- (a) The reason described in reasonable detail in Part III of this form could not be eliminated without unreasonable effort or expense;

Due to extremely reduced staffing levels, we experienced delays in closing our quarter, and consequently our independent registered public accounting firm was unable to complete its review of our Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q within the prescribed time period without unreasonable effort or expense. The Form 10-Q will be filed no later than the fifth calendar day following the prescribed due date.

Have all other periodic reports required under Section 13 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 or Section 30 of the Investment Company Act of 1940 during the preceding 12 months or for such shorter period that the registrant was required to file such report(s) been filed ? If answer is no, identify report(s).

Yes  No Form 10-Q for the quarter ended March 31, 2013, which the company expects to file before its Form 10-Q for the quarter ended June 30, 2013

Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof?

Yes  No

(3) If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

The Company expects to report a net loss of approximately $(175,000) on revenues of approximately $25,000 for the three months ended June 30, 2013 compared to net loss of approximately $(506,000) on revenues of approximately $974,000 for the quarter ended June 24, 2012. The anticipated net loss for the three months ended June 30, 2013 is primarily due to (i) the significant decrease in revenue due to the termination of two major contracts effective December 31, 2012 and (ii) the inability to reduce minimum fixed costs further.
