Total number of managed customers reached 65 million, including the clients of BellSouth s Latin American operators, whose acquisition was agreed in March
TELEFÓNICA MOVILES SURPASSES 54.3 MILLION CUSTOMERS IN MARCH, AFTER RECORDING HIGHEST FIRST-QUARTER INCREASE IN ITS HISTORY
Telefónica Móviles acquired more than 2.3 million customers in the first three months of 2004.
The number of customers managed by Telefónica Móviles grew by 12.5 million or 30.1% more than at end-March 2003.
This document contains, and during the reading of it there may be expressed, statements about future events (as commonly accepted and within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act (USA) of 1995) intents, projections, expectations or forecasts made by the Comparant the date of said document. These may refer to various aspects such as the customer base and the development thereof; growth in the Company s business and the market share of its various businesses; the Company s results and other aspects of its activity and situation. These intents, projections, expectations or forecasts are subject, due to their very nature, to risks and uncertainties which could result in alterations to them, without the Company being obliged to modify these in the event of unforeseen circumstances and even if these alterations are due to changes of strategy.
Madrid, 15 April 2004 Telefónica Móviles ended the first quarter of 2004 with more than 54.3 million managed customers. The total of Telefónica Móviles managed customers, including the clients of the 10 Latin American operators it has agreed to acquire from BellSouth, reached some 65 million (using data from end-December 2003 for these operators).
This figure reinforces Telefónica Móviles status as one of the world s largest mobile telephony groups and the leader in Latin America, with some 43 million customers in the region.
The more than 54.3 million customers (excluding those of the BellSouth operators) at the end of March represents a gain of more than 2.3 million in the first quarter, the largest increase for this period ever made by the Telefónica Móviles Group.
Compared with the first quarter of 2003, Telefónica Móviles managed customer base grew by more than 12.5 million, or 30.1%.
(Including in March 2003 the customers belonging to TCO, the Brazilian operator acquired in April of last year, the year-over-year increase is
