The following article, written by the CEO of Gateway Medical Center, appears in a newsletter to employees of Gateway Medical Center (Inter. Com, Vol. 18, No. 4, April 5, 2007):

A Message from the CEO

We have had a very busy first quarter of the year, with a few unexpected turns. As everyone is aware, the efforts of Triad Hospitals to go private in a management-led initiative fell short. Unexpectedly, Community Health Systems, Inc., based in Brentwood, Tennessee was successful during the Go Shop period. CHS paid an additional half a billion dollars for the privilege to have us in their company. When this acquisition is completed, we will be part of a 10 billion dollar company, comprised of 130 hospitals and an estimated 60,000 employees across the country.

During the first week of April, the hospital CEOs will begin to learn about the new company, its values, way of doing business, etc. Once we get approval, we will set up a series of meetings for our staff, medical staff, and boards to meet the leadership of the new company. Please remember, the future is what we create. We have worked together to meet our patients' expectations, improve working relationships with one another and the medical staff, and establish ourselves as a respected member of the community.

Thank you to the entire team for your efforts to make us better. As I get information I will be sure to share it as quickly and as efficiently as I can. In the mean time, stay focused on the task at hand - taking care of patients, while preparing to move into a new hospital. These are very exciting times.
