NEW BRAND STATEMENT

The new of today, the norm of tomorrow

DOCOMO has embarked on a new challenge:

connecting the separate elements of daily life

to achieve levels of convenience and enjoyment never seen before.

We call it smart innovation.

Security and peace of mind, health, education, and all the other pleasures that go to make up life

we are proposing optimum connections for each individual, taking the provision of information and enjoyment of life a giant step forward.

To make this a reality, we are supporting innovation across a wide range of businesses.

And beyond this, we are also actively developing novel solutions to the challenges facing society.

This culture of challenge and innovation is deeply rooted at DOCOMO.

For us, however, it's not simply about creating products and services that are new; it's about creating things that, before you know it, become essential or even taken for granted in daily life.

We firmly believe the lifestyles that smart innovation makes possible will become the standard, so deeply ingrained they are hardly noticed.

We envisage a time when the new becomes everybody's taken-for-granted standard, and we are working towards that day with everything at our command.

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

Dear Shareholders:

I am delighted to present this convocation notice for the general shareholders meeting for the 25th fiscal year (from April 1, 2015 to March 31, 2016).

First of all, I would like to extend our deepest condolences and sympathy to all those affected by the 2016 Kumamoto earthquakes. Although there had been a temporary disruption of our mobile communications services in the areas around Kumamoto, we have completely restored services in all areas by April 27, 2016. We pray for the health of the people in the disaster-stricken areas and the earliest possible recovery of the region.

For the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016 (FY2015), we achieved a steadfast recovery in various operational indicators and operating income by addressing the three pillars of expansion of telecommunications services revenues, growth of smart life business and other businesses and cost efficiency improvement, which allowed us to make a huge progress toward the attainment of our medium-term targets.

Positioning the fiscal year ending March 31, 2017 (FY2016) as the year of a vibrant leap for growth beyond recovery, we will manage our business toward the goal of delivering our medium-term targets one year ahead of the original plan by reinforcing the comprehensive strengths of the Company, while concurrently promoting the +d value co-creation initiatives jointly with external partners. Through these efforts, we intend to provide new values to customers as we contribute to bring more affluence to society by providing solutions to pressing social issues

As always, I ask for your continued goodwill and support.

May 2016

The main business activities of our Group are summarized in the table below.

Business Segment	Main Business Areas
Telecommunications business	Cellular (LTE(Xi) and FOMA) services, optical-fiber broadband services, satellite mobile communications services, international services and sales of handsets and equipment for each service, etc.
Smart life business	Services offered through dmarket portal such as distribution of video, music and electronic books, etc., finance/payment services, online shopping service and other life-related services, etc.
Other businesses	Mobile Device Protection Service, commissioned development/sales and maintenance of systems, etc.

(2) Developments and Results of Operations<<Summary of the principal initiative>>

Japan's telecommunications sector has seen a dramatic change in its market structure due to launch of services by a wide range of players following the start of "Hikari Collaboration Model," which is a new wholesale business model for fiber access, the rapid proliferation of smartphones and tablet devices, developments related to the government's pro-competition policy (such as new market entry by Mobile Virtual Network Operators (MVNOs), the obligation to unlock handset SIMs and the proposals by the Ministry of Internal Affairs and Communications "Task Force on Mobile Phone Rates and Other Conditions for Service Offerings" and other factors.

Amid these changes in the market environment, we positioned the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016 as the period to make a solid step forward towards the delivery of our medium-term targets, and we managed our business with a particular focus on our operating income target.

To boost our telecommunications services revenues, we have added new options to the "Kake-hodai & Pake-aeru" new billing plan, implemented various measures to expand the adoption of the docomo Hikari optical-fiber broadband service and continued our efforts to strengthen our communications network and offer attractive handsets.

Meanwhile, we have also strived to add new services to our dmarket marketplace and enrich the content portfolio of our services in a bid to grow our smart life business and other businesses, while promoting further cost efficiency improvements to reinforce our managerial structure.

In addition, we have launched +d value co-creation initiatives, aiming to deliver new values by making available the business assets that we have accumulated through our operations, such as our payment platform and loyalty program, to a large number of external partners. As part of this endeavor, we have rebranded the former docomo Point program into d POINT to offer a point service that is highly convenient and useful for our customers with the aim of expanding the structure of the +d activities.

Table of Contents

As a result of the foregoing, we achieved significant improvement in, among other metrics, operating income and operational performance for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016. Furthermore, we were awarded the No. 1 overall ranking in the 2015 Japan Mobile Phone Service StudySM * conducted by J.D. Power Asia Pacific.

* 2015 Japan Mobile Phone Service Study. Study based on a total of 31,200 responses obtained from mobile phone subscribers in Japan during the survey period in July 2015.

Topics

1 Enrichment of New Billing Plan, Kake-hodai & Pake-aeru

In September 2015, we introduced the Kake-hodai Light plan which allows customers to make unlimited domestic voice calls under five minutes at a flat monthly rate.

In March 2016, we started offering Share Pack 5, a package that allows families with limited data usage to share monthly data allowances of 5GB.

These new options allow customers to more freely select the combination of a basic monthly plan and a Share Pack most suited to their actual voice and data consumption behavior. In the case of a three-member family, for example, by subscribing to the combination of Kake-hodai Light and Share Pack 5, each member of the family can use a smartphone at a cost of less than ¥5,000 a month.

1 Actions to Expand Adoption of docomo Hikari

With respect to the docomo Hikari optical-fiber broadband service we commenced in March 2015, we increased the number of Internet Service Provider (ISP) partners to 23 as of March 31, 2016, compared to 14 upon the launch of service. Thereby we provided customers with greater options and enabled a larger number of users to continue using the same ISP after converting their existing FLET's Hikari subscription contract over to docomo Hikari.

We have also added new services and rate plans catering to the needs of customers, such as docomo Hikari-mini, a two-tier flat-rate plan that offers data speeds of up to 100Mbps, and docomo Hikari Business Wi-Fi, a cloud-based Wi-Fi service for enterprise customers offered together with operational support. As a result of the foregoing, the total number of subscription applications exceeded 1.80 million in the end of March 2016 and the total number of subscriptions to docomo Hikari reached 1.57 million.

To offer a more convenient network service to our customers, we have expanded the coverage of our PREMIUM 4G to 976 cities across Japan as of March 31, 2016. Meanwhile, we also started offering a maximum downlink speed of 300Mbps in selected areas from October 2015.

In addition, we conducted surveys of effective data speeds adhering to the Guidelines for the Effective Speed Measurement Method of Internet Connection Services Provided by Mobile Telecommunications Carriers and Information Providing Method, etc. for Users defined by the Ministry of Internal Affairs and Communications. The results indicated that we offer both high download speeds and high upload speeds (the median (Android + iOS) of our download speeds is 71Mbps and that of our upload speeds is 21Mbps).

1 Operation of Commercial Network Utilizing Virtualization Techniques

The employment of equipment using these techniques from March 2016 allowed us to offer higher quality network services to our customers. The techniques realized better connectivity in cases of network congestion and higher reliability in the event of the failure of facilities.

1 Securing Communications in Disasters, etc.

With the aim of reinforcing our communication capacity in densely populated areas during wide-area disasters or power outages, we moved ahead with the conversion of large-zone base stations to make them compatible with LTE in order to increase the communication capacity by approximately three fold. In addition, we roll out medium-zone base stations across Japan to secure communications in the centers of coastal and mountainous areas.

1 Response to the 2016 Kumamoto Earthquake

After the earthquake on April 14, 2016, communication areas were secured by providing area support through the operation of satellite mobile base station vehicles and medium-zone base stations, and power supply support by operating mobile power-supply vehicles and power and electricity generation equipment. The service area was fully restored on April 27, 2016.

Furthermore, free charging services and free Wi-Fi access points were quickly set up in order to secure communications for disaster-affected customers, and the payment deadlines for charges were extended and accessories such as chargers provided for free as means of supporting customers in Kumamoto, as a region where the Disaster Relief Act applied.

We donated a total of approximately ¥64.5 million to municipalities in the disaster-stricken areas (Sendai City, Miyagi Prefecture, Rikuzen-Takata City, Iwate Prefecture, etc.) and intermediate support groups. Donations were made by approximately 9,400 employees who participated in the Company's recovery support program along with contributions from the Company itself.

In addition, in order to provide psychological support to people who encountered the disaster in Tohoku Japan, we hosted seven sessions of cooking lessons through our subsidiary, ABC Cooking Studio Co., Ltd. The lessons served as an opportunity for participants to communicate with others in the same situation. Furthermore participants were able to enjoy and share time together in watching movies together on dTV via tablet devices.

<< Promotion of Diversity >>

In October 2015, we established DOCOMO PlusHearty, Inc., for the purpose of promoting the employment of people with disabilities. The newly formed company actively hires person with severe disabilities and assigns them tasks such as office cleaning mainly in buildings owned by the Company. In addition, as part of its human resources development program, DOCOMO PlusHearty also undertakes measures aimed at improving the social skills of people with disabilities by introducing the Kumon method of learning.

(8) Issues to be addressed by the Group

We developed our corporate vision for 2020, HEART: Pursuing Smart Innovation to propel further growth and propose new values to society in anticipation of future social changes.

Also, under the banner of becoming a Smart Life Partner for our customers, we tackled the challenge of reinforcing our competitiveness in telecommunications business and stepped up our efforts in the smart life business and other businesses. Furthermore, we unveiled the New Initiatives toward Delivery of Medium-Term Targets on the occasion of the full-year results presentation for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2015.

Initiatives to be Implemented over the Medium Term

In order to respond to our customers' needs on an ongoing basis, by further evolving our relationships with various external partners through open collaboration, we will continue to create new added value by moving forward with our 4d initiatives.

Specifically, we, together with our partners, will roll out initiatives in order to co-create new added value, making available to our partners our own business assets, such as our payment platform and point program. Through these endeavors, we will aim to deliver more benefits, more fun and more convenience to our customers in tandem with our partners.

In addition to creating value for our customers, we will also strive to offer new value to various of our partners. Particularly, in the areas of IoT, Regional Revitalization, 2020, and Solution of Social Issues, we will move forward with the co-creation of social values, creating new services and businesses in collaboration with our partners and utilizing the assets of both parties, with the goal of capturing revenue opportunities in new business fields that transcend the confines of industries or business formats.

FY2016 Priority Initiatives

Positioning FY2016 as the year in which we intend to make a vibrant leap toward further growth beyond income recovery, we will work concurrently on expanding our telecommunications business and reinforcing our smart life business and other businesses.

1 Expansion of Telecommunications Business

In FY2016, we expect a full-scale reexamination of handset prices and tariffs throughout the mobile industry. In light of these expected changes, we will reinforce our focus on families and strengthen our ability to propose comprehensive offerings comprising mobile phones, optical-fiber and other services. In this way, we plan to take the lead in changing the field of competition in the mobile industry.

As part of this endeavor, in March 2016 we introduced new billing plan offerings for light-usage customers, consisting of the new data package Share Pack 5, enabling families to share 5MB of data, and the expansion of the applicability of the Kake-hodai Light voice plan to lower volume data packages. In addition, starting June 2016, we will launch new offerings for long-term users consisting of two new rate options allowing customers to choose subscriptions with or without cancellation fees, increased discounts in the Zutto DOCOMO Wari scheme and the addition of reward points for customers renewing their subscriptions.

We will aim to secure income from telecommunications business through an ARPU increase resulting from expanded adoption of the new billing plan and on-going cost efficiency improvement efforts.

Table of Contents1 Reinforcement of Smart Life Business and Other Businesses

With respect to our smart life business and other businesses, we will work to grow our subscriptions by further enriching the services and content offered on our dmarket marketplace, such as dTV, dhits and dmagazine. We also step up the +d initiatives that we pursue together with our partners for new value creation by combining our finance/payment platforms, point program and other business assets that we have accumulated in our operations with those assets of our partners. We will also work to enhance the attractiveness of our d POINT loyalty point program by increasing the number of participating partners and accelerate the adoption of d ACCOUNT.

Through these undertakings we aim to reach the medium-term target indicators we announced for FY2017, one year ahead of schedule.

(b) Transactions with Parent Company

The Company and NTT have concluded agreements on the content of services and benefits provided by NTT to the Company, and compensation for the same, with respect to basic research and development and group management conducted by NTT. Including such agreements, any material contracts concluded between the Company and NTT are subject to legal review by the Legal Department and auditing by the audit & supervisory board members. In addition particularly important agreements must be approved at meeting of the Board of Directors at which both independent outside directors and independent outside audit & supervisory board members are present.

In addition, as stated in the Note regarding related party transactions in the notes to the Company's non-consolidated financial statements, the Company repurchased treasury stock from NTT. The purchase was made by means of a tender offer providing a certain period for consideration by shareholders other than NTT and the opportunity to apply while monitoring trends in the market price from the perspective of equality between shareholders and transparency of the transaction, and from the standpoint of respecting the interests of the shareholders who do not accept the tender offer and continue to hold our common stock. We also decided to purchase the shares at a certain discount from the market price so as to stem the flow of assets from the Company to the greatest extent possible. Furthermore, from the perspective of avoiding arbitrariness in the process of the Company's decision-making of examining and determining the tender offer, Takashi Nakamura, a director of the Company concurrently serving as an employee of NTT, did not attend meetings of the Board of Directors regarding the examination and resolution of the tender offer; neither was he involved in discussions and negotiations with NTT from the standpoint of the Company. 5. The State of Corporate Governance

(1) Overview of corporate governance structure

In regard to our core telecommunications businesses, we recognize that mobile phones have come to play a vital role as social infrastructure in line with market expansion for these products. Accordingly, we have adopted a corporate governance structure consisting of the Board of Directors, audit & supervisory board members and an Audit & Supervisory Board. This structure reflects a desire for directors to play a key role in important business execution matters, from the standpoint of realizing consistent and stable business operations through the effective utilization of management resources. From the perspective of ensuring sound and efficient management, this configuration also reflects the desire for a structure in which directors, serving concurrently as executive officers responsible for business execution, mutually supervise their respective actions, while audit & supervisory board members perform audits of overall management. Similarly, we appoint outside directors and audit & supervisory board members, with a view to further enhancing monitoring and audit functions.

In addition, we have introduced the executive officer system (27 men and no women currently serve as executive officers and 8 executive officers concurrently hold the post of director) to clearly delineate the roles of business execution and monitoring, and to better reinforce business execution functions. This system enables speedier responsiveness to changes in the operating environment. Through the initiatives mentioned above, we strive constantly to boost management speed in order to realize consistent and stable business operations, as well as develop a corporate governance structure capable of bolstering both auditing and governance functions.

Our business execution and management supervision mechanisms are summarized in the figure below:

Table of Contents

n The State of the Company's Corporate Governance
The Opinion of Independent Outside Director, Teruyasu Murakami:

As the first independent outside director since the ordinary general meeting of shareholders held in 2013, I have played a part in the Company's corporate governance to contribute to the improvement of corporate value and the sustained growth of the Company's business representing the interests of general shareholders. I have a background of 20 years of activities in information and telecommunications and IT strategy at Nomura Research Institute, as well as research on service innovation amassed at the Research Institute for Industrial Strategy. Since being appointed I have endeavored to understand the actual condition of DOCOMO's management and I have developed deeper strategic thinking not only by attending meetings of the Board of Directors, but also by exchanging opinions outside the Board of Directors and actively participating in internal events.

The Company does not limit contact between independent outside directors and the Company to meetings of the Board of Directors, and allows contact that is sufficiently open; indeed I strongly feel that a support structure has been effectively created to enable independent outside directors to provide opinions and suggestions.

Based on this, I have actively offered my opinions in meetings of the Board of Directors to all proposals believed to be important as viewed by an independent outside director. In this process, I have had a sense of the quality of discussion improving year by year as honest and active discussion has been carried out in the Company's Board of Directors. As a result of such discussion, I feel that the opinions of independent outside directors are taken seriously by the Company's Board of Directors, and are appropriately reflected in management.

To improve corporate governance of the Company, which has NTT (a company with a certain number of shares owned by the government) as a parent company, is a challenging issue. I believe it is also a matter of interest for shareholders, and it is my understanding that the Company has responded well to this challenging issue with an accurate response to environmental change and an excellent sense of balance, and the Company's efforts are beginning to have a positive effect on business results.

Management's Responsibility for the non-consolidated Financial Statements and Others

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the non-consolidated financial statements and the supplementary schedules in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in Japan, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of non-consolidated financial statements and the supplementary schedules that are free from material misstatements, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the non-consolidated financial statements and the supplementary schedules based on our audit as independent auditor. We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in Japan. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the non-consolidated financial statements and the supplementary schedules are free from material misstatement.

Table of Contents

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the non-consolidated financial statements and the supplementary schedules. The procedures selected depend on our judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the non-consolidated financial statements and the supplementary schedules, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, we consider internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the non-consolidated financial statements and the supplementary schedules in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, while the objective of the non-consolidated financial statement audit is not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the non-consolidated financial statements and the supplementary schedules.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.
