PART III

NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

During 2004, Impac Mortgage Holdings, Inc. (the Company) restated its financial statements for each of the years ended December 31, 2003, 2002 and 2001, the three months ended March 31, 2004 and 2003, the three and six months ended June 30, 2003 and the three and nine months ended September 30, 2003. The Company also restated its consolidated statement of operations for the six months ended June 30, 2004 due to a correction to earnings per share as a result of a clerical error. The time and resources committed to the restatements delayed the Company s internal timetable with respect to its documentation, assessment and evaluation of internal control over financial reporting, which were undertaken in order to comply with the requirements of Section 404 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 (SOX 404). Due in large part to the foregoing, management is assessment of the effectiveness of the Company is internal control over financial reporting was substantially delayed, thereby delaying the performance by KPMG LLP (KPMG), the Company is independent registered public accounting firm, of its audit of management is assessment of the effectiveness of internal control over financial reporting pursuant to the requirements of SOX 404. As a result, such audit will not be completed by the filing deadline of March 16, 2005. In addition, the Company is also in the process of finalizing its annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2004, which process is not yet completed due to the foregoing.

The Company intends to file its annual report on Form 10-K as soon as possible, and in any event no later than the fifteenth calendar day following the prescribed due date for such report. However, the Company believes that it will not receive from KPMG the audit reports on the financial statements and the assessment of the effectiveness of internal control over financial reporting prior to March 31, 2005. The Company anticipates that its initial filing of its annual report on Form 10-K will not include KPMG s audit report but will instead include unaudited financial statements in lieu of audited financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2004 and the annual report will also not include KPMG s report relating to the Company s assessment of the effectiveness of internal control over financial reporting.

Upon receipt of KPMG s audit report of the Company s financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2004 and report on the Company s assessment of the effectiveness of internal control over financial reporting, the Company will file an amended annual report on Form 10-K/A to include these reports and audited financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2004 as soon as practicable.
