ABB names Ravi Uppal to Executive Committee

Head of Indian unit to join management board as head of Global Markets

Zurich, Switzerland, June 13, 2007 ABB has appointed Ravi Uppal, head of the company's Indian business and South Asia region, to its management board as head of Global Markets.

Uppal will take up the position on the Executive Committee on July 1, 2007. He replaces Dinesh Paliwal who is leaving ABB this month to become chief executive of Harman International, a maker of audio and electronic equipment that is listed on the New York Stock Exchange.

Uppal has been head of ABB in India since 2001 and assumed responsibility for the South Asia region in 2006. The Indian national has worked at ABB for 20 years in locations including Sweden and the Middle East.

Ravi Uppal has been instrumental in ABB's successful performance in India, said ABB President and Chief Executive Officer Fred Kindle. He is an accomplished leader with strong customer orientation and great execution skills.

The new head of Global Markets will be responsible for all ABB regions and countries as well as the biggest customer accounts. He will be based in Zurich, Switzerland, and retain his current roles until successors have been announced.
