CHINA DIRECT, INC. AND SUBSIDIARIES
NOTES TO UNAUDITED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
SEPTEMBER 30, 2008

NOTE 1 - ORGANIZATION AND DESCRIPTION OF BUSINESS

Business and Organization

China Direct, Inc., a Florida corporation and its subsidiaries are referred to in this report as the “Company”, “we”, “us”, “our”, or “China Direct”.

We are a management and advisory services organization, which owns and consults with business entities operating in the People’s Republic of China (“PRC”). China Direct operates in two primary divisions: (i) Management Services and (ii) Advisory Services. Our Management Services division acquires controlling interests of Chinese business entities which we consolidate as either our wholly or majority owned subsidiaries. Through this ownership control, we provide management advice as well as investment capital. We refer to these subsidiaries as our portfolio companies. Our Advisory Services division provides consulting services to Chinese entities seeking access to the U.S. capital markets. We currently have service contracts with various clients who conduct business within China or seek to conduct business in China. We refer to these companies as client companies.

Our primary, but not exclusive, method of acquiring a portfolio company in the PRC is to create a foreign invested entity (“FIE”), or a joint venture entity (“JV”). Generally, to create a FIE or a JV, an application is made to the local PRC government to increase the registered capital of a Chinese domestic company. The Chinese domestic company will contribute assets and we will contribute investment capital. When a new FIE or JV is created, our ownership is determined by the value of our capital contribution as compared to the new total registered capital amount, giving effect to the value of assets contributed. Our investments in the PRC adhere to the rules and regulations governing foreign investment in China and we obtain all relevant and necessary governmental approvals and business licenses.

NOTE 2 - BASIS OF PRESENTATION AND SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of Presentation

Our unaudited consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles for interim financial information and pursuant to the requirements for reporting on Form 10-Q. Accordingly, they do not include all the information and footnotes required by U.S. generally accepted accounting principles for annual financial statements. However, the information included in these interim financial statements reflects all adjustments (consisting solely of normal recurring adjustments) which are, in the opinion of management, necessary for the fair presentation of the consolidated financial position and the consolidated results of operations. Results shown for interim periods are not necessarily indicative of the results to be obtained for a full year. The consolidated balance sheet information as of December 31, 2007 was derived from the audited consolidated financial statements included in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2007. These interim financial statements should be read in conjunction with our Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2007. Certain reclassifications have been made to prior year amounts to conform to the current year presentation and to disclose our reclassification of discontinued operations.

During the third quarter of 2008, we elected to exit the alternative energy and recycling business conducted by CDI Clean Technology Group, Inc. (“CDI Clean Technology”). Included as part of the sale of CDI Clean Technology are: (i) Shandong CDI Wanda New Energy Co., Ltd., a Chinese limited liability company, a 51% majority owned subsidiary of CDI Clean Technology (“CDI Wanda”) and (ii) Yantai CDI Wanda Renewable Resources Co., Ltd., a Chinese limited liability company, a 52% majority owned subsidiary of CDI Wanda (“Yantai CDI Wanda”). We formed CDI Clean Technology in January 2007. We classified CDI Clean Technology as “Subsidiaries held for sale” in accordance with the provisions of Statement of Financial Accounting Standards (“SFAS”) No. 144. On October 30, 2008, we completed the sale of an 81% interest in our wholly owned subsidiary CDI Clean Technology to PE Brothers Corp. for $1,240,000, accordingly no loss was recognized during the nine months ended September 30, 2008.

During the quarter ended September 30, 2008, we ceased depreciation of CDI Clean Technology and its subsidiaries and as a result of the held for sale classification, we assessed the estimated fair value of the subsidiary and no impairment charge was recognized. The results of operations from CDI Clean Technology and its subsidiaries are classified as discontinued operations in 2008. Prior period reported results of operations of CDI Clean Technology and its subsidiaries have been reclassified to reflect the assets and liabilities of these subsidiaries as held for sale. As a result of this transaction, we will account for our 19% ownership interest in CDI Clean Technology as an investment using the equity method of accounting.

As disclosed in earlier filings, on April 26, 2008 CDI China entered into an Investment Framework Agreement to form Baotou Xinjin Magnesium Co., Ltd., a Chinese limited liability company (“Xinjin Magnesium”) to jointly invest and increase the registered capital thereby forming an FIE. During the quarter ended September 2008, we elected not to pursue this venture. We did not contribute any capital to Xinjin Magnesium.

In March 2008, CDI Shanghai Management formed CDI Metal Recycling as a joint venture entity. CDI Shanghai Management contributed $347,222 to the registered capital of the joint venture, representing an 83% interest. CDI Metal Recycling will recycle aluminum wire into aluminum powder. CDI Metal Recycling expects to commence operations in 2009.

In February 2008, CDI China, entered into an agreement with Excel Rise and Three Harmony (Australia) Party, Ltd. (“Three Harmony”) to form Baotou Changxin Magnesium, a Chinese limited liability company as a FIE. Prior to September 30, 2008 CDI China contributed approximately $7,084,000 to the registered capital of this entity, Excel Rise contributed $5,417,000 and Three Harmony contributed $1,389,000, representing a 51%, 39% and 10% interest, respectively. We own a 70.9% interest in Baotou Changxin Magnesium based on our 51% ownership interest through our wholly owned subsidiary CDI China and a 19.9% ownership interest through our 51% ownership interest in Excel Rise.

In June 2008, CDI Shanghai Management entered into an agreement to form CDI Beijing, a Chinese limited liability company. Under the terms of the agreement, CDI Shanghai Management acquired a 51% interest in CDI Beijing, which became effective in September 2008 when CDI Beijing received a business license from the Chinese government. CDI Beijing is engaged in the sale and distribution of steel, non ferrous metals and lumber products in China. Under the terms of the agreement, the initial registered investment amount of CDI Beijing is $7.27 million; $3.57 million and $3.7 million to be contributed by Mr. Chen and CDI Shanghai Management Mr. Chen and CDI Shanghai Management respectively, in installments on or before September 2009. On August 28, 2008, we contributed $750,000 while Mr. Chen made his capital contribution of $720,000. As of the date of this report, CDI Shanghai Management has a commitment to contribute an additional $2.95 million to CDI Beijing by March 31, 2009.

Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results when ultimately realized could differ from those estimates. Significant estimates include the allowance for doubtful accounts of accounts receivable, certain assumptions underlying the calculation of stock-based compensation, investments in marketable securities available for sale, assets and liabilities held for sale and the useful life of property, plant and equipment.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

For purposes of the consolidated statements of cash flows, we consider all highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less to be cash equivalents. The carrying value of these investments approximate their fair value.

Concentration of Credit Risks

Financial instruments which potentially subject us to concentrations of credit risk consist principally of cash and trade accounts receivable. We deposit our cash with high credit quality financial institutions in the United States and China. As of September 30, 2008, bank deposits in the United States exceeded federally insured limits by $130,068. At September 30, 2008, we had deposits of $12,131,796 in banks in China. Our deposits in China are not insured as there is no equivalent of the FDIC as in the United States. We have not experienced any losses in such bank accounts through September 30, 2008.

At September 30, 2008 and December 31, 2007, bank deposits, (reclassified to reflect discontinued operations), by geographic area were as follows:

Country	September 30, 2008		December 31, 2007
United States	$ 7,505,066	38%	$ 9,942,948	52%
China	12,131,796	62%	9,081,656	48%
Total cash and cash equivalents	$ 19,636,862	100%	$ 19,024,604	100%

In addition, at December 31, 2007, we held an additional $1,370,327 in China which has been reclassified as “Subsidiaries held for sale” at September 30, 2008.

In an effort to mitigate any potential risk, we periodically evaluate the credit quality of the financial institutions at which we hold deposits, both in the United States and China.

Marketable securities available for sale at September 30, 2008 and December 31, 2007 consist of the following:

Total marketable securities available for sale	$8,559,219	$7,820,500
	100%	100%

We categorize securities as investment in marketable securities available for sale and investment in marketable securities available for sale-related party. The securities of China Logistics we own are restricted securities and cannot be readily resold by us absent a registration of those securities under the Securities Act of 1933 (the "Securities Act") or the availability of an exemption from the registration requirements under the Securities Act. The exemption from registration under Rule 144 of the Securities Act is not available because China Logistics is deemed not to be current in its filings with the SEC as a result of its need to restate its financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2007, the three months ended March 31, 2008 and the six months ended June 30, 2008.

The securities of one client, Dragon Capital Group Corp. ("Dragon Capital"), accounted for all investment in marketable securities available for sale-related party and totaled $209,351 and $1,315,488 at September 30, 2008 and December 31, 2007, respectively. Dragon Capital is a related party. Mr. Lisheng (Lawrence) Wang, the CEO and Chairman of the Board of Dragon Capital, is the brother of Dr. James Wang, CEO and Chairman of China Direct. These securities were issued by Dragon Capital as compensation for consulting services. Dragon Capital is a non-reporting company whose securities are quoted on the Pink Sheets, and as such, under Federal securities laws, securities of Dragon Capital cannot be readily resold by us, generally, absent a registration of those securities under the Securities Act. Dragon Capital does not intend to register the securities.

Accordingly, while under generally accepted accounting principles we are required to reflect the fair market value of our holdings in China Logistics and Dragon Capital, they are not readily convertible into cash and we may never realize the carrying value of these securities.

At September 30, 2008 our consolidated balance sheet includes accounts receivable-related party of $558,044 and $192,375 due from Taiyuan YiWei Magnesium Industry Co., Ltd. to Chang Magnesium and Golden Magnesium, respectively. The $558,044 resulted from sales generated during the nine months ended September 30, 2008 of residual scrap products created during the manufacturing process, which are outside the ordinary course of business for our Magnesium segment. These amounts reflect payment, which had not yet been collected as of September 30, 2008. Yuwei Huang, CEO and Chairman of Chang Magnesium, Chairman of Baotou Changxin Magnesium, and CEO and Vice Chairman of Golden Magnesium, is the Chairman of Taiyuan YiWei Magnesium Industry Co., Ltd., a Chinese limited liability company (“YiWei Magnesium”).

Accounts Receivable

Accounts receivable are reported at net realizable value. We have established an allowance for doubtful accounts based upon factors pertaining to the credit risks of specific customers, historical trends, age of the receivable and other information. Delinquent accounts are written off when it is determined that the amounts are uncollectible. At September 30, 2008 and December 31, 2007, allowances for doubtful accounts were $278,363 and $290,456, respectively.

Inventories

Inventories, consisting of raw materials and finished goods are stated at the lower of cost or market utilizing the weighted average method. Inventories as of September 30, 2008 and December 31, 2007 totaled $15,416,872 and $5,270,388, respectively. Due to the nature of our business and the short duration of the manufacturing process of our products, there was no work-in-process inventory at September 30, 2008 and December 31, 2007.

Accounts Payable-Related Parties

At September 30, 2008 our consolidated balance sheet reflects accounts payable-related party of $3,285,754, which is comprised of $2,186,773, $34,823, and $738,381 due YiWei Magnesium for the purchase of inventory by Chang Magnesium, Baotou Changxin Magnesium and Golden Magnesium, respectively, and $325,777 due to Shanxi Senrun Coal Chemistry Co., Ltd., from Golden Magnesium. At December 31, 2007 our consolidated balance sheet reflects accounts payable-related party of $964,114 comprised of $604,596 and $359,518 due YiWei Magnesium for the purchase of inventory by Chang Magnesium and Golden Magnesium, respectively.

Shanxi Senrun Coal Chemistry Co., Ltd., a Chinese limited liability company, holds a 20% interest in Golden Magnesium, (“Senrun Coal”).

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

As of January 1, 2008, we adopted on a prospective basis certain required provisions of Statement of Financial Accounting Standards (SFAS) No. 157, Fair Value Measurements, as amended by Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Financial Staff Position (FSP) No. 157-2, on the effective date of FASB Statement No. 157. Those provisions relate to our financial assets and liabilities carried at fair value and our fair value disclosures related to financial assets and liabilities. SFAS 157 defines fair value, expands related disclosure requirements and specifies a hierarchy of valuation techniques based on the nature of the inputs used to develop the fair value measures. Fair value is defined as the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. There are three levels of inputs to fair value measurements - Level 1, meaning the use of quoted prices for identical instruments in active markets; Level 2, meaning the use of quoted prices for similar instruments in active markets or quoted prices for identical or similar instruments in markets that are not active or are directly or indirectly observable; and Level 3, meaning the use of unobservable inputs. Observable market data should be used when available.

Most, but not all, of our financial instruments are carried at fair value, including, all of our cash equivalents, investments classified as available for sale securities and assets held for sale and are carried at fair value, with unrealized gains and losses, net of tax. Virtually all of our valuation measurements are Level 1 measurements. The adoption of SFAS 157 did not have a significant impact on our consolidated financial statements.

Marketable Securities

Through our Advisory Services division, we receive securities which include common stock and common stock purchase warrants from client companies as compensation for consulting services. We classify these securities as investments in marketable securities available for sale or investment in marketable securities available for sale-related party. These securities are stated at their fair value in accordance with SFAS No. 115 “Accounting for Certain Investments in Debt and Equity Securities ”, and EITF 00-8 “Accounting by a Grantee for an Equity Instrument to be Received in Conjunction with Providing Goods or Services ”. Unrealized gains or losses in investments in marketable securities available for sale are recognized as an element of other comprehensive income on a monthly basis based on fluctuations in the fair value of the security as quoted on an exchange or an inter-dealer quotation system. Realized gains or losses are recognized in the consolidated statements of operations when the securities are liquidated.

To date, all securities (exclusive of preferred stock and warrants) received from our client companies as compensation are quoted either on the Over the Counter Bulletin Board or the Pink Sheets. The securities are typically restricted as to resale. Our policy is to liquidate securities received as compensation when market conditions are favorable for sale. As these securities are often restricted, we are unable to liquidate these securities until the restriction is removed. We recognize revenue for common stock based on the fair value at the time common stock is granted and for common stock purchase warrants based on the Black-Scholes valuation model. Unrealized gains or losses on marketable securities available for sale and on marketable securities available for sale-related party are recognized as an element of comprehensive income on a monthly basis based on changes in the fair value of the security as quoted on an exchange or an inter-dealer quotation system. Once liquidated, realized gains or losses on the sale of marketable securities available for sale and marketable securities available for sale-related party are reflected in our net income for the period in which the security was liquidated.

Other-than-temporary impairment of securities are evaluated periodically to determine whether a decline in their value is other than temporary. Management utilizes criteria such as the magnitude and duration of the decline, in addition to the reasons underlying the decline, to determine whether the loss in value is other than temporary. The term “other-than-temporary” is not intended to indicate that the decline is permanent. It indicates that the prospects for a near term recovery of value are not necessarily favorable, or that there is a lack of evidence to support fair values equal to, or greater than, the carrying value of the investment. Once a decline in value is determined to be other than temporary, the value of the security is reduced and a corresponding impairment charge to earnings is recognized.

The unrealized loss on marketable securities available for sale, net of the effect of taxes, for the three months ended September 30, 2008 and 2007 was $6,323,015 and $763,053, respectively. The unrealized loss on marketable securities available for sale-related party, net of the effect of taxes, for the three months ended September 30, 2008 and 2007 was $641,139 and $467,269 respectively.

The unrealized loss on marketable securities available for sale, net of the effect of taxes, for the nine months ended September 30, 2008 and 2007 was $9,097,319 and $1,322,277, respectively. The unrealized loss on marketable securities available for sale-related party, net of the effect of taxes, for the nine months ended September 30, 2008 and 2007 was $1,099,737 and $1,023,351 respectively.

The realized (loss) gain on investments in marketable securities available for sale for the three months ended September 30, 2008 and 2007 was $0 and $494,605, respectively. The net realized loss on the sale of marketable securities available for sale-related party for the three months ended September 30, 2008 and 2007 was $2,400 and $9,871, respectively.

The realized (loss) gain on investments in marketable securities available for sale for the nine months ended September 30, 2008 and 2007 was ($35,705) and $700,841, respectively. Net realized loss on the sale of marketable securities available for sale-related party for the nine months ended September 30, 2008 and 2007 was $2,400 and $41,885, respectively.

Prepaid Expenses and Other Current Assets

Prepaid expenses and other current assets consist of (i) prepayments to vendors for merchandise that had not yet been shipped, (ii) the fair value of securities received from client companies associated with our Consulting segment assigned to our executive officers and employees as compensation, (iii) value added tax refunds available from the Chinese government, (iv) loans receivable and (v) other receivables. At September 30, 2008 and December 31, 2007 our consolidated balance sheets include prepaid expenses and other current assets of $21,301,463 and $13,951,918, respectively.

Prepaid expenses-related parties were $9,420,705 and $4,150,943, at September 30, 2008 and December 31, 2007, respectively. Chang Magnesium and Golden Magnesium advanced $4,391,173 and $28,497, respectively to YiWei Magnesium for the future delivery of inventory which has not yet been received. Golden Magnesium advanced $1,568,221 to Senrun Coal for the future supply of gas, which had not yet been provided. Pan Asia Magnesium advanced $1,682,292 to Shanxi Jinyang Coal and Coke Group Co., Ltd., for the future supply of gas, which had not yet been provided. The gas to be provided will be utilized in future periods as energy to fuel our magnesium production facilities. Baotou Changxin Magnesium advanced Youbing Yang, a member of its board of directors,

$1,750,522 for its purchase of a magnesium facility. This amount is classified as “other receivable-related party” as the transaction is pending as of the report date. Upon completion of a final agreement, this amount will be reclassified as a fixed asset.

Non-current prepaid expenses and other assets consist of (i) the fair value of the securities of our client companies assigned to executive officers and employees as compensation for services to be rendered over the term of the respective consulting agreement which will be amortized beyond the twelve month period, and (ii) other assets acquired in connection with the acquisition of Pan Asia Magnesium. Accordingly, non-current prepaid expenses totaled $229,058 and $433,075 at September 30, 2008 and December 31, 2007, respectively.

Property, Plant and Equipment

Property, plant and equipment are recorded at cost and depreciated on a straight line basis over their estimated useful lives of three to forty years. Maintenance and repairs are charged to expense as incurred. Significant renewals and improvements are capitalized.

Acquisitions

We account for acquisitions using the purchase method of accounting in accordance with the provisions of SFAS No. 141. In each of our acquisitions for the periods presented, we determined that fair values were equivalent to the acquired historical carrying costs.

Advances from Customers and Deferred Revenues

Advances from customers represent (i) prepayments to us for merchandise that had not yet been shipped to customers of $5,155,244, and (ii) the fair value of securities received as compensation which will be amortized over the term of the respective consulting agreement totaled $1,692,825. We will recognize these advances as revenues as customers take delivery of the goods or when the services have been rendered, in compliance with our revenue recognition policy. Advances from customers totaled $6,848,069 and $6,891,788 at September 30, 2008 and December 31, 2007 (reclassified to reflect discontinued operation), respectively.

Comprehensive Income

We follow Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 130 (SFAS 130) "Reporting Comprehensive Income" to recognize the elements of comprehensive income. Comprehensive income is comprised of net income and all changes to the statements of stockholders' equity, except those due to investments by stockholders, changes in paid-in capital and distributions to stockholders. Comprehensive income for the nine months ended September 30, 2008 and 2007 included net income, foreign currency translation adjustments, unrealized gains or losses on marketable securities available for sale, net of income taxes, and unrealized gains or losses on marketable securities available for sale-related party, net of income taxes.

Foreign Currency Translation

The accompanying consolidated financial statements are presented in United States dollars. The functional currency of our Chinese subsidiaries is the Renminbi, the official currency of the People's Republic of China, ("RMB"). Capital accounts of the consolidated financial statements are translated into United States dollars from RMB at their historical exchange rates when the capital transactions occurred. Assets and liabilities are translated at the exchange rates as of the balance sheet date. Income and expenditures are translated at the average exchange rates for the three and nine month periods ended September 30, 2008 and September 30, 2007. A summary of the conversion rates for the periods presented is as follows:

September 30,
2008 2007

Edgar Filing: China Direct, Inc. - Form 10-Q

Quarter end RMB : U.S. Dollar exchange rate	6.8551	7.5176
Average year-to-date RMB : U.S. Dollar exchange rate	6.9989	7.6758

The RMB is not freely convertible into foreign currency and all foreign exchange transactions must take place through PRC authorized institutions. No representation is made that the RMB amounts could have been, or could be, converted into United States dollars at the rates applied in the translation.

Impairment of Long-Lived Assets

In accordance with SFAS No. 144, "Accounting for the Impairment or Disposal of Long-Lived Assets", we periodically review our long-lived assets for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of the assets may not be fully recoverable. We recognize an impairment loss when the sum of expected undiscounted future cash flows is less than the carrying amount of the asset. The amount of impairment is measured as the difference between the estimated fair value and the book value of the underlying asset. We did not record any impairment charges during the nine months ended September 30, 2008 or 2007.

Subsidiaries Held for Sale

Long-lived assets are classified as held for sale when certain criteria are met. These criteria include management's commitment to a plan to sell the assets; the availability of the assets for immediate sale in their present condition; an active program to locate buyers and other actions to sell the assets has been initiated; the sale of the assets is probable and their transfer is expected to qualify for recognition as a completed sale within one year; the assets are being marketed at reasonable prices in relation to their fair value; and it is unlikely that significant changes will be made to the plan to sell the assets. We measure long-lived assets to be disposed of by sale at the lower of carrying amount or fair value, less cost to sell. See Note 14, "Subsidiaries Held for Sale," for further information.

Minority Interest

Under generally accepted accounting principles when losses applicable to the minority interest in a subsidiary exceed the minority interest in the equity capital of the subsidiary, the excess is not charged to the majority interest since there is no obligation of the minority interest to make good on such losses. We, therefore, absorbed all losses applicable to a minority interest where applicable. If future earnings do materialize, we shall be credited to the extent of such losses previously absorbed.

Income Taxes

We accounted for income taxes in accordance with SFAS No. 109, "Accounting for Income Taxes". SFAS No. 109 requires the recognition of deferred tax assets and liabilities to reflect the future tax consequences of events that have been recognized in our financial statements or tax returns. Measurement of the deferred items is based on enacted tax laws. In the event the future consequences of differences between the financial reporting and tax basis of our assets and liabilities result in a deferred tax asset, SFAS No. 109 requires an evaluation of the probability of our being able to realize the future benefits indicated by such assets. A valuation allowance related to a deferred tax asset is recorded when it is more likely than not that some or the entire deferred tax asset will not be realized.

Basic and Diluted Earnings per Share

Basic income per common share is computed by dividing income available to common shareholders by the weighted average number of shares of common stock outstanding for the periods presented. Diluted income per share reflects the potential dilution that could occur if securities were exercised or converted into common stock or other contracts to issue common stock resulted in the issuance of common stock that would then share in our income, subject to anti-dilution limitations.

Revenue Recognition

We follow the guidance of the Securities and Exchange Commission's Staff Accounting Bulletin ("SAB") No. 104 and SAB Topic 13 for revenue recognition. In general, we record revenue when persuasive evidence of an arrangement exists, services have been rendered or product delivery has occurred, the sales price to the customer is fixed or determinable, and collectability is reasonably assured.

Stock Based Compensation

We account for the grant of stock options and restricted stock awards in accordance with SFAS 123R, "Share-Based Payment, an Amendment of FASB Statement No. 123" ("SFAS 123R"). SFAS 123R requires companies to recognize in the statement of operations the grant-date fair value of stock options and other equity based compensation.

Recent Pronouncements

In February 2007, the FASB issued SFAS No. 159, "The Fair Value Option for Financial Assets and Financial Liabilities-including an amendment of FAS 115". SFAS 159 allows entities to choose, at specified election dates, to measure eligible financial assets and liabilities at fair value that are not otherwise required to be measured at fair value. If a company elects the fair value option for an eligible item, changes in that item's fair value in subsequent reporting periods must be recognized in current earnings. SFAS 159 is effective for fiscal years beginning after November 15, 2007. SFAS 159 had no impact on our financial statements as of September 30, 2008, and we will continue to evaluate the impact, if any, of SFAS 159 on our financial statements.

In December 2007, the FASB issued SFAS 141 (revised 2007), "Business Combinations". SFAS 141R is a revision to SFAS 141 and includes substantial changes to the acquisition method used to account for business combinations (formerly the "purchase accounting" method), including broadening the definition of a business, as well as revisions to accounting methods for contingent consideration and other contingencies related to the acquired business, accounting for transaction costs, and accounting for adjustments to provisional amounts recorded in connection with acquisitions. SFAS 141R retains the fundamental requirement of SFAS 141 that the acquisition method of accounting be used for all business combinations and for an acquirer to be identified for each business combination. SFAS 141R is effective for periods beginning on or after December 15, 2008, and will apply to all business combinations occurring after the effective date. We are currently evaluating the requirements of SFAS 141R and the impact of adoption on our consolidated financial statements.

In December 2007, the FASB issued SFAS 160, "Non-controlling Interests in Consolidated Financial Statements - an amendment of Accounting Research Bulletin No. 51, Consolidated Financial Statements" ("ARB 51"). This Statement amends ARB 51 to establish new standards that will govern the (1) accounting for and reporting of non-controlling interests in partially owned consolidated subsidiaries and (2) the loss of control of subsidiaries. A non-controlling interest will be reported as part of equity in the consolidated financial statements. Losses will be allocated to the non-controlling interest, and, if control is maintained, changes in ownership interests will be treated as equity transactions. Upon a loss of control, any gain or loss on the interest sold will be recognized in earnings. SFAS 160 is effective for periods beginning after December 15, 2008. We are currently evaluating the requirements of SFAS 160 and the impact of adoption on our consolidated financial statements.

In March 2008, the FASB issued SFAS 161, “Disclosures about Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities” (“SFAS 161”). SFAS 161 is intended to improve financial reporting about derivative instruments and hedging activities by requiring enhanced disclosures to enable investors to better understand their effects on an entity’s financial position, financial performance, and cash flows. It is effective for financial statements issued for fiscal years and interim periods beginning after November 15, 2008, with early application encouraged. We are currently evaluating the requirements of SFAS 161 and the impact of adoption on our consolidated financial statements.

In May 2008, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (“FASB”) issued FASB Staff Position (“FSP”) APB 14-1, Accounting for Convertible Debt Instruments That May Be Settled in Cash upon Conversion (Including Partial Cash Settlement). FSP APB 14-1 clarifies that convertible debt instruments that may be settled in cash upon either mandatory or optional conversion (including partial cash settlement) are not addressed by paragraph 12 of APB Opinion No. 14, Accounting for Convertible Debt and Debt issued with Stock Purchase Warrants. Additionally, FSP APB 14-1 specifies that issuers of such instruments should separately account for the liability and equity components in a manner that will reflect the entity’s nonconvertible debt borrowing rate when interest cost is recognized in subsequent periods. FSP APB 14-1 is effective for financial statements issued for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2008, and interim periods within those fiscal years. We will adopt FSP APB 14-1 beginning in the first quarter of fiscal 2009, and this standard must be applied on a retrospective basis. We are evaluating the impact the adoption of FSP APB 14-1 will have on our consolidated financial position and results of operations.

In May 2008, the FASB issued SFAS No. 162, The Hierarchy of Generally Accepted Accounting Principles. This standard is intended to improve financial reporting by identifying a consistent framework, or hierarchy, for selecting accounting principles to be used in preparing financial statements that are presented in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States for non-governmental entities. SFAS No. 162 is effective 60 days following approval by the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board’s amendments to AU Section 411, The Meaning of Present Fairly in Conformity with Generally Accepted Accounting Principles. We do not expect SFAS No. 162 to have a material impact on the preparation of our consolidated financial statements.

On September 16, 2008, the FASB issued FSP No. EITF 03-6-1, “Determining Whether Instruments Granted in Share-Based Payment Transactions Are Participating Securities” to address the question of whether instruments granted in share-based payment transactions are participating securities prior to vesting. The FSP determines that unvested share-based payment awards that contain rights to dividend payments should be included in earnings per share calculations. The guidance will be effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2008. We are currently evaluating the requirements of FSP No. EITF 03-6-1.

On October 10, 2008, the FASB issued FSP No. 157-3, Determining the Fair Value of a Financial Asset When the Market for That Asset Is Not Active. This FASB Staff Position (FSP) clarifies the application of FASB Statement No. 157, Fair Value Measurements (“Statement 157”), in a market that is not active and provides an example to illustrate key considerations in determining the fair value of a financial asset under those circumstances. Statement 157 was issued in September 2006, and is effective for financial assets and financial liabilities for financial statements issued for fiscal years beginning after November 15, 2007, and interim periods within those fiscal years. We have adopted FSP 157-3 and determined that it had no impact as of September 30, 2008 on our financial statements, and we will continue to evaluate the impact, if any, of FSP 157-3 on our financial statements.

EITF Issue No. 03-6, "Participating Securities and the Two-Class Method under FASB Statement No. 128" (EITF 03-6) requires companies with participating securities to calculate earnings per share using the two-class method. Our shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock are considered to be participating securities as these securities are entitled to dividends declared on our common stock; therefore, EITF 03-6 requires the allocation of a portion of undistributed earnings to the Series A Convertible Preferred Stock in the calculation of basic earnings per share.

NOTE 4 - COMPREHENSIVE INCOME

Comprehensive income is comprised of net income and other comprehensive income or loss. Other comprehensive income or loss refers to revenue, expenses, gains and losses that under accounting principles generally accepted in the United States are included in comprehensive income but excluded from net income as these amounts are recorded directly as an adjustment to stockholders' equity.

Our other comprehensive income consists of currency translation adjustments, unrealized loss on marketable securities available for sale, net of taxes and unrealized loss on marketable securities available for sale-related party, net of taxes. Property use rights, consisting of mining and property use rights amounted to $583,918 and $553,304 at September 30, 2008 and December 31, 2007, respectively.

We acquired property use rights valued at $96,078, in connection with the acquisition of CDI Magnesium in February 2007. We will begin to amortize the value of the property use rights when the magnesium refinery commences operations.

In connection with our acquisition of CDI Jixiang Metal in December 2007, we acquired mining rights to approximately 51 acres located in the Yongshun Kaxi Lake Mining area of China. Acquisition costs for the mining rights as of September 30, 2008 are $487,840. CDI Jixiang Metal is presently in the exploration stage of its business operations and is engaged in the evaluation of mineral deposits or reserves. We have not established a reserve. There is no assurance that commercially viable mineral deposits exist on this property and further exploration will be required before a final evaluation as to the economic feasibility is determined.

Mineral property acquisition costs, site restoration costs and development costs on mineral properties with proven and probable reserves are capitalized and will be depleted using the units-of-production method over the estimated life of the reserves. If there are insufficient reserves to use as a basis for depleting such costs, they will be written off as mineral property or mineral interest impairment in the period in which the determination is made. Site restoration costs are depleted over the term of their expected life. The development potential of mining properties is established by the existence of proven and probable reserves, reasonable assurance that the property can be permitted as an operating mine and evidence that there are no metallurgical or other impediments to the production of saleable metals.

Exploration costs incurred on mineral interests, other than acquisition costs, prior to the establishment of proven and probable reserves are charged to operations as incurred. Development costs incurred on mineral interests with proven and probable reserves will be capitalized as mineral properties. We regularly evaluate our investments in mineral interests to assess the recoverability and/or the residual value of the investments in these assets. All mineral interests and mineral properties are reviewed for impairment whenever events or circumstances change which indicate the carrying amount of an asset may not be recoverable, utilizing established guidelines based upon undiscounted future net cash flows from the asset or upon the determination that certain exploration properties do not have sufficient potential for economic mineralization.

The estimates of mineral prices and operating, capital and reclamation costs, when available, are subject to certain risks and uncertainties, which may affect the recoverability of mineral property costs. Although we make our best estimates of these factors, it is possible that changes could occur in the near term, which could adversely affect the future net cash flows to be generated from our mineral properties.

NOTE 11 - STOCKHOLDERS' EQUITY

Preferred Stock

We have 10,000,000 shares of preferred stock, par value $.0001, authorized, of which we designated 12,950 as our Series A Convertible Preferred Stock in February 2008. At September 30, 2008, there were 1,006 shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock issued and outstanding. There were no shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock issued and outstanding as of December 31, 2007.

Series A Preferred Stock and Related Dividends

On February 11, 2008, we entered into a Securities Purchase Agreement with accredited investors to sell, in a private placement transaction, 12,950 shares of our Series A Convertible Preferred Stock (“Series A Preferred Stock”) together with common stock purchase warrants to purchase an aggregate of 1,850,000 shares of our common stock. At closing, we received gross proceeds of $12,950,000. The Series A Preferred Stock has a stated value per share of $1,000, carries an 8% per annum dividend rate payable quarterly in arrears and is convertible into common stock at $7.00 per share. The dividends are payable in cash or shares of our common stock, at our option, subject to certain provisions. If paid in shares of common stock, the stock shall be valued at the lower of the conversion price or the average of the weighted average price of the 10 consecutive trading days immediately preceding the dividend date.

Upon conversion of the Series A Preferred Stock, we are required to pay an amount (the “Make-Whole Additional Amount”) equal to 8% of the stated value of the shares converted or redeemed - essentially an extra year's dividend. This amount shall be paid in shares valued at the lower of the conversion price or 90% of the weighted average price of our common stock for the 10 consecutive trading days immediately preceding the date of notice.

A registration statement covering the public resale of the shares of common stock underlying the Series A Preferred Stock and the warrants was declared effective by the Securities and Exchange Commission on April 23, 2008.

As of September 30, 2008, holders of our Series A Preferred Stock have converted 11,944 shares of the 12,950 shares of the Series A Preferred Stock. Each share of Series A Preferred stock was convertible into 142.8541 shares of common stock. As a result of the conversion of the Series A Preferred Stock, we have issued 1,706,250 shares of our common stock, 10,346 shares of common stock in payment of the accrued dividends, and 136,500 shares of common stock, the Make Whole Additional Amount.

SEPTEMBER 30, 2008

The 1,850,000 warrants issued to purchasers of the Series A Preferred Stock, exclusive of the 300,000 warrants issued to Roth Capital Partners, LLC (“Roth Capital”) as a fee, were determined to have a fair value of $2.07 per warrant with a total valuation of $3,829,500. Inputs used in making this determination included:

- Value of $6.83 per share of common stock;
- Expected volatility factor of 90%;
- $0 dividend rate on the common stock;
- Warrant exercise price of $8.00;
- Estimated time to exercise of 1 year; and
- Risk free rate of 2.06%.

The relative fair value of the warrants of $2,765,946 has been recorded as a return to the Preferred Stockholder (dividend) by debiting Retained Earnings and crediting Additional Paid-In Capital.

In addition, under the provisions of EITF 98-5 ‘Accounting for Convertible Securities with Beneficial Conversion Features or Contingently Adjustable Conversion Ratios’ (“EITF 98-5”), and EITF 00-27 ‘Application of Issue No. 98-5 to Certain Convertible Instruments’ (“EITF 00-27”), the Series A Preferred Stock issuance carried an embedded beneficial conversion feature at issuance. Accordingly, after first allocating the proceeds received from the Series A Preferred Stock offering to the preferred shares and detachable warrants on a relative fair value basis, we derived an intrinsic value of the conversion feature of $2,451,446. As the Series A Preferred Stock does not have a stated redemption date or finite life, the deemed dividend was recognized immediately as a non-cash charge during the nine months ended September 30, 2008. This non-cash one-time preferred stock deemed dividend was calculated as the difference between the average of our common stock price of $6.83 per share and the calculated effective conversion price of the Series A Preferred Stock. The effective conversion price of the Series A Preferred Stock was determined with reference to the relative fair value allocation of proceeds between the Series A Preferred Stock and Warrants issued. The non-cash deemed dividend did not have an effect on net earnings, or cash flows for the three months or nine months ended September 30, 2008. The estimated fair market value of the Warrants of $2,765,946 has been recorded as additional paid-in capital and a reduction to the recorded amount of the Series A Preferred Stock.

We paid Roth Capital a fee of $1,295,000 for serving as the placement agent in the Series A Preferred Stock Offering. Roth Capital also received 300,000 common stock purchase warrants, exercisable at $8.00 per share for five years as part of their fee. At February 11, 2008, the warrants granted to Roth Capital had a fair value of $2.07 per share, totaling $621,000. The warrants issued to Roth Capital have the same terms, and were valued in the same manner as the warrants issued to the purchasers of the Series A Preferred Stock.

In addition, at closing of the Series A Preferred Stock Offering, Dr. James Wang and Messrs. Marc Siegel, David Stein and Richard Galterio entered into “lock up” agreements whereby they agreed not to sell any shares of common stock beneficially owned by them for a sale price of less than $7.70 per share. These agreements expired November 11, 2008.

NOTE 14 – DISCONTINUED OPERATIONS

During the third quarter of 2008, we elected to exit the alternative energy and recycling business conducted by CDI Clean Technology Group, Inc. (“CDI Clean Technology”). We devised a formal plan of disposal of a majority ownership in these subsidiaries. The business of CDI Clean Technology and its subsidiaries comprised substantially all of the business of our Clean Technology segment. We classified the assets and liabilities of CDI Clean Technology and its subsidiaries as “Subsidiaries held for sale” in accordance with the provisions of FASB No. 144.

On September 30, 2008, we ceased depreciating the assets of CDI Clean Technology and its subsidiaries and as a result of the held for sale classification, we assessed the estimated fair value of the subsidiary and no impairment charge was recognized. The results of operations from CDI Clean Technology and its subsidiaries are classified as discontinued operations in 2008 and previously reported results of operations of CDI Clean Technology have been reclassified to reflect this subsidiary as “Subsidiaries held for sale”. On October 30, 2008, we completed the sale of an 81% interest in our wholly owned subsidiary CDI Clean Technology to PE Brothers Corp. for $1,240,000, accordingly no loss was recognized during the nine months ended September 30, 2008. We plan to maintain our 19% ownership interest in CDI Clean Technology.

Item 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations.

The following discussion should be read in conjunction with the information contained in our unaudited consolidated financial statements and the notes thereto appearing elsewhere herein and in conjunction with the Management's Discussion and Analysis set forth in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2007.

We are on a calendar year, as such the nine month period ending September 30, is our third quarter. The year ended December 31, 2007 is referred to as "2007" and the coming year ending December 31, 2008 is referred to as "2008".

OVERVIEW OF OUR PERFORMANCE AND OPERATIONS

Our Business

We are a management and advisory services organization which owns and consults with business entities operating in the People's Republic of China ("PRC"). We operate in two primary divisions: (i) Management Services and (ii) Advisory Services. Our Management Services division acquires controlling interest in Chinese business entities which we consolidate as either our wholly or majority owned subsidiaries. Through this ownership control, we provide management advice as well as investment capital, enabling these subsidiaries to successfully expand their businesses. Our Advisory Services division provides consulting services to Chinese entities seeking access to the U.S. capital markets. As of the date of this report, our Management Services division oversees 14 subsidiaries in various industries with over 2,100 employees in the PRC. Our Advisory Services division currently has five clients which trade publicly in the U.S. markets.

Within our two divisions, we maintain and report three business segments as defined in SFAS No. 131 after giving effect to our decision to exit the clean technology segment during this period:

- Magnesium segment,
- Basic Materials segment, and
- Consulting segment.

Our Magnesium segment is currently our largest segment by revenue, assets and number of portfolio companies. Magnesium is used in a variety of markets and applications due to the physical and mechanical properties of the element and its alloys. Global production of magnesium was estimated to be approximately 755,000 metric tons in 2007. China represents approximately 80% of the global production of magnesium. As of November 1, 2008 the price of magnesium on the spot market was approximately $2,800 per metric ton, which has decreased from approximately $3,900 per metric ton at December 31, 2007. We believe this decrease is attributable to a decline in demand due to the current global economic slowdown. Despite the current market declines, we believe the magnesium industry represents a significant opportunity and, accordingly, we have made significant investments to expand our operations in this segment. We currently have eight portfolio companies in our Magnesium segment.

Index

Our Basic Materials segment includes the sale and distribution of industrial grade synthetic chemicals consisting primarily of: glacial acetic acid and acetic acid derivatives, acrylic acid and acrylic ester, vinyl acetate-ethylene (“VAE”) and polyvinyl alcohol (“PVA”). In the three months ended September 2008, we commenced operations at CDI Beijing. CDI Beijing is involved in the distribution of wood and steel products primarily to companies engaged in industrial and civil construction projects. We are evaluating a possible investment to acquire a producer of pharmaceutical intermediates used in the manufacture of consumer and pharmaceutical products. We started construction at CDI Jixing Metal which we expect to complete in the first quarter of 2009 and are awaiting an independent valuation of the ore deposits at CDI Jixiang Metal.

Our Consulting segment provides services to Chinese entities seeking access to the U.S. capital markets. These services include general business consulting, Chinese regulatory advice, translation services; formation of entities in the PRC, coordination of professional resources, strategic alliances and partnerships, advice on effective means of accessing U.S. capital markets, mergers and acquisitions, coordination of Sarbanes-Oxley compliance, and corporate asset evaluations.

Our Performance

Revenues during the nine months ended September 30, 2008 totaled $200.1 million, a 77.5% increase as compared to the nine months ended September 30, 2007. During the nine months ended September 30, 2008 we continued to experience a dramatic growth in revenues, income and total assets as compared to prior years. This growth was primarily attributable to (i) investments in our Magnesium segment in the latter half of 2007 to obtain a controlling interest in several joint venture entities operating within the PRC, (ii) an increase in the market price of magnesium during the nine months ended September 30, 2008, and (iii) the expansion into the steel and wood distribution business in our basic materials segment. The global economic slowdown has adversely affect the rate of our year-over-year growth across all of our business segments. In spite of the weakness in the global economy, the disruption caused by the 2008 Beijing Olympics and the strength of the RMB relative to the U.S. dollar, our revenues remain strong but are increasing at a lower rate of growth.

Our annual growth rate of over 77.5% is not sustainable, but rather reflects the continued implementation of the acquisition component of our business model, the completion of recent consulting transactions that may not occur in the future and the launch of our wood and steel distribution business. Accordingly, we believe comparisons between the third quarter and nine months ending September 30, 2008 and 2007 are of limited value and should not be viewed as an indication of our period-over-period sustainable growth rate potential.

Our Outlook

During the remainder of 2008 and beyond, we face a number of challenges in growing our business, such as the continuing integration of our PRC based subsidiaries. At September 30, 2008 we had $68.0 million of working capital including $19.6 million in cash and cash equivalents. While this amount is believed sufficient to meet our current obligations, we may seek additional capital to provide funds to enable each of our subsidiaries to grow their businesses and operations and to take advantage of strategic opportunities. We continue to work with the management of our portfolio companies to identify strategies to maximize their potential within their segment and to the consolidated group.

In the third quarter of 2008, we experienced reduced demand in our Magnesium and Basic Materials segments as a result of the weak global economy. We cannot predict when global economic conditions will improve. We forecast continued weak demand within our Magnesium and Basic Materials segments until global economic conditions improve. In spite of the weakness in the global economy and the disruption caused by the 2008 Beijing Olympics, we expect our revenues to remain consistent with the level of revenues in the third quarter of 2008.

Index

In November 2008, the Chinese government announced a $586 billion domestic economic stimulus program aimed at bolstering domestic economic activity. The two-year program includes tax rebates, spending in housing, infrastructure, agriculture, health care and social welfare, and a tax deduction for capital spending by companies. We expect to see a benefit to the Chinese economy from this stimulus program. However in the short-term, it remains to be seen whether domestic consumption can compensate for slower export growth, and the impact this will have on our revenues through the balance of this year.

Our performance for the nine months ended September 2008 as compared to the nine months ended September 30, 2007 reflects a marked year-to-date increase in our operations within China. As of the date of this report, the majority of our operations, personnel and assets are located in China. A significant majority of our resources are dedicated to our Management Services division relative to our Advisory Services division. We intend to devote additional resources, which will support the continuing growth of our operations in China.

While consulting was the genesis of our company, our Advisory Services division continues to diminish as a percentage of our overall combined operations as we continue to expand our operations in China. In 2008, made efforts to attract clients with larger operations and revenues and in 2009, we intend to continue these efforts. However, given the size and growth of our Management Services division, our Advisory Services division will continue to represent a diminishing portion of our overall operations. As such, we will devote fewer resources to this division and focus more of our resources on our Management Services division and its operations within China.

We have begun discussions with the owners of the minority interests in three of our magnesium companies, Chang Magnesium, Golden Magnesium, and Baotou Changxin Magnesium, to consolidate them to form the nucleus of a business that will focus on the production of pure magnesium. Once combined, we anticipate these three companies will produce, sell and distribute a combined 72,000 metric tons of magnesium in 2009.

The remaining portfolio companies within our Magnesium segment, Pan Asia Magnesium and CDI Magnesium, will focus on the magnesium alloy sector of the market. We believe the stabilization of magnesium pricing will afford us an opportunity to position ourselves to capitalize on this sector of the market. Commencing with the fourth quarter of 2008 we expect these companies will form our magnesium alloy division.

We will continue to strengthen our Basic Materials segment. In the third quarter of 2008, we formed CDI Beijing. CDI Beijing is engaged in the distribution in China of basic resources such as steel and lumber. CDI Beijing is expected to increase our market presence in the Beijing region. CDI Metal Recycling will be realigned under this segment.

During September 2008, we decided to discontinue the Clean Technology segment. In the third quarter of 2008, we completed a formal plan of disposal and entered into an agreement to sell our majority interest in CDI Clean Technology and its subsidiaries, CDI Wanda and Yantai CDI Wanda. Our current recycling operations conducted through CDI Metal Recycling will be realigned into our Basic Materials segment. As the global markets improve, we may reevaluate the Clean Technology segment.

Risk Factors. We encounter a variety of challenges that may affect our business and should be considered as described in Item 1A “Risk Factors” of our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2007 and in the section of this quarterly report captioned Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations “Cautionary Note Regarding Forward-Looking Information and Factors That May Affect Future Results”.

Presentation of Financial Statements. The presentation of the statements of operations included in Part 1, Item 1 in this Form 10-Q have been modified to allow for the reporting of deductions from net income to arrive at income (loss) applicable to common stockholders. Items reflected in our comprehensive income for the periods reported are now included in our consolidated notes to the unaudited consolidated financial statements included in this Form 10-Q. In addition, portion of our audited financial statements have been reclassified to recognize discontinued operations treatment reflecting the planned disposal of a majority interest in our Clean Technology Segment.

- Our acquisitions of Golden Magnesium in July 2007 and Pan Asia Magnesium in September 2007,
- An increase in the market price of magnesium during the nine months ended September 30, 2008,
- Production increases within our existing magnesium operations,

- An increase in revenues in the third quarter of $5.5 million from our Consulting segment, and
- These increases were partially offset by a reduction in revenues in Lang Chemical within our Basic Materials segment.

Total consolidated operating income for the third quarter of 2008 was $7.4 million, an increase of 108.8% compared to the third quarter of 2007, and for the nine months of 2008 was $26.8 million, an increase of 197.9% over the nine months of 2007. These increases were due primarily to the $4.2 million and $17.8 million of operating income generated by our Magnesium segment for the third quarter and nine months of 2008, respectively and $3.2 million and $8.7 million of operating income from our Consulting segment for the third quarter and nine months of 2008, respectively. The increases in operating income from our Magnesium segment were generated by Chang Magnesium, Golden Magnesium and Pan Asia Magnesium. Our operations in this segment in 2008 reflect consolidation for the entire nine month period of Golden Magnesium, acquired in July 2007, and Pan Asia Magnesium, acquired in September 2007.

Our cost of revenues for the third quarter of 2008 was $52.8 million, an increase of 35.3% compared to the third quarter of 2007, and for the nine months of 2008 were $166.1 million, an increase of 63.7% compared to the nine months of 2007. These increases for the three and nine month period were primarily due to the significantly higher sales in our Magnesium segment. Our cost of revenues for the third quarter of 2008 as a percentage of revenues decreased, however, by 6.2% and 6.9% compared to the third quarter of 2007 primarily as a result of favorable purchases of raw materials and cost savings derived from economies of scale within our Magnesium segment.

Our gross profit for the third quarter of 2008 was $10.6 million, an increase of 131.0% compared to the third quarter of 2007, and for the nine months of 2008 was $34 million, an increase of 200.2% compared to the nine months of 2007. These increases are attributable to the higher income generated by our Magnesium segment and consulting segment and the reduction in the cost of revenues as a percentage of revenues in our Magnesium segment.

Magnesium Segment Operating Results

Revenues. Magnesium segment revenues for the third quarter of 2008 were $45.7 million, an increase of 75.1% compared to the third quarter of 2007, and for the nine months of 2008 were $146.0 million, an increase of 128.4% compared to the nine months of 2007, due primarily to (i) our acquisitions of Golden Magnesium in July 2007 and Pan Asia Magnesium in September 2007 and (ii) the increase in the market price of magnesium during the nine months ended September 30, 2008.

Cost of Revenues. Magnesium segment cost of revenues as a percentage of revenues for the third quarter of 2008 was 88.4%, a decrease of 1.3% compared to the third quarter of 2007. For the nine months of 2008 cost of revenues was 86.5%, a decrease of 5.6%. These decreases were due primarily to favorable purchases of raw materials, increased sales of magnesium we manufactured which carries a higher margin than magnesium we purchased and resold to our customers and cost savings derived from economies of scale in our manufacturing process as a result of increased production. In the third quarter, however, we witnessed falling market prices of magnesium with higher cost of goods sold for inventory we had stockpiled in advance of the 2008 Beijing Olympic Games. We expect the recent decline in the price of raw materials within the segment to continue in future periods as a result of reduced demand for magnesium.

Operating Expenses. Magnesium segment operating expenses for the third quarter of 2008 were $1.1 million, an increase of $694,000 compared to the third quarter of 2007, and for the nine months of 2008 were $1.9 million, an increase of $1.3 million compared to the nine months of 2007. These increases were primarily attributable to increases in production and sales and support staff and facilities of the magnesium business we acquired in the second half of 2007 and the first half of 2008. In particular, operating expenses for the nine months of 2008 included start up costs related to Baotou Changxin Magnesium, which we acquired in February 2008, and Golden Magnesium which we acquired in July 2007. While we expect operating expenses will continue to increase as we expand our magnesium operations, we anticipate these costs will stabilize as a percentage of revenues as these newly constructed facilities ramp up production.

Index

Outlook. During the nine months of, 2008 our Magnesium segment produced, sold and/or distributed approximately 43,000 metric tons of magnesium. The weak global economy has reduced demand for magnesium and the price of magnesium has declined approximately 25% since August 2008. We are unable to predict if and when demand or prices will increase. As a result we expect revenues generated from the sale of magnesium will decrease in future periods. We will seek to continue to purchase and resell magnesium from third parties if demand permits.

Basic Materials segment (formerly Chemical segment)

Revenues. Basic Materials segment revenues for the third quarter of 2008 were $12.2 million, a decrease of $3.5 million compared to the third quarter of 2007, and for the nine months of 2008 were $39.6 million, a decrease of $2.8 million compared to the nine months of 2007. This decrease is due to a generally weaker global economy. In spite of the weakness in the global economy, the disruption caused by the 2008 Beijing Olympics and the strength of the RMB relative to the U.S. dollar, our revenues in our recently launched steel and wood distribution business in the third quarter of 2008 positively affected our Basic Materials segment.

Cost of Revenues. Basic Materials segment cost of revenues as a percentage of revenues for the third quarter of 2008 decreased for third quarter of 2008 compared to the third quarter of 2007, and for the nine months of 2008 compared to the nine months of 2007 as a result of favorable purchasing in light of weakening demand for supplies.

Operating Expenses. Operating expenses in the Basic Materials segment for the third quarter of 2008 were $462,000, an increase of $286,000 compared to the third quarter of 2007. Operating expenses for the nine months of 2008 were $1.1 million, an increase of approximately $728,000 compared to the nine months of 2007. The increases are due primarily to increased shipping expenses at Lang Chemical due to higher fuel costs, operating and development costs related to CDI Jingkun Zinc and CDI Jixiang Metal which we acquired in the fourth quarter of 2007 but have not commenced operations.

Outlook. We expect continued short term weakness in our Basic Materials segment due to the global economic slowdown and the disruption caused by the 2008 Beijing Olympics. In spite of these factors, we are hopeful the recently announced $586 billion domestic stimulus program can stimulate growth in the Chinese economy at a higher rate of growth over the next two years.

As of the date of this report, we have commenced construction at CDI Jixing Metal, which we expect to complete in the first quarter of 2009. We have not commenced operations at CDI Jixiang Metal or CDI Jingkun Zinc. We are presently awaiting an independent valuation of the ore deposits at CDI Jixiang Metal. Once completed, our previously announced plans to distribute zinc concentrate, to mine zinc and to manufacture lead and zinc oxide will be evaluated due to the current weakness in the price of zinc. Also, we are evaluating a possible investment to acquire a facility capable of manufacturing pharmaceutical intermediates used in the manufacture of consumer and pharmaceutical products.

Consulting segment

Revenues. Consulting segment revenues for the third quarter of 2008 were $5.5 million, an increase of 199.7% compared to the third quarter of 2007, and for the nine months of 2008 totaled $14.5 million, an increase of 126.1% compared to the nine months of 2007. The increase was due primarily to completion of various transactions from our client companies and the gain of one additional client company during the second quarter of this year.

Cost of Revenues. Consulting segment cost of revenues for the third quarter of 2008 were $662,000, an increase of 250.3% compared to the third quarter of 2007, and for the nine months of 2008 were $1.5 million, an increase of 53.3% compared to the nine months of 2007. The increase in the third quarter was due primarily to professional fees related to our client companies. The cost of revenues as a percentage of revenues was approximately 10.4% for the nine months ended September 30, 2008 as compared to approximately 15.4% in 2007.

Operating Expenses. Operating expenses, which include general and administrative expenses, for the third quarter of 2008 totaled $1.6 million, an increase of 238.6% compared to the third quarter of 2007, and for the nine months of 2008 were $4.3 million, an increase of 203.0% compared to the nine months of 2007, these increases were due primarily to additional stock based compensation expenses incurred during the third quarter of 2008 and increases in our infrastructure costs as we have expanded our staff and administrative support facilities to support our expanded operations. We anticipate total operating expenses for this segment will remain consistent with current levels.

Outlook. During the nine months of 2008 we experienced growth in our Consulting segment attributable to new clients. In 2008 we have made efforts to improve the caliber of the clients within this segment and in 2009 we will continue these efforts. In light of the current economic environment and a severe liquidity crisis in the capital markets, we believe it will be difficult for smaller companies to attract interest in the financial community. As such we do not anticipate this segment will grow for the remainder of 2008. Furthermore, given the size and growth of our Management Services division, our Consulting segment will continue to represent a dwindling portion of our operations. As such, we will devote fewer resources to the consulting segment and focus more on our operations within China.

Total Other Income

Total other income for the third quarter of 2008 was $218,000, a decrease of 59.6% compared to the third quarter of 2007, and for the nine months of 2008 was $719,000, a decrease of 38% as compared to the nine months of 2007. This decrease was primarily comprised of:

- $137,307 and $463,315 for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2008, respectively, within our Consulting segment representing interest income generated from short-term loans to YiWei Magnesium and Dragon Capital,
- $100,644 and $295,762 for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2008, respectively, representing interest income generated from short-term loans due to CDI Jingkun Zinc from a supplier, and
- a realized loss of $35,705 for the nine months ended September 30, 2008 on the sale of marketable securities within our Consulting segment during 2008.

Income Tax Expense

Income tax benefit for the third quarter of 2008 totaled $567,000, which included a $300,000 tax refund that was due from our 2007 tax year. For the nine months of 2008 tax expense was $473,000 due primarily to increased net income from our consolidated operations.

Net Income

Net Income for the third quarter of 2008 was $5.9 million, an increase of 97.5% compared to the third quarter of 2007, and for the nine months of 2008 was $18.2 million, an increase of 155.0% compared to the nine months of 2007 due primarily to our Magnesium segment which significantly expanded profitable operations and revenues, despite higher taxes within the segment. This growth resulted primarily from additional capacity and acquisitions made in the second half of 2007 and first quarter of 2008.

Foreign Currency Translation Gain

The functional currency of our subsidiaries operating in the PRC is the Chinese dollar or Renminbi (“RMB”). The financial statements of our subsidiaries are translated to U.S. dollars using period end rates of exchange for assets and liabilities, and average rates of exchange (for the period) for revenues, costs, and expenses. Net gains and losses resulting from foreign exchange transactions are included in the consolidated statements of operations. As a result of these translations, we reported a foreign currency translation gain of $2.9 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2008 and a loss of approximately $131,000 for the third quarter of 2008. Gains on currency translation for the three and nine months ended September 30 2007 were $225,000 and $393,000, respectively. This non-cash gain had the effect of increasing our reported comprehensive income. Please see Note 4 - Comprehensive Income included in the Notes to our unaudited consolidated financial statements appearing elsewhere in this report.

Unrealized Loss on Marketable Securities Available for Sale, Net of Income Tax

The unrealized loss on marketable securities available for sale, net of income taxes for the nine months of 2008 totaled $9.1 million, compared to an unrealized loss of $1.3 million for the nine months of 2007. The unrealized loss on marketable securities available for sale-related party net of income taxes for the nine months of 2008 was approximately $1.1 million, compared to $1.0 million for the nine months of 2007. These declines reflect a reduction in the fair value of securities received from our client companies for consulting services provided in the segment. We believe the declines are due in large part to the overall decline in global market conditions during the period.

Comprehensive Income

Comprehensive income for the nine months of 2008 was $10.9 million, an increase of 111.5% compared to the nine months of 2007, is a result of our net income of $18.2 million plus foreign currency translation gains of approximately $3.0 million, less unrealized losses on marketable securities available for sale (including marketable securities available for sale-related party), net of income tax of $10.2 million.

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

Liquidity is the ability of a company to generate funds to support its current and future operations, satisfy its obligations and otherwise operate on an ongoing basis. At September 30, 2008 our working capital was approximately $68.1 million as compared to approximately $41.0 million at December 31, 2007.

Our cash balance at September 30, 2008 totaled approximately $19.6 million, an increase of approximately $600,000 over our year-end balance. During 2008 we have received net proceeds of $11.5 million from a preferred stock offering which was offset by investing and operational expenditures including $11.2 million in property, and equipment made during the nine months ended September 30, 2008.

We have commitments, which will be satisfied from working capital, including $3.0 million to increase the registered capital of CDI Beijing.

We are also evaluating a possible investment to acquire a manufacturer of pharmaceutical intermediates used in the manufacture of consumer and pharmaceutical products in order to expand the product offerings within our Basic Materials segment.

The continued implementation of our business model, which includes providing investment capital to augment the growth of our portfolio companies and expand our business through new accretive acquisitions, will in all likelihood require additional capital. Accordingly, we may need to raise additional working capital through private or public financing. We are permitted to sell on a delayed or continuous basis up to $70,000,000 worth of our common stock or other securities along with certain selling shareholders at any time pursuant to a registration statement that we filed pursuant to Rule 415 under the Securities Act of 1933 and declared effective by the SEC on August 1, 2008.

We maintain cash balances in the United States and China. At September 30, 2008 and December 31, 2007, bank deposits by geographic area (reclassified to reflect discontinued operations), was as follows:

Country	September 30, 2008		December 31, 2007
United States	$ 7,505,066	38%	$ 9,942,948	52%
China	12,131,796	62%	9,081,656	48%
Total cash and cash equivalents	$ 19,636,862	100%	$ 19,024,604	100%

In addition, at December 31, 2007, we held an additional $1,370,327 in China which has been reclassified as “Subsidiaries held for sale” at September 30, 2008.

A substantial portion of our cash balance, approximately 61.8% at September 30, 2008, is in the form of RMB held in bank accounts at financial institutions located in the PRC. Cash held in banks in the PRC is not insured. The value of cash on deposit in China of approximately $12.1 million at September 30, 2008 has been converted based on the exchange rate as of September 30, 2008. In 1996, the Chinese government introduced regulations, which relaxed restrictions on the conversion of the RMB; however restrictions still remain, including but not limited to restrictions on foreign invested entities. Foreign invested entities may only buy, sell or remit foreign currencies after providing valid commercial documents at only those banks authorized to conduct foreign exchanges. Furthermore, the conversion of RMB for capital account items, including direct investments and loans, is subject to PRC government approval. Chinese entities are required to establish and maintain separate foreign exchange accounts for capital account items. We cannot be certain Chinese regulatory authorities will not impose more stringent restrictions on the convertibility of the RMB, especially with respect to foreign exchange transactions. Accordingly, cash on deposit in banks in the PRC is not readily deployable by us for purposes outside of China.

Current assets as of September 30, 2008 totaled $101.6 million, an increase of 46.7% compared to December 31, 2007 and reflects an increase in most current asset items including cash and cash equivalents, accounts receivables, inventories, and prepaid expenses and other assets. These increases were due mainly to an increase in our overall level of operations funded in part by our preferred stock offering completed in February 2008. Current liabilities as of September 30, 2008 totaled $33.4 million, reflecting a 17.1% increase from our December 31, 2007 balance.

A summary of total assets by segment at September 30, 2008 and at December 31, 2007 is as follows:

Our accounts receivables, net of allowances for doubtful accounts, as of September 30, 2008 was $18.3 million, an increase of $5.5 million compared to December 31, 2007. This increase is attributed to the overall increase in sales levels primarily in our Magnesium segment. Our Magnesium and Basic Materials segments generally offer payment terms to its customers of 90 days. Our Consulting segment generally receives full payment in advance for consulting services to be provided, upon entering into a consulting agreement.

Inventories as of September 30, 2008 were $15.4 million, an increase of approximately $10.1 million compared to December 31, 2007. This increase is due primarily to higher magnesium inventories which accounted for 87.5% and 84.6% of consolidated inventory levels at September 30, 2008 and December 31, 2007, respectively. These levels increased sharply as a result of the 128% increase year-over-year in the level of magnesium related revenues and inventory on-hand required for our magnesium related acquisitions made in the second half of 2007 and first quarter 2008.

Prepaid expenses and other current assets consist of prepayments to vendors for inventory, other receivables, the fair value of client securities which were assigned to our executive officers and employees as compensation, loans receivable, assets acquired in the acquisition of Pan Asia Magnesium, VAT tax refunds, and security deposits. Prepaid expenses and other current assets as of September 30, 2008 were $21.3 million. Other current assets include $1,750,522 due to Baotou Changxin Magnesium from Youbing Yang, a member of its board of directors. Baotou Changxin Magnesium advanced the funds towards its purchase of a magnesium facility. This amount is classified as "other receivable-related party" as the transaction is pending as of the report date. Upon completion of a final agreement, this amount will be reclassified as a fixed asset.

Accounts payable and accrued expenses represent payables associated with the general operation of each segment, including accrued payrolls. Advances from customers represent prepayments for products, which have not yet been shipped. Of the $6.8 million in advances from customers reflected at September 30, 2008, $4.5 million is attributable to our Magnesium segment for orders placed in the ordinary course of business but not yet shipped.

For the nine months ended September 30, 2008, our net increase in cash totaled $612,000 and was comprised of $183,011 used in operating activities, $12.9 million used in investing activities, $12.0 million provided by financing activities, and the effect of prevailing exchange rates on our cash position of a positive $1.7 million.

Cash Used in Operating Activities

Net cash used in operating activities for the nine months ended September 30, 2008 totaled $183,011 compared to $6.2 million for the same period of the preceding year. This decrease in net cash used in operating activities was primarily due to the $11.0 million increase in our net income between the periods, an increase in our account payables and accounts payables-related party of $3.4 million, and our non cash charges in depreciation and stock based compensation of $1.3 million and $1.7 million, respectively. These amounts were mainly offset by an increase in inventories of $10.1 million, an increase in accounts receivable of $7.9 million, and an increase in prepaid expenses and prepaid expenses-related party of $10.9 million.

Cash used in operating activities for the nine months ended September 30, 2007 was $6.2 million For the nine months ended September 30, 2007, we used cash in operating activities due to increases in prepaid expenses and prepaid expenses related party of $10.5 million, and an increase in accounts receivable of $7.0 million. Cash (Used in) Provided by Investing Activities

Net cash used in investing activities for the nine months ended September 30, 2008 totaled $12.9 million compared to net cash provided by investing activities of $2.6 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2007. The net cash used in investing activities for the nine months ended September 30, 2008 was primarily a result of additional property plant and equipment fixed asset purchases of $11.2 million mainly to expansion in our magnesium segment, and increases in loans receivables of 3.1 million, partially offset by a decrease in notes receivables of $938,000 and proceeds from the sale of marketable securities of $432,000.

The net cash provided by investing activities as of September 30, 2007 of $2.6 million was primarily due to $1.9 million received from sale of marketable securities, and $2.2 million received in conjunction with our acquisitions, offset by the purchase of $1.4 million in property, plant and equipment.

These increases were offset by repayment of advances in the amount of $141,000 made by our executive officers during the nine months ended September 30, 2007.

Series A Preferred Stock and Related Dividends

In February 2008, we completed a private placement whereby we sold to accredited investors 12,950 shares of our Series A Convertible Preferred Stock ("Series A Preferred Stock") together with common stock purchase warrants to purchase an aggregate of 1,850,000 shares of our common stock. At closing, we received gross proceeds of $12,950,000 with net proceeds of approximately $11.5 million. The Series A Preferred Stock has a stated value per share of $1,000, carries an 8% per annum dividend rate payable quarterly in arrears and is convertible into our common stock at $7.00 per share. The dividends are payable in cash or shares of our common stock, at our option, subject to certain provisions.

As of September 30, 2008, holders of our Series A Preferred Stock have converted 11,944 shares of the 12,950 shares of the Series A Preferred Stock sold in the February 2008 offering. As a result of the conversion of the Series A Preferred Stock, we have issued 1,706,250 shares of our common stock, 10,346 shares of common stock in payment of the accrued dividends and 136,500 shares of common stock pursuant to the make whole additional amount feature of the Series A Preferred Stock. In connection with this offering, we recorded the relative fair value of the warrants of $2,765,946 and an additional $2,451,446 attributable to the beneficial conversion feature as a non-cash one-time preferred stock deemed dividend in the first quarter of 2008. Off Balance Sheet Items

Under SEC regulations, we are required to disclose our off-balance sheet arrangements that have or are reasonably likely to have a current or future effect on our financial condition, such as changes in financial condition, revenues or expenses, results of operations, liquidity, capital expenditures or capital resources that are material to investors. An off-balance sheet arrangement means a transaction, agreement or contractual arrangement to which any entity that is not consolidated with us is a party, under which we have:

- Any obligation under certain guarantee contracts,
- Any retained or contingent interest in assets transferred to an unconsolidated entity or similar arrangement that serves as credit, liquidity or market risk support to that entity for such assets,
- Any obligation under a contract that would be accounted for as a derivative instrument, except that it is both indexed to our stock and classified in stockholder's equity in our statement of financial position, and
- Any obligation arising out of a material variable interest held by us in an unconsolidated entity that provides financing, liquidity, market risk or credit risk support to us, or engages in leasing, hedging or research and development services with us.

We do not have any off-balance sheet arrangements that we are required to disclose pursuant to these regulations. In the ordinary course of business, we enter into operating lease commitments, purchase commitments and other contractual obligations. These transactions are recognized in our financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States.

Critical Accounting Policies

The discussion and analysis of our financial condition and results of operations are based upon our unaudited consolidated financial statements, which have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States. The preparation of these unaudited consolidated financial statements requires us to make estimates and judgments that affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, revenues and expenses, and related disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities. On an on-going basis, we evaluate our estimates based on historical experience and on various other assumptions that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances, the results of which form the basis for making judgments about the carrying values of assets and liabilities that are not readily apparent from other sources. Actual results may differ from these estimates under different assumptions or conditions.

A summary of significant accounting policies is included in Note 2 to the unaudited consolidated financial statements included in this quarterly report. Management believes that the application of these policies on a consistent basis enables us to provide useful and reliable financial information about our operating results and financial condition.

Acquisitions

We account for acquisitions using the purchase method of accounting in accordance with SFAS No. 141. In each of our acquisitions for the periods presented, we determined that fair values were equivalent to the acquired historical carrying costs.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

In February 2007, the FASB issued SFAS No. 159, “The Fair Value Option for Financial Assets and Financial Liabilities-including an amendment of FAS 115”. SFAS 159 allows entities to choose, at specified election dates, to measure eligible financial assets and liabilities at fair value that are not otherwise required to be measured at fair value. If a company elects the fair value option for an eligible item, changes in that item’s fair value in subsequent reporting periods must be recognized in current earnings. SFAS 159 is effective for fiscal years beginning after November 15, 2007. SFAS 159 had no impact on our financial statements as of September 30, 2008, and we will continue to evaluate the impact, if any, of SFAS 159 on our financial statements.

In December 2007, the FASB issued SFAS 141 (revised 2007), “Business Combinations”. SFAS 141R is a revision to SFAS 141 and includes substantial changes to the acquisition method used to account for business combinations (formerly the “purchase accounting” method), including broadening the definition of a business, as well as revisions to accounting methods for contingent consideration and other contingencies related to the acquired business, accounting for transaction costs, and accounting for adjustments to provisional amounts recorded in connection with acquisitions. SFAS 141R retains the fundamental requirement of SFAS 141 that the acquisition method of accounting be used for all business combinations and for an acquirer to be identified for each business combination. SFAS 141R is effective for periods beginning on or after December 15, 2008, and will apply to all business combinations occurring after the effective date. We are currently evaluating the requirements of SFAS 141R and the impact of adoption on our consolidated financial statements.

In December 2007, the FASB issued SFAS 160, “Non-controlling Interests in Consolidated Financial Statements - an amendment of Accounting Research Bulletin No. 51, Consolidated Financial Statements ” (“ARB 51”). This Statement amends ARB 51 to establish new standards that will govern the (1) accounting for and reporting of non-controlling interests in partially owned consolidated subsidiaries and (2) the loss of control of subsidiaries. A non-controlling interest will be reported as part of equity in the consolidated financial statements. Losses will be allocated to the non-controlling interest, and, if control is maintained, changes in ownership interests will be treated as equity transactions. Upon a loss of control, any gain or loss on the interest sold will be recognized in earnings. SFAS 160 is effective for periods beginning after December 15, 2008. We are currently evaluating the requirements of SFAS 160 and the impact of adoption on our consolidated financial statements.

In March 2008, the FASB issued SFAS 161, “Disclosures about Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities” (“SFAS 161”). SFAS 161 is intended to improve financial reporting about derivative instruments and hedging activities by requiring enhanced disclosures to enable investors to better understand their effects on an entity’s financial position, financial performance, and cash flows. It is effective for financial statements issued for fiscal years and interim periods beginning after November 15, 2008, with early application encouraged. We are currently evaluating the requirements of SFAS 161 and the impact of adoption on our consolidated financial statements.

In May 2008, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (“FASB”) issued FASB Staff Position (“FSP”) APB 14-1, Accounting for Convertible Debt Instruments That May Be Settled in Cash upon Conversion (Including Partial Cash Settlement). FSP APB 14-1 clarifies that convertible debt instruments that may be settled in cash upon either mandatory or optional conversion (including partial cash settlement) are not addressed by paragraph 12 of APB Opinion No. 14, Accounting for Convertible Debt and Debt issued with Stock Purchase Warrants. Additionally, FSP APB 14-1 specifies that issuers of such instruments should separately account for the liability and equity components in a manner that will reflect the entity’s nonconvertible debt borrowing rate when interest cost is recognized in subsequent periods. FSP APB 14-1 is effective for financial statements issued for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2008, and interim periods within those fiscal years. We will adopt FSP APB 14-1 beginning in the first quarter of fiscal 2009, and this standard must be applied on a retrospective basis. We are evaluating the impact the adoption of FSP APB 14-1 will have on our consolidated financial position and results of operations.

In May 2008, the FASB issued SFAS No. 162, The Hierarchy of Generally Accepted Accounting Principles. This standard is intended to improve financial reporting by identifying a consistent framework, or hierarchy, for selecting accounting principles to be used in preparing financial statements that are presented in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States for non-governmental entities. SFAS No. 162 is effective 60 days following approval by the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board’s amendments to AU Section 411, The Meaning of Present Fairly in Conformity with Generally Accepted Accounting Principles . We do not expect SFAS No. 162 to have a material impact on the preparation of our consolidated financial statements.

On September 16, 2008, the FASB issued FSP No. EITF 03-6-1, “Determining Whether Instruments Granted in Share-Based Payment Transactions Are Participating Securities” to address the question of whether instruments granted in share-based payment transactions are participating securities prior to vesting. The FSP determines that unvested share-based payment awards that contain rights to dividend payments should be included in earnings per share calculations. The guidance will be effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2008. We are currently evaluating the requirements of FSP No. EITF 03-6-1.

On October 10, 2008, the FASB issued FSP No. 157-3, Determining the Fair Value of a Financial Asset When the Market for That Asset Is Not Active. This FASB Staff Position (FSP) clarifies the application of FASB Statement No. 157, Fair Value Measurements (“Statement 157”), in a market that is not active and provides an example to illustrate key considerations in determining the fair value of a financial asset under those circumstances. Statement 157 was issued in September 2006, and is effective for financial assets and financial liabilities for financial statements issued for fiscal years beginning after November 15, 2007, and interim periods within those fiscal years. We have adopted FSP 157-3 and determined that it had no impact as of September 30, 2008 on our financial statements, and we will continue to evaluate the impact, if any, of FSP 157-3 on our financial statements.

This report contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. The Securities and Exchange Commission encourages companies to disclose forward-looking information so that investors can better understand a company’s future prospects and make informed investment decisions. This Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q and other written and oral statements that we make from time to time contain such forward-looking statements that set out anticipated results based on management’s plans and assumptions regarding future events or performance. In particular, these include statements relating to future actions, future performance or results of current and anticipated sales efforts, expenses, the outcome of contingencies, such as legal proceedings, and financial results. A list of factors that could cause our actual results of operations and financial condition to differ materially is set forth below, and these factors are discussed in greater detail under Item 1A – “Risk Factors” of our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2007 and registration statement filed on Form S-3 (File No. 333-151648) filed on July 16, 2008:

- Our ability to identify and close acquisitions of operating companies in China in a cost effective manner that enhance our financial condition.
- Our need for additional financing which we may not be able to obtain on acceptable terms, the dilutive effect additional capital raising efforts in future periods may have on our current shareholders and the increased interest expense in future periods related to additional debt financing.
- Our ability to effectively integrate our acquisitions and to manage our growth and our inability to fully realize any anticipated benefits of acquired business.
- The value of the equity securities we accept as compensation is subject to adjustment which could result in losses to us in future periods.
- The Investment Company Act of 1940 which limits the value of securities we can accept as payment for our business consulting services which may limit our future revenues.
- Our acquisition efforts in future periods may be dilutive to our then current shareholders.
- Our dependence on certain key personnel.

- The lack various legal protections in certain agreements to which we are a party and which are material to our operations which are customarily contained in similar contracts prepared in the United States.
- Our ability to assure that related party transactions are fair to our company.
- Chang Magnesium's chief executive officer is also chief executive officer of a group of companies which directly compete with Chang Magnesium.
- The risks and hazards inherent in the mining industry on the operations of our basic materials segment.
- The effect of changes resulting from the political and economic policies of the Chinese government on our assets and operations located in the PRC.
- The influence of the Chinese government over the manner in which our Chinese subsidiaries must conduct our business activities.
- The impact on future inflation in China on economic activity in China.

- Our ability to enforce our rights due to policies regarding the regulation of foreign investments in China.
- Our ability to comply with the United States Foreign Corrupt Practices Act which could subject us to penalties and other adverse consequences.
- Our ability to establish adequate management, legal and financial controls in the PRC.
- The provisions of our articles of incorporation and bylaws which may delay or prevent a takeover which may not be in the best interests of our shareholders.

We caution that the factors described herein and other factors could cause our actual results of operations and financial condition to differ materially from those expressed in any forward-looking statements we make and that investors should not place undue reliance on any such forward-looking statements. Further, any forward-looking statement speaks only as of the date on which such statement is made, and we undertake no obligation to update any forward-looking statement to reflect events or circumstances after the date on which such statement is made or to reflect the occurrence of anticipated or unanticipated events or circumstances. New factors emerge from time to time, and it is not possible for us to predict all of such factors. Item 4T. Controls and Procedures.

Disclosure Controls and Procedures

Under the supervision and with the participation of our management, including our Chief Executive Officer who serves as our principal executive officer and our Vice President - Finance who serves as our principal financial officer, we conducted an evaluation of the effectiveness of the design and operation of our disclosure controls and procedures, as defined in Rules 13a-15(e) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, as of the period ended September 30, 2008 (the "Evaluation Dates"). Based on this evaluation, our principal executive officer and principal financial officer concluded as of the Evaluation Dates that our disclosure controls and procedures were effective such that the information relating to China Direct, including our consolidated subsidiaries, required to be disclosed in our SEC reports (i) is recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified in SEC rules and forms and (ii) is accumulated and communicated to our management, including our principal executive officer and principal financial officer, as appropriate, to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosure. Our evaluation included all business entities, which were part of our company at the Evaluation Dates.

Our management, including our Chief Executive Officer and our Vice President - Finance, does not expect that our disclosure controls and procedures or our internal controls will prevent all error and all fraud. A control system, no matter how well conceived and operated, can provide only reasonable, not absolute, assurance that the objectives of the control system are met. Further, the design of a control system must reflect the fact that there are resource constraints and the benefits of controls must be considered relative to their costs. Due to the inherent limitations in all control systems, no evaluation of controls can provide absolute assurance that all control issues and instances of fraud, if any, within our company have been detected.

Changes in Internal Control over Financial Reporting

There have been no changes in our internal control over financial reporting during our last fiscal quarter that has materially affected, or is reasonably likely to materially affect, our internal control over financial reporting.

Item 1A. Risk Factors

Risk factors describing the major risks to our business can be found under Item 1A, "Risk Factors", in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2007. There has been no material change in our risk factors from those previously discussed in the Annual Report on Form 10-K.

Item 2. Unregistered Sales of Equity Securities and Use of Proceeds.

(a) Recent Sales of Unregistered Securities

During the three month period ended September 30, 2008, we granted 20,748 shares of restricted common stock, $.0001 par value, which vest over the next twenty-four months.

The restricted stock was awarded to our employees under the 2008 Non-Executive Stock Incentive Plan approved by our shareholders. The restricted stock awards are subject to vesting periods ranging from 2008 to 2011. The shares were granted pursuant to an exemption from registration under Section 4(2) of the Securities Act of 1933 since the award by us did not involve a public offering. The award was not a "public offering" as defined in Section 4(2) of the Securities Act of 1933 due to the insubstantial number of persons involved, size of the offering, manner of the offering and number of shares awarded. In addition, the recipients had the necessary investment intent as required by Section 4(2) of the Securities Act since they agreed to allow us to include a legend on any shares issued stating that such shares are restricted pursuant to Rule 144 of the 1933 Securities Act. Based on an analysis of the above factors, we have met the requirements to qualify for exemption under Section 4(2) of the Securities Act of 1933 for the above awards.
