Item 5.03 Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year

On April 20, 2017 and effective as of the same day, the Board of Directors (the Board) of Twenty-First Century Fox, Inc. (the Company) amended and restated the Company's Amended and Restated By-laws (the By-laws) to clarify certain requirements for director nominations and annual meeting procedures, to reflect changes to Delaware law regarding forum selection and stock certificates, and to make certain other technical changes.

The Board amended Article I, Section 1 of the By-laws to clarify the Company's right to require any proposed nominee for election as a director to furnish information that could be material to a reasonable stockholder's understanding of the nominee's independence. The Board amended Article I, Section 2a of the By-laws to require that the written representation by a director nominee include that the nominee will be in compliance, if elected, and will comply with all policies applicable to directors from time to time, including without limitation governance-related policies, copies of which will be provided by the Company upon written request, in lieu of the previous requirement to comply with only publicly disclosed governance-related policies. In addition, the Board amended Article I, Section 1 to expressly provide that the Board may postpone any previously scheduled annual meeting.

In order to align certain provisions of the By-laws with the Delaware General Corporation Law (the DGCL), the Board amended Article V, Section 1 of the By-laws to permit any two authorized officers to sign stock certificates of the Company and amended Article XI of the By-laws to reflect that the forum selection clause applies to any action as to which the DGCL confers jurisdiction on the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware, and, with respect to any action asserting a claim of breach of fiduciary duty owed by any director, officer or other employee of the Company, to clarify that this refers to any individual currently or formerly serving in such capacity.

Additionally, the Board approved certain procedural and clarifying amendments to the By-laws. The foregoing summary is qualified in its entirety by the full text of the By-laws, as amended and restated, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 3.1 and incorporated herein by reference.
