Press Release

Moscow, 11 November 2002. Wimm-Bill-Dann Foods OJSC today announced 100% acquisition of Tomilino, a core warehouse complex in the Moscow Region. The deal worth approximately US$6.0 million provides Wimm-Bill-Dann with a modern logistics center in close proximity to Moscow.

In a further move to enhance operational efficiency, Wimm-Bill-Dann acquired Tomilino to streamline and centralize distribution of its juice products. Another step in the distribution enhancement program undertaken by Wimm-Bill-Dann was signing an agreement with Boston Consulting Group to review and improve supply chain management activities.

Dmitry Kolokatov, Head of Juice Division said: The acquisition of the Tomilino warehouse complex will allow us to optimize our juice distribution network in the key Moscow city and Moscow regional markets. The complex is equipped with the latest technology in automated control systems, and will provide a comprehensive range of services from storage to direct delivery to our clients. Going forward, this acquisition will reduce direct delivery and warehousing expenses.

The Tomilino facility and logistics center occupies 6 hectares of land, with the total warehouse area of 5,300 square meters and 3,000 square meters of office space. The completely modernized facility can accommodate storage of 10,000 pallets, shipping over 1000 tons of juices to clients daily.
