SUBJECT TO COMPLETION, DATED April 27, 2010

PROSPECTUS

Warrant to purchase common stock
Common stock, $0.01 par value per share
HAWAIIAN HOLDINGS, INC.

This prospectus relates to (i) the resale of a warrant to purchase 758,158 shares of our common stock, $0.01 par value per share, at an exercise price of $7.20 per share, subject to adjustment as provided in such warrant (the "Common Stock Warrant") and (ii) the resale of 758,158 shares of our common stock currently issuable upon exercise of the Common Stock Warrant, subject to adjustment as set forth in the Common Stock Warrant, by the selling securityholder listed in this prospectus under the section "Selling Securityholder".

We will not receive any proceeds from the sale of the Common Stock Warrant offered by this prospectus. The selling securityholder intends to offer the Common Stock Warrant at a price, as estimated below, that will vary based on certain factors as of the offer date, including the market price of the underlying common stock and the remaining term of the Common Stock Warrant. It is currently estimated that the aggregate public offering price of the Common Stock Warrant will be between $1,971,210.00 and $1,971,212.00. The actual public offering price of the Common Stock Warrant may vary from this estimate and we will file an amendment to this prospectus and to the registration statement of which this prospectus forms a part to disclose the actual public offering price as soon as determined.

As described in greater detail in this prospectus under the section "Use of Proceeds," after a resale of the Common Stock Warrant pursuant to this prospectus, if and when the Common Stock Warrant is exercised by its holder, we may receive the applicable exercise price paid by the holder of the Common Stock Warrant, which if exercised in full for cash, at the current exercise price of $7.20 per share, would total $5,458,737.60. However, we may not receive all of such proceeds even if the Common Stock Warrant is exercised because the Common Stock Warrant contains provisions that under certain circumstances allow for the payment of the exercise price by the tender of our common stock by the holder of such Common Stock Warrant, which is commonly referred to as a "net share" exercise. In addition, we will not receive any proceeds from any subsequent resale of the underlying shares of our common stock. The prices at which the selling securityholder may resell the shares of common stock issuable upon exercise of the Common Stock Warrant will be determined by the prevailing market price for the shares or in negotiated transactions.

Our common stock is listed on the NASDAQ Global Market under the symbol "HA." On April 26, 2010, the closing price of our common stock on the NASDAQ Global Market was $7.04 per share. The Common Stock Warrant is exercisable for our common stock at any time, from and after the date hereof to and including June 1, 2010. The Common Stock Warrant is not listed or traded on any stock exchange or quoted on any established trading market.

Investing in our securities involves risk. Please carefully read the information under "Risk Factors" beginning on page 4 for information you should consider before investing in our securities.

Neither the Securities and Exchange Commission nor any state securities commission has approved or disapproved of these securities or determined if this prospectus is truthful or complete. Any representation to the contrary is a criminal offense.

Prospectus Summary

This summary description about us and our business highlights selected information contained elsewhere in this prospectus or incorporated in this prospectus by reference. This summary does not contain all of the information you should consider before buying securities in this offering. You should carefully read this entire prospectus and any applicable prospectus supplement, including each of the documents incorporated herein or therein by reference, before making an investment decision. As used in this prospectus, "we," "us" and "our" refer to Hawaiian Holdings, Inc., a Delaware corporation.

Hawaiian Holdings, Inc.

Overview

We are a holding company incorporated in the State of Delaware. Our primary asset is the sole ownership of all issued and outstanding shares of common stock of Hawaiian Airlines, Inc. ("Hawaiian"). Hawaiian was originally incorporated in January 1929 under the laws of the Territory of Hawaii and became our indirect wholly-owned subsidiary pursuant to a corporate restructuring that was consummated in August 2002. Hawaiian became a Delaware corporation and our direct wholly-owned subsidiary concurrent with its reorganization and reacquisition by us in June 2005.

Hawaiian is engaged primarily in the scheduled air transportation of passengers and cargo amongst the Hawaiian Islands (the interisland routes) and between the Hawaiian Islands and certain cities in the Western United States (the transpacific routes), the South Pacific, Australia and Asia (the South Pacific/Australia/Asia routes). Hawaiian is the largest airline headquartered in Hawaii and the thirteenth largest domestic airline in the United States based on revenue passenger miles reported by the Research and Innovative Technology Administration Bureau of Transportation Services as of June 2009. At December 31, 2009, Hawaiian's operating fleet consisted of 15 Boeing 717-200 aircraft for its interisland routes and 18 Boeing 767-300 aircraft for its transpacific and South Pacific/Australia/Asia routes. Based in Honolulu, Hawaiian had approximately 3,844 active employees as of December 31, 2009.

RISK FACTORS

An investment in our securities involves a high degree of risk. Prior to making a decision about investing in our securities, you should carefully consider the specific factors discussed below with respect to risks applicable to the Common Stock Warrant, together with all of the other information contained or incorporated by reference in any prospectus supplement or appearing or incorporated by reference in this prospectus. You should also consider the risks, uncertainties and assumptions discussed under Item 1A, "Risk Factors," in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2009 which is incorporated herein by reference, and may be amended, supplemented or superseded from time to time by other reports we file with the SEC in the future and any prospectus supplement related to this offering. The risks and uncertainties we have described are not the only ones we face. Although we have disclosed all risk factors we believe are currently material, additional risks and uncertainties not presently known to us or that we currently deem immaterial may also affect our operations.

Risks Related to Ownership of the Common Stock Warrant

An active trading market for the Common Stock Warrant may not develop, and you may not be able to sell the Common Stock Warrant at or above your purchase price.

There is currently no public market for the Common Stock Warrant and an active trading market for the Common Stock Warrant may not develop or be sustained following this offering. If an active market does not develop, holders of the Common Stock Warrant may find it difficult to sell the Common Stock Warrant expeditiously, at a favorable price or at all. Future trading prices of the Common Stock Warrant will depend on many factors, including the trading price of our common stock.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This prospectus and the registration statement of which it forms a part, any prospectus supplement, any related issuer free writing prospectus and the documents incorporated by reference into these documents contain forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933 and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Forward-looking statements deal with our current plans, intentions, beliefs and expectations and statements of future economic performance. Such forward-looking statements include statements regarding use of proceeds, statements regarding payments of dividends; statements regarding use of available cash and liquid assets; estimates of fees and expenses payable by us in connection with a distribution of securities registered by this prospectus; statements as to other matters that do not relate strictly to historical facts or statements of assumptions underlying any of the foregoing. Statements containing terms such as "believe," "do not believe," "plan," "expect," "intend," "estimate," "anticipate" and other phrases of similar meaning are considered to contain uncertainty and are forward-looking statements. In addition, from time to time we or our representatives have made or will make forward-looking statements orally or in writing. Furthermore, such forward-looking statements may be included in various filings that we make with the SEC, or press releases or oral statements made by or with the approval of one of our authorized executive officers. These forward-looking statements are subject to certain known and unknown risks and uncertainties, as well as assumptions that could cause actual results to differ materially from those reflected in these forward-looking statements. Factors that might cause actual results to differ include, but are not limited to, those set forth under the section "Risk Factors" in this prospectus, under Item 2, "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operation Forward Looking Statements," in our most recent Annual Report on Form 10-K and in our future filings made with the SEC. Readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on any forward-looking statements contained in this prospectus, any prospectus supplement or any related issuer free writing prospectus, which reflect management's opinions only as of their respective dates. Except as required by law, we undertake no obligation to revise or publicly release the results of any revisions to any forward-looking statements. You are advised, however, to consult any additional disclosures we have made or will make in our reports to the SEC on Forms 10-K, 10-Q and 8-K. All subsequent written and oral forward-looking statements attributable to us or persons acting on our behalf are expressly qualified in their entirety by the cautionary statements contained in this prospectus, any prospectus supplement or any related issuer free writing prospectus.

DIVIDEND POLICY

We have never paid cash dividends on our common stock. Restrictions contained in our financing agreements and certain of our aircraft lease agreements limit our ability to pay dividends on our common stock. Accordingly, we do not anticipate paying periodic cash dividends on our common stock for the foreseeable future. We intend to use all available cash and liquid assets in the operation and growth of our business. Any future determination about the payment of dividends will be made at the discretion of our board of directors and will depend upon our earnings, if any, capital requirements, operating and financial conditions and on such other factors as our board of directors deems relevant.

USE OF PROCEEDS

We will not receive any proceeds from the resale of the Common Stock Warrant covered by this prospectus. The proceeds from the resale of the Common Stock Warrant offered pursuant to this prospectus are solely for the account of the selling securityholder. However, we would receive the proceeds from the exercise of the Common Stock Warrant to the extent that the Common Stock Warrant is exercised for cash. In the event that the Common Stock Warrant is exercised in full for cash, at the current exercise price of $7.20 per share, the aggregate proceeds received by us would be $5,458,737.60. There can be no assurance concerning the number of shares that may be purchased or the timing of the exercise of the Common Stock Warrant. In addition, because the Common Stock Warrant contains provisions that under certain circumstances allow for the payment of the exercise price by the tender of our common stock by the holder of the Common Stock Warrant, there can be no assurance that we would receive all such proceeds even if the Common Stock Warrant is exercised. Moreover, we will not receive any proceeds from the resale of the shares of our common stock issuable upon exercise of the Common Stock Warrant covered by this prospectus. The proceeds from the resale of the common stock offered pursuant to this prospectus are solely for the account of the selling securityholder.

Any net proceeds received by us in connection with the cash exercise of the Common Stock Warrant offered by this prospectus will be used for general corporate purposes and working capital requirements, which may include, among other things, the repayment or repurchase of debt obligations, the acquisition of aircraft, and other capital expenditures. We have not determined the amounts we plan to spend on the areas listed above or the timing of these expenditures. As a result, our management will have broad discretion to allocate any net proceeds from the exercise of the Common Stock Warrant. Pending their ultimate use, we intend to invest any net proceeds in bank demand deposits, certificates of deposit, investments in debt securities with maturities of three months or less when purchased, and money market funds which invest primarily in U.S. government obligations and commercial paper.

SELLING SECURITYHOLDER

This prospectus relates to (i) the resale of the Common Stock Warrant, a warrant to purchase 758,158 shares of our common stock, subject to adjustment as set forth therein, and (ii) the resale of 758,158 shares of our common stock currently issuable upon exercise of the Common Stock Warrant, subject to adjustment as set forth therein, by the selling securityholder, RC Aviation Management, LLC ("RC Aviation Management"). As soon as practicable following the effective date of the registration statement of which this prospectus is a part, RC Aviation Management intends to resell the Common

Table of Contents

Stock Warrant. Accordingly, as used herein, the term "selling securityholder" includes the holder of the Common Stock Warrant following such resale with respect to the resale of the of the shares of our common stock issuable upon exercise of the Common Stock Warrant covered by this prospectus.

RC Aviation Management was the managing member of RC Aviation, LLC ("RC Aviation"). Since June 2004, the chairman of our board of directors, Lawrence S. Hershfield, has served as the chief executive officer, president and managing member of RC Aviation Management and another one of our directors, Randall L. Jenson, has served as the vice-president, secretary and member of RC Aviation Management. Messrs. Hershfield and Jenson are the sole members of RC Aviation Management.

On June 1, 2005, we entered into a Note Purchase Agreement with RC Aviation pursuant to which RC Aviation and its members purchased from us Series A Subordinated Convertible Notes due June 1, 2010 and Series B Subordinated Convertible Notes due June 1, 2010 (collectively, the "Notes"), in the aggregate principal amount of $60 million. In connection with the issuance of the Notes, on June 2, 2005, RC Aviation received a warrant to purchase shares of our newly designated Series E Preferred Stock (the "RC Aviation Warrant I"). A special committee of our board of directors approved the terms of the Notes, as well as the RC Aviation Warrant I, and received fairness opinions in connection therewith. In connection with the issuance of the Notes and the granting of the RC Aviation Warrant I, we and RC Aviation also entered into a registration rights agreement relating to the registration of shares of common stock issuable upon conversion of the Notes and exercise of the RC Aviation Warrant I.

On July 8, 2005, the RC Aviation Warrant I was automatically exchanged for a warrant to purchase up to 10% of the diluted shares of our common stock (6,855,685 shares) at an exercise price of $7.20 per share, subject to adjustment as provided therein (the "RC Aviation Warrant II"), of which warrant half had been previously earned by RC Aviation for a certain funding commitment, and the other half of which was earned by RC Aviation in connection with its purchase of the Notes. We repurchased an aggregate of approximately $5.0 million, $1.9 million and $0.8 million in principal amount of the Notes at their face amount, plus accrued interest, on October 19, 2005, November 23, 2005 and November 25, 2005, respectively, and a corresponding portion of the RC Aviation Warrant II. After giving effect to the RC Aviation Warrant II repurchases in connection with the Note repurchases, the RC Aviation Warrant II was exercisable for 5,973,384 shares of our common stock, subject to adjustment as provided therein. In May 2006, RC Aviation distributed the RC Aviation Warrant II and 6,848,948 shares of our common stock to its members, including RC Aviation Management. As a result of the distribution by RC Aviation, RC Aviation Management now holds the Common Stock Warrant.

RC Aviation Management is also an affiliate of Ranch Capital, LLC, whose sole members and officers are Messrs. Hershfield and Jenson. During 2009, we paid consulting fees of approximately $130,000 to Ranch Capital, LLC.

Except as described herein, RC Aviation Management has not held any position or office or had a material relationship with us or any of our affiliates within the past three years.

The following table sets forth certain information known to us as of February 8, 2010 concerning the Common Stock Warrant that may be offered for resale by the selling securityholder, and the shares of common stock issuable upon exercise of the Common Stock Warrant. This information is based upon information provided by the selling securityholder and assumes that the selling securityholder sells the entire Common Stock Warrant offered under this prospectus and that the Common Stock Warrant held by the selling securityholder is fully exercised at the stated price of $7.20 per share. We are unable to determine the exact amount of the Common Stock Warrant that will actually be sold or exercised. The exercise price and the number of shares issuable pursuant to the Common Stock Warrant are subject to adjustment pursuant to specified provisions set forth in the Common Stock Warrant. In the table below, the percentage of shares beneficially owned is based on 51,521,215 shares of common stock issued and outstanding and three shares of preferred stock issued and outstanding as of February 8, 2010, determined in accordance with Rule 13d-3 of the Exchange Act. Notwithstanding the above, pursuant to the terms of the Common Stock Warrant, the holders thereof may not exercise such warrant to the extent such exercise would cause any such holder, together with its affiliates, any investment manager having discretionary investment authority over the accounts or assets of the holder, or any other persons whose beneficial ownership of our common stock would be aggregated with the holder's for purposes of Section 13(d) of the Exchange Act, to have acquired a number of shares that would exceed 9.999% of our then outstanding common stock, including for purposes of such determination shares issuable upon exercise of the Common Stock Warrant. The restriction that prevents such holder from acquiring a number of shares that would exceed 9.999% of our then outstanding common stock may be waived by the holder of the Common Stock Warrant as to itself upon not less than 65 days notice to us. Our obligation to issue shares of common stock in excess of the limitation referred to above shall be suspended until such time, if any, as such shares of common stock may be issued in compliance with such limitation.

(b) For purposes of this table, this column assumes that the 758,158 shares of common stock issuable upon exercise of the Common Stock Warrant are issued and outstanding.

The selling securityholder will pay all costs, expenses and fees associated with the registration of the Common Stock Warrant. The selling securityholder will also pay all commissions and discounts, if any, associated with the sale of the Common Stock Warrant.

DESCRIPTION OF COMMON STOCK

The description of our common stock is set forth in our Registration Statement on Form 8-A as filed with the SEC on May 30, 2008, as amended on Form 8-A/A filed with the SEC on November 5, 2009 pursuant to Section 12(b) of the Exchange Act and is incorporated herein by reference.

DESCRIPTION OF COMMON STOCK WARRANT

General

On June 1, 2005, we entered into a Note Purchase Agreement with RC Aviation pursuant to which RC Aviation and its members purchased from us the Notes, in the aggregate principal amount of $60 million. In connection with the issuance of the Notes, on June 2, 2005, RC Aviation received the RC Aviation Warrant I. A special committee of our board of directors approved the terms of the Notes, as well as the RC Aviation Warrant I, and received fairness opinions in connection therewith. In connection with the issuance of the Notes and the granting of the RC Aviation Warrant I, the Company and RC Aviation also entered into a registration rights agreement relating to the registration of shares of common stock issuable upon conversion of the Notes and exercise of the RC Aviation Warrant I.

Table of Contents

On July 8, 2005, the RC Aviation Warrant I was automatically exchanged for the RC Aviation Warrant II, a warrant to purchase up to 10% of the diluted shares of our common stock (6,855,685 shares) at an exercise price of $7.20 per share, subject to adjustment as provided therein, of which warrant half had been previously earned by RC Aviation for a certain funding commitment, and the other half of which was earned by RC Aviation in connection with its purchase of the Notes. We repurchased an aggregate of approximately $5.0 million, $1.9 million and $0.8 million in principal amount of the Notes at their face amount, plus accrued interest, on October 19, 2005, November 23, 2005 and November 25, 2005, respectively, and a corresponding portion of the RC Aviation Warrant II. After giving effect to the RC Aviation Warrant II repurchases in connection with the Note repurchases, the RC Aviation Warrant II was exercisable for 5,973,384 shares of our common stock, subject to adjustment as provided therein. In May 2006, RC Aviation distributed the RC Aviation Warrant II and 6,848,948 shares of our common stock to its members, including RC Aviation Management.

As of the date of this prospectus and as a result of the distribution by RC Aviation, RC Aviation Management holds the Common Stock Warrant, which is currently exercisable for 758,158 shares of our common stock, subject to adjustment as provided therein. The following summary description of the Common Stock Warrant sets forth some general terms and provisions of the Common Stock Warrant, but the summary is not complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the actual Common Stock Warrant, a copy of which has been filed as an exhibit to the registration statement of which this prospectus is a part. In the event of any conflict between this description and the text of the Common Stock Warrant, the text of the Common Stock Warrant will govern. We urge you to read the text of the Common Stock Warrant because the Common Stock Warrant, and not this description, define your rights as a holder of the Common Stock Warrant.

Exercise Period

The Common Stock Warrant is exercisable for our common stock at any time, from and after the date hereof to and including June 1, 2010.

Exercise Price and Other Terms

The Common Stock Warrant will entitle the holder to purchase the shares of our common stock at a price of $7.20 per share, subject to adjustment as provided therein. The holder of the Common Stock Warrant will be able to exercise the Common Stock Warrant, in whole or part, by delivering to us the Common Stock Warrant, together with a properly completed Subscription Form in the form attached thereto, and payment of the aggregate exercise price for the number of shares of our common stock as to which the Common Stock Warrant is being exercised. A holder of the Common Stock Warrant may not exercise the Common Stock Warrant to the extent that such exercise would result in such holder owning at any time more than 9.999% of the then outstanding shares of our common stock. The restriction that prevents such holder from acquiring a number of shares that would exceed 9.999% of our then outstanding common stock may be waived by the holder of the Common Stock Warrant as to itself upon not less than 65 days notice to us. Our obligation to issue shares of common stock in excess of the limitation referred to above shall be suspended until such time, if any, as such shares of common stock may be issued in compliance with such limitation.

The exercise price will be payable at the option of the securityholder:

in cash or by certified check or by bank draft;

any combination thereof.

The Common Stock Warrant may be exercised in whole or in part at the applicable exercise price until the expiration date, as described above. No fractional shares of our common stock will be issued upon the exercise of the Common Stock Warrant.

Upon exercise of the Common Stock Warrant, we will deliver a stock certificate representing the number of shares that were exercised under the Common Stock Warrant, such certificate to be issued and delivered within ten (10) business days after the Common Stock Warrant is exercised. If the Common Stock Warrant is not fully exercised, we will issue a new Common Stock Warrant exercisable for the remaining shares and deliver the new Common Stock Warrant within the same timeframe as the stock certificate for the exercised shares, or at the request of the securityholder, appropriate notation may be made on the old Common Stock Warrant and signed by us and the same returned to such securityholder.

Adjustments

The exercise price of the Common Stock Warrant and the number of shares of common stock issuable upon the exercise of the Common Stock Warrant may be subject to adjustment in certain situations, including the following:

Upon any dividend or distribution of our common stock to the holders of common stock, stock split or other subdivision of the outstanding shares of our common stock or the combination of the outstanding shares of our common stock into a smaller number of shares, the exercise price and number of shares of our common stock issuable upon exercise of the Common Stock Warrant shall be increased or decreased proportionately as appropriate.

Upon any dividend or distribution to the holders of common stock, other than a distribution of common stock, convertible securities, options, warrants or other rights to subscribe for or purchase any securities convertible into our common stock, of cash, evidences of our indebtedness, shares of capital stock (other than common stock) or any other securities or property of any nature whatsoever (other than cash) or any options, warrants or other rights to subscribe for or purchase any of the above, the holder of the Common Stock Warrant shall be entitled to receive such dividend or distribution as if such holder had fully exercised the Common Stock Warrant prior to such dividend or distribution.

Subject to certain exceptions, in the event we issue or sell any additional shares of our common stock at a price per share less than the fair market value of our outstanding common stock over the ten (10) trading days prior to the earlier of (i) the date of we enter into a firm contract or commitment for the issuance of such additional shares of common stock and (ii) the date of the actual issuance of such additional shares of common stock, the exercise price and the number of shares of common stock issuable upon exercise of the Common Stock Warrant shall be subject to adjustment pursuant to a broad-based weighted average anti-dilution adjustment formula set forth in the Common Stock Warrant.

Subject to certain exceptions, in the event we issue or sell any warrants, options or other rights to subscribe for or purchase any securities convertible into our common stock at a price per share less than the fair market value of our outstanding common stock over the ten (10) trading days prior to the earlier of (i) the date on which we take a record of the holders of common stock for the purpose of entitling them to receive any such warrants, options or other rights, (ii) the date on which we enter into a firm contract or commitment for the issuance of such warrants, options or other rights, and (iii) the date of the actual issuance of such warrants, options or other rights, the exercise price and the number of shares of common stock issuable upon exercise of the Common Stock Warrant shall be subject to adjustment pursuant to a broad-based weighted average anti-dilution adjustment formula set forth in the Common Stock Warrant.

Subject to certain exceptions, in the event we issue or sell securities convertible into shares of our common stock and the price per share for the additional shares of common stock issuable pursuant to the terms of such convertible securities is a price per share less than the fair market value of our outstanding common stock over the ten (10) trading days prior to the earlier of (i) the date on which we take a record of the holders of common stock for the purpose of entitling them to receive any such convertible securities, (ii) the date on which we enter into a firm contract or commitment for the issuance of such convertible securities, and (iii) the date of the actual issuance or sale of such convertible securities, the exercise price and the number of shares of common stock issuable upon exercise of the Common Stock Warrant shall be subject to adjustment pursuant to a broad-based weighted average anti-dilution adjustment formula set forth in the Common Stock Warrant.

If at any time after any such adjustment has been made, such warrants, options or rights or the right of conversion or exchange in such securities convertible into shares of our common stock shall expire, and all or a portion thereof shall not have been exercised prior to such expiration, then such previous adjustment shall be rescinded and annulled and the number of shares of common stock issuable upon exercise of the Common Stock Warrant shall be re-adjusted accordingly.

The Common Stock Warrant may also be subject to adjustment in certain other situations, including the following:

Upon any transaction, including, without limitation, a merger, consolidation, share exchange, sale lease or other disposition of all or substantially all of our assets, liquidation, recapitalization or reclassification of our common stock, an adjustment will be made to enable the holder of the Common Stock Warrant to receive the kind and number of shares and/or other securities and/or property (including cash) to which the holder would have been entitled to receive had the holder exercised the Common Stock Warrant immediately prior to such transaction.

At any time we take any action of the type contemplated above but not expressly provided for by such provisions other than cash bonuses, then, unless in the opinion of our board of directors such action will not have a material adverse effect upon the rights of the holder of the Common Stock Warrant, the number of shares issuable upon exercise of the Common Stock Warrant shall be adjusted in such manner and at such time as our board of directors may in good faith determine to be equitable in the circumstances.

Promptly following the effective date of any such adjustment, we will compute such adjustment and provide the holder of the Common Stock Warrant with a certificate setting forth the adjustment and the facts on which it is based.

The registration statement of which this prospectus forms a part covers the registration for resale of the Common Stock Warrant, which is currently exercisable for 758,158 shares of our common stock.

Transfer, Exchange And Exercise

The Common Stock Warrant may be presented for transfer, exchange or exercise on or prior to its expiration date, at which time the Common Stock Warrant will become wholly void and of no value.

We will not impose a charge for any exercise, exchange or transfer of the Common Stock Warrant, but we may require payment of a sum sufficient to cover any tax or other governmental charge payable in connection with a transfer.

Any issuance by us of shares of common stock upon exercise of the Common Stock Warrant and any disposition by the selling securityholder of such shares of common stock must be made pursuant to an effective registration statement or pursuant to an exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act. In addition, any issuance by us and any disposition by the selling securityholder of such shares of common stock issued upon exercise of the Common Stock Warrant may require registration or qualification under applicable state securities laws.

The resale of the shares of common stock issuable upon exercise of the Common Stock Warrant has been registered by us on the registration statement of which this prospectus is a part.

The description of our common stock is set forth in our Registration Statement on Form 8-A as filed with the SEC on May 30, 2008, as amended on Form 8-A/A filed with the SEC on November 5, 2009 pursuant to Section 12(b) of the Exchange Act and is incorporated herein by reference.

Registration Rights

The following summary of the registration rights provided in that certain registration rights agreement dated as of June 1, 2005 between us and RC Aviation (the "Registration Rights Agreement") relating to the Common Stock Warrant is not complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Registration Rights Agreement, a copy of which has been filed as an exhibit to the registration statement of which this prospectus is a part. In the event of any conflict between this description and the Registration Rights Agreement, the terms of the Registration Rights Agreement will govern.

Pursuant to the Registration Rights Agreement, RC Aviation Management, as a successor-in-interest to RC Aviation, is entitled to certain rights with respect to registration of those shares of common stock issuable upon exercise of the Common Stock Warrant under the Securities Act. A transferee of the Common Stock Warrant will only be entitled to such registration rights if such transferee directly or indirectly, through one or more intermediaries, controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with RC Aviation Management or beneficially owns at least 5% of our outstanding common stock after giving effect to such transfer; provided that such transferee also executes a counterpart of the Registration Rights Agreement and agrees to be fully bound by the provisions contained therein.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

Common Stock Warrant

The Common Stock Warrant is not traded on any stock exchange or quoted on any established trading market. No market makers currently make a market in the Common Stock Warrant and we do not plan to engage a market maker. Therefore, there is no established public trading market and no high and low bid information or quotations available.

It is currently estimated that the aggregate public offering price for the resale of the Common Stock Warrant will be between $1,971,210.00 and $1,971,212.00. The actual public offering price of the Common Stock Warrant may vary from this estimate and we will file an amendment to this prospectus and to the registration statement of which this prospectus forms a part to disclose the actual public offering price as soon as determined.

The selling securityholder will act independently of us in making decisions regarding the timing, manner and size of each sale. The selling securityholder may effect these transactions by selling the Common Stock Warrant to or through broker-dealers. Broker-dealers engaged by the selling securityholder may arrange for other broker-dealers to participate in the sales. The Common Stock Warrant may be sold in one or more of the following transactions:

a purchase by a broker-dealer as principal and resale by the broker-dealer for its account under this prospectus;

ordinary brokerage transactions and transactions in which a broker solicits purchasers; privately negotiated transactions; and a combination of any of the above transactions.

Broker-dealers or agents may receive compensation from the selling securityholder in the form of commissions, discounts or concessions. Broker-dealers or agents may also receive compensation from the purchaser(s) of the Common Stock Warrant for whom they act as agents or to whom they sell as principals, or both. A broker-dealer's compensation will be negotiated in connection with the sale and may exceed the broker-dealer's customary commissions. Broker-dealers, agents or the selling securityholders may be deemed to be "underwriters" within the meaning of the Securities Act in connection with sales of the Common Stock Warrant. Any commission, discount or concession received by these broker-dealers or agents and any profit on the sale of the Common Stock Warrant purchased by them may be deemed to be underwriting discounts or commissions under the Securities Act.

Because the selling securityholder may be deemed to be an "underwriter" within the meaning of the Securities Act, it will be subject to the prospectus delivery requirements of the Securities Act. In addition, any securities covered by this prospectus which qualify for sale pursuant to Rule 144 under the Securities Act may be sold under Rule 144 rather than under this prospectus. The selling securityholder has advised us that it has not entered into any agreements, understandings or arrangements with any underwriter or broker-dealer regarding the sale of the Common Stock Warrant. There is no underwriter or coordinating broker acting in connection with the proposed sale of the Common Stock Warrant by the selling securityholder.

The Common Stock Warrant will be sold only through registered or licensed brokers or dealers if required under applicable state securities laws. In addition, in certain states the Common Stock Warrant may not be sold unless it has been registered or qualified for sale in the applicable state or an exemption from the registration or qualification requirement is available and is complied with.

Under applicable rules and regulations under the Exchange Act, any person engaged in the distribution of the Common Stock Warrant may not simultaneously engage in market making activities with respect to our common stock for a period of two business days prior to the commencement of the distribution. In addition, the selling securityholder will be subject to applicable provisions of the Exchange Act and the rules and regulations thereunder, including Regulation M, which may limit the timing of purchases and sales of shares of our common stock by the selling securityholder or any other person. We will make copies of this prospectus available to the selling securityholder and have informed it of the need to deliver a copy of this prospectus to each purchaser at or prior to the time of the sale.

The selling securityholder will pay all costs, expenses and fees associated with the registration of the Common Stock Warrant. The selling securityholder will also pay all commissions and discounts, if any, associated with the sale of the Common Stock Warrant. The selling securityholder may agree to indemnify any broker-dealer or agent that participates in sales of the Common Stock Warrant against specified liabilities, including liabilities arising under the Securities Act. The selling securityholder may have agreed to indemnify certain persons against specified liabilities in connection with the offering of the Common Stock Warrant, including liabilities arising under the Securities Act.

We will not receive any of the proceeds from the resale of the Common Stock Warrant by the selling securityholder.

Common Stock

We are also registering the resale of the shares of our common stock issuable upon exercise of the Common Stock Warrant on behalf of the selling securityholder. As used in this prospectus, the term "selling securityholder" includes, without limitation, the purchaser of the Common Stock Warrant as described above and broker-dealers or other transferees who borrow or purchase the shares of common stock issuable upon exercise of the Common Stock Warrant to settle or close out short sales of shares of our common stock as described below. This prospectus may also be used by transferees of the selling securityholder, including pledgees, transferees or other successors-in-interest selling shares of our common stock issued upon exercise of the Common Stock Warrant purchased from the selling securityholder after the date of this prospectus. The selling securityholder will act independently of us in making decisions with respect to the timing, manner, and size of each sale or non-sale-related transfer.

As soon as practicable following the effective date of the registration statement of which this prospectus is a part, RC Aviation Management intends to resell the Common Stock Warrant. The timing and amount of the foregoing resale of the Common Stock Warrant are subject to the discretion of RC Aviation Management as detailed above.

This prospectus covers the selling securityholder's resale of 758,158 shares of our common stock currently issuable upon exercise of the Common Stock Warrant, subject to adjustment as set forth therein. The shares of our common stock covered by this prospectus may be offered and sold from time to time by the selling securityholder following exercise of the Common Stock Warrant and as described herein. The selling securityholder may sell the shares on the NASDAQ Global Market, any other exchange or market on which the shares of our common stock are then traded, or in private sales at negotiated prices.

A selling securityholder may use any one or more of the following methods when selling shares:

ordinary brokerage transactions and transactions in which the broker-dealer solicits purchasers;

block trades in which the broker-dealer will attempt to sell the shares as agent, but may position and resell a portion of the block as principal to facilitate the transaction;

purchases by a broker-dealer as principal and resale by the broker-dealer for its account;

an exchange distribution in accordance with the rules of the applicable exchange;

privately negotiated transactions;

settlement of short sales entered into after the date of this prospectus;

broker-dealers may agree with the selling securityholder to sell a specified number of such shares at a stipulated price per share;

a combination of any such methods of sale;

through the writing or settlement of options or other hedging transactions, whether through an options exchange or otherwise; or any other method permitted pursuant to applicable law.

Table of Contents

The selling securityholder may also sell shares under Rule 144 under the Securities Act, if available, rather than under this prospectus.

Broker-dealers engaged by the selling securityholder may arrange for other broker-dealers to participate in sales. Broker-dealers may receive commissions or discounts from the selling securityholder (or, if any broker-dealer acts as agent for the purchaser of shares, from the purchaser) in amounts to be negotiated. The selling securityholder does not expect these commissions and discounts relating to its sales of shares to exceed what is customary in the types of transactions involved.

In connection with the resale of our common stock, the selling securityholder may enter into hedging transactions with broker-dealers or other financial institutions, which may in turn engage in short sales of the common stock in the course of hedging the positions they assume. The selling securityholder may also sell shares of our common stock short and deliver these securities to close out their short positions, or loan or pledge the common stock to broker-dealers that in turn may sell these securities. The selling securityholder may also enter into option or other transactions with broker-dealers or other financial institutions or the creation of one or more derivative securities which require the delivery to such broker-dealer or other financial institution of shares offered by this prospectus, which shares such broker-dealer or other financial institution may resell pursuant to this prospectus (as supplemented or amended to reflect such transaction).

The selling securityholder and any broker-dealers or agents that are involved in selling the shares may be deemed to be "underwriters" within the meaning of the Securities Act in connection with such sales. In such event, any commissions received by such broker-dealers or agents and any profit on the resale of the shares purchased by them may be deemed to be underwriting commissions or discounts under the Securities Act.

Because the selling securityholder may be deemed to be an "underwriter" within the meaning of the Securities Act, it will be subject to the prospectus delivery requirements of the Securities Act. In addition, any securities covered by this prospectus which qualify for sale pursuant to Rule 144 under the Securities Act may be sold under Rule 144 rather than under this prospectus. The selling securityholder has represented to us that it has not entered into any agreements, understandings or arrangements, directly or indirectly, with any underwriter, broker-dealer or other person regarding the sale or other distribution of the shares of common stock to be sold pursuant to this prospectus. There is no underwriter or coordinating broker acting in connection with the proposed resale of the shares by the selling securityholder.

Under applicable rules and regulations under the Exchange Act, any person engaged in the distribution of the shares to be sold pursuant to this prospectus may not simultaneously engage in market making activities with respect to our common stock for a period of two business days prior to the commencement of the distribution. In addition, the selling securityholder will be subject to applicable provisions of the Exchange Act and the rules and regulations thereunder, including Regulation M, which may limit the timing of purchases and sales of shares of our common stock by the selling securityholder or any other person. We will make copies of this prospectus available to the selling securityholder and have informed it of the need to deliver a copy of this prospectus to each purchaser at or prior to the time of the sale.

We have advised the selling securityholder that the anti-manipulation rules of Regulation M under the Exchange Act may apply to sales of shares in the market and to the activities of the selling securityholder and its affiliates. In addition, we will make copies of this prospectus available to the selling securityholder and we have informed it of the need for delivery of copies of this prospectus to purchasers at or prior to the time of any sale of the shares offered hereby. The selling securityholder may indemnify any broker-dealer that participates in transactions involving the sale of the shares against certain liabilities, including liabilities arising under the Securities Act.

At the time a particular offer of shares is made, if required, a prospectus supplement will be distributed that will set forth the number of shares being offered and the terms of the offering, including the name of any underwriter, dealer or agent, the purchase price paid by any underwriter, any discount, commission and other item constituting compensation, any discount, commission or concession allowed or reallocated or paid to any dealer, and the proposed selling price to the public.

The selling securityholder may be an affiliate of a broker-dealer. The selling securityholder has represented to us that it purchased the securities to be resold pursuant to this prospectus in the ordinary course of business and, at the time of the purchase of such securities, had no agreements or understandings, directly or indirectly, with any person to distribute such securities. We are not aware of any plans, arrangements or undertakings between the selling securityholder and any underwriter, broker-dealer or agent regarding the sale of the common stock covered by this prospectus by the selling securityholder.

We and the selling securityholder have agreed to indemnify each other against certain liabilities, including liabilities under the Securities Act which may be based upon, among other things, any untrue statement or alleged untrue statement of a material fact contained in the registration statement of which this prospectus is a part, or any omission or alleged omission to state in the registration statement a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statement therein not misleading.

- (iii) The portion of any other free writing prospectus relating to the offering containing material information about the undersigned registrant or its securities provided by or on behalf of the undersigned registrant; and
- (iv) Any other communication that is an offer in the offering made by the undersigned registrant to the purchaser.

(b) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(c) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933 and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding), is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933 and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

(d) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that:

- (1) For purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, the information omitted from the form of prospectus filed as part of this registration statement in reliance upon Rule 430A and contained in a form of prospectus filed by the registrant pursuant to Rule 424(b)(1) or (4) or 497(h) under the Securities Act shall be deemed to be part of this registration statement as of the time it was declared effective.
- (2) For the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each post-effective amendment that contains a form of prospectus shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.
