4) Date Filed:

The following information was filed by Intermec, Inc. (the Company) with the Securities and Exchange Commission on a Form 8-K on May 1, 2012.

Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On April 30, 2012, the Company's Board of Directors (the Board) replaced Patrick J. Byrne as Chief Executive Officer and President of the Company and accepted Mr. Byrne's resignation from the Board. Pursuant to Board appointment on April 30, 2012, Allen J. Lauer, the Company's Chairman of the Board, will serve as the Company's Interim Chief Executive Officer and President, while a search is conducted by the Board for a permanent Chief Executive Officer and President.

Mr. Lauer, age 74, has been a director of the Company since 2003 and served as the non-executive Chairman of the Board and the Chair of the Governance Committee since July 2007. While serving as Interim Chief Executive Officer and President, Mr. Lauer will continue as Chairman of the Board, but he will step down as a member and the Chairman of the Governance and Nominating Committee and be replaced as that committee's Chairman by independent director Stephen P. Reynolds who will also serve as the Company's lead independent director.

Further, Mr. Lauer is the Retired Chairman of the Board of Varian, Inc., a supplier of scientific instruments and vacuum technologies. Mr. Lauer served as the Chairman of Varian from 2002 through February 2009. He served as Chief Executive Officer of Varian from 1999 until his retirement from that position on December 31, 2003. Mr. Lauer also served as a director of Immunicon Corporation (developer of cell- and molecular-based human diagnostic and life science research products) from 2003 to 2008. Mr. Lauer holds a Bachelor of Science Degree in Electrical Engineering from Stanford University and a Master's Degree in Business Administration from the University of California, Berkeley.

For information regarding Mr. Lauer and Mr. Reynolds, including compensatory arrangements with the Company, please review the relevant disclosures in the Company's 2012 Proxy Statement, filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on April 12, 2012, which are incorporated by reference herein. The Board has not taken action regarding compensatory terms relating to Mr. Lauer's service as the Company's Interim Chief Executive Officer and President and Mr. Reynolds' service as the Company's lead independent director. If actions are taken, any required disclosures will be made.

For purposes of the Company's Senior Officer Severance Plan, as amended and effective November 8, 2010, and the Company's other employee benefit and equity plans, Mr. Byrne's departure is considered an involuntary termination of employment by the Company without cause.

In addition, the Board has withdrawn its nomination of Mr. Byrne as a Company director at the Company's 2012 Annual Meeting of Stockholders to be held on May 22, 2012 and reduced the size of the Board to nine members.

In addition, the Company issued the following press release on May 1, 2012.

PATRICK BYRNE DEPARTS AS INTERMEC'S CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

EVERETT, Wash. May 1, 2012 Intermec, Inc. (NYSE: IN) today announced the departure of President, Chief Executive Officer and Board member, Patrick J. Byrne.

Chairman of the Board, Allen J. Lauer, will serve as Interim Chief Executive Officer and President effective immediately, until a permanent successor is in place, and will continue to serve as Chairman of the Board. In a related change, the Company announced that Board member Stephen P. Reynolds will serve as Lead Independent Director and will succeed Mr. Lauer in the position of Chairman of the Company's Governance and Nominating Committee.

Pat made many positive contributions here at Intermec including leading the Company through transformations in our sales channels and supply chain, as well as executing several successful acquisitions. We wish him the very best in his future endeavors, said Mr. Lauer. Going forward, we will make sure that Intermec's focus on excellence and innovation continues. The Board is fully engaged and intends to take full advantage of the Company's many strengths to accelerate value creation for our customers, shareholders and employees.

Mr. Lauer has been a member of Intermec's Board since 2003 and has served as the non-executive Chairman of the Board and Chair of the Governance Committee since 2007. He is the retired CEO of Varian, Inc., a supplier of scientific instruments and vacuum technologies, a position he held from 1999 to 2003. He served as Varian's Chairman from 2002 to 2009. Mr. Reynolds is the former President, Chief Executive Officer and director of Puget Energy, Inc., a regulated Washington State utility, and its wholly owned utility subsidiary, Puget Sound Energy, Inc.
