Summary

This summary highlights information contained or incorporated by reference in this prospectus supplement and the accompanying prospectus. Because this is a summary, it may not contain all of the information that is important to you. Before making an investment decision, you should read the entire prospectus supplement, the accompanying prospectus and the documents incorporated by reference, including the section entitled "Supplemental risk factors" in this prospectus supplement and "Part I, Item 1A Risk Factors" in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2014 (as such risk factors may be updated from time to time in our public filings).

Our company

We are the fourth largest incumbent local exchange carrier (ILEC) in the United States, with 3.5 million customers across 28 states and approximately 17,800 employees. Our products and services include wireline voice, data and video for 3.2 million residential customers and approximately 300,000 business customers. We have transformed from a smaller rural provider of telephone services into a provider of communications and entertainment services that is diversified across rural, suburban and metropolitan markets. We generated revenues of approximately $4.8 billion for the year ended December 31, 2014 and approximately $1.4 billion for the three months ended March 31, 2015.

Following the consummation of the Verizon Transaction, we will operate in 29 states, passing approximately 14.6 million households, with approximately 4.6 million broadband connections, 1.8 million video connections and 7.2 million total customers. Moreover, our fiber/U-verse services will be available to more than 30% of the homes we pass. Pro forma for the Verizon Transaction and the Connecticut Acquisition, which was consummated on October 24, 2014, our total revenues for the year ended December 31, 2014 would have been approximately $11.5 billion, approximately double our standalone operations, before giving effect to the Connecticut Acquisition and the Verizon Transaction.

We offer a broad portfolio of high-quality communications services, including voice services, Internet access, broadband-enabled services, and video services for residential and business customers in each of our markets. We offer these services both on a standalone basis and as bundled packages that are designed to simplify customer purchasing decisions and to provide the customer with attractive pricing. We have skilled technicians and supervisors staffed in our local markets. Our call center operations and field technicians are staffed with 100% U.S.-based employees.

Our mission is to be the leader in providing communications services to residential and business customers in our markets. We are committed to delivering innovative and reliable products and solutions with an emphasis on convenience, service and customer satisfaction. We believe that our local engagement structure enables us to adapt our offerings and marketing to the needs of local markets and that our 100% U.S.-based workforce and innovative product positioning will continue to differentiate us from our competitors in the markets in which we compete.

The Verizon Transaction

On February 5, 2015, we entered into a Securities Purchase Agreement (the "Verizon Purchase Agreement") with Verizon Communications Inc. ("Verizon") to acquire, among other things, Verizon's wireline business and statewide fiber networks that provide services to residential, commercial and wholesale customers in California, Texas and Florida, along with certain of Verizon's FiOS customers in those states (the Verizon Transaction) for a purchase price of $10.54 billion in cash and assumed debt, subject to certain adjustments specified in the Verizon Purchase Agreement. Pursuant to the Verizon Purchase Agreement, we will acquire all of the issued and outstanding limited liability company interests of a limited liability company to be formed by Verizon (Newco), which will hold the outstanding limited liability company interests and capital stock of Verizon Florida LLC, GTE Southwest Incorporated and Verizon California Inc. (collectively with Newco, the Verizon Transferred Companies). Prior to the closing under the Verizon Purchase Agreement, (i) Verizon will transfer to the Verizon Transferred Companies certain assets and cause the Verizon Transferred Companies to assume certain liabilities relating to the business to be acquired and (ii) the Verizon Transferred Companies will transfer to Verizon certain assets, and Verizon will assume certain liabilities of the Verizon Transferred Companies, to be retained by Verizon following the closing (the Verizon Transferred Companies, taking into account such transactions, being referred to as the Verizon Separate Telephone Operations or VSTO).

Table of Contents

The Verizon assets complement our existing platform and position us well strategically. We believe that these assets offer attractive demographics because the operations we are acquiring from Verizon are in the three most populated states in the United States (California, Florida, and Texas) and they also have economic growth that is above the U.S. average. The network assets are high quality, with high fiber penetration approximately 54% of the footprint is FiOS-enabled allowing us to offer customers market-leading broadband speeds and very high-quality video products. The acquisition of the Verizon properties is aligned with our strategic focus on broadband as it will increase our broadband base by 2.2 million customers. We also anticipate potential for incremental growth with business customers, which we will pursue with carrier Ethernet products we have made available to business and other carrier customers within our existing footprint. We also anticipate there will be an opportunity to sell Frontier Secure, our security/technical support/identity protection suite, into customers within these new regions.

The VSTO generated operating revenues of approximately $5.8 billion and net loss of approximately $32 million for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2014, and operating revenues of approximately $1.4 billion and net income of approximately $88 million for the three months ended March 31, 2015. We would have generated, on a pro forma basis after giving effect to the Verizon Transaction and the Connecticut Acquisition, which was consummated on October 24, 2014, revenues of approximately $11.5 billion and net loss of approximately $126 million for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2014, and revenues of approximately $2.8 billion and net loss of approximately $96 million for the three months ended March 31, 2015. As of March 31, 2015, the VSTO had approximately 3.6 million voice, 2.2 million broadband and 1.2 million video connections. The Verizon Transaction will add approximately 11,000 employees to our Company. The consummation of the Verizon Transaction is subject to the satisfaction of certain conditions, including review or approval by various federal and state regulatory agencies and other closing conditions as more fully described in the Verizon Purchase Agreement. We currently expect the Verizon Transaction to close in the first half of 2016. There can be no assurance that we will be able to consummate the Verizon Transaction on a timely basis or at all. See Description of the Verizon Transaction.

On February 5, 2015, in connection with the execution of the Verizon Purchase Agreement, we entered into a commitment letter (the Commitment Letter), dated February 5, 2015, with JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., J.P. Morgan Securities LLC, Bank of America, N.A., Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Incorporated and Citigroup Global Markets Inc. (such financial institutions being referred to as the Commitment Parties), pursuant to which the Commitment Parties have committed to provide two bridge loan facilities, initially for a total amount of $11.594 billion, which amount was subsequently reduced by us to $10.850 billion, for the purposes of funding

(i) the cash consideration for the Verizon Transaction and (ii) the fees and expenses incurred in connection with the transactions contemplated by the Verizon Purchase Agreement. The first bridge loan facility was initially in the amount of $8.594 billion (the 8/10 Year Bridge Facility), which amount was automatically reduced in accordance with its terms by $744 million in connection with the effectiveness of certain amendments entered into on March 5, 2015 to our two outstanding credit agreements with CoBank, ACB and certain other lenders. The second bridge loan facility is in the amount of $3.0 billion (the 18 Month Bridge Facility). The commitments in respect of the 8/10 Year Bridge Facility and the 18 Month Bridge Facility will be automatically reduced, subject to certain exceptions and limitations, on a dollar-for-dollar basis by (x) the gross cash proceeds of any issuance of senior unsecured notes by Frontier (with such amounts being applied first to reduce the 8/10 Year Bridge Facility), (y) the net cash proceeds of the incurrence by Frontier of certain indebtedness for borrowed money (with such amounts being applied first to reduce the 8/10 Year Bridge Facility) and (z) the net cash proceeds from any issuance of equity by Frontier, including the proceeds from the concurrent offering and the sale of the securities in this offering (with such amounts being applied first to reduce the 18 Month Bridge Facility). The financing commitments of the Commitment Parties are currently undrawn and are subject to various conditions set forth in the Commitment Letter.

We intend to use the proceeds of this offering along with the proceeds of the concurrent offering to finance a portion of the cash consideration payable in connection with the Verizon Transaction and to pay related fees and expenses. The proceeds of this offering together with the proceeds of the concurrent offering will reduce the commitments under the 18 Month Bridge Facility. The balance of the financing in connection with the Verizon Transaction could take any of several forms or any combination of them, including but not limited to the following: (i) we may issue senior notes in the public and/or private capital markets; (ii) we may enter into one or more senior secured first lien term loan facilities; (iii) we may use cash on hand; and (iv) we may draw funds under the 18 Month Bridge Facility and the 8/10 Year Bridge Facility. We refer to the financing transactions relating to the Verizon Transactions, including this offering and the concurrent offering, as the Verizon Financing Transactions.

The Connecticut Acquisition

On October 24, 2014, we acquired the wireline properties of AT&T Inc. (AT&T) in Connecticut by acquiring all of the issued and outstanding capital stock of The Southern New England Telephone Company and SNET America, Inc. (the Transferred AT&T Companies) for a purchase price of $2.0 billion in cash, excluding adjustments for working capital (the Connecticut Acquisition), pursuant to a Stock Purchase Agreement, dated as of December 16, 2013 (the AT&T Purchase Agreement). Prior to the closing of the Connecticut Acquisition, (i) AT&T transferred to the Transferred AT&T Companies certain assets and caused the Transferred AT&T Companies to assume certain liabilities relating to the business to be acquired and (ii) the Transferred AT&T Companies transferred to AT&T certain assets, and AT&T assumed certain liabilities of the Transferred AT&T Companies, to be retained by AT&T following the closing (the Transferred AT&T Companies, after giving effect to such transactions, are referred to herein as the Connecticut Operations). The Company financed the Connecticut Acquisition using the net proceeds of an offering of $1.55 billion aggregate principal amount of senior unsecured notes, borrowings of $350 million under a term loan credit agreement and cash on hand (the Connecticut Financing Transactions).

As of March 31, 2015, on a pro forma basis to give effect to the Verizon Transaction and the other events described under Unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information, we would have had a total of approximately $18.6 billion of outstanding indebtedness, including long-term debt, short-term debt and long-term financial obligations. We have the ability to, and may incur, additional indebtedness in the future. See Unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information.

Acquisition termination redemption If the Verizon Transaction has not closed on or before 5:00 p.m. (New York City time) on August 6, 2016, the Verizon Purchase Agreement is terminated or if we determine in our reasonable judgment that the Verizon Transaction will not occur, we may, at our option, in our sole discretion, give notice of acquisition termination redemption to the holders of the shares of Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock. If we provide such notice, then, on the acquisition termination redemption date (as defined herein), we will be required to redeem the shares of Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock, in whole but not in part, at a redemption amount per share of Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock equal to the acquisition termination make-whole amount described herein.

If redeemed, we will pay the acquisition termination make-whole amount in cash unless the acquisition termination share price described herein is greater than the initial price. If the acquisition termination share price is greater than the initial price, we will pay the acquisition termination make-whole amount in shares of our common stock and cash, unless we elect, subject to certain limitations, to pay cash or shares of our common stock in lieu of such amounts. See Description of Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock Acquisition termination redemption.

Other than pursuant to the provisions described in this prospectus supplement, the shares of Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock will not be redeemable by us. See Description of Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock Acquisition termination redemption.

fundamental change or redeemed as described under Description of Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock Acquisition termination redemption, on the mandatory conversion date (subject to postponement in certain cases), each then outstanding share of the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock will automatically convert into a number of shares of our common stock based on the conversion rate described below. See Description of Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock Conversion rights Mandatory conversion.

Mandatory conversion rate

If we declare a dividend for the dividend period ending on the mandatory conversion date, we will pay such dividend to the holders presenting the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock for conversion. If, prior to the mandatory conversion date, we have not declared and paid all or any portion of the accumulated dividends on the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock, the conversion rate will be adjusted so that holders receive an additional number of shares of our common stock equal to the amount of such accumulated dividends (such amount, the additional conversion amount) divided by the greater of the floor price and 97% of the average price with respect to the dividend payment date falling on June 29, 2018. To the extent that the additional conversion amount exceeds the product of the number of additional shares and 97% of the average price, we will, if we are legally able to do so, declare and pay such excess amount in cash pro rata to the holders of the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock. The conversion rate for each share of the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock will be not more than 20.0000 shares of our common stock and not less than 17.0213 shares of our common stock (the maximum conversion rate and minimum conversion rate, respectively), depending on the applicable market value (as defined below) of our common stock, subject to certain anti-dilution adjustments.

The applicable market value of our common stock is the average VWAP per share of our common stock for the 20 consecutive trading day period commencing on and including the 22nd scheduled trading day immediately preceding June 29, 2018.

The following table illustrates the conversion rate per share of the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock, subject to adjustment as described under Description of Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock Conversion rights Conversion rate adjustments, in this prospectus supplement, based on the applicable market value of our common stock on the mandatory conversion date (subject to postponement in certain cases):

Applicable Market Value of our Common Stock on the Mandatory Conversion Date	Conversion Rate Per Share of the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock
Less than or equal to $5.00 (which is the initial price).	20.0000 shares of our common stock.
Greater than $5.00 and less than $5.875 (the threshold appreciation price).	Between 20.0000 and 17.0213 shares, determined by dividing $100.00 by the applicable market value of our common stock.
Equal to or greater than the threshold appreciation price.	17.0213 shares of our common stock.

Early conversion at the option of the holder At any time prior to June 29, 2018, other than during a fundamental change conversion period (as defined below), a holder of shares of the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock may elect to convert such holder's shares of Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock, in whole or in part, into shares of our common stock, at the minimum conversion rate of 17.0213 shares of our common stock per share of the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock, subject to certain anti-dilution adjustments. See Description of Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock Conversion rights Early conversion at the option of the holder in this prospectus supplement.

If, as of the effective date of any early conversion (the early conversion date), we have not declared all or any portion of the accumulated dividends for all dividend periods ending on a dividend payment date prior to such early conversion date, the conversion rate for such early conversion will be adjusted so that holders converting their Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock at such time receive an additional number of shares of our common stock equal to such amount of accumulated and unpaid dividends for such prior dividend periods, divided by the greater of the floor price and the average VWAP per share of our common stock over the 20 consecutive trading day period commencing on and including the 22nd scheduled trading day immediately preceding the early conversion date (the early conversion average price). To the extent that the cash amount of the accumulated and unpaid dividends for all dividend periods ending on a dividend payment date prior to the relevant conversion date exceeds the value of the product of the number of additional shares added to the conversion rate and the early conversion average price, we will not have any obligation to pay the shortfall in cash.

Early conversion at the option of the holder upon a fundamental change Upon the occurrence of a fundamental change (as defined under Description of Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock Conversion rights Early conversion at the option of the holder upon a fundamental change) prior to June 29, 2018, under certain circumstances we will deliver or pay to holders who convert their shares of the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock during the period from, and including, the effective date of the fundamental change to, but excluding, the earlier of (A) the mandatory conversion date and (B) the date selected by us that is not less than 30 and not more than 60 days after the effective date of such fundamental change (the fundamental change conversion period), a number of shares of our common stock or, if the fundamental change also constitutes a reorganization event, units of exchange property (as defined under Description of Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock Recapitalizations, reclassifications and changes of our common Stock), determined using the applicable fundamental change conversion rate. The fundamental change conversion rate will be determined based on the effective date of the fundamental change and the price per share of our common stock paid or deemed paid in such fundamental change (the stock price).

Holders who convert their Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock within the fundamental change conversion period will also receive a fundamental change dividend make-whole amount, in cash or in shares of our common stock or a combination thereof, equal to the present value (computed using a discount rate of 6.00% per annum) of all remaining dividend payments on their shares of the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock (excluding any accumulated and unpaid dividends for all dividend periods ending on or prior to the dividend payment date immediately preceding the effective date of the fundamental change as well as dividends accumulated to the effective date of the fundamental change) from such effective date to, but excluding, the mandatory conversion date. If we elect to pay the fundamental change dividend make-whole amount in shares of our common stock in lieu of cash, the number of shares of our common stock that we will deliver will equal (x) the fundamental change dividend make-whole amount divided by (y) the greater of the floor price and 97% of the stock price.

In addition, to the extent that, as of the effective date of the fundamental change, we have not declared any or all of the accumulated dividends on the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock as of such effective date (including accumulated and unpaid dividends for all dividend periods ending on or prior to the dividend payment date immediately preceding the effective date of the fundamental change as well as dividends accumulated to the effective date of the fundamental change, the accumulated dividend amount), upon conversion, we will pay or deliver, as the case may be, such accumulated dividend amount in cash (to the extent we are legally permitted to do so) or shares of our common stock, or any combination thereof at our election, to holders who convert Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock within the fundamental change conversion period. If we elect to pay the accumulated dividend amount in shares of our common stock in lieu of cash, the number of shares of our common stock that we will deliver will equal (x) the accumulated dividend amount divided by (y) the greater of the floor price and 97% of the stock price.

To the extent that the sum of the fundamental change dividend make-whole amount and accumulated dividend amount or any portion thereof paid in shares of our common stock exceeds the product of the number of additional shares we deliver in respect thereof and 97% of the stock price, we will, if we are legally able to do so, declare and pay such excess amount in cash. See Description of Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock Conversion rights Conversion at the option of the holder upon a fundamental change Fundamental change dividend make-whole amount and accumulated dividend amount.

Fundamental change

A fundamental change will be deemed to have occurred, at such time after the initial issue date of the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock, upon: (i) any person or group (within the meaning of Sections 13(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, or Exchange Act) filing a Schedule TO or any schedule, form or report under the Exchange Act disclosing that such person or group has become the beneficial owner (as defined in Rule 13d-3 under the Exchange Act) of our common equity representing more than 50% of the voting power of our common equity; (ii) the consummation of any recapitalization, reclassification, change of our common stock (subject to certain exceptions), share exchange, consolidation or merger as a result of which our common stock would be converted into, exchanged for or represent solely the right to receive stock, other securities, other property or assets or any sale, lease or other transfer of all or substantially all of our assets to another person (other than in each case, a transaction in which at least 90% of the consideration received or to be received by our common stockholders consists of common stock that is listed on, or immediately after the transaction or event will be listed on, any of the New York Stock Exchange, the NASDAQ Global Select Market or the NASDAQ Global Market or any of their respective successors); (iii) our stockholders approve any plan for our liquidation or dissolution or (iv) our common stock (or, following a reorganization event (as defined herein), any common stock, depositary receipts or other securities representing common equity interests into which the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock becomes convertible in connection with such reorganization event) ceases to be listed for trading on the New York Stock Exchange, the NASDAQ Global Select Market, the NASDAQ Global Market (or any of their respective successors) or another U.S. national securities exchange.

Conversion rate adjustments

Each of the minimum conversion rate, the maximum conversion rate, the initial price, the threshold appreciation price, the floor price, the applicable market value, the fundamental change conversion rate and the stock price for purposes of a fundamental change, among other terms, will be adjusted upon the occurrence of certain events and transactions. (1) Includes capital expenditures related to integration activities in connection with the Connecticut Acquisition of $10 million for the three months ended March 31, 2015 and 2014 and $116 million for the year ended December 31, 2014. Also includes capital expenditures relating to integration activities in connection with certain businesses acquired from Verizon in 2010 of $54 million for the year ended December 31, 2012.

(2) Adjusted EBITDA is a non-GAAP (as defined herein) financial measure which we define as operating income plus depreciation and amortization, as adjusted to add back acquisition and integration costs, non-cash pension/pension and other postretirement benefit (OPEB) costs, severance costs, pension settlement costs and gains/losses on the sale of certain assets. A reconciliation of the differences between Adjusted EBITDA and the most comparable financial measure calculated and presented in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAP) is set forth below. Adjusted EBITDA is not a measure of financial performance under GAAP and is not an alternative to operating income or net income, as reflected in the statement of operations, or to cash flows, as reflected in the statement of cash flows, and it is not necessarily indicative of cash available to fund all cash needs. Adjusted EBITDA as used by us may not be comparable to similarly titled measures of other companies.

We believe that presentation of Adjusted EBITDA provides useful information to investors regarding our financial condition and results of operations because Adjusted EBITDA, when used in conjunction with related GAAP financial measures, (i) provides a more comprehensive view of our core operations and ability to generate cash flow, (ii) provides investors with the financial analytical framework upon which management bases financial, operational, compensation and planning decisions and (iii) presents measurements that investors and rating agencies have indicated to management are useful to them in assessing us and our results of operations.

Our management uses Adjusted EBITDA to (i) assist in analyzing our underlying financial performance from period to period, (ii) evaluate the financial performance of our business units, (iii) analyze and evaluate strategic and operational decisions, (iv) establish criteria for compensation decisions and (v) assist management in understanding our ability to generate cash flow and, as a result, to plan for future capital and operational decisions. We believe that Adjusted EBITDA is meaningful and useful for the reasons outlined above.

While we utilize Adjusted EBITDA in managing and analyzing our business and financial condition and believe it is useful to management and to investors for the reasons described above, Adjusted EBITDA has certain shortcomings. Management compensates for the shortcomings by utilizing Adjusted EBITDA in conjunction with comparable GAAP financial measures. The information presented in this section should be read in conjunction with the consolidated financial statements and the related notes incorporated by reference in this prospectus supplement and the accompanying prospectus.

The following are the components of Adjusted EBITDA for the three months ended March 31, 2015 and 2014 and for each of the years in the three-year period ended December 31, 2014.

The summary unaudited pro forma condensed combined statement of operations information, which has been prepared for the year ended December 31, 2014 and three months ended March 31, 2015, gives effect to the Verizon Transaction and other events described above as if they had occurred on January 1, 2014.

On October 24, 2014, we acquired the wireline properties of AT&T in Connecticut by acquiring all of the issued and outstanding capital stock of Transferred AT&T Companies for a purchase price of $2.0 billion in cash, excluding adjustments for working capital, pursuant to the AT&T Purchase Agreement. Prior to the closing of the Connecticut Acquisition, (i) AT&T transferred to the Transferred AT&T Companies certain assets and caused the Transferred AT&T Companies to assume certain liabilities relating to the business to be acquired and (ii) the Transferred AT&T Companies transferred to AT&T certain assets, and AT&T assumed certain liabilities of the Transferred AT&T Companies, to be retained by AT&T following the closing. The Company financed the Connecticut Acquisition using the net proceeds of an offering of $1.55 billion aggregate principal amount of senior unsecured notes, borrowings of $350 million under a term loan credit agreement and cash on hand. The summary unaudited pro forma condensed combined statement of operations information for the year ended December 31, 2014 gives effect to the Connecticut Acquisition as if it had occurred on January 1, 2014.

The summary unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information was prepared using, and should be read in conjunction with, (1) the audited combined financial statements of the VSTO for the year ended December 31, 2014, (2) the unaudited interim condensed combined financial statements of the VSTO as of and for the three months ended March 31, 2015, (3) the unaudited interim condensed combined financial statements of the Connecticut Operations for the nine months ended September 30, 2014, (4) the audited consolidated financial statements of Frontier for the year ended December 31, 2014, and (5) the unaudited interim condensed consolidated financial statements of Frontier as of and for the three months ended March 31, 2015.

The summary unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information is presented for informational purposes only and is not necessarily indicative of the results of operations that would have been achieved had the Verizon Transaction and other events described above been completed at the dates indicated above. In addition, the summary unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information does not purport to project the future results of operations of Frontier after completion of the Verizon Transaction and the other events described above. In the opinion of Frontier's management, all adjustments considered necessary for a fair presentation have been included.

The summary unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information does not give effect to any potential cost savings or other operating efficiencies that could result from the Connecticut Acquisition, other than an annualized run rate of $165 million of synergies that were achieved by year-end 2014 subsequent to the closing of the Connecticut Acquisition and which are reflected in our operating results for the year ended December 31, 2014 and an annualized run rate of $230 million of synergies that are reflected in our operating results for the quarter ended March 31, 2015.

The summary unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information also does not give effect to any potential cost savings or other operating efficiencies that could result from the Verizon Transaction. We expect to realize $525 million of annual cost synergies following the consummation of the Verizon Transaction, and an additional $175 million of annual cost synergies by the end of the third year following the consummation of the Verizon Transaction.

The anticipated synergies that we refer to above are based on estimates and assumptions that we consider to be reasonable but that are uncertain. Our anticipated synergies are subject to significant business, economic, regulatory and competitive uncertainties and contingencies.

In addition, the fair value of the assets acquired and liabilities assumed are based upon estimates. The final purchase price allocation is dependent upon valuations and other studies that have not yet been completed. Accordingly, the purchase price allocation pro forma adjustments are preliminary and are subject to further adjustments as additional information becomes available and additional analyses are performed, and each further adjustment may be material. Such adjustments have been made solely for the purpose of providing unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information.

Supplemental risk factors

You should carefully consider the risks described below in addition to the risks described in Risk Factors in the accompanying prospectus and in any free writing prospectus with respect to the offering filed by us with the SEC, as well as in Part I, Item 1A. Risk Factors in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2014 (as such risk factors may be updated from time to time in our public filings), which is incorporated by reference into this prospectus supplement and the accompanying prospectus, as well as the other information contained in or incorporated by reference into this prospectus supplement and the accompanying prospectus, before investing in the securities offered hereby. See Where you can find more information and Incorporation of certain documents by reference. You could lose part or all of your investment.

Risks related to the Verizon Transaction

The Verizon Transaction may not be consummated on the terms or timeline currently contemplated, or at all.

The consummation of the Verizon Transaction is subject to certain conditions, including (i) the absence of a court or other governmental order prohibiting consummation of the transaction, (ii) the receipt of applicable regulatory consents, (iii) the absence of a material adverse effect on the business to be acquired from Verizon and (iv) other customary closing conditions. See Description of the Verizon Transaction. We can make no assurances that the Verizon Transaction will be consummated on the terms or timeline currently contemplated, or at all. We have expended and will continue to expend a significant amount of capital and management's time and resources on the Verizon Transaction, and a failure to consummate the Verizon Transaction as currently contemplated, or at all, could have an adverse effect on our business, our results of operations and our cash flows.

In addition, we may choose to raise all or a portion of the additional financing required to complete the Verizon Transaction prior to the closing of such transaction. If the Verizon Transaction is ultimately not consummated or is delayed for a significant period of time, we could be obligated to pay significant interest expense, additional dividends and other costs in connection with the financing without achieving the expected benefits of the Verizon Transaction. The trading price of our securities could be adversely affected if the Verizon Transaction is not consummated as currently contemplated, or at all. Neither this offering nor the concurrent offering is conditioned upon the completion of the Verizon Transaction.

Our effort to combine our business and the business to be acquired from Verizon may not be successful.

We are devoting a significant amount of time and attention to the process of integrating the operations of our business and the business to be acquired from Verizon, which may decrease the time that management will have to serve existing customers, attract new customers and develop new services or strategies. The size and complexity of the acquired business and the process of using our existing common support functions and systems to manage the acquired business after the acquisition, if not managed and completed successfully by management, may result in interruptions of the business activities of the Company that could have an adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations. In addition, following the consummation of the Verizon Transaction we will be assuming certain liabilities and obligations of Verizon, including with respect to certain litigation and regulatory matters, the outcome of which could have an adverse impact on our business, financial condition and results of operations if determined adversely to us following the consummation of the Verizon Transaction.

We may not realize the cost synergies that are anticipated from the Verizon Transaction.

The success of the Verizon Transaction will depend, in part, on our ability to realize anticipated cost synergies. Our success in realizing these cost synergies, and the timing of this realization, depends on the successful integration of our business and operations with the acquired business and operations. Even if we are able to integrate the acquired businesses and operations successfully, this integration may not result in the realization of the full benefits of the cost synergies that we currently expect within the anticipated time frame or at all.

If the assets included in the business to be purchased from Verizon are insufficient to operate the acquired business, it could adversely affect the Company's business, financial condition and results of operations.

Pursuant to the Verizon Purchase Agreement, Verizon will contribute to the acquired business certain assets and liabilities of its local exchange business and related landline activities in California, Florida and Texas, including video, broadband internet and switched long distance services provided to designated customers located in those states. However, the contributed assets may not be sufficient to operate all aspects of the acquired business and we may have to use assets or resources from our existing business or acquire additional assets in order to operate the acquired business, which could cost us more than we anticipate.

The Company's business, financial condition and results of operations may be adversely affected following consummation of the Verizon Transaction if we are not able to obtain requisite consents or enter into certain agreements.

The products and services of the acquired business are currently provided by Verizon to certain customers pursuant to master agreements, together with other Verizon products or services. Pursuant to the Verizon Purchase Agreement, we and Verizon have jointly agreed to use our reasonable best efforts for six months following the consummation of the Verizon Transaction to obtain any consents required to separate from such master agreements and assign to Frontier the portion thereof related to the acquired business. To the extent that the parties are not able to obtain any such required consent, such contracts will not be assigned to us and we may not be able to establish a direct relationship with such customers.

Regulatory agencies may delay approval of the Verizon Transaction, fail to approve it, or approve it in a manner that may diminish the anticipated benefits of the Verizon Transaction.

Completion of the Verizon Transaction is conditioned upon the receipt of certain government consents, approvals, orders and authorizations. While we intend to pursue vigorously all required governmental approvals and do not know of any reason why we would not be able to obtain the necessary approvals in a timely manner, the requirement to receive these approvals before completion of the Verizon Transaction could delay its completion. A lengthy delay in the completion of the Verizon Transaction could diminish the anticipated benefits and/or result in additional transaction and financing costs, loss of revenues or other effects associated with uncertainty about the transaction. In addition, until the Verizon Transaction is completed, the attention of our management may be unnecessarily diverted from ongoing business and regular business responsibilities.

Further, governmental agencies may decline to grant required approvals, or they may impose conditions on their approval of the Verizon Transaction that could have an adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations. If certain governmental agencies decline to grant any required approval for the Verizon Transaction, the Verizon Transaction may not be consummated. In addition, conditions imposed by governmental agencies in connection with their approval of the Verizon Transaction (such as service quality or capital expenditure requirements) may restrict our ability to achieve anticipated synergies, revenues and cash flows.

The Verizon Purchase Agreement contains provisions that may discourage other companies from trying to acquire Frontier.

The Verizon Purchase Agreement contains provisions that may discourage a third party from submitting a business combination proposal to us prior to the closing of the Verizon Transaction that might result in greater value to our stockholders than the Verizon Transaction. The Verizon Purchase Agreement provides that we may not sell all or substantially all of our assets unless the buyer assumes in writing our obligations, including the payment of the purchase price, under the Verizon Purchase Agreement. This would represent an additional cost for a potential third party seeking a business combination with us.

The trading price of our common stock and the trading price of the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock may be adversely affected if we are unable to consummate the Verizon Transaction.

If the Verizon Transaction is not completed for any reason, the trading price of our common stock and the trading price of the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock may decline to the extent that the market price of such securities reflects positive market assumptions that the Verizon Transaction will be completed and the related benefits will be realized. We may also be subject to additional risks if the Verizon Transaction is not completed, including:

significant costs related to the transaction, such as legal, accounting, filing, financial advisory, and integration costs that have already been incurred or will continue up to closing. While the Company currently expects that it will incur approximately $450 million of operating expenses and capital expenditures in total related to acquisition and integration activities in 2015 and 2016 associated with the Verizon Transaction, the amount of such operating expenses and capital expenditures may increase based on a variety of factors;

additional dividend costs as a result of this offering and the concurrent offering;

if Frontier completes a financing of debt securities prior to closing the Verizon Transaction, significant interest expense and potential redemption premiums with respect to such debt securities; the market price of our common stock and the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock could decline as a result of further sales of our common stock or equity-linked securities in the market or the perception that these sales could occur; and potential disruption to our business and distraction of our workforce and management team.

The pendency of the Verizon Transaction could adversely affect the business and operations of Frontier and the acquired business.

In connection with the pending Verizon Transaction, some customers of the acquired business may delay or defer decisions or may end their relationships with Verizon prior to completion of the Verizon Transaction or with the Company after the Verizon Transaction closes.

We will incur substantial debt and debt service obligations to finance the Verizon Transaction.

We have a significant amount of indebtedness, which amounted to $9.7 billion at March 31, 2015. We expect to incur additional indebtedness to fund the Verizon Transaction. On a pro forma basis to give effect to the Verizon Transaction and the other events described under Unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information, we would have had $18.6 billion of outstanding indebtedness as of March 31, 2015 based on our current financing plans which may be subject to change. We also have access to a $750 million revolving credit facility and may also take on additional long-term debt and working capital lines of credit to meet future financing needs, subject to certain restrictions under the terms of our existing indebtedness.

Table of Contents

The potential significant negative consequences on our financial condition and results of operations that could result from our substantial debt include:

limitations on our ability to obtain additional debt or equity financing on favorable terms or at all;

instances in which we are unable to meet the covenants contained in our debt agreements or to generate cash sufficient to make required debt payments, which circumstances have the potential of accelerating the maturity of some or all of our outstanding indebtedness;

the allocation of a substantial portion of our cash flow from operations to service our debt, thus reducing the amount of our cash flow available for other purposes, including operating costs, capital expenditures and dividends that would otherwise improve our competitive position, results of operations or stock price;

requiring us to sell debt or equity securities or to sell some of our core assets, possibly on unfavorable terms, to meet payment obligations; compromising our flexibility to plan for, or react to, competitive challenges in our business and the communications industry; and the possibility of our being put at a competitive disadvantage with competitors who do not have as much debt as we do, and competitors who may be in a more favorable position to access additional capital resources.

In addition, our senior notes are rated below investment grade by independent ratings agencies. This can result in higher borrowing costs for us. We cannot assure you that these rating agencies will not lower our current debt ratings, if in the rating agencies' judgment such an action is appropriate. A lowering of a rating may further increase our future borrowing costs and reduce our access to capital.

We will have broad discretion to use the proceeds from this offering and the concurrent offering, if consummated.

Because the closing of the Verizon Transaction is subject to a number of closing conditions, we cannot assure you that the Verizon Transaction will close. If the Verizon Transaction does not close, we will have significant discretion to allocate the proceeds from this offering and the concurrent offering, if consummated, to other uses. In addition, while we intend to place a portion of the proceeds of this offering and the concurrent offering into escrow pursuant to the terms of the Verizon Purchase Agreement, we do not intend to place all proceeds into escrow. We will have broad discretion to use any proceeds that are not escrowed pursuant to the terms of the Verizon Purchase Agreement. In addition, while we have the option, we are not required to redeem the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock issued hereby if the Verizon Transaction does not close. We can make no assurances that we will exercise such redemption option or that we will otherwise have opportunities to allocate the proceeds from this offering and the concurrent offering, if consummated, for other productive uses or that other uses of the proceeds from this offering and the concurrent offering will result in a favorable return to investors.

The pro forma financial statements included and incorporated by reference in this prospectus supplement are presented for illustrative purposes only and may not be an indication of our financial condition or results of operations after giving effect to the Connecticut Acquisition or the Verizon Transaction, as applicable.

The pro forma financial statements contained and incorporated by reference in this prospectus supplement and the accompanying prospectus are presented for illustrative purposes only, are based on various adjustments, assumptions and preliminary estimates and may not be an indication of our financial condition or results of operations following the Connecticut Acquisition or the Verizon Transaction, as applicable, for several reasons.

See Unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information. Our actual financial condition and results of operations following the Connecticut Acquisition and the Verizon Transaction may not be consistent with, or evident from, these pro forma financial statements. In addition, the assumptions used in preparing the pro forma financial information may not prove to be accurate, and other factors may affect our financial condition or results of operations following the Connecticut Acquisition or the Verizon Transaction.

Risks related to ownership of the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock, our common stock and this offering

You will bear the risk of a decline in the market price of our common stock between the pricing date for the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock and the mandatory conversion date.

The number of shares of our common stock that you will receive upon mandatory conversion of the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock is not fixed but instead will depend on the applicable market value of our common stock, which is the average VWAP per share of our common stock over the 20 consecutive trading day period commencing on and including the 22nd scheduled trading day immediately preceding the mandatory conversion date. The aggregate market value of our common stock that you would receive upon mandatory conversion of the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock may be less than the aggregate liquidation preference of the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock. Specifically, if the applicable market value of our common stock is less than the initial price of $5.00, the market value of our common stock that you would receive upon mandatory conversion of each share of the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock will be less than the $100.00 liquidation preference per share, and an investment in the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock would result in a loss. Therefore, you will bear the risk of a decline in the market price of our common stock, which decline could be substantial.

The opportunity for equity appreciation provided by your investment in the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock is less than that provided by a direct investment in our common stock.

The market value of each share of our common stock that you would receive upon mandatory conversion of each share of the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock on the mandatory conversion date will only exceed the liquidation preference of $100.00 per share of the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock if the applicable market value of our common stock exceeds the threshold appreciation price of $5.875. The threshold appreciation price represents an appreciation of 17.50% over the initial price. In this event, on the mandatory conversion date, you would receive approximately 85.11% (which percentage is equal to the initial price divided by the threshold appreciation price) of the value of our common stock that you would have received if you had made a direct investment in our common stock on the date of this prospectus supplement. This means that the opportunity for equity appreciation provided by an investment in the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock is less than that provided by a direct investment in our common stock.

In addition, if the market value of our common stock appreciates and the applicable market value of our common stock is equal to or greater than the initial price but less than or equal to the threshold appreciation price, the aggregate market value of our common stock that you would receive upon mandatory conversion of the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock will only be equal to the aggregate liquidation preference of the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock, and you will not realize any equity appreciation on our common stock.

The adjustment to the conversion rate and the payment of the fundamental change dividend make-whole amount upon the occurrence of certain fundamental changes may not adequately compensate you.

If a fundamental change (as defined in Description of Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock Conversion rights Early conversion at the option of the holder upon a fundamental change) occurs on or prior to the mandatory conversion date, holders will be entitled to convert their Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock during the fundamental change conversion period at the fundamental change conversion rate (in each case as defined in Description of Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock Conversion rights Early conversion at the option of the holder upon a fundamental change). The fundamental change conversion rate represents an adjustment to the conversion rate otherwise applicable unless the share price is less than $1.50 or above $20.00 (in each case, subject to adjustment). In addition, with respect to Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock converted during the fundamental change conversion period, you will also receive, among other considerations, a fundamental change dividend make-whole amount. Although this adjustment to the conversion rate and the payment of the fundamental change dividend make-whole amount are designed to compensate you for the lost option value of the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock and lost dividends as a result of a fundamental change, they are only an approximation of such lost value and lost dividends and may not adequately compensate you for your actual loss. Furthermore, our obligation to adjust the conversion rate in connection with a fundamental change and pay the fundamental change dividend make-whole amount (whether in cash or shares of our common stock or any combination thereof) could be considered a penalty under state law, in which case your ability to enforce such adjustments would be subject to general principles of reasonableness of economic remedies.

The conversion rate of the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock may not be adjusted for all dilutive events that may adversely affect the market price of the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock or our common stock issuable upon conversion of the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock.

The number of shares of our common stock that you are entitled to receive upon conversion of the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock is subject to adjustment for stock splits and combinations, dividends and certain other transactions. See Description of Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock Conversion rights Conversion rate adjustments for further discussion of anti-dilution adjustments. However, other events, such as employee and director equity grants or offerings of our common stock or securities convertible into shares of our common stock (other than those set forth in Description of Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock Conversion rights Conversion rate adjustments) for cash or in connection with acquisitions, which may adversely affect the market price of our common stock, may not result in any adjustment. Further, if any of these other events adversely affects the market price of our common stock, it may also adversely affect the market price of the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock. In addition, the terms of the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock do not restrict our ability to offer common stock or securities convertible into common stock in the future or to engage in other transactions that could dilute our common stock. We have no obligation to consider the interests of the holders of the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock in engaging in any such offering or transaction.

Investors will not have any rights to require us to redeem the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock in the event that an acquisition termination event occurs or the Verizon Transaction is not completed by August 6, 2016.

Investors will not have any rights to require us to redeem the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock if an acquisition termination event occurs or the Verizon Transaction is not completed by 5:00 p.m. (New York City time) on August 6, 2016. Further, investors will not have any right to require us to redeem the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock if, subsequent to the completion of this offering, we or Verizon experience any changes in our business or financial condition or if the terms of the Verizon Transaction or the financing thereof change. Even if we redeem the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock, investors may not obtain their expected return and may not be able to reinvest the proceeds from such redemption in an investment that results in a comparable return.

The Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock is subject to redemption at our option upon the occurrence of an acquisition termination event or if the Verizon Transaction is not completed on or prior to 5:00 p.m. (New York City time) on August 6, 2016.

If the Verizon Transaction is not completed on or before 5:00 p.m. (New York City time) on August 6, 2016, or if an acquisition termination event (as defined herein) occurs, we will be entitled, but not required, to redeem the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock, in whole but not in part, at a redemption price equal to $100.00 per Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock plus accumulated and unpaid dividends to the date of redemption or, in certain circumstances, at an early redemption price that includes a make-whole adjustment. Although the redemption price is designed to compensate you for the lost option value of your Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock and lost dividends as a result of the acquisition termination redemption, it is only an approximation of such lost value and may not adequately compensate you for your actual loss.

The proceeds of this offering will not be deposited into an escrow account in favor of holders of Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock pending any acquisition termination redemption of the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock. Our ability to pay the redemption price to holders of the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock in connection with an acquisition termination redemption may be limited by our then existing financial resources, and sufficient funds may not be available when necessary to make any required purchases of the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock following our election to redeem the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock.

Recent regulatory actions may adversely affect the trading price and liquidity of the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock.

Investors in, and potential purchasers of, the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock who employ, or seek to employ, a convertible arbitrage strategy with respect to the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock may be adversely impacted by regulatory developments that may limit or restrict such a strategy. The SEC and other regulatory and self-regulatory authorities have implemented various rules and may adopt additional rules in the future that restrict and otherwise regulate short selling and over-the-counter swaps and security-based swaps, which restrictions and regulations may adversely affect the ability of investors in, or potential purchasers of, the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock to conduct a convertible arbitrage strategy with respect to the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock. This could, in turn, adversely affect the trading price and liquidity of the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock.

You will have no rights with respect to our common stock until the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock is converted, but you may be adversely affected by certain changes made with respect to our common stock.

You will have no rights with respect to our common stock, including voting rights, rights to participate in common stock tender offers, if any, and rights to receive dividends or other distributions on our common stock, if any (other than through a conversion rate adjustment), prior to the conversion date with respect to a conversion of the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock, but your investment in the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock may be negatively affected by these events. Upon conversion, you will be entitled to exercise the rights of a holder of common stock only as to matters for which the record date occurs after the conversion date. For example, in the event that an amendment is proposed to our Certificate of Incorporation requiring stockholder approval and the record date for determining the stockholders of record entitled to vote on the amendment occurs prior to the conversion date of the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock, you will not be entitled to vote on the amendment, although you will nevertheless be subject to any changes resulting in the powers, preferences or rights of our common stock. See Description of capital stock in the accompanying prospectus for further discussion of our common stock.

You will have no voting rights with respect to the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock except under limited circumstances.

You will have no voting rights with respect to the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock, except (i) with respect to certain amendments to the terms of the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock, (ii) in the case of certain dividend arrearages, (iii) in certain other limited circumstances and (iv) as specifically required by Delaware law. You will have no right to vote for any members of our board of directors, except upon certain dividend arrearages.

If dividends on any shares of the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock (i) have not been declared and paid, or (ii) have been declared but a sum of cash or number of shares of our common stock sufficient for payment thereof has not been set aside for the benefit of the holders thereof on the applicable record date, for the equivalent of six or more dividend periods, whether or not for consecutive dividend periods, the holders of shares of Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock, voting together as a single class with holders of any and all other classes or series of our preferred stock ranking equally with the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock either as to dividends or the distribution of assets upon liquidation, dissolution or winding-up and having similar voting rights, will be entitled to elect a total of two additional members of our board of directors, subject to the terms and limitations described in the section of this prospectus supplement entitled Description of Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock Voting rights.

In certain circumstances where the rights, preferences, privileges or voting powers of the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock are adversely affected thereby, holders of shares of the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock will have the right to vote with respect to certain amendments to our Certificate of Incorporation or in connection with certain reclassifications, mergers or consolidation transactions. See Description of Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock Voting rights.

Our ability to declare and pay dividends on the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock may be limited.

Our declaration and payment of dividends on the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock in the future will be determined by our board of directors in its sole discretion and will depend on business conditions, our financial condition, earnings and liquidity and other factors. Our ability to declare and pay dividends and make other distributions with respect to our capital stock, including the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock, is restricted by the terms of certain of our existing financing arrangements and may be restricted by the terms of financing arrangements that we enter into in the future. In the event that the agreements governing any such indebtedness restrict our ability to declare and pay dividends in cash on the shares of Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock, we may be unable to declare and pay dividends in cash on the shares of Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock unless we can repay or refinance the amounts outstanding under such agreements.

In addition, under Delaware law, our board of directors may only declare and pay dividends on shares of our capital stock out of our statutory surplus (which is the amount equal to total assets minus total liabilities, in each case at fair market value, minus statutory capital), or if there is no such surplus, out of our net profits for the then current and/or immediately preceding fiscal year. Further, even if we are permitted under our contractual obligations and Delaware law to declare and pay cash dividends on the shares of Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock, we may not have sufficient cash to declare and pay dividends in cash on the shares of Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock.

If upon (i) mandatory conversion, (ii) an early conversion at the option of a holder or (iii) an early conversion upon a fundamental change, we have not declared and paid all or any portion of the accumulated dividends payable on the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock for specified periods, converting holders will receive an additional number of shares of our common stock having a market value generally equal to the amount of such undeclared, accumulated and unpaid dividends, subject to the limitations described under Description of Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock Conversion rights Mandatory conversion, Description of Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock Conversion rights Early conversion at the option of the holder and Description of Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock Conversion rights Early conversion at the option of the holder upon a fundamental change, respectively. In the case of mandatory conversion or conversion upon a fundamental change, if these limits to the adjustment of the conversion rate are reached, we will pay the shortfall in cash if we are legally permitted to do so and not restricted by the terms of our indebtedness at that time. We will not have an obligation to pay the shortfall in cash if these limits to the adjustment of the conversion rate are reached in the case of an early conversion at the option of the holder.

You may be subject to U.S. federal income or withholding tax with respect to the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock even though you do not receive a corresponding cash distribution.

The conversion rate of the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock is subject to adjustment in certain circumstances. See Description of Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock Conversion rights Conversion rate adjustments. If, as a result of an adjustment (or failure to make an adjustment), your proportionate interest in our assets or earnings and profits is increased, you may be deemed to have received for U.S. federal income tax purposes a taxable distribution without the receipt of any cash. In addition, we may make distributions to holders of the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock that are paid in our common stock, and any such distribution would be taxable to the same extent as a cash distribution of the same amount. In these circumstances and possibly others, you, as a holder of Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock, may be subject to U.S. federal income tax even though you have received no cash, thus giving rise to an out-of-pocket expense. If you are a Non-U.S. Holder (as defined in U.S. federal income tax considerations), you may be subject to U.S. federal withholding taxes in connection with such a deemed distribution or distribution payable in shares of our common stock. If a broker or other applicable withholding agent pays any withholding taxes on behalf of a Non-U.S. Holder as a result of a deemed distribution, such withholding agent may set off such payments against cash payments and other distributions otherwise deliverable to the Non-U.S. Holder (or other assets of the Non-U.S. Holder held by such withholding agent). See U.S. federal income tax considerations for a further discussion of U.S. federal income tax considerations with respect to the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock.

Certain rights of the holders of the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock and certain contractual and statutory provisions could delay or prevent an otherwise beneficial takeover or takeover attempt of us and, therefore, the ability of holders of Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock to exercise their rights associated with a potential fundamental change.

Certain rights of the holders of the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock could make it more difficult or more expensive for a third party to acquire us. For example, if a fundamental change were to occur on or prior to June 29, 2018, holders of the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock may have the right to convert their Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock, in whole or in part, at an increased conversion rate and will also be entitled to receive a fundamental change dividend make-whole amount equal to the present value of all remaining dividend payments on their Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock. See Description of Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock Conversion rights Early conversion at the option of the holder upon a fundamental change. These features of the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock could increase the cost of acquiring us or otherwise discourage a third party from acquiring us or removing incumbent management.

In addition, provisions of Delaware law and our Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws (Bylaws), and contracts to which we are a party, could make it more difficult for a third party to acquire control of us or have the effect of discouraging a third party from attempting to acquire control of us. See Description of capital stock in the accompanying prospectus.

An active trading market for the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock does not exist and may not develop.

The Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock is a new issue of securities with no established trading market. We have applied to have the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock listed on the NASDAQ under the symbol FTRPR. Even if the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock is approved for listing on the NASDAQ, such listing does not guarantee that a trading market for the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock will develop or, if a trading market for the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock does develop, the depth or liquidity of that market or the ability of the holders to sell the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock, or to sell the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock at a favorable price.

The trading price of our common stock will directly affect the trading price of the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock.

The trading price of the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock will be directly affected by, among other things, the trading price of our common stock. It is impossible to predict whether the price of our common stock will rise or fall. Our operating results, prospects and economic, financial, political and other factors will affect trading prices of our common stock and the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock, as will future issuances of our common stock. In addition, market conditions can affect the capital markets generally, thereby affecting the price of our common stock. These conditions may include the level of, and fluctuations in, the trading prices of stocks generally and sales of substantial amounts of our common stock in the market after this offering of the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock or the perception that such sales could occur. See The price of our Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock and common stock may be volatile. Accordingly, you may not be able to resell your Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock or our common stock at or above the price at which you purchased or received them.

Additionally, Fluctuations in interest rates may give rise to arbitrage opportunities based upon changes in the relative value of the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock and the common stock underlying the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock. In addition, the issuance of the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock may result in hedging activity by holders of shares of the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock that view such Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock as a more attractive means of equity participation in us than a direct investment in our common stock. This arbitrage and hedging could, in turn, negatively affect the trading prices of the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock and our common stock.

We may issue additional series of preferred stock that rank on a parity with the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock as to dividend payments and liquidation preference and that vote with the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock on most issues on which the preferred stock is permitted to vote, which may negatively affect your investment.

Without giving effect to the shares of Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock that we are offering hereby, we have the authority under our Certificate of Incorporation to issue 50,000,000 shares of preferred stock. Our Certificate of Incorporation does not prohibit us from issuing additional series of preferred stock that would rank on a parity with the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock. The issuance of any such series of preferred stock could have the effect of reducing the amounts available to the holders of the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock in the event of our liquidation. If we do not have sufficient funds to pay dividends on the outstanding Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock and such other series of preferred stock, it would also reduce amounts available to the holders of the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock for the payment of dividends. Except with respect to changes to our Certificate of Incorporation that adversely affect only one series of our preferred stock, the holders of the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock and any other series of preferred stock that we issue vote together, as a class, on the issues on which our preferred stock has the right to vote, including our consolidation or merger with another corporation. The interests of the holders of any other series of preferred stock that we issue may be different from the interests of the holders of the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock.

Shares eligible for future sale may adversely affect our common stock price and the market price of the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock.

Sales of our common stock or other securities (including the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock) in the public or private market, or the perception that these sales may occur, or the conversion of the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock or the payment of dividends on the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock in the form of our common stock, or the perception that such conversions or dividends could occur, could cause the market price of our common stock and thus, the market price of the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock, to decline. This could also impair our ability to raise additional capital through the sale of our equity securities. Under our Certificate of Incorporation, we are authorized to issue up to 1,750,000,000 shares of common stock and 50,000,000 shares of preferred stock and we are authorized to convert our authorized preferred stock (including the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock) into common stock. We cannot predict the size of future issuances of our common stock or other securities or the effect, if any, that the concurrent offering of our common stock and future sales and issuances of our common stock and other securities would have on the market price of our common stock.

The price of our Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock and common stock may be volatile. Accordingly, you may not be able to resell your Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock or our common stock at or above the price at which you purchased or received them.

The trading price of our common stock has fluctuated in the past. The trading price of our common stock and the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock could fluctuate significantly in the future and could be negatively affected in response to various factors, including:

market conditions in the broader stock market in general;

our ability to make investments with attractive risk-adjusted returns; market perception of our current and projected financial condition, potential growth, future earnings and future cash dividends;

announcements we make regarding dividends;

actual or anticipated fluctuations in our quarterly financial and operating results;

additional offerings of our common stock or equity-linked securities;

actions by rating agencies;

short sales of our common stock and the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock;

any decision to pursue a distribution or disposition of a meaningful portion of our assets;

issuance of new or changed securities analysts' reports or recommendations;

market perception or media coverage of us, other similar companies or the outlook of the markets and industries in which we compete;

major reductions in trading volumes on the exchanges on which we operate; legislative or regulatory developments, including changes in the status of our regulatory approvals or licenses;

litigation and governmental investigations; and any decision to pursue a spin-off of a portion of our assets.

These and other factors may cause the market price and demand for our common stock and Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock to fluctuate substantially, which may negatively affect the price or liquidity of our common stock and the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock. If the market price of our common stock declines, you may not realize any return on your investment in the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock and may lose some or all of your investment. When the market price of a stock has been volatile or has decreased significantly in the past, holders of that stock have, at times, instituted securities class action litigation against the company that issued the stock. If any of our stockholders brought a lawsuit against us, we could incur substantial costs defending, settling or paying any resulting judgments related to the lawsuit. Such a lawsuit could also divert the time and attention of our management from our business and hurt our share price.

The Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock may adversely affect the market price of our common stock.

The market price of our common stock is likely to be influenced by the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock. For example, the market price of our common stock could become more volatile and could be depressed by:

investors' anticipation of the potential resale in the market of a substantial number of additional shares of our common stock received upon conversion of the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock;

possible sales of our common stock by investors who view the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock as a more attractive means of equity participation in us than owning shares of our common stock; and hedging or arbitrage trading activity that may develop involving the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock and our common stock.

Future issuances of our shares of common stock could reduce the market price of our shares of common stock and the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock.

In the future we may issue additional securities to raise capital. We may also acquire interests in other companies by using a combination of cash and our common stock or just our common stock. We may also issue securities convertible into our common stock in addition to the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock offered hereby. Any of these events may dilute your ownership interest in our Company and have an adverse impact on the price of our common stock and the price of the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock.

Our shares of common stock will rank junior to the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock and both equity securities will rank junior to all of our consolidated liabilities.

In the event of a bankruptcy, liquidation, dissolution or winding up, our assets will be available to pay obligations on the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock and our common stock only after all of our consolidated liabilities have been paid. In the event of a bankruptcy, liquidation, dissolution or winding up, there may not be sufficient assets remaining, after paying our and our subsidiaries' liabilities, to pay any amounts with respect to the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock and our common stock then outstanding. Additionally, no distribution of our assets may be made to holders of our common stock until we have paid to holders of the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock a liquidation preference equal to $100.00 per share plus accrued and unpaid dividends. We have a significant amount of indebtedness, which amounted to $9.7 billion at March 31, 2015. We expect to incur additional indebtedness to fund the Verizon Transaction. On a pro forma basis to give effect to the Verizon Transaction and the other events described under "Unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information," we would have had $18.6 billion of outstanding indebtedness as of March 31, 2015. We also have access to a $750 million revolving credit facility and may also take on additional long-term debt and working capital lines of credit to meet future financing needs, subject to certain restrictions under the terms of our existing indebtedness.

Certain provisions of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware ("DGCL"), our Certificate of Incorporation and our Bylaws may delay, hinder or prevent a change of control in us, which could have an adverse effect on the market price of our common stock and the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock.

Provisions of the DGCL and our Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws could delay or discourage some transactions involving an actual or potential change in control of us or our management and may limit the ability of our stockholders to remove current management or approve transactions that our stockholders may deem to be in their best interests. These provisions:

authorize our board of directors to establish one or more series of preferred stock, the terms of which can be determined by our board of directors at the time of issuance;

provide an advanced written notice procedure with respect to stockholder proposals and the nomination of candidates for election as directors, other than nominations made by or at the direction of our board of directors or a committee of our board of directors;

state that special meetings of our stockholders may be called by the Chairman of our board of directors or the Chief Executive Officer and must be called on the request in writing or by vote of a majority of our board of directors or on request in writing of stockholders of record owning 50% of the capital stock outstanding and entitled to vote;

allow our directors, and not our stockholders, to fill vacancies on our board of directors, including vacancies resulting from removal or enlargement of our board of directors; and grant our board of directors the authority to amend and repeal our by-laws without a stockholder vote; provided, however, that such authority of our board of directors is subject to the power of the stockholders to change or repeal any by-laws by a majority vote of the stockholders present and represented at any annual meeting or at any special meeting called for such purpose.

These provisions may also make it difficult and expensive for a third party to pursue a tender offer, change in control or takeover attempt of our Company that is opposed by our management or our board of directors. Stockholders who might desire to participate in those types of transactions may not have an opportunity to do so, even if the transaction is favorable to the stockholders. These anti-takeover provisions could substantially impede the ability of public stockholders to benefit from a change in control or change our management or our board of directors and, as a result, may adversely affect the market price of our common stock and the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock and the ability of stockholders to realize any potential change of control premium.

We cannot assure that we will be able to continue paying dividends on our common stock.

On December 11, 2014, our board of directors approved a 5% increase over the 2014 dividend rate in the planned quarterly cash dividend rate, commencing with the dividend for the first quarter of 2015 which equaled $0.105 per share of common stock and was paid on March 31, 2015 to holders of record at the close of business on March 12, 2015. On an annual basis, this plan would increase the dividend from $0.40 to $0.42 per share. On May 5, 2015, we announced that our board of directors declared an equal cash dividend of $0.105 per share of common stock for the second quarter of 2015, payable on June 30, 2015 to holders of record at the close of business on May 28, 2015. Purchasers in this offering will not receive the June 30, 2015 dividend with respect to the securities purchased in this offering. The amount and timing of future dividend payments and our ability to make other distributions is subject to applicable law and will be made at the discretion of our board of directors based on factors such as cash flow and cash requirements, capital expenditure requirements, financial condition and other factors. No dividends will be declared or paid on our common stock unless full cumulative dividends have been paid or set aside for payment on all outstanding Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock for all accrued dividend periods.

We have a significant amount of goodwill and other intangible assets on our balance sheet. If our goodwill or other intangible assets become impaired, we may be required to record a non-cash charge to earnings and reduce our stockholders' equity.

Under GAAP, intangible assets are reviewed for impairment on an annual basis or more frequently whenever events or circumstances indicate that their carrying value may not be recoverable. We monitor relevant circumstances, including general economic conditions, enterprise value EBITDA multiples for other rural ILEC properties, our overall financial performance and the market prices for our common stock, and the potential impact that changes in such circumstances might have on the valuation of our goodwill or other intangible assets. If our goodwill or other intangible assets are determined to be impaired in the future, we may be required to record a non-cash charge to earnings during the period in which the impairment is determined, which would reduce our stockholders' equity.

Table of ContentsRatio of earnings to combined fixed charges and preferred stock dividends

The following table contains our historical consolidated ratio of earnings to combined fixed charges and preferred stock dividends for the periods indicated. For purposes of this ratio, earnings consist of pre-tax income (loss) from continuing operations before income (loss) from equity investees, and after deductions for income attributable to the noncontrolling interest in a partnership, plus fixed charges (except for interest capitalized) and distributed income of equity investees. Fixed charges consist of interest expensed and capitalized, plus the portion of rent expense under operating leases deemed to be representative of interest. We had no preferred securities outstanding during the periods presented. Therefore, the ratio of earnings to combined fixed charges and preferred stock dividends is the same as the ratio of earnings to fixed charges.

We estimate that the net proceeds from the concurrent offering will be approximately $726.50 million (or approximately $799.25 million if the underwriters exercise their option to purchase additional securities in full), after deducting underwriting discounts and commissions and estimated offering expenses. We intend to use the proceeds of this offering along with the proceeds of the concurrent offering to finance a portion of the cash consideration payable in connection with the Verizon Transaction and to pay related fees and expenses. Neither this offering nor the concurrent offering is conditioned on the consummation of the Verizon Transaction, and there can be no assurance that the Verizon Transaction will be consummated on the terms described herein or at all. If the Verizon Transaction is not consummated, we intend to use the proceeds of this offering and the proceeds from the concurrent offering, net of certain fees and expenses and net of the aggregate redemption amount paid in cash if we choose to exercise our acquisition termination option to redeem all of the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock offered hereby, for general corporate purposes, which may include share repurchases, acquisitions or debt repayment.

The designations, powers, preferences and other rights, and the qualifications, limitations and restrictions shall be set forth in a certificate of designations filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware. As of the date of this prospectus supplement, no shares of preferred stock are outstanding. See

The holders of the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock and common stock issued upon conversion of the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock will have no pre-emptive or preferential right to purchase or subscribe to our stock, obligations, warrants or other securities of any class.

The transfer agent, registrar, conversion and dividend disbursing agent for shares of the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock and the transfer agent and registrar for shares of our common stock is Computershare Trust Company, N.A.

Ranking

The Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock, with respect to dividend rights and the rights to distribution of assets upon our liquidation, winding-up or dissolution, will rank:

senior to our common stock and to each other class of capital stock or series of preferred stock established after the original issue date of the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock (which we refer to as the issue date), the terms of which do not expressly provide that such class or series ranks senior to, or on a parity with, the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock as to dividend rights and/or rights to distribution of assets upon our liquidation, dissolution or winding-up (which we refer to collectively as junior stock);

equally with any class of capital stock or series of preferred stock established after the issue date, the terms of which expressly provide that such class or series will rank equally with the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock as to dividend rights and/or rights to distribution of assets upon our liquidation, dissolution or winding-up, in each case without regard to whether dividends accrue cumulatively or non-cumulatively (which we refer to collectively as parity stock);

junior to each class of capital stock or series of preferred stock established after the issue date, the terms of which expressly provide that such class or series will rank senior to the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock as to dividend rights and/or rights to distribution of assets upon our liquidation, dissolution or winding-up; and junior to our existing and future indebtedness and other liabilities (including trade payables).

In addition, the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock, with respect to dividend rights or rights to distribution of assets upon our liquidation, winding-up or dissolution, will be structurally subordinated to existing and future indebtedness of our subsidiaries. As of March 31, 2015, on a pro forma basis to give effect to the Verizon Transaction and the other events described under Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Combined Financial Information, we would have had a total of approximately $18.1 billion of outstanding indebtedness, including long-term debt, short-term debt and long-term financial obligations. See Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Combined Financial Information.

Dividends

Subject to the rights of holders of any class or series of our capital stock ranking senior to the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock with respect to dividends, holders of shares of the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock will be entitled to receive, when, as and if declared by our board of directors or an authorized committee of our board of directors and to the extent lawful, cumulative dividends at an annual rate of 11.125% of the initial liquidation preference of $100.00 per share of Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock (equivalent to $11.125 per year per share). We will pay such dividends in cash, by delivery of shares of our common stock or by delivery of any combination of cash and our common stock, at our election, as described under Method of payment of dividends below. If declared, dividends on the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock will be payable quarterly on the last business day of each of March, June, September and December of each year, commencing on September 30, 2015 and ending on June 29, 2018 (each, a dividend payment date), at such annual rate, and shall accumulate from the most recent date as to which dividends shall have been paid or, if no dividends have been paid, from the issue date of the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock, whether or not in any dividend period or periods there have been funds or stock lawfully available for the payment of such dividends. A dividend period refers to a period commencing on, and including, a dividend payment date (or if no dividend payment date has occurred, commencing on, and including, the issue date), and ending on, and including, the day immediately preceding the next succeeding dividend payment date.

A business day means any day other than a Saturday or Sunday or other day on which commercial banks in New York City are authorized or required by law or executive order to close. Any accumulated and unpaid dividends from any preceding dividend period can be declared and paid on a date determined by the board of directors or an authorized committee of our board of directors in its sole discretion.

Dividends will be payable to holders of record as they appear on our stock register at 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on the 15th calendar day of the month in which such dividend payment falls or such other record date fixed by our board of directors or any duly authorized committee thereof that is not more than 60 nor less than 10 days prior to such dividend payment date, but only to the extent a dividend has been declared to be payable on such dividend payment date (each, a regular record date), except that dividends payable on the mandatory conversion date, as defined below, will be payable to the holders presenting the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock for conversion. The regular record date shall apply regardless of whether it is a business day.

Dividends payable on the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock for each full dividend period will be computed by dividing the annual dividend rate by four. Dividends payable on the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock for any period other than a full dividend period will be based upon the actual number of days elapsed during the period and computed on the basis of a 360-day year consisting of twelve 30-day months. The initial dividend on the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock for the first dividend period, assuming the issue date is June 10, 2015, is expected to be $3.4611 per share (based on the annual dividend rate of 11.125% and an initial liquidation preference of $100.00 per share) and will be payable, if declared, on September 30, 2015 to the holders of record thereof on September 15, 2015. Each subsequent quarterly dividend on the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock, when, as and if declared, will be $2.78125 per share (based on the annual dividend rate of 11.125% and an initial liquidation preference of $100.00 per share). Accumulated dividends on shares of Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock will not bear interest if they are paid subsequent to the applicable dividend payment date.

No dividend will be declared or paid upon, or any sum of cash or number of shares of our common stock set apart for the payment of dividends upon, any outstanding shares of Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock with respect to any dividend period unless all dividends for all preceding dividend periods have been declared and paid, or declared and a sum of cash or number of shares sufficient for the payment thereof has been set apart for the payment of such dividends, upon all outstanding shares of the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock.

No dividend will be paid upon any outstanding shares of Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock unless and until our board of directors, or an authorized committee of our board of directors, declares a dividend payable with respect to the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock. Our ability to declare and pay dividends and make other distributions with respect to our capital stock, including the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock, is restricted by the terms of certain of our existing financing arrangements and may be restricted by the terms of financing arrangements that we enter into in the future. In addition, our ability to declare and pay dividends may be limited by applicable Delaware law. See Risk factors Risks related to our common stock and this offering Our ability to declare and pay dividends on the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock may be limited.

Method of payment of dividends

Subject to the limitations described below, we may pay any declared dividend (or any portion of any declared dividend) on the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock (whether or not for a current dividend period or any prior dividend period), including in connection with the payment of declared and unpaid dividends pursuant to the provisions described under Conversion rights Mandatory conversion, Conversion rights Early conversion at the option of the holder, and Conversion rights Early conversion at the option of the holder upon a fundamental change, determined in our sole discretion:

by delivery of shares of our common stock; or through payment or delivery, as the case may be, of any combination of cash and shares of our common stock; provided that in the case of conversion upon and following a fundamental change that is a reorganization event (as defined below), dividends otherwise payable in shares of our common stock may be paid by delivery of units of exchange property, as described under Recapitalizations, reclassifications and changes of our common stock ; and provided further, that if our board of directors may not lawfully authorize payment of all or any portion of such accumulated and unpaid dividends in cash, it shall authorize payment of such dividends in shares of our common stock or units of exchange property, as the case may be, if lawfully permitted to do so.

We will make each payment of a declared dividend on the shares of Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock in cash, except to the extent we elect to make all or any portion of such payment in shares of our common stock.

We will give the holders of the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock notice of any such election and the portion of such payment that will be made in cash and the portion that will be made in shares of our common stock no later than 10 scheduled trading days (as defined below) prior to the dividend payment date for such dividend; provided that if we do not provide timely notice of this election, we will be deemed to have elected to pay the relevant dividend in cash. If we elect to make any such payment of a declared dividend, or any portion thereof, in shares of our common stock, such shares shall be valued for such purpose, in the case of any dividend payment or portion thereof, at 97% of the average VWAP per share of our common stock over the five consecutive trading day (as defined below) period beginning on and including the seventh scheduled trading day (as defined below) prior to the applicable dividend payment date (the average price).

However, in no event will the number of shares of our common stock delivered in connection with any dividend, including any dividend payable in connection with a conversion, exceed a number equal to the total dividend payment divided by $1.75, which amount represents 35% of the initial price (as defined below), subject to adjustment in a manner inversely proportional to any anti-dilution adjustment to each fixed conversion rate (such dollar amount, as adjusted, the floor price). To the extent that the amount of the dividend exceeds the product of the number of shares of our common stock delivered in connection with such dividend and 97% of the average price, we will, if we are legally able to do so, pay such excess amount in cash.

No fractional shares of our common stock will be delivered to the holders of the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock in payment or partial payment of a dividend. We will instead pay a cash adjustment (computed to the nearest cent) based on the average price with respect to such dividend.

The initial price is $5.00, which equals the last reported sale price of our common stock on June 4, 2015.

To the extent we determine in our reasonable judgement that a shelf registration statement is required in connection with the issuance of, or for resales of, shares of our common stock issued as payment of a dividend on the shares of Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock, to (or by) holders thereof that are not affiliates of ours for purposes of the Securities Act, including dividends paid in connection with a conversion, we will, to the extent such a registration statement is not currently filed and effective, if we determine to issue such shares of common stock, use our commercially reasonable efforts to file and maintain the effectiveness of such a shelf registration statement until the earlier of such time as all such shares of common stock have been resold thereunder and such time as all such shares would be freely tradable without registration. To the extent applicable, we will also use our commercially reasonable efforts to have such shares of common stock qualified or registered under applicable state securities laws, if required, and approved for listing on the NASDAQ Global Select Market (or if shares of our common stock are not listed on the NASDAQ Global Select Market, on the principal other U.S. national or regional securities exchange on which shares of our common stock are then listed).

Definitions

For purposes of this Description of mandatory convertible preferred stock section, the following terms have the meanings set forth below:

Volume weighted average price or VWAP per share of our common stock on any trading day means such price as displayed under the heading Bloomberg VWAP on Bloomberg (or any successor service) page FTR <Equity> AQR (or its equivalent successor if such page is not available) in respect of the period from the scheduled open to 4:00 p.m., New York City time, on such trading day; or, if such price is not available, the volume weighted average price means the market value per share of our common stock on such trading day as determined, using a volume-weighted average method, by a nationally recognized independent investment banking firm retained by us for this purpose. The average VWAP means, for any period, the average of the volume weighted average prices for each trading day in such period.

A trading day is any day on which:

there is no market disruption event (as defined below); and the NASDAQ Global Select Market is open for trading, or, if our common stock (or any other security into which the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock becomes convertible in connection with any reorganization event) is not listed on the NASDAQ Global Select Market, any day on which the principal national securities exchange on which our common stock (or such other security) is listed is open for trading, or, if the common stock (or such other security) is not listed on a national securities exchange, any business day. A trading day only includes those days that have a scheduled closing time of 4:00 p.m., New York City time, or the then standard closing time for regular trading on the relevant exchange or trading system.

A market disruption event means any of the following events:

any suspension of, or limitation imposed on, trading by the relevant exchange or quotation system during any period or periods aggregating one half-hour or longer and whether by reason of movements in price exceeding limits permitted by the relevant exchange or quotation system or otherwise relating to our common stock (or any other security into which the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock becomes convertible in connection with any reorganization event) or in futures or option contracts relating to our common stock (or such other security) on the relevant exchange or quotation system;

any event (other than a failure to open or a closure as described below) that disrupts or impairs the ability of market participants during any period or periods aggregating one half-hour or longer in general to effect transactions in, or obtain market values for, our common stock (or any other security into which the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock becomes convertible in connection with any reorganization event) on the relevant exchange or quotation system or futures or options contracts relating to our common stock (or such other security) on any relevant exchange or quotation system; or the failure to open of one of the exchanges or quotation systems on which futures or options contracts relating to our common stock (or any other security into which the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock becomes convertible in connection with any reorganization event) are traded or the closure of such exchange or quotation system prior to its respective scheduled closing time for the regular trading session on such day (without regard to after-hours or other trading outside the regular trading session hours) unless such earlier closing time is announced by such exchange or quotation system at least one hour prior to the earlier of the actual closing time for the regular trading session on such day and the submission deadline for orders to be entered into such exchange or quotation system for execution at the actual closing time on such day.

For purposes of the first two bullets of the definition of market disruption event above, the relevant exchange or quotation system will be the NASDAQ Global Select Market; provided that if our common stock (or any other security into which the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock becomes convertible in connection with any reorganization event) is not listed on the NASDAQ Global Select Market, such relevant exchange or quotation system will be the principal national securities exchange on which our common stock (or such other security) is listed for trading.

A scheduled trading day is any day that is scheduled to be a trading day, except that if our common stock is not listed on a national securities exchange, scheduled trading day means a business day.

Dividend stopper

So long as any share of Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock remains outstanding:

no dividend or distribution shall be declared or paid on our common stock or any other shares of junior stock, except dividends payable solely in shares of our common stock or other junior stock or rights to acquire same;

no dividend or distribution shall be declared or paid on our parity stock, except as provided below; and no common stock, junior stock or parity stock shall be, directly or indirectly, purchased, redeemed or otherwise acquired for consideration by us or any of our subsidiaries, unless all accumulated and unpaid dividends for all past dividend periods, including the latest completed dividend period, on all outstanding shares of the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock have been or are contemporaneously declared and paid in full (or have been declared and a sufficient sum of cash or number of shares of our common stock for the payment thereof has been set aside for the benefit of the holders of shares of the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock on the applicable record date).

The limitations on distributions described in the immediately preceding paragraph will not apply to:

redemptions, purchases or other acquisitions of shares of our common stock or other junior stock in connection with the administration of any employee benefit plan or other incentive plan, including employment contracts, in the ordinary course of business (including purchases of shares in lieu of tax withholding and purchases of shares to offset the share dilution amount (as defined below) pursuant to a publicly announced repurchase plan); provided that any purchases to offset the share dilution amount shall in no event exceed the share dilution amount;

any dividends or distributions of rights or junior stock in connection with a stockholders' rights plan or any redemption or repurchase of rights pursuant to any stockholders' rights plan;

purchases of ordinary shares or junior stock pursuant to a contractually binding requirement to buy same existing prior to the preceding dividend period;

the acquisition by us or any of our subsidiaries of record ownership in junior stock or parity stock for the beneficial ownership of any other persons (other than for the beneficial ownership by us or any of our subsidiaries), including as trustees or custodians; and the exchange or conversion of junior stock for or into other junior stock or of parity stock for or into other parity stock (with the same or lesser aggregate liquidation preference) or junior stock and, in each case, the payment of cash solely in lieu of fractional shares.

Share dilution amount means the increase in the number of diluted shares outstanding (determined in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States, and as measured from the date of our consolidated financial statements most recently filed with the SEC prior to the issue date) resulting from the grant, vesting or exercise of equity-based compensation to employees, directors or consultants and equitably adjusted for any stock split, stock dividend, reverse stock split, reclassification or similar transaction.

When dividends are not paid (or declared and a sufficient sum of cash or number of shares of our common stock for payment thereof set aside for the benefit of the holders thereof on the applicable record date) on any dividend payment date (or, in the case of parity stock having dividend payment dates different from such dividend payment dates, on a dividend payment date falling within a dividend period related to such dividend payment date) in full upon the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock and any shares of parity stock, all dividends declared on the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock and all such parity stock and payable on such dividend payment date (or, in the case of parity stock having dividend payment dates different from such dividend payment dates, on a dividend payment date falling within a dividend period related to such dividend payment date) shall be declared and paid pro rata so that the respective amounts of such dividends declared shall bear the same ratio to each other as all accumulated and unpaid dividends per share on the shares of the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock and all parity stock payable on such dividend payment date (or, in the case of parity stock having dividend payment dates different from such dividend payment dates, on a dividend payment date falling within a dividend period related to such dividend payment date) (subject to their having been declared by our board of directors or a duly authorized committee of our board of directors out of lawfully available funds and including, in the case of parity stock that bears cumulative dividends, all accrued but unpaid dividends) bear to each other. If our board of directors or a duly authorized committee of our board of directors determines not to pay any dividend or a full dividend on a dividend payment date, we will provide 10 business days written notice to the holders of the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock prior to such dividend payment date, or as reasonably practicable thereafter.

Subject to the foregoing, dividends (payable in cash, securities or other property) as may be determined by our board of directors or any duly authorized committee of our board of directors may be declared and paid on any securities, including our common stock and other junior stock, from time to time out of any funds lawfully available for such payment, and holders of the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock shall not be entitled to participate in any such dividends.

Acquisition termination redemption

We expect to use the net proceeds from this offering in connection with the acquisition of Verizon Communications Inc.'s wireline operations that provide services to residential, commercial and wholesale customers in California, Florida and Texas (the "Verizon Acquisition"), as described under "Summary". Within ten Business Days following the earlier of (a) the date on which an acquisition termination event (as defined below) occurs and (b) 5:00 p.m. (New York City time) on August 6, 2016, if the Verizon Acquisition has not closed on or prior to such time on such date, we will be entitled, but not required, in our sole discretion, to mail a notice of acquisition termination redemption to the holders of the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock (provided that, if the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock are held in book-entry form through DTC we may give such notice in any manner permitted by DTC). If we provide notice of acquisition termination redemption to holders of the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock, then, on the acquisition termination redemption date (as defined below), we will be required to redeem the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock, in whole but not in part, at a redemption amount per share of Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock equal to the acquisition termination make-whole amount (as defined below).

acquisition termination event means either (1) the Verizon Purchase Agreement (as such term is defined under "Summary") is terminated or (2) we determine in our reasonable judgment that the Verizon Acquisition will not occur.

acquisition termination make-whole amount means, for each share of Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock, an amount in cash equal to $100.00 plus accumulated and unpaid dividends to the acquisition termination redemption date (whether or not declared); provided, however, that if the acquisition termination share price (as defined below) exceeds the initial price, the acquisition termination make-whole amount will equal the reference amount (as defined below).

The acquisition termination share price means the average VWAP per share of our common stock over the 10 consecutive trading day period ending on the trading day preceding the date on which we provide notice of acquisition termination redemption.

The reference amount will equal the sum of the following amounts:

(i) a number of shares of our common stock equal to the acquisition termination conversion rate (as defined below); plus

(ii) cash in an amount equal to the acquisition termination dividend amount (as defined below);

provided that we may deliver cash in lieu of all or any portion of the shares of our common stock set forth in clause (i) above, and we may deliver shares of our common stock in lieu of all or any portion of the cash amount set forth in clause (ii) above, in each case, as described below.

acquisition termination conversion rate means a rate equal to the fundamental change conversion rate assuming for such purpose that the date on which we provide notice of acquisition termination redemption is the fundamental change effective date (as defined below) and that the fundamental change share price is the acquisition termination share price.

acquisition termination dividend amount means an amount of cash equal to the sum of (x) the fundamental change dividend make-whole amount and (y) the accumulated dividend amount, assuming in each case, for such purpose that the date on which we provide notice of acquisition termination redemption is the fundamental change effective date.

For a description of the terms fundamental change conversion rate, fundamental change dividend make-whole amount, accumulated dividend amount and fundamental change share price, see Early conversion at the option of the holder upon a fundamental change.

If the acquisition termination share price exceeds the initial price, we may pay cash (computed to the nearest cent) in lieu of delivering all or any portion of the number of shares of our common stock equal to the acquisition termination conversion rate. If we make such an election, we will deliver cash (computed to the nearest cent) in an amount equal to such number of shares of our common stock in respect of which we have made this election multiplied by the acquisition termination market value.

In addition, if the acquisition termination share price exceeds the initial price, we may deliver shares of our common stock in lieu of cash for some or all of the acquisition termination dividend amount. If we make such an election, we will deliver a number of shares of our common stock equal to such portion of the acquisition termination dividend amount to be paid in shares of our common stock divided by the greater of the floor price and 97% of the acquisition termination market value; provided that, if the acquisition termination dividend amount or portion thereof in respect of which shares of our common stock are delivered exceeds the product of such number of shares of our common stock multiplied by 97% of the acquisition termination market value, we will, if we are legally able to do so, declare and pay such excess amount in cash (computed to the nearest cent).

acquisition termination market value means the average VWAP per share of our common stock over the 20 consecutive trading day period commencing on and including the third trading day following the date on which we provide notice of acquisition termination redemption.

acquisition termination redemption date means the date specified by us in our notice of acquisition termination redemption that is not less than 30 nor more than 60 days following the date on which we provide notice of such acquisition termination redemption; provided, that, if (a) the acquisition termination share price is greater than the initial price and (b)(i) we elect to pay cash in lieu of delivering all or any portion of the shares of our common stock equal to the acquisition termination conversion rate, or (ii) we elect to deliver shares of our common stock in lieu of all or any portion of the acquisition termination dividend amount, then the acquisition termination redemption date will be also not earlier than the third business day following the last trading day of the 20 consecutive trading day period used to determine the acquisition termination market value.

The notice of acquisition termination redemption will specify, among other things:

the acquisition termination make-whole amount;

if the acquisition termination share price exceeds the initial price, the number of shares of our common stock and the amount of cash comprising the reference amount per share of Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock (before giving effect to any election to pay or deliver, with respect to each share of Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock, cash in lieu of a number of shares of our common stock equal to the acquisition termination conversion rate or shares of our common stock in lieu of cash in respect of the acquisition termination dividend amount);

if applicable, whether we will deliver cash in lieu of all or any portion of the number of shares of our common stock equal to the acquisition termination conversion rate comprising a portion of the reference amount (specifying, if applicable, the number of such shares of our common stock in respect of which cash will be delivered);

if applicable, whether we will deliver shares of our common stock in lieu of all or any portion of the acquisition termination dividend amount comprising a portion of the reference amount (specifying, if applicable, the percentage of the acquisition termination dividend amount in respect of which shares of our common stock will be delivered in lieu of cash); and the acquisition termination redemption date.

If any portion of the acquisition termination make-whole amount is to be paid in shares of our common stock, no fractional shares of our common stock will be delivered to the holders of the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock. We will instead, to the extent we are legally permitted to do so, pay a cash amount (computed to the nearest cent) to each holder that would otherwise be entitled to a fraction of share of our common stock based on the average VWAP per share of our common stock over the five consecutive trading day period beginning on, and including, the seventh scheduled trading day immediately preceding the acquisition termination redemption date. If more than one share of Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock is to be redeemed from a holder, the number of our shares of common stock issuable in connection with the payment of the reference amount shall be computed on the basis of the aggregate number of Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock so redeemed.

All cash payments to which a holder of the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock are entitled in connection with an acquisition termination redemption will be rounded to the nearest cent.

While we expect to use the net proceeds from this offering in connection with the Verizon Acquisition, there is no guarantee that the acquisition will be consummated and if it is not consummated, we may use the proceeds of the offering for other purposes. We may, in our sole discretion, determine to redeem the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock as further described hereunder. The proceeds of this offering will not be deposited into an escrow account pending any acquisition termination redemption of the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock. Our ability to pay the acquisition termination make-whole amount to holders of the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock in connection with an acquisition termination redemption may be limited by our then-existing financial resources, and sufficient funds may not be available when necessary to make any required purchases of the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock following our election to redeem the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock.

To the extent a shelf registration statement is required in our reasonable judgment in connection with the issuance of or for resales of our shares of common stock issued as payment of any portion of the acquisition termination make-whole amount, we will, to the extent such a shelf registration statement is not currently filed and effective, use our commercially reasonable efforts to file and maintain the effectiveness of such a shelf registration statement until the earlier of such time as all such shares of our common stock have been resold thereunder and such time as all such shares would be freely tradable without registration by holders thereof that are not affiliates of ours for purposes of the Securities Act. To the extent applicable, we will also use our commercially reasonable efforts to have such shares of our common stock qualified or registered under applicable U.S. state securities laws, if required, and approved for listing on the NASDAQ Global Select Market (or if our shares of common stock are not listed on the NASDAQ Global Select Market, on the principal other U.S. national or regional securities exchange on which our shares of common stock are then listed).

Other than pursuant to the acquisition termination redemption provisions described above, the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock will not be redeemable.

Conversion rights

Mandatory conversion

Each outstanding share of the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock will automatically convert on June 29, 2018 (the mandatory conversion date) into a number of shares of our common stock equal to the conversion rate described below, unless such share of the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock has been previously redeemed in the manner described in Acquisition termination redemption or converted in the manner described in Conversion rights Early conversion at the option of the holder or Conversion rights Early conversion at the option of the holder upon a fundamental change; provided that if the mandatory conversion date is not a business day, the mandatory conversion date will be postponed to the following business day and; provided, further, that if the applicable market value (as defined below) is first determinable on a date later than the mandatory conversion date because there are one or more scheduled trading days that are not trading days during the 20 consecutive scheduled trading day period commencing on and including the 22nd scheduled trading day prior to June 29, 2018, the mandatory conversion date will be postponed to such later date.

The conversion rate, which is the number of shares of common stock issuable upon conversion of each share of the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock on the applicable conversion date (excluding shares of common stock, if any, issued in respect of accumulated and unpaid dividends), will be as follows:

if the applicable market value of our common stock is equal to or greater than $5.875, which we refer to as the threshold appreciation price, then the conversion rate will be 17.0213 shares of our common stock per share of Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock (the minimum conversion rate), which is equal to $100.00 divided by the threshold appreciation price;

if the applicable market value of our common stock is less than the threshold appreciation price but greater than $5.00 (i.e., the initial price), then the conversion rate will be equal to $100.00 divided by the applicable market value of our common stock; or if the applicable market value of our common stock is less than or equal to the initial price, then the conversion rate will be 20.0000 shares of common stock per share of Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock, which we refer to as the maximum conversion rate, which is equal to $100.00 divided by the initial price.

We refer to the minimum conversion rate and the maximum conversion rate collectively as the fixed conversion rates.

If prior to the mandatory conversion date we have not declared all or any portion of the accumulated dividends on the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock, the conversion rate will be adjusted so that holders receive an additional number of shares of our common stock equal to the amount of such accumulated dividends (the additional conversion amount) divided by the greater of the floor price and 97% of average price. To the extent that the additional conversion amount exceeds the product of such number of additional shares and the applicable market value, we will, if we are legally able to do so, declare and pay such excess amount in cash pro rata to the holders of the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock.

The applicable market value of our common stock is the average VWAP per share of our common stock for the 20 consecutive trading day period commencing on and including the 22nd scheduled trading day prior to June 29, 2018.

The initial price is $5.00. The threshold appreciation price is $5.875, which represents approximately a 17.50% appreciation over the initial price. Each of the fixed conversion rates, the initial price, the threshold appreciation price and the applicable market value are subject to adjustment as described under Conversion rights Conversion rate adjustments below.

Based on the foregoing, if the market price of our common stock on the mandatory conversion date (subject to postponement as described above) is the same as the applicable market value, the aggregate market value of the shares of our common stock you receive upon mandatory conversion (other than any shares of our common stock received in connection with any dividend payment) will be:

greater than the initial liquidation preference of the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock, if the applicable market value is greater than the threshold appreciation price;

equal to the initial liquidation preference, if the applicable market value is less than or equal to the threshold appreciation price and greater than or equal to the initial price; and less than the initial liquidation preference, if the applicable market value is less than the initial price.

Early conversion at the option of the holder

Holders of the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock will have the right to convert the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock, in whole or in part (but in no event less than one share of Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock), at any time prior to the mandatory conversion date, other than during the fundamental change conversion period (as defined below), into shares of our common stock at the minimum conversion rate of 17.0213 shares of our common stock per share of the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock, subject to adjustment as described under Conversion rights Conversion rate adjustments below.

If, as of the effective date of any early conversion (the early conversion date), we have not declared all or any portion of the accumulated dividends for all dividend periods ending on a dividend payment date prior to such early conversion date, the conversion rate for such early conversion will be adjusted so that holders converting their shares of Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock at such time receive an additional number of shares of our common stock equal to such amount of accumulated and unpaid dividends for such prior dividend periods, divided by the greater of the floor price and the average VWAP per share of our common stock over the 20 consecutive trading day period commencing on and including the 22nd scheduled trading day prior to the early conversion date (the early conversion average price). To the extent that the cash amount of the accumulated and unpaid dividends for prior dividend periods ending on a dividend payment date prior to the relevant early conversion date exceeds the value of the product of the number of additional shares added to the conversion rate and the early conversion average price, we will not have any obligation to pay the shortfall in cash.

Except as described above, upon any optional conversion of any Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock, we will make no payment or allowance for unpaid dividends on such Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock, unless such early conversion date occurs after the record date for a declared dividend and on or prior to the immediately succeeding dividend payment date, in which case such dividend will be paid on such dividend payment date to the holder of record of the converted shares of Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock as of such record date, as described under Dividends above.

Early conversion at the option of the holder upon a fundamental change

If a fundamental change (as defined below) occurs on or prior to the mandatory conversion date, holders of the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock will have the right to:

(1) convert their Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock, in whole or in part (but in no event less than one share of Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock):

(i) into shares of our common stock at the conversion rate determined using the table below (the fundamental change conversion rate); or

(ii) units of exchange property based on the fundamental change conversion rate if the fundamental change also constitutes a reorganization event described under Recapitalizations, reclassifications and changes of our common stock ;

(2) with respect to such converted shares, receive a fundamental change dividend make-whole amount (as defined below) payable in cash or shares of our common stock (or, if applicable, units of exchange property); and

(3) with respect to such converted shares, receive the accumulated dividend amount (as defined below) payable in cash or shares of our common stock (or, if applicable, units of exchange property), subject, in the case of clauses (2) and (3) above, to certain limitations with respect to the number of shares of our common stock that we will be required to deliver, all as described below in Fundamental change dividend make-whole amount and accumulated dividend amount .

Notwithstanding clauses (2) and (3) above, if the effective date of a fundamental change or the relevant fundamental change conversion date falls during a dividend period for which we have declared a dividend on the Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock, we will pay such dividend on the relevant dividend payment date to the holders of record on the immediately preceding record date, as described in Dividends. In such case the accumulated dividend amount will not include the amount of such dividend, and the fundamental change dividend make-whole amount will not include the present value of such dividend.

To exercise this right, holders must submit their Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock for conversion at any time during the period (the fundamental change conversion period) from, and including, the effective date of such fundamental change (as defined below) (the effective date) to, but excluding, the earlier of (x) the mandatory conversion date and (y) the date selected by us that is not less than 30 and not more than 60 days after the effective date (the fundamental change conversion date), at the conversion rate specified in the table below (the fundamental change conversion rate). Holders of Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock who do not submit their shares for conversion during the fundamental change conversion period will not be entitled to convert their Mandatory Convertible Preferred Stock at the fundamental change conversion rate or to receive the fundamental change dividend make-whole amount or, in connection with the fundamental change, the accumulated dividend amount.

We will notify holders, to the extent practicable, at least 20 calendar days prior to the anticipated effective date of such fundamental change, but in any event not later than two business days following our becoming aware of the occurrence of a fundamental change; provided that we will not be required to deliver such notice before such date that we would otherwise be required to deliver notice pursuant to applicable securities laws or the rules of any securities exchange on which shares of our common stock are then traded (the fundamental change company notice). Such fundamental change company notice will state, among other things, whether we have elected to pay all or any portion of accumulated and unpaid dividends in shares of our common stock or units of exchange property, as the case may be, and, if so, the portion thereof (as a percentage) that will be paid in shares of our common stock or units of exchange property.

The exact stock price and effective date may not be set forth in the table, in which case:

if the stock price is between two stock price amounts in the table or the effective date is between two dates in the table, the fundamental change conversion rate will be determined by straight-line interpolation between the fundamental change conversion rates set forth for the higher and lower stock price amounts and the two dates, as applicable, based on a 365-day year;

if the stock price is greater than $20.00 per share (subject to adjustment as described below), then the fundamental change conversion rate will be the minimum conversion rate, subject to adjustment as set forth under Conversion rights Conversion rate adjustments ; and if the stock price is less than $1.50 per share (subject to adjustment as described below) (the minimum stock price), then the fundamental change conversion rate will be determined (x) as if the stock price equaled the minimum stock price and (y) if the effective date is between two dates on the table, using straight-line interpolation, as described herein, subject to adjustment.

The stock price in the fundamental change will equal:

in the case of a fundamental change described in clause (2) below in which the holders of our common stock receive only cash in the fundamental change, the cash amount paid per share of our common stock; and otherwise, the average VWAP per share of our common stock over the five consecutive trading day period ending on, and including, the trading day immediately preceding the effective date of the fundamental change (the fundamental change market value).
