In furtherance of a Form 6-K submitted by G. Willi-Food International Ltd. (NASDAQ: WILC) (the "Company" or "Willi-Food"), a global company that specializes in the development, marketing and international distribution of kosher foods on February 25, 2015, the Company has been informed that a decision by the Tel Aviv District Court (the "Court") has been reached following a request submitted on February 24, 2015 to the Court by Public Joint Stock Company Alfa Bank ("Alfa"), a Ukrainian banking entity. Alfa requested to freeze certain assets as well as direct and indirect holdings of the Company's ultimate controlling shareholder, Mr. Alexander Granovsky. This request was filed as part of a claim filed by Alfa against Mr. Granovsky and others with respect to alleged debts owed by them to Alfa. The defendants have yet to file a statement of defense in said claim.

Following hearings in this respect, on March 22, 2015 the Court handed down a judgment partially in Alfa's favour as follows:

- Mr. Granovsky, Israel 18 B.V., the Company's indirect controlling shareholder, Israel 180 Ltd. (an Israeli private company wholly owned by Israel 18 B.V) and Orot Israel Ltd. (an Israeli private company wholly owned by Israeli 180 Ltd.) may not dispose or otherwise grant a security interest over any of their respective holdings, including their direct holdings in the Company, pending final judgment of the Court;
- The loan amount to be provided by Zwi Williger and Joseph Williger, described in the Company's Form 6-K submitted on February 25, 2015, shall remain in escrow pending other judgments given by the Court; and
- Pending additional hearings, the parties to the dispute should disclose all relevant documentation giving rise to rights in the capital or payment of monies owed to them by Mr. Granovsky or his direct and indirect holdings in Israel.

The orders above shall lapse upon failure by Alfa to provide an autonomous bank guarantee from an Israeli bank by no later than March 29, 2015 at 12.pm (Israeli time) in an amount of thirty million New Israeli Shekels (NIS 30 million) in escrow as a guarantee to cover any damages to third parties which may be affected by such orders should Alfa's claim ultimately fail.

The final resolution of these issues may affect the closing of the loan transaction described in the Company's the Company's Form 6-K submitted on February 25, 2015.
