SECTION 2. FINANCIAL INFORMATION

ITEM 2.06. Material Impairment.

As required by generally accepted accounting principles, SRA International, Inc. (the Company) assesses goodwill at least annually for possible impairment. The annual assessment is performed during the Company's third fiscal quarter using a valuation date of January 1. On March 30, 2011, the Company's management determined that the goodwill in its Era business was impaired. The Company expects to record a non-cash charge of approximately $29 million to write off the goodwill remaining in the Era business; however, the amount of the charge is still being finalized. Additional details will be reported in the Company's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the third quarter ended March 31, 2011. The goodwill impairment charge is not deductible for income tax purposes. As a result of this charge, the Company expects to report a net loss for its third quarter ended March 31, 2011.

This Current Report on Form 8-K contains forward-looking statements regarding estimated impairment charges. Actual events or results may differ materially from those contained in the forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements are subject to a number of known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors and are not guarantees of future performance. Actual results, performance or outcomes may differ materially from those expressed in or implied by those forward-looking statements. For a discussion of the specific factors that may cause the Company's actual results to differ materially from those projected in any forward-looking statements, please refer to the documents that the Company files with the Securities and Exchange Commission, including without limitation the Company's Form 10-K, as may be updated in Forms 10-Q and 8-K and other filings made with the SEC by the Company. The Company disclaims any intention or obligation to update publicly any forward-looking statements, whether in response to new information, future events or otherwise, except as required by applicable law.

SIGNATURES
