Conclusion

Operating environment for Amex continues to be challenging

Financial performance has declined and material improvement in the foreseeable future on a standalone basis is unlikely

The Board of Directors of MC and the Board of Governors of Amex diligently and thoroughly sought strategic alternatives for Amex over a period of two years

Retained Morgan Stanley as financial advisor to pursue discussions with, and respond to, interest from various potential partners

Actively engaged in multiple due diligence processes with various parties from March 2007 January 2008

NYSE Euronext's offer of $260MM in NYSE Euronext stock plus the contingent consideration based on the Net Proceeds from the sale of Amex's headquarters provided the best option of obtaining value for the seatholders of Amex

Additional

benefits from a combination with NYSE Euronext

Improved liquidity and tax efficient structure

Strategic / operational synergies
