ITEM 5.04. TEMPORARY SUSPENSION OF TRADING UNDER REGISTRANT'S EMPLOYEE BENEFIT PLANS

On June 17, 2005, we sent a notice to participants in the Company's 401(k) plans informing them that the 401(k) plans are changing their record keepers. The notice stated that while this conversion is being made, 401(k) participants will not be able to initiate a transfer from one investment option to another investment option, change ongoing contribution investment decisions, obtain a loan, or obtain a distribution or withdrawal. The notice highlighted the fact that such restrictions apply to shares of our common stock held by 401(k) participants through the Coca-Cola Enterprises common stock fund maintained by the 401(k) plans. It also stated that participants will not be able to effectuate investment changes in the 401(k) plans starting on July 25, 2005 and ending the week of July 31, 2005. We refer to such time period herein as the "blackout period."

On June 22, 2005, we sent a notice our executive officers and directors informing them that, pursuant to Section 306(a) of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 and the SEC's rules promulgated thereunder, they would be prohibited from purchasing and selling certain shares of our common stock (including derivative securities pertaining to such shares) on the open market or otherwise during the blackout period.

The notice is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated herein by reference. We provided such notice to our officers and directors within five business days of June 17, 2005, which is the date the notices were mailed to 401(k) participants and that the administrator of the plans notified us of the blackout period.

During the blackout period and for a period of two years thereafter, a security holder or other interested person may obtain, without charge, information regarding the blackout period, including the actual beginning and ending dates of the blackout period, by contacting the Office of the General Counsel, Coca-Cola Enterprises Inc., 2500 Windy Ridge Parkway, Atlanta, Georgia 30339.
