Item 4.02 (a) Non-Reliance on Previously Issued Financial Statements or a Related Audit Report or Completed Interim Review

On May 10, 2007, Fifth Third Bancorp's (the Bancorp) management recommended to the Audit Committee of the Bancorp's Board of Directors that the Bancorp's Consolidated Statements of Cash Flows for the years ended December 31, 2006, 2005 and 2004 should be restated and the previously issued Consolidated Financial Statements for such periods should no longer be relied upon. The restatement does not affect the Bancorp's Consolidated Statements of Income, Consolidated Balance Sheets or Consolidated Statements of Changes in Shareholders' Equity for any of the affected periods. Accordingly, the Bancorp's historic revenues, net income, earnings per share, total assets and regulatory capital remain unchanged. On the date hereof, the Bancorp is filing a Form 10-Q for the three months ended March 31, 2007. Included in Note 16 of the Notes to Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements in the Form 10-Q is disclosure regarding the restatement of the Consolidated Statements of Cash Flows for the years ended December 31, 2006, 2005 and 2004. The Bancorp will file an amended 2006 Form 10-K as soon as practicable.

The restatement resulted from the misclassification of cash flows from the sale of residential mortgage loans originally held for investment, which had been inappropriately classified as operating activities, and cash flows from commercial loans originated to be sold, which had been inappropriately classified as investing activities. In accordance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 102, Statement of Cash Flows - Exemption of Certain Enterprises and Classification of Cash Flows from Certain Securities Acquired for Resale, cash flows from the sale of residential mortgage loans originally held for investment should have been classified as investing activities, rather than operating activities and cash flows from commercial loans originated to be sold, should have been classified as operating activities, rather than investing activities. Accordingly, the restatement affects the classification of these activities and the subtotals of cash flows from operating and investing activities presented in the affected Consolidated Statements of Cash Flows, but it has no impact on the Net Increase (Decrease) in Total Cash and Due from Banks set forth in the Consolidated Statements of Cash Flows for any of the previously reported periods. The Condensed Consolidated Statement of Cash Flows for the three months ended March 31, 2006, included in the Form 10-Q for the quarterly period ended March 31, 2007, has been restated.

The effects of the restatement is as follows for the indicated periods:
