NOMURA

106th Fiscal Year Second Quarter

To Our Shareholders

I am pleased to report that Nomura posted profits in both the first and second quarters of the current fiscal year. In addition to stable revenues in both the Retail and Asset Management segments, revenues from overseas operations contributed significantly to overall results. We are now seeing the fruits from last year's personnel acquisitions in Asia and Europe.

Pursuant to our basic dividend policy, the dividend to common shareholders of record on September 30, 2009, is 4 yen per common share.

We conducted a global offering in October, raising approximately 430 billion yen. This new capital will help us to accurately respond to our clients' needs as well as bolster our capital base ahead of the anticipated tightening of capital requirements. We intend to use the funds raised from the offering to achieve further growth in both our domestic operations and across our international wholesale franchise. In particular, we will build out our business in the US to enhance our ability to provide world-class products and services.

We will fully leverage our strengthened financial base to further increase our ability to generate revenues and to boost shareholder value as part of our drive to become a truly global investment bank.

We look forward to your continued support.

Financial Highlights

Nomura Holdings, Inc. and its consolidated entities (Nomura) reported net revenue of 298.4 billion yen in the first quarter (April 1, 2009 June 30, 2009). Pretax income was 31.4 billion yen, while net income for the quarter was 11.4 billion yen. In the second quarter (July 1, 2009 September 30, 2009), net revenue amounted to 300.0 billion yen, pretax income was 27.3 billion yen and net income for the quarter was 27.7 billion yen.

First Quarter

As the turmoil in financial markets subsided, Nomura focused on accurately grasping the changes in the market environment and expanding business opportunities with clients, both in the retail and wholesale businesses. As a result, earnings recovered significantly and we achieved our first quarterly profit in six quarters.

Our newly expanded and enhanced platform for delivering world-class products and services became fully operational during the quarter, and the resulting business growth both in Japan and overseas contributed greatly to earnings.

Second Quarter

Nomura posted a profit for the second consecutive quarter, reflecting stable revenues from our strong business base in Japan and from new platforms established overseas.

Focusing on business related to equities, fixed income and currency transaction orders from clients, we were profitable in Japan as well as in all three overseas regions (Europe, Asia and the Americas), and have made progress in diversifying our revenue sources, achieving balanced contributions from both within Japan and overseas.

Segment Information (April – September 2009)

Retail

First half (April – September) net revenue totaled 188.5 billion yen, with pretax income of 54.2 billion yen. Of this, second quarter (July – September) net revenue amounted to 93.2 billion yen, while pretax income totaled 26.4 billion yen.

Nomura continued to provide consulting-based services to retail clients and as a result recorded monthly purchases of over 1 trillion yen from April onwards.

Nomura sold 400 to 500 billion yen of investment trusts each month, thereby retaining a large share of the domestic retail market.

Nomura's client base grew steadily, as retail client assets* increased to 68.9 trillion yen as of September 30, 2009.

Global Markets

First half (April – September) net revenue totaled 361.6 billion yen, with pretax income of 108.9 billion yen. Of this, second quarter (July – September) net revenue amounted to 174.5 billion yen, while pretax income totaled 46.7 billion yen.

Equities and fixed income transactions from clients expanded rapidly in Japan, Europe and Asia.

In the equities business, Nomura took the number one position on the London Stock Exchange in terms of monthly trading volume for three consecutive months from July to September. Trading volume on Asian markets also increased substantially.

In the fixed income business, Nomura continued to enhance its platform to provide world-class products and services. Nomura was number one in JGB closing bid rankings and regained its Primary Dealership in the US.

Merchant Banking

First half (April – September) net revenue totaled 2.8 billion yen, with pretax loss of 2.3 billion yen. Of this, second quarter (July – September) net revenue amounted to 3.9 billion yen, while pretax income totaled 1.3 billion yen.

In the second quarter, Merchant Banking returned to profit for the first time in four quarters following the sale of its stake in an investee company, a gain from the increase in valuation of a bio-pharma venture in Europe, and other factors.

Nomura continued to add value to existing investee companies.
