Item 2.03. Creation of a Direct Financial Obligation or an Obligation under an Off-Balance Sheet Arrangement of a Registrant

On September 16, 2014, Assurant, Inc. (the "Company") entered into a five-year unsecured $400 million revolving credit agreement (the "Credit Agreement") with certain lenders party thereto, JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., as administrative agent, and Wells Fargo Bank, National Association, as syndication agent. The Credit Agreement replaces the Company's prior four-year $350 million revolving credit facility, entered into on September 21, 2011, as previously disclosed in a Current Report on Form 8-K filed September 27, 2011. The prior revolving credit facility was scheduled to expire in September 2015, but terminated upon the effectiveness of the Credit Agreement.

The Credit Agreement, which expires in September 2019, provides for revolving loans and the issuance of multi-bank, syndicated letters of credit and/or letters of credit from a sole issuing bank in an aggregate amount of $400 million. The proceeds of these loans and the letters of credit issued under the Credit Agreement may be used to backstop the Company's commercial paper program and for other general corporate purposes of the Company and its subsidiaries. The Company may increase the total amount available under the Credit Agreement to $525 million subject to certain conditions.

The Credit Agreement contains customary affirmative, negative and financial covenants and customary events of default. The occurrence of an event of default may cause the unpaid principal and accrued interest and all other obligations under the Credit Agreement to become immediately due and payable.
