In exchange for a release of claims, covenant not to sue and license to the patents in suit from BD, the Settlement Agreement provides that the Company will make a one-time payment of $5 million to BD (the “Settlement Payment”) and give BD a license to a single Company patent relating to an environmental seal for a fluid delivery device. In addition to the Settlement Payment, it is expected that the Company’s legal and other expenses associated with the lawsuit will be up to approximately $2.0 million in the second quarter of 2014.
