Trend Micro Reports Third Quarter Results

Solid growth in U.S., Asia highlight quarter

Tokyo, Japan October 27, 2005 Trend Micro, Inc. (TSE: 4704, NASDAQ: TMIC), a leader in network antivirus and Internet content security software and services, today announced earnings results for the third quarter 2005.

Trend Micro posted consolidated net sales of 18.0 billion Yen (or US $161.6 million, 111.24 JPY = 1USD), operating income of 6.9 billion Yen (or US $61.7 million) and net income of 4.4 billion Yen (or US $39.4 million) for the quarter. These figures reflect 13 percent growth in net sales compared to the same period a year ago.

The company continued to enjoy steady growth around the world, led by a 29 percent year-over-year revenue increase in North America and 20 percent in Asia. North America's Q3 performance also featured a 20 percent increase in revenue compared to the previous quarter. Much of the company's worldwide growth was buoyed by strong sales in client/server solutions, which experienced a 41 percent surge in global revenue year-over-year. This growth was especially evident in the Asia-Pacific region, where sales of Trend Micro's client/server solutions jumped 51 percent from the same period a year ago. In Europe, the Middle East and Africa (EMEA), client/server sales rose 33 percent.

Thanks to favourable client/server sales, the company experienced a 27 percent increase in revenue from enterprise sales in both the United States and Asia. Enterprise sales were spurred by enhanced anti-spyware, anti-spam, and anti-phishing solutions resulting from Trend Micro's Q2 acquisitions of InterMute and Kelkea, Inc. Trend Micro's efficient integration of the acquired technologies enabled the company to deliver market-ready solutions within weeks of the deals.

Trend Micro also helped its strategic alliance partner Cisco deliver outbreak prevention solutions, including the Cisco Incident Control System (CICS), which the two companies developed jointly.

In the third quarter, we were very pleased with our progress in delivering multi-layered security solutions that are enhanced by our recent acquisitions and strategic alliance with Cisco, said Eva Chen, CEO of Trend Micro. We delivered enhanced content security solutions against spyware, spam, and phishing, and we were integral in Cisco's outbreak prevention services—services that combine the benefits of our Enterprise Protection Strategy and Cisco's Self-Defending Network. These efforts strengthen our potential for growth now and in the future.

Based on information currently available to the company, consolidated net sales for the fourth quarter ending December 31, 2005 is expected to be 20.0 billion Yen (or US $177 million, based on an exchange rate of 113JPY = 1USD). Operating income and net income are expected to be 7.5 billion Yen (or US $66.4 million) and 4.6 billion Yen (or US $40.3 million), respectively.

Third Quarter Business Highlights

Awards and Recognition

Corporate

Trend Micro was listed on the Dow Jones Sustainability Indexes for the second straight year. Inclusion suggests long-term value for shareholders based on corporate governance, environmental and social reporting, customer relationship management, strategic planning, risk and crisis management, and talent retention.

For the third consecutive year, Trend Micro was recognized as the No.1 global brand in Taiwan, according to a study by global brand consultancy Interbrand. Under supervision from the Ministry of Economic Affairs, the Taiwan Top 10 Global Brands survey evaluated Taiwan brands in terms of global brand value according to the BusinessWeek Top 100 Global Brands Survey valuation system. Survey results are determined by quantitative financial analysis as well as qualitative indexes.

Channel

For the second year in a row, VARBusiness magazine named Trend Micro Company of the Year and awarded it the Product Innovation Annual Report Card Award.

Product

Trend Micro's ScanMail was named 2005 Readers' Choice Award Winner by Windows IT Pro in the Antivirus/Mail Server category of the 2005 Windows IT Pro Readers' Choice Awards.

Products and Innovation

Trend Micro introduced the following products in the third quarter 2005:

Trend Micro Network Reputation Services (Trend Micro RBL+ and Network Anti-Spam Services) Resulting from the Kelkea acquisition, these service-based solutions provide a first line of defense that stops spam at its source before it reaches the network, overloads mail gateways, and consumes system resources. Real-time spam blocking identifies new sources of spam, including zombies and botnets, as soon as they begin spamming.

Communication and Collaboration Solutions Trend Micro launched a group of solutions offering enhanced antivirus, content, and anti-spam protection for advanced email, instant messaging, and collaboration environments. These solutions include Trend Micro ScanMail for Exchange 7.0, Trend Micro ScanMail Lotus Domino 3.0, Trend Micro Instant Messaging Security for Microsoft Office

Corporate and Business Highlights

In August, the U.S. International Trade Commission issued a final ruling in Trend Micro's patent infringement lawsuit against Fortinet, ordering the Sunnyvale, CA-based company to stop advertising, distributing, importing, and selling FortiGate products in the United States. The decision validated Trend Micro's patent involving virus scanning at the server and gateway.

Trend Micro's strategic alliance partner Cisco announced a number of outbreak prevention solutions, including the Cisco Incident Control System, which the two companies developed jointly.

Trend Micro announced that leading computer system manufacturer Dell is offering North American customers the choice to pre-install Trend Micro PC-cillin Internet Security on new desktop and notebook systems.

To ensure continued innovation and focus on new and emerging threats, Trend Micro announced the appointment of three Chief Technologists. Raimund Genes, President of European Operations, has taken on the additional responsibility as Chief Technologist for anti-malware. Ed English assumed the Chief Technologist post for anti-spyware, and Dave Rand was appointed Chief Technologist of Internet content security.

New customers in the third quarter included: Huawei, China National Offshore Oil Corporation, Bank of East Asia, and The Public Authority for Applied Education and Training in Kuwait.

<Note> In order for the warrants to be granted or transferred to the directors and certain employees of the Company and the directors and certain employees of an affiliated company, the Company issued unsecured bonds with detachable warrants. Under pre-revised section 341-8-4 of the Japanese Commercial Code, the redemption and retirement of these bonds are restricted when the total amount of the bonds is less than the total amount of the issue price of the stocks from unexecuted warrants. To reduce interest costs, the Company repurchased some of the issued bonds after warrants were detached. Based on the above reason, the Company intends to hold the treasury bonds until they can be retired legally which is substantially the same as redemption. Thus, bonds and treasury bonds (4,000 millions of yen as of September 30, 2005 and 4,000 millions of yen as of December 31, 2004 respectively) are disclosed in net amount in the balance sheet.

2. Projected consolidated earnings (US GAAP)

Projected earnings for the next quarter (October 1, 2005 through December 31, 2005)

	Net sales	Operating income	Net income
	Millions of yen	Millions of yen	Millions of yen
4th Qtr	20,000	7,500	4,550

(Note) Since the business environment surrounding Trend Micro Group tends to fluctuate in the short run, it is difficult to make the highly reliable projection figures on a yearly basis. We, therefore, decided to announce the earnings on a quarterly basis in the fiscal year ending in December 2005 as well as earnings projection of the succeeding quarter.

If we found through our calculation conducted from time to time that the net sales fluctuate from the most recent quarterly projection by more than 10%, or operating income or net income fluctuates by more than 30%, we will announce the revision of the earnings projection.
