On May 14, 2009, Clacendix, Inc. (the "Company") completed a share exchange transaction (the "Exchange") pursuant to the terms of a Securities Exchange Agreement, dated as of May 14, 2009 (the "Securities Exchange Agreement") with HealthWarehouse.com, Inc. ("HWI"). Under the Securities Exchange Agreement, the Company acquired all the outstanding capital stock of HWI. As a result of the Exchange, which was accounted for as a reverse recapitalization, HWI became a subsidiary of the Company, with HWI's former stockholders acquiring a majority of the outstanding shares of the Company's common stock. The Company changed its corporate name from Clacendix, Inc. to HealthWarhouse.com, Inc., following stockholder approval in accordance with applicable law. The Company succeeded to the business of HWI as its sole line of business.

The Company is unable to file its Form 10-Q for the quarter ended March 31, 2012 within the prescribed time period because the Company is experiencing delays in collection and compilation of certain information which the Company believes is required to be included in the Form 10-Q, due to the lack of staff capable of assisting in the gathering of the required financial information and the delay in the filing of the Company's Form 10-K for the period ended December 31, 2011. The Company's Form 10-Q will be filed on or before the fifth calendar day following the prescribed due date.

The reasons for the change were increased operating costs in 2012 due to the growth in the business, particularly for increased salary related expenses for additional headcount. In addition, the Company incurred greater expenses in connection with financings, including a significant increase in interest expense due to recognition of debt discount related to warrants issued to debt holders, and non-cash stock compensation expense.
