Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

Please refer to the disclosure provided under Item 3.03 of this Current Report on Form $8-\mathrm{K}$.

Item 3.03 Material Modification to Rights of Security Holders

The Board of Directors of Per-Se Technologies, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), has approved and adopted a Fourth Amendment to the Rights Agreement (the "Fourth Amendment"), dated as of February 18, 2005, by and between the Company and American Stock Transfer & Trust Company, as Rights Agent (the "Rights Agent"). The Fourth Amendment amends the Rights Agreement, dated as of February 11, 1999, by and between the Company and the Rights Agent, as amended by that First Amendment, dated as of May 4, 2000, Second Amendment, dated as of December 6, 2001 and effective as of March 6, 2002, and Third Amendment, dated as of March 10, 2003 (as amended, the "Rights Agreement").

The Fourth Amendment amends the Rights Agreement to remove Section 23(c) thereof (the "slow hand" provision) in its entirety. Section 23(c) previously provided that if, within 180 days of a public announcement by a third party of an intent or proposal to engage in an acquisition of or business combination with the Company or otherwise to become an Acquiring Person (as defined in the Rights Agreement) there was an election of Directors resulting in a majority of the Board of Directors being comprised of persons who were not nominated by the Board of Directors in office immediately prior to such election, then following the effectiveness of such election, the Rights could not be redeemed for a period of 180 days unless (1) the Rights (as defined in the Rights Agreement) were otherwise then redeemable absent the provisions of paragraph 23(c) and (2) the Board of Directors fulfilled certain specified procedural obligations.

The Fourth Amendment also amends and restates Section 29 of the Rights Agreement to create a TIDE (three-year independent director evaluation) Committee, consisting of independent members of the Company's Board of Directors, that will review and evaluate the Rights Agreement at least once every three years to consider whether the maintenance of the Rights Agreement continues to be in the best interest of the Company, its stockholders and other relevant constituencies of the Company. The TIDE Committee may also review and evaluate the Rights Agreement if (1) any Person (as defined in the Rights Agreement) has made an acquisition proposal to the Company or its stockholders, or taken any other action that could cause such Person to become an Acquiring Person, and (2) a majority of the members of the TIDE Committee deems such review and evaluation appropriate after giving due regard to all relevant circumstances.
