Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On September 24, 2009, Kulicke and Soffa Industries, Inc. (the “Company”) and Michael J. Morris, the Company’s interim Chief Financial Officer, agreed to a $54,000 increase in his annual base salary, to $280,000. On September 21, 2009, the Company and Ran Bareket, the Company’s Vice President, Corporate Controller and Principal Accounting Officer, agreed to a $17,000 increase in his annual base salary, to $215,000. Mr. Morris and Mr. Bareket also became eligible to participate in the Company’s Officer Severance Pay Plan (the “Plan”). In general, under the terms of the Plan, each officer is eligible to receive 18 months severance, among other benefits, for certain specified terminations. The terms of the Plan were previously described in the Company’s Form 8-K dated March 25, 2009 and filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) on March 31, 2009. Additionally, as a result of their promotions, Mr. Morris and Mr. Bareket are eligible to earn cash incentive payments equal to 45%, increased from 35%, of their base salaries, pursuant to the Company’s Officer Incentive Compensation Plan (the “OIC Plan”). A full description of the OIC Plan and its performance hurdles can be found in the Company’s 2009 Proxy Statement which was filed with the SEC on December 30, 2008.

On September 24, 2009, the Company entered into a Letter Agreement with Mr. Morris (the “Letter Agreement”) to provide for severance payments in the event Mr. Morris resigns after the appointment of his successor as Chief Financial Officer. Under the terms of the Letter Agreement, Mr. Morris will be eligible to receive the severance payments and other benefits described under the Plan if he (i) remains employed with the Company 90 days after the employment start date of his successor as Chief Financial Officer and (ii) submits his resignation within 30 days thereafter. The Company offered the Letter Agreement to Mr. Morris as an incentive for him to continue employment with the Company through a successful transition of his responsibilities to his successor. The summary of the terms of the Letter Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the actual terms of the Letter Agreement, which is included as Exhibit 10.2 and incorporated by reference herein.

The increases in salaries and benefits summarized above are a result of Mr. Morris assuming the role of interim Chief Financial Officer and Mr. Bareket’s elevation to Principal Accounting Officer.
