Part IV(3) Explanation

Reliability Incorporated plans to announce revenue for Q3 of 2007, which ended September 30, 2007, of approximately $690,000, which is a revenue decrease from Q2 to Q3 of approximately 45%. The revenue for each month of Q3 was lower than the previous month as the Florida real estate market continued to weaken. Since the Company was having difficulty covering fixed overhead and G&A expense at the Q2 revenue level, a high per cent of the decrease in revenue in Q3 is expected to fall as an operating loss. The continuing decrease in revenue lead to the decision to sell Medallion Electric back to its previous owner. The sale was effective October 1, 2007, and closed on October 26, 2007. The terms of the sale required Reliability to pay Ron Masaracchio, the previous owner of Medallion, $325,000 in cash and return 100% of the Medallion Electric common stock to him. Upon receiving the $325,000, he agreed to cancel $1,886,000 of notes, which included the interest on the notes, release the lien on Reliability's North Carolina real estate, cancel an earnout agreement, which required a minimum payment of $750,000 over three years, and released Reliability from all other liabilities. In addition to the $325,000, Reliability transferred to Mr. Masaracchio all the Medallion stock which held assets that were valued at approximately $1.7 million on Reliability's balance sheet and liabilities which were valued at approximately $500,000. Upon the closing of the sale of a portion of Reliability's North Carolina real estate on October 26, 2007, Mr. Masaracchio received the $325,000, and the sale of Medallion Electric, the release of the liens, and cancellation of all the obligations was consummated. The net proceeds of the sale to Reliability were $291,000. The combination of these two transactions will require Reliability to do an impairment analysis on the $2.2 million Goodwill Asset and the value of the balance of the North Carolina real estate. This analysis plus the delays in closing of the books for September, 2007 at Medallion, and the loss of the CFO has caused a delay in gathering all the data necessary to file our 10-QSB for the quarter ending September 30, 2007.
