Quarter ended December 31, 2016 Highlights - compared to December 31, 2015

Net sales of $220.4 million, decreased $37.9 million, or 14.7%, the result of continuing increased competition and the challenging pricing environment. Overall volumes increased 1%.

Research and development expenses remained in line with the comparable quarter at $18.0 million.

Selling, marketing, general and administrative expenses (SG&A) decreased $2.6 million to $20.3 million, principally the result of reduced marketing spend related to Keveyis.

Operating income of $129.0 million decreased $44.4 million and as a percentage of net sales was 58.5% as compared to 67.1% in the prior year quarter.

FX income decreased $5.4 million to $18.5 million, principally the result of the strengthening of the U.S. vs. Canadian dollar at a lower rate than in prior period.

Other income of $9.0 million increased $8.3 million vs. the prior period, due to the sale of Keveyis in December 2016.

Tax expense increased $8.7 million to $20.5 million resulting in an effective tax rate of 12.8% compared to 5.9%.

This increase is principally the result of certain tax benefits reflected in the prior year, not realized in the current year quarter, as well as the geographic mix of products manufactured in 2016.

Net income attributable to Taro was $139.8 million compared to $189.0 million, resulting in diluted earnings per share of $3.42 compared to $4.41 for the same period last year.

Operating income of $413.2 million decreased $19.5 million, and as a percentage of net sales was 60.5% as compared to 63.1%.

Mr. Abhay Gandhi, Taro's Interim CEO stated, "We continue to face challenging headwinds given an increasingly competitive environment, highlighted by new entrants to our base business and pressure from buyer consolidations." Mr. Gandhi continued, "While these factors are impacting the generic sector as a whole, and not unique to Taro, we believe we are well positioned in the market. We continue to invest in R&D to nurture our pipeline as we consistently look for ways to generate value from our product portfolio. I am encouraged by the continuing increase in generic volumes that we are experiencing throughout the year."

Cash Flow and Balance Sheet Highlights
