On March 19, 2012, the Board adopted stock retention guidelines that generally require the Company's executive officers to retain 50% beneficial ownership of the net shares of Company common stock acquired by an executive officer in connection with the exercise of stock options or vesting of restricted stock units and/or performance share units for awards granted to such officer after March 2012 until the later of (i) the date the stock ownership guidelines applicable to such executive officer are satisfied, and (ii) 24 months and a day from the exercise of stock options and the vesting of restricted stock units and/or performance share units.

Set forth on Exhibit 99.1 are tables relating to potential payments upon termination or change in control for officers who will be named executive officers in the 2012 proxy statement and that show amounts that are in addition to any payments and benefits under CONSOL's plans and arrangements that are offered or provided generally to all salaried employees on a non-discriminatory basis and any accumulated vested benefit for each named executive officer (the "Tables").
