Item 5.03. Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year.

Effective December 15, 2011, the Board of Directors of Alexandria Real Estate Equities, Inc. (Alexandria) amended Section 7 of Article II of the Bylaws of Alexandria to change the vote required for the election of a director in an uncontested election from a plurality of votes cast to the affirmative vote of a majority of the total votes cast for or against, or withheld as to, such nominee (the Bylaw Amendment). In contested elections, a plurality of votes cast will continue to be required for the election of a director.

In connection with the adoption of the Bylaw Amendment, Alexandria s Board of Directors approved an amendment to Alexandria s Corporate Governance Guidelines (the Guidelines Amendment). The Guidelines Amendment became effective on December 15, 2011, and requires any nominee for director who is an incumbent director not elected by the vote required in Alexandria s Bylaws, and with respect to whom no successor has been elected, to promptly tender his or her offer to resign to Alexandria s Board of Directors for its consideration. The Guidelines Amendment also provides that the Nominating & Governance Committee of the Board of Directors of Alexandria shall consider such offer and recommend to the Board whether to accept the offer to resign. Alexandria s Board of Directors will decide whether to accept any such tendered resignation within ten days after the date of the election and will promptly and publicly disclose its decision. If the resignation is not accepted, the director will continue to serve until Alexandria s next annual meeting of stockholders and until the director s successor is duly elected and qualified or until the director s earlier resignation or removal.

The foregoing description of the Bylaw Amendment is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete text of the Bylaws of Alexandria, a copy of which is filed as Exhibit 3.1 hereto and incorporated herein by reference.

Item 9.01. Financial Statements and Exhibits.
