Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On March 10, 2011, Citadel Broadcasting Corporation, a Delaware corporation (Citadel), Cumulus Media Inc., a Delaware corporation (Cumulus), Cadet Holding Corporation, a Delaware corporation and wholly owned subsidiary of Cumulus (HoldCo), and Cadet Merger Corporation, a Delaware corporation and wholly owned subsidiary of HoldCo (Merger Sub), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement), pursuant to which, subject to the satisfaction or waiver of the conditions therein, Merger Sub will merge with and into Citadel (the Merger), with Citadel surviving the Merger as the surviving corporation and an indirect wholly owned subsidiary of Cumulus.

Pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement, at the effective time of the Merger, each outstanding share of Citadel's class A common stock, par value $0.001 per share (the Citadel Class A Common Stock), and Citadel's class B common stock, par value $0.001 per share (the Citadel Class B Common Stock) and together with the Citadel Class A Common Stock, the Citadel Stock) (other than shares of Citadel Stock owned by Merger Sub, held in treasury by Citadel or pursuant to which a holder has properly exercised and perfected appraisal rights under Delaware law), will, at the election of the holder thereof and subject to proration as described below, be converted into the right to receive (i) $37.00 in cash (the Cash Consideration), or (ii) 8.525 shares of class A common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of Cumulus (Cumulus Class A Common Stock) (the Stock Consideration) and, together with the Cash Consideration, the Merger Consideration). In addition, holders of warrants to purchase Citadel Class B Stock will have the right to elect to have their warrants adjusted at the effective time of the Merger to become the right to receive upon exercise the (i) Cash Consideration or (ii) Stock Consideration, subject to proration as described below.

The Merger Agreement provides that each holder of Citadel Stock and/or warrants may elect to receive the Cash Consideration or the Stock Consideration for all or any number of such holder's Citadel Stock and/or warrants, however, such elections will be prorated, and consideration adjusted, so that Cumulus will not issue in excess of 151,485,282 shares of Cumulus Class A Common Stock (as increased for the exercise of Citadel stock options prior to closing of the Merger) or pay in excess of $1,408,728,600 in cash (less the cash value of any dissenting shares and increased for the exercise of Citadel stock options prior to closing of the Merger). In circumstances where holders of Citadel Stock and/or warrants make aggregate elections which exceed either the aggregate available Cash Consideration or aggregate available Stock Consideration, holders of Citadel Stock will receive a combination of Cash Consideration and Stock Consideration pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement. Holders of Citadel Stock and/or warrants who do not make an election will receive the consideration choice selected by the majority of Citadel stockholders and warrant holders, subject to the proration described above.

Notwithstanding anything in the Merger Agreement to the contrary, if Cumulus reasonably determines, in consultation with its counsel, that the issuance of the Stock Consideration to a holder of Citadel Stock or warrants (upon exercise) pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement will, or is reasonably likely to cause, Cumulus to be in violation of Section 310(B) of the Communications Act or the FCC Media Ownership Rules (each as defined in the Merger Agreement), any shares of Cumulus Class A Common Stock that would have been issued by virtue of the Merger will be converted automatically, in the exercise of Cumulus' good faith discretion, into either (i) warrants, on substantially similar terms to Citadel's outstanding warrants, exercisable for the number of shares of Cumulus stock equal to the number of shares of Cumulus Class A Common Stock such holder would have received, or (ii) such number of shares of class B common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of Cumulus equal to the number of shares of Cumulus Class A Common Stock such holder would have received.

The Merger was unanimously approved by the respective Boards of Directors of Citadel and Cumulus, and is conditioned, among other things, on (i) the adoption of the Merger Agreement by the stockholders of Citadel (voting together as a single class), (ii) the absence of certain legal impediments to the consummation of the Merger, (iii) the effectiveness of a Form S-4 registration statement to be filed by Cumulus and (iv) the receipt of certain regulatory approvals regarding the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, including expiration of the waiting period under the Hart-Scott Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976 and approval by the U.S. Federal Communications Commission (the "FCC"). Cumulus stockholders who hold in the aggregate approximately 54% of the outstanding voting power of Cumulus have approved the issuance of Cumulus' shares in connection with the Merger (including the issuance of Cumulus' shares to the Equity Investors (as defined below)) and an amendment to Cumulus' certificate of incorporation in connection with the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement. No further Cumulus stockholder approval is necessary for consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement.

Completion of the Merger is anticipated to occur by the end of 2011, although there can be no assurance the Merger will occur within the expected timeframe or at all.

Citadel has made customary representations and warranties and covenants in the Merger Agreement, including among others (i) not to (A) solicit proposals relating to alternative transactions or (B) subject to certain exceptions, enter into negotiations or discussions concerning, or provide nonpublic information in connection with, an alternative transaction, (ii) to cause a meeting of Citadel's stockholders to be held to consider the adoption of the Merger Agreement, and (iii) subject to certain exceptions, for Citadel's Board of Directors to recommend that Citadel's stockholders adopt the Merger Agreement and thereby approve the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement.

Cumulus, HoldCo and Merger Sub have obtained equity and debt financing commitments, subject to certain conditions set forth in definitive agreements related to such commitments, for the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, the proceeds of which, in addition to cash on hand and the issuance of Cumulus Class A Common Stock, will be sufficient for Cumulus to pay the aggregate Merger Consideration contemplated by the Merger Agreement and any associated fees and expenses. In connection with the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, affiliates of Crestview Partners and Macquarie Capital (the Equity Investors) have agreed, at or prior to the closing of the Merger, to make an equity investment in Cumulus in an amount of up to approximately $500 million on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the investment agreement entered into by the Equity Investors and Cumulus in connection with the Merger.

The Merger Agreement contains certain termination rights of Citadel and Cumulus. Upon termination of the Merger Agreement under specified circumstances, Citadel will be required to pay Cumulus a termination fee. If the termination fee becomes payable as a result of Citadel's termination of the Merger Agreement in order to enter into a definitive acquisition agreement with respect to a Superior Proposal (as defined in the Merger Agreement), the amount of such termination fee will be $52.7 million. The Merger Agreement also requires Citadel to pay Cumulus a termination fee of $80 million in the event that Cumulus terminates the Merger Agreement due to Citadel's willful breach of the Merger Agreement (as described in the Merger Agreement). The Merger Agreement sets forth certain other circumstances under which a termination fee of $52.7 million may be due and owing from Citadel to Cumulus.

If either Citadel or Cumulus terminate the Merger Agreement due to the failure to receive the requisite FCC regulatory approval prior to a specified date, and all other conditions to closing have been satisfied or waived on that date, Cumulus will be required to pay Citadel a reverse termination fee equal to $26.4 million (less certain of Cumulus' out-of-pocket costs and expenses paid in connection with the financing commitments entered into in connection with the execution of the Merger Agreement). Additionally, if Citadel terminates the Merger Agreement upon certain breaches of the Merger Agreement by Cumulus or Cumulus' failure to effect the closing due to the failure to receive adequate proceeds from one or more of the financings contemplated by the financing commitments, Cumulus and the Equity Investors will be required to pay an aggregate reverse termination fee equal to $60 million. Cumulus and the Equity Investors are severally liable for portions of the $60 million reverse termination fee due and owing to Citadel as described in the immediately preceding sentence, with certain affiliates of the Equity Investors having guaranteed the respective payment obligations of the Equity Investors, pursuant to limited guarantees executed in favor of Citadel (the Limited Guarantees). Finally, Cumulus will be required to pay Citadel an additional reverse termination fee of $20 million (for a total fee of $80 million) in the event that Citadel terminates the Merger Agreement due to the willful breach of Cumulus (as defined in the Merger Agreement).

The foregoing summary of the Merger Agreement, Limited Guarantees and the transactions contemplated thereby does not purport to be complete and is subject to, and qualified in its entirety by, the full text of the Merger Agreement and each Limited Guarantee, each of which is attached as an exhibit to this report and incorporated herein by reference.

The Merger Agreement, Limited Guarantees and related summaries are not intended to be, and should not be relied upon as, disclosures regarding any facts and circumstances relating to Citadel and Cumulus. The representations and warranties of Citadel contained in the Merger Agreement have been made solely for the benefit of Cumulus, HoldCo and Merger Sub. In addition, such representations and warranties (i) have been made only for purposes of the Merger Agreement, (ii) have been qualified by confidential disclosures made to Cumulus, HoldCo and Merger Sub in connection with the Merger Agreement, (iii) are subject to materiality qualifications contained in the Merger Agreement which may differ from what may be viewed as material by investors, (iv) were made only as of the date of the Merger Agreement or such other date as is specified in the Merger Agreement and (v) have been included in the Merger Agreement for the purpose of allocating risk between the contracting parties rather than establishing matters as facts. Accordingly, the Merger Agreement and Limited Guarantees are included with this filing solely to provide investors with information regarding the terms of the Merger Agreement, and not to provide investors with any other factual information regarding Citadel or its business. Investors should not rely on the representations and warranties or any descriptions thereof as characterizations of the actual state of facts or condition of Citadel or any of its subsidiaries or affiliates. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations and warranties may change after the date of the Merger Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in Citadel's public disclosures. The Merger Agreement and Limited Guarantees should not be read alone, but should instead be read in conjunction with the other information regarding Citadel that is or will be contained in, or incorporated by reference into, the Forms 10-K, Forms 10-Q, proxy statements and other documents that Citadel files with the SEC.
