Item 2.06. Material Impairments

In its Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2011 and in subsequent periodic filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, The AES Corporation (AES or the Company) disclosed that it had recorded substantial goodwill of $2.6 billion in connection with its acquisition of DPL Inc. (DPL) and that as a result of market conditions and other factors, there was a risk that the goodwill could be subject to impairment. On October 31, 2012, the Company concluded that it will recognize an estimated non-cash impairment charge related to the goodwill at DPL Inc. in the range of approximately $1.7 billion to $2.0 billion. The non-cash impairment charge will not impact the Company's cash flows or cash balances and is not expected to result in any material future cash expenditures. The non-cash impairment charge represents the Company's best estimate of the impairment range based on the latest information available and the results of the preliminary interim impairment test of goodwill and will be recognized as of September 30, 2012 in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles. Management expects to conclude the interim impairment test of goodwill and finalize the estimation of the non-cash impairment charge with the submission of its December 31, 2012 Form 10-K.

On October 5, 2012, The Dayton Power and Light Company (DP&L), DPL's wholly-owned regulated utility in Ohio, filed for approval an Electric Security Plan (ESP) with the Public Utilities Commission of Ohio which reflects a shift in our outlook of the regulatory environment. Within the ESP filing, DP&L has agreed to request a separation of its generation assets from its transmission and distribution assets in recognition that a restructuring of DP&L operations will be necessary, in compliance with Ohio law. Also, during 2012, North American natural gas prices fell significantly from the previous year, exerting downward pressure on wholesale electricity prices in the Ohio power market. Falling power prices compressed wholesale margins at DP&L. Furthermore, these lower power prices have led to increased customer switching from DP&L to other competitive retail electric service (CRES) providers, who are offering retail prices lower than DP&L's current standard service offer. Also, several municipalities in DP&L's service territory have passed ordinances allowing them to become government aggregators and some municipalities have contracted with CRES providers, further contributing to the switching trend. Combined, these new developments have reduced DP&L's forecasted profitability, operating cash flows, liquidity and may impact DPL and DP&L's ability to access the capital markets and maintain their respective current credit ratings in the future. Collectively, in the third quarter of 2012, these events were considered an interim impairment indicator for DPL's goodwill.

Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On November 1, 2012, Edward Hall advised the Company that he will depart his position as Executive Vice-President and Chief Operating Officer of the Company. In connection with his departure, and subject to certain conditions, the Company may provide Mr. Hall with the compensation set forth under Article IV and Appendix B Executive Benefit Schedule of the Company's Amended and Restated Executive Severance Plan dated August 1, 2012 (the Plan). A copy of the Plan is filed as Exhibit 10.2 of the Company's Form 10-Q for the quarter ended June 30, 2012 and is incorporated herein by reference.

Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure.

The impairment charge described in Item 2.06 was not included in the Company's diluted earnings per share guidance for 2012. The impact of the impairment charge is expected to be in the range of approximately $2.24 to $2.64 per share. The impairment charge does not affect previously issued adjusted EPS or cash flow guidance. The Company reaffirmed its 2012 cash flow and Adjusted EPS guidance at the low end of the range, as previously disclosed in August 6, 2012, based on foreign exchange and commodity prices as of September 30, 2012. The Company continues to review its results for the quarter ended September 30, 2012 and its business outlook for 2013 and beyond, and will provide further updates on its third quarter earnings call in November. Going forward, the Company intends to discontinue presentation of guidance for diluted earnings per share as this guidance cannot be provided without unreasonable effort, however, the Company will continue to provide Adjusted EPS and cash flow guidance.

This information is furnished pursuant to Item 7.01 and shall not be deemed filed for any purpose, including for the purposes of Section 18 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the Exchange Act), or otherwise subject to the liabilities of that Section. The information in this Item 7.01 of this Form 8-K shall not be deemed incorporated by reference into any filing under the Securities Act of 1933 (the Securities Act) or the Exchange Act regardless of any general incorporation language in such filing.
