IN ITS APE SOLICITATION

Buenos Aires, August 17, 2004 Telecom Personal S.A. Telecom Personal 's APE solicitation process expired on Friday, August 13, 2004. Telecom Personal announced that it will continue accepting additional submissions of duly completed letters of transmittal from holders of outstanding debt for an additional period, which period is expected to end on August 20, 2004. Telecom Personal will continue to work with creditors who have submitted documentation during the solicitation period in order to correct technical issues with respect to certain submissions.

Once the settlement agent has completed processing the letters of transmittal, and made the corresponding calculations of principal face amount adjustments, U.S. dollar equivalents and the Modified Dutch Auction purchase price, Telecom Personal will inform its creditors what amounts of outstanding debt have been allocated into Option A, Option B and Option C.

The U.S. dollar equivalent amounts are to be determined based on the foreign exchange rates in effect at 4:59 p.m., New York City time, on the FX Reference Date. As described in Telecom Personal 's solicitation statement that was sent to holders of its outstanding loans, the FX Reference Date will be two business days after the expiration date of the APE solicitation, or Wednesday, August 18, 2004.

The completion of the Telecom Personal s APE and the effective date of the loans will depend on additional conditions precedent set forth in the solicitation statement and the APE Agreement.
