States on the National Association of Securities Dealings over-the-counter Bulletin Board.

2. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

These financial statements have been prepared by management in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States, the more significant of which are outlined below.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with United States generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the year. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Management's Discussion and Analysis For the Quarter ended September 30, 2004

Forward-Looking Statements

The following discussion of the financial condition and results of operations of the Company should be read in conjunction with the Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations and the Consolidated Financial Statements and Notes thereto for the year ended June 30, 2002 filed with the SEC on October 15, 2002. This quarterly report includes forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Words such as "may," "plans," "expects," "anticipates," "approximates," "believes," "estimates," "intends," "hopes," "potential," or "continue", and variations of such words and similar expressions, are intended to identify such forward-looking statements. The Company intends such forward-looking statements, all of which are qualified by this statement, to be covered by the safe harbor provisions for forward-looking statements contained in the Private Litigation Securities Reform Act of 1995, and is including this statement for purposes of complying with these safe harbor provisions. The Company has based these statements on its current expectations and projections about future events. These forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future performance, and are subject to risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those projected in these statements. Forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to:

Readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements, which reflect management's views only as of the date hereof. The Company is not obligated to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise. In light of these risks, uncertainties and assumptions, the forward-looking events discussed in this Quarterly Report on Form 10-QSB might not occur. Readers should carefully review the risk factors described in the previously filed Form 10-KSB and in any other documents the Company files from time to time with the Securities and Exchange Commission, including any future Annual Reports on Form 10-KSB and Quarterly Reports on Form 10-QSB.

Edgar Filing: INNOFONE COM INC - Form 10QSB/A

Overview

Innofone.com Inc. currently operates out of Maryland with mailing address of 3470 Olney-Laytonsville Rd., Suite 118, Olney, MD 20832.

The Company currently does not have sufficient funds with which to sustain its operations. The company plans to issue restricted 144 stock to try and raise operating capital for the company. There is no assurance that this can be done. There is little chance that the company will receive a dividend from the bankruptcy of its previously owned subsidiary, Innofone Canada.

The Company is currently reviewing and implementing new disclosure controls and procedures to ensure that they fully comply with the new Securities Exchange Act Rules 13a-15 and 15d-15.

- (a) Plan of Operations
- (b) Acquisitions
- (c) Future

The company plans to look for new acquisitions and will not invest or operate any current or previously owned subsidiaries.

The company has relocated to Maryland and may change it's offices again if the company is successful in finding a new acquisition.

The Company currently has a going concern issue, as there are insufficient assets or prospective cash flows to fund its liabilities. While the Company is hopeful that it can raise money through the sale of stock, there are no assurances that this can be achieved, it cannot be determined if the company will be able to meet its current or future obligations.

Due to the going concern issues and lack of sufficient operating funds, Mr Richardson is currently funding operations.

(b) Results of Operations

As reflected in the company's statement of operations the company has recorded no sales for the year and the company does not currently conduct any operations.

The company has paid off old debt holders with stock pursuant to the terms of a 2001 agreement. The current officers and directors are covering all expenses of the company via short-term loans and advances which have been and will continue to be paid off in stock until the company has the cash flow to cover these expenses. These services include the preparation of company filings, the search of acquisition targets and legal expenses.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

As previously mentioned, the company has a going concern issue, as there are insufficient assets or prospective cash flows to fund its liabilities. The effect of this on the company is grave and the future of the company is in great peril.
