Item 3.01. Notice of Delisting or Failure to Satisfy a Continued Listing Rule or Standard; Transfer of Listing

On June 1, 2010, Nile Therapeutics, Inc. (the “Company”) received a notice from The Nasdaq Stock Market (“Nasdaq”) stating that the minimum bid price of the Company’s common stock has been below $1.00 per share for 30 consecutive business days and that the Company was therefore not in compliance with the minimum bid price requirement for continued listing set forth in Marketplace Rule 5550(a)(2).

Nasdaq stated in its letter that, in accordance with Marketplace Rule 5810(c)(3)(A), the Company has been provided an initial period of 180 calendar days, or until November 29, 2010, to regain compliance with the minimum bid requirement. The letter also states that if at any time before November 29, 2010, the bid price of the Company’s common stock closes at $1.00 per share or more for a minimum of 10 consecutive business days, the Nasdaq staff will provide written notification that the Company has achieved compliance with the minimum bid requirement. At the close of the grace period, if the Company has not regained compliance, it may be eligible for an additional grace period of 180 days, if it meets the initial listing standards, with the exception of bid price, for the NASDAQ Capital Market. If it is not eligible for an additional grace period, the Company will receive notification that its securities are subject to delisting, and it may then appeal the delisting determination to a Nasdaq Hearings Panel.

The Company intends to actively monitor the bid price for its common stock between now and November 29, 2010, and will consider available options to resolve the deficiency and regain compliance with the Nasdaq minimum bid price requirement but has not yet determined to take any other action in response to the notice.

On June 4, 2010, the Company issued a press release announcing the receipt of the notice from Nasdaq. A copy of the press release is attached to this current report as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.
