In accordance with the Company's by-laws, the Board of Directors has adopted a resolution fixing the number of directors at four. Directors elected at the annual meeting of stockholders will hold office until the next annual meeting or until their successors are elected and qualified, except in the event of their earlier death, resignation or removal. Board of Directors

Edgar Filing: HOME PRODUCTS INTERNATIONAL INC - Form DEF 14A

Our Board currently consists of four directors, of which Charles R. Campbell, Daniel B. Shure and Joel D. Spungin, have been determined to be independent directors (as defined by Nasdaq Stock Market listing standards). The Company's non-management directors meet in executive session separate from management during every Board meeting.

The Board of Directors met five times during the 2003 fiscal year. During fiscal year 2003, each of the directors attended 75% or more of the total meetings of the Board and committees of the Board on which the director served. In addition, it is Company policy that each of our directors is invited and encouraged to attend the Meeting.

The three standing committees of the Board are the Audit Committee, the Compensation Committee and the Nominating & Governance Committee. The Board has only appointed independent directors (as defined by Nasdaq Stock Market listing standards) to serve on each of these committees.

The Audit Committee

The Audit Committee assists the Board of Directors in fulfilling its oversight responsibilities relating to the Company's financial statements and the financial reporting process, the systems of internal accounting and financial controls, the audit process, and the Company's process for monitoring compliance with laws and regulations and with the Company's code of conduct. The Audit Committee has sole responsibility for the appointment, compensation, retention and oversight of the Company's independent auditors.

The Audit Committee currently consists of three independent directors, Charles R. Campbell (Chairman), Daniel B. Shure and Joel D. Spungin (who was appointed to the Committee on April 16, 2003). Each member of the Audit Committee meets all the applicable independence and financial literacy requirements of Nasdaq and the SEC. The Board of Directors has determined that Mr. Campbell has the background to qualify as a financial expert on the Audit Committee within the meaning of SEC and Nasdaq rules. The Board of Directors has adopted a revised charter for the Audit Committee, which is included as Annex A to this proxy statement. The Committee has also adopted a policy for the pre-approval of all services and fees to be provided by the Company's independent auditors for audit, audit-related, tax and all other services, which are allowable under applicable rules and regulations.

The Compensation Committee

The authority and duties of the Compensation Committee include, among others, (i) approving and overseeing the total compensation package for the Company's executive officers; (ii) reviewing and approving corporate goals and objectives relevant to the compensation of the chief executive officer; (iii) reviewing and making recommendations to the Board regarding new employment agreements or arrangements with executive officers; and (iv) reviewing and making recommendations to the Board regarding long-term incentive compensation or equity plans, programs or similar arrangements of the Company; and (v) preparing an annual report on executive compensation as required by the SEC to be included in the Company's annual proxy statement filed with the SEC.

The Compensation Committee currently consists of two non-employee directors, Daniel B. Shure (Chairman) and Joel D. Spungin. All members of the Compensation Committee (i) meet the independence requirements of the Nasdaq Marketplace Rules, (ii) are non-employee directors as defined in Rule 16b-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and (iii) are outside directors for purposes of the regulations promulgated under Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. The Compensation Committee met three times during 2003.

The Nominating & Governance Committee

The authority and duties of the Nominating & Governance Committee (formerly the Nominating Committee) include, among others, (i) identifying individuals qualified to become Board members, (ii) recommends to the Board the director nominees for election at the next annual meeting of stockholders, (iii) monitors significant developments in the law and practice of corporate governance and of the duties and responsibilities of directors of public companies, and (iv) leads the Board in its annual performance self-evaluation, including establishing criteria to be used in connection with such evaluation.

The Nominating & Governance Committee currently consists of three independent directors, Charles R. Campbell (Chairman), Daniel B. Shure and Joel D. Spungin. The Nominating & Governance Committee met five times during 2003. The Board of Directors has adopted a charter for the Nominating & Governance Committee, which is included as Annex B to this proxy statement. A copy of the Nominating & Governance Committee charter is also available without charge to any stockholder upon written request to Corporate Secretary, Home Products International, Inc., 4501 West 47th Street, Chicago, Illinois, 60632.

Special Committee of the Board of Directors

A Special Committee of the Board (comprised solely of the Company's independent directors, Charles R. Campbell (chairman), Daniel B. Shure and Joel D. Spungin) was established to evaluate an offer proposed by an entity formed by James R. Tennant, the Company's chairman and chief executive officer. During 2003, the Special Committee met nine times. For more information, see "Related Party Transactions" below.

Director Nominations Process

The Board's process for identifying and evaluating nominees for director consists principally of evaluating candidates who are recommended by the Nominating & Governance Committee. The Board may also, on a periodic basis, solicit ideas for possible candidates from a number of sources, including current members of the Board, senior level Company executives, individuals personally known to members of the Board, and employment of one or more search firms.

It is the policy of the Nominating & Governance Committee to consider recommendations for candidates to the Board of Directors from stockholders. Stockholder recommendations for candidates to the Board of Directors must be in writing and must include: the candidate's name, age, business address and residence address, the candidate's principal occupation or employment, the number of shares of the Company which are beneficially owned by such candidate, a description of all arrangements or understandings between the stockholder making such nomination and each candidate and any other person or persons (naming such person or persons) pursuant to which the nominations are to be made by the stockholder, detailed biographical data and qualifications and information regarding any potential conflicts of interest that might prevent or otherwise limit the candidate from serving as an effective member, and any other information relating to such nominee that is required to be disclosed in solicitations of proxies for elections of directors, or is otherwise required, in each case pursuant to Regulation 14A under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Such writing must also include: the name and address, as they appear on the Company's books, of the stockholder making such recommendation, the class and number of shares of the Company which are beneficially owned by the stockholder and the date such shares were acquired by the stockholder, any material interest of the stockholder in such nomination, any other information that is required to be provided by the stockholder pursuant to Regulation 14A under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 in his capacity as a proponent to a stockholder proposal, and a statement from the recommending stockholder in support of the candidate, references for the candidate, and an indication of the candidate's willingness to serve, if elected.

These director candidate recommendation materials must be sent to the Corporate Secretary, Home Products International, Inc., 4501 West 47th Street, Chicago, Illinois, 60632. It is the policy of the Nominating & Governance Committee not to consider stockholder nominees for a given annual meeting of stockholders unless such written notice is received no later than the 120th calendar day before the first anniversary of the date of the Company's proxy statement in connection with the previous year's annual meeting. Properly submitted stockholder recommendations will be given the same consideration and evaluated with the same criteria as candidates that are recommended internally.

Except as may be required by rules promulgated by Nasdaq or the SEC, there are currently no specific, minimum qualifications that must be met by each candidate for the Board of Directors, nor are there specific qualities or skills that are necessary for one or more of the members of the Board of Directors to possess. In evaluating the suitability of the candidates, the Committee shall take into consideration such factors as it deems appropriate. These factors may include, among other things, issues of character, judgment, independence, age, expertise, diversity of experience, length of service, other commitments and the like. The Committee evaluates such factors, among others, and considers each individual candidate in the context of the current perceived needs of the Board of Directors as a whole and of committees of the Board.

In identifying and evaluating the individuals that it selects, or recommends that the Board of Directors select, as director nominees, the Nominating & Governance Committee utilizes the following process:

Reviews the qualifications of any candidates who have been properly recommended or nominated by the stockholders, as well as those candidates who have been identified by management, individual members of the Board of Directors or, if the Committee determines, a search firm.

Evaluates the performance and qualifications of individual members of the Board of Directors eligible for re-election at the annual meeting of stockholders.

Considers the suitability of each candidate, including the current members of the Board of Directors, in light of the current size and composition of the Board of Directors. In evaluating the suitability of the candidates, the Committee considers many factors, including, among other things, issues of character, judgment, independence, age, expertise, diversity of experience, length of service, other commitments and the like. The Committee evaluates such factors, among others, and considers each individual candidate in the context of the current perceived needs of the Board of Directors as a whole.

After such review and consideration, the Committee selects, or recommends that the Board of Directors select, the slate of director nominees, either at a meeting of the Committee at which a quorum is present or by unanimous written consent of the Committee.

The Committee will endeavor to notify, or cause to be notified, all director candidates of its decision as to whether to nominate such individual for election to the Board of Directors.

Stockholder Communications with the Board

The Board of Directors provides a process for stockholders to communicate with members of the Board. Shareholders may send written communications to the Board or any one or more of the individual directors by mail, c/o Corporate Secretary, Home Products International, Inc., 4501 West 47th Street, Chicago, Illinois, 60632. Such communications will be compiled by the Corporate Secretary of the Company and submitted to the Board or the specified individual director, as appropriate, generally at the next regular Board meeting following receipt of the communication. However, if the Corporate Secretary determines the nature of the communication requires the immediate attention of the Board of Directors or the specified individual director, the communication may be submitted at an earlier date.

Code of Business Conduct and Ethics

The Company has adopted a Code of Business Conduct and Ethics applicable to the Company's directors, officers (including the Company's principal executive officer, principal financial officer and controller) and employees. A copy of the Code of Business Conduct and Ethics is available, without charge, upon written request to James E. Winslow, Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer, Home Products International, Inc., 4501 West 47th Street, Chicago Illinois, 60632.

Compensation of Directors

All non-employee directors are paid an annual retainer of $10,000, plus $2,000 for each Board of Directors meeting attended in person, $1,000 for each meeting conducted telephonically, $500 for each committee meeting attended in person or by telephone and $1,000 per meeting for attendance at Special Committee meetings. The chairman of the Special Committee is paid $1,300 per meeting for attendance at Special Committee meetings. Each non-employee director may defer payment of the retainer and/or director's fee, until termination of the director's services or the attainment of a certain age. All directors are reimbursed for out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with attendance at meetings of the Board of Directors and meetings of committees of the Board of Directors.

Non-employee directors may also from time to time be granted options to purchase shares of common stock at the discretion of the Board of Directors. In 2003, no discretionary stock options were granted to any non-employee director. The Company's current policy is for non-employee directors to receive a grant of an option to purchase 20,000 shares of common stock every three years commencing in May 2001. The terms of any future discretionary stock option grants will be determined at the time of grant in accordance with the applicable plan.

Aggregated Option Exercises in Last Fiscal Year and Fiscal Year-End Option Values

The following table provides information about options held as of December 27, 2003 and option exercises during the fiscal year ending December 27, 2003 by the named executive officers. The value of unexercised in-the-money options at fiscal year end is calculated using the difference between the option exercise price and the fair market value at December 27, 2003 (based on the $1.15 per share closing price of the common stock on the Nasdaq SmallCap MarketSM on December 26, 2003), multiplied by the number of shares underlying the option. An option is in-the-money if the fair market value of the common stock subject to the option is greater than the exercise price. No options granted to named executive officers were in-the-money at fiscal year end.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE REPORT

The Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors (the Committee) determines and administers the compensation of the Company's executive officers. The Committee is comprised entirely of non-employee directors.

Compensation Philosophy

At the direction of the Board of Directors, the Committee endeavors to ensure that the compensation programs for executive officers of the Company are effective in attracting, retaining and motivating key executives responsible for the success of the Company and are administered in an appropriate fashion in the long-term interests of the Company. Committee actions related to the compensation of the chief executive officer and other executive officers of the Company are submitted to the full Board of Directors for ratification.

The Committee believes that the Company's overall financial performance should be an important factor in the total compensation of the Company's executive officers. At the executive officer level, the Committee has a policy that a significant portion of the total compensation should consist of variable, performance-based components, such as stock awards and bonuses, which can increase or decrease to reflect changes in corporate and individual performances. These incentive compensation programs are intended to reinforce management's commitment to enhancement of profitability and stockholder value.

The Committee takes into account various qualitative and quantitative indicators of Company and individual performance in determining the level and composition of compensation for the chief executive officer and other executive officers. While the Committee considers such Company performance measures as net income, earnings per share and return on capital employed, the Committee does not apply any specific quantitative formula in making compensation decisions. However, the Management Incentive Plan and the Executive Incentive Plan are based on specific Company performance measures related to the attainment of certain budgeted goals and return on capital employed, respectively. The Committee also appreciates the importance of achievements that may be difficult to quantify and, accordingly, recognizes qualitative factors, such as successful supervision of major corporate projects, demonstrated leadership ability and contributions to the industry. From time to time, the Committee also receives assessments and advice regarding the Company's compensation practices from independent compensation consultants.

Base Salary

Base salaries for the chief executive officer and other executive officers are established at competitive market levels for their respective positions, levels of responsibility and their knowledge and experience. Salaries are reviewed periodically and adjusted as warranted to reflect sustained individual executive officer performance. The Committee focuses primarily on total annual compensation, including incentive awards, rather than base salary alone, as the appropriate measure of executive officer performance and contribution.

Performance Based Compensation

Management Incentive Plan. The Management Incentive Plan, (MIP) applies to executive officers and key employees of the Company. Participants are eligible to earn an annual incentive award based on the attainment of pre-approved Company and subsidiary goals. Participants are assigned a target incentive award stated as a percent of their salary, based on a participant's duties and responsibilities. The target incentive award is calculated at the end of the fiscal year based upon the attainment of predetermined financial and economic goals. The goals consist of (1) earnings performance goals expressed as earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization (EBITDA), and (2) for key employees a discretionary performance goal with respect to specific performance objectives established at the beginning of the year. For achievement above or below the performance goals, the amount of the total award will increase or decrease above or below the target incentive award opportunity.

The 2003 performance goal set by the Committee for executive officers was the attainment of a minimum level of EBITDA. After year end, the Committee then reviewed the performance of the Company and each of the participating executives prior to payment of the incentive awards. No 2003 incentive awards were paid to named executive officers under the MIP as noted in the Bonus column of the Summary Compensation Table.

Executive Incentive Plan. The Executive Incentive Plan (EIP) applies to the Company s senior management. The purpose of the EIP is to make available to the participants a portion of their total compensation in the form of an incentive opportunity for attaining a return on capital employed goal determined by the Committee at the beginning of the plan year.

While the EIP provides annual incentive opportunity, it also provides longer-term incentives to enhance stockholder value. One-half of the total award is paid to participants in cash following the end of the plan year, while the remainder is deferred as phantom stock units whose value is tied to the performance of the Company s stock. The value of deferred phantom stock units is generally paid out over three years, subject to a vesting schedule and only in the event that the recipient remains an employee of the Company on each vesting date, in the form of cash or cash and Company common stock.

After year end, the Committee reviews the performance of the Company prior to determining the final incentive awards. There were no 2003 incentive awards paid to named executive officers under the EIP as noted in the Bonus column of the Summary Compensation Table. Information regarding payouts to named executive officers in 2003 with respect to phantom stock units accrued in prior years under the EIP is included in the LTIP Payouts column of the Summary Compensation Table.

Stock Options

The Company s long-term equity-based compensation program consists primarily of stock option grants that vest over a multi-year period. Grants under the Company s stock option plans are designed to further reinforce the link between executive performance and stockholder return, to provide additional incentives to executives that are tied to growth of stock price over time and to encourage continued employment with the Company. In recommending grants under the various stock option plans, the Committee considers various quantitative and qualitative factors. The Company periodically grants new awards to provide continuing incentives for future performance. The number of options previously awarded to and held by executive officers and key employees is reviewed but is only one factor in determining the size of current option grants. Like base salary and the annual incentive payments, award levels are set with regard to competitive considerations, and each individual s actual award is based upon the individual s performance, potential for increased responsibility and contributions, leadership ability and commitment to the Company s strategic efforts. In fiscal 2003, no stock options were granted.

Chief Executive Officer Compensation

Compensation of the Chief Executive Officer for the 2003 fiscal year was determined pursuant to the terms of Mr. Tennant s employment agreement. Mr. Tennant also participates in the Executive Incentive Plan as well as the Management Incentive Plan. Mr. Tennant was not granted any additional stock options in 2003.

Deductibility of Compensation

Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code denies a publicly held corporation, such as the Company, a federal income tax deduction for compensation in excess of $1 million in a taxable year paid to each of its chief executive officer and the four other most highly compensated executive officers. Certain performance based compensation, such as stock options awarded at fair market value, is not subject to the limitation on deductibility provided that certain stockholder approval and independent director requirements are met. To the extent consistent with the Company's compensation policies, the Company's ability to attract and retain independent directors, and the Committee's assessment of the interests of stockholders, the Company intends to design its executive compensation programs to preserve its ability to deduct compensation paid to executives under these programs.

AUDIT COMMITTEE REPORT

The Audit Committee currently consists of three non-employee directors, all of whom are independent directors (as defined by Nasdaq Stock Market listing standards). The Board of Directors has determined that Mr. Charles Campbell qualifies as a financial expert on the Audit Committee within the meaning of SEC rules. On April 16, 2003, Joel D. Spungin was appointed to the Audit Committee. The Committee met six times during 2003.

The Board of Directors has adopted a revised charter for the Audit Committee, which is included as Annex A to this proxy statement. In accordance with its written charter, the Audit Committee assists the Board in fulfilling its responsibility for monitoring the integrity of the accounting, auditing and financial reporting practices, and compliance with legal and regulatory requirements of the Company, including its code of business ethics. In addition, for each fiscal year, the Audit Committee selects independent public accountants to audit the financial statements of the Company and its subsidiaries, subject to approval of the Board of Directors. In fulfilling its oversight responsibilities, the Committee reviewed the audited financial statements with management, including a discussion of the quality, not just the acceptability, of the accounting principles, the reasonableness of significant judgments, and the clarity of disclosures in the financial statements. The Committee reviewed with the independent auditors, who are responsible for expressing an opinion on the conformity of those audited financial statements with generally accepted accounting principles, their judgments as to the quality, not just the acceptability, of the Company's accounting principles and such other matters as are required to be discussed with the Committee under generally accepted auditing standards (including Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61). In addition, the Committee has discussed with the independent auditors the auditors' independence from management and the Company, including the matters in the written disclosures required by the Independence Standards Board (including under Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1), and considered the compatibility of non-audit services with the auditors' independence.

The Committee has adopted a policy for the pre-approval of all services and fees to be provided by the Company's independent auditors for audit, audit-related, tax and all other services, which are allowable under applicable rules and regulations. The Committee annually pre-approves general and specific services and fees. The Committee periodically approves changes in such authorization and also delegates such periodic approval to the Committee Chairman, who reports any such authorizations to the Committee at its next meeting. The Committee discussed with the Company's independent auditors the overall scope and plans for their respective audits. The Committee meets with the independent auditors, with and without management present, to discuss the results of their examinations, their evaluations of the Company's internal controls, and the overall quality of the Company's financial reporting.

In reliance on the reviews and discussions referred to above, the Committee recommended to the Board of Directors (and the Board has approved) that the audited financial statements be included in the Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 27, 2003 for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

This report is submitted on behalf of the members of the Audit Committee:

Charles R. Campbell, Chairman

Daniel B. Shure

Joel D. Spungin

(2) Tax fees include tax compliance, tax advice and tax planning.

As described in the Audit Committee Report, the Audit Committee pre-approves the Audit, Audit-Related, Tax and All Other services performed by the independent auditors in accordance with its policy with respect thereto. Former Accounting Firm

In May 2002, the Board of Directors, upon the recommendation of the Audit Committee, terminated the engagement of Arthur Andersen LLP as its independent auditor. The Arthur Andersen LLP report on the Company's financial statements for each of the fiscal years ended December 30, 2000 and December 29, 2001, did not contain an adverse opinion or a disclaimer of opinion and was not qualified or modified as to uncertainties, audit scope or accounting principles. During the fiscal years 2000 and 2001 and the interim period between December 29, 2001 and the termination in May 2002, there were no disagreements between the Company and Arthur Andersen LLP on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure, which if not resolved to the satisfaction of Arthur Andersen LLP, would have caused it to make reference to the subject matter of the disagreements in connection with their report. The Company engaged KPMG LLP in May 2002 as its new independent auditor effective upon the termination of Arthur Andersen LLP.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE INTERLOCKS AND INSIDER PARTICIPATION

Mr. Jeffrey Rubenstein, a former director of the Company, is the executor and trustee of certain estates and trusts (the "Trusts") which lease a facility to the Company. In addition, Mr. Rubenstein is a partner in a law firm that is the Company's primary outside general counsel. Mr. Rubenstein is responsible for overseeing all legal work performed by the law firm on the Company's behalf. Mr. Rubenstein had been a director since September 1986 until his resignation on November 7, 2003. Until his resignation, Mr. Rubenstein was also a member of the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors. Until August 13, 2002, Mr. Rubenstein was also a member of the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors. Payments made to the law firm were $150,000 in 2003, $331,000 in 2002 and $455,000 in 2001.

The Trusts own the Company's Chicago headquarters, manufacturing and distribution facility. The Company leases the facility from the Trusts under a lease that expires in July 2020. The Company has options to extend the lease as well as an option to purchase the facility. The lease was last amended in October 1998. The Board of Directors has approved the lease and its amendments. Lease payments made to the Trusts were $922,000 in 2003, $909,000 in 2002 and $848,000 in 2001.

The Company believes that the terms of all transactions with the law firm and the Trusts are arms length. In accordance with revised Nasdaq listing standards, the Company has adopted a policy to conduct an appropriate review of all related party transactions (as defined in Nasdaq rules) for potential conflict of interest situations on an ongoing basis and to require all such related party transactions to be approved by the Company's audit committee comprised solely of independent directors.

RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

As previously disclosed, the Company received a proposal letter on February 5, 2004 to negotiate a transaction contemplating the acquisition of all of the Company's outstanding shares for $1.50 cash per share by an entity formed by James R. Tennant, the Company's chairman and chief executive officer. A Special Committee of the Board comprised solely of the Company's independent directors, Charles R. Campbell, Daniel B. Shure and Joel D. Spungin, together with its outside counsel and financial advisors, are considering the proposed transaction. That Special Committee is actively pursuing alternatives. The Company cautions that there cannot be any assurance that further negotiations with Mr. Tennant will result in a completed transaction, and the terms and conditions of any such transaction may differ materially from the terms of the proposal letter.

Except as described in the preceding paragraph and above under Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation, there are no other relationships or related party transactions of a nature required to be disclosed under applicable SEC rules.

SECTION 16(a) BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP REPORTING COMPLIANCE

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 requires the Company's directors and executive officers, and persons who beneficially own more than 10% of the Company's common stock, to file with the SEC initial reports of beneficial ownership and reports of changes in ownership of the Company's common stock and other equity securities of the Company. Executive officers, directors, and greater than 10% stockholders of the Company are required by SEC regulations to furnish the Company with copies of all Section 16(a) reports that they file.

Based solely on review of the copies of such reports furnished to the Company, the Company believes that during the 2003 fiscal year, all required Section 16(a) filings were made on a timely basis by the directors, executive officers and greater than 10% beneficial owners of the Company.

ANNUAL REPORT

A copy of the Company's Annual Report to Stockholders has accompanied this Proxy Statement. The Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fifty-two weeks ended December 27, 2003, as filed with the SEC and including any amendments thereto, is available without charge to any stockholder upon written request to Mark J. Suchinski, Corporate Controller, Home Products International, Inc., 4501 West 47th Street, Chicago, Illinois 60632. Copies of exhibits filed with the Form 10-K will be furnished, if requested, upon payment of the Company's reasonable expenses in furnishing those materials.

STOCKHOLDER PROPOSALS

Stockholder proposals submitted for evaluation as to possible inclusion in the Proxy Statement and form of proxy for the Company's next annual meeting of stockholders must be received by the Company not later than 5:00 p.m. central standard time on December 27, 2004, which is 120 calendar days prior to the anniversary of the mailing date of this year's proxy materials, and must be in compliance with applicable laws and regulations in order to be considered for possible inclusion in the proxy statement and form of proxy for that meeting. Such proposals should be sent to the Corporate Secretary at the Company's principal executive offices at 4501 West 47th Street, Chicago, Illinois 60632.

Proxies appointed by management will use their discretionary authority to vote the shares they represent as the Board of Directors may recommend at the Company's 2005 annual meeting of stockholders if a stockholder raises a proposal which is not to be included in the Company's proxy materials for such meeting and the Company does not receive proper notice of such proposal at its principal executive offices by March 12, 2005, which is the date 45 days prior to the anniversary of the mailing date of this year's proxy materials. If the date of the 2005 annual meeting of stockholders is changed by more than 30 days from the date of the 2004 annual meeting of stockholders, notice of any such stockholder proposals must be received by the Company a reasonable time before the Company solicits proxies for the 2005 annual meeting of stockholders. If notice of any such proposal is timely received, the proxy holders may exercise discretionary authority with respect to such proposal only to the extent permitted by applicable SEC rules. Such proposal must in any circumstance be, under law, an appropriate subject for stockholder action in order to be brought before the meeting.

With respect to the 2004 Meeting, the Company did not receive proper notice of any stockholder proposals within the period specified by Rule 14a-4(c)(2) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Accordingly, proxies appointed by management intend to use their discretionary authority to vote the shares they represent as the Board of Directors may recommend if a stockholder raises any proposal which is not included in these proxy materials for consideration at the Meeting.

OTHER MATTERS

The Board of Directors is not aware of any other matters to be presented for action at the Meeting. If any of the Board's nominees is unavailable for election as a director or any other matter should properly come before the Meeting, it is the intention of the persons named as proxies in the accompanying form of proxy to vote the shares represented thereby in accordance with their best judgment.

The Audit Committee shall have the sole authority to appoint or replace the independent auditor (subject, if applicable, to stockholder ratification). The Committee shall be directly responsible for the compensation and oversight of the work of the independent auditor for the purpose of preparing or issuing an audit report or related work. The Committee, to the extent it deems necessary or appropriate, shall:

A. Financial Reporting and Disclosure Matters

1. Review and discuss with management and the independent auditor the annual audited financial statements, including their judgment about the quality, not just acceptability, of accounting principles, the reasonableness of significant judgments, the clarity of the disclosures in the financial statements and management's discussion and analysis of financial condition and results of operations, and the adequacy of internal controls. The Committee shall also review management's handling of proposed audit adjustments identified by the independent auditor and the resolution thereof; and recommend to the Board whether the audited financial statements should be included in the Company's Form 10-K filed with the Commission.
2. Review and discuss with management and the independent auditor the Company's quarterly financial statements prior to the filing of its Form 10-Q, including the results of the independent auditor's review of the quarterly financial statements.
3. Discuss with management and the independent auditor significant financial reporting issues and judgments made in connection with the preparation of the Company's financial statements, including any complex and/or unusual transactions such as restructuring or other non-recurring charges, significant changes in the Company's selection or application of accounting principles, any significant issues as to the adequacy of the Company's internal controls and any steps adopted in light of material control deficiencies.
4. Review and discuss quarterly comments from the independent auditor on:
 - a) All critical accounting policies and practices used or to be used by the Company;
 - b) All alternative treatments of financial information within generally accepted accounting principles that have been discussed with management, ramifications of the use of such alternative disclosures and treatments, and the treatment preferred by the independent auditor; and

5. Prior to the release of quarterly earnings, available Committee members shall review and discuss the quarterly financial statements with management and the independent auditor and will discuss any other matters required to be communicated to the Committee by the independent auditor under generally accepted auditing standards. A quorum of Committee members shall not be required to conduct these reviews.

B. Oversight of the Company's Relationship with the Independent Auditor. With respect thereto, the Committee shall:

1. Obtain and review a written statement from the independent auditor at least annually (or more frequently as circumstances require) regarding (a) the independent auditor's internal quality-control procedures, (b) any material issues raised by the most recent internal quality-control review, or peer review, of the firm, or by any inquiry or investigation by governmental or professional authorities within the preceding five years respecting one or more independent audits carried out by the firm, (c) any steps taken to deal with any such issues, and (d) all relationships between the independent auditor and the Company or any other relationships that may adversely affect the independence of the auditor. Evaluate the qualifications, performance and independence of the independent auditor, including considering whether the auditor's quality controls are adequate and the provision of permitted non-audit services is compatible with maintaining the auditor's independence, and taking into account the opinions of management and internal auditors, if any. The Audit Committee shall present its conclusions with respect to the independent auditor and its assessment of the independence of the auditor to the Board.
2. Annually review the experience and qualifications of the senior members of the independent auditor team. Ensure the rotation of the lead (or coordinating) audit partner having primary responsibility for the audit and the audit partner responsible for reviewing the audit as required by law.

4. Prior to the commencement of the fiscal year audit, review the independent auditor's proposed audit scope, staffing and approach.
5. Preapprove all auditing services and permitted non-audit services (including the fees and terms thereof) to be performed for the Company by its independent auditor, subject to the de minimus exceptions for non-audit services described in Section 10A(i)(1)(B) of the Exchange Act which are approved by the Audit Committee prior to the completion of the audit. The Committee may form and delegate authority to subcommittees consisting of one or more members when appropriate, including the authority to grant preapprovals of audit and permitted non-audit services, provided that decisions of such subcommittee to grant preapprovals shall be presented to the full Committee at its next scheduled meeting.

6. Approve the Company's hiring of employees or former employees of the independent auditor who participated in any capacity in the audit of the Company.

C. Internal Auditor. In the event the Company shall establish the position of Internal Auditor, then, with respect thereto, the Committee shall:

1. Review the activities and organizational structure of the Company's internal audit function; and

2. Discuss with the Company's counsel legal matters that may have a material impact on the Company's financial statements or compliance policies.
3. Obtain from the independent auditor assurance that Section 10A(b) of the Exchange Act has not been violated. Make reasonable inquiry of the independent auditor to determine that all regulatory compliance matters have been considered in the preparation of the financial statements;
4. Discuss with management and the independent auditor any correspondence with, or findings of examinations by, regulators or governmental agencies (including Nasdaq and the Commission) and any published reports which raise material issues regarding the Company's Exchange Act reports, financial statements or accounting policies.

5. Such other duties that may be delegated to it by the Board of Directors from time to time.

The Committee shall prepare the report required by the Commission's rules to be included in the Company's annual proxy statement.

IV. Limits of Responsibilities and Powers.

The Committee members are not professional accountants or auditors and their functions are not intended to duplicate or to certify the activities of management and the independent auditor, nor can the Committee certify that the independent auditor is independent under applicable rules. The Committee serves a board level oversight role where it oversees the relationship with the independent auditor, as set forth in this Charter, and provides advice, counsel and general direction, as it deems appropriate, to management and the auditors on the basis of the information it receives, discussions with the auditor, and the experience of the Committee's members in business, financial and accounting matters.

While the Committee has the responsibilities and powers set forth in this Charter, it is not the duty of the Committee to plan or conduct audits or to determine that the Company's financial statements are complete and accurate and are in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and applicable rules and regulations.
