The Registrant is unable to file its Annual Report on Form 10-KSB for the year ended December 31, 2005 by March 31, 2006 without unreasonable effort and expense. Specifically, on March 28, 2006, the Registrant's management identified an error in the computation of the footnote information regarding the number of outstanding stock options under the Registrant's equity compensation plans and the amount of pro forma net income had the Company applied the fair value recondition provisions of FASB Statement No. 123, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation, to its stock-based compensation. This error did not affect the actual amount of expense recognized in 2005 in connection with the Registrant's equity compensation plans. Correction of the error delayed the delivery of completed financial statements to the Registrant's independent accountants.

Yes  No

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

The Registrant anticipates that its net income for the year ended December 31, 2005 will decrease by approximately $743,000 from $856,000 for the year ended December 31, 2004 to approximately $113,000 for the year ended December 31, 2005. The primary reason for the decrease in net income is the Registrant's loss of $501,000 (after tax) on the sale of an investment security and an increase in the provision for loan and lease losses of $1.5 million (after tax) during 2005 compared to 2004.
