statements contained in the Sears SEC Documents reflect an adequate reserve, in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, for all taxes payable by Sears and its Subsidiaries accrued through the date of such financial statements. No material deficiencies or other claims for any taxes have been proposed, asserted or assessed against Sears or any of its Subsidiaries that are not adequately reserved for. For the purpose of this Agreement, the term "tax" (including, with correlative meaning, the terms "taxes" and "taxable") shall mean (i) all Federal, state, local and foreign income, profits, franchise, gross receipts, payroll, sales, employment, use, property, withholding, excise, occupancy and other taxes, duties or assessments of any nature whatsoever, together with all interest, penalties and additions imposed with respect to such amounts, (ii) liability for the payment of any amounts of the type described in clause (i) as a result of being or having been a member of an affiliated, consolidated, combined or unitary group, and (iii) liability for the payment of any amounts as a result of being party to any tax sharing agreement or as a result of any express or implied obligation to indemnify any other person with respect to the payment of any amounts of the type described in clause (i) or (ii). Neither Sears nor any of its Subsidiaries has taken any action or knows of any fact, agreement, plan or other circumstance that would reasonably be expected to prevent the exchange of Sears Common Stock and Kmart Common Stock for Holdco Common Stock pursuant to the Mergers, taken together, from qualifying as a transaction described in Section 351 of the Code.

Certain Agreements. Except for this Agreement, neither Sears nor any of its Subsidiaries is a party to or bound by any contract, arrangement, commitment or understanding (i) with respect to the employment of any directors or executive officers, or with any consultants that are natural persons, involving the payment of $2.0 million or more per annum, (ii) that is a "material contract" (as such term is defined in Item 601(b)(10) of Regulation S-K of the SEC), (iii) that limits the ability of Sears or any of its Subsidiaries to compete in any line of business, in any geographic area or with any person, or that requires referrals of business and, in each case, which limitation or requirement would reasonably be expected to be material to Sears and its Subsidiaries taken as a whole, (iv) in the case of a Sears Benefit Plan, any of the benefits of which will be increased, or the vesting of the benefits of which will be accelerated, by the occurrence of any of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, or the value of any of the benefits of which will be calculated on the basis of any of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, or (v) that would prevent, materially delay or materially impede the consummation of any of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. All contracts, arrangements, commitments or understandings of the type described in this Section 3.1(i) (collectively referred to herein as the "Sears Contracts") are valid and in full force and effect, except to the extent they have previously expired in accordance with their terms or if the failure to be in full force and effect, individually or in the aggregate, would not reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on Sears. Neither Sears nor any of its Subsidiaries has, and to the knowledge of Sears, none of the other parties thereto have, violated any provision of, or committed or failed to perform any act, and no event or condition exists, which with or without notice, lapse of time or both would constitute a default under the provisions of, any Sears Contract, except in each case for those violations and defaults that, individually or in the aggregate, would not reasonably be expected to result in a material adverse effect on Sears.

Benefit Plans.

(i)

With respect to each employee benefit plan (including any "employee benefit plan", as defined in Section 3(3) of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended ("ERISA"), including multiemployer plans within the meaning of ERISA Section 3(37)) and all stock purchase, stock option, severance, employment, change-in-control, fringe benefit, collective bargaining, bonus, incentive, deferred compensation and other material employee benefit plans, agreements, programs, policies or other arrangements, whether or not subject to ERISA, whether formal or informal, oral or written, legally binding or not (all the foregoing being herein called "Benefit Plans"), under which any employee or former employee of Sears or any of its Subsidiaries has any present or future right to benefits, maintained or contributed to by Sears or any of its Subsidiaries or under which Sears or any of its Subsidiaries has any present or future liability (the "Sears Benefit Plans"), Sears has made available to Kmart a true and correct copy of (A) the most recent annual report (Form 5500) filed with the IRS, if any, (B) such Sears Benefit Plan, (C) each trust agreement relating to such Sears Benefit Plan, if any, (D) the most recent summary plan description for each Sears Benefit Plan for which a summary plan description is required by ERISA, (E) the most recent actuarial report or valuation relating to a Sears Benefit Plan subject to Title IV of ERISA, and (F) the most recent determination letter issued by the IRS with respect to any Sears Benefit Plan qualified under Section 401(a) of the Code, if any.

(ii)

With respect to the Sears Benefit Plans, individually and in the aggregate, no event has occurred and, to the knowledge of Sears, there exists no condition or set of circumstances, in connection with which Sears or any of its Subsidiaries could be subject to any liability that would reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on Sears under ERISA, the Code or any other applicable law.

(iii)

True and complete copies of the Sears Stock Plans as in effect on the date hereof have been provided or made available to Kmart.

(iv)

No Sears Benefit Plan or Sears Stock Plan exists that could result in the payment to any present or former employee of Sears or any Subsidiary of Sears of any money or other property or accelerate or provide any other rights or benefits to any present or former employee of Sears or any Subsidiary of Sears, in each case, as a result of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, whether or not such payment would constitute a parachute payment within the meaning of Code Section 280G.

Board Approval. The Board of Directors of Sears, by resolutions duly adopted by unanimous vote of those voting at a meeting duly called and held (the "Sears Board Approval"), has (i) adopted this Agreement, and (ii) recommended that the stockholders of Sears adopt this Agreement and directed that such matter be submitted for consideration by Sears stockholders at the Sears Stockholders Meeting (as defined in Section 5.1(b)). The Sears Board Approval constitutes approval of this Agreement and the Sears Merger for purposes of Section 912 of the NYBCL such that no other action or approval of the Board of Directors or any person is needed to exempt this Agreement, the Support Agreement, the Sears Merger or the other transactions contemplated hereby from the restrictions of Section 912 of the NYBCL and of any other transaction effected by Kmart or any of its affiliates for purposes of Section 912 of the NYBCL. To the knowledge of Sears, except for Section 912 of the NYBCL (which has been rendered inapplicable), no "moratorium," "control share," "fair price" or other anti-takeover law or regulation is applicable to this Agreement, the Sears Merger, or the other transactions contemplated hereby.

Advice of Changes; Government Filings. Each party shall confer on a regular and frequent basis with the other, report on operational matters and promptly advise the other orally and in writing of any change or event having, or that would reasonably be expected to have, a material adverse effect on such party or that would cause or constitute a material breach of any of the representations, warranties or covenants of such party contained herein; provided, however, that any noncompliance with the foregoing shall not constitute the failure to be satisfied of a condition set forth in Article VI or give rise to any right of termination under Article VII unless the underlying breach shall independently constitute such a failure or give rise to such a right. Sears and Kmart shall file all reports required to be filed by each of them (or their Subsidiaries) with the SEC between the date hereof and the Effective Time and shall deliver to the other party copies of all such reports promptly after the same are filed. Each of Sears and Kmart shall have the right to review in advance, and to the extent practicable each will consult with the other, in each case subject to applicable laws relating to the exchange of information, with respect to any filing made with, or written materials submitted to, any third party or any Governmental Entity in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. 5.1.

Preparation of Proxy Statement; Stockholders Meetings.

(i) As promptly as reasonably practicable following the date hereof, Kmart and Sears shall cooperate in preparing and shall cause to be filed with the SEC mutually acceptable proxy materials that shall constitute the proxy statement/prospectus relating to the matters to be submitted to the Sears stockholders at the Sears Stockholders Meeting (as defined in Section 5.1(b)) and to the Kmart stockholders at the Kmart Stockholders Meeting (as defined in Section 5.1(c)) (such joint proxy statement/prospectus, and any amendments or supplements thereto, the "Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus"), and Holdco shall prepare, together with Kmart and Sears, and file with the SEC a registration statement on Form S-4 (of which the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus shall be a part) with respect to the issuance of Holdco Common Stock in the Mergers (such Form S-4, and any amendments or supplements thereto, the "Form S-4").

(ii)

Each of Holdco, Kmart and Sears shall use reasonable best efforts to have the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus cleared by the SEC and the Form S-4 declared effective by the SEC, to keep the Form S-4 effective as long as is necessary to consummate the Mergers and the other transactions contemplated hereby, and to mail the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus to their respective stockholders as promptly as practicable after the Form S-4 is declared effective. Kmart and Sears shall, as promptly as practicable after receipt thereof, provide the other party with copies of any written comments and advise the other party of any oral comments with respect to the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus or Form S-4 received from the SEC. Each party shall cooperate and provide the other party with a reasonable opportunity to review and comment on any amendment or supplement to the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus and the Form S-4 prior to filing such with the SEC, and each party will provide the other party with a copy of all such filings made with the SEC. Holdco shall use its reasonable best efforts to take any action required to be taken under any applicable state securities laws in connection with the Mergers and each party shall furnish all information concerning it and the holders of its capital stock as may be reasonably requested in connection with any such action.

(iii)

Each party will advise the other party, promptly after it receives notice thereof, of the time when the Form S-4 has become effective, the issuance of any stop order, the suspension of the qualification of the Holdco Common Stock issuable in connection with the Mergers for offering or sale in any jurisdiction, or any request by the SEC for amendment of the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus or the Form S-4. If at any time prior to the Effective Time any information relating to either of the parties, or their respective affiliates, officers or directors, should be discovered by either party that should be set forth in an amendment or supplement to any of the Form S-4 or the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus so that such documents would not include any misstatement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact necessary to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading, the party that discovers such information shall promptly notify the other party and, to the extent required by law, rules or regulations, an appropriate amendment or supplement describing such information shall be promptly filed with the SEC and disseminated to the stockholders of Sears and Kmart.

Sears shall duly take all lawful action to call, give notice of, convene and hold a meeting of its stockholders as promptly as practicable following the date upon which the Form S-4 becomes effective (the "Sears Stockholders Meeting") for the purpose of obtaining the Required Sears Vote with respect to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and, unless it is permitted to make a Change in Sears Recommendation (as defined below) pursuant to Section 5.4(b), shall use reasonable best efforts to solicit the approval of its stockholders of the matters comprising the Required Sears Vote; and the Board of Directors of Sears shall recommend approval of the matters comprising the Required Sears Vote by the stockholders of Sears to the effect as set forth in Section 3.1(m) (the "Sears Recommendation") and shall not (x) withdraw or modify (or propose to withdraw or modify) in any manner adverse to Kmart such recommendation or (y) take any other action or make any other statement in connection with the Sears Stockholders Meeting inconsistent with such recommendation (collectively, a "Change in Sears Recommendation"), except as and to the extent expressly permitted by Section 5.4(b). Notwithstanding any Change in Sears Recommendation, this Agreement shall be submitted to the stockholders of Sears at the Sears Stockholders Meeting for the purpose of approving the matters comprising the Required Sears Vote, and nothing contained herein shall be deemed to relieve Sears of such obligation.

Kmart shall duly take all lawful action to call, give notice of, convene and hold a meeting of its stockholders as promptly as practicable following the date upon which the Form S-4 becomes effective (the "Kmart Stockholders Meeting" and, together with the Sears Stockholders Meeting, the "Required Stockholders Meetings") for the purpose of obtaining the Required Kmart Vote with respect to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and, unless it is permitted to make a Change in Kmart Recommendation (as defined below) pursuant to Section 5.4(b), shall use reasonable best efforts to solicit the approval of its stockholders of the matters comprising the Required Kmart Vote; and the Board of Directors of Kmart shall recommend approval of the matters comprising the Required Kmart Vote by the stockholders of Kmart to the effect as set forth in Section 3.2(m) (the "Kmart Recommendation") and shall not (x) withdraw or modify (or propose to withdraw or modify) in any manner adverse to Sears such recommendation or (y) take any other action or make any other statement in connection with the Kmart Stockholders Meeting inconsistent with such recommendation (a "Change in Kmart Recommendation"), except as and to the extent expressly permitted by Section 5.4(b). Notwithstanding any Change in Kmart Recommendation, this Agreement shall be submitted to the stockholders of Kmart at the Kmart Stockholders Meeting for the purpose of approving the matters comprising the Required Kmart Vote, and nothing contained herein shall be deemed to relieve Kmart of such obligation.

Sears and Kmart shall each use their reasonable best efforts to cause the Sears Stockholders Meeting and the Kmart Stockholders Meeting to be held on the same date.

5.2.

Access to Information; Confidentiality.

Upon reasonable notice, Sears and Kmart shall each (and shall cause each of their respective Subsidiaries to) afford to the employees, counsel, advisors and other representatives of the other, reasonable access, during normal business hours during the period prior to the Effective Time, to all its properties, books, contracts, records and officers and, during such period, each of Sears and Kmart shall (and shall cause each of their respective Subsidiaries to) make available to the other all information concerning its business, properties and personnel as such other party may reasonably request. Any such investigation shall be conducted in such a manner as not to interfere unreasonably with the business or operations of Sears or Kmart, as the case may be. Neither party nor any of its Subsidiaries shall be required to provide access to or to disclose information where such access or disclosure would violate or prejudice the rights of its customers, jeopardize the attorney-client privilege of the institution in possession or control of such information or contravene any law, rule, regulation, order, judgment, decree or binding agreement entered into prior to the date hereof. To the extent practicable, the parties will make appropriate substitute disclosure arrangements under circumstances in which the restrictions of the preceding sentence apply.

The parties will hold any such information that is nonpublic in confidence to the extent required by, and in accordance with, the provisions of the letters dated March 16, 2004 (as amended June 29, 2004), and November 10, 2004, between Sears and Kmart (collectively, the "Confidentiality Agreements"), which Confidentiality Agreements will remain in full force and effect.

(c)

No such investigation by either Kmart or Sears shall affect the representations and warranties of the other.

Reasonable Best Efforts.

Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, each party will use its reasonable best efforts to take, or cause to be taken, all actions and to do, or cause to be done, all things necessary, proper or advisable under this Agreement and applicable laws, rules and regulations to consummate the Mergers and the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement as soon as practicable after the date hereof, including preparing and filing as promptly as practicable all documentation to effect all necessary applications, notices, filings and other documents and to obtain as promptly as practicable all Requisite Regulatory Approvals (as defined herein) and all other consents, waivers, orders, approvals, permits, rulings, authorizations and clearances necessary or advisable to be obtained from any third party or any Governmental Entity in order to consummate the Mergers or any of the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement. Each party shall use its reasonable best efforts to refrain from taking any action that would reasonably be expected to adversely affect or delay the ability of the parties to obtain all Requisite Regulatory Approvals. In furtherance and not in limitation of the foregoing, each party agrees (i) to make, as promptly as practicable, (A) an appropriate filing of a Notification and Report Form pursuant to the HSR Act with respect to the transactions contemplated hereby (which filing shall be made in any event within 15 business days of the date hereof), and (B) appropriate filings with the applicable Governmental Entities under the Canadian Antitrust Laws within the time periods specified thereunder to effect a Closing as soon as practicable, and (ii) in each case, to supply as promptly as practicable any additional information and documentary material that may be requested pursuant to such Applicable Antitrust Laws or by such authorities and to use reasonable best efforts to cause the expiration or termination of the applicable waiting periods under the HSR Act and the receipt of all such consents, waivers, orders, approvals, permits, rulings, authorizations and clearances under such other Applicable Antitrust Laws or from such authorities as soon as practicable.

Notwithstanding the foregoing or any other provision in this Agreement to the contrary, nothing in this Section 5.3 shall require, or be deemed to require, (i) Kmart or Sears (or any of their respective Subsidiaries) to take any action, agree to take any action or consent to the taking of any action (including with respect to selling, holding separate or otherwise disposing of any business or assets or conducting its (or its Subsidiaries') business in any specified manner) if doing so would, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to result in a material adverse effect on Holdco after the Effective Time, or (ii) Kmart or Sears (or any of their respective Subsidiaries) to take any such action that is not conditional on the consummation of the Mergers. Neither party shall take or agree to take any action identified in clause (i) or (ii) of the preceding sentence without the prior written consent of the other party (which shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed).

Each of Kmart and Sears shall, in connection with the efforts referenced in Section 5.3(a), use its reasonable best efforts to (i) cooperate in all respects with each other in connection with any filing or submission and in connection with any investigation or other inquiry, including any proceeding initiated by a private party, (ii) promptly inform the other party of the status of any of the matters contemplated hereby, including providing the other party with a copy of any written communication (or summary of oral communications) received by such party from, or given by such party to, the Antitrust Division of the Department of Justice, the Federal Trade Commission or any other Governmental Entity and of any written communication (or summary of oral communications) received or given in connection with any proceeding by a private party, in each case regarding any of the transactions contemplated hereby, and (iii) consult with each other in advance to the extent practicable of any meeting or conference with any such Governmental Entity or, in connection with any proceeding by a private party, with any such other person, and to the extent permitted by any such Governmental Entity or other person, give the other party the opportunity to attend and participate in such meetings and conferences.

In furtherance and not in limitation of the covenants of the parties contained in this Section 5.3, (i) if (A) any objections are asserted with respect to the transactions contemplated hereby under any law, rule, regulation, order or decree (including the Applicable Antitrust Laws), (B) any administrative or judicial action or proceeding is instituted (or threatened to be instituted) by any Governmental Entity or private party challenging the Mergers or the other transactions contemplated hereby as violative of any law, rule, regulation, order or decree (including the Applicable Antitrust Laws) or that would otherwise prevent, materially delay or materially impede the consummation of the Mergers or the other transactions contemplated hereby, or (C) any law, rule, regulation, order or decree is enacted, entered, promulgated or enforced by a Governmental Entity that would make the Mergers or the other transactions contemplated hereby illegal or would otherwise prevent, materially delay or materially impede the consummation of the Mergers or the other transactions contemplated hereby, then (ii) each of Sears and Kmart shall use its reasonable best efforts to resolve any such objections, actions or proceedings so as to permit the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, including, subject to Section 5.3(b), selling, holding separate or otherwise disposing of or conducting its or its Subsidiaries' business or asset in a specified manner, or agreeing to sell, hold separate or otherwise dispose of or conduct its or its Subsidiaries' business or assets in a specified manner, which would resolve such objections, actions or proceedings.

In furtherance and not in limitation of the covenants of the parties contained in this Section 5.3, but subject to first complying with the obligations of Section 5.3(d), if any of the events specified in Section 5.3(d)(i)(B) or (C) occurs, then each of Kmart and Sears shall cooperate in all respects with each other and use its reasonable best efforts, subject to Section 5.3(b), to contest and resist any such administrative or judicial action or proceeding and to have vacated, lifted, reversed or overturned any judgment, injunction or other decree or order, whether temporary, preliminary or permanent, that is in effect and that prevents, materially delays or materially impedes the consummation of the Mergers or the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement and to have such law, rule, regulation, order or decree repealed, rescinded or made inapplicable so as to permit consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, and each of Kmart and Sears shall use its reasonable best efforts to defend, at its own cost and expense, any such administrative or judicial actions or proceedings.

Notwithstanding the foregoing or any other provision of this Agreement, nothing in this Section 5.3 shall limit a party's right to terminate this Agreement pursuant to Section 7.1(b) or 7.1(c) so long as such party has up to then complied with its obligations under this Section 5.3.

(g)

Holdco shall agree to execute and deliver, at or prior to the Effective Time, supplemental indentures and other instruments required for the due assumption, as determined by the parties, of Sears's and Kmart's outstanding debt, guarantees and other securities to the extent required by the terms of such debt, guarantees and securities and the instruments and agreements relating thereto, and Sears shall assist Holdco in accomplishing the same.

(h)

Each of Sears and Kmart and their respective Boards of Directors shall, if any "moratorium," "control share," "fair price" or other anti-takeover law or regulation becomes applicable to this Agreement, the Mergers, or any other transactions contemplated hereby, use all reasonable best efforts to ensure that the Mergers and the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement may be consummated as promptly as practicable on the terms contemplated hereby and otherwise to minimize the effect of such law or regulation on this Agreement, the Mergers and the other transactions contemplated hereby.

5.4.

Acquisition Proposals.

Each of Kmart and Sears agrees that neither it nor any of its Subsidiaries nor any of the officers and directors of it or its Subsidiaries shall, and that it shall use its reasonable best efforts to cause its and its Subsidiaries' employees, agents and representatives (including any investment banker, attorney or accountant retained by it or any of its Subsidiaries) not to, directly or indirectly, (i) initiate, solicit, encourage or knowingly facilitate any inquiries or the making of any proposal or offer with respect to, or a transaction to effect, a merger, reorganization, share exchange, consolidation, business combination, recapitalization, liquidation, dissolution or similar transaction involving it or any of its Significant Subsidiaries (other than any such transaction permitted by Section 4.1(e) or (f) in the case of Sears, and Section 4.2(e) or (f) in the case of Kmart) or any purchase or sale of 20% or more of the consolidated assets (including stock of its Subsidiaries) of it and its Subsidiaries, taken as a whole, or any purchase or sale of, or tender or exchange offer for, its voting securities that, if consummated, would result in any person (or the stockholders of such person) beneficially owning securities representing 20% or more of its total voting power (or of the surviving parent entity in such transaction) or any of its Significant Subsidiaries (any such proposal, offer or transaction (other than a proposal or offer made by the other party to this Agreement or an affiliate thereof) being hereinafter referred to as an "Acquisition Proposal"), (ii) have any discussions with or provide any confidential information or data to any person relating to an Acquisition Proposal, or engage in any negotiations concerning an Acquisition Proposal, or knowingly facilitate any effort or attempt to make or implement an Acquisition Proposal, or (iii) approve or recommend, or propose to approve or recommend, or execute or enter into, any letter of intent, agreement in principle, merger agreement, asset purchase or share exchange agreement, option agreement or other similar agreement related to any Acquisition Proposal or propose or agree to do any of the foregoing.

(b)

Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, either party or its Board of Directors shall be permitted to (A) to the extent applicable and subject to Section 5.4(g) and being otherwise in compliance with this Section 5.4(b), comply with Rule 14d-9 and Rule 14e-2 promulgated under the Exchange Act with regard to an Acquisition Proposal or make any other disclosure required by law or its fiduciary duties (other than with respect to matters covered by clauses (B) or (C)), (B) effect a Change in Sears Recommendation or a Change in Kmart Recommendation (as applicable, a "Change in Recommendation"), or (C) engage in any discussions or negotiations with, or provide any confidential information or data to, any person in response to an unsolicited bona fide written Acquisition Proposal by any such person first made after the date hereof, if and only to the extent that, in any such case referred to in clause (B) or (C) above, (I) such party's Required Stockholders Meeting shall not have occurred, (II) such party has complied in all material respects with this Section 5.4, and (III) its Board of Directors, after consultation with its outside legal counsel, determines in good faith that failure to take such action would be inconsistent with its fiduciary duties under applicable law, in the case of clause (B) above, (I) it has received an unsolicited bona fide written Acquisition Proposal from a third party and its Board of Directors, after consultation with its outside legal counsel and financial advisors, concludes in good faith that such Acquisition Proposal constitutes a Superior Proposal (as defined below) (after giving effect to all of the proposed revisions to this Agreement which may be offered by the other party to this Agreement pursuant to clause (III) below), (II) it has notified the other party to this Agreement, at least four business days in advance, of its intention to effect a Change in Recommendation, specifying the material terms and conditions of such Superior Proposal and the identity of the party making such Superior Proposal, and furnishing to the other party to this Agreement a copy of any relevant proposed transaction agreements with the party making such Superior Proposal and any other material documents received by it or its representatives, and (III) prior to effecting such a Change in Recommendation, it has, and has caused its financial and legal advisors to, negotiate with the other party to this Agreement in good faith to make such adjustments in the terms and conditions of this Agreement such that such Acquisition Proposal would no longer constitute a Superior Proposal, and in the case of clause (C) above, its Board of Directors, after consultation with outside legal counsel and financial advisors, concludes in good faith that there is a reasonable likelihood that such Acquisition Proposal constitutes or is reasonably likely to result in a Superior Proposal, and prior to providing any information or data to any person in connection with an Acquisition Proposal by any such person, its Board of Directors receives from such person an executed confidentiality agreement having provisions that are no less favorable to the party providing such information than those contained in the Confidentiality Agreements.

(i)

(c)

Each of Kmart and Sears shall notify the other party to this Agreement as promptly as practicable of any such inquiries, proposals or offers received by, any such information requested from, or any such discussions or negotiations sought to be initiated or continued with, it or any of its representatives, indicating, in connection with such notice, the identity of such person and the material terms and conditions of any inquiries, proposals or offers (including a copy thereof if in writing and any related available material documentation or correspondence), and in any event each of Kmart and Sears shall provide written notice to the other party of such inquiries, proposals, offers, requests for information and initiation of such discussions or negotiations within 24 hours of such event. Each of Kmart and Sears agrees that it will promptly keep the other party informed of the status and material terms of any such inquiries, proposals or offers (including whether withdrawn or rejected), the status and nature of all information requested and delivered, and the status and material terms of any such discussions or negotiations, and in any event each of Kmart and Sears shall provide the other party with written notice of any material development thereto within 24 hours thereof. Each of Kmart and Sears also agrees to provide the other party hereto with any information that it provides to the third party making the request therefor at substantially the same time it provides such information to such third party, unless the other party hereto has already been provided with such information.

Sears agrees that (i) it will and will cause its Subsidiaries, and its and their officers, directors, agents, representatives and advisors to, cease immediately and terminate any and all existing activities, discussions or negotiations with any third parties conducted heretofore with respect to any Acquisition Proposal, and (ii) it will not release any third party from, or waive any provisions of, any confidentiality or standstill agreement to which it or any of its Subsidiaries is a party with respect to any Acquisition Proposal. Sears agrees that it will use reasonable best efforts to promptly inform its and its Subsidiaries' respective directors, officers, key employees, agents and representatives of the obligations undertaken in this Section 5.4. Sears shall, if it has not already done so, promptly request, to the extent it has a contractual right to do so, that each person, if any, that has heretofore executed a confidentiality agreement within the six months prior to the date hereof in connection with its consideration of any Acquisition Proposal to return or destroy all confidential information or data heretofore furnished to any person by or on behalf of it or any of its Subsidiaries.

(e)

Nothing in this Section 5.4 shall (x) permit either party to terminate this Agreement or (y) affect any other obligation of the parties under this Agreement. Neither party shall submit to the vote of its stockholders any Acquisition Proposal other than the Mergers prior to the termination of this Agreement.

(f)

For purposes of this Agreement, "Superior Proposal" means a bona fide written Acquisition Proposal that the Board of Directors of Kmart or Sears, as the case may be, concludes in good faith, after consultation with its financial advisors and legal advisors, taking into account all legal, financial, regulatory, timing and other aspects of the proposal and the person making the proposal (including any break-up fees, expense reimbursement provisions and conditions to consummation): (i) is more favorable to the stockholders of Kmart or Sears, as the case may be, from a financial point of view, than the transactions contemplated by this Agreement (after giving effect to any adjustments to the terms and provisions of this Agreement committed to in writing by Kmart or Sears, as the case may be, in response to such Acquisition Proposal), (ii) is fully financed or reasonably capable of being fully financed, reasonably likely to receive all required governmental approvals on a timely basis and otherwise reasonably capable of being completed on the terms proposed, and (iii) with respect to Sears only, satisfies such other considerations contemplated in clauses (1) and (2) of Section 717(b) of the NYBCL; provided that, for purposes of this definition of "Superior Proposal," the term Acquisition Proposal shall have the meaning assigned to such term in Section 5.4(a), except that the reference to "20% or more" in the definition of "Acquisition Proposal" shall be deemed to be a reference to "a majority" and "Acquisition Proposal" shall only be deemed to refer to a transaction involving Kmart or Sears, as the case may be.

Any disclosure (other than a "stop, look and listen" or similar communication of the type contemplated by Rule 14d-9(f) under the Exchange Act) made pursuant to Section 5.4(b)(A) shall be deemed to be a Change in Recommendation, unless the Board of Directors of the party making such disclosure expressly (i) reaffirms its recommendation to its stockholders in favor of the applicable Merger and (ii) rejects such other Acquisition Proposal.

Affiliates. Each of Sears and Kmart shall use all reasonable efforts to cause each person who is an "affiliate" (for purposes of Rule 145 under the Securities Act) to deliver to Holdco, as soon as reasonably practicable and in any event prior to the Sears Stockholders Meeting or the Kmart Stockholders Meeting, as applicable, a written agreement substantially in the form attached as Exhibit 5.5.

Stock Exchange Listing. Holdco and Kmart shall use all reasonable efforts to cause (i) the shares of Holdco Common Stock to be issued in the Mergers and (ii) the shares of Holdco Common Stock to be reserved for issuance upon the exercise of any Other Sears Stock-Based Awards, Kmart Stock Options and Other Kmart Stock-Based Awards, to be approved for listing on either Nasdaq or NYSE (as to be agreed by the parties), subject to official notice of issuance, prior to the Closing Date.

Employee Benefit Plans.

Kmart and Sears agree that, except as otherwise provided herein (including as set forth in Section 5.7(a) of the Sears Disclosure Schedule or Section 5.7(a) of the Kmart Disclosure Schedule, as applicable) and unless otherwise mutually determined, the Kmart Benefit Plans and Sears Benefit Plans in effect at the date hereof shall remain in effect after the Effective Time with respect to employees covered by such plans at the Effective Time, until such time as Holdco shall otherwise determine, subject to applicable laws and the terms of such plans. Prior to and following the Effective Time, the parties shall cooperate in good faith to formulate Benefit Plans for Holdco and its Subsidiaries, with respect both to employees who were covered by the Kmart Benefit Plans and Sears Benefit Plans at the Effective Time and employees who were not covered by such plans at the Effective Time, that provide benefits for services on a basis that does not discriminate between employees who were covered by the Kmart Benefit Plans and employees who were covered by the Sears Benefit Plans.

With respect to any Benefit Plans in which any Holdco employees who are employees of Kmart or Sears (or their Subsidiaries) prior to the Effective Time first become eligible to participate on or after the Effective Time, and in which such Holdco employees did not participate prior to the Effective Time (the "New Plans"), Holdco shall: (i) waive all pre-existing conditions, exclusions and waiting periods with respect to participation and coverage requirements applicable to the Holdco employees and their eligible dependents under any New Plans in which such employees may be eligible to participate after the Effective Time, except to the extent such pre-existing conditions, exclusions or waiting periods would apply under the analogous Kmart Benefit Plan or Sears Benefit Plan, as the case may be; (ii) provide each Holdco employee and their eligible dependents with credit for any co-payments and deductibles paid prior to the Effective Time under a Kmart Benefit Plan or Sears Benefit Plan (to the same extent that such credit was given under the analogous Benefit Plan prior to the Effective Time) in satisfying any applicable deductible or out-of-pocket requirements under any New Plans in which such employees may be eligible to participate after the Effective Time; and (iii) recognize all service of the Holdco employees with Kmart or Sears, and their respective affiliates, for all purposes (including, purposes of eligibility to participate, vesting credit, entitlement to benefits, and, except with respect to defined benefit pension plans, benefit accrual) in any New Plan in which such employees may be eligible to participate after the Effective Time, to the extent such service is taken into account under the applicable New Plan and only to the extent such service was credited under the analogous Benefit Plan prior to the Effective Time; provided that the foregoing shall not apply to the extent it would result in duplication of benefits.

(c)

With respect to Benefit Plans maintained or contributed to outside the United States for the benefit of non-United States citizens or residents, the principles set forth in the preceding paragraph of this Section 5.7 shall apply to the extent the application of such principles does not violate applicable foreign law.

Section 16 Matters. Assuming that Sears and Kmart deliver to Holdco the Section 16 Information (as defined below) reasonably in advance of the Effective Time, the Board of Directors of Holdco, or a committee of Non-Employee Directors thereof (as such term is defined for purposes of Rule 16b-3(d) under the Exchange Act), shall reasonably promptly thereafter and in any event prior to the Effective Time adopt a resolution providing that the receipt by the Insiders (as defined below) of Sears and Kmart of Holdco Common Stock in exchange for shares of Sears Common Stock (including Restricted Sears Shares) or shares of Kmart Common Stock, as the case may be, or to receive shares of Holdco Common Stock upon conversion of Other Sears Stock-Based Awards or Other Kmart Stock-Based Awards, as the case may be, in each case pursuant to the transactions contemplated hereby and to the extent such securities are listed in the Section 16 Information provided by Sears and Kmart to Holdco prior to the Effective Time, are intended to be exempt from liability pursuant to Section 16(b) under the Exchange Act such that any such receipt shall be so exempt. "Section 16 Information" shall mean information accurate in all material respects regarding the Insiders of a person, the number of shares of the capital stock held by each such Insider, and the number and description of options, stock appreciation rights, restricted shares and other stock-based awards held by each such Insider. "Insiders", with respect to a person, shall mean those officers and directors of such person who are subject to the reporting requirements of Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act and who are listed in the Section 16 Information.

Fees and Expenses. Whether or not the Mergers are consummated, all costs and expenses incurred in connection with this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby shall be paid by the party incurring such expense, except as otherwise provided in Section 7.2 hereof and except that (a) if the Mergers are consummated, the surviving corporations in the Mergers shall pay, or cause to be paid, any and all property or transfer taxes imposed on either party in connection with the Mergers, and (b) expenses incurred in connection with filing, printing and mailing the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus and the Form S-4 shall be shared equally by Kmart and Sears.

"Sears Indemnified Parties") against all losses, claims, damages, costs, expenses, liabilities or judgments or amounts that are paid in settlement of or in connection with any claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation based in whole or in part on or arising in whole or in part out of the fact that such person is or was a director, officer or employee of Sears or any Subsidiary of Sears, and pertaining to any matter existing or occurring, or any acts or omissions occurring, at or prior to the Effective Time, whether asserted or claimed prior to, or at or after, the Effective Time (including matters, acts or omissions occurring in connection with the approval of this Agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby) to the same extent such persons are indemnified or have the right to advancement of expenses as of the date hereof by Sears pursuant to Sears's Restated Certificate of Incorporation, By-laws and indemnification agreements, if any, in existence on the date hereof with any directors, officers and employees of Sears and its Subsidiaries.

(c)

For a period of six years after the Effective Time, Holdco shall cause to be maintained in effect the current policies of directors' and officers' liability insurance maintained by Sears (provided that Holdco may substitute therefor policies with a substantially comparable insurer of at least the same coverage and amounts containing terms and conditions that are no less advantageous to the insured) with respect to claims arising from facts or events that occurred at or before the Effective Time; provided, however, that Holdco shall not be obligated to make annual premium payments for such insurance to the extent such premiums exceed 250% of the premiums paid as of the date hereof by Sears for such insurance ("Sears's Current Premium"), and if such premiums for such insurance would at any time exceed 250% of Sears's Current Premium, then Holdco shall cause to be maintained policies of insurance that, in Holdco's good faith determination, provide the maximum coverage available at an annual premium equal to 250% of Sears's Current Premium.

Kmart and Sears shall use reasonable best efforts (i) to develop a joint communications plan, (ii) to ensure that all press releases and other public statements with respect to the transactions contemplated hereby shall be consistent with such joint communications plan, and (iii) except in respect of any announcement required by applicable law or by obligations pursuant to any listing agreement with or rules of any securities exchange in which it is impracticable to consult with each other as contemplated by this clause (iii), to consult with each other before issuing any press release or, to the extent practical, otherwise making any public statement with respect to this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby. In addition to the foregoing, except to the extent disclosed in or consistent with the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus in accordance with the provisions of Section 5.1 or as otherwise permitted under Section 4.4, no party shall issue any press release or otherwise make any public statement or disclosure concerning the other party or the other party's business, financial condition or results of operations without the consent of such other party, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed. Each party shall provide the other party with its stockholder lists and allow and facilitate the other party's contact with its stockholders and prospective investors and following a Change in Sears Recommendation or Change in Kmart Recommendation, as the case may be, such contacts may be made without regard to the above limitations of this Section 5.12.

5.13.

ARTICLE VII
TERMINATION AND AMENDMENT

7.1.

Termination. This Agreement may be terminated at any time prior to the Effective Time, by action taken or authorized by the Board of Directors of the terminating party or parties, whether before or after any Required Stockholder Vote has been obtained:

- (a) by mutual consent of Kmart and Sears in a written instrument;
- (b) by either Kmart or Sears, upon written notice to the other party, if a Governmental Entity of competent jurisdiction that must grant a Requisite Regulatory Approval has denied approval of either Merger and such denial has become final and non-appealable; or any Governmental Entity of competent jurisdiction shall have issued an order, decree or ruling or taken any other action permanently restraining, enjoining or otherwise prohibiting either Merger, and such order, decree, ruling or other action has become final and non-appealable; provided, however, that the right to terminate this Agreement under this Section 7.1(b) shall not be available to any party whose failure to comply with Section 5.3 or any other provision of this Agreement has been the cause of, or resulted in, such action;
- (c) by either Kmart or Sears, upon written notice to the other party, if both Mergers shall not have been consummated on or before June 1, 2005 (or August 1, 2005 if on June 1, 2005 any Requisite Regulatory Approval shall not have been obtained but each other condition set forth in Article VI (other than such conditions that by their nature are to be satisfied on the Closing Date) shall have been satisfied); provided, however, that the right to terminate this Agreement under this Section 7.1(c) shall not be available to any party whose failure to comply with any provision of this Agreement has been the cause of, or resulted in, the failure of the Effective Time to occur on or before such date;
- (d) by Kmart, upon written notice to Sears, if Sears shall have: (i) failed to make the Sears Recommendation or effected a Change in Sears Recommendation (or resolved to take any such action) that is adverse to Kmart in any material respect, whether or not permitted by the terms hereof, (ii) materially breached its obligations under this Agreement by reason of a failure to call the Sears Stockholders Meeting in accordance with Section 5.1(b) or a failure to prepare and mail to its stockholders the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus in accordance with Section 5.1(a), or (iii) materially breached its obligations under Section 5.4;

- (f) by either Kmart or Sears, upon written notice to the other party, if there shall have been a breach by the other party of any of the covenants or agreements or any of the representations or warranties set forth in this Agreement on the part of such other party, which breach, either

individually or in the aggregate, would result in, if occurring or continuing on the Closing Date, the failure of the condition set forth in Section 6.2(a) or (b) or Section 6.3(a) or (b), as the case may be, and which breach has not been cured within 30 days following written notice thereof to the breaching party or, by its nature, cannot be cured within such time period; or by either Kmart or Sears, if the Required Kmart Vote or Required Sears Vote shall not have been obtained upon a vote taken thereon at the duly convened Kmart Stockholders Meeting or Sears Stockholders Meeting, as the case may be.

Effect of Termination.

In the event of termination of this Agreement by either Sears or Kmart as provided in Section 7.1, this Agreement shall forthwith become void, and there shall be no liability or obligation on the part of Kmart or Sears or their respective officers or directors, except with respect to Section 5.2(b) (Access to Information; Confidentiality), Section 5.9 (Fees and Expenses), this Section 7.2 (Effect of Termination), and Article VIII (General Provisions), which shall survive such termination and except that no party shall be relieved or released from any liabilities or damages arising out of its willful and material breach of this Agreement.

(b)

Kmart shall pay Sears, by wire transfer of immediately available funds to such accounts as Sears may designate, the sum of $380 million (the "Kmart Termination Fee") if this Agreement is terminated as follows:

7.3.

Amendment. This Agreement may be amended by the parties, by action taken or authorized by their respective Boards of Directors, at any time before or after approval of the matters presented in connection with this Agreement by the stockholders of Sears or of Kmart, but, after any such approval, no amendment shall be made which by law requires further approval by such stockholders without such further approval. This Agreement may not be amended except by an instrument in writing signed on behalf of each of the parties.

Extension; Waiver. At any time prior to the Effective Time, the parties, by action taken or authorized by their respective Board of Directors, may, to the extent permitted by applicable law,

Any waiver shall be effective only in the specific instance and for the specific purpose for which given and shall not constitute a waiver to any subsequent or other exercise of any right, remedy, power or privilege hereunder.

Interpretation. When a reference is made in this Agreement to Sections, Exhibits or Schedules, such reference shall be to a Section of or Exhibit or Schedule to this Agreement unless otherwise indicated. The table of contents and headings contained in this Agreement are for reference purposes only and shall not affect in any way the meaning or interpretation of this Agreement. Whenever the words "include", "includes" or "including" are used in this Agreement, they shall be deemed to be followed by the words "without limitation". The phrase "made available" in this Agreement shall mean that the information referred to has been made available by the party to whom such information is to be made available. The phrases "herein," "hereof," "hereunder" and words of similar import shall be deemed to refer to this Agreement as a whole, including the Exhibits and Schedules hereto, and not to any particular provision of this Agreement. The word "or" shall be inclusive and not exclusive. Any pronoun shall include the corresponding masculine, feminine and neuter forms. The phrases "known" or "knowledge" mean, with respect to either party to this Agreement, the actual knowledge of those of such party's executive officers who have been involved in the negotiation of this Agreement. The term "affiliate" has the meaning given to it in Rule 12b-2 of the Exchange Act, and the term "person" has the meaning given to it in Sections 3(a)(9) and 13(d)(3) of the Exchange Act.

Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, each of which shall be considered one and the same agreement and this Agreement shall become effective when a counterpart signed by each party shall be delivered to the other party, it being understood that both parties need not sign the same counterpart.

Entire Agreement; No Third Party Beneficiaries. This Agreement (including the documents and the instruments referred to herein) (a) constitutes the entire agreement and supersedes all prior agreements and understandings, both written and oral, between the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof, other than the Confidentiality Agreements, which shall survive the execution and delivery of this Agreement in accordance with their terms and (b) except as provided in Sections 5.10 and 5.11 (which are intended for the benefit of only the persons specifically named therein), is not intended to confer upon any person other than the parties any rights or remedies hereunder.

Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of Delaware, except that the NYBCL shall apply to the Sears Merger.

Severability. Any term or provision of this Agreement that is invalid or unenforceable in any jurisdiction shall, as to that jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of such invalidity or unenforceability and, unless the effect of such invalidity or unenforceability would prevent the parties from realizing the major portion of the economic benefits of the Mergers that they currently anticipate obtaining therefrom, shall not render invalid or unenforceable the remaining terms and provisions of this Agreement or affect the validity or enforceability of any of the terms or provisions of this Agreement in any other jurisdiction. If any provision of this Agreement is so broad as to be unenforceable, the provision shall be interpreted to be only so broad as is enforceable.

Assignment. Neither this Agreement nor any of the rights, interests or obligations of the parties hereunder shall be assigned by either party (whether by operation of law or otherwise) without the prior written consent of the other party, and any attempt to make any such assignment without such consent shall be null and void. Subject to the preceding sentence, this Agreement will be binding upon, inure to the benefit of and be enforceable by the parties and their respective successors and permitted assigns.

Submission to Jurisdiction. Each party irrevocably submits to the jurisdiction of (a) the Supreme Court of the State of New York, New York County, and (b) the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York, for the purposes of any suit, action or other proceeding arising out of this Agreement or any transaction contemplated hereby. Each party agrees to commence any action, suit or proceeding relating hereto either in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York or, if such suit, action or other proceeding may not be brought in such court for reasons of subject matter jurisdiction, in the Supreme Court of the State of New York, New York County. Each party irrevocably and unconditionally waives any objection to the laying of venue of any action, suit or proceeding arising out of this Agreement or any transaction contemplated hereby in (i) the Supreme Court of the State of New York, New York County, or (ii) the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York, and hereby further irrevocably and unconditionally waives and agrees not to plead or claim in any such court that any such action, suit or proceeding brought in any such court has been brought in an inconvenient forum. Each party further irrevocably consents to the service of process out of any of the aforementioned courts in any such suit, action or other proceeding by the mailing of copies thereof by mail to such party at its address set forth in this Agreement, such service of process to be effective upon acknowledgment of receipt of such registered mail; provided that nothing in this Section 8.9 shall affect the right of any party to serve legal process in any other manner permitted by law. The consent to jurisdiction set forth in this Section 8.9 shall not constitute a general consent to service of process in the State of New York and shall have no effect for any purpose except as provided in this Section 8.9. The parties agree that a final judgment in any such suit, action or proceeding shall be conclusive and may be enforced in other jurisdictions by suit on the judgment or in any other manner provided by law.

Enforcement. The parties agree that irreparable damage would occur in the event that any of the provisions of this Agreement were not performed in accordance with their specific terms on a timely basis or were otherwise breached. It is accordingly agreed that the parties shall be entitled to an injunction or other equitable relief to prevent breaches of this Agreement and to enforce specifically the terms and provisions of this Agreement in any court identified in the Section above, this being in addition to any other remedy to which they are entitled at law or in equity.

WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL. EACH OF THE PARTIES HEREBY WAIVES TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY JUDICIAL PROCEEDING DIRECTLY INVOLVING ANY MATTERS (WHETHER SOUNDING IN TORT, CONTRACT OR OTHERWISE) IN ANY WAY ARISING OUT OF, RELATED TO, OR CONNECTED WITH THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY TRANSACTION CONTEMPLATED HEREBY.

Ladies and Gentlemen:

The undersigned (the "Stockholders," and each a "Stockholder") understand that Kmart Holding Corporation, a Delaware corporation ("Kmart"), and Sears, Roebuck and Co., a New York corporation (the "Sears"), propose to enter into an Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of November 16, 2004 (the "Merger Agreement"), providing for, among other things, the Mergers, in which (i) each issued and outstanding share of common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of Kmart (the "Kmart Common Stock") (other than shares of Kmart Common Stock owned by Kmart or Kmart Merger Sub), will be cancelled and converted into one share of common stock, par value $0.01, of Holdco (the "Holdco Common Stock") and (ii) each issued and outstanding share of common stock, par value $0.75 per share, of Sears (the "Sears Common Stock," and together with the Kmart Common Stock, the "Common Stock") (other than shares of Sears Common Stock owned by Sears or Sears Merger Sub and Dissenting Shares) will be cancelled and converted into the right to receive, at the election of the holder thereof and subject to proration, $50 per share in cash or 0.50 of a share of Holdco Common Stock. Capitalized terms used without definition in this letter agreement shall have the meanings ascribed thereto in the Merger Agreement.

Each Stockholder is the beneficial and record owner of (i) that number of shares of Kmart Common Stock, (ii) that number of shares of Sears Common Stock, (iii) outstanding options, warrants and other derivative securities exercisable for such number of shares of Kmart Common Stock, and (iv) outstanding options, warrants and other derivative securities exercisable for such number of shares of Sears Common Stock, in each case, as set forth opposite the name of such Stockholder on Schedule I to this letter agreement. Each Stockholder in its capacity as such, is entering into this letter agreement in consideration of, and as a condition to, Kmart's and Sears's willingness to enter into the Merger Agreement and to consummate the transactions contemplated thereby.

1. Each Stockholder represents, warrants and agrees that (a) Schedule I to this letter agreement sets forth the number and type of shares of Common Stock (together with any shares of Common Stock acquired by such Stockholder on or after the date of this letter agreement, whether by exercise of the Derivative Securities or otherwise, the "Shares") and the number and type of shares of Common Stock that are issuable upon exercise of outstanding warrants, options or other derivative securities, whether or not exercisable (the "Derivative Securities"), of which such Stockholder is the record or beneficial owner, (b) such Stockholder owns such Shares and Derivative Securities, free and clear of all liens, charges, encumbrances, voting agreements and commitments of every kind, and (c) such Stockholder has the power to vote all Shares without restriction and that no proxies heretofore given in respect of any or all of the Shares are irrevocable and that any such proxies have heretofore been revoked.

2. Each Stockholder agrees that it will not, directly or indirectly, sell, transfer, assign, pledge, encumber or otherwise dispose of any of the Shares, or any interest therein, or any other securities convertible into or exchangeable for Common Stock (including the Derivative Securities), or any voting rights with respect thereto or enter into any contract, option or other arrangement or understanding with respect thereto (including any voting trust or agreement and the granting of any proxy), other than: (a) pursuant to the Mergers or (b) with the prior written consent of both Kmart and Sears. Each Stockholder hereby agrees to authorize and request each of Kmart and Sears to notify its transfer agent that there is a stop transfer order with respect to all of the Shares and that this letter agreement places limits on the voting of the Shares. If so requested by Kmart or Sears, as the case may be, each Stockholder agrees that the certificates representing Shares shall bear a legend stating that they are subject to this letter agreement and to the irrevocable proxy granted in paragraph 4 of this letter agreement.

3. (a) At every meeting of the stockholders of Kmart called, and at every postponement or adjournment thereof, and on every action or approval by written consent of the stockholders of Kmart, each Stockholder irrevocably agrees to vote any Shares entitled to be voted thereat or to cause any such Shares to be voted: (i) in favor of adoption of the Merger Agreement, (ii) in favor of the issuance of Holdco Common Stock in the Mergers, and (iii) against (A) any proposal made in opposition to adoption of the Merger Agreement or in competition or inconsistent with the Mergers or any other transaction contemplated by the Merger Agreement, (B) any Acquisition Proposal, (C) any change in the management or board of directors of Kmart (other than as contemplated by the Merger Agreement) and (D) any action or agreement that would result in a breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement or any other obligation of Kmart under the Merger Agreement or of such Stockholder under this letter agreement. The obligations of each Stockholder specified in this paragraph 3(b) shall apply whether or not (x) the Board of Directors of Kmart (or any committee thereof) shall (I) withdraw or modify (or adopt or approve any resolution to, or publicly disclose its intention to, withdraw or modify) its recommendation to the holders of Kmart Common Stock, to vote in favor of the adoption of the Merger Agreement or (II) recommend any Acquisition Proposal (either action described in clause (I) or (II), a "Change in Kmart Recommendation"), or (y) Kmart breaches any of its representations, warranties, agreements or covenants set forth in the Merger Agreement; provided, however, that, in the event of a Change in Kmart Recommendation, the obligation of the Stockholders to vote Shares in the manner set forth in clauses (i) through (iii) of this paragraph 3(a) shall only apply to an aggregate number of Shares that is equal to one third of the total number of shares of Kmart Common Stock entitled to vote in respect of such matter and the Stockholders shall cause all remaining Shares to be voted in a manner that is proportionate to the manner in which all holders of shares of Kmart Common Stock (other than the Stockholders) vote in respect of such matter.

(b) At every meeting of the stockholders of Sears, called, and at every postponement or adjournment thereof, each Stockholder irrevocably agrees to vote any Shares entitled to be voted thereat or to cause any such Shares to be voted: (i) in favor of adoption of the Merger Agreement and (ii) against (A) any proposal made in opposition to adoption of the Merger Agreement or in competition or inconsistent with the Mergers or any other transaction contemplated by the Merger Agreement, (B) any Acquisition Proposal, (C) any change in the management or board of directors of Sears (other than in connection with the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement) and (D) any action or agreement that would result in a breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement or any other obligation of Sears under the Merger Agreement or of such Stockholder under this letter agreement. The obligations of each Stockholder specified in this paragraph 3(b) shall apply whether or not (x) the Board of Directors of Sears (or any committee thereof) shall (I) withdraw or modify (or adopt or approve any resolution to, or publicly disclose its intention to, withdraw or modify) its recommendation to the holders of Sears Common Stock, to vote in favor of the adoption of the Merger Agreement or (II) recommend any Acquisition Proposal, or (y) Sears breaches any of its representations, warranties, agreements or covenants set forth in the Merger Agreement.

4. In furtherance of the agreements contained in paragraph 3(a) of this letter agreement and as security for such agreement, each Stockholder hereby irrevocably appoints Alan J. Lacy and Glenn R. Richter (the "Grantees"), and each of them individually, as the sole and exclusive attorneys-in-fact and proxies of such Stockholder, for and in the name, place and stead of such Stockholder, with full power of substitution and resubstitution, to vote, grant a consent or approval in respect of, or execute and deliver a proxy to vote, those Shares that are Kmart Common Stock, subject to the proviso contained in paragraph 3(a) of this letter agreement, (a) in favor of the adoption of the Merger Agreement, (b) in favor of the issuance of Holdco Common Stock in the Mergers, (c) against any matter referred to in paragraph 3(a)(iii) of this letter agreement and (d) in the discretion of the Grantees, with respect to any proposed postponements or adjournments of any annual or special meeting of the stockholders of Kmart held in connection with any of the foregoing. Each Stockholder hereby affirms that the irrevocable proxy set forth in this paragraph 4 is given in connection with, and in consideration of, the execution of the Merger Agreement by Kmart and Sears, and that such irrevocable proxy is given to secure the performance of the duties of such Stockholder under this letter agreement. Each Stockholder hereby further affirms that the proxy granted in this paragraph 4 is coupled with an interest and may under no circumstances be revoked. Each Stockholder hereby ratifies and confirms all that the Grantees may lawfully do or cause to be done by virtue hereof. The proxy contained herein with respect to shares of Kmart Common Stock is intended to be irrevocable in accordance with the provisions of Section 212(e) of the Delaware General Corporation Law.

5. Each Stockholder agrees to make a Stock Election with respect to the conversion of all shares of Sears Common Stock beneficially owned by such Stockholder in the Sears Merger.

6. Each Stockholder represents and warrants that there is, as of the date hereof, and as of the Closing Date there will be, no binding commitment or present plan or intention to sell, exchange or otherwise dispose of any of the Holdco Common Stock that such Stockholder will receive pursuant to or in connection with the Kmart Merger or the Sears Merger. Each Stockholder agrees to deliver an officer's certificate to such effect in connection with the tax opinions contemplated by Sections 6.2(c) and 6.3(c) of the Merger Agreement.

7. The parties acknowledge and agree that nothing contained in this letter agreement shall restrict, limit or prohibit any affiliate of any Stockholder from exercising (in his capacity as a director of Kmart or any such person) his fiduciary duties as such a director.

8. Each Stockholder represents and warrants that it has all necessary power and authority to enter into this letter agreement, and that this letter agreement is the legal, valid and binding agreement of such Stockholder and is enforceable against such Stockholder in accordance with its terms.

9. This letter agreement may be terminated at the option of either party at any time after the earlier of (a) termination of the Merger Agreement in accordance with its terms or (b) the day following the Effective Time.

10. This agreement shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of Delaware, without giving effect to principles of conflict of laws.

11. Each Stockholder recognizes and acknowledges that a breach by it of any covenants or agreements contained in this letter agreement will cause Kmart and Sears to sustain damages for which they would not have an adequate remedy at law for money damages, and therefore each Stockholder agrees that in the event of any such breach, Kmart or Sears shall be entitled to specific performance of such covenants and agreements and injunctive and other equitable relief in addition to any other remedy to which it may be entitled, at law or in equity.

12. The effectiveness of this letter agreement shall be conditioned upon the execution and delivery of the Merger Agreement by each of the parties thereto.

13. Each Stockholder agrees that this letter agreement and the obligations hereunder shall attach to the Shares and shall be binding upon any person or entity to which legal or beneficial ownership of the Shares shall pass, whether by operation of law or otherwise.

Board of Directors
3100 West Big Beaver Road
Troy, MI 48084

Members of the Board:

We understand that Kmart Holding Corporation, a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), and Sears, Roebuck and Co., a New York Corporation ("Sears"), intend to enter into an Agreement and Plan of Merger dated as of November 16, 2004 (the "Agreement") pursuant to which (i) the Company will organize a new holding company ("Holdco") and two wholly owned subsidiaries of Holdco (the "Merger Subs") and (ii) each of the Company and Sears will merge with and into a Merger Sub, with the Company and Sears each surviving the merger as a wholly owned subsidiary of Holdco (the "Proposed Transaction"). Upon the effectiveness of the Proposed Transaction, (x) each issued and outstanding common share, par value $0.75 per share, of Sears ("Sears Share") will be converted into a right to receive, at the election of the holder thereof, either of (A) an amount of cash equal to $50.00 (the "Cash Consideration"); or (B) 0.5 shares of common stock, par value $0.01 per share of Holdco (the "Stock Consideration"), in each case subject to certain election and pro-rata procedures and adjustments with respect to the final allocation of the Stock Consideration and the Cash Consideration to be paid by Holdco and (y) each issued and outstanding share of common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of the Company ("Company Share") will be converted into one share of common stock, par value of $0.01 per share of Holdco. We further understand that the aggregate amount of Cash Consideration and Stock Consideration (the "Consideration") to be paid by Holdco in the Proposed Transaction will be adjusted so that the holders of 45% of Sears Shares will receive the Cash Consideration and the remaining Sears Shares will receive the Stock Consideration. The terms and conditions of the Proposed Transaction are set forth in more detail in the Agreement.

We have been requested by the Board of Directors of the Company to render our opinion with respect to the fairness, from a financial point of view to the Company and, accordingly, to its stockholders, of the Consideration to be paid to the stockholders of Sears pursuant to the Proposed Transaction. We have not been requested to opine as to, and our opinion does not in any manner address, the Company's underlying business decision to proceed with or effect the Proposed Transaction.

In arriving at our opinion, we reviewed and analyzed: (1) the Agreement and the specific terms of the Proposed Transaction; (2) publicly available information concerning the Company and Sears that we believe to be relevant to our analysis, including certain periodic reports filed by the Company and Sears including their respective most recent Annual Reports on Form 10-K and Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q; (3) financial and operating information with respect to the business, operations and prospects of the Company furnished to us by the Company, including financial projections of the Company prepared by the Company's management; (4) financial and operating information with respect to the business, operations and prospects of Sears furnished to us by Sears, including financial projections of Sears prepared by Sears' management; (5) trading histories of the Company Shares and of Sears Shares from May 6, 2003 through November 15, 2004, respectively, and a comparison of each of their trading histories with those of other companies that we deemed relevant; (6) a comparison of the historical financial results and present financial condition of both the Company and Sears with those of other companies that we deemed relevant; (7) a comparison of the financial terms of the Proposed Transaction with the financial terms of certain other transactions that we deemed relevant;

(8) publicly available research estimates with respect to both the Company and Sears; and (9) the pro forma impact of the Proposed Transaction on the future financial performance of the Company, Sears and Holdco, including the cost savings, operating synergies and other strategic benefits expected by management of the Company to result from the combination of the businesses of the Company and Sears. In addition, we have had discussions with the managements of the Company and Sears concerning their respective businesses, operations, assets, financial condition and prospects and have undertaken such other studies, analyses and investigations as we deemed appropriate.

In arriving at our opinion, we have assumed and relied upon the accuracy and completeness of the financial and other information used by us without assuming any responsibility for independent verification of such information. With respect to the financial projections of the Company and Sears, upon advice of the Company we have assumed that such projections have been reasonably prepared on a basis reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of the managements of the Company and Sears as to the future financial performance of the Company and Sears and that the Company and Sears will perform substantially in accordance with such projections. In arriving at our opinion, we have not conducted a physical inspection of the properties and facilities of the Company or Sears and have not made or obtained any evaluations or appraisals of the assets or liabilities of the Company or Sears. Our opinion necessarily is based upon market, economic and other conditions as they exist on, and can be evaluated as of, the date of this letter.

Based upon and subject to the foregoing, we are of the opinion as of the date hereof that, from a financial point of view, the Consideration to be paid to the stockholders of Sears pursuant to the Proposed Transaction is fair to the Company and, accordingly, to its stockholders.

We have acted as financial advisor to the Company in connection with the Proposed Transaction and will receive a fixed fee for our services in rendering this opinion. In addition, the Company has agreed to indemnify us for certain liabilities that may arise out of the rendering of this opinion. We also have performed various investment banking services for the Company and Sears in the past and have received customary fees for such services. In the ordinary course of our business, we actively trade in the outstanding securities of the Company and Sears for our own account and for the accounts of our customers and, accordingly, may at any time hold a long or short position in such securities.

This opinion is for the use and benefit of the Board of Directors of the Company and is rendered to the Board of Directors in connection with its consideration of the Proposed Transaction. This opinion is not intended to be and does not constitute a recommendation to any stockholder of the Company as to how such stockholder should vote with respect to the Proposed Transaction.

Very truly yours,

LEHMAN BROTHERS

Board of Directors
Sears, Roebuck and Co.

Hoffman Estates, Illinois 60179

Members of the Board:

We understand that Sears, Roebuck and Co. (the "Company") and Kmart Holding Corporation ("Kmart") propose to enter into an Agreement and Plan of Merger, substantially in the form of the draft dated November 15, 2004 (the "Merger Agreement"), which provides, among other things, for the merger of a wholly owned subsidiary ("Company Merger Sub") of a newly created subsidiary of Kmart ("Holdco"), with and into the Company (the "Company Merger"). Simultaneously with the Company Merger, we also understand that another wholly owned subsidiary of Holdco ("Kmart Merger Sub") will merge with and into Kmart (the "Kmart Merger", and together with the Company Merger, the "Mergers"). Pursuant to the Mergers, the Company and Kmart will become wholly owned subsidiaries of Holdco and (i) each issued and outstanding common share, par value $0.75 per share, of the Company (the "Company Common Stock"), other than shares held in treasury or by Kmart or any wholly owned direct or indirect subsidiary of the Company or Kmart or as to which dissenters' rights have been perfected, will be converted into the right to receive, at the holder's election, $50.00 in cash without interest or 0.5 shares of common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of Holdco (the "Holdco Common Stock"), subject to proration pursuant to the formula set forth in the Merger Agreement (the "Consideration") and (ii) each issued and outstanding share of common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of Kmart (the "Kmart Common Stock"), other than shares held in treasury or by the Company or any wholly owned direct or indirect subsidiary of the Company or Kmart will be converted into the right to receive one share of Holdco Common Stock. The terms and conditions of the Mergers are more fully set forth in the Merger Agreement. We further understand that approximately 15% of the total outstanding shares of Company Common Stock are owned by ESL Investments, Inc. and its affiliates (collectively, "ESL"), a holder of approximately 53% of the outstanding shares of Kmart Common Stock. In addition, we understand that ESL will elect to receive Holdco Common Stock in the Company Merger in respect of all of its shares of Company Common Stock.

You have asked for our opinion as to whether the Consideration to be received by the holders of shares of Company Common Stock pursuant to the Merger Agreement is fair from a financial point of view to such holders (other than ESL).

For purposes of the opinion set forth herein, we have:

- i) reviewed certain publicly available financial statements and other business and financial information of the Company and Kmart;
- ii) reviewed certain internal financial statements and other financial and operating data concerning the Company and Kmart prepared by the management of the Company and Kmart, respectively;
- iii) reviewed certain financial projections prepared by the management of the Company and Kmart;
- iv) discussed the past and current operations and financial condition and the prospects of the Company and Kmart with senior management of the Company and Kmart, respectively;
- v) reviewed the reported prices and trading activity for the Company Common Stock and Kmart Common Stock;
- vi) compared the financial performance of the Company and the prices and trading activity of the Company Common Stock with that of certain other comparable publicly-traded companies and their securities;
- vii) compared the financial performance of Kmart and the prices and trading activity of Kmart Common Stock with that of certain other comparable publicly-traded companies and their securities;
- viii) reviewed the financial terms, to the extent publicly available, of certain comparable acquisition transactions;
- ix) discussed the information relating to strategic, financial and operational benefits anticipated from the Mergers and the strategic rationale for the Mergers, with senior management of the Company and Kmart;
- x) participated in discussions and negotiations among representatives of the Company and Kmart and their financial and legal advisors;
- xi) reviewed the draft Merger Agreement and certain related documents;
- xii) reviewed analysis prepared by a certain third party advisor to the Company related to the value of certain Company real estate assets; and
- xiii) performed such other analyses and considered such other factors as we have deemed appropriate.

We have assumed and relied upon without independent verification the accuracy and completeness of the information supplied or otherwise made available to us by the Company and Kmart for the purposes of this opinion. With respect to the financial projections and other financial and operating data, including information relating to certain strategic, financial and operational benefits anticipated from the Mergers, we have assumed that they have been reasonably prepared on bases reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of the future financial performance of the Company and Kmart. In addition, we have assumed that the Mergers will be consummated in accordance with the terms set forth in the Merger Agreement, including among other things, that the Mergers will be treated as a tax-free restructuring, pursuant to the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. We have not made any independent valuation or appraisal of the assets or liabilities of the Company or Kmart; however we have reviewed the report of the third party advisor to the Company with respect to certain real estate assets of the Company and have relied without independent verification on such report. Our opinion is necessarily based on financial, economic, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to us as of, the date hereof.

In arriving at our opinion, we were not authorized to solicit, and did not solicit, interest from any party with respect to the acquisition of the Company, nor did we negotiate with any parties, other than Kmart, which may have expressed interest in the possible acquisition of, or combination with, the Company.

We have acted as financial advisor to the Board of Directors of the Company in connection with this transaction and will receive a fee for our services, a significant portion of which is contingent upon the closing of the Mergers. In the past, Morgan Stanley & Co. Incorporated ("Morgan Stanley") and its affiliates have provided financial advisory and financing services for the Company and Kmart and have received fees for the rendering of these services. An affiliate of Morgan Stanley also participates with others in an existing $2.0 billion revolving three year credit facility of a subsidiary of Sears. In addition, Morgan Stanley is a full service securities firm engaged in securities trading, investment management and brokerage services. In the ordinary course of its trading, brokerage, investment management and financing activities, Morgan Stanley or its affiliates may actively trade the debt and equity securities or senior loans of the Company or Kmart for its own accounts or for the accounts of its customers or its managed investment accounts and, accordingly, may at any time hold long or short positions in such securities or senior loans.

It is understood that this letter is for the information of the Board of Directors of the Company and may not be disclosed or referred to publicly or used for any other purpose without our prior written consent, except that this opinion may be included in its entirety in any filing made by the Company or Holdco in respect of the Mergers with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission. In addition, this opinion does not in any manner address the prices at which Kmart Common Stock or Holdco Common Stock will trade at any time, and Morgan Stanley expresses no opinion or recommendation as to how the shareholders of the Company and Kmart should vote at the shareholders' meetings held in connection with the Mergers.

Based upon and subject to the foregoing, we are of the opinion on the date hereof that the Consideration to be received by the holders of shares of Company Common Stock pursuant to the Merger Agreement is fair from a financial point of view to such holders (other than ESL).

Very truly yours,

SECTION 623 AND SECTION 910 OF THE NEW YORK BUSINESS CORPORATION LAWSection 623 Procedure to enforce shareholder's right to receive payment for shares.

(a) A shareholder intending to enforce his right under a section of this chapter to receive payment for his shares if the proposed corporate action referred to therein is taken shall file with the corporation, before the meeting of shareholders at which the action is submitted to a vote, or at such meeting but before the vote, written objection to the action. The objection shall include a notice of his election to dissent, his name and residence address, the number and classes of shares as to which he dissents and a demand for payment of the fair value of his shares if the action is taken. Such objection is not required from any shareholder to whom the corporation did not give notice of such meeting in accordance with this chapter or where the proposed action is authorized by written consent of shareholders without a meeting.

(b) Within ten days after the shareholders' authorization date, which term as used in this section means the date on which the shareholders' vote authorizing such action was taken, or the date on which such consent without a meeting was obtained from the requisite shareholders, the corporation shall give written notice of such authorization or consent by registered mail to each shareholder who filed written objection or from whom written objection was not required, excepting any shareholder who voted for or consented in writing to the proposed action and who thereby is deemed to have elected not to enforce his right to receive payment for his shares.

(c) Within twenty days after the giving of notice to him, any shareholder from whom written objection was not required and who elects to dissent shall file with the corporation a written notice of such election, stating his name and residence address, the number and classes of shares as to which he dissents and a demand for payment of the fair value of his shares. Any shareholder who elects to dissent from a merger under section 905 (Merger of subsidiary corporation) or paragraph (c) of section 907 (Merger or consolidation of domestic and foreign corporations) or from a share exchange under paragraph (g) of section 913 (Share exchanges) shall file a written notice of such election to dissent within twenty days after the giving to him of a copy of the plan of merger or exchange or an outline of the material features thereof under section 905 or 913.

(d) A shareholder may not dissent as to less than all of the shares, as to which he has a right to dissent, held by him of record, that he owns beneficially. A nominee or fiduciary may not dissent on behalf of any beneficial owner as to less than all of the shares of such owner, as to which such nominee or fiduciary has a right to dissent, held of record by such nominee or fiduciary.

(e) Upon consummation of the corporate action, the shareholder shall cease to have any of the rights of a shareholder except the right to be paid the fair value of his shares and any other rights under this section. A notice of election may be withdrawn by the shareholder at any time prior to his acceptance in writing of an offer made by the corporation, as provided in paragraph (g), but in no case later than sixty days from the date of consummation of the corporate action except that if the corporation fails to make a timely offer, as provided in paragraph (g), the time for withdrawing a notice of election shall be extended until sixty days from the date an offer is made. Upon expiration of such time, withdrawal of a notice of election shall require the written consent of the corporation. In order to be effective, withdrawal of a notice of election must be accompanied by the return to the corporation of any advance payment made to the shareholder as provided in paragraph (g). If a notice of election is withdrawn, or the corporate action is rescinded, or a court shall determine that the shareholder is not entitled to receive payment for his shares, or the shareholder shall otherwise lose his dissenters rights, he shall not have the right to receive payment for his shares and he shall be reinstated to all his rights as a shareholder as of the consummation of the corporate action, including any intervening preemptive rights and the right to payment of any intervening dividend or other distribution or, if any such rights have expired or any such dividend or distribution other than in cash has been completed, in lieu thereof, at the election of the corporation, the fair value thereof in cash as determined by the board as of the time of such expiration or completion, but without prejudice otherwise to any corporate proceedings that may have been taken in the interim.

(f) At the time of filing the notice of election to dissent or within one month thereafter the shareholder of shares represented by certificates shall submit the certificates representing his shares to the corporation, or to its transfer agent, which shall forthwith note conspicuously thereon that a notice of election has been filed and shall return the certificates to the shareholder or other person who submitted them on his behalf. Any shareholder of shares represented by certificates who fails to submit his certificates for such notation as herein specified shall, at the option of the corporation exercised by written notice to him within forty-five days from the date of filing of such notice of election to dissent, lose his dissenters rights unless a court, for good cause shown, shall otherwise direct. Upon transfer of a certificate bearing such notation, each new certificate issued therefor shall bear a similar notation together with the name of the original dissenting holder of the shares and a transferee shall acquire no rights in the corporation except those which the original dissenting shareholder had at the time of transfer.

(g) Within fifteen days after the expiration of the period within which shareholders may file their notices of election to dissent, or within fifteen days after the proposed corporate action is consummated, whichever is later (but in no case later than ninety days from the shareholders' authorization date), the corporation or, in the case of a merger or consolidation, the surviving or new corporation, shall make a written offer by registered mail to each shareholder who has filed such notice of election to pay for his shares at a specified price which the corporation considers to be their fair value. Such offer shall be accompanied by a statement setting forth the aggregate number of shares with respect to which notices of election to dissent have been received and the aggregate number of holders of such shares. If the corporate action has been consummated, such offer shall also be accompanied by (1) advance payment to each such shareholder who has submitted the certificates representing his shares to the corporation, as provided in paragraph (f), of an amount equal to eighty percent of the amount of such offer, or (2) as to each shareholder who has not yet submitted his certificates a statement that advance payment to him of an amount equal to eighty percent of the amount of such offer will be made by the corporation promptly upon submission of his certificates. If the corporate action has not been consummated at the time of the making of the offer, such advance payment or statement as to advance payment shall be sent to each shareholder entitled thereto forthwith upon consummation of the corporate action. Every advance payment or statement as to advance payment shall include advice to the shareholder to the effect that acceptance of such payment does not constitute a waiver of any dissenters' rights. If the corporate action has not been consummated upon the expiration of the ninety day period after the shareholders' authorization date, the offer may be conditioned upon the consummation of such action. Such offer shall be made at the same price per share to all dissenting shareholders of the same class, or if divided into series, of the same series and shall be accompanied by a balance sheet of the corporation whose shares the dissenting shareholder holds as of the latest available date, which shall not be earlier than twelve months before the making of such offer, and a profit and loss statement or statements for not less than a twelve month period ended on the date of such balance sheet or, if the corporation was not in existence throughout such twelve month period, for the portion thereof during which it was in existence. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the corporation shall not be required to furnish a balance sheet or profit and loss statement or statements to any shareholder to whom such balance sheet or profit and loss statement or statements were previously furnished, nor if in connection with obtaining the shareholders' authorization for or consent to the proposed corporate action the shareholders were furnished with a proxy or information statement, which included financial statements, pursuant to Regulation 14A or Regulation 14C of the United States Securities and Exchange Commission. If within thirty days after the making of such offer, the corporation making the offer and any shareholder agree upon the price to be paid for his shares, payment therefor shall be made within sixty days after the making of such offer or the consummation of the proposed corporate action, whichever is later, upon the surrender of the certificates for any such shares represented by certificates.

(h) The following procedure shall apply if the corporation fails to make such offer within such period of fifteen days, or if it makes the offer and any dissenting shareholder or shareholders fail to agree with it within the period of thirty days thereafter upon the price to be paid for their shares:

(1) The corporation shall, within twenty days after the expiration of whichever is applicable of the two periods last mentioned, institute a special proceeding in the supreme court in the judicial district in which the office of the corporation is located to determine the rights of dissenting shareholders and to fix the fair value of their shares. If, in the case of merger or consolidation, the surviving or new corporation is a foreign corporation without an office in this state, such proceeding shall be brought in the county where the office of the domestic corporation, whose shares are to be valued, was located.

(2) If the corporation fails to institute such proceeding within such period of twenty days, any dissenting shareholder may institute such proceeding for the same purpose not later than thirty days after the expiration of such twenty day period. If such proceeding is not instituted within such thirty day period, all dissenters rights shall be lost unless the supreme court, for good cause shown, shall otherwise direct.

(3) All dissenting shareholders, excepting those who, as provided in paragraph (g), have agreed with the corporation upon the price to be paid for their shares, shall be made parties to such proceeding, which shall have the effect of an action quasi in rem against their shares. The corporation shall serve a copy of the petition in such proceeding upon each dissenting shareholder who is a resident of this state in the manner provided by law for the service of a summons, and upon each nonresident dissenting shareholder either by registered mail and publication, or in such other manner as is permitted by law. The jurisdiction of the court shall be plenary and exclusive.

(4) The court shall determine whether each dissenting shareholder, as to whom the corporation requests the court to make such determination, is entitled to receive payment for his shares. If the corporation does not request any such determination or if the court finds that any dissenting shareholder is so entitled, it shall proceed to fix the value of the shares, which, for the purposes of this section, shall be the fair value as of the close of business on the day prior to the shareholders' authorization date. In fixing the fair value of the shares, the court shall consider the nature of the transaction giving rise to the shareholder's right to receive payment for shares and its effects on the corporation and its shareholders, the concepts and methods then customary in the relevant securities and financial markets for determining fair value of shares of a corporation engaging in a similar transaction under comparable circumstances and all other relevant factors. The court shall determine the fair value of the shares without a jury and without referral to an appraiser or referee. Upon application by the corporation or by any shareholder who is a party to the proceeding, the court may, in its discretion, permit pretrial disclosure, including, but not limited to, disclosure of any expert's reports relating to the fair value of the shares whether or not intended for use at the trial in the proceeding and notwithstanding subdivision (d) of section 3101 of the civil practice law and rules.

(5) The final order in the proceeding shall be entered against the corporation in favor of each dissenting shareholder who is a party to the proceeding and is entitled thereto for the value of his shares so determined.

(6) The final order shall include an allowance for interest at such rate as the court finds to be equitable, from the date the corporate action was consummated to the date of payment. In determining the rate of interest, the court shall consider all relevant factors, including the rate of interest which the corporation would have had to pay to borrow money during the pendency of the proceeding. If the court finds that the refusal of any shareholder to accept the corporate offer of payment for his shares was arbitrary, vexatious or otherwise not in good faith, no interest shall be allowed to him.

(7) Each party to such proceeding shall bear its own costs and expenses, including the fees and expenses of its counsel and of any experts employed by it. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the court may, in its discretion, apportion and assess all or any part of the costs, expenses and fees incurred by the corporation against any or all of the dissenting shareholders who are parties to the proceeding, including any who have withdrawn their notices of election as provided in paragraph (e), if the court finds that their refusal to accept the corporate offer was arbitrary, vexatious or otherwise not in good faith. The court may, in its discretion, apportion and assess all or any part of the costs, expenses and fees incurred by any or all of the dissenting shareholders who are parties to the proceeding against the corporation if the court finds any of the following: (A) that the fair value of the shares as determined materially exceeds the amount which the corporation offered to pay; (B) that no offer or required advance payment was made by the corporation; (C) that the corporation failed to institute the special proceeding within the period specified therefor; or (D) that the action of the corporation in complying with its obligations as provided in this section was arbitrary, vexatious or otherwise not in good faith. In making any determination as provided in clause (A), the court may consider the dollar amount or the percentage, or both, by which the fair value of the shares as determined exceeds the corporate offer.

(8) Within sixty days after final determination of the proceeding, the corporation shall pay to each dissenting shareholder the amount found to be due him, upon surrender of the certificates for any such shares represented by certificates.

(i) Shares acquired by the corporation upon the payment of the agreed value therefor or of the amount due under the final order, as provided in this section, shall become treasury shares or be cancelled as provided in section 515 (Reacquired shares), except that, in the case of a merger or consolidation, they may be held and disposed of as the plan of merger or consolidation may otherwise provide.

(j) No payment shall be made to a dissenting shareholder under this section at a time when the corporation is insolvent or when such payment would make it insolvent. In such event, the dissenting shareholder shall, at his option:

(1) Withdraw his notice of election, which shall in such event be deemed withdrawn with the written consent of the corporation; or

(2) Retain his status as a claimant against the corporation and, if it is liquidated, be subordinated to the rights of creditors of the corporation, but have rights superior to the non-dissenting shareholders, and if it is not liquidated, retain his right to be paid for his shares, which right the corporation shall be obliged to satisfy when the restrictions of this paragraph do not apply.

(3) The dissenting shareholder shall exercise such option under subparagraph (1) or (2) by written notice filed with the corporation within thirty days after the corporation has given him written notice that payment for his shares cannot be made because of the restrictions of this paragraph. If the dissenting shareholder fails to exercise such option as provided, the corporation shall exercise the option by written notice given to him within twenty days after the expiration of such period of thirty days.

(k) The enforcement by a shareholder of his right to receive payment for his shares in the manner provided herein shall exclude the enforcement by such shareholder of any other right to which he might otherwise be entitled by virtue of share ownership, except as provided in paragraph (e), and except that this section shall not exclude the right of such shareholder to bring or maintain an appropriate action to obtain relief on the ground that such corporate action will be or is unlawful or fraudulent as to him.

(l) Except as otherwise expressly provided in this section, any notice to be given by a corporation to a shareholder under this section shall be given in the manner provided in section 605 (Notice of meetings of shareholders).

(m) This section shall not apply to foreign corporations except as provided in subparagraph (e)(2) of section 907 (Merger or consolidation of domestic and foreign corporations).

Section 910 Right of shareholder to receive payment for shares upon merger or consolidation, or sale, lease, exchange or other disposition of assets, or share exchange.

(a) A shareholder of a domestic corporation shall, subject to and by complying with section 623 (Procedure to enforce shareholder's right to receive payment for shares), have the right to receive payment of the fair value of his shares and the other rights and benefits provided by such section, in the following cases:

(1) Any shareholder entitled to vote who does not assent to the taking of an action specified in clauses (A), (B) and (C).

(A) Any plan of merger or consolidation to which the corporation is a party; except that the right to receive payment of the fair value of his shares shall not be available:

(i)

To a shareholder of the parent corporation in a merger authorized by section 905 (Merger of parent and subsidiary corporations), or paragraph (c) of section 907 (Merger or consolidation of domestic and foreign corporations); or

(ii)

To a shareholder of the surviving corporation in a merger authorized by this article, other than a merger specified in subclause (i), unless such merger effects one or more of the changes specified in subparagraph (b) (6) of section 806 (Provisions as to certain proceedings) in the rights of the shares held by such shareholder; or

(iii)

Notwithstanding subclause (ii) of this clause, to a shareholder for the shares of any class or series of stock, which shares or depository receipts in respect thereof, at the record date fixed to determine the shareholders entitled to receive notice of the meeting of shareholders to vote upon the plan of merger or consolidation, were listed on a national securities exchange or designated as a national market system security on an interdealer quotation system by the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc.

(B) Any sale, lease, exchange or other disposition of all or substantially all of the assets of a corporation which requires shareholder approval under section 909 (Sale, lease, exchange or other disposition of assets) other than a transaction wholly for cash where the shareholders' approval thereof is conditioned upon the dissolution of the corporation and the distribution of substantially all of its net assets to the shareholders in accordance with their respective interests within one year after the date of such transaction.

(C) Any share exchange authorized by section 913 in which the corporation is participating as a subject corporation; except that the right to receive payment of the fair value of his shares shall not be available to a shareholder whose shares have not been acquired in the exchange or to a shareholder for the shares of any class or series of stock, which shares or depository receipt in respect thereof, at the record date fixed to determine the shareholders entitled to receive notice of the meeting of shareholders to vote upon the plan of exchange, were listed on a national securities exchange or designated as a national market system security on an interdealer quotation system by the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc.

(2) Any shareholder of the subsidiary corporation in a merger authorized by section 905 or paragraph (c) of section 907, or in a share exchange authorized by paragraph (g) of section 913, who files with the corporation a written notice of election to dissent as provided in paragraph (c) of section 623.

(3) Any shareholder, not entitled to vote with respect to a plan of merger or consolidation to which the corporation is a party, whose shares will be cancelled or exchanged in the merger or consolidation for cash or other consideration other than shares of the surviving or consolidated corporation or another corporation.

2. Issuance of Preferred Stock in Series. The Board of Directors shall have authority to divide and issue shares of Preferred Stock into series and, within the limitations set forth in the Corporation's Restated Certificate of Incorporation, to fix and determine the relative rights and preferences of the shares of any series so established. Each series of Preferred Stock shall be designated by the Board of Directors as to distinguish the shares thereof from the shares of all other series of Preferred Stock and other classes of stock of the Corporation. Before any shares of any such series are issued, the Board of Directors shall fix, and hereby is expressly empowered to fix, by resolution or resolutions, the following provisions of the shares thereof: (a) the rate of dividend, the extent of further participation in dividend distributions, if any, and the preferences or relation which such dividends shall bear to the dividends payable on any shares of stock of any other class or any other series of this class; (b) the price and the terms and conditions on which the shares are redeemable; (c) the amount payable upon shares in event of voluntary or involuntary liquidation; (d) sinking fund provisions for the redemption or purchase of shares; (e) the terms and conditions on which shares are convertible; (f) except as provided in paragraph 3 below, the circumstances under which shares are entitled to vote; and (g) any other powers, preferences and relative, participating, optional and other special rights, and any qualifications, limitations and restrictions thereof.

The powers, preferences and relative, participating, optional and other special rights of each series of Preferred Stock, and the qualifications, limitations and restrictions thereof, if any, may differ from those of any and all other series at any time outstanding. All shares of any one series of Preferred Stock shall be identical in all respects with all other shares of such series, except that shares of any one series issued at different times may differ as to the dates from which dividends thereon shall accrue and/or be cumulative.

3. Dividends. The holders of Preferred Stock of each series shall be entitled to receive out of any funds legally available therefor, when and as declared by the Board of Directors, dividends in such amount as may be fixed by the Board of Directors in accordance with the resolution adopted providing for the issue of such series before any dividend (other than dividends payable in Common Stock) shall be paid on the Common Stock or other stock ranking junior to the applicable series of Preferred Stock. Such dividends shall be cumulative from the date or dates fixed in the resolution adopted by the Board of Directors providing for the issue of such series. Whenever dividends on a series of Preferred Stock shall be in arrears in an aggregate amount equivalent to six quarterly dividends on all shares of such series of Preferred Stock at the time outstanding, then and in such event the shares of all series of Preferred Stock in such arrears then outstanding, voting separately as a class, shall be entitled at each meeting of stockholders thereafter held for the election of directors to elect two of the total number of directors to be elected at such meeting.

Such right shall continue until such time as all accumulated dividends on all such series of Preferred Stock at the time outstanding have been paid or declared and set aside for payment. While holders of Preferred Stock voting as a class are entitled to elect two directors, they shall not be entitled to participate with the holders of Common Stock in the election of any other directors, if applicable. In the event any vacancy shall occur in the case of a director elected by holders of such series of Preferred Stock voting as a class (unless at the time such vacancy occurs all accumulated dividends on the Preferred Stock shall have been paid or declared and set aside for payment), a special meeting of the holders of shares of all applicable series of Preferred Stock shall be called promptly to fill any such vacancy. Such meeting shall be held within 40 days after such call at a place and upon notice as provided for the holding of meetings of stockholders, except that no such special meeting shall be required to be called if any such vacancy shall occur less than 90 days before the date fixed for the Annual Meeting of Stockholders. The directors elected by the class vote of holders of such series of Preferred Stock shall serve until the next Annual Meeting of Stockholders or until their successors shall be elected and shall qualify; provided, however, that whenever during the term of office of the directors so elected, all accumulated dividends shall have been paid or declared and set aside for payment, the term of office of such directors shall forthwith terminate.

4. Preemptive Rights. The holders of shares of Preferred Stock shall have no preemptive right to subscribe for any additional shares of capital stock or other obligations convertible into shares of capital stock which may hereafter be issued by the Corporation.

ARTICLE V

The business and affairs of the Corporation shall be managed by or under the direction of a Board of Directors consisting of not less than three or more than fifteen directors, the exact number of directors to be determined from time to time by a resolution adopted by an affirmative vote of a majority of the entire Board of Directors.

A director shall hold office until the next Annual Meeting of Stockholders after which he or she was elected and until his or her successor shall be elected and shall qualify, subject, however to prior death, resignation, retirement, disqualification or removal from office. Unless and except to the extent that the By-Laws of the Corporation shall so require, the election of directors of the Corporation need not be by written ballot.

Any vacancy on the Board of Directors that occurs through death, resignation, retirement, disqualification, removal or other cause, or resulting from an increase in the number of directors, may be filled by the affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining directors, though less than a quorum, for a term of office continuing only until the next election of directors by the stockholders.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, whenever the holders of any one or more classes of Preferred Stock or series thereof issued by the Corporation shall have the right, voting separately by class or series, to elect directors at an annual or special meeting of stockholders, the election, term of office, filling of vacancies and other features of such directorship shall be governed by the terms of this Restated Certificate of Incorporation applicable thereto.

ARTICLE VI

In furtherance of, and not in limitation of, the powers conferred by law, the Board of Directors is expressly authorized and empowered to adopt, amend or repeal the By-Laws of the Corporation; provided, however, that the By-Laws adopted by the Board of Directors under the powers hereby conferred may be amended or repealed by the Board of Directors or by the stockholders having voting power with respect thereto.

Each person who was or is made a party or is threatened to be made a party to or is otherwise involved in any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (hereinafter, a "proceeding"), by reason of the fact that he or she is serving or had served as a director or officer of the Corporation or, while serving as such director or officer, is serving or had served at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of, or in any other capacity with respect to, another corporation or a partnership, joint venture, trust or other entity or enterprise, including service with respect to employee benefit plans (hereinafter, an "indemnitee"), whether the basis of such proceeding is alleged action in an official capacity as a director, officer, employee or agent or in any other capacity while serving as a director or officer of the Corporation, shall be indemnified and held harmless by the Corporation to the fullest extent permitted by Delaware law, as the same exists or may hereafter be changed or amended (but, in the case of any such change or amendment, only to the extent that such change or amendment permits the Corporation to provide broader indemnification rights than permitted prior thereto), against all expense, liability and loss (including attorneys' fees, judgments, fines, ERISA excise taxes or penalties and amounts to be paid in settlement) reasonably incurred or suffered by an indemnitee in connection therewith and such indemnification shall continue as to an indemnitee who has ceased to be a director or officer of the Corporation and shall inure to the benefit of the indemnitee's heirs, executors and administrators; provided, however, that except as provided in paragraph B hereof with respect to proceedings seeking to enforce rights to indemnification, the Corporation shall indemnify an indemnitee in connection with a proceeding (or part thereof) initiated by the indemnitee only if such proceeding (or part thereof) was authorized by the Board of Directors of the Corporation. The right to indemnification conferred in this Article VII shall be a contract right and shall include the right to be paid by the Corporation the expenses incurred in defending any such proceeding in advance of its final disposition (hereinafter, an "advancement of expenses"); provided, however, that, if the GCL requires, an advancement of expenses incurred by an indemnitee in his or her capacity as a director or officer (and not in any other capacity in which service was or is rendered by such indemnitee, including, without limitation, service to an employee benefit plan) shall be made only upon delivery to the Corporation of an undertaking (hereinafter, an "undertaking"), by or on behalf of such indemnitee, to repay all amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined by final judicial decision from which there is no further right to appeal (hereinafter, a "final adjudication") that such indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified for such expenses under this Article VII or otherwise.

B. Right of Indemnatee to Bring Suit.

If a claim under paragraph A of this Article VII is not paid in full by the Corporation within sixty days after a written claim has been received by the Corporation, except in the case of a claim for advancement of expenses, in which case the applicable period shall be twenty days, the indemnatee may at any time thereafter bring suit against the Corporation to recover the unpaid amount of the claim. If successful in whole or in part in any such suit, or in a suit brought by the Corporation to recover payments by the Corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to terms of an undertaking, the indemnatee shall be entitled to be paid also the expense of prosecuting or defending such suit. In (i) any suit brought by the indemnatee to enforce a right to indemnification hereunder (other than a suit brought by the indemnatee to enforce a right to an advancement of expenses) it shall be a defense that, and (ii) any suit by the Corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking the Corporation shall be entitled to recover such expenses upon a final adjudication that, the indemnatee has not met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the GCL. Neither the failure of the Corporation (including its Board of Directors, independent legal counsel, or its stockholders) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of such suit that indemnification of the indemnatee is proper in the circumstances because the indemnatee has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the GCL, nor an actual determination by the Corporation (including its Board of Directors, independent legal counsel, or its stockholders) that the indemnatee has not met such applicable standard of conduct, shall create a presumption that the indemnatee has not met the applicable standard of conduct or, in the case of such a suit brought by the indemnatee, be a defense to the action. In any suit brought by the indemnatee to enforce a right to indemnification or to an advancement of expenses hereunder, or by the Corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the burden of proving that the indemnatee is not entitled to be indemnified, or to such advancement of expenses, under this Article VII or otherwise shall be on the Corporation.

C. Indemnification of Employees and Agents of the Corporation.

The Corporation may, to the extent authorized from time to time by its Board of Directors, grant rights to indemnification, and to be paid by the Corporation the expenses incurred in defending any proceeding in advance of its final disposition, to any employee or agent of the Corporation to the fullest extent of the provisions of this Article VII with respect to the indemnification and advancement of expenses of directors and officers of the Corporation.

D. Non-Exclusivity of Rights.

The right to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses conferred in this Article VII shall not be exclusive of any other right which any person may have or hereafter acquire under any statute, this Restated Certificate of Incorporation, By-Law, agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors, or otherwise.

E. Insurance.

The Corporation may maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation or of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against any expense, liability or loss, whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such expense, liability or loss under the GCL.

F. Elimination of Certain Liability of Directors.

A director of the Corporation shall not be personally liable to the Corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, except to the extent such exemption from liability or limitation thereof is not permitted under the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware as the same exists on the date hereof or may hereafter be amended.

Any repeal or modification of the foregoing paragraph shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a director of the Corporation existing hereunder with respect to any act or omission occurring prior to such repeal or modification.

ARTICLE VIII

Except as may be expressly provided in this Restated Certificate of Incorporation, the Corporation reserves the right at any time and from time to time to amend, alter, change or repeal any provision contained in this Restated Certificate of Incorporation and any other provisions authorized by the laws of the State of Delaware at the time in force may be added or inserted, in the manner now or hereafter prescribed herein or by applicable law, and all rights, preferences and privileges of whatsoever nature conferred upon stockholders, directors or any other persons whomsoever by and pursuant to this Restated Certificate of Incorporation in its present form or as hereafter amended are granted subject to the right reserved in this Article VIII; provided, however, that any amendment or repeal of Article VII of this Restated Certificate of Incorporation shall not adversely affect any right or protection existing hereunder in respect of any act or omission occurring prior to such amendment or repeal.

ARTICLE IX

Section 203 of the GCL shall not be applicable to the Corporation.

SECTION 2. ANNUAL MEETING. The annual meeting of stockholders for the election of directors and for the transaction of any other business authorized or required to be transacted by the stockholders, shall be held on the fourth Tuesday in May in each year after 2005 at nine o'clock A.M., or at such other time as the Board of Directors may designate. Any annual meeting not held at the time prescribed therefor may be held at any time thereafter to which said meeting may be adjourned or for which it may be called.

SECTION 3. SPECIAL STOCKHOLDERS' MEETINGS. Special meetings of stockholders other than those regulated by statute may be called only by the Board of Directors, either by a Directors' resolution or a written instrument signed by a majority of the Directors.

SECTION 4. NOTICE OF MEETINGS. Written notice of the time, place and purposes of a meeting of stockholders shall be given not less than ten (10) nor more than sixty (60) days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail, to each stockholder of record entitled to vote at the meeting. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be given when deposited in the United States mail, addressed to the stockholder at his or her address as it appears on the stock transfer books of the Corporation, with postage prepaid.

SECTION 5. QUORUM. At all meetings of stockholders, except where it is otherwise provided by law, the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares entitled to vote, being present in person or represented by proxy, shall constitute a quorum for all purposes.

SECTION 6. INSPECTORS OF ELECTION. Prior to the annual meeting of stockholders, the Board of Directors and in the absence of the Board of Directors, the Chairman or Vice Chairman of the Board or the Chief Executive Officer (if one is designated) or the President shall appoint one or more Inspectors of Election to act as inspectors at such meeting and at any meeting of stockholders which may be held during the ensuing year. It shall be the duty of Inspectors of Election to receive and classify all proxies as received, and check same with the record of stockholders entitled to vote at such meetings, to tabulate votes, and to report to the chairman of the meeting the total number of shares represented at the meeting in person or by proxy, and the result of the voting.

At all meetings of stockholders, every stockholder of record as of the applicable record date shall be entitled to vote, either in person or by proxy appointed by instrument in writing or by electronic means (telephone or internet), signed, or identified by the stockholder's identification number or other unique identifier, as applicable, by such stockholder or such stockholder's authorized agent. Each outstanding share of capital stock is entitled to one vote on each matter submitted to a vote, except as otherwise provided in the Certificate of Incorporation. A vote may be cast either orally or in writing, at the discretion of the chairman of the meeting.

SECTION 8. ADJOURNMENTS. Any annual or special meeting of stockholders, whether or not a quorum is present, may be adjourned from time to time by a majority vote of the shares present in person or by proxy. Unless the Board of Directors fixes a new record date for the adjourned meeting, it is not necessary to give notice of the adjourned meeting if the time and place to which the meeting is adjourned are announced at the meeting at which the adjournment is taken and at the adjourned meeting only such business is transacted as might have been transacted at the original meeting.

SECTION 9. CONDUCT OF BUSINESS. Only such business shall be conducted at a meeting of stockholders as is specified in the notice of meeting (or any supplement thereto) or as may be properly brought before the meeting by or at the direction of the Board of Directors or by a stockholder entitled to vote at such meeting. In addition to any other applicable requirements and limitations (including requirements of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and rules and regulations thereunder with respect to inclusion of proposals in the Corporation's proxy solicitation materials), for business to be properly brought before a meeting by a stockholder (other than the nomination of candidates for election as directors as provided in Article II, Section 2), notice thereof in writing must be delivered to the Secretary of the Corporation not later than (a) with respect to an annual meeting of stockholders, ninety (90) days in advance of such meeting, provided, however, if the annual meeting is not held on or within eight (8) days of the date set forth in Article I, Section 2 and if less than one hundred (100) days notice or public disclosure of the date of the meeting is given to the stockholders, such notice by a stockholder must be not later than the tenth day following the date on which notice or public disclosure of the date of the meeting was first given the stockholders and (b) with respect to a special meeting of stockholders, such notice by a stockholder must be not later than the tenth day following the date on which notice or public disclosure of the date of the meeting was first given to the stockholders. A stockholder's notice to the Secretary shall set forth as to any matter the stockholder proposes to bring before the meeting (a) the name and address of the stockholder, (b) a brief description of the business desired to be brought before the meeting and the reasons for conducting such business at the meeting, and (c) any material interest of the stockholder in such business. The chairman of the meeting may rule out of order any business not properly brought before the meeting in compliance with the foregoing procedures.

ARTICLE II DIRECTORS

SECTION 1. NUMBER AND TERM OF OFFICE. The number of directors constituting the entire Board of Directors of the Corporation shall be not less than three (3) nor more than fifteen (15) and shall be determined in the manner set forth in the Certificate of Incorporation. At each annual meeting of stockholders, directors shall be elected by a plurality of the votes cast, to hold office until the next annual meeting and until their successors are elected and qualified, except as provided in the Certificate of Incorporation.

SECTION 2. NOMINATIONS OF DIRECTOR CANDIDATES. Nominations of candidates for election as directors may be made by the Board of Directors or by any stockholder entitled to vote for the election of directors. Nominations by a stockholder must be made by notice in writing delivered to the Secretary of the Corporation not later than (a) with respect to an election to be held at an annual meeting of stockholders, ninety (90) days in advance of such meeting, provided, however, if the annual meeting is not held on or within eight (8) days of the date set forth in Article I, Section 2 and if less than one hundred (100) days notice or public disclosure of the date of the meeting is given to the stockholders, such notice by a stockholder must be not later than the tenth day following the date on which notice or public disclosure of the date of the meeting was first given the stockholders, and (b) with respect to an election to be held at a special meeting of stockholders, such notice by a stockholder must be not later than the tenth day following the date on which notice or public disclosure of the date of the meeting was first given the stockholders. A stockholder's notice to the Secretary shall set forth: (a) the name and address of the stockholder, (b) the name, age and business address of each nominee proposed in such notice, (c) such other information concerning each nominee as must be disclosed of nominees in proxy solicitations pursuant to proxy rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission, and (d) the written consent of each nominee to serve as a director if so elected. The chairman of the meeting may refuse to acknowledge the nomination of any person not made in compliance with the foregoing procedures. Stockholder's compliance with the foregoing procedures shall not require the Corporation to include a proposed nominee in the Corporation's proxy solicitation materials.

SECTION 3. REMOVAL OF DIRECTORS. Subject to the rights of holders of any series of preferred stock then outstanding, any director may be removed, with or without cause, from office at any time by stockholders in accordance with Delaware law.

SECTION 4. VACANCIES. Except as provided in the Certificate of Incorporation, any vacancy in the Board of Directors through death, resignation, disqualification or other cause, or because of an increase in the number of directors, may be filled by the affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining directors though less than a quorum, for a term of office continuing only until the next election of directors by the stockholders.

SECTION 5. REGULAR MEETINGS. Regular meetings of the Board of Directors may be held, either within or without the State of Delaware, at such time and at such place as may from time to time be determined by the Board of Directors, and no notice shall be required to be given of any regular meeting.

SECTION 6. SPECIAL MEETINGS. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be held, either within or without the State of Delaware, by resolution of the Board of Directors or whenever called by the Chairman or Vice Chairman of the Board, the Chief Executive Officer (if one is designated) or the President, or a Vice President or the Secretary of the Corporation, provided that notice thereof is given personally to the last known address of each director either by mail, not less than forty-eight (48) hours before such meeting, or by telephone or telegram, not less than twenty-four (24) hours before such meeting, or on such shorter notice as the person or persons calling such meeting may deem necessary or appropriate in the circumstances. Any director may waive notice of any special meeting.

SECTION 7. QUORUM AND VOTING. A majority of the members of the Board then in office shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, except where otherwise provided by law or the Certificate of Incorporation or the By-Laws; but a majority of members present at any regular or special meeting, although less than a quorum, may adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice. The vote of the majority of members present at a meeting at which a quorum is present constitutes the action of the Board, unless the vote of a larger number is required by law or the Certificate of Incorporation or the By-Laws.

SECTION 8. ACTION OF DIRECTORS WITHOUT A MEETING. Except as otherwise provided by law, action required or permitted to be taken pursuant to authorization voted at a meeting of the Board or a committee thereof may be taken without a meeting if, before or after the action, all members of the Board or of the committee consent thereto in writing. The written consents shall be filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the Board or committee. The consent has the same effect as a vote of the Board or committee for all purposes.

SECTION 9. CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD. The Board of Directors may elect a Chairman of the Board from among the members of the Board. If the Board of Directors has elected a Chairman of the Board, the Chairman shall preside at all meetings of stockholders and of the Board of Directors and shall perform such duties as may be designated by the Board of Directors.

The purpose and responsibilities of the Committee shall to provide advice and counsel to the Chairman of the Board from time to time on matters affecting the Corporation and shall have such other purposes and responsibilities determined by the Board of Directors. To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, the Office of the Chairman shall possess such powers and authority as may be necessary to carry out the foregoing purposes, and shall further possess all other power and authority as may be from time to time delegated to it by the Board of Directors.

Any Vice President shall have authority to execute on behalf of the Corporation any and all contracts, agreements, bonds, deeds, mortgages, leases or other obligations of the Corporation.

SECTION 5. THE TREASURER. The Treasurer shall have the custody of and be responsible for all funds and securities of the Corporation, subject to the control of the Board of Directors. The Treasurer shall keep bank accounts in the name of the Corporation and shall exhibit the books and accounts to any director upon application at the principal office of the Corporation during ordinary business hours. The Treasurer shall perform all duties incident to the position of Treasurer, subject to the control of the Board of Directors, and shall have authority to sign and endorse all notes, checks, drafts and other obligations of the Corporation.

SECTION 6. THE SECRETARY. The Secretary shall keep a record in proper books provided for that purpose of all the meetings and proceedings of the Board of Directors and the minutes of the stockholders' meetings, and shall keep such other records and shall perform such other duties as the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board, the President or the Chief Executive Officer (if one is designated) shall designate. The Secretary shall have the custody of the seal of the Corporation, and shall attach the same to instruments required to be executed under the seal of the Corporation.

SECTION 7. DIVISIONAL AND OPERATIONS VICE PRESIDENTS AND JUNIOR OFFICERS. The Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board, the President or the Chief Executive Officer (if one is designated) may each elect such Divisional Vice Presidents and Operations Vice Presidents and such other junior officers as each may from time to time deem expedient. The Divisional Vice Presidents, Operations Vice Presidents and junior officers shall have such powers and authority and shall perform such duties as may be assigned to them by the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board, the President, the Chief Executive Officer (if one is designated) or the senior officer to whom they report. Any such junior officers shall not be considered corporate officers.

SECTION 8. REMOVAL. Any officer elected or appointed by the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board, the President or the Chief Executive Officer (if one is designated) may be removed at any time by the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board, the President or the Chief Executive Officer (if one is designated).

SECTION 9. VACANCIES. Vacancies among seniors officers of the Corporation during the year may be filled for the unexpired portion of the term by the Board of Directors. In addition, vacancies among Vice Presidents during the year (other than those executives designated as "officers" for the purposes of Section 16 Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, by the Board of Directors) may be filled for the unexpired portion of the term by the Chairman of the Board, the Chief Executive Officer (if one is designated) or the President.

ARTICLE IV COMMITTEES

SECTION 1. The Board of Directors may by resolution designate one or more committees, each committee to consist of one or more of the directors of the Corporation, with responsibilities and duties of which may be prescribed by the Board of Directors, subject to such limitations as provided by law. The Board of Directors may designate one or more directors as alternate members of any committee, who may replace any absent or disqualified member at any meeting of any such committee. In the absence or disqualification of a member of a committee, and in the absence of a designation by the Board of Directors of an alternate member to replace the absent or disqualified member, the member or members thereof present at any meeting and not disqualified from voting, whether or not such member or members constitute a quorum, may unanimously appoint another member of the Board of Directors to act at the meeting in the place of any absent or disqualified member. Any committee, to the extent permitted by law and provided in the resolution establishing such committee, shall have and may exercise all the powers and authority of the Board of Directors in the management of the business and affairs of the Corporation, and may authorize the seal of the Corporation to be affixed to all papers which may require it. Each committee shall keep regular minutes and report to the Board of Directors when required.

ARTICLE V

SECTION 1. CERTIFICATES. Certificates of shares of the capital stock of the Corporation shall be in such form as shall be approved by the Board of Directors, signed by the Chairman or Vice Chairman of the Board, the President or a Vice President and also by the Secretary or an Assistant Secretary or by the Treasurer or an Assistant Treasurer. The seal of the Corporation may be engraved on the certificates instead of being manually affixed, and the signatures of officers may be facsimile signatures if the certificate is countersigned by a transfer agent or registered by a registrar other than the Corporation itself or its employee. All certificates of stock shall be consecutively numbered, and the name(s) and address(es) of the person(s) to whom issued, the number of shares and date of issue, shall be entered on the stock transfer books of the Corporation. All certificates of stock surrendered to the Corporation for transfer shall be cancelled and, except in the case of lost or destroyed certificates as hereinafter provided, no new certificate shall be issued until the former certificate or certificates for the shares represented thereby shall have been surrendered and cancelled.

SECTION 2. LOST CERTIFICATES. When a certificate of stock previously issued is alleged to have been lost or destroyed, a new certificate may be issued therefor upon such terms and indemnity to the Corporation as the Board of Directors may prescribe.

SECTION 3. TRANSFER OF SHARES. Transfer of shares of stock of the Corporation shall be made only on the stock transfer books of the Corporation, and the Corporation may decline to recognize the holder of any certificate of stock of the Corporation as a stockholder until the shares represented by such certificate are transferred into his or her name on the stock transfer books of the Corporation. The Corporation shall be entitled to treat the holder of record of any shares of stock as the absolute owner thereof, and shall not be bound to recognize any equitable or other claim to or interest in such shares on the part of any other person, whether or not it shall have express or other notice thereof, except as otherwise provided by law. The Board of Directors may appoint one or more stock transfer agents and registrars (which functions may be combined), and may require all stock certificates to bear the signature of such transfer agent and such registrar.

These By-Laws may also be amended, altered or repealed and new By-Laws may be adopted by an action taken in writing by the holders of outstanding stock having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize such action at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote thereon were present and voted, in accordance with Section 228 of the Delaware General Corporation Law.
