(b) Effective March 8, 2012, HomeStreet, Inc. (the Company) and David Hooston, the chief financial officer of the Company and its subsidiary, HomeStreet Bank (the Bank), agreed to a separation of Mr. Hooston from the Company and the Bank with a separation date of March 31, 2012. To facilitate an orderly transition, Mr. Hooston is expected to continue in his role as chief financial officer and provide assistance with preparation, filing and certification of the Company's periodic reports with the Securities and Exchange Commission and other regulatory filings, and provide such other assistance to the finance department of the Company through March 31, 2012.

In connection with his departure, Mr. Hooston and the Company entered into a separation and release agreement (the Separation Agreement). Pursuant to the Separation Agreement, a copy of which is included as Exhibit 10.1 to this Form 8-K, Mr. Hooston will receive, among other things, a $300,000 severance payment, subject to regulatory approval or non-objection; accelerated vesting of 25% of stock options granted to Hooston under the Company's 2010 Retention Grant program that would otherwise vest on the earlier of the lifting of the Cease and Desist Order currently imposed on the Bank or October 22, 2012; and a bonus payment of $89,014 under the 2011 Management/Support Performance-Based Annual Incentive Plan. In consideration of these benefits, Mr. Hooston provided a general release of claims against the Company and its affiliates. The foregoing description of the Separation Agreement is a summary only and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Separation Agreement, which is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1, and incorporated herein by reference.

A copy of the press release announcing Mr. Hooston's departure is included as Exhibit 99.1 and is also incorporated herein by reference.

(c) Following Mr. Hooston's departure, Mark K. Mason, age 52 and the Company's vice chairman, president and chief executive officer since January 19, 2010, will become the acting chief financial officer for the Company, subject to the applicable banking regulatory agencies' approval or non-objection, until a replacement chief financial officer is hired to replace Mr. Hooston. Mr. Mason will therefore act as both the principal executive officer and the principal accounting officer following Mr. Hooston's departure.

Mr. Mason has been with the Company since September 28, 2009.
