Effective on June 16, 2006, our Board of Directors appointed Mr. John Bradley to fill the vacancy on our Board of Directors. Mr. Bradley has been determined by our Board of Directors to qualify as an independent director. Mr. Bradley is currently Vice President of Sales for ESP, a position he has held since 1998. Mr. Bradley's career with ESP spans nearly 26 years beginning with Hamilton Test Systems, formerly a subsidiary of United Technologies Corporation. He is responsible for worldwide sales of all ESP emission testing equipment and is active in several industry trade associations. He is a Director for Auto Repair Coalition, a trade association representing large auto repair entities based in California. Mr. Bradley received his Bachelor of Science in Corporate Studies from the University of Connecticut.

On June 19, 2006 and June 23, 2006, Mr. Bahram Yusefzadeh and Mr. Erik Sander resignations from our Board of Directors will become effective. There were no disagreements between Mr. Yusefzadeh, Mr. Sanders and the Company that led to the resignation. Mr. Yusefzadeh and Mr. Sander are working together on a time intensive project that will no longer allow them the time to fulfill their obligations as directors of Speedemissions.
