During the Company's two fiscal years ended December 31, 2004 and through September 7, 2005, there were no disagreements between the Company and PWC on any matters of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure, which disagreements, if not resolved to the satisfaction of PWC, would have caused it to make a reference to the subject matter of the disagreement in connection with its audit report which did not occur.

Edgar Filing: SERVOTRONICS INC /DE/ - Form DEF 14A

The Company provided PWC with a copy of its Form 8-K disclosure and requested that PWC furnish the Company with a letter addressed to the Securities and Exchange Commission stating whether PWC agreed with the Company's statements. PWC agreed that there were no disagreements, and issued the letter.

On September 7, 2005, the Audit Committee engaged Freed Maxick & Battaglia, CPAs, PC ("Freed Maxick"), effective September 8, 2005, to serve as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2005. During the Company's two most recent fiscal years, and subsequently through the effective date of the engagement of Freed Maxick, neither the Company nor any person acting on behalf of the Company consulted with Freed Maxick with respect to the application of accounting principles to a specific completed or contemplated transaction, or the type of audit opinion that might be rendered on the Company's consolidated financial statements, or any other matters or reportable events listed in Item 304 (a)(1)(iv) of Regulation S-B.

From August 16, 2005 to October 20, 2005 RSM McGladrey, Inc., a business services company, was retained by the Audit Committee of the Company's Board of Directors to investigate and report to the Audit Committee with respect to certain management-discovered unauthorized practices by a former financial officer of the Company with respect to the Company's payroll accounts. The Directors of Freed Maxick are co-employed by RSM McGladrey, Inc.

Freed Maxick has been selected by the Board of Directors as the independent public accountants for the Company's current fiscal year. A representative of Freed Maxick is expected to be present at the meeting with the opportunity to make a statement if he desires to do so and will be available to respond to appropriate questions of shareholders.

The following table shows the fees paid or accrued by the Company for the audit and other services provided by Freed Maxick and RSM McGladrey for fiscal 2005 and by PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP for fiscal 2004.

(1) Audit fees represent fees for professional services provided in connection with the audit of the Company's financial statements and review of the Company's quarterly financial statements and audit services provided in connection with other statutory or regulatory filings.

(2) Tax fees principally included fees for tax preparation and tax consulting services.

(3) For 2005, this was primarily for the investigation and report by RSM McGladrey with respect to a defalcation by a former employee.

The Audit Committee pre-approves all audit and legally permissible non-audit services provided by the independent accountants. The Audit Committee pre-approved all services performed by Freed Maxick and RSM McGladrey during 2005.

The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors has considered whether provision of the services described above is compatible with maintaining our accountant's independence and has determined that such services have not adversely affected Freed Maxick's independence.

VOTING INFORMATION

The presence, in person or by properly executed proxy, of the holders of shares of common stock entitled to cast a majority of the votes entitled to be cast by the holders of all outstanding shares of common stock is necessary to constitute a quorum. Pursuant to SEC rules, shareholder proposals must have been received by April 27, 2006, which date is 45 days before the date (June 10) on which the Company mailed its proxy materials for last year's annual meeting, to be considered at the 2006 Annual Meeting. At April 27, 2006, the Company had not received notice of any intention to submit any other matter; and, therefore, the named proxies have discretion to vote on any other matter that comes before the meeting.

Shares of common stock represented by a properly signed, dated and returned proxy will be treated as present at the meeting for the purposes of determining a quorum. Proxies relating to "street name" shares of common stock that are voted by brokers will be counted as shares of common stock (1) present for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum and (2) as having voted in accordance with the directions and statements on the form of proxy.

DIRECTOR NOMINATING PROCESS

The determination of the individuals to be nominated for the Board of Directors is made by the independent Directors. This determination is then subsequently submitted to the full Board of Directors for approval/ratification. The Board has determined that Dr. Duerig and Mr. Hedges are independent under the AMEX listing standards.

The Board has not adopted specific minimum criteria for director nominees. Nominees are identified by first evaluating the current members of the Board willing to continue in service. Current members of the Board with skills and experience that are relevant to the Company's business and who are willing to continue in services are considered for re-nomination. If any member of the Board does not wish to continue in service, the Board first considers the appropriateness of the size of the Board and then considers factors that it deems are in the best interests of the Company and its shareholders in identifying and evaluating a new nominee.

The Board will consider director nominees from any reasonable source, including nominees suggested by incumbent Board members and management as well as shareholder recommendations tendered in accordance with the Company's advance notice provisions. The Company does not currently employ an executive search firm, or pay a fee to any other third party, to locate qualified candidates for director positions.
