We are very pleased with the strong support for this transaction shown by the PVR and PVG unitholders that voted. It is our hope that the adjournment of the PVG special meeting will allow additional PVG unitholders an opportunity to formally indicate their support for the merger, said William H. Shea, Jr., Chief Executive Officer of the partnerships' general partners. The approval of this merger is an important step towards positioning the unitholders of PVR and PVG to take advantage of accretive market opportunities. The simplified structure and resulting decreased cost of capital offered by this transaction will improve our competitive position and deliver significant value to both the unitholders of PVR and PVG. The board of directors and the management team of PVG's general partner continue to recommend that PVG unitholders vote FOR the proposal to approve and adopt the merger agreement.
