Item 2. Revocability of Proxy

Any Proxy executed and returned by a stockholder to Mr. Coates may be revoked at any time thereafter if written notice of revocation is given to Mr. Coates, prior to the vote taken at the meeting, or by execution of a subsequent proxy which is presented to the meeting, or if the stockholder attends the meeting and votes by ballot, except as to matters upon which a vote shall have been cast pursuant to the authority conferred by such Proxy prior to such revocation.

Item 3. Dissenters Right of Appraisal

Not Applicable.

Item 4. Persons Making the Solicitation

This solicitation is made by C. Robert Coates and by Bert R. Williams III. Mr. Coates and Mr. Williams have retained D. F. King & Company Inc. for solicitation and advisory services in connection with this solicitation. Solicitations will be made by use of the mail, formal or informal meetings, and/or by telephone contact with one or more stockholders. The cost of this solicitation will be borne by Mr. Coates. Mr. Coates has spent an estimated $10,000 to date, and estimates that total expenditures will equal approximately $200,000. Bert R. Williams III will not bear any of the expenses of solicitation.

If Mr. Coates is successful in this solicitation, he will seek reimbursement from the Company for the costs of solicitation, and does not expect that the issue of reimbursement will be submitted to a vote of stockholders.

Item 5. Interest of Certain Persons in Matters to be Acted Upon

As of May 31, 2002, C. Robert Coates beneficially owned 644,200 shares of the Company's outstanding Common Stock. Bert R. Williams III owned 500 shares of the Company's outstanding Common Stock.

Mr. Coates is seeking to have himself and Mr. Williams elected to fill seats up for election to the Board of Directors at the next Annual or Special Meeting of Shareholders. If successful, Mr. Coates and Mr. Williams will each become a member of the Company's Board of Directors, and each has consented to serve as Director if elected.

Mr. Coates and Mr. Williams are advised that the Company's Directors are compensated $1000 per meeting, and are reimbursed for their expenses. In addition, non-employee directors receive grants of stock options under the Northfield Laboratories Nonqualified Stock Option Plan for Outside Directors.

Except for the above and other than Mr. Coates' security holdings in the Company, neither Mr. Coates nor Mr. Williams has any substantial interest, direct or indirect, in the matter(s) to be acted upon for which proxies are solicited. Mr. Coates' and Mr. Williams' present principal occupations and the principal business address of the corporations with which each is employed are as follows:

Neither C. Robert Coates nor Bert R. Williams III is currently nor has either ever been, a party to any contract, arrangement or understanding with any person with respect to any securities of the Company, including, but not limited to joint ventures, loan or option arrangements, puts or calls, guarantees against loss or guarantees of profit, division of losses or profits, or the giving or withholding of proxies.

Neither C. Robert Coates nor Bert R. Williams III has had any transactions of any nature with the Company or any of its subsidiaries. Neither C. Robert Coates nor Bert R. Williams III has had any arrangement or understanding with any person with respect to any future employment by the Company or its affiliates or with respect to any future transactions to which the Company or any of its affiliates will or may be a party.

Item 6. Voting Securities and Principal Holders Thereof

The Company reported in its 2001 Proxy Statement dated July 19, 2001, that it had approximately 14,265,875 shares of Common Stock outstanding, each of which was entitled to one vote on all matters to come before the stockholders.

The record date for the Company's year 2002 Annual Shareholders' Meeting is not known at this time by Mr. Coates, but has been projected to be on or about August 31, 2002, which corresponds to the record date for the 2001 Annual Shareholders' Meeting.

Mr. Coates does not have current information as to the security ownership of management or of beneficial ownership of the Company's stock who own more than 5% of the Company's outstanding common stock.

Item 7. Directors & Executive Officers

C. Robert Coates is nominating both himself and Bert R. Williams III as candidates to be elected to fill seats on the Company's Board of Directors which comes up for election at the Company's next Annual (or Special) Stockholders' Meeting.

Mr. Coates is not a party to any material proceeding adverse to the Company, or any subsidiary or affiliation, nor does he have any interest, material or otherwise, adverse to the Company. The following lawsuit was filed in August 2001. Mr. Coates withdrew the suit.

C. Robert Coates was the plaintiff in a lawsuit captioned Coates v. Northfield Laboratories. Mr. Coates' suit was filed on August 10, 2001 in response to Northfield's surprise announcement on August 3, 2001 that its annual meeting would be rescheduled to be held earlier than expected on August 31, 2001, and not the date the Company had publicly announced that it expected to hold its annual meeting, October 11, 2001. The suit was filed in Delaware to delay Northfield's annual meeting of shareholders. In this complaint, Mr. Coates requested that the 2001 annual meeting be postponed to allow additional time for Mr. Coates to solicit shareholder proxies to elect two representatives to the board at that time. On August 17, 2001, Mr. Coates announced that the lawsuit against Northfield Laboratories was withdrawn, based on the Company's announcement that it planned to submit its Biologics License Application (BLA) for its blood substitute product to the FDA before Labor Day.

Edgar Filing: COATES C ROBERT - Form PREC14A

Mr. Williams is not a party to any material proceeding adverse to the Company, or any subsidiary or affiliations, nor does he have any interest, material or otherwise, adverse to the Company. Neither C. Robert Coates nor Bert R. Williams III is engaged in any transactions of any kind with the Company or its subsidiaries.

Item 8. Compensation of Directors and Executive Officers

Northfield Laboratories compensates outside directors for their participation at Board of Directors meetings and at committee meetings of the Board of Directors at a rate of $1,000 per meeting. Directors are also reimbursed for their expenses for attending meetings of the Board of Directors and committees. In addition, non-employee directors receive grants of stock options under the Northfield Laboratories Nonqualified Stock Option Plan for Outside Directors.

Item 18. Matters Not Required to be Submitted

Not Applicable.

Item 19. Amendment of Charter, Bylaws or Other Documents

Not Applicable.

Item 20. Other Proposed Action

Not Applicable.

Item 21. Voting Procedures

According to the Company's Proxy Statement for its 2001 Annual Meeting of Shareholders, the following voting procedures apply:

Only stockholders of record at the close of business on the record date (the "Record Date") for the Meeting, will be entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the Meeting and any adjournments thereof. Each outstanding share of Common Stock is entitled to one vote. Shares of Common Stock may not be voted cumulatively. Mr. Coates does not know if there are other classes of voting securities of the Company outstanding. A majority of the outstanding shares of Common Stock present in person or by proxy is required for a quorum.

Shares of Common Stock represented by Proxies, which are properly executed, duly returned and not revoked, will be voted in accordance with the instructions contained therein. If no specification is indicated on the Proxy, the shares of Common Stock represented thereby will be voted for the election as Directors of the persons who have been nominated by the Board of Directors. The execution of a Proxy will in no way affect a stockholder's right to attend the meeting and vote in person. Any Proxy executed and returned by a stockholder may be revoked at any time thereafter if written notice of revocation is given to the Secretary of the Company prior to the vote to be taken at the Meeting, or by execution of a subsequent proxy which is presented to the Meeting, or if the stockholder attends the Meeting and votes by ballot, except as to any matters upon which a vote shall have been cast pursuant to the authority conferred by such Proxy prior to such revocation. For purposes of determining the presence of a quorum for transacting business at the Meeting, abstentions will be treated as shares that are present but which have not been voted.
