Michael Cawley, Ryanair's Deputy CEO in Nantes today, said:

"Ryanair is delighted to be adding 2 new routes at Nantes just 2 months after announcing a new route from Nantes to Shannon. The people of Nantes will now be able to travel to 3 destinations in the UK and Ireland for a fraction of existing fares. Business and tourism in the Nantes region will now benefit from an additional 200,000 passengers in 2006 that will support 200 jobs.

"Demand for the already announced route from Shannon to Nantes has been very strong and so far over 6,000 bookings have been made. To celebrate these record bookings and our 2 new routes, Ryanair is running a seat sale with 6,000 FREE* seats available from Nantes to Shannon. In addition, 20,000 seats will be available from Nantes to Nottingham East Midlands and London Stansted for EUR5.99*. This great offer is available for booking until midnight 19th September on www.ryanair.com. Demand for fares this low will be huge so our advice to passengers is to book immediately".
