LOCKHEED MARTIN CORPORATION

Offer to Guarantee

The Titan Corporation is offering to exchange new 8% Senior Subordinated Notes due 2011 registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, for any and all of its outstanding unregistered 8% Senior Subordinated Notes due 2011. The terms of the exchange notes are substantially identical to those of the outstanding notes, except that the exchange notes have been registered under the Securities Act. You will receive $1,000 principal amount of exchange notes for each $1,000 principal amount of outstanding notes that you validly tender in the exchange offer and do not withdraw.

Concurrently with the exchange offer, Titan is seeking your consent to proposed amendments to the indenture under which the outstanding notes were issued and under which the exchange notes will be issued. Titan is soliciting consents to the proposed amendments to satisfy Titan's obligations under a merger agreement, dated as of September 15, 2003, relating to the proposed merger of Titan with a wholly-owned subsidiary of Lockheed Martin. The proposed merger is conditioned on, among other things, receipt of consents to the proposed amendments from holders of at least a majority in aggregate principal amount of outstanding notes.

These proposed amendments seek to release the subsidiaries of Titan that are currently guarantors under the indenture and remove most of the restrictive covenants and reporting requirements contained in the indenture. In addition, Titan is seeking your consent to provide for the termination of a registration rights agreement relating to the notes. Holders of outstanding notes who return their consent to the proposed amendments prior to the consent fee deadline will receive a consent fee in cash in an amount equal to % of the principal amount of the outstanding notes tendered by the holder if the requisite consents are received and the merger is completed. In addition, Lockheed Martin is offering to fully and unconditionally guarantee both the outstanding notes and the exchange notes if the requisite consents are received and the proposed merger is completed. If your consent is not received by the consent fee deadline, you will not be paid the consent fee.

Titan intends to complete the exchange offer even if the requisite consents are not received and the merger is not completed. If the merger is not completed for any reason, the proposed amendments will not become operative, Lockheed Martin will not become a guarantor of the notes and you will not receive the consent fee.

For a discussion of factors you should consider before you decide to participate in the exchange offer and consent solicitation, see Risk Factors beginning on page 15.

The consent fee deadline is 5:00 p.m., New York City time on _____, 2003, unless extended. The expiration date for the exchange offer and consent solicitation is 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on _____, 2004, unless extended. Your ability to withdraw tendered notes and consents is limited as described in this prospectus.

You should rely only on the information contained or incorporated by reference in this prospectus. We have not authorized anyone to provide you with different information. No person has been authorized to give any information or make any representations in connection with the exchange offer and consent solicitation, other than the information and those representations contained or incorporated by reference in this prospectus or in the accompanying letters of transmittal. If given or made, such information and representations must not be relied upon by you as having been authorized by us, the trustee, the exchange agent, the dealer-manager and solicitation agent, the information agent, or any other party involved in the exchange offer and consent solicitation. We are not making an offer of these securities in any state or jurisdiction where the offer is not permitted. You should not assume that the information provided by this prospectus or the documents incorporated by reference herein is accurate as of any date other than the date of such prospectus or incorporated documents, regardless of the date you receive them.

Each broker-dealer that receives exchange notes for its own account pursuant to the exchange offer must acknowledge that it will deliver a prospectus in connection with any resale of the exchange notes. The letter of transmittal states that by so acknowledging and by delivering a prospectus, a broker-dealer will not be deemed to admit that it is an underwriter within the meaning of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, which we refer to as the Securities Act. This prospectus, as it may be amended or supplemented from time to time, may be used by a broker-dealer in connection with resales of exchange notes received in exchange for outstanding notes where the outstanding notes were acquired by the broker-dealer as a result of market-making activities or other trading activities. Titan has agreed that, for a period of up to 180 days after the completion of the exchange offer, it will make this prospectus available to any broker-dealer for use in connection with any such resale. For additional information regarding the resale of exchange notes, see Plan of Distribution.

PROSPECTUS SUMMARY

This summary is qualified in all respects by the more detailed information appearing elsewhere or incorporated by reference in this prospectus. You should carefully read this entire prospectus and the documents incorporated by reference in this prospectus to fully understand the terms of the exchange offer and the consent solicitation. References to the outstanding notes refer to Titan's outstanding unregistered 8% Senior Subordinated Notes due 2011, and references to the exchange notes refer to Titan's 8% Senior Subordinated Notes due 2011 that have been registered under the Securities Act. References to the notes refer collectively to the outstanding notes and the exchange notes. Unless otherwise indicated, references to the letter of transmittal refer to both the BLUE letter of transmittal and consent and the GREEN letter of transmittal.

Titan

The Titan Corporation

3033 Science Park Road

San Diego, California 92121

(858) 552-9500

The Titan Corporation, a Delaware corporation, is a technology developer and systems integrator for the Department of Defense, the Department of Homeland Security, and intelligence and other key United States government agencies. Titan provides a range of services and systems solutions. These solutions and services include research and development, design, installation, integration, test, logistics support, maintenance and training. Titan also provides services and solutions to government agencies with sophisticated information systems. These include information processing, information fusion, data management, and communication systems. In addition, Titan develops and produces digital imaging products, sensors, lasers, electro-optical systems, threat simulation/training systems, intelligence electronic hardware, signal intercept systems and complex military specific systems.

Lockheed Martin

Lockheed Martin Corporation

6801 Rockledge Drive

Bethesda, Maryland 20817

(301) 897-6000

Lockheed Martin principally researches, designs, develops, manufactures, integrates and operates advanced technology systems, products and services. Lockheed Martin serves customers in domestic and international defense and civil and commercial sectors, with its principal customers being agencies of the United States government. Lockheed Martin is a Maryland corporation and was formed in March 1995 by combining the businesses of Lockheed Corporation and Martin Marietta Corporation. Lockheed Martin operates in five principal business areas: Aeronautics, Electronic Systems, Space Systems, Integrated Systems & Solutions, and Technology Services.

Purpose of the Exchange Offer and Consent Solicitation

The purpose of the exchange offer described in this prospectus is to satisfy Titan's obligations under a registration rights agreement relating to the outstanding notes. In addition, in connection with the proposed merger between Lockheed Martin and Titan, which is referred to as the merger, Lockheed Martin and Titan have agreed to file, and to use their commercially reasonable efforts to cause to become effective with the Securities and Exchange Commission, or the SEC, this registration statement with respect to the exchange of the outstanding notes for the exchange notes and consent solicitation. Titan expects to complete the exchange offer even if the requisite consents are not received and the merger is not completed.

The purpose of the consent solicitation described in this prospectus is to satisfy one of the conditions to Lockheed Martin's obligation to complete the proposed merger. In this regard, Titan has agreed to use commercially reasonable efforts to commence a consent solicitation to amend the indenture to:

provide that the merger does not require a change in control offer, as defined in the indenture, to be made to the holders of the notes;

eliminate most of the restrictive covenants and the reporting requirements contained in the indenture;

modify the event of default provisions; and

release the subsidiaries of Titan from their guarantees under the indenture.

In addition, Titan is seeking your consent to provide for the termination of the registration rights agreement. The proposed amendments to the indenture and the registration rights agreement are referred to as the proposed amendments. Holders of outstanding notes who return their consent to the proposed amendments prior to the consent fee deadline will receive a consent fee equal to % of the principal amount of outstanding notes tendered by the holder, if the requisite consents are received and the merger is completed. If your consent is not received by the consent fee deadline, you will not receive the consent fee. In addition, Lockheed Martin will fully and unconditionally guarantee the notes if the requisite consents are received and the merger is completed. If the merger is not completed for any reason, the proposed amendments will not become operative, Lockheed Martin will not become a guarantor of the notes and you will not receive a consent fee. If the merger is completed and the proposed amendments become operative, Lockheed Martin will become a guarantor of the notes.

The Merger

Upon completion of the merger, Titan will be merged with a wholly-owned subsidiary of Lockheed Martin. After the merger, the surviving entity in the merger will continue its existence under Delaware law as a wholly-owned subsidiary of Lockheed Martin and will be the obligor of the notes. Lockheed Martin and Titan currently anticipate that the merger will be completed during the first quarter of 2004. For more information regarding the merger and the transactions contemplated thereby, please see the section entitled The Merger.

Summary of the Terms of the Exchange Offer and Consent Solicitation

The Exchange Offer	Titan is offering up to $200 million aggregate principal amount of exchange notes registered under the Securities Act, in exchange for the same principal amount of unregistered outstanding notes. Outstanding notes may be tendered for exchange notes in whole or in part in any integral multiple of $1,000. Titan is making the exchange offer in order to satisfy its obligations under the registration rights agreement relating to the outstanding notes. Titan expects to complete the exchange offer even if the requisite consents are not received and the merger is not completed. For a description of the procedure for tendering the outstanding notes, see Procedures for Tendering Outstanding Notes and Delivering Consents.
The Consent Solicitation	Concurrently with the exchange offer, Titan is soliciting your consent to amend the indenture to:  provide that the merger does not require a change in control offer, as defined in the indenture, to be made to the noteholders;  eliminate most of the restrictive covenants and the reporting requirements contained in the indenture;  modify the event of default provisions; and  release the subsidiaries of Titan from their guarantees under the indenture.

In addition, Titan is seeking your consent to provide for the termination of the registration rights agreement. Titan is seeking consents to all of the proposed amendments as a single proposal. The holders of at least a majority in aggregate principal amount of the outstanding notes, whose consents are referred to as the requisite consents, must consent to the proposed amendments. As soon as the requisite consents are received, Titan will execute an amendment to the registration rights agreement and execute the supplemental indenture. The proposed amendments will not become operative until immediately prior to the completion of the merger. If the merger is not completed, the proposed amendments will not become operative.

If the proposed amendments become operative, the terms of the outstanding notes and the exchange notes will be amended as described under The Consent Solicitation The Proposed Amendments, and holders of the notes will no longer be entitled to the benefits of most of the restrictive covenants in the indenture. As a result, there will be no restrictions on Titan's ability to incur debt, make restricted payments and take other actions that would have been prohibited under the indenture.

Consent Fee; Lockheed Martin Guarantee	Holders of outstanding notes who return their consent to the proposed amendments prior to the consent fee deadline will receive a consent fee equal to % of the principal amount of outstanding notes

tendered by the holder, if the requisite consents are received and the merger is completed. If your consent is not received by the consent fee deadline, you will not be paid the consent fee. You must tender your notes and consent to the proposed amendments in accordance with the procedures set forth under Procedures for Tendering Outstanding Notes and Delivering Consents on or prior to the consent fee deadline to receive the consent fee.

In addition, Lockheed Martin will fully and unconditionally guarantee the notes if the requisite consents are received and the proposed merger is completed. Under the guarantee, Lockheed Martin will guarantee the due and punctual payment of the principal of and interest, if any, in respect of the notes when and as the same shall become due and payable. Upon payment of the principal of and interest, if any, on all notes, Lockheed Martin will be subrogated to all rights of the holders of the notes against Titan in respect of any amounts paid by Lockheed Martin pursuant to the provisions of the indenture.

If the merger is not completed for any reason, the proposed amendments will not become operative, Lockheed Martin will not become a guarantor of the notes and you will not receive the consent fee. If the proposed amendments become operative, all holders of all notes will receive the benefit of the Lockheed Martin guarantee, whether or not they participate in the exchange offer and consent solicitation.

Supplemental Indenture

The proposed amendments to the indenture, if adopted, will be set forth in a supplemental indenture to be executed by Titan, Lockheed Martin, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Lockheed Martin, and the trustee as promptly as practicable after receipt of the requisite consents. The proposed amendments will become effective when the supplemental indenture is executed. Once the proposed amendments become effective, the consents will be irrevocable. However, the proposed amendments will not become operative until immediately prior to the completion of the merger, and only if the merger is completed. If the merger is not completed, the proposed amendments will not become operative. Until that point, the indenture, without giving effect to the proposed amendments, will remain in effect. If the requisite consents are not received and accepted by Titan, the supplemental indenture will not be executed and the proposed amendments will not become operative.

Procedures for Tendering Outstanding Notes and Consenting to the Proposed Amendments

If you wish to tender your outstanding notes and consent to the proposed amendments, you must complete, sign and date the BLUE letter of transmittal or follow the procedures for electronic tenders of notes and delivery of consents, in accordance with the instructions contained in this prospectus and the letter of transmittal.

If you wish to tender your outstanding notes, but do not wish to consent to the proposed amendments, you must complete, sign and date the GREEN letter of transmittal or follow the procedures for electronic tenders of notes, in accordance with the instructions contained in this prospectus and the letter of transmittal.

If your outstanding notes are registered in the name of a broker, dealer, commercial bank, trust company or other nominee, Titan urges you to contact your nominee holder promptly if you wish to tender outstanding notes pursuant to the exchange offer and the consent solicitation.

See Procedures for Tendering Outstanding Notes and Delivering Consents.

If you are a person holding the outstanding notes through the Depository Trust Company, which is referred to in this prospectus as DTC, and wish to participate in the exchange offer and consent solicitation, you must do so through the DTC's Automated Tender Offer Program, which is referred to in this prospectus as ATOP, by which you will agree to be bound by one of the letters of transmittal. By executing and agreeing to be bound by a letter of transmittal, you will be making a number of important representations to Titan, as set forth in such letter of transmittal, which representations are described under Procedures for Tendering Outstanding Notes and Delivering Consents.

Letters of transmittal and certificates representing outstanding notes should not be sent to Titan, Lockheed Martin, the dealer-manager and solicitation agent or the information agent. Those documents should be sent only to the exchange agent. The address, telephone and facsimile numbers, of the exchange agent are set forth in The Exchange Offer Exchange Agent and in the letters of transmittal. Upon completion of the exchange offer, Titan will accept for exchange any and all outstanding notes that are properly tendered in the exchange offer and not withdrawn prior to the expiration date. The exchange notes issued in the exchange offer will be delivered promptly following the expiration date. See the section entitled The Exchange Offer Terms of the Exchange Offer.

Any outstanding notes not accepted for exchange for any reason will be returned without expense as soon as practicable after the expiration or termination of the exchange offer.

Consent Fee Deadline

The consent fee deadline is 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on _____, 2003, unless extended. If your consent is not received by the consent fee deadline, you will not receive the consent fee.

Expiration Date

The expiration date for the exchange offer and consent solicitation is 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on _____, 2004, unless extended. Holders of outstanding notes who validly tender notes after the consent fee deadline but on or prior to the expiration date will receive exchange notes in the exchange offer but will not receive the consent fee.

Withdrawal Tenders of outstanding notes may be withdrawn by delivering a written notice of withdrawal to the exchange agent in conformity with the procedures discussed in the section entitled Procedures for Tendering Outstanding Notes and Delivering Consents.

If you tender your outstanding notes and consent to the proposed amendments, you may withdraw your tender and consent at any time prior to the date on which the requisite consents have been received and the supplemental indenture has been executed.

If you tender your notes without consenting to the proposed amendments, you may withdraw your tender at any time on or before the expiration date of the exchange offer.

Consequences of Your Failure to Exchange Your Outstanding Notes Outstanding notes that are not exchanged in the exchange offer will continue to be subject to the restrictions on transfer that are described in the legend on the outstanding notes. In general, you may offer or sell your outstanding notes only if they are registered under, or offered or sold under an exemption from, the Securities Act and applicable state securities laws. Titan does not currently intend to register the outstanding notes for resale under the Securities Act. If the requisite consents are received and the proposed amendments become operative, following completion of the exchange offer Titan will not be required to register under the Securities Act any outstanding notes that remain outstanding. If your outstanding notes are not tendered and accepted in the exchange offer, it may become more difficult for you to sell or transfer your outstanding notes. Upon completion of the exchange offer, interest on any outstanding notes that are not tendered for exchange in the exchange offer will accrue at a rate equal to 8% per year, the same rate that the interest will accrue on the exchange notes.

Consequences of Your Failure to Consent to the Proposed Amendments Receipt of the requisite consents to the proposed amendments is a condition to the completion of the merger. If the requisite consents are not received, the merger may not be completed, the proposed amendments will not become operative, Lockheed Martin will not become a guarantor of the notes and no consent fee will be paid.

If the requisite consents are received and the merger is completed, your notes will be governed by the terms of the indenture, as amended by the supplemental indenture, even if you do not consent.

Who May Participate in the Exchange Offer Based on interpretations of the staff of the SEC, Titan believes that you will be allowed to resell the exchange notes that Titan issues in the exchange offer if:

you are acquiring the exchange notes in the ordinary course of your business;

you are not participating in and do not intend to participate in a distribution of the exchange notes;

you have no arrangement or understanding with any person to participate in a distribution of the exchange notes; and you are not an affiliate of Titan, as defined in Rule 405 under the Securities Act.

If any of these conditions are not satisfied, you will not be eligible to participate in the exchange offer, you should not rely on the interpretations of the staff of the SEC in connection with the exchange offer and you must comply with the registration and prospectus delivery requirements of the Securities Act in connection with the resale of your notes.

If you are a broker-dealer and you will receive exchange notes for your own account in exchange for outstanding notes that you acquired as a result of market-making activities or other trading activities, you will be required to acknowledge that you will deliver a prospectus in connection with any resale of the exchange notes. See the section entitled Plan of Distribution for a description of the prospectus delivery obligations of broker-dealers in the exchange offer.

In accordance with the foregoing conditions, if you are a broker-dealer that acquired the outstanding notes directly from Titan in the initial offering and not as a result of market-making activities, you will not be eligible to participate in the exchange offer.

Conditions to the Exchange Offer

The exchange offer is subject to customary conditions which may be waived by Titan. See the section entitled The Exchange Offer Conditions to the Exchange Offer.

The exchange offer is not conditioned upon any minimum principal amount of outstanding notes being tendered. Titan reserves the right in its sole and absolute discretion, subject to applicable law, at any time and from time to time:

to delay the acceptance of the outstanding notes for exchange;

to terminate the exchange offer if one or more specific conditions have not been satisfied;

to extend the expiration date of the exchange offer and retain all outstanding notes pursuant to the exchange offer, subject, however, to the right of holders of outstanding notes to withdraw their tendered outstanding notes; or to waive any condition or otherwise amend the terms of the exchange offer in any respect. See the section entitled "The Exchange Offer - Expiration Dates; Extensions; Amendments."

Conditions to the Consent

Solicitation

Adoption of the proposed amendments pursuant to the consent solicitation is conditioned upon receipt of the requisite consents. As soon as the requisite consents are received, Titan will execute an amendment to the registration rights agreement and execute the supplemental indenture. The proposed amendments will not become operative until immediately prior to the completion of the merger. If the merger is not completed, the proposed amendments will not become operative.

Liquidated Damages

This registration statement first became effective on September 10, 2003. However, because of the proposed merger with Lockheed Martin, Titan did not complete the exchange offer within 40 days of this registration statement first becoming effective as required by the registration rights agreement. As a result, liquidated damages began accruing on the outstanding notes beginning on October 20, 2003. With respect to the first 90-day period immediately following October 20, 2003, liquidated damages accrue over and above the stated interest rate on the outstanding notes at a rate equal to 0.25% per year. The rate at which the liquidated damages will accrue will increase by an additional 0.25% per year with respect to each subsequent 90-day period, up to a maximum aggregate rate of 2.0% per year. At the next regularly scheduled interest payment date following completion of the exchange offer, Titan will pay to the holders of outstanding notes on the applicable record date the amount of unpaid liquidated damages that have accrued from November 15, 2003, the most recent interest payment date, until the completion of the exchange offer. After completion of the exchange offer and termination of the registration rights agreement, no additional liquidated damages will accrue on the notes. For a more detailed discussion of the liquidated damages provision of the registration rights agreement, see the section entitled "The Consent Solicitation - The Registration Rights Amendment."

Federal Income Tax Consequences

For a summary of certain federal income tax consequences relating to the exchange offer and the consent solicitation, see the section entitled "Certain United States Federal Income Tax Consequences." Holders are urged to consult their own tax advisors regarding the tax consequences to them, in their particular situation, of the exchange offer and the consent solicitation.

Summary of the Terms of the Exchange Notes

The following is a summary of the material terms of the exchange notes. If the proposed amendments become operative, the terms of both the outstanding notes and the exchange notes will be amended as described under The Consent Solicitation The Proposed Amendments. You should carefully read this entire prospectus, including the sections entitled Description of the Exchange Notes and The Consent Solicitation The Proposed Amendments.

Issuer	The Titan Corporation
Exchange notes offered	$200 million aggregate principal amount of 8% Senior Subordinated Notes due 2011.
Interest	Interest on the exchange notes will accrue at the rate of 8% per year from the later of:  the last interest payment date on which interest was paid on the outstanding notes; or  if the exchange offer is consummated on a date after the record date for an interest payment date to occur on or after the date of such exchange and as to which interest will be paid, the date of such interest payment date.
Maturity	May 15, 2011
Interest Payment Dates	Semiannually, on May 15 and November 15
Repurchase of exchange notes at the option of holder upon change of control	If the requisite consents are obtained and the proposed amendments to the indenture become operative, this provision will be eliminated. See the section entitled The Consent Solicitation The Proposed Amendments.

If the requisite consents are not obtained or the proposed amendments to the indenture do not become operative, upon a change of control, you may require Titan to repurchase all or a portion of your exchange notes at a purchase price of 101% of their principal amount, plus accrued and unpaid interest and liquidated damages, if any. The term change of control is defined in Description of Exchange Notes Certain Definitions.

Ranking	The exchange notes and the subsidiary guarantees will be Titan's and the applicable guarantor's general unsecured obligations and will be:  junior in right of payment to all of Titan's and such guarantor's existing and future senior indebtedness, including secured indebtedness;

equal in right of payment to all of Titan s and such guarantor s existing and future senior subordinated indebtedness; and

---

senior in right of payment to all of Titan's and such guarantor's future subordinated indebtedness.

As of September 30, 2003, Titan had outstanding an aggregate of approximately $346.5 million of debt that was senior or effectively senior to the outstanding notes, and approximately $4.0 million of debt and obligations under capital leases that were pari passu with or effectively pari passu with the notes. Titan also had $125.5 million of total availability under its secured revolving credit facility, subject to its compliance with financial and other covenants in connection with any such borrowing, of which Titan would have been able to borrow $125.5 million in compliance with those covenants.

If the requisite consents are obtained and the proposed amendments to the indenture become operative, Lockheed Martin will fully and unconditionally guarantee the notes. See "The Consent Solicitation" Lockheed Martin Guarantee.

Subsidiary Guarantees

If the requisite consents are obtained and the proposed amendments to the indenture become operative, the guarantees provided by certain of Titan's subsidiaries will be released and Lockheed Martin will become a guarantor under the indenture.

If the requisite consents are not obtained or the proposed amendments to the indenture do not become operative, obligations under the exchange notes will be fully and unconditionally guaranteed on a senior subordinated basis by Titan's domestic subsidiaries, other than Cayenta, Inc., the operations of which have been discontinued. Titan has three foreign subsidiaries that are not guarantors of the outstanding notes and will not be providing guarantees of Titan's obligations under the exchange notes. One of these foreign subsidiaries is one of Cayenta's subsidiaries.

Redemption

Titan may redeem the exchange notes, in whole or in part, on or after May 15, 2007 at the redemption prices set forth in this prospectus, plus accrued and unpaid interest and liquidated damages, if any.

In addition, on or prior to May 15, 2006, Titan may redeem up to 35% of the aggregate principal amount of the notes with the net proceeds of certain public equity offerings. See "Description of Exchange Notes" Optional Redemption for more information.

Certain Covenants

If the requisite consents are obtained and the proposed amendments to the indenture become operative, certain covenants that currently restrict Titan's and the subsidiary guarantors operations will be amended or deleted and certain covenants will be added. If the requisite consents are not obtained or the proposed amendments to the indenture do not become operative, the indenture governing the notes will continue to contain covenants that will limit Titan's and its subsidiaries' ability to, among other things:

pay dividends, redeem capital stock and make other restricted payments and investments;

incur additional debt or issue preferred stock;

enter into agreements that restrict Titan's subsidiaries from paying dividends or other distributions, making loans or otherwise transferring assets to Titan or to any other subsidiaries;

create liens on assets;

engage in transactions with affiliates;

sell assets, including capital stock of subsidiaries; and merge, consolidate or sell all or substantially all of Titan's assets and the assets of Titan's subsidiaries.

These covenants are subject to a number of important qualifications and exceptions. See Description of the Exchange Notes' Certain Covenants.

Listing

Titan does not intend to list the notes on any national securities exchange or on an automated interdealer quotation system.

Governing Law

The laws of the State of New York.

If the proposed amendments become operative, the terms of both the outstanding notes and the exchange notes will be amended as described under 'The Consent Solicitation' 'The Proposed Amendments'.

THE MERGER

On September 15, 2003, Lockheed Martin, LMC Sub One, Inc., a wholly-owned subsidiary of Lockheed Martin referred to as LMC Sub One, and Titan executed a merger agreement, providing for the merger of Titan with and into LMC Sub One in a forward merger. Subsequent to the signing of the merger agreement, LMC Sub One assigned its interests under the merger agreement to LMC LLC One, LLC, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Lockheed Martin Corporation referred to as LMC LLC One. Under certain circumstances set forth in the merger agreement, Titan may elect to restructure the proposed transaction and cause LMC LLC One to be merged with and into Titan in a reverse merger. The surviving entity in the merger will continue its existence under Delaware law as a wholly-owned subsidiary of Lockheed Martin and will be the obligor of the notes.

Lockheed Martin and Titan expect to complete the merger promptly after receipt of Titan stockholder approval at a special meeting and receipt of all necessary regulatory approvals. Lockheed Martin and Titan currently anticipate that the merger will be completed during the first quarter of 2004.

You should carefully read the merger agreement, which has been filed as Exhibit 2.1 to Titan's Current Report on Form 8-K filed with the SEC on September 17, 2003, for more information concerning the proposed merger.

Table of Contents

RISK FACTORS

You should carefully consider the following risks and other information contained in this prospectus, together with all of the other information incorporated by reference in this prospectus, including the risks identified in each of Titan's and Lockheed Martin's annual reports on Form 10-K, before deciding to exchange your outstanding notes for exchange notes and/or consenting to the proposed amendments.

If Titan does not receive the requisite consents from holders of the outstanding notes, Titan may not be able to complete the merger and, if so, the notes will not be guaranteed by Lockheed Martin, which could have an adverse effect on the trading price of your notes.

The merger is conditioned on Titan obtaining the requisite consents from the holders of the outstanding notes. If the requisite consents are not obtained, the merger may not be completed. In this case, or if for any other reason the merger is not completed, Lockheed Martin will not become a guarantor of the notes, which could have an adverse effect on the trading price of the notes.

If the proposed amendments to the indenture become operative, holders of notes will no longer benefit from the protections afforded by most of the restrictive covenants under the indenture.

Assuming the requisite consents are obtained, the proposed amendments will become operative immediately prior to the closing of the merger. If the proposed amendments become operative, holders of notes will no longer be entitled to the benefits of most of the restrictive covenants and other provisions that currently constrain Titan's operations. As a result, there will be no restrictions on Titan's ability to incur debt, make restricted payments and take other actions that previously would not have been permitted under the indenture.

If you do not exchange your outstanding notes for exchange notes, you will continue to have restrictions on your ability to resell them, which could reduce their value.

The outstanding notes were not registered under the Securities Act or under the securities laws of any state and may not be resold, offered for resale, or otherwise transferred unless they are subsequently registered or resold pursuant to an exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act and applicable state securities laws. If you do not exchange your outstanding notes for exchange notes pursuant to the exchange offer, you will not be able to resell, offer to resell, or otherwise transfer the outstanding notes unless they are registered under the Securities Act or unless you resell them, offer to resell them or otherwise transfer them under an exemption from the registration requirements of, or in a transaction not subject to, the Securities Act. In addition, if the exchange offer is completed Titan will no longer be under an obligation to register the outstanding notes under the Securities Act.

If you do not participate in this exchange offer, the market for your outstanding notes may be less liquid than before the exchange offer and the market value of your outstanding notes may be lower.

The exchange of outstanding notes for exchange notes will reduce the number of holders of outstanding notes and the number of outstanding notes that would otherwise be available for trading and could adversely affect the liquidity and market value of the remaining outstanding notes.

A liquid trading market for the exchange notes may not develop, which could have an adverse effect on the market price of the exchange notes.

The exchange notes are a new issue of securities for which there is currently no public market. Titan does not intend to apply for listing of the exchange notes on any securities exchange, or for quotation through an automated interdealer quotation system. Accordingly, the exchange notes will trade only in the over-the-counter market. A liquid trading market may not develop for the exchange notes. If the exchange notes are traded, they may trade at a discount from their initial offering price, depending on prevailing interest rates, the market for similar securities, Titan's performance and other factors. In addition, if the proposed amendments become operative and Lockheed Martin becomes a guarantor of the notes, the trading price of the notes could be affected by Lockheed Martin's performance. If a market for the exchange notes does develop, it is possible that holders of exchange notes will not be able to sell their notes at a particular time or that the prices a holder will receive when such notes are sold will not be favorable. As a result, your ability to resell the exchange notes at fair market value, or at all, may be limited, which could have an adverse effect on the market price of the exchange notes.

If the proposed amendments become operative, there are generally no terms of the notes that will protect or compensate you in the event Titan or Lockheed Martin is involved in a highly leveraged or similar transaction.

If the proposed amendments become operative, there will be no covenants or other provisions in the terms of the notes providing for a change of control offer, increased interest or that would otherwise provide you with additional compensation or protection in the event Titan or Lockheed Martin is involved in a recapitalization transaction, a change of control or a highly leveraged transaction, except that the terms of the notes will provide that Titan and Lockheed Martin may not merge or consolidate with any other person or entity, or sell, lease or convey all or substantially all of their assets to any person or entity, unless specified conditions are satisfied. These conditions are limited and relate generally to the assumption of the obligations by the surviving or successor entity of the obligations under the notes.

The exchange notes will be effectively subordinated to existing and future indebtedness and other liabilities of subsidiaries of Titan, and, following the merger, the Lockheed Martin guarantee will be effectively subordinated to existing and future indebtedness of subsidiaries of Lockheed Martin other than Titan.

Lockheed Martin conducts most of its operations through Lockheed Martin Corporation but derives certain of its revenues from, and holds some of its assets through, its subsidiaries. As a result, following the merger, Lockheed Martin and Titan may rely in part upon distributions and advances from Lockheed Martin's subsidiaries other than Titan in order to assist them in meeting their payment obligations under the exchange notes. In general, these subsidiaries are separate and distinct legal entities and will have no obligations to pay any amounts due on Lockheed Martin's or Titan's debt securities, including the exchange notes, or to provide them with funds for their payment obligations, whether by dividends, distributions, loans or otherwise. The exchange notes and the Lockheed Martin guarantee are unsecured and will be effectively subordinated in right of payment to all liabilities of subsidiaries of Titan and, following the merger, subsidiaries of Lockheed Martin other than Titan. This means that in the event of a bankruptcy, liquidation or reorganization, the subsidiaries must pay their creditors in full before Titan and Lockheed Martin could use their assets to pay you.

Lockheed Martin's and Titan's right to receive assets of any subsidiary in the event of a bankruptcy or liquidation of the subsidiary, and therefore the rights of their creditors to participate in those assets, will be effectively subordinated to the claims of that subsidiary's creditors, including trade creditors. In addition, even if Lockheed Martin or Titan, as applicable, were a creditor of any subsidiary, their rights as a creditor would be subordinated to any indebtedness of that subsidiary senior to that held by Titan or subsidiaries of Lockheed Martin other than Titan, including secured indebtedness to the extent of the assets securing such indebtedness. As of September 30, 2003, Titan's subsidiaries had total liabilities after the elimination of loans and advances from it to its subsidiaries of approximately $172.4 million. In addition, the documents governing Lockheed Martin's indebtedness do not prohibit it and its subsidiaries from incurring additional indebtedness.

In the future, Titan or Lockheed Martin may acquire any outstanding notes that are not tendered in the exchange offer for consideration different than that in the exchange offer.

Edgar Filing: LOCKHEED MARTIN CORP - Form S-4

In the future, Titan or Lockheed Martin may acquire outstanding notes that are not tendered in the exchange offer through privately negotiated transactions, an exchange offer or such other means as it deems appropriate.

Any such acquisitions will occur upon the terms and at the prices as Titan or Lockheed Martin may determine in its discretion, which may be more or less than the value of the exchange notes being exchanged for the outstanding notes under the exchange offer, and could be for cash or other consideration. Titan or Lockheed Martin may choose to pursue any or none of these alternatives, or combinations thereof, in the future.

If the requisite consents are obtained and the merger is completed, Titan will no longer file reports with the SEC.

If the requisite consents are obtained and the merger is completed, Titan will no longer be subject to the reporting requirements of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. As a result, Titan will cease filing periodic and other reports with the SEC and consequently the information available to noteholders regarding Titan's financial condition will be reduced. This could have an adverse effect on the market price of the notes.

SPECIAL NOTE CONCERNING FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

The Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 provides safe harbor provisions for forward-looking information. Forward-looking information is based on projections and estimates, not historical information. Some statements in this prospectus and the documents incorporated by reference herein are forward-looking and use words like may, believe, expect, plan, anticipate, estimate and other expressions. Lockheed Martin and Titan also may provide oral or written forward-looking information in other materials released by Lockheed Martin and Titan to the public.

These forward-looking statements involve risks and uncertainties and reflect the best judgment of Lockheed Martin and Titan based on then current information. The financial condition and results of operations of Lockheed Martin and Titan can be affected by inaccurate assumptions they make or by known or unknown risks and uncertainties. In addition, other factors may affect the accuracy of the forward-looking information, including the following:

anticipated cost savings from the proposed merger may not be fully realized or realized within the expected time frame;

operating results following the proposed merger may be lower than expected;

competitive pressure among companies in our industries may increase significantly;

costs or difficulties related to the integration of the businesses of Lockheed Martin and Titan may be greater than expected;

general economic conditions, whether nationally or in the specific sectors in which Lockheed Martin and Titan conduct business, may be less favorable than expected;

legislation or regulatory changes may adversely affect the businesses of Lockheed Martin and Titan; or adverse changes may occur in the economy or the securities markets generally.

As a result, no forward-looking information can be guaranteed. Actual events and the results of operations may vary materially. While it is not possible to identify all factors, Lockheed Martin and Titan continue to face many risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ from our forward-looking statements, including the risks described in Risk Factors and in the documents filed by Lockheed Martin and Titan with the SEC. See the section entitled Where You Can Find More Information.

Lockheed Martin and Titan do not assume any responsibility to publicly update any of the forward-looking statements regardless of whether factors change as a result of new information, future events or for any other reason. You should review any additional disclosures made by Lockheed Martin and Titan in their press releases and Forms 10-K, 10-Q and 8-K filed with the SEC.

Table of Contents*SELECTED HISTORICAL FINANCIAL DATA OF THE TITAN CORPORATION

The following selected financial data for each of the five years in the period ended December 31, 2002 have been derived from Titan's audited consolidated financial statements. The financial information presented for the years ended and as of December 31, 1999 and 1998 has been restated from its original historical presentation to reflect acquisitions accounted for using the pooling of interests method that occurred during 2000 and discontinued operations subsequent to those years. The financial data as of September 30, 2003 and 2002, and for each of the nine-month periods then ended, have been derived from Titan's unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements which include, in the opinion of Titan's management, all adjustments, consisting of normal recurring adjustments, necessary to present fairly the results of operations and financial position of Titan for the periods and dates presented. Operating results for the nine months ended September 30, 2003 are not necessarily indicative of results to be expected for the full fiscal year. This data should be read in conjunction with the respective audited and unaudited consolidated financial statements of Titan, including the notes thereto, incorporated by reference in this document. - (1) Operating profit reflects earnings from continuing operations before interest expense and income taxes.
- (2) Includes the effects of a charge related to exiting the commercial mail sorting business, a loss on the early repayment of debt and a gain on the partial reversal of Space Imaging, LLC guarantee which, on a combined basis, decreased earnings from continuing operations before taxes by $168 million, $110 million after tax ($0.24 per diluted share).
- (3) Includes the effect of a research and development tax credit settlement which increased earnings from continuing operations by $90 million ($0.20 per diluted share).
- (4) Includes the effects of a write-down of telecommunications investments, a charge related to Russian advances and a write-down of an investment in Space Imaging and a charge related to recording of a guarantee and a research and development tax credit settlement which, on a combined basis, decreased earnings from continuing operations before income taxes by $1.1 billion, $632 million after tax ($1.40 per diluted share). In 2002, Lockheed Martin adopted FAS 142 which prohibits amortization of goodwill.
- (5) Includes the effects of a write-off of an investment in Astrolink and related costs, impairment of investments in Loral Space and Americom Asia-Pacific, a loss on early repayment of debt, a gain on sale of surplus real estate and other portfolio shaping activities which, on a combined basis, decreased earnings from continuing operations before income taxes by $973 million, $651 million after tax ($1.50 per share). Also includes a gain from the disposal of a business and charges for Lockheed Martin's exit from its global telecommunications business which is included in discontinued operations and which, on a combined basis, increased the net loss by $1 billion ($2.38 per diluted share).

UNAUDITED PRO FORMA COMBINED CONDENSED FINANCIAL INFORMATION

The following unaudited pro forma combined condensed financial statements are based upon Lockheed Martin's and Titan's historical consolidated financial statements incorporated by reference in this document, and have been prepared to reflect the proposed merger based on the purchase method of accounting. The unaudited pro forma combined condensed statements of earnings, which have been prepared for the nine months ended September 30, 2003 and for the year ended December 31, 2002, give effect to the merger as if it had occurred at the beginning of each of the periods presented. The unaudited pro forma combined condensed balance sheet has been prepared as of September 30, 2003 and gives effect to the merger as if it had occurred on that date. Lockheed Martin prepared the unaudited pro forma adjustments based upon financial data requested from Titan, and upon preliminary estimates and assumptions. The final determination of the fair market value of the assets acquired and liabilities assumed and the final allocation of the purchase price are expected to be finalized within one year of the date of the merger and will be reflected in future filings. The final determinations may result in amounts that are materially different from the amounts reflected in the pro forma data presented herein and are subject to adjustment pending such final determinations.

The unaudited pro forma combined condensed financial statements are not necessarily indicative of actual or future financial position or results of operations that would have occurred or will occur upon completion of the merger. These statements do not include the effects of any estimated transition or restructuring costs which may be incurred in connection with integrating the operations of Titan into Lockheed Martin. It is not possible at this time to estimate the effect of such costs for pro forma purposes. Additionally, the unaudited pro forma combined condensed statements of earnings do not reflect any net cost savings or economies of scale that may have occurred had the merger been completed at the beginning of the respective periods.

The unaudited pro forma combined condensed financial statements are based upon, and should be read in conjunction with, the historical consolidated financial statements of Lockheed Martin and Titan, including the respective notes, which are incorporated by reference in this document. See Where You Can Find More Information.

As described in this document, Lockheed Martin has agreed to acquire each outstanding common share of Titan for $22.00 per share in cash, Lockheed Martin common stock or a combination of cash and Lockheed Martin common stock. Titan stockholders who make a cash election or a stock election will likely have the form of their merger consideration adjusted as a result of the allocation provisions of the merger agreement that require that 50% of Titan's outstanding shares of common stock be exchanged for Lockheed Martin common stock and 50% of Titan's outstanding shares of common stock be exchanged for cash. Shares of Titan common stock will be exchanged for shares of Lockheed Martin common stock based on an exchange rate determined by dividing $22.00 by the average Lockheed Martin price during a ten-day measurement period. The average Lockheed Martin price is subject to a lower and upper collar in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement. The computation of the purchase price follows (in millions):

Purchase of 100% of outstanding common shares (81.2 million shares of Titan common stock at $22.00 per share)	$ 1,786
Assumption of Titan stock options and warrants at fair value	149
Estimated Lockheed Martin transaction costs	6

(2) Reclassifications

Reclassifications have been reflected in the unaudited pro forma combined condensed statements of earnings and balance sheet to conform the presentation of income tax balances, assets and liabilities of discontinued operations and other items to the format used by Lockheed Martin.

(3) Pro Forma Adjustments

The following adjustments are provided to reflect the merger on a pro forma basis:

- (a) To eliminate the sales and cost of sales between Lockheed Martin and Titan. No adjustments have been made to eliminate the related intercompany profit in ending inventories and the net intercompany receivables and payables at September 30, 2003, as such amounts are not considered material.
- (b) To record the amortization of intangible assets related to contracts and programs acquired over an estimated composite life of 9 years and to eliminate Titan's historical amortization of intangible assets.
- (c) To reduce cash, stockholders' equity and interest income due to Titan's use of $14 million of cash to redeem its cumulative convertible preferred stock prior to closing and Lockheed Martin's use of $899 million of cash and short-term investments in the acquisition of

50% of Titan's common stock and estimated transaction costs.

- (d) To reduce interest expense, interest income and cash to reflect Lockheed Martin's use of $347 million of cash to repay borrowings outstanding under Titan's line of credit.
- (e) To record the federal income tax effect, using the 35% statutory rate, related to the net pro forma adjustments.
- (f) To record the estimated fair values of the intangible assets related to contracts and programs acquired and cost in excess of net assets acquired (goodwill), as well as to adjust the other assets and liabilities of Titan to their estimated fair value.
- (g) To eliminate Titan's historical cost in excess of net assets acquired (goodwill) and stockholders' equity balances.

- (h) To record the assumed issuance of 17.34 million shares of Lockheed Martin common stock at an average price of $51.5125 per share and to record the assumption of Titan's stock options and warrants at their estimated fair value.

Table of Contents*RATIO OF EARNINGS TO FIXED CHARGES*Titan

The following sets forth Titan's historical consolidated ratio of earnings to fixed charges for the periods shown:

Nine Months		Years Ended December 31
Ended
September 30,
2003	2002	2002	2001	2000	1999	1998
2.3x	0.1x	0.6x	0.8x	0.3x	3.4x	2.7x

For purposes of computing the ratio of earnings to fixed charges, earnings consist of income or losses from continuing operations before income taxes plus fixed charges and fixed charges consist of interest expense, including amortization of debt discount and expense, and the estimated interest factor attributable to rentals. The computations reflect the reclassification of specified debt extinguishment costs. The amounts of the deficiencies in Titan's earnings to cover its fixed charges on a one-to-one basis during 2000, 2001 and 2002 and the nine months ended September 30, 2002 were $30.3 million, $7.2 million, $19.7 million and $31.8 million, respectively.

Lockheed Martin

The following sets forth Lockheed Martin's historical consolidated ratio of earnings to fixed charges for the periods shown:

Nine Months		Years Ended December 31
Ended
September 30,
2003	2002	2002	2001	2000	1999	1998
3.5x	3.4x	1.9x	1.3x	1.2x	2.4x	2.8x

For purposes of computing the ratio of earnings to fixed charges, earnings consists of income or losses from continuing operations before income taxes plus fixed charges plus losses of equity method investments less undistributed earnings of equity method investments less interest capitalized. Fixed charges consists of interest expense on all indebtedness, including amortization of debt discount or premium, interest capitalized and the estimated interest factor attributable to rentals.

Pro Forma Combined

The following sets forth the pro forma combined ratio of earnings to fixed charges for the year ended December 31, 2002 and the nine months ended September 30, 2003. The data presented below should be read in conjunction with the Unaudited Pro Forma Combined Condensed Financial Information in this document.

USE OF PROCEEDS

Neither Titan nor Lockheed Martin will receive any cash proceeds from the issuance of the exchange notes or the guarantees offered hereby.

Table of Contents

THE CONSENT SOLICITATION

The purpose of the consent solicitation is to satisfy one of the conditions to Lockheed Martin's obligations to complete the proposed merger between Lockheed Martin and Titan.

Terms of the Consent Solicitation

Concurrently with the exchange offer, Titan is soliciting your consent to amend the indenture governing the notes to:

provide that the merger does not require a change in control offer, as defined in the indenture, to be made to the holders of the notes;

eliminate most of the restrictive covenants and the reporting requirements contained in the indenture;

modify the event of default provisions; and

release the subsidiaries of Titan from their guarantees under the indenture.

In addition, Titan is seeking your consent to provide for the termination of the registration rights agreement. Titan is seeking consents to all of the proposed amendments as a single proposal. The holders of at least a majority in aggregate principal amount of the outstanding notes, whose consents are referred to as the requisite consents, must consent to the proposed amendments for them to be effective. As soon as the requisite consents are received, Titan will execute an amendment to the registration rights agreement and execute the supplemental indenture, all conditioned upon completion of the merger. The proposed amendments will not become operative until immediately prior to the completion of the merger. If the merger is not completed, the proposed amendments will not become operative. If the proposed amendments become operative, the terms of the outstanding notes and the exchange notes will be amended as described under The Proposed Amendments.

Holders of outstanding notes who return their consent to the proposed amendments prior to the consent fee deadline will receive a consent fee, if the requisite consents are received and the merger is completed, as described below. If your consent is not received by the consent fee deadline, you will not receive the consent fee. In addition, Lockheed Martin is offering to fully and unconditionally guarantee both the outstanding notes and the exchange notes, if the requisite consents are received and the merger is completed.

Solely for reasons of administration, Titan has fixed the close of business on _____, 2003 as the record date for the consent solicitation for purposes of determining the persons to whom Titan will initially mail this prospectus and the related documents. There will be no fixed record date for determining holders of the outstanding notes entitled to participate in this consent solicitation and all holders of outstanding notes may consent to the proposed amendments.

Consent Fee and Consent Fee Deadline

Edgar Filing: LOCKHEED MARTIN CORP - Form S-4

If you consent to the proposed amendments prior to the consent fee deadline, you will receive a consent fee equal to % of the principal amount of outstanding notes you tender if the requisite consents are received and the merger is completed. If your consent is not received by the consent fee deadline, you will not receive the consent fee. See Procedures for Tendering Outstanding Notes and Delivering Consents for information on how to deliver your consent to the proposed amendments.

The consent fee deadline is 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on , 2003, unless Titan extends the consent fee deadline, in which case the consent fee deadline is the latest date and time to which Titan extends the consent fee deadline.

Lockheed Martin Guarantee

If the supplemental indenture becomes operative, Lockheed Martin will become a guarantor of the notes. If added as a guarantor, Lockheed Martin will fully and unconditionally guarantee the due and punctual payment of the principal of or interest,
