Ancora Advisors owns no Shares directly but Ancora Advisors may be deemed to own (within the meaning of Rule 13(d)(3) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) Shares purchased for or transferred to the accounts of investment management clients. Ancora Advisors disclaims beneficial ownership of such Shares and any shares beneficially owned by Ancora Securities other Ancora entities.

Merlin Partners, Ancora Funds, Employees of Ancora and Owners of Ancora, including Mr. Barone, have used available and uncommitted cash to purchase shares of the Issuer.

Item 4.

Purpose of Transaction

Mr. Barone and the other entities named herein acquired Shares to establish investment positions in the Issuer. Subject to market and business conditions and other factors, Mr. Barone and other entities named herein may purchase additional Shares, maintain their present ownership of Shares or sell some or all of the Shares.

On Friday, September 7, 2007, Mr. Barone returned a telephone call from Mr. Mark Alsentzer, chairman of the Mace nominating committee. Mr. Alsentzer offered to nominate Mr. Barone to Mace's five person Board of Directors, replacing Matthew Paolino, in return for his support of the Company's proposed slate at the upcoming annual meeting in December.

Mr. Barone has been aware of Lawndale's (a major shareholder) proposal to expand the Board to seven members. Additionally, Lawndale has proposed three highly qualified independent individuals, to join Mace's slate of four incumbent individuals, to that Board.

On September 10, 2007, Mr. Barone telephoned Mr. Alsentzer expressing his intent to support Lawndale's proposal. Mr. Barone noted that the consistent operating losses over the past five years, a program of failed acquisitions, the inability to achieve operating efficiencies, the incident of fraud at the middle management level, the extraordinary high legal expenses associated with the hiring of alleged illegal aliens, and a compensation structure which rewards failure instead of success.

With the shares of Mace selling at less than half of what Mr. Barone believes is the Company's private market value, it is clear that the shareholders have lost all confidence in the current Board's ability to govern going forward and this has caused shareholders to have an expectation of continued operating losses.

Mr. Barone urges Mace not to oppose the expansion of the Board to seven with the addition of three highly qualified and independent directors to help guide the Company forward. Opposition to this strengthening of the Board's ability to govern would not only be an additional waste of the Company resources, but would reinforce the perception that the Company's management is concerned only with personal gain at the expense of shareholder value.

Item 5.
